THE COURT FEES ACT, 1870
AND
THE SUITS VALUATION ACT, 1887
AS AMENDED TO JUNE 1935

IMPORTANT WORK BY THE SAME AUTHOR

M. N. BASU'S

INDIAN STAMP (AMENDED) ACT

With All Local & Imperial Amendments.

4th Edition, 1933.

The most comprehensive Edition. With critical commentaries, exhaustive case-law of all High Courts and Chief Courts to date, Local Amendment Acts, of all provinces, Old Stamp Acts of 1860, 1862, 1869 and 1879, Old Regulations, New Rules, Comparative Tables, etc., etc.—not to be found in any other edition. Highly reviewed by every law journal.

SAYS THE C. W. N., DATED 24TH MAY, 1926 ON THE Second Edition.—"That the very first edition of a book should have been exhausted within the space of about a year, and a second edition placed in the market within fourteen months cannot be due to accident. The facts bears eloquent testimony and only to the excellence of the author's work but also to his unwearied industry. There are several factors which go to ensure the popularity of a commentary like the one under notice. The rules and the reported decisions should be brought strictly up-to-date. The present edition which was published in February last incorporates all the decisions reported up to the end of January 1926 and all rules promulgated up-to-date. The notes and commentaries must be so classified and arranged that they may be available for ready reference with the least trouble and expenditure of time. This requirement Mr. Basu's book fulfils in the completest manner. It is hardly necessary to say that the recent provincial amendments are duly embodied in the volume as also the texts of the superseded enactments from the earliest times. The book is handy and excellently got-up. A statement of repeals and amendments, Comparatively tables and carefully prepared alphabetical list of cases and subject-index, in fact everything one would expect from a conscientious worker like Mr. Basu, go to make it as complete a book of reference on the law of non-judicial stamp duties as one may desire."

PREFACE TO THE SIXTH EDITION

My thanks are due to the profession for the appreciation shown to the previous editions of this book. The contemplated amendments by the Provincial Legislatures deterred me from taking up a revision of this work earlier.

In this edition I have discussed many new topics not included in the previous editions and many portions have been re-written. The case-laws reported up to date have been incorporated. In arranging the case laws I have kept in view the needs of a busy practitioner. The guiding principle is that the prayers in the plaints must always be looked to in assessing court-fees and I have noted the rulings with reference to the same.

Since the publication of the last edition financial conditions have obliged some Provincial Legislatures to amend the Court Fees Act, 1870. The Bombay Legislature, the U. P. Legislature and the C. P. Legislature have each made extensive amendments. The Bombay amendment expires on 31st March, 1936, and the U. P. amendment in June 1936. The C. P. Amendment which came into force from the 1st July 1935 remains in force till March 1943. The Bengal Amendment Act, XI of 1935, remains in force for three years from the 1st June 1935, so far as the increased duties on Probates and Succession Certificates are concerned. The Bengal Amendment Act (VII of 1935) was designed to remedy evasions of duty.

I have incorporated the principal features of the amendments in the body of the original Act and have also printed the Amending Acts separately. So, in construing the provisions of the Act, reference may be made to the actual language used by the Legislature.

HIGH COURT,

M. N. BASU.

Calcutta, 11th July, 1935.

PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION

I am grateful to the legal profession for the kind appreciation shown to this book.

The delay in bringing out the Second Edition is due to my want of time. I have thoroughly revised the book with special care and have remedied all the defects. The Amending Acts of all the Provinces have been incorporated.

The extent of difficulty in reconciling the various interpretations will appear from the following observations of the Patna High Court in the Full Bench Case of Krishna Mohan Singha v. Raghunandan Panday, I. L. R. 4 Patna Series 336 at page 349, where the learned Chief Justice said "the wording of this Act is in some respects certainly unscientific and difficult to interpret and its interpretation has been the subject of a multitude of decisions in the Courts."

The case-law up to end of June 1925 has been incorporated and the rules have been brought up to date.

HIGH COURT,

M. N. BASU.

Calcutta, 15th July, 1925.

PREFACE TO THE FIRST EDITION

In this little book I have attempted not merely to explain the various sections of the Acts in the light of the decisions of the High Courts, but also to reconcile the decisions of the several High Courts wherever they appear to be conflicting. How far I have succeeded it will be for the profession to judge.

For facility of reference I have divided the topics under various headings and sub-headings. Topics like method of valuation of suits to be instituted in Courts, Death Duties, the apparent conflict between valuation under the Suits Valuation Act and that under the Court Fees Act have been discussed with special care.

The latest amendments made by the various provinces up to date have been noted in their proper places, and all the Amendment Acts with complete Schedules printed at the end of the book. The recent amendment of the Legislature of Section 4 of the Court Fees Act, 1870, by Act XIX of 1922, which received the assent of the Governor-General on the 3rd October, 1922, has also been incorporated.

The case-law has been noted up to end of October, 1922, and having regard to the importance of the Rules, I have incorporated the Revised Rules of the Government of India and of the several Provinces and High Courts.

My thanks are due to Mr. I. N. De, M.A., B.L., Vakil, who materially assisted me in passing the book through the press.

I will consider myself highly rewarded if this book proves useful to those for whom it is intended.

HIGH COURT,

M. N. BASU.

Calcutta, 15th November, 1922.

INTRODUCTION

History:—From the earliest times, even under the Hindu Law, attempts have been made to put down false and vexatious litigation by making parties in fault pay a fine to the King. A successful suitor was made liable to pay something to the King evidently as a compensation for the expense the State had to incur in paying the judicial officers. Although more modern writers have urged abolition of taxation of litigation there is much that can be said in favour of its retention.

During the earliest years of British rule there was no tax upon litigation in India. The result was that the number of false and vexatious suits went on increasing year after year. To remedy this evil, Regulations imposing taxes on litigation were passed in the several Presidencies.

In Bengal, Bengal Regulation XXXVIII of 1795 was passed imposing an institution fee in civil suits. This institution fee was converted into stamp duties by Ben. Reg. VI of 1797. Ben. Reg. X of 1797 imposed duties on criminal suits, and II of 1798 on applications for review. These Regulations were repealed by Reg. I of 1814, which was followed by Regs. XXVI of 1814, IV of 1817, XV of 1816, XIV of 1824, and II of 1825. All these Regulations were repealed by Ben. Reg. X of 1829 which consolidated the law in Bengal. Ben. Reg. VIII of 1831 imposed duties on suits for realisation of rent, and Reg. XV of 1845 exempted Indian officers and soldiers from payment of stamp duty.

In Bombay, the earliest Regulation was Bombay Regulation VIII of 1802 which was followed by Bombay Regulations XIV of 1815, VII of 1816, IV of 1817. These were all repealed by Bombay Regulation I of 1827 which was replaced by Bom. Reg. XVIII of 1827.

In Madras, the earliest Regulation was Madras Regulation III of 1782. This was followed by Mad. Reg. IV of 1808, V of 1808, VIII of 1808, XVIII of 1808, II of 1816, II of 1817 and VI of 1817.

All these Regulations of the different provinces were amalgamated into one Act XXXVI of 1860, which for the first time enacted the law for the whole of British India. This was followed by Act X of 1862, Act XI of 1863, Act X of 1865, Act XVIII of 1865 and Act XXVI of 1867 which made some documents documents hitherto exempt, liable to stamp duty.

Act XXVI of 1867 was repealed by the Court Fees Act VII of 1870 which again was modified in the same year by Act XVII of 1870. Several additions were made to the Act VII of 1870, by subsequent amendments.

By the Devolution Act (XXXVIII of 1920), the various Provinces have been empowered to fix their court-fees in their respective Provinces. In accordance with this Act, several amendments to the Act VII of 1870 have been made by the different provinces in 1922, 1923 and 1926, and later years.

The purpose of all those Acts is the same, viz., to secure revenues to the State, but in doing so, they do not 'arm a litigant with a weapon of technically against his opponent.' (43 Bom. 507 P.C.).

Need for Amendment:—The sections deal with separate topics and are ambiguous when taken in connection with other sections. The reason being that the Act was amended piecemeal and no attempt has been made to keep the amendments in conformity with the amendments of other Acts.

In the case reported in 18 C. L. J., 308 at page 316, Mr. Justice Mookerjee said: "The question raised is of considerable nicety and by no means free from difficulty which is attributable to the fact that the Court Fees Act has been amended piecemeal from time to time," and his Lordship said again at p. 317, "the mode of interpretation of a Statute like the Court Fees Act, which has been repeatedly amended is not to consider the individual sections, but to take them as a whole and to give effect to the legislative intent upon a particular matter."

In Chuni Lal v. Sheo Charan Lal Lalman, 47 All. 756 at p. 759, the Allahabad High Court said: "The difficulty is really due to the circumstance that the amendments of the Court Fees Act have not kept pace with the amendments of the Code of Civil Procedure. In 1870, when the Court Fees Act was passed, Act No. VIII of 1859 as amended by the Act of 1860, was in force. Under those Acts there was no such thing as a preliminary decree distinct and separate from a final decree."

In Krishna Mohan Singh v. Raghunandan Panday, F. B., 1 L. R. 4 Patna 336 at page 349 the learned Chief Justice said: "the wording of this Act is in some respect certainly unscientific and difficult to interpret and its interpretation has been the subject of a multitude of decisions in the Courts."

S. 11 of the Court Fees Act still refers to mesne profits to be ascertained in execution proceedings which is contrary to the provisions of Ord. 20, Rule 12, C. P. C.

Sch. II, Art. 11, also requires modification in view of modifications in other Statutes.

Scheme of the Act:—The Court Fees Act deals with documents to be filed before the Civil and Revenue Courts and fees payable on certain documents to be filed before Criminal Courts and certain other offices specified in First and Second Schedules to the Act.

The Act has no application to cases filed before the High Courts in their "Original Side" and before the Presidency Small Cause Courts, for which fees are prescribed by the rules framed by them under powers and also does not apply to settlement cases under s. 105, 106 of the Bengal Tenancy Act.

The Courts Fees Act by enacting ss. 4 and 6 prohibits documents specified in the first and second schedules to the Act from being filed, exhibited, recorded or received in any Court of Justice without being properly stamped. This means that the documents are to bear proper fees before those are filed, exhibited or recorded in the Courts. The documents are to bear court-fee stamps and should not be stamped with non-judicial stamps, and if they are so stamped, they should be deemed unstamped.

There is no clear provision in the Court Fees Act as to what would happen in case a document so filed, exhibited or recored in a Court to found to bear insufficient court-fees. S. 28, sub-section 1, merely provides that a document will not be of any validity unless it is properly stamped. There is no provision for its rejection forthwith.

It should be borne in mind that a document insufficiently stamped is not a nullity—Faizullah Khan v. Mauladad, 10 Lah. 737 (743) P.C.

The Civil Courts remedy such defects by having recourse to the provisions of Ord. 7, Rule 11, read with S. 149 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The Code of Civil Procedure enjoins on the Courts to grant time and if the party so ordered to make up the deficiency fail to do so within the time allowed the document in question is to be rejected. The Courts must allow time but the length of the time allowed for compliance with the order is no doubt in the discretion of the Court. The Courts may pass the order on discovery of the insufficiency at any stage of the suit. The order must be made while the case is pending otherwise the deficiency cannot be recovered as after the disposal of the case the Court is functus officio.

[The Bengal Amendment Act provides that these may be recovered as a public demand.]

As the Court Fees Act is a fiscal enactment and the subject cannot be charged without express provision of the law, the kinds of documents enumerated in the first and the second Schedules should be deemed exhaustive.

The documents exempted from duty are enumerated in s. 19 of the Court Fees Act, but the documents there set out are not exhaustive. Any document not coming within the list of documents in the first and the second Schedules is also exempt from taxation.

S. 7 indicates the method of computation of fees. Each of the paragraph begins with the word suit, but it should not be considered because that word is used, the memoranda of appeal are excluded from the operations of s. 7. For instance, in a suit for possession of a revenue paying permanently settled estate, the Court fees are to be calculated at ten times the revenue payable as recorded in the Collector's register. The same method of calculation is followed in calculating the fee payable on the memorandum of appeal. The amount of ad valorem fees is to be ascertained by reference to Sch. I, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act which again indicates that the rates of fees prescribed are to be calculated on the value or amount of the subject-matter in dispute. There the words amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute must mean the same thing as prescribed in s. 7. A reference to s. 7, Paragraph IV will make this clear. There although the word suit is used, the words memorandum of appeal are also used at the end of the paragraph. Although in some cases, for example in suits or appeal relating to redemption, the Allahabad and the Madras High Courts have differed from other High Court in demanding ad valorem court-fees on the decretal amount in an appeal arising out of a redemption suit. They interpret the word "suit" in s. 7, ix meaning a suit and not an appeal.

Sec. 7 further provides in paragraphs V (a), (b), (c), VI, VII, VIII, IX, X, XI a method of valuation for the purpose of assessing court-fees. The valuation for the purposes of court-fee is determined in those classes of suits by reference to s. 7 and the amount of Court Fees payable is then determined by reference to Sch. I, Article 1, and the table of rates (framed in accordance with Sch. I, Art. 1) and the amount thus ascertained is paid on the plaint or the memorandum of appeal, etc.

The question of valuation has been dealt with at length under s. 7 in the body of the book.

S. 7, paragraph 1, deals with claims for money which can be ascertained at the time of presenting the plaint. These include claims on mortgages, mesne profits, promissory notes, compensation and claims for past periodical payments due but not paid such as past claims for maintenance etc.

S. 7, paragraph II refers to suits for realization of annuities etc. to which a right to obtain relief is to be established and the Act requires that ad valorem Court Fees calculated on ten times the annual claim are to be paid.

S. 7, paragraph III refers to movable property having a market value.

S. 7, paragraph IV (a) refers to movable property having no market value.

Cl. (b) of the same paragraph refers to suits for enforcing a right to share in the joint family property. The clause does not apply if there had been a disruption of the joint family.

Cl. (c) refers to suits for declaration with a consequential relief (and most of the suits fall under this section).

Cl. (d) refers to a suit to allow an injunction.

Cl. (e) refers to suits for benefits arising out of land such as easements etc.

Cl. (f) refers to suits for account but it must be noted that it has been held that merely because books of accounts are to be examined, such examination and determination of the amount in claim based on such examination does not bring a suit for money under this clause.

The concluding words of the paragraph allow court-fees to be paid on the valuation by the plaintiff and the plaintiff is required to state that valuation, and on this point all the High Courts are divided as to whether it is the valuation by the plaintiff—whatever that value may be—or a reasonable valuation, the Courts having power to revise the valuation. All these cases have been noticed in their proper places under S. 7.

The power of Court to revise the valuation is embodied in Ord. 7, Rules 10 & 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure and is independent of the Court Fees Act. Such power cannot be controlled by any provision of the Court Fees Act. Then S. 12 of the Court Fees Act empowers a Court to decide every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining any fee chargeable under Chapter III, which also contains S. 7. It cannot, therefore, be said that the valuation by the plaintiff is the sole criterion of determining the amount of stamp in cases coming within s. 7, para. iv, although in several cases the High Courts in India have held that the valuation by the plaintiff is to be accepted. (See In the matter of Kali Pado Mukherji, 34 C.W.N. 870). [The Bengal Amendment Act (VII of 1935) provides for revision of valuation.]

It should be further noted that the provisions of s. 7, paragraph iv of the Court Fees Act read with s. 8 of the Suits Valuation Act do not entitle a plaintiff or an appellant to put one valuation for the purpose of court-fees and another or a higher valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction. The valuations must be the same.

S. 7, paragraph v deals with recovery of possession of immoveable property. It is mainly divided into permanently settled estates and temporarily settled estates. As to the former the court-fees are payable ad valorem 10 times the Government Revenue and as to the latter on five times the Government Revenue.

Suits for recovery of possession of estates for which no revenue is payable or have been partially exempted from payment of revenue are governed by cl. (c) and court-fees are payable on fifteen times the nett profits or where no nett profits have accrued on such value as the Court shall fix with reference to the neighbouring lands.

Clause (d) relate to land not forming part of a definite share of a revenue paying estate and clause (e) refers to houses or gardens. Both those clauses present no difficulty as court-fees are payable ad valorem on the market value of the property in suit.

S. 7, paragraph vi relates to pre-emption and the court-fees are assessable as in paragraph v.

The Courts are empowered to investigate the net profits or the market value of any such land, house or garden as is mentioned in s. 7, paragraphs 5 and 6 by issue of a commission under s. 9 to a proper person by directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary and s. 10 empowers the Court to dismiss the suit if it be found that the court-fees already paid are insufficient and the party on demand fails to make up the deficiency.

No case yet reported has come under s. 7, paragraph vii and as to paragraph viii, some cases do come under it according to Allahabad, Bombay and Madras High Courts.

Paragraph IX relates to suits for redemption, foreclosure and mortgages by conditional sales. The Court Fees are payable ad valorem on the principal money expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage. As to the appeal there is a difference of opinion whether the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped ad valorem on the amount of the money found to be payable or the principal amount expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage.

Paragraph X relates to specific performance of contract of sale, mortgage or to lease and of an award, the valuation for court-fees being according to the method indicated.

Paragraph XI relates to suits between landlord and tenant regarding possession of land, the suit having relation to the special cases mentioned and special method of valuation has been provided for these suits, the valuation for jurisdiction and the court-fees being the same under sec. 8 of the Suits Valuation Act.

Under S. 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, the valuation of suits referred to in S. 7, paragraphs I, II, III, IV, VII, VIII paragraph X (a), (b), (c) and paragraph XI for jurisdiction the court-fees shall be the same.

S. 8 of the Court Fees Act refers to appeals arising out of Land Acquisition cases. Since the amendment of the Land Acquisition Act by Act XIX of 1921 every order is a decree and Sch. I, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act applies, and ad valorem court-fees are payable on the amount in claim.

In assessing the court-fees a further fact is to be borne in view, viz., whether the suit (or appeal) embraces two or more distinct subjects which words have been interpreted to mean distinct causes of action. For example in suing upon two promissory notes or on two mortgages, the duty is to be assessed on the amount due on each (Vide s. 17). A suit for possession with mesne profits form one cause of action.

In case of reliefs claimed in the alternative the value of the larger of the reliefs determines the amount of the court-fees payable.

The determination of court-fees payable on a memorandum of appeal depends on the fact whether the appeal is from a decree or order.

If from a decree then, if the memorandum does not come under any of the Articles in Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, ad valorem court-fee is payable.

A memornadum of appeal from a decree passed under s. 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure, is to be stamped as a memorandum of appeal from order under the Notification of the Government of each Province whereby the fee is reduced to a fee as leviable under Sch. II, Art. 11.

A memorandum of appeal from an order not having the force of a decree comes within the provisions of Art. 11 of the second Schedule.

There are some cases, viz., accounts and claims for mesne profits, the amount of which cannot be ascertained by the plaintiff at the time of filing the plaint. The Code of Civil Procedure allows the plaintiff (vide Order 7, Rule 2) to make an approximate valuation and to pay ad valorem court-fees thereon. After the final decree the balance of the court-fees is demanded by the Court and paid by the successful plaintiff under s. 11 of the Court Fees Act. In case of failure, the claim for the excess amount found to be due is, of course, dismissed.

S. 12 deals with decisions of questions as to valuation of suits. The section enacts that every question relating to valuation in a plaint or memorandum for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under Chapter III (please note that s. 7 is also within this Chapter), shall be decided by the Court and such decision shall be final as between the parties.

This has been construed to mean that the decision is final as to amount but not as to category under which the particular plaint or memorandum of appeal falls.

The second sub-section expressly authorizes the Court of appeal, reference or revision, to require a party when it considers such a question has been determined to the detriment of revenue to make up the insufficiency and in case of failure to pay, the provisions of s. 10 shall apply i.e., the suit is to be dismissed without option.

In this connection it is proper to consider the provisions of s. 28 which empowers a higher Court to realize court-fees on a document which have been through mistake or inadvertence filed or used in any office without being properly stamped. Then the higher Court can demand the insufficient court-fee to be paid.

But deficit court-fees can only be realized by a Court while disposed of. [But see the B. C. Act VII of 1935 who allows levy of such court-fees as a public demand.]

Refunds.—So far I have indicated the sections for the realization of court-fees. I now proceed to consider the provisions for refund of court-fees. The main section for refund is s. 13 of the Court Fees Act. This section authorizes refund of court-fees in cases where the suit was disposed of on a preliminary point and such decision was reversed on appeal; in such cases the appellate Court is to order refund of court-fees, paid on the memorandum of appeal presented to the appeal Court. The reason possibly being that it is not fair to charge court-fees which had to be paid owing to the mistake of a Court. Court-fees are also refunded when the plaintiff or the appellant through mistake has overpaid the court-fees on a plaint or a memorandum. This is done under the inherent powers of Court to do justice under s. 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The reason possibly being that the Government is not entitled to it under the Court Fees Act.

Refund of fees are also made where too high a court-fee has been paid in Probates or Letters of Administration or Certificate of Administration under s. 19A of the Court Fees Act and in the manner provided by that section.

S. 14 authorizes a Court to grant refunds of court-fees on applications for review presented on or after the 90th day of so much of the fees paid on the application as exceeds the fee which would have been payable had it been presented before the 90th day, i.e., up to half the amount of court-fees payable.

Under s. 15 refunds are allowed on an application for review when the Court modifies its decision on the ground of mistake.

Refunds of court-fees cannot be allowed when the case is compromised or remanded on grounds other than those provided in Or. 41, Rule 23 of the Code of Civil Procedure and where the case has been remanded in part, the appellant is only entitled to a refund of the corresponding portion. A refund order to be made by an appeal Court under Ord. 41, Rule 23, C. P. C. will have to be paid back if on a further appeal the higher Court reverses the remanding order of the lower appellate Court.

Refunds may be made on a rejection of plaint as insufficiently stamped.

Sale fees and other fees are refunded if the sale be set aside by Court but not in cases where the sale is set aside on account of fraud on th part of the decree-holder, and these refunds are made under rules framed by each High Court.

In all cases of refund the amount of money for the full fee is to be paid back.

Distinct Subjects.—S. 17 deals with suits embracing two or more distinct subjects in the plaint or memorandum of appeal, the words distinct subjects have been construed to mean distinct causes of action, but it should not be construed to mean that whenever two or more claims are coupled together the fees are to be calculated separately. The cases where the fees are to be calculated separately have been indicated under s. 17.

Sec. 19 deals with documents which are exempted from taxation, but this is by no means an exhaustive list. It should be noted that ss. 4 and 6 make documents mentioned in Schedules I and II chargeable with court-fees, therefore documents not included in these Schedules are not chargeable with fees although these may not be included in s. 19.

Duties on probates, etc.

Chapter IIIA i.e., Secs. 19A, 19B, 19C, 19D, 19E, 19F, 19G, 19H, 19I, 19J, relates to probate proceedings and the enquiry as to valuation of properties of the deceased including penalties to be paid in the case of under-valuation or of neglect to pay soon after the discovery of under-valuation.

Sch. I, Art. 11 prescribes the duty payable on a probate or letter of administration.

Criminal Courts.—S. 18 indicates the fees payable on complaints before Criminal Courts.

When a complaint is filed before a Criminal Court the application or petition is to bear stamp under Schedule II, Art. 2 (b) of the Court Fees Act.

S. 31 which is at present S. 546A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, authorizes a Criminal Court or a Court of Criminal appeal to pass orders for payment of compensation to the complainant as regards fees paid by him in addition to other penalties imposed.

Fees for serving and executing process issued by Criminal Courts, in case of offences other than offences for which a police officer may arrest without a warrant are governed by rules made by the High Court under s. 20 (ii) of the Court Fees Act. Such rules have the force of law on being published in the Local Official Gazette.

Revenue Courts.—The Court Fees Act is not applicable to applications under s. 105, B. T. Act but the fees are governed by notification issued by the Government.

The applications to Revenue Courts are to bear fees mentioned in Sch. II, Art. 1, cl. (a) and (b) of the Court Fees Act.

Art. 17, clause (i) of the second Schedule applies to summary orders of Revenue Courts.

Fees for Revenue Courts for serving and executing processes are governed by rules framed by High Courts which rules on being published in the Local Official Gazette have the force of law.

Process fees.—S. 20 deals with fees on processes issued by Civil Courts. The processes include serving fees, sale fees, etc.

Ss. 22 and 23 deals with number of peons to be employed.

Collection of fees.—S. 25 requires that all the fees are to be paid by court-fee stamps.

Use of stamps.—Ss. 26 and 27 empowers the Local Government to frame rules as to the number of adhesive and impressed stamps to be used in denoting duty and also to frame rules as to the supply and renewal of stamps and keeping accounts of stamps. The number of stamps to be used is governed by rules under these sections.

Fees not paid in the lower Courts.—S. 28 refers to realization of fees on documents filed in the lower Court which was through mistake or inadvertence filed or exhibited in the lower Courts with insufficient court-fees. S. 12, cl. ii also empowers the higher Courts to realise deficiency in the lower Courts.

S. 29 refers to stamps on amended documents in cases specified.

Cancellation and sale of stamp.—S. 30 refers to cancellation of stamps.

S. 34 empowers the Local Government to make rules regulating the sale of stamps.

S. 35 authorizes the Local Government to reduce the Court fees payable on a document. Rules as to reduction and remission are framed under this section and set out in the Appendices.

The Schedules are divided into two parts one for ad valorem and the other for fixed fees. It is important to remember that heading of a group of sections do not control the body of the section. Therefore in calculating the fees payable on applications for review, half fees are to be charged irrespective of the Schedule under which the document in question is to be charged.

The first Schedule contains fees on applications for review, fees payable on applications to High Courts at Lahore and Rangoon and deals with ad valorem fees.

The second Schedule prescribes fees payable on application to Civil, Criminal and Revenue Courts to and various public offices; application and appeal to sue as pauper and to plaints in special Courts, bailbonds and other instruments of obligation. It also deals with applications and appeals under the Divorce Acts. It prescribes fees (Art. 11) on appeals from orders to specified Courts or offices and provides for fees on caveat. It also enacts that certain classes of suits or memoranda of appeal are to bear fixed fees.

Questions under Sch. II, paragraph 17 and Ord. 36, rule 1, are dealt with under Art. 18 and 19 of the 2nd Schedule to the Court Fees Act.

THE COURT FEES ACT.

[11th March, 1870].

[As modified up to June, 1935.]

CHAPTER I. PRELIMINARY.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Court Fees Act, 1870.

Extent of Act.

It extends to the whole of British India;

Commencement of Act.

And it shall come into force on the first day of April, 1870.

NOTES.

Local Amendments.—This Act has been amended in Bengal by B. C. Acts IV and II of 1922 and Acts VII and XI of 1935; in Bihar and Orissa by B. and O. Act I of 1922; in Bombay by Bombay Act II of 1932; in Madras by Madras Act V of 1922; in the Punjab by the Punjab Courts Act, 1884 (18 of 1884), s. 71, Punjab and N. W. Code and Punjab Act VII of 1922 as amended by Punjab Acts I and VI of 1926; in Assam by the Assam Act III of 1932; in the U. P. by the U. P. Act III of 1932 and also in C. P. S. 4 was amended by Act XIX of 1922.

The Act has been amended in Upper Burma by the Upper Burma Civil Courts Regulation, 1896 (I of 1896), s. 36 as amended by the Upper Burma Civil Courts (Amendment) Regulation, 1903 (5 of 1903), Bur. Code; in Lower Burma by the Lower Burma Courts Act, 1900 (6 of 1900), s. 47, Burma Acts XI of 1922 and III of 1926.

The power to amend for each Province has been provided by the Devolution Act XXXVIII of 1920.

Preamble.—This Act has no preamble whereby its purposes can be ascertained, Gavaranga v. Batakrishna, 32 Mad. 305: 6 M.L.T. 129: 19 M.L.J. 340: 4 I.C. 503.

Objects and Reasons.—For the Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gazette of India, 1869, Pt. V, p. 57; and for Proceedings in Council, see ibid, 1869, Supplement, pp. 1179 and 1452; Ibid, 1870, Supplement, pp. 52, 378, 421, 427, and 434.

Object.—"The Court Fees Act, 1870, was, as its name imports, an Act primarily passed for the purpose of prescribing the fees which are to be paid in respect of documents to be used in Courts. It also provides in the schedules for the stamps to be used in certain offices other than offices of Courts of Justice." Balkaran Rai v. Gobindanath Tewary, 12 All. 129 F.B.: 10 A.W.N. 39.

The object of the Act is to lay down rules for the collection of one form of taxation, and this is regarded to be the scope of the enactment, Muhammad Salim v. Nabian Bibi, 8 All. 282 (289).

"The Courts Fees Act was passed not to arm a litigant with a weapon of technicality against his opponent, but to secure revenue for the benefit of the state. This is evident from the character of the Act, and is brought out by section 12, which makes the decision of the first Court as to value final as between the parties and enables the Court of appeal to correct any error as to this, only where the first Court decided to the detriment of revenue," Rachappa Subrao v. Sidappa Venkat Rao, P.C., 43 Bom. 507: 24 C.W.N. 33: 29 C.L.J. 452: 50 Ind. Cas. 280: 21 Bom.L.R. 489: 17 A.L.J. 418: 36 M.L.J. 437. "The Court Fees Act is essentially a fiscal enactment. Its primary object is to protect the revenue and not to coerce the subject," Chandramani Koer v. Basdeo Narain Singh, 4 Pat.L.J. 57 (71): 49 Ind. Cas. 442. See also Shihan v. Abdul Alim Abed, 34 C.W.N. 1129: 58 Cal. 474: 53 C.L.J. 91: 130 I.C. 69: 1930 A.I.R. 787 (Cal.).

The Court Fees Act was passed not to arm a litigant with a weapon of technicality against his opponent but to secure revenue for the benefit of the State, Mahomed Elliyas v. Rahima Bebee, 56 M.L.J. 302: 29 L.W. 42: 114 I.C. 842: 1929 A.I.R. 191 (Mad.).

Scope.—"That Act not only prescribes fees, but provides how these fees are to be ascertained, how questions as to the sufficiency of fees on documents so far as Courts are concerned, are to be determined, and the conditions under which only the documents in the First and Second Schedules to the Act may be received, filed, registered or used, as the case may be, in Courts of India. The Court Fees Act also specifies the documents which need not be stamped under the Act for the purpose of being used in Courts," Balkaran Rai v. Gobindanath Tewary, 12 All. 129 F.B. (139): 10 A.W.N. 39.

The Court Fees Act and the Suits Valuation Act are fiscal enactments and do not determine the question as to the proper Court for institution of suits. (1) If the valuation be contested then the valuation must be determined by the Court, and (2) where the valuation can be ascertained correctly, the plaintiff cannot be allowed to overvalue or undervalue his claim with a view to choose his forum, Inayat Husain v. Bashir Ahmad, 1932 A.L.J. 416: 1932 A.I.R. 413 (All.): 141 I.C. 141.

Application of the Act.—The general rule is that Acts are prospective, and not retrospective in their operation, Pramothanath Pal Choudhuri v. Saurav Dasi, 47 Cal. 1108: 24 C.W.N. 1011. To this rule there are two exceptions—(a) where Acts are expressly declared to be retrospective and (b) where they only affect the procedure of the Court, Javanmal v. Muktavai, 14 Bom. 516. But changes in law or amendments relating to procedure have retrospective effect, Balkrishna v. Bapu Yesaji, 19 Bom. 204; Promothanath v. Saurav Dasi, 47 Cal. 1108: 24 C.W.N. 1011.

A plaint was filed in a Court which was ultimately found not to have jurisdiction in the matter and the plaint was returned to be presented to the proper Court, but before the return of the plaint the Court Fees Act was amended, held, that the plaint must be deemed to have been instituted on the date of new presentation after return of plaint and the court-fee was payable under the amended Act, Bimala Prasad Mookherjee v. Lal Moni Debi, 30 C.W.N. 90: 1926 A.I.R. 355 (Cal.): 91 I.C. 862. Stamp duty on an appeal filed after the Court Fees Act came into operation was held to be leviable according to the provisions of the Court Fees Act, even though the original suit was valued on the principles laid down in the Act XXVI of 1867, Mt. Bhugobutty Kooer v. Mt. Kusturee Kooer, 15 W.R. 272. So, where an appeal was returned because filed without a copy of the decree appealed against, before, but was again presented after the passing of the New Act of 1870, held that the appeal must be filed with stamp of the amount prescribed by the new law of 1870, Aradhun Dey v. Gholam Hossein, 7 W.R. 461. See also G. L. Fagan v. Chandrakanta Banerji, 7 W.R. 452; In re Sreenath, 7 W.R. 462. But where a plaint was presented while the old Act was in force and it was subsequently discovered that the plaint is insufficiently stamped after the amending Act has come into force, held that the amount of court-fees must be calculated under the old law, Tara Prasanna Chongdar v. Nrishingha Moorari Pal, 51 Cal. 216: 28 C.W.N. 683: 39 C.L.J. 212: 81 I.C. 763: 1924 A.I.R. (Cal.) 731.

Where the appeal was presented to an officer not properly authorized to receive appeals within the vacation, the Patna High Court held, the appeal must be deemed to have been presented on the re-opening date of the High Court when the proper officer was present, and as the amending Act came into operation before that date, the amended Act applied and the increased duty was payable, Anand Ram Pramhans v. Ram Ghulam Sahu, I.L.R. 2 Pat. 264: 1922 Pat. C.W.N. 365: (1923) A.I.R. 150 (Patna).

Where a party applied for a copy of the decree after Act VII of 1870 came into operation, held that the new Act applied although the decree may have been prepared when the old law was in force, In re Hureehar Mahtoon, 14 W.R. 167.

Grant of Probate de bonis non is governed by the law in force at the time of the original grant and not by any interim modification introducing a higher rate, Swaranamoyee v. Secretary of State, 43 Cal. 625: 20 C.W.N. 472: 22 C.L.J. 370: 30 Ind. Cas. 394. "What the Legislature appear to have intended is that where the full fee chargeable under the Court Fees Act on a probate at the time it is granted, has been paid, no further fee shall be chargeable when a second grant is made in respect of that property," Ibid. See also In the goods of Ameerun, 15 W.R. 496.

In an application for review of judgment, the fee payable is to be calculated on the court fee paid on the memorandum of appeal or plaint, as the case may be, although the Court Fees Act may have been amended in the meantime and scale of court fees raised, Nanhi Lal Agrani v. Jogendra Chandra Dutta, 39 C.L.J. 222; 82 I.C. 297: 28 C.W.N. 403: 1924 A.I.R. 881 (Cal.).

Where the Act does not apply.—The Act has been declared inapplicable to proceedings before officers making settlements and survey when such a case is transferred to a Civil Court under sec. 5 of Reg. III of 1872, Bibee Golap Kumari v. Muhammad Kadiruddin, 12 C.W.N. 917. This Act does not apply to applications under Ss. 105 (1) and 105 (2) of the Bengal Tenancy Act, vide Sec. 105 (3) of the B. T. Act, and to proceedings before Settlement Officers under Reg. III of 1872, Sec. 8 as amended by the Santal Parganas Justice and Laws Regulation, 1899 (III of 1899) (Bengal Code).

This Act does not apply to court-fees payable under sec. 170 of the Agra Tenancy Act which are to be computed under the Fourth Schedule to that Act. See U. P. Act II of 1901 (U. P. Code, Vol. II). Under sec. 51 of the Land Acquisition Act (I of 1894), no costs are to be levied on copies of awards or agreement furnished to the parties.

For construction of the Act, see Notes under sec. 6, infra.

Government is interested:—The question whether court fee should be paid or not is really a matter that is important from the view of Government and Government alone, Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway Co. v. Mitthu, 1931 A.L.J. 727: 133 I.C. 465: 1931 A.I.R. 659 (All.): 1931 I.R. 673 (All.).

Extent.—Act 7 of 1870 has been declared in force—in Upper Burma generally (except the Shan States) by the Burma Laws Act, 1898 (13 of 1898), s. 4 (1), Bur. Code; in British Baluchistan, by the British Baluchistan Laws Regulation (I of 1890), s. 3, Bal. Code; in the Santhal Parganas, by the Santhal Parganas Settlement Regulation (III of 1872) as amended by the Santhal Parganas Justice and Laws Regulation, 1899 (III of 1899), Ben. Code, Vol. I; in the sub-division of Angul, by the Angul District Regulation, 1894 (I of 1894), s. 3, Ben. Code, Vol. I.

It has also been declared, by notification under s. 3 (a) of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874, to be in force in the following Scheduled Districts, namely:—

the District of Hazaribagh, see Gazette of India, 1881, Pt. I, p. 570;

the District of Lohardugga (now the Ranchi District, see Calcutta Gazette, 1899, Pt. I, p. 44; the District of Lohardugga then included in the present District of Palamau, separated in 1894), see Gazette of India, 1881, Pt. I, p. 508;

the District of Manbhoom, see Gazette of India, 1881, Pt. I, p. 509;

the Pargana Dhalbhoom in the District of Singhbhoom, see Gazette of India, 1881, Pt. I, p. 510;

the 'Tarai of the Province of Agra, see Gazette of India, 1876, Pt. I, p. 505.

It has been extended by notification under s. 5 of the same Act to the Kolhan in the district of Singhbhoom, see Gazette of India, 1907, Pt. I, p. 655, and under ss. 5 and 5A of that Act to the following Scheduled Districts, namely:—The Garo Hills District, the Khasi and Jaintia Hills District, the Naga Hills District, the North Cachar District, the Mikir Hill Tract in the Nowgong District and the Dibrugarh Frontier Tract in the Lakhimpur District, provided that the Act does not apply to natives of these districts and tracts who are assessed to house-tax except in such places and cases as the Deputy Commissioner may withdraw from the operation of the exemption, see Assam Gazette, 1897, Pt. I, p. 861; Gazette of India, 1884, Pt. I, p. 164; the Lushai Hills, with the same proviso, see Gazette of India, 1904, Pt. I, p. 913, and Assam Gazette, 1904, Pt. II, p. 787.

It has also been applied to the Baluchistan Agency territories by the Baluchistan Agency Laws Law, 1890, s. 4 (1), Bal. Code.

The Act came into permanent operation in Aden on 1st April, 1876, see Bombay Government Gazette, 1876, Pt. I, p. 956.

British India.—British India shall mean all the territories and places within His Majesty's Dominions, which are for the time being governed by His Majesty through the Governor-General of India or through any Governor or other officer subordinate to the Governor-General of India. Sec. 3. (7)—General Clauses Act (X of 1897).

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context “Chief Controlling Revenue Authority” defined. “Chief Controlling Revenue authority” means—

- (a) in the Presidency of Fort. St. George, the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal and the territories respectively under the administration of the Governors of Bihar and Orissa and the North-Western Provinces and the Chief Commissioner of Oudh—the Board of Revenue;
- (b) in the Presidency of Bombay, outside Sindh and the limits of the town of Bombay—a Revenue Commissioner;
- (c) in Sindh—the Commissioner;

- (d) in the Punjab and Burma, including Upper Burma—the Financial Commissioner; and
- (e) elsewhere—the Local Government or such officer as the Local Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint in this behalf.

[For Bengal only—

In this Act unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

- (1) 'Appeal' includes a cross objection;
- (2) 'Chief Controlling Revenue authority' means the Board of Revenue;
- (3) 'Collector' includes any officer not below the rank of Sub-Deputy Collector appointed by the Collector to perform the functions of a Collector under this Act;
- (4) 'Suit' includes an appeal from a decree except in section 8A].

NOTES.

Change in law.—The present s. 2 was added by s. 2 of the Court-Fees (Amendment) Act, 1901 (X of 1901). The original section relating to repeal of enactment was repealed by the Repealing Act, 1870 (XIV of 1870).

"Chief Controlling Revenue Authority."—The Collector of Bombay and Superintendent of Stamps is the chief controlling Revenue Authority for Bombay. In the C. P. the Financial Commissioner is the Chief Revenue Authority.

For authority appointed for—

- (1) the island of Bombay, see Bombay Government Gazette, 1902, Pt. I, p. 35.
- (2) Baluchistan, see Gazette of India, 1908, Pt. I, p. 389 and
- (3) the Assam Valley Districts and certain parts of the district of Cachar, see E. B. & A. Gazette, 1905, Pt. I, p. 5.

CHAPTER II.

FEES IN THE HIGH COURTS, AND IN THE COURTS OF SMALL CAUSES AT THE PRESIDENCY-TOWNS.

[IN BENGAL—Fees payable in Courts and in Public Offices].

3. The fees payable for the time being to the clerks and officers (other than the sheriffs and attorneys) of the High Courts established by Letters Patent, by virtue of the power conferred by [section 15 of the Indian High Courts Act, 1861, or section 107 of the Government of India Act, 1915], or chargeable in each of such Courts under No. 11 of the First, and Nos. 7, 12, 14, 20 and 21 of the Second Schedule to this Act annexed:

Levy of fees in High Courts on their original sides.

and the fees for the time being chargeable in the Courts of Small Causes at the Presidency Towns, and their several offices, shall be collected in manner hereinafter appearing.

Levy of fees in Presidency Small Cause Courts.

NOTES.

Amendments.—The words "Section 15..... Government of India Act, 1915" at the end of the first paragraph were substituted by sec. 2 and Sch. I of the Repealing and Amending Act (XXIV of 1917) in place of "Statute 24 & 25 Vict. C. 104, sec. 15."

The number "sixteen" which appeared between the numbers "fourteen" and "twenty" was repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act (XII of 1891).

Effect of Notification bringing into force the amending Act.—A notification in the Fort. St. George Gazette, dated 5th May 1922, announced that an increase in the Court Fees payable on the original side of the High Court "do come into force from the date of publication of the Fort St. George Gazette." The Gazette was received in the office at 5 P.M. after office hours. Held, that the increased duty is payable even on plaints filed on the 5th May, 1922, In re Court Fees, 46 Mad. 685: 45 M.L.J. 557: 1923 M.W.N. 883 F.B.

Scope.—The words of s. 3 of the Court Fees Act must be controlled by reference to s. 15 of the High Courts Charter Act, Mahomed Isack Sahib v. Mahomed Mohidin, 45 Mad. 849; 43 M.L.J. 436 (437): 70 Ind. Cas. 813: 1922 M.W.N. 511.

The power of the High Court to levy court fees on memoranda of appeal from Original Side is conferred by the Letters Patent which allows it to regulate its own procedure. The provisions of the Court Fees Act does not apply, Maung Ba Thaw v. M. S. V. M. Chettiar, 13 Rang. 156.

Cases transferred to the High Court in its Original Side.

In a case transferred to the High Court under s. 13 of the Letters Patent of the Madras High Court and tried by the High Court as a suit in its Original jurisdiction, the court fees payable are those payable under the Court Fees Act and not by the rules framed by the High Court, but in a suit filed in the Madras City Civil Court and transferred to the High Court, the court-fees payable would be those payable to the High Court as a Court of Ordinary Original Civil jurisdiction, Abdul Hakim Sahib v. Chattanadha Aiyar, 60 M.L.J. 435: 33 L.W. 318: 132 I.C. 647: 1931 A.I.R. 457 (Mad.): 1931 I.R. 679 (Mad.).

Manner of Collection.—The court fee shall be collected under Ch. V of the Court Fees Act in stamps and not in cash, but the amount of fees payable is determined by Rules framed by the High Court under sec. 15 of the Letters Patent, and sec. 107 of the Government of India Act, on original suits and on memoranda of appeals from the original side.

"The mode of collecting the fees mentioned in s. 3 is dealt with in s. 25 which provides that they shall be collected by stamps," Krishna Mohan Sinha v. Raghunandan Pandey, 1925 Pat. C.W.N. 65; I.L.R. 4 Pat. 336: 1925 A.I.R. 392 (Pat.): 87 I.C. 137. See also In re Bhubaneswar Trigunait, 52 Cal. 871: 29 C.W.N. 879: 95 I.C. 529: 1925 A.I.R. 1201 (Cal.).

Presidency Small Causes Courts—

As to the Presidency Small Causes Courts, fees are to be paid under Ch. X of the Presidency Small Causes Courts Act.

Chapter X of the Presidency Small Causes Courts Act (Act XV of 1882) deals with fees and costs and s. 77 of the last chapter, saves the application of ss. 3, 5 and 25 of the Court Fees Act.

Sec. 3 of the Court Fees Act provides for the levy of fees in Presidency Small Cause Court, s. 5 provides for the procedure in case of difference as to necessity or the amount of fees in such Courts, s. 25 provides that all fees referred to in s. 3 are to be collected by stamps, Ganpat v. Prem Singh, 202 P.L.R. 1912: 15 Ind. Cas. 122.

4. No document of any of the kinds specified in the first or second schedule to this Act annexed, as chargeable with fees, shall be filed, exhibited, or recorded in, or shall be received or furnished by, any of the said High Courts in any case coming before such Court in the exercise of its extraordinary original civil jurisdiction; or in the exercise of its extraordinary original criminal jurisdiction;

or in the exercise of its jurisdiction as regards appeals from the [judgments (other than judgments passed in the exercise of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the Court) of one] or more judges of the said Court, or of a division Court;

or in the exercise of its jurisdiction as regards appeals from the Courts subject to its superintendence;

or in the exercise of its jurisdiction as a Court of reference or revision; unless in respect of such document there be paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated by either of the said schedules as the proper fee for such document.

NOTES.

Amendment.—By section 2 of Act XIX of 1922 the words “judgments (other than judgments passed in the exercise of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the Court of one” in the third paragraph were substituted in place of the words “judgment of two”.

Local Amendments—

The section has also been amended by B. and O. Act I of 1922, for Bihar and Orissa and by Punjab Act VII of 1922 for Punjab which amendments substituted the word "one" for the word "two" between the words "of" and "or".

Application.—"Sec. 4 does not apply to the High Courts in their Ordinary Original Civil, Criminal, Admiralty or Ecclesiastical jurisdiction," Balkaran v. Gobindanath, 12 All. 129 F.B.: 10 A.W.N. 39.

Memorandum of appeal to a High Court to be properly stamped.—Sec. 4 of the Court Fees Act forbids a High Court to receive a memorandum of appeal insufficiently stamped, Ram Sahay Ram v. Lakshinarain Singh, 3 P.L.J. 74: 5 P.L.W. 18: 42 Ind. Cas. 675; Lakhi Narain v. Chowdhury Kirtibas, 18 C.L.J. 133: 19 Ind. Cas. 971; Krishna Mohan Sinha v. Raghunandan Pandey, 1925 Pat. C.W.N. 65 (72) F.B.: I.L.R. 4 Pat. 336: 1925 A.I.R. 392 (394) (Pat.). In the last case it was held that s. 4 deals with the fees on documents coming before the High Courts in the exercise of their Appellate or Revisional Jurisdiction in cases coming from the subordinate courts, or in their Extraordinary Original Jurisdiction.

Sec. 4 is imperative in its terms and a Court cannot accept a memorandum of appeal upon which proper court-fees have not been paid, Patil Shyamlal v. Gaurishankar, 1929 A.I.R. 294 (N.): 119 I.C. 700. In Khatumannessa Bibi v. Durjodhone Roy Chowdhury, 61 Cal. 663: 38 C.W.N. 650: 1934 A.I.R. 659 (Cal.), the Calcutta High Court while holding that sec. 4 is mandatory, did give time to put in the deficit court-fees in memorandum of appeal filed with a court-fee of Rs. 2 while the proper court-fee payable was Rs. 975.

The High Court has full power to refuse to accept a memorandum of appeal when it appears from the endorsement of the stamp reported that the amount of the court-fees paid is insufficient, otherwise the provisions of s. 4 of the Court Fees Act would be evaded, Brijbhukhan v. Tota Ram, 118 I.C. 228: 1929 A.I.R. 75 (All.). The Court will be justified in rejecting a memorandum of appeal if filed with a court-fee of eight annas where it should have borne court-fees amounting to Rs. 90 as the appellant should at the time of filing the appeal determine whether he should incur the expenses or not, Atmaram v. Singhai Kasturchand, (1930) 27 N.L.R. 183: 124 I.C. 241: 1930 A.I.R. 224 (Nag.): 1930 I.R. 257 (Nag.).

Powers of a single Judge of a High Court.—A single Judge of a High Court may refuse to accept an insufficiently stamped document, but if it has been accepted then he cannot reject it on the ground that it is insufficiently stamped unless the matter is within his jurisdiction, Shahzadi Begam v. Alakh Nath, 1935 A.L.J. 681 F.B.

Reference.—As there is no mention in schedules 1 and 2 of the Court Fees Act as to the court-fees payable on a reference under s. 66 of the Income Tax Act, no court-fees are leviable on such a reference, Commissioner of Income Tax v. Khemchand, 1933 A.I.R. 148 (Sind) : 145 I.C. 254 : 27 S.L.R. 243.

No document, etc., shall be filed, exhibited, or recorded in or shall be received or furnished.

The word shall not be filed, etc., mean that such documents cannot come into existence unless the requisite stamp is paid, Sahai Nund v. Mungniram, 12 Cal. 542.

Document.—A memorandum of appeal is a document within the meaning of this section as well as sections 25, 28, 30 and Schedules I and II of the Court Fees Act, Balkaran v. Gobinda Nath, 12 All. 129 F.B. : (1890) 10 A.W.N. 39. See also Krishna Mohan Sinha v. Raghunandan Pandey, F.B. 1925 Pat. C.W.N. 65 : I.L.R. 4 Pat. 336 : 1925 A.I.R. 392 (Pat.) : 87 I.C. 137.

"Filed"—Means that the document has been admitted and put on the files of Court, Moti Shahu v. Chhattri Das, 19 Cal. 780; Amjad Ali v. Muhammad Ismail, 20 All. 11 (17). Where an appeal is presented with the memorandum insufficiently stamped the Court is not bound to receive the same, Ram Sahay v. Pandit Lachminarayan, 3 P.L.J. 74 : 3 P.L.W. 18 : 42 I.C. 675. But where the document has already been received it is not for the party to say that the document should be struck off from the record. The Court may allow the other party to pay the proper fee, Manecklal Vadilal v. Chandulal Balabhai Shah, 1926 A.I.R. 343 (Bom.).

Presentation of Appeal.—No appeal is legally presented if the memorandum of appeal is not properly stamped, Shahadat and others v. Hukum Singh, (1924) A.I.R. 401 (L.).

Sec. 4 of the Court Fees Act is imperative in its terms and makes it impossible for the Court to entertain a memorandum of appeal upon which the proper amount of court-fees has not been paid, Lakhi Norain Jagdeb v. Chowdhury Kirtibas Das, 18 C.L.J. 133 (136) : 19 I.C. 971.

Furnished.—Furnishing is made at the time when the Court determines that a grant is to be made and when it is ready to be issued to the party applying for it, Dhunput Singh v. The Government, 17 W.R. 489. Where a will was proved but there was no actual grant because no stamp duty was paid, held that there was no grant and the grant of probate cannot be proved, Alamelammal v. P. N. K. Suryaprakasaroja Mudaliar, 38 Mad. 988: 29 M.L.J. 680.

Division Court.—A Division Court must be constituted of two or more Judges of the High Court, Nabu Mondul v. Cholim Mullick, 25 Cal. 896 (905): 2 C.W.N. 405 F.B. See also sec. 108 of the Government of India Act, 1915, and the rules framed by several High Courts according to their respective Letters Patent.

Letters Patent Appeals.—As the words originally used in the third para of the section were “two or more Judges”, it was decided by the Allahabad, Lahore and the Patna High Courts that no court-fee is leviable under sec. 10 of the Letters Patent on an appeal from the judgment of a single Judge, Bhadoo Pandey v. Munni Pandey, 44 All. 13: 19 A.L.J. 677: 63 I.C. 318; Har Dyal v. Secy. of State, 3 Lah. 420: 68 I.C. 428: 1923 A.I.R. (Lah.) 275; Raghubar Singh v. Jethu Mahton, 1922 C.W.N. (Pat.) 88: 65 Ind. Cas. 675: 3 P.L.T. 194. To avoid the difficulty the word “one” has been substituted for the word “two” by Act XIX of 1922 and local amendments have been made in Bihar and Orissa by Act I of 1922 and in the Punjab by Act VII of 1922. On an appeal under sec. 10 of the Letters Patent of the Allahabad High Court from an order of a single Judge of the Court remanding a case under sec. 562 of the C. P. C. (1882), the proper fee was held to be Rs. 2, Balli Rai v. Mahabir Rai, 21 All. 178: 19 A.W.N. 23.

Cross-objection.—No cross-objection can be filed in Letters Patent Appeals as Or. XI, r. 23, C. P. C. does not apply, Brojendra v. Prasanna Kumar, 32 C.L.J. 48; Kausalia v. Gulab, 21 All. 297.

Review.—Court-fees can be levied on an application for review of a judgment of a Division Bench passed on Letters Patent appeals, Husaini Begum v. The Collector of Musaffarnagar, 11 All. 176: (1889) 9 A.W.N. 27.

Orders refusing leave to appeal.—It has been held in Ram Chandra Golder and others v. Hamidali and others, 56 Cal. 482: 33 C.W.N. 32: 1929 A.I.R. 575 (Cal.): 117 I.C. 595, that a memorandum of appeal against the order of a single Judge arising out of a difference of opinion under sec. 98, C. P. C., need only bear court-fees under Art. 11 of the second Schedule to the Court Fees Act.

Power of Deputy Registrar to return Memorandum of appeal.—The Deputy Registrar of the High Court has no power to return the memorandum of appeal for insufficiency of court-fees paid on it. The right course for that officer is, when his request to make good the deficiency is not complied with to lay it before the Court and if the party is willing to pay them, the Deputy Registrar is to receive the same and if the time has expired to lay it before the Court, Syad Sunbur Ali v. Kali Charan, 24 W.R. 258; but the power to return a memorandum of appeal is based on the rules framed by each High Court.

5. When any difference arises between the officer whose duty it is to see that any fee is paid under this chapter, and any suitor or attorney, as to the necessity of paying a fee or the amount thereof, the question shall, when the difference arises in any of the said High Courts, be referred to the taxing officer, whose decision thereon shall be final, except when the question is, in his opinion, one of general importance, in which case he shall refer it to the final decision of the Chief Justice of such High Court, or of such Judge of the High Court as the Chief Justice shall appoint, either generally or specially, in this behalf.

When any such difference arises in any of the said Courts of Small Causes, the question shall be referred to the Clerk of the Court [Registrar—in Madras], whose decision thereon shall be final, except when the question is, in his opinion, one of general importance, in which case he shall refer it to the final decision of the First Judge [Chief Judge—in Madras] of such Court.

The Chief Justice shall declare who shall be taxing officer within the meaning of the first paragraph of this section.

NOTES.

Local Amendment.—This section has been thus amended in 1922 in Madras by sec. 3 of Madras Act V of 1922: "In the second paragraph of sec. 5 of the principal Act, the words 'Registrar' and 'Chief Judge' shall be substituted for 'Clerk of the Court' and 'First Judge', respectively."

Application.—"When a person tenders a stamped document to the Registrar of the High Court, and asks him to enter his appeal, it is clear that he is, within the meaning of this Act, paying a fee to an officer of that High Court, and in taking that fee, the High Court is acting by virtue of the general powers conferred upon it by sec. 15 of the High Court's Charter Act." Hence sec. 5 of the Court Fees Act applies and it is competent to the Chief Justice to refer the matter to another Judge for decision, H. Mahomed Ishack Sahib v. Mahomed Mohideen and another, 45 Mad. 849: 43 M.L.J. 436: 70 Ind. Cas. 813: (1922) M.W.N. 511: 16 L.W. 210: 1922 A.I.R. 421 (Mad.). See also Perumal Chetty v. Kandasamy Chetty, 46 Mad. 592: 44 M.L.J. 146: 17 L.W. 238: (1923) A.I.R. 160 (Madras): 1923 M.W.N. 160: 72 I.C. 925.

Probate Duty.—No doubt has at any time been felt either in this Court or in Bombay that S. 5 applies to probate duty, In re Bhubaneswar Trigunait, 29 C.W.N. 879: 52 Cal. 871: 95 I.C. 529: 1925 A.I.R. 1201 (Cal.). See also Gangaram Tillockchand v. The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, 52 Bom. 61: 29 Bom.L.R. 1511: 106 I.C. 66: 1927 A.I.R. 643 (Bombay).

Scope.—Sec. 5 does not confer jurisdiction on the judge of the High Court to decide questions regarding sufficiency of court-fees paid in subordinate Courts, Maung Nyi Maung v. The Mandalay Municipal Committee, 12 Rangoon 335 (338): 1934 A.I.R. 268 (Rang.). But see s. 12, cl. ii read with s. 28 which does confer such power.

Difference as to amount of court-fees payable.—A question whether court-fees are payable at the old rate or at the amended rate involves a difference as to the amount of court-fees payable. The words of s. 5 are quite general and there is no reason why their ordinary meaning should be confined to difference as to the amount of valuation only, Gangaram Tillockchand v. The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, 52 Bom. 236: 29 Bom.L.R. 1511: 106 I.C. 66: 1927 A.I.R. 643 (Bombay).

Officer whose duty, etc.—The Chief Inspector of Stamps is an officer whose duty it is to see that proper court-fees are paid under the Court Fees Act and the decision of the taxing officer on a difference of opinion between the Chief Inspector of Stamps and the suitor is final, Musst. Bhagwanti v. Musst. Dhanwanti, 1932 A.L.J. 244: 140 I.C. 68: 1932 A.I.R. 319. (All.).

Stamp Reporter can revise his report.—If the Stamp Reporter acting correctly in accordance with the rule then prevailing accepts a memorandum of appeal as sufficiently stamped then the Stamp Reporter thereby does not become completely functus officio, if the appeal be registered and can if the law is interpreted differently in subsequent proceeding, re-open the question as to whether the document is sufficiently stamped within the period the appeal remains pending unless the matter has been decided by the taxing officer. Such a Stamp Reporter in giving effect to the later view of the law merely corrects his report and does not give a retrospective effect to the later view, Siddheshwari Prasad and other v. Ram Kumar Rai, 12 Pat. 694; 14 P.L.T. 180; 1933 A.I.R. 234 (Patna); 144 I.C. 684; 6 I.R. 2 (2) (Pat.).

Decision of the taxing officer final.—The word “final” in section 5 of the Court Fees Act has the same meaning as in section 12, though it is applied to a different subject. In section 5 it is applied to a decision as to the necessity of paying a fee or the amount thereof, whereas in section 12 it is applied to a decision as to every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under Chapter III on a plaint or memorandum of appeal. The cases in which it has been held that, notwithstanding the use of this word in section 12, an appeal lies as to the decision as to the category in which the relief sought by the plaintiff or appellant falls, do not mean that the decisions which the section declares to be final, are nevertheless appealable, but that the question of category is not a question relating to valuation and therefore is not declared by the section to be final. In both sections 5 and 12 it is used in the ordinary legal meaning of final. “It could not, in my opinion, be contended that category is not under section 5 of the Court Fees Act for the taxing officer; otherwise he could not decide whether any fee was payable or the amount thereof. As to section 5 of the Court Fees Act, there is no provision so far as I can ascertain under which the Court or any Bench of the Court has power to consider the propriety of a decision under that section by appeal, in an appeal, or in revision,” Balkaran Rai v. Gobinda Nath Tewary, 12 All. 129 (152, 153 & 156) F.B.; (1890) 10 A.W.N. 39 F.B.; Lurkhur Chaube v. Rambhajan Chaube, 23 A.W.N. 214. The decision of a taxing officer as to the amount of court-fees payable and therefore his decision as to the category within which the suit falls, is final and binding under section 5 of the Court Fees Act, Kuar Karan Singh v. Gopal Roy, 32 All. 59; 6 A.L.J. 972; 4 Ind. Cas. 123. The taxing officer’s decision cannot be questioned at the hearing of appeal, Rangapai v. Baba, 20 Mad. 398; Kasturi Chetti v. Deputy Collector of Bellary, 21 Mad. 269; In re Bhubaneswar Trigunait, 29 C.W.N. 879; 52 Cal. 871; 95 I.C. 529; 1925 A.I.R. 1201 (Cal.); Gajendra Nath v. Sulochana, 39 C.W.N. 131; 60 C.L.J. 201.

The Court has no power to interfere with the decision of the taxing officer as his decision is final under s. 5 of the Court Fees Act, 1870, T. S. Swaminath Aiyar and others v. M.

Guruswami Mudaliar and others, 105 I.C. 119: 1927 A.I.R. 940 (Madras): 26 L.W. 378: 53 M.L.J. 457.

Decision under s. 5 of the Court Fees Act of the taxing officer of the High Court, or of the Chief Justice or the Judge appointed under s. 5, is final and is not liable to be challenged by way of appeal or revision, Gangaram Tillockchand v. The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, 52 Bom. 61: 29 Bom.L.R. 1511: 106 I.C. 66: 1927 A.I.R. 643 (Bombay).

The decision of the taxing officer whether right or wrong cannot be questioned at the hearing of the appeal, Tej Ram v. Maqbul Shah, 108 I.C. 746: 1928 A.I.R. 370 (Lah.). See also Puran Singh v. Kesur Singh, 39 P.R. 1907.

The High Court has no power or jurisdiction to interfere with an order passed by the taxing officer settling the amount of court-fees payable on a memorandum of appeal, which order is final and against which there is no appeal, review or revision, Hitendra Singh v. Maharajadhiraj of Darbhanga, 7 Pat.L.T. 392: 92 I.C. 626: 1926 A.I.R. 147 (Patna).

Absence of decision by the taxing officer.—If there be no decision by the taxing officer under section 5 of the Court Fees Act, objection as to sufficiency of the court-fees paid, can be raised at the hearing of the appeal, Jugal Pershad Singh v. Parbu Narayan Jha, 37 Cal. 914: 8 I.C. 1145; Kasturi Chetti v. Deputy Collector, Bellary, 21 Mad. 269. The Court can decide a question as to the deficiency in court-fees, when there was no decision by a taxing officer of the question, Kandunni Nair v. Ithumni Raman Nair, 53 Mad. 540: 58 M.L.J. 497; 1930 M.W.N. 291: 31 L.W. 826: 127 I.C. 128; 1930 A.I.R. 597 (Mad.): 1930 I.R. 944 (M.). See also Abdul Samad Khan v. Anjuman Islamia, Garakhpore, 1933 A.L.J. 1537: 1934 A.I.R. 56 (All.), where the taxing officer declined to entertain the question and it was held that the Court can consider the question.

Erroneous decision by the taxing officer.—In the case of Lagan Burt Kuar v. Khakhan Singh, 3 Pat.L.J. 92, it was held that the decision of the taxing officer even if erroneous is binding on the party. See also Md. Sadik v. Md. Jan, 11 All. 91 and Badri Pershad v. Kundan Lal, 15 All. 117: 13 A.W.N. 45; Krishna Mohan v. Raghunandan Singh, 4 Patna 336: 1925 Pat. C.W.N. 65 (75): 1925 A.I.R. 392 (Pat.): 87 I.C. 137 supra; but in Anna Narayan Pavji v. Madhyama Sthitisila Paraspara, etc., 46 Bom. 840: 25 Bom.L.R. 313: 67 Ind. Cas. 364: 1922 A.I.R. 172 (Bombay) the Bombay High Court apparently disregarded the decision of the taxing officer.

Character of the decision of taxing officer.—The decision of a taxing officer under section 5 of the Court Fees Act as to the necessity of paying a fee or the amount thereof is not a decree as decree is defined in section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. It is not an order as defined in section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure; his decision is not the decision of the Civil Court. A further reason for that opinion is that the taxing officer is not a Court within the meaning of that section, Balkaran Rai v. Gobinda Nath Tewary, 12 All. 129 F.B. (156 and 157): (1909) 10 A.W.N. 39.

Power of the taxing officer.—The wording of section 5 is so explicit and general that it leaves the Court no option. The taxing officer has jurisdiction to fix the amount of fee payable and if he decides that the valuation put by the appellants upon the relief was incorrect, he has the power to correct it, even if he has done anything which the law does not empower him to do. The Court Fees Act gives the High Court no jurisdiction to interfere with his decision as to the amount of the fee, Ram Sekhar Prasad Singh v. Sheonandan Dubey, 2 Pat. 198: 1922 Pat. C.W.N. 337: 70 I.C. 43: 1923 A.I.R. 137 (Patna).

Under section 5 the High Court has power to alter the valuation of a suit with regard to its own memorandum of appeal, which power, however, is delegated to the taxing officer or the taxing judge whose decision again is final. Even if those officers should make a manifest mistake in the exercise of their jurisdiction, their decision is not subject to appeal or review by the Court itself [Per Das J. contra. The taxing officer has no such power], Krishna Mohan Singh v. Raghunandan Pandey, 1925 Pat. C.W.N. 65 (75) F.B.: 4 Patna 336: 1925 A.I.R. 392 (P.): 87 I.C. 137.

Under section 5 of the Court Fees Act power of the Court to decide disputed questions of court-fees is vested in the taxing officer subject to his power to refer the matter to the taxing judge when a question of general importance arises. This authority extends to all such questions arising in the High Court, whether the deficiency alleged is on the memorandum of appeal to the High Court or on a plaint or memorandum of appeal filed in the Court below, Bahal Kuar v. Narain Singh, 22 A.L.J. 1038: 84 I.C. 822: 1925 A.I.R. 184 (All.).

The Registrar has no power to direct an appellant to deposit any sum of money in Court as a condition precedent to having his case tried, Janak Prasad v. Askaran Prasad, I.L.R. 6 Pat. 602: 105 I.C. 742; 1928 A.I.R. 29 (Patna): 9 P.L.T. 337.

Demand of court-fees not paid in the lower Courts:—

The jurisdiction of the taxing officer is limited to cases in which it is alleged that a document filed, exhibited or received in the High Court is not sufficiently stamped and does not extend to cases in which it is alleged that a party paid insufficient court-fee on his plaint or memorandum of appeal in the lower appellate Court. To this class of cases section 12 (ii) will apply, Mithoolal v. Musst. Chameli, 1934 A.L.J. 957: 150 I.C. 653: 1934 A.I.R. 805 (All.). Contra see Bidhubhusan Bakshi v. Kalachand Roy, 31 C.W.N. 1045: 106 I.C. 335: 1927 A.I.R. 775 (Cal.) where it was held that the taxing officer should make the demand.

Duty of taxing officer.—It is no part of the duty of a taxing officer or of a judge or Court on a question as to the sufficiency of a stamp or a fee to consider whether a plaintiff or an appellant is asking for more declarations or reliefs than are required for his protection. A plaintiff or an appellant may have reasons, which whether they are good or bad, may not be apparent to a taxing officer or taxing judge for asking for several declarations or reliefs. It is not the province of the taxing officer or the taxing judge to decide what are the declarations or reliefs which a plaintiff or an appellant may require for his protection. To impose upon a taxing officer or the taxing judge such a duty would be to impose upon him a duty hardly, if at all, less onerous or difficult than the duty of deciding the case itself, Balkaran Rai v. Gobind Nath, 12 All. 129 (161): 10 A.W.N. 39.

Power of the Chief Justice.—Section 5 makes it clear that such reference is to be heard by the Chief Justice or by such Judge of the High Court as the Chief Justice may appoint, In the Goods of Harriett Teviot Kerr, 18 C.W.N. 121 (128): 18 C.L.J. 308: 21 Ind. Cas. 502; Kachera v. Kharag Singh, 33 All. 20: 7 A.L.J. 842: 7 Ind. Cas. 315.

Power of Division Bench.—A Division Bench has no jurisdiction to hear a stamp reference even though it is referred to them by the taxing judge, Khachera v. Kharag Singh, 33 All. 20: 7 A.L.J. 842: 7 Ind. Cas. 315; Kuldip v. Harihar, 75 I.C. 871: 1924 A.I.R. 161 (P.). Where the Court of first instance rejected the plaint for insufficiency of stamp and on appeal to the High Court, the taxing officer, agreeing with the view of the trial Court required the appellant to pay additional court-fees calculated under section 7, paragraph IV of the Act, held that the decision of the taxing officer is final and that the Division Bench has no jurisdiction to re-open it before the appeal was admitted, Musst. Chandrabati Koer v. Goorey Lal Singh, 4 Pat.L.J. 700: 1920 C.W.N. (Pat.) 179: 52 Ind. Cas. 508; Chunni Lal v. Sheocharan Lal and others, 47 All. 756: 1925 A.I.R. 787 (All.): 23 A.L.J. 725: 89 I.C. 122.

The High Court has no power or jurisdiction to interfere with an order passed by the taxing officer settling the amount of court-fees payable on a memorandum of appeal, which order is final and against which there is no appeal, review or revision. Even if the Court is of opinion that the court-fee levied is in excess of that payable under the law it has no power to order a refund of the excess amount claimed, Hitendra Singh v. Maharajadhiraj of Darbhanga, 92 I.C. 626: 1926 A.I.R. 147 (P.): 7 Pat.L.T. 392.

Powers of a taxing judge.—A taxing judge must himself decide the point referred to him for his decision and he cannot make a reference to a Division Bench, Dhanukdhary Prasad Pandey v. Ramadhikary Misir, 12 Patna 188: 13 P.L.T. 810: 142 I.C. 617: 1933 A.I.R. 81 (Patna); nor can the taxing judge demand court-fees not paid in the lower Court, Maung Nyi Maung v. Mandalay Municipal Committee, 12 Ran. 335: 1934 A.I.R. 268 (Ran.) although in Bidhu Bhusan Bakshi v. Kalachand Roy, 31 C.W.N. 1045, such a demand was made.

Examination of stamp paper.—Examination of the stamp paper itself belongs more properly to the revenue officer of the Government, and consequently the stamp paper itself, if necessary, should be forwarded to the Collector for examination. The Registrar of the High Court is not to examine it, Bhikoo Molla v. Rashmonee Dossee, 9 W.R. 357.

CHAPTER III.

FEES IN OTHER COURTS AND IN PUBLIC OFFICES.

[Computation of fees—in Bengal.]

6. (1) Except in the Courts hereinbefore mentioned, no document of any of the kinds specified as chargeable in the first or second schedule to this Act annexed shall be filed, exhibited, or recorded in any Court of Justice, or shall be received or furnished by any public officer, unless in respect of such document, there be paid [has been paid—in Bengal] a fee of an amount not less than that indicated by either of the said schedules as the proper fee for such document.

Fees on documents filed, &c., in Mufassil Courts, or in public offices.

Provided that where such document relates to any suit, appeal or other proceeding under the Oudh Rent Act, 1886, the Agra Tenancy Act, 1826, or the United Provinces Land Revenue Act, 1901, the proper fee shall be three-quarters of the fee indicated in either of the said schedules except where the document is of any of the kinds specified as chargeable in the first schedule and the amount or value of the subject-matter of the suit, appeal or proceeding to which it relates exceeds the value of Rs. 500:

Provided further that the fee payable in respect of any such document as is mentioned in the foregoing proviso shall not be less than that indicated by either of the said schedules before the commencement of this Act.]

[For Bengal only—

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (1) or in any other Act, a Court may receive a plaint or memorandum of appeal in respect of which an insufficient fee has been paid, subject to the following conditions, namely:—

- (a) no such plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be registered unless the plaintiff or appellant has, before such date as the Court may have fixed in this behalf paid to the Court such reasonable sum on account of court-fee as the Court may direct;
- (b) the Court shall reject the plaint or memorandum of appeal if the sum referred to in clause (a) is not paid before the date fixed by the Court.]

NOTES.

Amendment.—By sec. 6 of the Court Fees (Bengal Amendment) Act, VII of 1935 the whole section as amended for Bengal has been transferred from Chapter III and inserted after section 5 in Chapter II.

By the amendment the rigid law hitherto in force has been somewhat relaxed. Formerly the party was required to pay the whole amount before a plaint or memorandum of appeal could be registered, but under the present law as applicable to Bengal, payment of a reasonable sum in court-fees would entitle a party to have his plaint or memorandum of appeal to be registered but he should pay the whole amount before the case is heard, as otherwise the Court will not be able to record a finding that proper court-fees have been paid (sec. 8B). The Court cannot proceed with the suit or appeal unless it finds that the whole of the court-fees have been paid.

Application of the section.—Appeals must be valued according to the provisions of the Act in operation at the time of its presentation, and the original valuation under the repealed enactment is to be disregarded; Proceedings, 15th Nov. 1870; 5 Mad. H. C. R. Ap. 44.

The Colonial Courts of Admiralty (India) Act, XVI of 1891.—S. 4.—Court-fees in suits instituted in the Colonial Courts of Admiralty at Rangoon, Aden or Karachi, shall unless the jurisdiction of the Court is to be exercised in any matter relating to the slave trade, be leviable in accordance with the provisions of Chapter III of the Court Fees Act, 1870.

Court Fees in suits in the Colonial Court of Admiralty at Rangoon, Aden or Karachi.

Scope.—Section 6 contains a prohibition against the use of improperly stamped documents in respect to the subordinate Courts, Krishna Mohan Sinha v. Raghunandan Pandey, 1925 Pat. C.W.N. 65 (72): 4 Patna 336: 1925 A.I.R. 392 (Patna): 87 I.C. 137 F.B.

Construction of the Act.

Title.—The title of an Act may be resorted to to explain an enacting clause when doubtful, Hurro Chander v. Shoorodhani Debya, 9 W.R. 402 (404) F.B.

Headings.—The headings prefixed to a section or set of sections are regarded as preamble to those sections, Maxwell on Interpretation of Statutes, 6th Ed. page 92; Halsbury's Laws of England, Vol. XXVII, pp. 117-118.

The heading of a group of sections cannot be pressed into a constructive limitation upon the exercise of the powers given by the express words of the Act, Abdul Rahim v. The Municipal Commissioners of the city of Bombay, (P.C.) 42 Bom. 462: 23 C.W.N. 110: 48 I.C. 63. See also In re Ananta Lal Chackerbutty, 59 Cal. 128: 35 C.W.N. 1103: 1932 A.I.R. 346 (Cal.).

Marginal Notes.—The marginal notes of an Act of Parliament cannot be referred to for the purpose of construing the Act, Balraj Kunwer v. Rai Jagatpal Singh, 31 I.A. 132: 26 All. 393: 8 C.W.N. 699 (705): 1 A.L.J. 384: 11 Bom.L.R. 516. See also the cases cited in Nawab Bahadur of Murshidabad v. Gopinath Mandal, 13 C.L.J. 625 (630); Aiyalam Kesava Chetti v. The Secretary of State for India, 42 Mad. 451: 36 M.L.J. 222: 51 I.C. 46; Sheikh Chamman v. Emperor, 1919 Pat. C.W.N. 463: 1 P.L.T. 11.

Proceedings in Council.—The Court cannot refer to the proceedings in the Legislative Council to determine the meaning of the Statute, Sarat Sundari v. Uma Prosad, 8 C.W.N. 578; see also Firm of Ratanchand Ramkrishandas v. Sahiram Dunichand, 13 S.L.R. 23: 52 I.C. 139; nor is it permissible to refer to the speeches of the Legal Member, Queen-Empress v. Bal Gangadhar Tilak, 22 Bom. 112, Dinanath v. Raja Sati Prasad, 27 C.W.N. 115: 36 C.L.J. 220: 72 I.C. 663.

Act to be strictly construed.—An enactment imposing stamp duties on the subject must be strictly construed, Empress v. Sadaanand, 8 Cal. 259: 10 C.L.R. 367; Manindra Chandra v. Secretary of State, 34 Cal. 257: 5 C.L.J. 148; Mylapore Fund v. Madras Corporation, 31 Mad. 408; In re Port Canning Land Improvement Company, Ltd., 16 W.R. 208; Girdhar Nagjishet v. Ganpat Moroba, 11 Bom. H. C. A. C. 129; Muhammad Salim v. Nabian Bibi, 8 All. 282 (287); Lumsden v. Inland Revenue Commissioners, 1914 App. Cases 877 (897); Aherjan Bibi v.

Sayed Abdul Alim Abed, (1930) 53 C.L.J. 91: 34 C.W.N. 1129: 130 I.C. 369: 1930 A.I.R. 787 (Cal.); Thakan Chowdhury v. Lachmi Narain, 14 Patna 4: 15 P.L.T. 548: 152 I.C. 244: 1934 A.I.R. 571 (Pat.) S.B., where it was held that the analogy of the special provisions of the Land Acquisition Act should not be extended.

Construction of the Act should be favourable to subject.—The construction should be as far as possible in favour of the subject, Amanut Begum v. Bhajan Lal, 8 All. 438: 6 A.W.N. 146. See also Muhammad Salimullah Khan v. Khalil-ur-Rahaman, 54 All. 465: 1932 A.L.J. 149: 140 I.C. 47: 1932 A.I.R. 526 (All.); Srikrishna Chandra v. Mahabir Prasad, 55 All. 791: 1933 A.L.J. 673: 149 I.C. 198: 1933 A.I.R. 488 (All.) F.B. The Court Fees Act is a fiscal enactment and ought to be liberally construed, Subramania Ayyar v. Rama Ayyar, 1927 A.I.R. 1902 (Mad.): 105 I.C. 881: 54 M.L.J. 67. See also Beli Ram v. Ishar Das, 8 Lah. 730: 110 I.C. 264: 1928 A.I.R. 113 (Lah.); Kalicharan Roy v. Kesho Prasad Singh, 4 Pat.L.J. 561: 51 I.C. 15. The language imposing duty must be clear and unambiguous. The subject cannot be taxed except by clear and unambiguous language, Halsbury's Laws of England, Vol. 27, p. 180; Reference, 9 Mad. 146 (148) F.B.; In re Chin Ah Aing, 24 Ind. Cas. 823: 7 L.B.R. 359: 7 Bur.L.T. 275.

Statutes which impose pecuniary burdens are subject to the rule of strict construction, and all charges upon the subject must be imposed in clear and unambiguous terms, as they tend to operate as penalties. The subject is not to be taxed unless the language of the statute clearly imposes the obligation, Thaddeus Naphapiet v. The Secretary of State for India, 39 C.L.J. 209 (211): 81 I.C. 751: 1924 A.I.R. 987 (Cal.).

Crown must bring a case within the letter of law.—There cannot be any equitable construction of a fiscal statute and the Crown seeking to recover a tax must bring it with the letter of law, otherwise the subject is free, Killing Valley Tea Company, Ltd. v. Secretary of State for India in Council, 32 C.L.J. 425 (432); Deputy Commissioner of Singbhum v. Jagadish Chandra, 62 I.C. 513: 6 Pat.L.J. 411; Per Das. J. in Krishna Mohan Sinha v. Raghunandan Pandey, 1925 Pat. C.W.N. 65 (88) F.B.: 4 Patna 336: 1925 A.I.R. 392 (P.): 87 I.C. 137.

Reasonableness of the provisions.—The provisions of a statute enacted for the purpose of revenue should not be examined as to their reasonableness in all eventualities, Deonandan Misra v. Ganga Prasad and others, 8 Patna 906: 10 P.L.T. 622: 120 I.C. 313: 1929 A.I.R. 731 (Patna).

In cases of doubt.—Where there is doubt in the matter, a Court is bound to decide the matter in favour of the subject as the subject cannot be taxed except by clear and unambiguous language, Anonymous Case, 10 Cal. 274 (282) per Field J., Dayachand v. Hem Chand Dharam Chand, 4 Bom. 515 F.B.; The Deputy Commissioner of Singhbhum v. Jagadish Chandra Deo, 6 Pat.L.J. 411: 62 I.C. 513.

Practice of Court.—In the Full Bench of Kisory Lal Ray Ray v. Sharat Chandra Majumdar, 8 Cal. 593 (597), Sir Richard Garth C.J., said: "There is a very wholesome maxim of law optimus legis interpretres consuetudo; and Mr. Broome in his work on Legal Maxims, 2nd Edition, p. 534, says this:—where a statute uses language of doubtful import, the acting under it for a long term of years may well give it an interpretation to that obscure meaning, and reduce that uncertainty to a fixed rule.

And I take it, that this principle is especially applicable, where the subject of interpretation is a matter of every day occurrence. And when we find that for a series of 8 or 10 years, a law which imposes a heavy tax upon litigation has received a particular interpretation in favour of the suitor, and a course of practice has prevailed for years, throughout the whole country, in accordance with that interpretation, I think that any Court of Justice ought to be slow in changing that interpretation or course of practice to the prejudice of the suitor, unless it sees clear and weighty reasons for so doing." See also Ijjatulla Bhuiya v. Chandra Mohan Banerjee, 34 Cal. 945: 11 C.W.N. 1133: 6 C.L.J. 235 F.B.; Bidhata Ray v. Ram Charitra Ray, 12 C.W.N. 37: 6 C.L.J. 651; Dowlat Ram v. Vitho, 5 Bom. 188 (193).

In Baleswar v. Bhagirathi, 35 Cal. 701 (713): 12 C.W.N. 657: 7 C.L.J. 563 the Court held: "It is a well settled principle of interpretation that Courts in construing a Statute will give much weight to the interpretation put upon it, at the time of its enactment and since, by those whose duty it has been to construe, execute and apply it. I do not suggest for a moment that such interpretation has by any means a controlling effect upon the Courts, such interpretation, may, if occasion arises, has to be disregarded for cogent and persuasive reasons, and in a clear case of error, a Court would without hesitation refuse to follow such construction." See also the case of Corporation of Calcutta v. Binoy Krishna Bose, 12 C.L.J. 476: 15 C.W.N. 34; Mathura Mohan v. Ram Kumar, 43 Cal. 790 (810): 23 C.L.J. 26: 20 C.W.N. 370: 35 I.C. 305. A Court cannot override the plain language of the statute except upon reference to its general tenor and spirit and the argument must be convincing, Mahadeb Aon v. Chairman of the Howrah Municipality, 11 C.L.J. 524. The Courts always hesitate to over-rule decisions which are not clearly erroneous and mischievous and which have affected the conduct of the community for a long time, Kedar Nath Hazra v. Maharaja Manindra Chandra Nandi, 11 C.L.J. 106.

"The above observation is applicable only to cases if a language of the statute be of doubtful import and a practice which is in contravention of the law, even if such practice be the practice of the High Court, cannot make lawful that which is unlawful nor can a practice of Court justify a Court in putting upon an Act of the Legislature a construction which is contrary to the plain wording of the Act," Bunwarilal v. Daya Sankar Misser, 13 C.W.N. 815 (821); Khedu Mahato v. Budhan Mahato, 27 Cal. 508 (511-512).

Conduct of Revenue Authorities.—Interpretation which has long been acted upon cannot be disregarded by a Court of law and the Court should put upon it the construction first placed upon it when it came into force; but the conduct of the revenue authorities in the past does not bind the Court, Killing Valley Tea Company v. Secretary of State for India in Council, 32 C.L.J. 421 (431, 432). See also Bidhata Ray v. Ram Chariter Ray, 12 C.W.N. 37 (42): 6 C.L.J. 651 (657); Kisori Lal Ray v. Sarat Chandra Majumdar, 8 Cal. 593.

Where sections are reproduced.—Where the sections of the former Act are reproduced in the later Act, the inference is that the construction put upon the provision of the former Act by Courts is adopted and affirmed by legislature, Protap v. Sarat, 33 C.L.J. 201; Jogendra v. Shyam, 36 Cal. 543: 9 C.L.J. 271 followed. See also Kalyandappa v. Chanbasappa, 28 C.W.N. 666 P.C.: 51 I.A. 220: 48 Bom. 411: 22 A.L.J. 508: 46 M.L.J. 598: 1924 M.W.N. 414: 20 L.W. 109: 10 O.L.J. 181: 79 I.C. 971: 1924 A.I.R. 137 (P.C.).

Where the Act is repealed.—The general rule is that a repealed statute cannot be acted on after it is repealed, but that with regard to all matters that have taken place under it before its repeal, they remain valid, R. v. Denton, 21 L.J.M.C. 208. See ss. 6 and 7 of the General Clauses Act (Act X of 1897).

Effect of repeal of a repealing Act.—When a repealing Act is subsequently repealed by another Act, the last repeal does not revive the former Act or its provisions, unless there are words reviving them. In re Jawa Nathoo and other, 44 Cal. 459; Hari Mohadeji Savarkar v. Balambhat Raghunath Khare, 9 Bom. 233; Deputy Legal Remembrancer v. Ahmad Ali, 25 Cal. 333: 2 C.W.N. 11. See also s. 7 of the General Clauses Act (Act X of 1897).

Retrospective effect.—It is not in accordance with sound principles of interpretation of statute to give them a retrospective effect, Muhammad Abdus Samad v. Qurban Hussain, 31 I.A. 30: 29 All. 118: 8 C.W.N. 201; Pramatha Nath v. Saurav Dass, 47 Cal. 1108: 24 C.W.N. 1011: 31 C.L.J. 463: 58 I.C. 327. To this rule there are two exceptions (a) where the Acts are expressly declared to be retrospective, (b) where they only affect the procedure of the Court, Javanmal v. Mukta-vai, 14 Bom. 516. But changes in law or amendments relating to procedure have retrospective effect, Balkrishna v. Bapu Yesapi, 19 Bom. 204. Statutes which are properly of a declaratory character have a retrospective effect, but the nature of the statute must be determined from its provisions and the mere fact that the expression 'it is declared' has been used, is by no means conclusive as to the true character of the legislation, Khajeh Habibullah v. Khajeh Soleman Quader, 24 C.W.N. 18: 53 I.C. 764: 30 C.L.J. 102, reversed by P.C. in 49 I.A. 153: 49 Cal. 820: 27 C.W.N. 101: 37 C.L.J. 56: 43 M.L.J. 428, but not on this point.

Where co-ordinate sections are inconsistent.—Where the co-ordinate sections are inconsistent, an attempt should be made to reconcile them, and if that is not possible then the latter section should override the former section and an enactment on a particular subject must be construed strictly against a general provision, Amarchand Ray v. Prasanna Dasi, 25 C.W.N. 9: 61 I.C. 529.

Construction by reference to the construction of Acts in pari materia.—When Acts are in pari materia they are to be read together, but when this is not so, the construction put upon one is not a guide for the construction of another, Daya Chand v. Hem Chand Dharam Chand, 4 Bom. 515. See also Halsbury's Laws of England, Vol. 27, pp. 138-140. But one fiscal Act cannot be construed by reference to another fiscal Act, In re Soroje Bashini Debi, 20 C.W.N. 1125: 36 I.C. 125.

Proviso.—Provisos may be a general guide in the section of one or other of two possible constructions of the words to be found in the enactment where there is doubt as to its scope or as the proper view to be taken of it, Mahadeb Aon v. Chairman of the Howrah Municipality, 11 C.L.J. 524 (528).

Mode of interpretation.—When the words are plain and meaning clear, the Court must give effect to the language used in spite of hardship, Balkaran Rai v. Gobinda Nath Tewary, 12 All. 129 F.B.: 10 A.W.N. 39. The language of an enactment must receive its natural meaning, without any assumption as to its having probably been the intention to leave unaltered the law as it existed before. The object of a codification is that the law should henceforth be ascertained by interpreting the language used instead of searching the authorities to discover what may be the law as laid down in prior decisions, Narendra

Nath Sirkar v. Kamal Basini Dassi, 23 I.A. 18: 23 Cal. 563: 6 M.L.J. 71. The true mode of interpreting a statute like the Court Fees Act which has been repeatedly amended, is not to consider individual sections, but to take them as a whole and to give effect to the legislative intent upon a particular matter, In the Goods of Harriet Teviot Kerr, 18 C.W.N. 121: 18 C.L.J. 308: 21 I.C. 502. But if the meaning is ambiguous then the previous history may be considered, Bank of England v. Vagliano Bros., 1891 App. Cas. 107 (144); Nilmani Kar v. Raja Sati Prasad Garga Bahadur and others, 32 C.L.J. 302: 48 Cal. 556: 25 C.W.N. 230: 61 I.C. 82 F.B.

Change in the mode of interpretation.—Reversal of the previous accepted interpretation of law does not displace its application to a purchaser at Court sale held when the previous interpretation was understood to contain the law on the subject, Abdul Aziz Khan v. Appayasami Naicker and others, 31 I.A. 1: 27 Mad. 131: 8 C.W.N. 188: 6 Bom.L.R. 7.

In case of special provision.—If there be a special provision then that special provision is to be accepted in supersession of the general provision of the Act applicable to the suit, Venkatasiva Rao v. Venkatanarasimha Satyanarainmurthy, 36 L.W. 225: 1932 M.W.N. 992: 139 I.C. 317: 1932 A.I.R. 605 (Mad.): 1932 I.R. 643 (Mad.).

Documents.—Plaints are documents but not written statements, being excluded by section 19, cl. 3, but a set-off claimed in the written statement must bear stamp duty as on plaint, Guise v. Anantaram Rathi, 10 C.W.N. 199. The former difference of opinion has been set at rest by the amendment of Court Fees Act by Act V of 1908, see Sch. I, Art. 1. See Abdul Aziz v. Razak Ali, 17 C.L.J. 365 F.B.

Cross-objections.—Cross-objections require to be stamped ad valorem as being expressly mentioned in the Schedule I, Art. I of this Act.

Memorandum of appeal.—A memorandum of appeal is a document included in the first and second schedules to the Court Fees Act, and therefore cannot be filed without being properly stamped, Balkaran Rai v. Govind Nath, 12 All. 129: 10 All.W.N. 39.

Certificate of guardianship.—A certificate of guardianship requires a stamp as being mentioned in the Second Schedule to the Court Fees Act, Sahai Nand v. Mungniram Marwari, 12 Cal. 542.

Succession Certificate.—A certificate under Act XXVII of 1860 (now Act 39 of 1925) requires a stamp, Dhunput Singh Doogur v. The Government, 17 W.R. 489. See also the Succession Certificate Act (Act VII of 1889) and Art. 12, Sch. I of the Court Fees Act.

No stamp payable.—See Sections 19, 33 and 35 of this Act and the Notifications. Objections against findings after remand under Or. 41, r. 26, C. P. C., need not be stamped not being mentioned in the Schedules.

Optional Applications.—i.e., applications which need not be in writing need not be stamped.

Applications to Courts not required by the Code to be in writing need not be stamped, Tetley v. Administrator General of Bengal, 2 N.W.P. 418. Applications for a certificate of sale need not be stamped, Hira Ombaidas v. Tekchand Ambaidas, 13 Bom. 670. The application for refund of stamp duty need not be in writing, Bhikoo Molla v. Rash Monee Dassee, 9 W.R. 357. Telegraphic messages are regarded as oral communications and need not be stamped, Bengal Stamp Manual.

Appeals under Agency rules.—Appeals under the Agency rules against the decision of the Governor's agent and referred by Government to the High Court for disposal, are not chargeable under the Court Fees Act. Reference under the Court Fees Act, Section 5, 22 Mad. 162.

Government not exempt from payment of court-fees.—When the Government is party to a suit or proceeding the principle enunciated in Bell v. Municipal Commissioner of the City of Madras, 25 Mad. 493 is applicable, although that was a case under the City of Madras Municipal Act. Mr. Justice Bhashyam Ayyangar at p. 497 said: "There is no similar exemption, as in the Stamp Act in favour of Government under the Court Fees Act. Government pays court-fees like other litigants and if successful recovers the same as costs on the adversary." "Thus it will be seen that Government is really benefitted. There is another weighty reason against the exemption of Government from paying court-fees, for the result of such exemption would naturally be to increase the burden of court-fees upon the rest of the litigants by raising the scale of fees."

Indian Chiefs not exempted.—When an application made to British Courts or officers is such, that a particular form, stamp or procedure is required by law, the functionary is not at liberty to dispense with, and thus to proclaim himself superior to the law. So also on the part of the applicant, his application implies for the purpose in hand a submission to the law and to the system of law with its accessories which he invokes and he cannot as an applicant or suitor demand terms differing from those prescribed by law, B. G. Resolution No. 2740, 17th of April, 1888.

Proceedings on insufficiently stamped document not void.

—Order 7, rule 11, C. P. C. read with s. 28 of the Court Fees Act clearly implies that opportunity is to be given to the party concerned to pay proper stamp and it is his failure to do so that the Court is entitled to decline to look at the document; but it cannot be said that if the Court accepts an insufficiently stamped document the proceedings which follow thereon are void, Musst. Jintan v. Ahmad and another, 106 I.C. 817: 1928 A.I.R. 221 (Lahore). An insufficiently stamped plaint is not a nullity, Faizulla Khan v. Mauladad Khan, 56 I.A. 232: 10 Lah. 737: 33 C.W.N. 781: 50 C.L.J. 39: 31 Bom.L.R. 841: 57 M.L.J. 281: 1929 M.W.N. 818: 30 L.W. 104: 117 I.C. 493: 1929 A.I.R. 147 P.C.

Dispute as to the amount of court-fees payable.

In cases of dispute as to the amount of court-fees payable the Court is to frame an issue on the point and proceed to try that issue first or determine it at the time of the disposal of the suit along with other issues, Ganga Prosad v. Bhawani Sheikh, 62 Ind. Cas. 853 (Oudh).

Effect of decision of Court.—When a plea of insufficiency is taken all that the Court is to do, is to see whether the court-fee paid already is sufficient having regard to the various allegations in the plaint and in doing so does not decide that those allegations are true, Lalta Prasad v. Barmha Din, 30 Ind. Cas. 73.

Question as to court-fees to be dealt with at the earliest possible moment, see under s. 10, infra.

Admission by party as to court-fees payable.—A party is not concluded by statements by him or those who come in as plaintiffs afterwards as to the amount of court-fees payable, as the question is not one of fact but is one of law, Girish Chandra Sanyal v. The Secretary of State for India in Council, 105 I.C. 80: 1927 A.I.R. 55 (Calcutta).

Admission by Counsel.—An admission by Counsel as to the amount of court-fees payable being an admission on a point of law, is not binding on the client, Surain Singh v. Sundar Singh and others, 120 I.C. 532: 1929 A.I.R. 879 (Lah.).

Deficiency of court-fees not raised in the trial Court.—Where the deficiency of court-fees was not objected to in the first Court by defendant before the decision of the suit, such plea could not be raised for the first time in appeal, Wilayat v. Umardaraz Ali Khan, 19 All. 165. Where defendant did not raise the question of court-fees and valuation in the written statement, the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council declined to entertain the objection on appeal as to the jurisdiction of the trial Court and observed that the same should not have been allowed to be taken in appeal, and that the Court Fees Act was not passed to arm a litigant with a weapon of technicality against his opponent, but to secure revenue for the benefit of the state And a judgment not shown to have been wrongly decided to the detriment of revenue cannot be set aside at the instance of a party on the ground of jurisdiction, Rachapa Subrao Jadhav Desai v. Shidappa Venkatrao, 24 C.W.N. 33: 29 C.L.J. 452: 50 Ind. Cas. 280: 43 Bom. 507: 21 Bom.L.R. 459: 17 A.L.J. 418: 25 M.L.T. 298: 36 M.L.J. 437 P.C.

Question as to court-fees not raised in the Lower Appellate Court, not allowed to be taken in second appeal, see Ram Kishen v. Dipa, 13 All. 580, Ahmad Ali v. Waris Hossain, 15 All. 123, Wilayat Ali v. Umardaraz Ali, 19 All. 165, Ranga Pai v. Baba, 20 Mad. 398, Sharan Bibi v. Earsin Dewan, 16 Ind. Cas. 46; but see contra, Kasturi Chetty v. Deputy Collector, Bellary, 21 Mad. 269.

Effect of acceptance of decision by the trial Court.—Where the defendant had accepted the decision of the trial Court as to the amount of court-fees payable and had stamped his own appeal to the lower appellate Court in the same way, he is precluded from raising the question of court-fees again in the High Court, Chunnu Lal v. The Bank of Upper India, 106 P.W.R. 1917: 40 I.C. 904; but the fact that a certain sum was put in in compliance with the order of Court, did not preclude the plaintiff from afterwards disputing the decision of the Court in appeal, Mani Lal v. Durga Prasad, 3 Pat. 930: 80 I.C. 667: 1924 A.I.R. 673 (P.): 5 Pat.L.T. 425: 1924 Pat.C.W.N. 254.

See also section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act (Act VII of 1887) where the circumstances under which the Courts are to take such questions into consideration are specified.

Effect of Registration.—The mere fact that the plaint or memorandum of appeal has been registered does not prevent the question as to sufficiency of court-fees being raised at a later stage, Radha Kanta Saha v. Debendra Narain Saha, 49 Cal. 880: 27 C.W.N. 567: 1922 A.I.R. 506 (Calcutta): 38 C.L.J. 74: 70 Ind. Cas. 101.

Return of Plaint.—By the C. P. C. (Act XIV of 1882), s. 21, it is enacted that on representation of a plaintiff court-fees are not to be levied but there is no such corresponding section in Act V of 1908.

Whenever a Court, after a trial has begun or even after it has been concluded, thinks it has no jurisdiction to try the suit and returns the plaint for presentation to the proper Court, no fresh court-fees are chargeable on presentation to such Court, Provakar v. Vishwambar, 8 Bom. 313; Gandru v. Konda, 8 Mad. 62; see contra Jagjiban v. Magdum, 7 Bom. 427.

In a suit for an account the usual valuation for purposes of court-fees was made in the plaint, which was filed and received in a Munsiff's Court. The Munsiff appointed a commissioner to take an account and the result was that plaintiff was found by the commissioner to be entitled to a much larger sum. Plaintiff then applied for leave to amend the plaint, which was granted, and the valuation of the suit was accordingly increased. As the amount claimed in the amended plaint was greater than that over which the Court of a Munsiff ordinarily has jurisdiction, the Munsiff ordered the plaint to be returned for presentation to the proper Court: held, that the Munsiff had acted with material irregularity in permitting the valuation of the suit to be revised; and that he ought to have tried the case, Arogya Udayan v. Appachi Rowthan, 25 Mad. 543: 12 M.L.J. 35.

A plaintiff when the plaint was returned to him, to pay additional court-fees, can reduce the value so as to make the court-fee already paid sufficient for the plaint and represent it to the Court which returned it and that Court will then accept it, Neethachalam v. Narsing Das, 34 L.W. 252: 1931 M.W.N. 677: 134 I.C. 816: 1931 A.I.R. 716 (Mad.): 1931 I.R. 864 (Mad.).

Court-fees already paid to be credited.—When the plaint which has been returned is presented in a Court of competent jurisdiction, the suit, even for the purposes of court-fee on such plaint should be leviable under the law which was in force at the time when the plaint was originally presented. If the court-fee has increased in the meantime the plaintiff must be credited with the court-fee originally paid, Bimala Prasad v. Lal Moni, 1926 A.I.R. 355 (Cal.): 30 C.W.N. 90: 91 I.C. 862.

Where a Court after receiving a plaint and cancelling the stamp affixed thereto returns the plaint for presentation to the proper Court under Order 7, rule 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, the latter Court to which the plaint is presented is bound to give credit to the fee already levied by the former Court, Ganesh Tavanappa Burde v. Tatyia Bharmappa Mirji, 51 Bom. 236: 29 Bom.L.R. 280: 101 I.C. 343: 1927 A.I.R. 257 (Mad.). See also Visweswara Sarma v. Dr. J. N. Nair, 35 Mad. 567: 21 M.L.J. 533: 10 M.L.T. 29: 40 I.C. 201.

Court returning the plaint need not determine sufficiency of court-fees.—If an insufficiently stamped plaint is returned by a Court on the ground of its want of jurisdiction and then presented to a Court having jurisdiction, the latter Court is not bound to treat the plaint as sufficiently stamped even though it may never have been properly stamped merely because no objection as to stamp was taken by the Court to which it was first presented, Lachmi Prasad v. Secretary of State for India, 11 P.L.T. 711: 1931 A.I.R. 39 (Patna).

Court returning the plaint need not order the value to be amended or pay additional court-fee, Ramanna v. Amireddi, 61 M.L.J. 43: 34 L.W. 352: 129 I.C. 826: 1931 A.L.R. 57 (Mad.): 1931 I.R. 346 (Mad.).

"By Revenue Court."—When a Settlement Officer, before whom a suit was instituted without court-fees under section 8 of Santhal Pargannah Regulations (Reg. III of 1872), returns the plaint under section 5 of that Regulation to be presented to the Civil Court, no institution court-fee can be demanded by the Civil Courts, Bibee Golap Kumari v. Md. Kadiruddin, 12 C.W.N. 917.

But see contra, Gandaram v. Sain, 132 P.R. 1892, where the plaintiff brought a fresh suit on the point in a Civil Court.

Filed.—The word "filed" means something more than "presented" for admission. It means that the document has been admitted and put on the files of the Court, Amjad Ali v. Muhammad Ismail, 20 All. 11 (17); Moti Sahu v. Chhattri Das, 19 Cal. 780.

Sec. 6 of the Court Fees Act is imperative. It requires that in all Courts except in the High Courts in the exercise of their original jurisdiction and in the Presidency Small Cause Court, no document of any of the kinds specified as chargeable in Schedules 1 and 2 to that Act, shall be filed, exhibited or recorded or shall be received or furnished by any public officer unless in respect of such document there be paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated by either of the said schedules as the proper fee for such document, Adamali v. Abdul Ali and another, 107 I.C. 223: 1928 A.I.R. 87 (Sind).

Plaint.—Plaint not bearing proper stamp.

Calcutta High Court.—When a plaint is presented bearing insufficient stamp but the deficiency is made up within the time allowed, the plaint is to be considered as presented in time, Moti Sahu v. Chhattri Das, 19 Cal. 780; Padmananda v. Ananta Lal, 34 Cal. 20 F.B.: 11 C.W.N. 38: 4 C.L.J. 422.

C. P.—A plaint filed with insufficient stamp would be filed in time, even if the deficient court-fee is supplied after the period of limitation but the deficiency should be made good with the sanction of the Court. See Mahomed Galif v. Abdul Rahim, Receiver, 89 I.C. 419: 1926 A.I.R. 156 (Nag.).

Madras High Court.—A suit is not instituted within the meaning of the explanation to section 4 of the Limitation Act by presentation of a document purporting to be a plaint, if that document, while not undervaluing the claim, is written on paper that does not bear proper court-fees, Venkatarayya v. Krishnarayya, 20 Mad. 319; dissented from in Govaranga Sahu v. Bata Krishna Patra, 32 Mad. 305: 19 M.L.J. 340: 6 Ind. Cas. 503 F.B., where it was held that the word "plaint" includes a plaint though insufficiently stamped. See also Assan v. Pathumma, 22 Mad. 494; Alayakamma v. Subbaraya, 28 Mad. 493: 15 M.L.J. 219 where it was held that "the payment of stamp duty, however late, relates back to the date of presentation of plaint, as a proper plaint, in the absence of any evidence to show that there was fraud in putting the plaint without a stamp."

Oudh Court.—A plaintiff failed to pay the additional court-fees demanded of him on the date fixed but paid it on the following date. The trial Court rejected the plaint. The Chief Court held, that rules of procedure are made for the purpose of facilitating justice and the rejection of the plaint was an abuse of the process of the Court and the Court should have accepted the amount tendered, Kamakhya Dat Ram v. Shyam Lal and others, 104 I.C. 527: 1927 A.I.R. 507 (Oudh).

Patna High Court.—Where the plaint was presented with insufficient court-fees on the last day of limitation, but on the defect having been cured after the period of limitation has expired, the plaint was registered, held that the suit is not barred, Gaya Loan Office, Ltd. v. Audh Behary Lall, 1 P.L.J. 420. See Pawan Kumar Chand v. Musst. Dulari Kuer, 1 P.L.T. 544: 58 I.C. 216: 5 P.L.J. 544; Raghunandan Sahay v. Ram Sunder Pershad, I.L.R. 4 Patna 190; 1924 Pat. C.W.N. 355; 6 Pat.L.T. 4: 3 Pat.L.R. 22: 85 I.C. 173: 1925 A.I.R. 299 (Patna).

Memorandum of Appeal—Allahabad High Court.—A memorandum of appeal is a document included in the first and second schedules to the Court Fees Act, and is a document within the meaning of sections 4, 25, 28 and 30 of the Act, and therefore cannot be filed or recorded in or received by the High Court unless and until the proper court-fees in respect of it are paid and is of no validity unless and until it is properly stamped. Consequently it is not at that time a memorandum of appeal within the meaning of section 541, C. P. C. and the appeal cannot be regarded as having been at that time presented within the meaning of section 4 of the Limitation Act or valid for any other purpose, Balkaran Rai v. Govinda Nath, 12 All. 120: 10 A.W.N. 39 F.B.; Abbasi Begum v. Nanhi Begum, 18 All. 206, but the above views were considerably modified by the Full Bench in the case of Hari Ram v. Akbar Hossein, 29 All. 749: 4 All.L.J. 636 which was a case of a mistake in payment of court-fees.

Bombay High Court.—Section 582A, C. P. C. indicates the will of the Legislature that the appeals will not be rejected on the ground of their not being sufficiently stamped, if such insufficient stamp arose from the appellant's mistake, Bai Ful v. Desai, 22 Bom. 849.

Calcutta High Court.—For similar views of the Calcutta High Court, see Aubhaya Charan Dey v. Bisseswari, 24 Cal. 747.

But the old law was altered by Act VI of 1892 which amended the Code of Civil Procedure and by section 3 of that Act a new section 582A was added to the Code of Civil Procedure (Act XIV of 1882) which enacted that subsequent payment of deficit court-fees shall cure the defect.

Judicial Committee.—See Skinner v. Orde, L.R. 6 I.A. 126: 2 All. 241: 4 C.L.R. 331, where the Judicial Committee held that even under the old law the payment of court-fees validates the plaint from the date of presentation.

Madras High Court.—The effect of section 582A of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act XIV of 1882) is to enable a defective memorandum of appeal to be retrospectively validated if the insufficiency of the stamp was caused by mistake on the part of the appellant, Valumbal Ammal v. Vythilinga, 24 Mad. 331; Valambal Ammal v. Vythilinga, 25 Mad. 380; Chennappa v. Raghunath, 15 Mad. 29.

Patna High Court.—Where an appeal is filed with a memorandum insufficiently stamped without any excuse, the Court is not bound to receive the same and to give time to make good the deficiency: it would be exercising its discretion in an unreasonable manner if it were to do so, Ram Sahay Ram Panday v. Kumar Lachmi Narayan Singh, 3 P.L.J. 74: 5 P.L.W. 18: 42 Ind. Cas. 675. See also Jodhan Pershad Singh v. Nanku Prasad Singh, 46 Ind. Cas. 509. See also Brij Krishna Das v. Murli Rai, 4 Pat.L.J. 703: 56 Ind. Cas. 316.

Effect of payment of deficit court-fees after the period of limitation has expired.

Note.—Sec. 582A of the Code of 1882 finds no place in the Code of 1908. Sec. 149 of the Code of 1908 gives the Court very wide powers.

Allahabad High Court.—See Hari Ram v. Akbar Hussain, 29 All. 749: 4 All.L.J. 636 which was a case of mistake in payment of court-fees.

Bombay High Court.—See also Achut Ram Chandra v. Nagappa, 28 Bom. 41, where it was held that a Court would be in error in rejecting a memorandum of appeal without giving time to make the payment of deficit court-fees.

Calcutta High Court.—Date of institution of suit should be reckoned from the date when the plaint was presented and not from the time when the deficiency in court-fees was made good, Moti Sahu v. Chhattri Das, 19 Cal. 780 (782), where the reasons are given. A suit was brought forma pauperis on behalf of a minor but the suit was dismissed by the Munsiff under an alleged compromise. An appeal was filed before the District Judge but the memorandum was insufficiently stamped and an application was filed to prosecute the appeal forma pauperis. At the time of hearing of the application, objection was taken that the minor has inherited certain properties whereon the guardian offered to pay court-fees. The appeal Court allowed the guardian to put in court-fees and admitted the appeal. The court-fees were paid within the time allowed. Held that the case came within either section 5 of the Limitation Act or Section 582A, C. P. C. and the appeal is not out of time, Durga Charan Nuskar v. Dookhiram Nuskar, 26 Cal. 925.

When the plaint is engrossed on a paper not duly stamped but is accompanied by an amount of money sufficient to cover stamp duty, it was held that the plaint was properly stamped, Govind Kumar Choudhury v. Har Dayal Nag, 3 B.L.R. App. 72. But under the present Act, cash money cannot be accepted, see section 25 of the Court Fees Act.

In the following cases deficit court-fees were paid within the time and the plaint was deemed as if presented in time, Huri Mohan v. Naimuddin, 20 Cal. 41, Surendra Kumar v. Kunj Behary, 27 Cal. 814: 4 C.W.N. 818; Rajkisoni v. Madan Mohan, 31 Cal. 75; Hubibul v. Mahammad Reza, 8 Cal. 192, where it was further held that a plaint cannot be rejected after registration under section 54 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act XIV of 1882, & Or. 7 r. 11 of the present Act) unless time is given to make up the deficiency.

See also Bhut Nath v. Chandra Binode, 16 C.L.J. 34, where the plaintiff was permitted to convert an application for damages into a plaint in a suit for damages upon payment of ad valorem court-fees.

Central Province (Nagpur).—Where a plaint is presented on paper insufficiently stamped within the prescribed period of limitation and time is given by the Court to the plaintiff to make good the deficiency, which is supplied within the time allowed by the Court, but after the expiry of the period of limitation, the suit is not barred, Mahomed Galif v. Abdul Rahim, 89 I.C. 419: 1926 A.I.R. 156 (Nag.).

Madras High Court.—See Valambal Ammal v. Vythilinga, 25 Mad. 380. See Gavaranga Sahu v. Batokrishna Patro, 32

Mad. 305: 19 M.L.J. 340: 4 I.C. 503 F.B.; Nallavadiya Ammal v. Inbramavia Pillai, 40 Mad. 587.

Patna High Court.—Where the plaint was presented on the last day of limitation with insufficient court-fees and the balance being paid after limitation, it was registered—held that the suit is not barred, Gaya Loan Office, Ltd. v. Audh Behari Lall, 1 Pat.L.J. 420: 3 P.L.W. 51: 37 I.C. 507.

Judicial Committee.—A memorandum of appeal duly presented to and accepted by the Court, even if the valuation be unsatisfactory and in the end insufficient, is validated by additional payment of court-fees, the result being that the memorandum stands good from the date of presentation. The memorandum is not a nullity, Faizullah Khan v. Mauladad Khan, L.R. 56 I.A. 232: 10 Lah. 737: 31 Bom.L.R. 481: 33 C.W.N. 781: 50 C.L.J. 39: 57 M.L.J. 281: 1929 M.W.N. 818: 117 I.C. 493: 1929 A.I.R. 147 P.C.

Limitation.—Once a Court has accepted payment of deficit on a memorandum of appeal, no further question of limitation arises. A Court cannot permit the deficiency to be made up and then hold that the appeal is barred by limitation, Jawala Singh v. Musst. Dhano, 133 I.C. 122: 1931 I.R. 746 (Lahore); Durga Charan Naskar v. Dookhiram Naskar, 26 Cal. 925 above.

An appeal was filed on the last day of limitation with insufficient court-fees. The deficit was supplied subsequently (out of time) and the Court ordered the deficit court-fees so paid to be accepted. The appeal was then heard and admitted under Or. 41, Rule 11, C. P. C. and then posted for final hearing. A question was then raised whether the appeal was a valid appeal. The High Court held that such a question could not be raised at that stage, Musst Choti v. Hardayal Singh, 1933 A.I.R. 572 (All.): 1933 A.L.J. 1357: 146 I.C. 753.

Court's power to grant extension of time, S. 149, C. P. C.—Under the present Act, the power is exercised under sections 148 and 149 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908). The principle to be looked to is whether there is a bona fide mistake on the part of the plaintiff or the appellant.

A Court has power to grant extension of time originally fixed to put in deficit court-fees after the expiry of the original period, Dewan Amir Hossain v. Nanak Chand, 12 C.L.J. 62: 14 C.W.N. 882: 6 Ind. Cas. 424, see also Surendra Prasad v. Aftafuddin Ahmed, 26 C.W.N. 391: 70 I.C. 43 where extension of time was granted after the dismissal order for non-payment of court-fees was set aside on review, Bhagwan Das v. Abu Ahmed, 15 Bom. 263.

In the following cases plaint was filed with insufficient stamp and it was held that the Court can grant an extension of time and on the deficiency being made up, the plaint was regarded as if filed in time, Brahmomoysi v. Andi, 27 Cal. 376; Shib Krishna Dawn & Co. v. Satis Chandra, 38 Cal. 522; Karman v. Cockell, 1 C.W.N. 670; Bidhata v. Ram Charita, 12 C.W.N. 37 (43); 6 C.L.J. 651; Hem Chandra v. Doorga Pada, 3 Ind. Cas. 435; Kishore v. Sabdal, 12 All. 553; Hari Ram v. Akbar Hussain, 29 All. 749 (case of a mistake in payment of court-fees); Govaranga v. Boto Krishna and others, 32 Mad. 305; 19 M.L.J. 340; 4 Ind. Cas. 503.

When an appeal was filed in time but was insufficiently stamped and on the deficiency being pointed out to the appellant by the office, he disputed the report and did not make up the deficiency till long after the appeal was barred by time, held he could not get an extension of time, Wadhawa Singh v. Sunder Singh, 21 P.W.R. 1921: 59 I.C. 689.

Time for payment of deficit court-fees should not be extended unless there is a bona fide mistake, Lekh Ram v. Ramji, 1 Lah. 234: 3 L.L.J. 370: 57 I.C. 215; Umed Ali v. Municipal Committee, Jhang Maghiana, 1 L.R. 2 Lah. 1: 2 L.L.J. 486: 8 P.W.R. 1920: 56 I.C. 143: 1922 A.I.R. 233 (Lah.). See also Fatteh Singh v. Babu Ram, 67 I.C. 130; Puran Chand and others v. Emperor and others, 1926 A.I.R. 343 (Lah.): 92 I.C. 991; J. C. Gaulstun v. Kumar Pramatha Nath Ray, 33 C.W.N. 883: 1929 A.I.R. 470 (Cal.). The Court may refuse to extend the time if the law is clear and there is no bona fide mistake, Mahomed Suleman v. Ghumandilal, 32 P.L.R. 251: 134 I.C. 127: 1931 A.I.R. 343 (Lah.): 1931 I.R. 895 (Lah.).

Section 149, C. P. C. must not be so construed as to nullify the provisions of section 4 of the Court Fees Act, hence if the appellant deliberately and to suit his own convenience pays insufficient court-fees on his appeal the Court is not bound to receive the same and extend the time, Ram Sahay Ram Pandey v. Kumar Lakshmi Narayan Singh, (1917) 3 P.L.J. 47: 5 P.L.W. 18: 42 I.C. 675; Tikan Ram v. Bosa Ram, 67 I.C. 106; Singasau v. Gaya Tewari, 1935 A.I.R. 201 (Pat.).

Court has power to extend the time allowed under the Limitation Act for supplying Court Fee Stamp, Adamali v. Abdul Ali and another, 107 I.C. 223: 1928 A.I.R. 87 (Sind).

The discretion extends to the whole or any part of any fee prescribed and can be exercised at any stage in the case, while finally, upon the extra payment being made, the document is to have the same effect as if it had been paid in the first instance, Faizullah Khan v. Mauladad Khan, L.R. 56 I.A. 232: 10 Lah. 737: 33 C.W.N. 781: 50 C.L.J. 39: 31 Bom. L.R. 841: 57 M.L.J. 281: 1929 M.W.N. 818: 117 I.C. 493: 1929 A.I.R. 147 P.C.

In Ahmad Kasimullah v. Khatum Bibi, (1931) 59 Cal. 833 (837), the Calcutta High Court allowed additional court-fees to be put during the progress of the suit.

Where the plaintiff was unable to purchase court-fees owing to the fact that the supply was exhausted in the local collectorate and the plaint was therefore presented with deficit court-fees, it was held that the plaint must be deemed to have been presented at the proper time, Mahomed Safi Muhammad Ayub v. Delhi House of Multan, 1928 A.I.R. 274 (Lah.).

The Court has power under s. 149, C. P. C. to grant time for payment of the deficit court-fee at any time, either before or after the registration of the plaint and even after the expiry of the period of limitation. The propriety of the discretion exercised by the Court under that section cannot be challenged in revision, Mahomed Galif v. Abdul Rahim, Receiver, 89 I.C. 419: 1926 A.I.R. 156 (Nag.).

An appeal cannot be filed with insufficient court-fees with the knowledge that it is insufficient. The discretion allowed under s. 149 of the Code of Civil Procedure can be exercised only when there is a bona fide mistake or a bona fide misunderstanding of the law as to valuation and cannot include a case where the appellants never cared to find out the proper amount of court-fees they had to pay on their memorandum of appeal, Patil Shyamlal v. Gourishankar, 119 I.C. 700: 1929 A.I.R. 294 (N.).

In Brijbhukan v. Tota Ram, 50 All. 980: 26 A.L.J. 199: 118 I.C. 228: 1929 A.I.R. 75 (All.) the Allahabad High Court remarked on the objectionable practice of filing of an appeal on the last day of limitation with an obviously insufficient stamp, but it was held in Jagannath v. Ramgopal, 1934 A.I.R. 160 (All.): 1934 A.L.J. 533: 147 I.C. 342, that if the Court orders payment of court-fees and grants two days' time to put in the deficit then such extension of time cannot be revised and the plaint is to be deemed as sufficiently stamped in the 1st instance.

Receiving a memorandum of appeal presented with a court-fee of Re. 1, which was on the face of it insufficient is without jurisdiction. The provisions of s. 149 are intended to apply to cases of bona fide mistakes in valuation and not to cases where a party consciously and intentionally puts insufficient court-fee on a document in an attempt to avoid the law of limitation, Jnanada Sundari Saha v. Madhab Chandra Mala, (1931) 59 Cal. 388 (392); Akharaju Narayana v. Akharaju Sheshamma, (1914) 27 M.L.J. 677. In re Sm. Khatumunnessa Bibi, 61 Cal. 663: 38 C.W.N. 650: 1934 A.I.R. 659 (Cal.) some extension of time was granted.

But in Achut Ram Chandra v. Nagappa Bab Balgya, (1913)

38 Bom. 41: 15 Bom.L.R. 902: 21 I.C. 337, a memorandum of appeal was presented with a court -fee of 8 annas while the requisite court-fee was Rs. 205, but the Bombay High Court held that under Or. 7, rule 11 (c), the plaint shall be rejected only if the plaintiff on being required by the Court to supply the requisite court-fee within a time to be fixed by the Court fails to do so. The appellate Court is to exercise the same power under s. 107 (2) of the Code of Civil Procedure. Therefore rejection of the memorandum of appeal without grant of time was bad.

Pauper applications.—An application to sue as a pauper was accompanied by an unstamped plaint and the Court held that it can under the powers vested in it by s. 149 of the Code of Civil Procedure permit the requisite stamp to be paid thereon within a time fixed by it and after that has been done the unstamped plaint will be considered to have been validly presented on proper stamp duty on the date on which it was originally filed, Bank of Bihar Ltd. v. Sri Thakur Ram Chowdhury and others, 9 Patna 439: 11 P.L.T. 55: 1929 A.I.R. 637 (P.): 118 I.C. 329. See also Doorga Charan Naskar v. Dookhiram Naskar, 26 Cal. 925; Skinner v. Orde, L.R. 6 I.A. 126: 2 All. 241: 4 C.L.R. 331; Maria Thangammal v. Iravatheswara Ayer, 1915 M.W.N. 228, where the High Court held that if a Court admits and registers a plaint by a pauper plaintiff on payment of court-fees, it must be taken to have extended the time, an application for that purpose is not necessary.

Contra—See Sook Lal v. Dalchand and others, (1923) 1 Ran. 196: 74 I.C. 835: 1923 A.I.R. 256 (Ran.) where the court-fees were paid after limitation on rejection of the application to extend the time.

Facts must be brought to the notice of the Court.—When a party puts in requisite court-fees after the expiry of time and the appeal was registered, that is not an enlargement of time as an application is necessary and the facts must be brought to the notice of the Court. The Registrar of the Court of Small Causes cannot grant extension of time under section 148 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908), Budhan Shah v. Sitanath, 13 C.L.J. 78: 7 Ind. Cas. 578; Farjand Ali v. Abdul Hamid, 60 I.C. 493; but see Pawan Kumar Chand v. Dulari Kuar, 5 P.L.J. 544: 1 P.L.T. 544: 58 I.C. 216, where it was held that no express orders being necessary, registration of appeal on payment of court-fees after the expiry of the period fixed is implied extension of time.

Extension of time after signing the decree.—If it be provided in a decree that if the court-fees are paid within one month then the appeal will be allowed otherwise it will be dismissed, then the time limited by it cannot be extended by the successor-in-office of the judge who signed the decree, Nawab Khajeh Habibullah v. Sm. Gota Asmater Khatun and others, 27 C.W.N. 720: 37 C.L.J. 395: 74 I.C. 575: 1923 A.I.R. 612 (Cal.).

The Court is to exercise discretion.—In Jai Singh v. Sita Ram, 21 A.L.J. 333: 74 I.C. 757: 1929 A.I.R. 349 (All.) it was held that a learned judge has no right to reject an appeal for insufficiency of stamp without exercising any discretion in the matter.

Negligence of Counsel.—Where the appellant's counsel obviously acted with gross negligence in valuing the appeal, the delay in making good the deficiency that occurred in consequence of sheer negligence cannot be condoned, Gursarandas v. District Board, Jullunder District, etc., 102 I.C. 615: 9 L.L.J. 290: 28 Punj.L.R. 338. See Ram Labhaya v. Vaid Prakash, 1934 A.I.R. 414 (Lah.), where the attention of the counsel was drawn to the fact of the insufficiency but the counsel did not supply the deficiency and the time was not extended.

Misconduct of a pleader's clerk.—Where the plaintiff handed over the deficit court fees to the pleader's clerk to be paid into Court, but the clerk instead of paying the same into Court misappropriated it, and filed an application for extension of time, which the Court rejected, the plaintiff on hearing this filed an application for setting aside the order of rejection, which was dismissed, held that the application by the plaintiff is an application to extend the time and that under the circumstances of the case as the plaintiff did everything and did pay the amount to the pleader's clerk time should be extended, Adit Prasad Singh v. Ramharakh Ahir, I.L.R. 4 Patna 180: 1925 Pat. C.W.N. 147: 91 I.C. 213: 1925 A.I.R. 435 (Pat.).

Calculation of time.—Where deficit court-fees were ordered to be paid within a week, the date of the order is to be excluded in computing the week allowed to put in the deficit court-fees, Gopal v. Bahorni, 15 C.L.J. 120. Where the order was to supply the deficit court-fees within a month, otherwise the appeal will stand dismissed, but the last day of the time allowed fell on a holiday and the court-fees were supplied on the re-opening date, held that the court-fees were supplied in time, Amir Mondal v. Mohan Chandra, I.L.R. 3 Pat. 337: 80 I.C. 1930: 1924 A.I.R. 663 (Patna).

Admission of appeal.—Subject to objection.—An order of appeal Court excusing delay in payment of court-fees on a memorandum of appeal, is according to the practice of the Madras High Court, made subject to objection at the hearing, Acharath Parakhat v. Acharath Bappu, 23 Ind. Cas. 949.

Effect of the order under s. 148.—An order under s. 148, C. P. C. is not an order admitting or rejecting a plaint, Budhan Sha v. Sitanath, 13 C.L.J. 78: 7 Ind. Cas. 58.

Power of Appeal Court to interfere with the orders of the Lower Court in extending the time.—When a judge passes an order under section 149 of the Code of Civil Procedure, it is to be considered that he has exercised his discretion as provided by section 149, C. P. C. and an appellate Court cannot interfere with the exercise of such discretion, Priyanath v. Meajan Sardar, 24 C.L.J. 88: 29 Ind. Cas. 571; Ramlall v. Khudattunnissa, 12 A.L.J. 709: 23 Ind. Cas. 408; Jai Singh Gir v. Sita Ram Singh, 74 Ind. Cas. 757; 21 A.L.J. 333: 1923 A.I.R. 349 (Allahabad).

An appeal Court can neither extend the time fixed for payment of court-fees nor reduce the period within which it is ordered to be given. Sections 148 and 149, C. P. C. do not give the power either jointly or separately, Nathersa Rowther v. Mahomed Rowther, 28 Ind. Cas. 890.

Remedy in case of an order for rejection.—Where an order for rejection has been passed, the Court cannot order restoration of appeal either under section 151, C. P. C. or under Order IX, Rule 9, C. P. C. The remedy is by an application for review, Rameshwardhari Singh v. Sadhu Saran Singh, I.L.R. 2 Pat. 504: 4 Pat.L.T. 261: 72 I.C. 629: 1923 A.I.R. 354 (Patna).

Power of appeal Court to reject memorandum of appeal for non-payment of proper court-fees in time.—It is doubtful whether the Courts can at once reject the plaint for insufficiency of court-fee. Section 54 (b) of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act XIV of 1882) requires that the plaint is to be rejected if the plaintiff fails to put in court-fees within the time fixed by the Court, (also vide Or. 7, r. 11 of the present Code, Act V of 1908). In the case of Moti Sahu v. Chhatri Das, 19 Cal. 780, the Calcutta High Court said, "that the Courts are at liberty to extend period for completing the formalities requisite to make a plaint a regular plaint, so as to be registered in the Court to which it is presented when written on a paper insufficiently stamped, is shown by section 54 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Clause (b) of that section enables a Court to fix a time within which the requisite stamped paper is to be furnished and provision made that if this indulgence is not taken advantage of, the plaint shall be rejected. If the requisite stamp is put in, and the plaint is otherwise regular, it is admitted and registered. Section 4 of the Limitation Act requires that every suit shall be instituted within the period prescribed therefor by the second Schedule of the Act, and the explanation sets out that (for the purposes of limitation) a suit is instituted in ordinary cases where the plaint is presented to the proper officer. There is thus a distinction recognized between presentation of a plaint with the terms of section 48 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and its admission, after all requisite formalities, including the payment of necessary court-fees, shall have been completed."

Where a Court finds that a plaint or a memorandum of appeal is filed with insufficient court-fees, the correct procedure is to call upon the plaintiff or appellant to make good the deficiency and on failure to do so, to enforce its order by dismissal of suit or appeal, Brij Krishna Das v. Murli Rai, 4 Pat. L.J. 703: 56 Ind. Cas. 316. See also Padmananda v. Ananta Lal, 34 Cal. 20: 11 C.W.N. 38: 4 C.L.J. 422 F.B.

The provisions of Order 7, Rule 11 are mandatory, and they require that where a plaint is written upon paper insufficiently stamped, the Court is bound to give the plaintiff time to make good the deficiency, Radha Kanta Saha and others v. Debendra Narain Saha and others, 49 Cal. 880: 27 C.W.N. 567: 38 C.L.J. 74: 70 Ind. Cas. 101: 1922 A.I.R. 506 (Calcutta). See also Achuta Ram Chandra v. Nagappa, 38 Bom. 41: 15 Bom.L.R. 902: 21 Ind. Cas. 337; Subramania Ayyar v. Rama Ayyar, 54 M.L.J. 67: 105 I.C. 881: 1927 A.I.R. 1002 (Mad.): 27 L.W. 489; see also Musst. Jintan v. Ahmad and others, 106 I.C. 817: 1928 A.I.R. 221 (Lah.); Raoji Bhiosanji v. Collector, Amraoti, 1934 A.I.R. 263 (Nag.).

The only order the Court can pass for non-compliance with its order to pay the court-fees demanded by the Court, is one of rejection of plaint. It cannot permit the suit to be withdrawn with liberty to bring a fresh suit, Musst. Asghari Begum v. Fasihuddeen, 1934 A.L.J. 820: 4 A.W.R. 920: 1934 A.I.R. 989 (All.).

Amendment of pleadings.—See Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908), sec. 153 and Or. 6, r. 17 and r. 18, as to the power of Court to amend pleadings and Or. 14, r. 5, as to the power of Court to amend issues. As to power of appellate Court, see section 107 (2) and section 108 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Order 6, r. 17 of the Code of Civil Procedure authorises the Court to allow, at any stage of the proceedings an amendment of the pleadings in such manner and on such terms as may be just and renders it obligatory upon the court to allow all necessary amendments for the purpose of determining the real matter in dispute between the parties. In this case the suit was for an injunction on the ground that the decree was fraudulent, and an amendment was allowed setting out an alternative ground in support of the injunction that the decree was inoperative against the plaintiff; amendments must not be allowed to prejudice the substantial rights of the party in favour of whose opponent the amendment is allowed and if the party applying is acting malafide or by his blunder has done some injury to his opponent which cannot be compensated for by costs or otherwise, Mani Lal v. Harendra Lal, 12 C.L.J. 556. The Court allowed amendment by insertion of another prayer in the following cases: Bai Anope v. Mulchand Girdhar, 9 Bom. 353 (insertion of a prayer for accounts); Sardar Singhji v. Ganpat Singhji, 14 Bom. 395 (prayer for injunction inserted); Abulkadar v. Mahomed, 15 Mad. 15, (prayer for possession inserted).

But where the objection is not taken for the first time in appeal and the plaintiff elected to take an issue and to allow the suit to proceed subject to the risk of an adverse decision, the Court refused to allow amendments, Narayana v. Shankunni, 15 Mad. 255. Where the plaintiff had an opportunity but did not avail himself of it, the Court refused to allow amendment, Raj Narayan v. Shama Nanda, 26 Cal. 845. Where the plaintiff has put a bona fide valuation on his claim, he cannot afterwards be allowed to alter the valuation, especially if the effect of such valuation be to oust the jurisdiction of the Court; but such bona fide valuation would not affect the plaintiff's rights to recover a larger amount if such amount be, on enquiry, found due to the plaintiff, Arogya v. Appachi, 25 Mad. 453: 14 M.L.J. 35. The proper valuation in the case of an amended plaint is that ascertained at the date of the original filing of plaint, Moro Biswanath v. Ganesh Vithal, 10 Bom. H. C. A. C. 444, Khelat Chunder v. Nasseebunnissa, 16 W.R. 47.

When an application is allowed to be amended so as to convert it into a plaint and proper court-fees paid thereon, the plaint was held to have been presented on the date when the application was presented, Bhutnath v. Chandra Binode, 16 C.L.J. 34.

But mere payment of court-fees without actually amending the plaint is not amendment of the plaint, Rebati Raman Basak v. Harish Chandra Basak, 24 C.W.N. 749.

Amendment of valuation.—Power of Appeal Court.—Appeal Court cannot give option to the plaintiff to limit his claim to the extent of court-fees paid, Valli Ise Amanji v. Mahmud Adam, 16 Bom.L.R. 763: 26 Ind. Cas. 746. The Chief Court (Burma) refused to allow amendment of the valuation, so as to bring the valuation within the jurisdiction of the Chief Court, Thein Yin v. Foucar Brothers Co. Ltd., 4 L.B.R. 120; but if the plaintiff at the initial stage of suit abandons a portion of his claim, he cannot be compelled to pay court-fees upon that claim under the penalty of having his whole claim dismissed, Ram Prosad v. Bhiman, 27 All. 151: 24 A.W.N. 198:

1 A.L.J. 577. The Punjab Chief Court allowed the Defendant-Appellant, who had filed an appeal insufficiently stamped, to abandon a part of his claim in appeal and to restrict the dispute to the amount on which he paid court-fees, Dunni Chand v. Abdul Aziz, 131 P.L.R. 1911: 10 Ind. Cas. 207: 11 P.R. 1912.

Where a suit was framed as a suit for declaration but was found in the appeal Court as one coming under s. 7 IV (c) of the Court Fees Act, the appeal Court refused to allow amendment as there is no allegation that a fresh suit would be barred, Hakim Rai v. Firm Ishar Das—Gurkhi Rai and others, I.L.R. 8 Lahore 521: 9 L.L.J. 400: 102 I.C. 46: 1927 A.I.R. 499 (Lahore).

See also other cases under heading 'Reduction of claim' under Sch. I, Art. 1, infra.

Suit by paupers.—See Or. XXXIII, rr. 8, 10, 11 and 12 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908).

For Pauper appeals.—See Or. XLIV of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908).

Assessment of court-fees.—If a plaintiff succeeds in his suit instituted forma pauperis then the assessment is to be made on the value of the properties at the date of the application for permission to sue in forma pauperis and not at the disposal of the suit, although the value of the property may have decreased during the pendency of the suit, Abubakar Tarmahomed v. Fatma Bai, 27 S.L.R. 240: 1933 A.I.R. 354 (Sind). See also Kaman Mada v. Mullai, 91 I.C. 302: 1926 A.I.R. 159 (Mad.).

As to procedure after the application is admitted.—See Or. XXXIII, r. 8; all court-fees in respect of the suit are excused but not fees in respect of service of processes.

In case the full court-fee is paid subsequently either during the pendency of the enquiry into pauperism or after the rejection of the petition to sue as pauper but within time allowed to pay the court-fees, the suit is to be considered as instituted on the day the petition to sue as pauper was presented, Skinner v. Orde, 2 All. 241: L.R. 6 I.A. 126: 4 C.L.R. 331; Janakdhary v. Janki, 28 Cal. 427; Swan Tee v. Ma Ngwe, 9 Bur.L.T. 69: 32 Ind. Cas. 630; Jamnabai v. Visson das, 21 Bom. 576; Bai Ful v. Desai Manorbhai, 22 Bom. 849. See contra, Keshav Ram Chandra v. Krishnarao, 20 Bom. 508. In Alayakamma v. Subbaraya, 28 Mad. 493: 15 M.L.J. 219, it was held that "the payment of stamp duty, however, relates back to the date of presentation of the plaint, as a proper plaint, in the absence of any evidence to show that there was fraud in putting the plaint without a stamp."

A plaintiff who is unable to pay court-fees may continue it in forma pauperis.—A plaintiff who is unable to pay the additional court-fees demanded of him may be allowed to prosecute his suit in forma pauperis, even if the suit has been registered and issues framed on the court-fees as originally paid, if the plaintiff is not otherwise prevented by the provisions of rule 8, Or. 33 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Subbarao v. Venkataratnam and others, 53 Mad. 43: 1929 A.I.R. 828 (Mad.): 30 L.W. 637: 57 M.L.J. 677. See also Bava Sahib Miyan v. Abdul Ghani Sahib and others, 64 M.L.J. 728: 37 L.W. 725: 1933 M.W.N. 468: 1933 A.I.R. 498 (Mad.).

Defence formâ pauperis.—Although there is no provision in the Code of Civil Procedure, a Court has power to allow a defendant to defend in formâ pauperis—as the power to allow such a request is not taken away by the Code and the Court can exercise such power, Doorga Charan v. Nittokally, I.L.R. 5 Cal. 819: 6 C.L.R. 120.

Review.—When an application for review is presented in a suit in formâ pauperis that application is not liable to any court-fee, Kunda Bibi v. Naina Bibi, 20 All. 410: 18 A.W.N. 95. But in Punjab unless a petitioner has been declared a pauper in a previous stage of suit or appeal, he cannot file a review formâ pauperis, Karom Khan v. Buta Khan, 91 P.R. 1895.

Appeal formâ pauperis.—See Or. XLIV, C. P. C. (Act V of 1908). Where the appeal was admitted and registered without objection by the opposite party and a deficiency in court-fees was subsequently discovered, the appellant was allowed to make good the deficiency and it was held that the appeal was in time, Durga Charan v. Dookhiram, 26 Cal. 925; Seva Dutt v. The Collector of Lahore, 144 P.W.R. 1909; Muhammad Farzand Ali v. Rahat Ali and others, 40 All. 381: 16 A.L.J. 309: 45 I.C. 29. When an application for leave to appeal in formâ pauperis is rejected the appeal goes with it; the Court may under s. 149, C. P. C. allow or disallow time to put in the court-fees, Vertennes v. Rawson, 13 Ran. 50.

Cross-objection.—See Or. XLI, r. 22 Proviso of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. An application for leave to file a petition of cross-objection in formâ pauperis can be entertained under the Code of Civil Procedure, Gobinda Rani v. Radha Ballabh, 12 C.L.J. 173.

Recovery of court-fees by Government in Pauper Suits.—The Government cannot attach and sell the decree itself in favour of the pauper plaintiff to realize the court-fees due to it. Sections 273 and 284 (Or. XXI, rr. 53 and 64) do not contemplate such a sale, Jatindra v. Dwarka, 20 Cal. 111.

An application for leave to file a suit formâ pauperis was filed before the amendment of the Court Fees Act and leave was granted after the amended Act came into operation. The suit was decreed and on the question as to the amount of court-fees to be realized by Government, held that the plaintiff must be deemed to have been presented on the date the application for leave was presented, hence court-fees are payable on the old scale and not under the Amended Act, Kaman Toda and others v. Malli and another, 49 M.L.J. 538.

Sec. 35 of the Code of Civil Procedure is wide enough to enable a Court to order the payment to Government of court-fees in a suit in formâ pauperis as costs in the suit, although the Government may take the amount as revenue, Elumalais Naicker and another v. Kuppammal and others, 58 M.L.J. 623: 1930 M.W.N. 289: 1931 A.I.R. 249 (Mad.): 53 Mad. 716: 31 L.W. 633: 128 I.C. 156: 1931 I.R. 12 (Mad.).

Precedence.—Sec O. XXXIII, r. 10, C. P. C. (Act V of 1908) and section 411, C. P. C. (Act XIV of 1882), which have been construed to mean that “though it indicates the manner in which Crown may proceed to realize the debt (court-fees), it does not preclude the Crown or its representative from urging its prerogative and insisting on its right to precedence over all other creditors,” Gyanadabala v. Butta Kristo, 33 Cal. 1040: 10 C.W.N. 857 (861); The Collector of Krishna v. Gajjala Sreeramamoorthy, 80 I.C. 935.

The right of precedence of the Crown was recognized in the following cases, Gunpat Putaya v. The Collector of Kanara, 1 Bom. 7; Gulzari Lal v. The Collector of Bareilly, 1 All. 596; The Collector of Moradabad v. Muhammad Daim, 2 All. 196; Ramdas v. The Secretary of State, 18 All. 419: 16 A.W.N. 121.

Separate suit.—Government need not bring a separate suit; but where the sale of a portion is subject to a mortgage, then the claim of the mortgagee is superior to the claim of the Government as the property of the mortgagor is liable to pay court-fees and not that of the mortgagee, Dost Muhammad v. Mani Ram, 29 All. 537: 27 All.W.N. 157: 4 A.L.J. 720. See also Or. 33, rule 13, C. P. C.

Right of Government not barred by lapse of time.—The right of Government to recover stamp fees in a successful pauper suit is not barred by any lapse of time, Shami Mohammad v. Munshi Mohammad, 2 B.L.R. App. 22.

Mode of Realization.—The Court is entitled to recover court-fees as a charge upon the property in possession of the successful plaintiff in a pauper suit, if its attempts to recover the same from the defendant personally fail. This may be done by an application in the proceeding under Or. XXXIII, rr. 10 and 13 and not by a separate suit, Babu Girija Kuar v. Secretary of State, 4 Pat.L.J. 166. The Collector cannot sell the decree in favour of the successful plaintiff, Jatindra Nath v. Dwarka Nath, 20 Cal. 111; Sultan Koer v. Gulzari Lal, 2 All. 290; Tiruvengada v. Vythilinga, 6 Mad. 418.

Pauper's claim admitted in part.—Where the pauper plaintiff's claim was admitted in part by the defendant who offered to pay the part admitted to the plaintiff at any time he would ask for it, the High Court ordered that under the circumstances of the case, the subordinate judge should grant application of the plaintiff to sue as a pauper and at the same time issue an injunction on the plaintiff and the defendant not to take the admitted amount out of Court till such time as proper orders are passed with regard to court-fees after the termination of the suit, Provash Chandra Lahiri v. The Chairman of the Municipal Commissioners of Howrah, 57 Cal. 980: 34 C.W.N. 188 (191): 125 I.C. 102: 1930 A.I.R. 147 (Cal.): 1930 I.R. 486 (Cal.).

Character of Claim by Government.—It is a first charge (Order 33, rule 12). In a suit by wife claiming her dower debt against the mortgagee decree-holder of the properties of her husband, claiming priority over the mortgage, the wife obtained a money decree, and the Government claimed court-fees under section 411, C. P. C. (Act XIV of 1882) as a first charge and sold the properties in auction, and the sale for realization took place first. The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council said: "The decree of 11th of May 1879 did not create or purport to create any charge on the mortgaged property in favour of the Government. The Government had no right to attach the property and sell it in execution under that decree, though of course, such interest, if any, as remained in the mortgagor from whom the court-fees were declared to be recoverable, might have been reached by a proper proceeding. The order for the first sale was, therefore, without jurisdiction, and the sale passed no property to the declared purchaser", Ragho Prasad and others v. Lala Mewa Lal and others, 15 C.L.J. 327 (331): 16 C.W.N. 433: 34 All. 223: 9 A.L.J. 401: 39 I.A. 62: 1912 M.W.N. 311: 22 M.L.J. 457: 13 Ind. Cas. 177. But where a portion of the subject matter of the pauper suit is sold to realize the dues of the Government in court-fees, and purchased by the plaintiff, the claim by a purchaser in execution of a decree in a subsequent suit cannot prevail against the plaintiff as under section 411, C. P. C., the stamp fees recoverable by the Government is a first charge upon the property, Puthia Valappil v. Veloth Assenar, 25 Mad. 733: 12 M.L.J. 405. If there is nothing due to Government in court-fees an order for sale and a sale under that order is ultra vires and a nullity, Balwant v. Muhammad Hussain, 15 All. 324.

Claim against purchaser of the decree in favour of the pauper.—A purchaser of the decree in favour of a pauper plaintiff takes the decree subject to the charge in favour of Government under Order 33, rule 10 as to court-fees only and is not liable for the fees due to the Government Pleader, Secretary of State v. Shiva Dutt, 147 I.C. 751: 1934 A.I.R. 438 (All.).

Appeal by Government.—In case of an adverse order in realization of court-fees, the Government can appeal to a higher Court under section 47, C. P. C. as if the Government was a party to the suit, see Order XXXIII, r. 11, C. P. C. This rule sets at rest the difference of opinion of several High Courts as to the power of Government to file an appeal against an adverse order.

When the Government cannot claim the court-fees and costs.—Where no enquiry was made as to the pauperism of a minor plaintiff who was not properly represented by a next friend, no costs would be given against the estate of the minor and if passed, the order is ultra vires and illegal, Amirchand v. Collector of Sholapur, 13 Bom. 234.

Compromise of suit.—The word “fails” in section 412, C. P. C. (Or. XXXIII, r. 11) applies only to the cases of adjudicated failure; therefore the party who compromises suit without trial is not liable to pay court-fees, The Collector of Kanara v. Krishnappa, 15 Bom. 77. See also Bai Chandaba and another v. Kuver Saheb, 18 Bom. 464. But these authorities were modified by a Full Bench of the Bombay High Court in the case of Secretary of State v. Bhagirathi Bai, 31 Bom. 10: 8 Bom.L.R. 689, where the plaintiff was ordered to pay court-fees when he withdrew his suit without leave as the result of compromise, see also Balwant Singh v. Rochan Singh, 18 All. 253 (255); Reference under Court Fees Act, 4 M.L.J. 98. A suit in forma pauperis for possession of a moiety of a house by a widow against her co-widow was compromised by a decree for maintenance of Rs. 8 a month which was made a charge upon the house. The Government then applied for realisation of court-fees by appointing a receiver to collect the maintenance. The High Court held that as the amount of maintenance is not attachable a receiver could not be appointed and refused the prayer, Secy. of State for India v. Bai Sonni, 57 Bom. 507: 35 Bom.L.R. 615: 146 I.C. 340: 1933 A.I.R. (Bom.) 350; see also Secy. of State v. Sarvepalli Venkata Lakshmana, 49 Mad. 567.

Withdrawal of suit.—See Or. XXXIII, r. 11, C. P. C. (Act V of 1908). Where a pauper plaintiff withdraws a suit with liberty to bring a fresh suit, he is liable to pay court-fees to Government, Secretary of State v. Narayan, 20 Bom. 102. See also Secretary of State v. Bhagirathi Bai, 31 Bom. 10: 8 Bom.L.R. 689. The word ‘withdrawn’ has been added by Act V of 1908.

Dismissal of Suit by Pauper without trial.—A plaintiff who has filed a suit formá pauperis is liable to pay court-fees even if the suit be dismissed without trial, The Collector of Visagapatam v. Abdul Karim and others, 12 Mad. 113: 8 M.L.J. 4; The Collector of Trichinopoly v. Sivaramakrishna, 23 Mad. 73: 9 M.L.J. 265. See contra—The Collector of Canara v. Krishnappa, 15 Bom. 77.

Return of Pauper Plaintiff.—Where the plaint was returned to be presented to proper Court and the Court ordering the return ordered the plaintiff to pay court-fees, the High Court in revision set aside that order, Collector of Ratnagiri v. Janardan, 6 Bom. 590.

Portion of plaintiff's claim allowed.—Where in a suit brought in formá pauperis, the suit was partly decreed and partly dismissed and the trial Court ordered in awarding costs against defendant, that the defendant should pay the entire amount of court-fees payable on the plaint, held that court-fees payable on the plaint should have been apportioned between the plaintiff and the defendant in accordance with their respective success, Chandrareka v. Secretary of State, 14 Mad. 163 followed in Ganga v. Musst. Goura, 38 All. 469: 14 A.L.J. 657: 35 Ind. Cas. 46. Where a portion of the claim is allowed the Government is only entitled to so much amount in court-fees as is payable on the amount decreed, Chandrareka v. Secretary of State, 14 Mad. 163. See Janki v. Collector of Allahabad, 9 All. 64: 6 All.W.N. 300.

Where the claim of the plaintiff who was allowed to sue in formá pauperis succeeded as to part, then the defendant is liable only for the court-fees proportionate to that and the rest being payable by the plaintiff, Rami Reddi v. Chenchu Palamma, (1930) 53 Mad. 780: 36 L.W. 172: 129 I.C. 66: 1930 A.I.R. 1000 (Mad.): 1931 I.R. 210 (Mad.).

Where the plaintiff claimed maintenance and the defendant totally denied the right to claim maintenance but the Court decreed the suit partially and ordered the defendant to pay the court-fees entirely, held that the discretion of the Court as regards the order as to court-fees has been rightly exercised in view of the fact that the defendant had denied the right entirely, Rohini Kumar Pal v. Kusum Kamini Pal, 32 C.W.N. 48: 105 I.C. 725.

Power of Collector.—The Collector of a district may, on sufficient grounds, remit the court-fees recoverable by Government from any party, after judgment, B. G. R. No. 3945, dated 14th September, 1877.

Payment of court-fees after limitation in Pauper Suits.—The plaintiff filed an appeal in formá pauperis in time, valuing his appeal at Rs. 2,500 instead of Rs. 230 on which he paid court-fees in the trial Court and the District Judge directed the Sub-Judge to enquire into pauperism and held that the value is the correct value and the plaintiff paid the court-fees within time allowed. The High Court held that the appeal is not time-barred, Bai Ful v. Desai Manorbhai, 22 Bom. 849 (856).

An application for leave to sue formá pauperis accompanying an unstamped memorandum of appeal, filed in time, was rejected by the District Court within the X'mas vacation. On the re-opening day of the District Court, the appellants applied for and obtained leave of Court to pay the requisite court-fees within three weeks, and paid the court-fees within that time, held that the appeal was in time and must be deemed to have been filed on the original date of filing; and that the rejection of application to present the appeal forma pauperis does not lead to a dismissal of appeal and that the appellate Court has power under sections 148 and 149, C. P. C. to grant extension of time (22 Bom. 880 followed), Nalladiva v. Subramania Pillai, 40 Mad. 687: 31 M.L.J. 269. See also Patcha Shaheb v. The Collector of North Arcot, 15 Mad. 78; Maria Thangathammal v. Iravathiswara Iyer, 1915 M.W.N. 228; Raja Ram v. Tilock Chand, 30 P.L.R. 1903; Swan Tee v. Ma Ngwe, 9 Bur.L.T. 69: 32 Ind. Cas. 630; Janakdhary v. Janki Koer, 28 Cal. 427; Durga Charan v. Dookhiram, 26 Cal. 925; Skinner v. Orde, P.C. 2 All. 241: L.R. 6 I.A. 126: 4 C.L.R. 331.

There can be no objection to a petition to sue in formá pauperis, which has not been granted, being registered as a plaint in the suit on full fees being paid. The suit ought not to be dismissed for non-payment of costs incurred by Government in opposing the petition, when no demand for its payment was made at any time either on behalf of Government or by Court, although payment of such costs is a condition precedent under section 413 of the Code of Civil Procedure, (Act XIV of 1882), Mrinalini Devi v. Tinkouri, 16 C.W.N. 641: 14 Ind. Cas. 297. See contra—Aubhaya Charan v. Bisseswari, 24 Cal. 889, where it was held that when an application for permission to sue formá pauperis is rejected and a full court-fee is paid for the same relief, the suit for the purpose of limitation, must be deemed to have been instituted when the full court-fee was paid and not at the date of presentation of petition for permission to sue in formá pauperis. See also Hari Singh v. Gur Baksh, 130 P.L.R. 1909: 94 P.R. 1909: 95 P.L.R. 1909.

Effect of reducing claim.—A pauper appellant may abandon a portion of his claim, after rejection of his application to sue in forma pauperis and pay court-fees on the diminished valuation. No question of mala fides arises in such a case, Rajendra Prasad Bose v. Gopal Prasad Sen, 9 Pat.L.T. 613.

Court-fee payable on application for execution.—Court-fee is payable on such an application, see under Art. 11, Schedule II of the Act.

Appeal from Order.—See Article 11 of the second schedule to this Act and the cases collected under that Article.

Remand Orders.—The memorandum of appeal in an appeal from remand order is to be stamped under Art. 11, Schedule II of the Court Fees Act. See cases under Art. 11, Schedule II. But where a suit for possession was dismissed by the First Court and on appeal the lower Appellate Court decreed the suit holding that the plaintiff is entitled and sent back the case to the first Court for ascertainment of mesne profits, held that the appeal presented to the High Court was an appeal from appellate decree and the memorandum should be stamped with an ad valorem court-fee, Raghunath v. Jhari Singh, 3 Pat.L.J. 99: 45 Ind. Cas. 100. A suit for the recovery of arrears of rent was dismissed by the trial Court on the merits. On appeal the District Court set aside the decision of the trial Court and remanded the case for the determination of the amount of rent payable. The defendants appealed to the High Court against the order of remand, held that the appeal was from an appealable decree and not from an order. So the memorandum of appeal must bear an ad valorem court-fee stamp, Pandit Singh v. Kode Narain Singh, 50 Ind. Cas. 367 (Patna).

7. The amount of fee payable under this Act in the suits next hereinafter mentioned [except suits for relief under s. 14 of the Religious Endowments Act, 1863, or under s. 91 or s. 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908,—added in Madras] shall be computed as follows:—

Computation of fees payable in certain suits—

(i) In suits for money (including suits for damages or compensation, or arrears of maintenance, of annuities, or of other sums payable periodical-ly)—according to the amount claimed;

(ii) In suits for maintenance and annuities or other sums payable periodically—according to the value of the subject-matter of the suit, and such value shall be deemed to be

[in suits for maintenance, the amount claimed to be payable for one year and in other suits—added in Madras]

[Provided that, in suits by widows for maintenance such value shall be deemed to be the amount claimed to be payable for one year—inserted by Ajmere-Marwara Court Fees Amendment Act, 1930 (Act No. 31 of 1930)]

ten times the amount claimed to be payable for one year;

(iii) In suits for moveable property other than money, where the subject-matter has a market-value—according to such value at the date of presenting the plaint;

(iv) In suits—

(a) for moveable property where the subject-matter has no market-value, as, for instance, in the case of documents relating to title,

(b) to enforce the right to share in any property on the ground that it is joint family property [omitted in Bengal],

(c) to obtain a declaratory decree or order, where consequential relief is prayed,

(d) to obtain an injunction, [or other consequential relief,—added in Bombay]

(e) for a right to some benefit (not herein otherwise provided for) to arise out of land, and

(f) for accounts,—

according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or memorandum of appeal [with a minimum fee of rupees five in the case of suits falling under clause (c)—inserted in Bombay and C. P.]

[subject to the provisions of section 8C—added in Bengal]

[Provided that in suits coming under sub-clause (c), in cases where the relief sought is with reference to any immoveable property, such valuation shall not be less than half the value of the immoveable property calculated in the manner provided for by paragraph (v) of this section—added in Madras].

In all such suits the plaintiff shall state the amount at which he values the relief sought.

[Added in Madras—

(IVA) In a suit for cancellation of a decree for money or other property having a money-value, or other document securing money or other property having such value, according to the value of the subject-matter of the suit, and such value shall be deemed to be—

if the whole decree or other document is sought to be cancelled, the amount or the value of the property for which the decree was passed or the other document executed, if a part of the decree or other document is sought to be cancelled, such part of the amount or value of the property.]

(v) In suits for the possession of land, houses, and gardens—according to the value of the subject-matter; and such value shall be deemed to be—where the subject-matter is land, and—

(a) where the land forms an entire estate, or a definite share of an estate, paying annual revenue to Government, or [where the land—in C. P.] forms part of such an estate, and is recorded in the Collector's register as separately assessed with such revenue and such revenue is permanently settled—ten times the revenue so payable;

[Twenty times in Bihar and Orissa, Assam, Madras and U. P.]

(b) where the land forms an entire estate, or a definite share of an estate, paying annual revenue to Government, or [where the land—in C. P.] forms part of such estate, and is recorded as aforesaid; and such revenue is settled, but not permanently—five times the revenue so payable;

[Ten times in Bihar and Orissa, Madras, Punjab, and six times—in U. P. and seven and a half—in C. P.]

(c) where the land pays no such revenue, or has been partially exempted from such payment, or is charged with any fixed payment in lieu of such revenue, and nett profits have arisen from the land during the year next before the date of presenting the plaint—fifteen times such nett profits;

but where no such nett profits have arisen therefrom—the amount at which the Court shall estimate the land with reference to the value of similar land in the neighbourhood;

(d) where the land forms part of an estate paying revenue to Government, but is not a definite share of such estate, and is not separately assessed as above mentioned—the market-value of the land:

Provided that, in the territories subject to the Governor of Bombay in Council, the value of the land shall be deemed to be—

Proviso as to Bombay Presidency,

- (1) where the land is held on a settlement for a period not exceeding thirty years, and pays the full assessment to Government,—a sum equal to five [seven and a half—in Bombay] times the survey-assessment;
- (2) where the land is held on a permanent settlement, or on a settlement for any period exceeding thirty years, and pays the full assessment to Government— a sum equal to ten [fifteen—in Bombay] times the survey-assessment; and
- (3) where the whole or any part of the annual survey assessment is remitted—a sum computed under paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of this proviso, as the case may be, in addition to ten [fifteen—in Bombay] times the assessment or the portion of assessment, so remitted:

Explanation.—The word “estate,” as used in this paragraph, means any land subject to the payment of revenue, for which the proprietor, or farmer or raiyat, shall have executed a separate engagement to Government, or which, in the absence of such engagement, shall have been separately assessed with revenue;

[For Madras only—

Provided that if rules are framed under s. 3 of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, for determining the value of land for the purposes of jurisdiction, the value so determined shall be deemed to be the value of the land for the purposes of this paragraph.]

(v) In suits for the possession of land, buildings or gardens—

(a) according to the value of the subject-matter, and such value shall be deemed to be fifteen times the nett profits which have arisen from the land, building or garden during the year next before the date of presenting the plaint, or if the Court sees reason to think that such profits have been wrongly estimated, fifteen times such amount as the Court may assess as such profits or according to the market-value of the land, building or garden, whichever is lower;

(b) if, in the opinion of the Court, such profits are not readily ascertainable or assessable, or where there are no such profits, according to the market-value of the land, building or garden.

Explanation.—In this paragraph “building” includes a house, out-house, stable, privy, urinal, shed, hut, wall and any other such structure, whether of masonry, bricks, wood, mud, metal or any other material whatsoever.]

(vi) In suits to enforce a right of pre-emption—according to the market-value of the land, building or garden in respect of which the right is claimed.

Explanation.—In this paragraph 'building' has the same meaning as in paragraph v.

(viA) In suits for partition and separate possession of a share of joint family property or of joint property, or to enforce a right to a share in any property on the ground that it is joint family property or joint property—

if the plaintiff has been excluded from possession of the property of which he claims to be a co-parcener or co-owner—according to the market-value of the share in respect of which the suit is instituted.]

(vii) In suits for the interest of an assignee of for interest of assignee of land revenue ; land-revenue—fifteen times his nett profits as such for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint ;

(viii) In suits to set aside an attachment of land or to set aside an attachment ; of an interest in land or revenue—according to the amount for which the land or interest was attached :

Provided that, where such amount exceeds the value of the land or interest, the amount of fee shall be computed as if the suit were for the possession of such land or interest ;

(ix) In suits against a mortgagee for the recovery to redeem ; of the property mortgaged, and in suits by a mortgagee to to foreclose ; foreclose the mortgage, or, where the mortgage is made by conditional sale, to have the sale declared absolute—according to the principal money expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage ;

[For U. P. and C. P.—

(ix) In suits against a mortgagee for the recovery of the property mortgaged—according to the principal money expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage.

(ixA) In suits by a mortgagee to foreclose the mortgage, or, where the mortgage is made by conditional sale, to have the sale declared absolute—(according to the total amount claimed by way of principal and interest—in U. P.) and (according to the amount claimed as due at the date of presenting the plaint—in C. P.)] for specific performance ;

(x) In suits for specific performance—

(a) of a contract of sale—according to the amount of the consideration ;

(b) of a contract of mortgage—according to the amount agreed to be secured ;

(c) of a contract of lease—according to the aggregate amount of the fine or premium (if any) and of the rent agreed to be paid during the first year of the term ;

(d) of an award—according to the amount or value of the property in dispute ; between landlord and tenant.

(xi) In the following suits between landlord and tenant:—

(a) for the delivery by a tenant of the counterpart of a lease,

(b) to enhance the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy,

(c) for the delivery by a landlord of a lease,

(cc) for the recovery of immoveable property from a tenant, including a tenant holding over after the determination of a tenancy,

(d) to contest a notice of ejectment,

(e) to recover the occupancy of immoveable property from which a tenant has been illegally ejected by the landlord, and

(f) for abatement of rent—

according to the amount of the rent of the immoveable property to which the suit refers, payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

NOTES.

Amendments.—The words “and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, section thirty-one, shall apply as if for the word ‘claim’ the words ‘relief sought’ were substituted” were repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1891 (Act XII of 1891), in paragraph iv, of this section.

The clause (cc) in paragraph xi, was inserted by the Court Fees (Amendment) Act, 1905 (VI of 1905), section 2 (1).

The words “immoveable property” in paragraph xi, clauses (c) and (f) were substituted for the word “land” by section 2 (2) of the Court Fees (Amendment) Act (VI of 1905).

Local Amendments.—This section has been amended in Bengal, Assam, C. P., Bihar and Orissa, Bombay, Madras, Punjab and U. P. For the Amendment Acts, vide Appendices, infra.

Valuation.—Civil Courts Acts of the various Provinces confer jurisdiction on several grades of Courts established in the Province based on the valuation for jurisdiction by the plaintiff. The Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908) in section 15 also enacts that every suit shall be instituted in the Court of the lowest grade competent to try it and section 21 of the present Code of Civil Procedure lays down that objection to the exercise of jurisdiction shall be taken at the earliest opportunity and even as regards court-fee matters (43 Bom. 507: 23 C.W.N. 33). The question cannot be raised afterwards (24 Mad. 398 and 21 Mad. 269). Valuations regarding suits for lands are to be regulated by Part I, of the Suits Valuation Act, which confers upon the Local Government, subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, powers to make rules for the purpose of determining the values of the land for the purpose of jurisdiction in suits mentioned in the Court Fees Act (Act VII of 1870), section 7, paragraphs v and vi and paragraph x (d). Suits under section 7, paragraph iv or Schedule II, Art. 17 of the Court Fees Act (Act VII of 1870) so far as they relate to land are to be governed by the rules framed under section 4 of the Suits Valuation Act (Act VII of 1887) and the plaintiff is not entitled to put a higher valuation on the suit than what is covered by his interest in the litigation, Narayan Singh v. Aliyasami Reddi, 39 Mad. 602 (603). Part II of the Suits Valuation Act deals with suits other than lands. Section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act says that in suits under section 7 other than those mentioned in paragraphs v, vi, ix and clause (d) of paragraph x, the valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction and of court-fees shall be the same, and section 9 says that if in the opinion of the High Court the subject matter of any class of such suits does not admit of being satisfactorily valued then such High Court with the previous sanction of the Local Government is to direct that suits of that class be treated as if the subject-matter were of such value as the High Court thought fit to specify. When rules are so framed then the valuation for suits other than those in section 7, paragraphs v, vi, ix and clause (d) of paragraph x of the Court Fees Act will be supplanted and court-fees ad valorem on the valuation fixed will have to be paid, Ganpatrao v. Laxmi Bai, 15 N.L.R. 84: 43 Ind. Cas. 64.

When there is in the Act itself a special rule as to valuing the property in suits for court-fees, it is proper to take that method of valuation in preference to any other method to get the value and where there is no indication then any other method should be adopted, Venkata Narasimha Raju v. Chandrayya, 53 M.L.J. 267: 105 I.C. 171: 26 L.W. 159: 1927 A.I.R. 825 (Mad.).

A plaintiff having a wide discretion in valuation values the suit in a particular way; and when he has done so he cannot be allowed to show that such value did not represent the true value. The plaintiff is precluded from showing that his valuation as given in the plaint is not the real value or from setting up a different valuation, Mahammad Hossain Khan v. Manzar Ali, 38 C.W.N. 751: 59 C.L.J. 448: 1934 A.I.R. 809 (Cal.); Mahendra Narain v. Janaki Nath, 58 Cal. 66: 132 I.C. 910: 1931 A.I.R. 417 (Cal.).

Valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction.—For the purpose of jurisdiction the valuation should be according to the market value of the subject-matter of suit and not according to the provisions of the Court Fees Act, Jeebraj v. Inderjeet, 18 W.R. 109: 12 B.L.R. 115 (notes); See also Nanhoon Singh v. Toofanee, 20 W.R. 39: 12 B.L.R.A.C. 113; Chandranath v. Brindaban, 25 W.R. 39. The valuation of the subject-matter of suit for the purpose of jurisdiction and the valuation for the purpose of court-fees are two different things. The valuations for the purpose of stamp duty are fixed by artificial rules, while the valuation on which depends the jurisdiction of the several grades of Courts is the actual value of the property in litigation, Aukhil Chunder v. Mohiny Mohan, 5 Cal. 489: 4 C.L.R. 491. See also Kirty Churn v. Aunath'Nath, 8 Cal. 757: 11 C.L.R. 95.

In those class of cases where, for example, the class of suits indicated in section 7, paragraph xi of the Court Fees Act, the Court Fees Act itself enacts the method of calculation of court-fees, then according to section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, the artificial value is to govern the valuation for jurisdiction. This is only where there is conflict with the provisions of the Court Fees Act and the provisions of the Suits Valuation Act. In Sailendra v. Ram Charan, 25 C.W.N. 768: 34 C.L.J. 94, the High Court said: "The procedure to be adopted in cases of this character is obvious; first, value the suit for payment of court-fees in accordance with the rule embodied in section 7, sub-section (x), clause (c) of the Court Fees Act; then adopt the valuation so determined for the purpose of court-fees, as the value for purposes of jurisdiction." See also Hari Sanker and others v. Kali Kumar, 32 Cal. 734: 9 C.W.N. 690; Bai Varunda Lakshmi v. Bai Manigavri, 18 Bom. 207; Velu Goundan v. Kumara Velu, 20 Mad. 289. According to the above criterion, when it happens that the suit is not instituted in the Court of lowest grade competent to try it, section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act saves the litigant, Sailendra v. Ram Charan, 25 C.W.N. 768: 34 C.L.J. 94 (96); Nildhi Lal v. Magha, 7 All. 230; Matra Mandal v. Hari, 17 Cal. 155. But in Nanak v. Guranditta, 63 P.R. 1902, it was held that section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act so far governs section 7 of the Court Fees Act as to indicate that it was not the intention of the Legislature that a plaintiff would be able to put an arbitrary value on the suit, and therefore in a suit for injunction without damages, the court-fees payable is on the valuation for jurisdiction within the limits of the rules under section 9 of the Suits Valuation Act.

The Court Fees Act is not to be resorted to for the purpose of the valuation of the subject-matter of suits, Dayachand v. Hemchand, 4 Bom. 515; Rupchand v. Valvant Narayan, 11 Bom. 511; Amrita v. Naru, 13 Bom. 489; Bai Meher v. Magan Chand, 29 Bom. 96. But this can only happen where the provisions of section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act do not require the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and valuation for the purpose of court-fees, to be identical. The plaint alone is to be considered and not subsequent circumstances in the valuation of a suit, Rajabala Dassi v. Radhicacharan, 40 C.L.J. 150: 1924 A.I.R. 969 (Cal.): 79 I.C. 982.

It is to be noted that a party cannot by payment of excess court-fees confer jurisdiction on another Court, Gopala Menon v. K. V. Raman Menon, 1932 M.W.N. 53.

Where there is no basis for valuation.—Where there is no basis for a valuation the plaintiff may make an imaginary valuation but he must pay court-fees on such valuation as the Court may subsequently make. The valuation by the plaintiff must be reasonable, Dipchand Dowlatram v. Firm of Permanand Chimandas, 79 I.C. 582 (Sind) : 1924 A.I.R. 144 (Sind).

Different Valuations.—If different valuations are made one for the purpose of jurisdiction and the other for the purpose of court-fees, the plaintiff should at once be called upon either to amend the valuation so as to bring the case within the special jurisdiction or take back the plaint to be presented to proper Court; but if the defendant did not raise any objection at trial and the Court proceeded to judgment then no objection can be raised at a later stage, Balkrishna Narayan v. Jankibai, 44 Bom. 331: 22 Bom.L.R. 289: 57 I.C. 340.

The plaintiff is not entitled to put a higher valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and a lower valuation for the purpose of court-fees (where these should be the same), Jogeshra v. Durga Prasad, 36 All. 500: 12 A.L.J. 844: 24 I.C. 679; Manni Lal v. Radhey Gopalji, 47 All. 501: 23 A.L.J. 344: 1925 A.I.R. 602 ((All.): 87 I.C. 190.

The plaintiff is not entitled to put a higher valuation on the plaint for the purpose of jurisdiction and thereby obtain an adjudication from a superior Court, and cannot make a lower valuation for the purpose of court-fees in cases where such values should be equal, Kandhaiya Ojha v. Musst. Jagrani Kuar, 46 All. 419: 22 A.L.J. 349: 79 I.C. 358; Sriram v. Dataram, 16 S.L.R. 109: 70 I.C. 852: 1922 A.I.R. 20 (Sind); M. Ayimuddin v. S. E. S. Kadira Rowthan, 1918 M.W.N. 40: 43 I.C. 995.

Under sec. 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, the plaintiff is debarred from putting one valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and another for the purpose of court-fees, Rajkrishna Dey v. Bepin Behary, 16 C.L.J. 194: 40 Cal. 245. See also the judgment of Rankin C.J. in Kali Pada Mookherjee v. Basanta Kumar Dutt and others, 58 Cal. 281: 34 C.W.N. 870: 1930 A.I.R. 686 (Cal.).

Note.—When a suit is separately valued, the court-fees are generally paid in this way, viz., ad valorem court-fees on a lower valuation for the purpose of court-fees plus a court-fee as on a suit for declaration, but the party omits to consider that a court-fee as on a declaration can be paid only when the suit is one for a declaration without consequential relief under Art. 17, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, and if there be a consequential relief, then the suit is one for declaration with consequential relief.

Conflict of section 7 of the Court Fees Act with section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act.—In case of conflict of section 7 of the Court Fees Act with section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, "the right construction of section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act is that the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction should, in the cases mentioned there, follow and be the same as the valuation for court-fees," Sailendra v. Ram Charan, 34 C.L.J. 94: 25 C.W.N. 768. See other cases under sec. 7 (iv) (c), infra.

Valuation rests with plaintiff.—The valuation rests with the plaintiff and not with the Court, Golab Dai v. Jiwaneer, 2 All. 320; Ostoche v. Haridas, 2 A. 869; Jogal Kishore v. Tale Singh, 4 All. 320; Sheodeni Ram v. Tulsi Ram, 15 All. 378; Manohar Ganesh v. Bawa Ram, 2 Bom. 219; Sardar Singi v. Ganpat, 17 Bom. 56; Bai Verunda v. Bai Manigavri, 18 Bom. 207; Vachhani Keshabhai v. Vachhani Nanubhai, 33 Bom. 307: 1 I.C. 108: 11 Bom.L.R. 30; Hari Sankar v. Kali Kumar, 32 Cal. 734: 9 C.W.N. 690, followed in Jogendra v. Toriatunnessa and others, 35 C.L.J. 144: 62 Ind. Cas. 685: (1922) A.I.R. 242 (Calcutta); Jan Mahomad v. Masher, 34 Cal. 352: 11 C.W.N. 458: 5 C.L.J. 400; Ram Ekbal v. Baledao, 19 C.L.J. 418; Prahlad v. Dwarka, 14 C.W.N. 929; Velu Gounden v. Kumar Velu, 20 Mad. 289; Samiya v. Minamal, 23 Mad. 490; Guru Viamma v. Venkata, 25 Mad. 34; Chinnammal v. Madarsa Rowther, 27 Mad. 180; Sunderbai v. The Collector of Belgaum, 43 Bom. 376 (P.C.): 23 C.W.N. 753; Krishnarao v. Musst. Chandrabhagabai, 79 I.C. 668 (Nagpore); Tayabally Abdul Hussain v. Messrs. James Finlay & Co., 80 I.C. 969 (Sind); The Official Trustee of Bengal v. Gobardhan Guchait and other, 33 C.W.N. 231: 118 I.C. 357; Pannalal Lala v. Abdul Gani and others, 34 C.W.N. 321: 127 I.C. 665: 1930 A.I.R. 473 (Cal.); In re Kalipada Mookherjee, 58 Cal. 281: 34 C.W.N. 870: 1930 A.I.R. 686 (Cal.); Musst. Chhaterpali and others v. Mt. Kalap Dei, 54 All. 232: 1931 A.L.J. 837: 135 I.C. 237: 1932 A.I.R. 114 (All.); Ghulam Haidar v. Bishambhar Das, 33 P.L.R. 458; Jhanda Singh v. Gulab Mal—Bhagwan Das, 33 P.L.R. 488: 137 I.C. 240: 1933 A.I.R. 246 (Lah.): 1932 I.R. 320 (Lah.).

The valuation should not be arbitrary.—The valuation should not be arbitrary but should be a reasonable valuation, Motibhai v. Haridas, 22 Bom. 315; Baidyanath v. Makhan, 17 Cal. 680; Krishna Das v. Hari Charan, 14 C.L.J. 47: 15 C.W.N. 823: 10 Ind. Cas. 865; Bepin v. Raj Krishna, 40 Cal. 245: 16 C.L.J. 94: 17 C.W.N. 591: 17 I.C. 162; 40 Cal. 245: 16 C.L.J. 94: 17 C.W.N. 591: 17 I.C. 162; Mohendra v. Dinabandhu, 19 C.L.J. 15: 21 Ind. Cas. 771; Rajabala v. Radhika Charan, 40 C.L.J. 150: 1924 A.I.R. 969 (C.); Jageshra v. Durga Prosad, 36 All. 500: 12 A.L.J. 844: 24 Ind. Cas. 679; Shama Prosad

v. Sheoparsan, 2 Pat.L.W. 173: 41 Ind. Cas. 95; Harichand v. Jiwan Mal, 255 P.L.R. 1903: 28 P.R. 1903.

The valuation of a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief must not be arbitrary and in case of a dispute as to valuation the Court is to determine the value, Kalicharan v. Shivshankar, 79 I.C. 113: 1924 A.I.R. 295 (Nag.). See also Bara Mal v. Tulsi Ram, 9 Lah. 366: 9 L.L.J. 579: 29 Punj. L.R. 27: 107 I.C. 609: 1927 A.I.R. 890 (Lah.).

The plaintiff cannot put an arbitrary value upon the relief he claims but is bound to assess at the market value of the interest he claims, Kattiya Pillai and others v. Rameswami Pillai (insane), by his wife etc., 56 M.L.J. 394: 1929 M.W.N. 286: 29 L.W. 584: 1929 A.I.R. 396 (M.).

A valuation cannot be accepted if it appears on the face of it not to be a reasonable valuation, Jogendra Nath Singh v. Radha Prasad, 13 P.L.T. 590: 140 I.C. 817: 1932 A.I.R. 319 (Patna); Ramcharitar Pandey v. Basgit Roy, 11 Patna 161: 1932 A.I.R. 9 (Patna); 12 P.L.T. 656: 1931 I.R. 399 (Patna): 133 I.C. 687; Nadir Khan Abdullah Khan v. Firm of the Cox's and King's Shipping Agency Ltd., 25 S.L.R. 15: 130 I.C. 445: 1931 A.I.R. 15 (Sind); Maung Nae and another v. Maung Kha Pu, 142 I.C. 705: 1933 A.I.R. 40 (Ran.).

But in suits for accounts and mesne profits an approximate value is to be given, see Or. 7, r. 2, C. P. C., and see also Manohar v. Bawa, 2 Bom. 219; Gulab v. Abdul, 21 Cal. 365.

Power of Court to revise the valuation.—The Court can revise the valuation if it is capricious and arbitrary. See Umatul v. Musst. Nauji, 11 C.W.N. 705: 6 C.L.J. 427 where the Calcutta High Court held that “it is not only within the power of the Court but it is also its duty to take action under section 54 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act XIV of 1882) if it established that the valuation is improper.” See Bakwant Rai v. Bhima Sankar, 13 Bom. 517.

The provisions of the Court Fees Act are controlled by the provisions of Or. 7, Rule 1 (2) and Rule 11, Cl. (b), C. P. C. and when the Court finds that the relief has been valued arbitrarily or improperly, the Court can compel the plaintiff to revise the valuation and pay the court-fees thereon, Shivandas Matu-mal v. Hariram and another, 1933 A.I.R. 322 (Sind): 27 S.L.R. 335: 147 I.C. 251. A Court may in a suit for declaration with consequential relief revise the valuation if it be arbitrary, but such revision by Court should be based on evidence, Ramcharitar Pandey v. Basgit Roy, 11 Patna 161: 12 P.L.T. 656: 133 I.C. 687: 1932 A.I.R. 9 (Patna): 1931 I.R. 399 (Patna).

But according to Madras High Court such power is limited to cases mentioned in section 9. The Madras High Court said that "the trial Court cannot refuse to accept the valuation made by the plaintiff under the sanction of verification the amount at which he values the relief sought," nor can it revise it "a power which is limited to cases provided for by section 9 which relates to an estimate given by the plaintiff of the annual nett profits of the land or the market value of the land, house or garden as mentioned in section 7, paragraphs v and vi.....Section 9 provides inter alia that it is competent to the High Court with the previous sanction of the Local Government to frame rules for the valuation of suits referred to in paragraph iv of section 7 of the Act and for determining the jurisdiction of the Court and until such a rule is framed the valuation given by the plaintiff cannot be revised, Channammal v. Madarsa, 27 Mad. 480: 14 M.L.J. 343: See also Samiya v. Minammal, 23 Mad. 490: 10 M.L.J. 240; Guruvaiyamma v. Venkata Krishnamma, 25 Mad. 34.

But see Krishna Mallar v. The Secretary of State for India, 1914 M.W.N. 767 where the Madras High Court held that a party cannot make different valuations.

Sec. 151, C. P. C.

Where a plaintiff puts an absurd overvaluation in order to have the suit tried by a particular Court that Court can interfere with the valuation so made under s. 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Rajendra Bakhsh Singh v. Musst. Bahu Rani, 107 I.C. 330: 1928 A.I.R. 260 (Oudh).

In Narayanganj Co-operative Society Ltd., v. Maffizuddin Ahmad, 61 Cal. 798: 38 C.W.N. 589: 59 C.L.J. 233: 149 I.C. 3: 1934 A.I.R. 448 (Cal.) F.B., the Calcutta High Court held that though Or. 7, r. 11 which in its clause (b) gives the Courts power in a case of undervaluation of a relief to require the plaintiff to correct the valuation given by him in his plaint and to reject the plaint in case the plaintiff fails to do so, appears in a procedural code, while nothing as to such correction is stated in the taxing statute itself, namely, the Court Fees Act, yet the two enactments have to be read together and simultaneously given effect to when there is nothing in either enactment expressly indicating any contrary intention. Sub-section (iv) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act should be read as controlled by Or. 7, r. 11 (b) of the C. P. Code, but until standards are laid down by appropriate rules framed under s. 9 of the Suits Valuation Act, it would not be possible for the Courts to exercise this power except in those classes of cases falling under the clause in which the valuation made by the plaintiff is illegal, palpably absurd, manifestly illogical or arithmetically wrong.

* Note.—The Court has power to revise the valuation by the plaintiff in spite of the provisions of the Court Fees Act, under Rules 10 and 11 of Order 7 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. Sec. 7 is within Chapter III of the Court Fees Act, so also is sec. 12 of the Court Fees Act and under sec. 12 of the Court Fees Act the Court has power to investigate and revise the valuation. An appeal Court may revise the valuation made by the trial Court when the question has been wrongly decided to the detriment of revenue. In this connection it is desirable to compare the provisions of sec. 7, paragraph iv of the Court Fees Act which enacts that court-fees are to be paid "according to the amount at which the relief sought is valid in the plaint or memorandum of appeal." See also sec. 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, where the words are "the value as determinable for the computation of court-fees and the value for purposes of jurisdiction shall be the same." The words "as determinable" obviously mean as determinable by Court, the final authority in all disputes between the parties. (31 Bom. 73). The Court Fees (Bengal Amendment) Act VII of 1935 has given the Court express powers to revise the valuation.

Allegations by the plaintiff are to be considered and not the statements by the deft. in the W. S.—The valuation, generally, is the valuation by the plaintiff; the plaint only is to be taken into consideration and not the statements by the defendant in the written statement. "The Court has got to look at and see in each particular case what is the nature of the relief claimed and, for that purpose, it must look at the allegations that are contained in the plaint," Bagala Sundari v. Prasanna, 21 C.W.N. 375: 35 Ind. Cas. 797; Manghammal v. Tolaram, 6 S.L.R. 72: 16 Ind. Cas. 773. For the purposes of stamp duty the cause of action which is stated in the plaint, and that only, must be looked at, Mahendra Chandra Ganguli v. Ashutosh Ganguli, 20 Cal. 762; Rajabala v. Radhika, 40 C.L.J. 150: 1924 A.I.R. 969 (Cal.); Zinnatunnessa v. Girindra, 30 Cal. 788; Tulsi Bibi v. Furokh Bibi and others, 60 C.L.J. 377.

See also Karuppa Tevar v. Angammal and others, 51 M.L.J. 67: 96 I.C. 129: 1926 A.I.R. 678 (Mad.), where it was held that for the purpose of ascertaining the court-fee payable, the Court must have regard to the allegations in the plaint. It is not material whether these have been denied or not in the written statement. See also Chingacham Vitil Sankaran v. Chingacham Vitil Gopal, 30 Mad. 18; Venkata Ramani v. Narayansami, 1925 M.W.N. 276. The amount of court-fees leviable is to be determined on the construction of the plaint alone, Ishwari Prasad and others v. Rai Hari Prasad Lal, 6 Pat. 506: 8 P.L.T. 34: 106 I.C. 620: 1927 A.I.R. 145 (Patna); Musst. Barkatunnissa v. Musst. Kaniz Fatima, 5 Pat. 631: 98 I.C. 817: 1927 A.I.R. 140 (Patna); Tekait T. Narayan Singh v. Saiyid Dildar Ali Khan, 3 Pat. 403: 6 Pat.L.T. 191: 80 I.C. 544: 1925 A.I.R. 210 (Pat.);

Banku v. Chatur, 1924 A.I.R. 640 (Pat.); Hasan Khan v. Ahmad Khan, 1935 A.I.R. 30 (Pesh.)

The plaintiff brought a suit for recovery of possession of land with mesne profits detailed and specified in the plaint against certain defendants alleging that "as all the defendants have in league and collusion with one another, caused wrong entries to be made in the survey records and have dispossessed the plaintiff, they are all made parties to this suit." Held, on reference, "the claim is one only. The defendants might set up different claims, but the nature of the suit is not to be determined upon the pleas taken by the defendants but upon the frame and scope and the intentions and object of the plaintiff. The plaint and plaint alone will determine it and the court-fee has to be paid upon the determination and scope of it," Mahanth Ram Narayan Gir v. Gauri Shankar Lal and others, 9 P.L.T. 199: 7 Patna 402: 110 I.C. 191: 1928 A.I.R. 274 (Pat.). See also Jai Pratap Narain v. Rabi Pratap Narain, (1930) 52 All. 756: 1930 A.L.J. 984: 124 I.C. 708: 1930 A.I.R. 443 (All.): 1930 I.R. 564 (All.).

The question of court-fees must be decided on the allegations made in the plaint and the relief actually asked for, Radha Krishna v. Ram Narain, 53 All. 552: 131 I.C. 604: 1931 A.I.R. 369 (All.); Asa Ram v. Jagannath, 15 Lah. 531: 36 P.L.R. 48: 150 I.C. 994: 1934 A.I.R. 563 (Lah.) F.B.

Substance of the claim to be considered.—In order to determine the amount of court-fees payable the Court must look to the substance of the claim, and not merely the form in which the relief has been prayed for, Kattiya Pillai v. Ramaswami Pillai (insane) by his wife etc., 56 M.L.J. 394: 1929 M.W.N. 286: 29 L.W. 584: 1929 A.I.R. 396 (Mad.): 119 I.C. 35. The substance and not the language of the plaint is to be looked to and that a suit for a declaration that an instrument of mortgage or sale executed by the plaintiff or a decree that has been passed against the plaintiff is not binding on him, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief, Arunachellam Chetty v. Rangaswamy Pillai, 38 Mad. 922: 28 M.L.J. 118: 1915 M.W.N. 118: 17 M.L.T. 154: 28 I.C. 79 F.B.

"The question whether section 7, paragraph iv, clause (c) applies or not must depend on the substance of the claim and not on the mere words which a plaintiff may choose to introduce into his plaint with reference to it," Chingacham Vitol Sankaran Nair v. Chingacham Vitol Gopala Menon, 30 Mad. 18 (20); Nagbhusanam v. Venkatappayya, 68 M.L.J. 95: 41 L.W. 90: 1935 A.I.R. 203 (Mad.).

The substance and not merely the language of the plaint is to be examined by the Court when the question is whether a purely declaration is sought for or a declaration with a consequential relief has been prayed for, Bindaran v. The Punjab National Bank, Ltd., 30 P.L.R. 176: 1929 A.I.R. 463 (Lah.); Hakim Rai v. The Firm Ishardas-Garakh Rao, 8 Lah. 531: 102 I.C. 46: 1927 A.I.R. 499 (Lah.).

The substance and not the exact reliefs prayed for is to be considered in determining the amount of court-fees payable on a plaint, Kamala Prasad v. Jagarnath Prasad, 10 Patna 432: 130 I.C. 46: 1931 A.I.R. 78 (Patna): 1931 I.R. 142 (Patna). Substance of the claim and not the mere form and words used in the plaint is to be looked at, Gajendranath v. Sulochana, 39 C.W.N. 131: 60 C.L.J. 201: 1935 A.I.R. 338 (Cal.).

If the plaint is deliberately cast into a declaratory form as to evade payment of court-fees, but is nevertheless a plaint for a declaration of title with a consequential relief, the court-fees payable would be ad valorem on the value of the property in dispute. It is the bounden duty of Courts to look into the substance of the relief claimed, Mathura Prasad v. Ram Lal, 11 O.W.N. 1292: 152 I.C. 709: 1934 A.I.R. 505 (Oudh).

Evasion of Stamp Law.—In the following cases High Courts remarked upon the attempt to evade stamp laws, Chokalinga v. Achiyar, 1 Mad. 40; Ganpat Gir, Bholagir v. Ganpatgir, 3 Bom. 230; Bama Sundari v. Soorjo Kumar, 22 W.R. 338, and the parties in these cases were compelled to pay deficit court-fees.

But in Deokali Koer v. Keder Nath, 39 Cal. 704 (707): 16 C.W.N. 383: 15 Ind. Cas. 427 Jenkins, C.J. observed: "It is a common fashion to attempt an evasion of Court Fees Act by casting the prayers in the plaint into a declaratory shape. Where the evasion is successful, it cannot be touched, but the device does not merit encouragement or favour." See also Idol Sri Sri Gokul Nath Jiu v. The New Birbhoom Coal Co., Ltd., 27 C.W.N. 927: 80 I.C. 589 where an attempt to evade was found.

If a plaintiff can evade the Court Fees Act, he may; the remedy for that lies not in withholding a relief to which he is entitled as of right, but in procuring an amendment of the Act, Kunj Bihari v. Keshavlal Hiratal, 28 Bom. 567 (572). See also Mathura Prasad v. Ram Lal, (1934) 11 O.W.N. 1292: 152 I.C. 312: 1934 A.I.R. 505 (Oudh) where the plaint was deliberately cast in a declaratory form to evade payment of court-fees.

An appellant may attack the whole of the decree in order to pay diminished court-fees, while his real grievance is against part of the decree requiring higher court-fee, Nazar Muhammad v. Kala Ram, 9 Lah. 563: 113 I.C. 538: 1929 A.I.R. 190 (Lah.).

The parties may avail themselves of any camouflage that the law allows or does not forbid. The Court is to determine the question having regard to the substance of the claim, Pathumma Umma v. Mohideen, 110 I.C. 752; 1928 A.I.R. 929 (Mad.).

Contra.—"Provisions in fiscal statutes are not to be so construed as to furnish a chance of escape and a means of evasion," Nanhi Lal v. Jogendra Chandra, 28 C.W.N. 403; 39 C.L.J. 222 (228); 82 I.C. 297; 1924 A.I.R. 881 (Cal.).

Effect of a finding by a Court.—Court-fees are to be assessed and levied on the footing of the plaint and not on the findings of a lower Court, Banku Behary Pande v. Chatur Pandey, 5 P.L.T. 655; 1924 Pat. C.W.N. 210; 79 I.C. 913; 1924 A.I.R. 640 (Patna); See also Sri Sri Gokul Nath Jin v. The New Birbhoom Coal Company, Ltd., 27 C.W.N. 927; 80 I.C. 589.

Principle of determination of the nature of suit.—In order to determine the amount of court-fees payable in a suit, the Court is to look at and see in each particular case what is the nature of the relief claimed, and for that purpose, it must look at the allegations that are made in the plaint, Bagala Sundari v. Prosanna, 21 C.W.N. 375; 35 Ind. Cas. 797; Manghamal v. Totaram, 6 S.L.R. 72. "For the right determination of the question at issue it is necessary to ascertain what are the object and the nature of the suit," Bibi Phulkumari v. Ghanshyam, 35 Cal. 202 P.C.; 12 C.W.N. 169; 7 C.L.J. 36. See also Pandit Brij Krishna v. Murli Rai, 4 Pat.L.J. 403. "The question of court-fee must be decided on the plaint; and though it is open to the Court to say that the plaintiff has really asked for a consequential relief though he has tried to conceal it by casting the reliefs in a particular form, it is not open to the Court to say that the plaintiff should have asked for a consequential relief and should have paid the proper fee as in such a suit," Narayan Singh v. Saiyid Dildar Ali Khan, 1925 A.I.R. 210 (P.); 80 I.C. 544; I.L.R. 3 Pat. 915; 6 Pat.L.T. 191.

"The argument in substance is, that the scope of the suit is to be determined not upon the plaint but upon what may be the eventual allegations of the defendant, with the result, that a dispute as to title raised not bona fide but merely as a sham, intended to delay and embarrass the plaintiff, converts the suit into one for declaration of title and recovery of possession. In our opinion, there is no substance in the contention," Bidhata v. Ram Chariter, 12 C.W.N. 37 (40); 6 C.L.J. 651. But in calculating the amount of court-fees to be paid on the memorandum of appeal, sometimes the decisions of the Courts below are taken into consideration. (See Rangomonee v. Jogendra, 9 C.L.J. 128; 3 Ind. Cas. 304), especially in those cases where the Court below finds that an attempt has been made to evade the stamp duty, Chokalinga v. Achiyar, 1 Mad. 40.

The parties may resort to any camouflage which the fiscal law allows or does not forbid. The Court cannot neglect the actual form of the claim and proceed to determine the question of court-fees without regard to the substance of the claim, Pathumma Umma v. Mohideen, 110 I.C. 752: 1928 A.I.R. 929 (Mad.).

In Kalu Ram v. Babu Lal, (1932) 54 All. 812: 1932 A.L.J. 684: 1932 A.I.R. 485 (All.), a Full Bench of the Allahabad High Court said: "The Court has to see what is the nature of the suit and of the reliefs claimed, having regard to the provisions of s. 7 of the Court Fees Act. If a substantive relief is claimed, though clothed in the garb of a declaratory suit with a consequential relief, the Court is entitled to see what is the real nature of the proceedings and if satisfied that it is not a mere consequential relief but a substantive relief it can demand the proper court-fees on that relief, irrespective of the arbitrary valuation put by the plaintiff in the plaint on the ostensible consequential relief."

Effect of events subsequent to filing of plaint.—In appeal the question is whether the decision of the primary Court is correct on the facts as they stood when the judgment was rendered, and no subsequent event or devolution of interest can affect the question because to give effect to them, should justice require it, would be the office not of an appeal but of some supplementary proceedings, Annadamoyee v. Sheeb Chunder, 9 M.I.A. 287 (301).

"In order to determine whether a suit is properly valued or not, it is necessary to confine our attention to the plaint itself and not to look to other circumstances which may subsequently influence the judgment of the Court as to the true value of the relief sought," Rajabala Dasi v. Radhica Charan Roy, 40 C.L.J. 150 (151): 1924 A.I.R. 969 (Cal.).

"The suit, when it was instituted, was in every respect regular and properly stamped, and no action on the part of the defendants subsequent to the institution of the suit could affect or prejudice the plaintiff, who in his plaint asks for no relief beyond the relief he was entitled," Ram Adhar v. Ram Shankar, 26 All. 215 (216, 217).

Where a plaintiff has instituted a suit for declaration of his title and two days afterwards the defendants were put into possession of the property in dispute under a decree, the subordinate Judge asked the plaintiff to amend his plaint so as to include in it a prayer for possession. The plaintiff refused and his suit was dismissed which order was affirmed by the District

Judge on appeal. On further appeal the High Court held that the position of the plaintiff could not be affected by any action taken by the defendants after the suit has been filed and therefore, there neither was nor could have been any omission within the meaning of s. 42 of the Specific Relief Act, the plaintiffs being as a matter of fact in possession at the date of the institution of the suit, Surjan Singh v. Baldeo Prosad, 1900 All. W.N. 172.

Where the right disclosed by the plaint was a right to sue for a mere declaration of title which has ceased upon the death of the widow after the filing of the suit and is replaced by a right to sue for possession an amendment would substantially alter the nature of the suit and rest on an event which did not occur until the suit has been instituted and been dealt with by the Court of first instance. The amendment was refused and the High Court ordered the suit to be tried as it originally stood, Govinda v. Perumdevi, 12 Mad. 136 (138).

The remedy to be granted to the plaintiff should be confined to the cause of action with which he comes into Court. The events that transpire since will not enable him either to add to his reliefs nor will they cut down the rights, G Narayanswamy Naidu v. Kanuru Ramayya, 1914 M.W.N. 870: 16 M.L.T. 244: 26 I.C. 475.

Where the mortgagee-plaintiff brought a suit on the mortgage and obtained a decree and advertised the properties for sale in execution, the defendants, who were brothers of the mortgagor claimed an interest in the mortgaged properties. The execution Court ordered that the claims of the defendants to be also notified in the sale proclamation. The plaintiff brought a suit for declaration that the properties in mortgage belonged exclusively to the mortgagor (and then in execution purchased the properties himself and took possession). The trial Court decreed the suit. Upon appeal the District Judge held that as the mortgagee had purchased the property himself in auction the declaration cannot be made. Held on appeal by the High Court, that the District Judge was wrong. "The change of circumstances brought about by the plaintiff himself in purchasing the property did not take away the right to one already accrued to him, Wamanrao Damodar v. Rustomji Idalji, 21 Bom. 701 (703).

Exception.—"A Court may take notice of events which have happened since the institution of the suit and afford relief to the parties on the basis of altered conditions. This doctrine is of an exceptional character and is implied in cases where it is shown that the original relief claimed has by reason of subsequent change of circumstances become inappropriate, or, that it is necessary to base the decision of the Court on the altered circumstances in order to shorten litigation, or to do complete justice between the parties, Rai Charan Mandal v. Biswa Nath Mandal and others, 20 C.L.J. 107: 26 I.C. 410.

Alternative Relief.—Where the plaintiff claims alternative relief, i.e., he sues for one of the various reliefs, the largest value determines the amount of stamp. Section 17 does not apply to such a suit, Kashinath v. Govinda, 15 Bom. 82; Motigavri v. Pranjivan, 6 Bom. 302; Lachman v. Bahadur, 16 O.C. 354. (See other cases under section 17, infra.)

Scope.—Future mesne profits do not fall under section 7, Vithal Hari v. Govind Vasudeo, 17 Bom. 41.

Application of sec. 7.—Section 7 of the Court Fees Act has no application to appeals in which no amount is claimed, Kesavarapu v. Kotta, 30 Mad. 96: 16 M.L.J. 458: 1 M.L.T. 311.

The application of any particular clause of section 7 must depend on the substance of the claim and not on the mere words used in the plaint, Adager Aiyanger and another, 50 M.L.J. 406: 1926 M.W.N. 777: 1925 A.I.R. 1248 (Mad.).

PARAGRAPH I.

Arrears of maintenance.—The court-fee payable in a suit for money is on the amount of arrears claimed, Shahazadi Begum v. Mahbub Ali, 42 All. 356: 18 A.L.J. 328: 55 Ind. Cas. 809. A suit for a declaration that plaintiff is entitled to realise Rs. 3,500 as maintenance allowance and for a declaration that the plaintiff has a charge on properties for Rs. 3,500 is one for arrears of maintenance and ad valorem court-fees are payable on Rs. 3,500, Musst. Udobai v. Ram Autar, 1934 A.I.R. 150 (Lah.): 149 I.C. 982 (2).

Where the plaintiff claims arrears of maintenance only but no declaration as to future right to maintenance, then the court-fee is payable under sec. 7 (i) and not under sec. 7 (ii) of the Court Fees Act, Musst Bhairon Dei v. Sewak Lal, 107 I.C. 552: 1927 A.I.R. 623 (Oudh).

Claim for Cesses.—The court-fees on a plaint claiming an ascertained sum of money as cesses are to be assessed under s. 7, paragraph i and not under s. 7 paragraph iv, cl. (f) of the Court Fees Act, Phularband Coal Co. v. Burrakar Coal Company, 11 P.L.T. 629: 128 I.C. 795: 1930 A.I.R. 605 (Patna): 1931 I.R. 59 (Patna). See also Butto Krishna Roy v. The Burrakar Coal Co., 10 Patna 458, where it was held that the valuation would be the claim as given in the plaint and the valuation of the appeal whether it be considered as a claim for ascertained amount or for an account, should be the amount of the claim as given in the plaint.

Claims for compensation.—In a suit for damages in default of obtaining accounts against the executor of the estate of his father the plaint is to be stamped with ad valorem court-fees, Ram Doolal v. Gopal Kristo, 16 W.R. 156.

Claims for compensation and damages based on fraud.—Court-fee is payable on the approximate value made by the plaintiff when he filed the plaint; he may pay after the decree the difference in court-fees between the amount paid and the amount necessary, Raghavji v. Annamalai, 17 M.L.J. 625.

Charge.—[Being a claim for money ad valorem court-fees on the amount in claim are payable.]

In Ram Raghubir Lal v. United Refineries (Burma), Ltd., (1933) 60 I.A. 181 (186): 11 Rang. 186: 37 C.W.N. 633: 57 C.L.J. 308: 1933 A.L.J. 541: 35 Bom.L.R. 753: 64 M.L.J. 655: 1933 M.W.N. 461: 37 L.W. 784: 142 I.C. 788: 1933 A.I.R. 143 (P.C.) the Judicial Committee said that under s. 100 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, read with Or. 34, rule 15 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the Court should have passed a preliminary decree for sale as in a suit on a mortgage (for a vendor's lien).

Valuation.—In Krishiama Chariar v. Srinivasa Ayyangar, (1881) 4 Mad. 339, it was held that if the value of the property is in excess of the charge, the value is the amount of the charge, for the subject of the suit is the right to make the property available for the satisfaction of the whole charge; but where the value of the property is less than the amount of the charge, the subject-matter is the right to make the property available for the satisfaction of the charge so far as the property will suffice, and it cannot suffice to satisfy more than a sum proportionate to its value, and consequently in such cases the value of the subject-matter is the value of the property.

Claim for Specific Moveables or Compensation.—Where A to whom a certificate of administration had been issued in respect of the property of a minor in the place of B whose certificate has been cancelled, sued B in respect of certain property of the minor in the possession of B or the value of such property, held, that these are not "distinct subjects" within the meaning of section 17 and the court-fees payable in respect of the plaint is to be computed under section 7, paragraph i of the Act according to total value, Amarnath v. Thakur Das, 3 All. 131.

Compensation for use and occupation.—Where the plaintiff sued for possession and for compensation for use and occupation by virtue of a conditional sale which had been foreclosed, the defendant in occupation of a house which he purchased after the execution of the deed of conditional sale but before foreclosure, held, that the court-fees leviable in respect of the claim is under paragraph 1 of section 7, and section 11 of the Act as regards the claim for use and occupation, Chedi Lal v. Kirath, 2 All. 682.

Instalment Bond.—In case of Instalment Bonds the court-fee payable is on the amount claimed and not on the whole bond, Sutto Bhama v. Jamecruddi, 4 WR.S.C.C. 12.

(See other cases under Sch. I, Art. 1 infra.)

Interest.—No additional stamp is required on account of the claim for interest from institution of suit until payment. It stands on the same footing as future mesne profits which do not fall under section 7 of the Court Fees Act, Vithal Hari v. Govind Basdeo, 17 Bom. 41. But Court Fees are to be paid on past interest claimed in suit. See also under “interest” under Art. 1, Schedule 1 of the Court Fees Act.

Mesne Profits.—In a suit for Washilat (mesne profits) only the court-fee payable is to be computed on the amount claimed in the plaint, Kadir Boksh v. Wise, Marsh, 165: 1 Hay 370. When a suit for declaration of title and possession with mesne profits is decreed and the amount of mesne profits is directed to be ascertained in execution held, on an appeal by the defendant, that the memorandum of appeal should bear court-fee stamp upon the amount of the mesne profits claimed antecedent to suit. The case is governed by section 7, sub-section (1), Bunwari Lal v. Daya Sankar, 13 C.W.N. 815: 1 Ind. Cas. 670.

For other cases see under section 11 of the Court Fees Act.

Money.—According to section 7, clause (1) of the Court Fees Act, the fees payable in a suit for money must be according to the amount claimed. Where the plaintiff sued for recovery of Rs. 1,123-4-0 alleged to be due to him, after deducting a sum of Rs. 2,500 (said to be due by him to the defendant on account of the price of certain goods) from Rs. 3,623-4-0 which he assessed as the amount of damages suffered by him by reason of the defendant's failure to perform certain contracts entered into between the parties, held that the court-fees paid ad valorem on the amount actually claimed are sufficient, Qyam Uddin v. Delhi Flour Mills Company, 47 Ind. Cas. 992: 175 P.W.R. 1918.

But a suit for recovery of purchase price is a suit for specific performance, Bhasya Karlu v. Andalammal, (1918) M.W.N. 896.

Mortgages.—In suits for sale the court-fees payable are to be computed on the principal plus interest up to the date of suit, Nama Bin v. Hari Bin, 7 Bom.L.R. 194. If the suit be against the heir of the mortgagor and also for sale not only of the mortgaged properties but also of other properties of the mortgagor in the name of the heir, the suit is for money and should be valued at the entire amount claimed plus interest and court-fees calculated ad valorem on that basis, Kashmath v. Ganpatrao, 18 Bom. 696. When the plaintiff sued for sale on a mortgage but the trial Court passed a decree not only on the mortgage but also on two other prior mortgages for which relief was not asked for, and no provision made in the decree for the sale of the property to satisfy these debts, if paid, held on appeal, that no court-fees are payable in respect of the additional relief granted in the decree which the High Court amended and the High Court expressed an opinion that the appellant will be able to obtain a return of the additional court-fees which they have been required to pay, Inder Sen v. Rikhai Singh, 30 All. 103: (1908) 28 A.W.N. 31: 5 All.L.J. 18.

The plaint in a suit for sale on a mortgage-bond requires ad valorem court-fees; to such a suit clauses v, vi, ix and x of s. 7 are not applicable, Sailendra Nath Palit v. Haricharan Sadhukhan, 58 Cal. 829: 52 C.L.J. 589: 130 I.C. 876: 1931 A.I.R. 159 (Cal.): 1931 I.R. 396 (Cal.).

A mortgagee who is one of the several mortgagees interested in a mortgage can sue for his share of the mortgage money by framing a suit to relate to the whole of the mortgaged property and in such a suit it is enough that he pays court-fees for his share of mortgage money only, s. 67 (d) of the T. P. Act does not prohibit such a suit, Bansiram Jashmal v. Gunnia Naga Aiyar, 59 M.L.J. 928: 32 L.W. 901: 129 I.C. 45: 1930 A.I.R. 985 (Mad.): 1931 I.R. 189 (M.).

Several mortgages.—When the mortgagee sues on several mortgages executed by the same mortgagor charging the same properties, the court-fee is payable on the total value of the principal sums payable under the deeds and section 17 of the Court Fees Act does not apply, Thakur Jawahir Singh v. Thakur Balwant Singh, 7 O.C. 152; Thakur Jawahir Singh v. Baldeo Prosad, 11 O.C. 173. See cases under s. 17, infra.

If a plaintiff has two mortgages on the same property but sues for money due on the later mortgage and asks for a declaration as to the 1st mortgage then court-fees ad valorem will have to be paid on the amount due on the 2nd mortgage plus fees as on a suit for a declaration on the 1st mortgage, Isvar Dayal v. Anna Saheb and others, 1935 A.L.J. 168: 1934 All.L.R. 1055: 152 I.C. 814: 1935 A.I.R. 100 (All.).

Rent.—Rent is not a sum payable periodically and does not come under paragraph II, Kali Charan v. Maharaja Bahadur Keshav Prosad Singh, 4 Pat.L.J. 561: 51 I.C. 15.

Suit for declaration of title and injunction and rent.—In Perumal v. Natumal, 6 S.L.R. 144: 17 Ind. Cas. 44, it was held that a suit for rent and declaration of title is a suit based on distinct causes of action and so far as the suit relates to rent it is a suit for money and comes under paragraph I of section 7 of the Court Fees Act.

Valuation.—The valuation of a plaint in which money decree is claimed, is based on the actual sum claimed after allowing for deductions, such as sums expressly set off in the plaint, D. S. Abraham & Co. v. Ebrahim, 2 Rang. 462: 1925 A.I.R. 65 (R.): 84 I.C. 971.

Note.—As to construction of the words “other sums payable periodically” see the cases cited under paragraph II below. The words mean that the claim must be of the nature specified in the paragraph.

The distinction between paragraph I and paragraph II of this section is that while the cases referred to in paragraph I are claims for ascertained sums of money although these may have to be paid periodically the right to which have been established; the cases referred to in paragraph II refer to amounts payable periodically the right to which as to amount payable or otherwise remain to be established.

The period of ten years has been fixed as period for assessment of court-fees for which the liability to pay the maintenance is indeterminate as these continue during the life time of the recipient.

PARAGRAPH II.

Construction.

Other sums payable periodically.—The words “other sums payable periodically” in this sub-section must be construed as implying sum payable of the nature of maintenance and annuities upon the rule of ejusdem generis, Kali Charan v. Kesho Prasad Singh, 4 P.L.J. 561: 51 I.C. 15; Dhanukdhari Tewari v. Mani Sonar, 6 Pat. 17: 8 P.L.T. 366: 100 Ind. Cas. 913: 1927 A.I.R. 123 (Patna), but in Charusila Dasi v. Muzaffar Sheikh, 55 C.L.J. 303 (310) rent was held to be an item payable periodically.

Future right to an annuity.—Where the plaintiff sued for arrears of annuity plus future annuity at a certain amount per month, held that the court-fee on arrears was ad valorem on the claim, as for the future annuity the court-fee payable is to be calculated on ten times the amount annually payable, Garya Bai v. Har Kuar, 6 A.W.N. 228 (1886), where it was also held that excess court-fee paid in the trial Court may be allowed to be credited in favour of the party in appeal Court. See also Narsinhacharya v. Swami Rayacharya, 8 Bom. H. C. A. A. 55.

Annuity-arrears.—Where a plaintiff prays for a declaration of right to receive a periodical payment and also asks for arrears.

of the sum so payable, court-fees should be calculated under section 7 (ii) of the Court Fees Act, on ten times the amount claimed to be payable for one year in respect of the periodical payment plus ad valorem court-fees on the amount claimed as arrears, Shahzadi Begum v. Mahbub Ali, 42 All. 353: 18 A.L.J. 328: 55 Ind. Cas. 809.

Profits of Inam lands.—The court-fees on the memorandum of appeal in a suit for a declaration that under an express agreement, the plaintiff is entitled to a share of the net income of certain Inam lands, must be calculated under section 7, paragraph II, i.e. ten times the average annual profits may be taken to be the value of the relief in respect of future mesne profits, Fakirbhai v. Sorabji, P.J. 1883 p. 205.

Future emoluments attached to an office.—Where the plaintiff valued his claim for payment annually of emoluments attached to a certain office at ten times the annual value, the Subordinate Judge held that the valuation cannot be made under this paragraph as the right to the emoluments is conditional on performance of service and is not a sum payable periodically and returned the plaint to be presented to proper Court. This order was upheld by the High Court, Krishna v. Ravi Varma, 8 Mad. 384. But see the case of Garijanund v. Sailajanand, 23 Cal. 645 (651), where it was held that an appeal, the subject-matter of which was declaration that surplus charao (offerings to Baidyanathji) is payable to the plaintiff by the successor-in-office, was rightly stamped with a Court-fee of rupees ten under clause iii, Act 17, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act. The plaintiff brought a suit for the office of the sheik and to certain properties attached thereto and prayed for a declaration that the defendant had no right to the office and the properties in dispute as well as for an injunction restraining the defendant from interfering with the property or doing anything in any way inconsistent with the right of the plaintiff. It appeared that the defendant was in possession of most of the properties. The High Court held that the suit is not maintainable without a prayer for possession and the plaintiff was allowed to pay additional court-fees and amend the plaint, Abdul Kadar v. Mahomed, 15 Mad. 15.

Maintenance.—Where the plaintiff brought a suit on the ground that according to the terms of the sale-deed executed by her in favour of the defendants, she and her descendants are entitled to a monthly sum of Rs. 100 from the defendants and the reliefs prayed for were (a) it may be declared as against the defendants that the plaintiff and her descendants generation after generation are entitled to receive from the defendants and their representatives maintenance which is to be a charge on the property mentioned in Schedule A; (b) a decree awarding

Rs. 1,800 on account of monthly allowance at the rate of Rs. 100 per month for 18 months may be passed, held, that the prayer in respect of (a) being a claim for declaration of right to a sum periodically payable comes under section 7, clause (ii) of the Court Fees Act, and court-fee is to be paid on ten times the amount claimed as payable for one year, Shahzadi Begum v. Mahbub Ali, 42 All. 356: 18 A.L.J. 328: 55 Ind. Cas. 809. Musst Udobai v. Ram Autar, 1934 A.I.R. 150 (Lah.): Musst Jagtaram Kuer v. Musst Munda Kuer, 150 I.C. 378: 1934 A.I.R. 240 (Patna).

A suit by the plaintiff.—an illiterate woman—that she is entitled to a maintenance of Rs. 150 a year and for amending the document purporting to have been executed by her, whereby she is alleged to have relinquished all her interests in the disputed property for Rs. 150 only, is a suit for declaration with a consequential relief under section 37 of the Specific Relief Act. The valuation is to be made under section 7 (ii), although the suit is not under that paragraph, Musst. Bari Bahu v. Kundan Singh, 71 Ind. Cas. 31: 1922 A.I.R. 264 (Nagpore).

If a plaintiff, who was residing on a plot of land the proceeds of which went towards her maintenance under a family arrangement, sues for a declaration that she has a right to continue to receive the same and also prays for an injunction to restrain the defendants from bringing the property to sale in execution of a decree, the suit falls under s. 7, iv (c) and not under s. 7, paragraph II of the Court Fees Act, Hanifbai v. Tulsidas, 123 I.C. 240: 1930 A.I.R. 198 (S.): 1930 I.R. 96 (S.).

Suit to declare that payment of maintenance is wrongful.—Where the plaintiff alleged that the payment of maintenance to defendant No. 1 is illegal and wrongful, held, he must also ask for an injunction, and amend his plaint which was allowed, Sardar Singh v. Ganpat, 14 Bom. 395.

Valuation.—The valuation of a suit for maintenance and arrears of maintenance with an additional claim to set aside an order dismissing a claim petition, for the purpose of jurisdiction is the value of the arrears in claim plus the value of the claim petition under s. 12 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, s. 8 of the Suits Valuation Act does not apply, Janaki Amma v. Uma and others, 1935 A.I.R. 219 (2) (Mad.).

PARAGRAPH III.

A suit for declaration of plaintiff's right over certain moveable property in the possession of the plaintiff, but which are attached in execution of a decree and for setting aside an order refusing a claim thereto can be brought on a stamp of Rs. 30 and need not be stamped according to value of the property attached, Gulzari Mal v. Jadaun Rai, 2 All. 63.

PARAGRAPH IV. (a).

Suit to recover bonds.—Comes under this clause, Nero v. Ramabai, 1894 P.J. p. 145, and should be valued at the amount payable under the bond, Chet Singh v. Mul Singh, 10 P.R. 1871.

Suit to recover title deeds.—A suit to recover title deeds is not a suit to obtain possession of land or to deal in any way with the land itself within the meaning of section 12 of the Letters Patent, Juggernath v. Biraj Nath, 4 Cal. 322: 3 C.L.R. 375.

A suit to have a sale deed executed and completed or for recovery of the sale deed, is a suit for Specific Performance of a contract, Faquir Chand v. Ram Dutt, 1924 A.I.R. 439 (L.). (See under specific performance infra.)

A suit to recover pronotes standing in the name of the defendant on the allegation that they are really plaintiff's property, but not for the money due under them comes under s. 7 iv (a) and not under s. 7 (iii) of the Court Fees Act therefore court-fees are payable ad valorem on the plaintiff's valuation, Venkata Rao v. Sesharattama, (1934) 58 Mad. 228: 67 M.L.J. 680: 40 L.W. 709: 1934 M.W.N. 1321: 152 I.C. 756: 1934 A.I.R. 730 (Mad.).

PARAGRAPH IV. (b).

N.B.—It should be noted that suits contemplated in this clause are suits to enforce the right to share in a joint family property. This clause cannot apply if the family has already ceased to be a joint family.

Partition.—See also under section 7, iv (c) and Art. 17 (6) of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act.

Jurisdiction.—In a suit for partition, the Court can only deal with so much of the properties in suit as lie within its jurisdiction and not with properties outside British India, Punchanan Mullick v. Shib Chunder, 14 Cal. 835; Moti Ram v. Kanhya Mal, 77 Ind. Cas. 780.

Allahabad High Court.—The valuation is the valuation of the share of the plaintiff and court-fees are to be paid on that value, Wajih-Uddin v. Wali-Ullah, 24 All. 381: 22 All.W.N. 85.

Bombay High Court.—A suit for partition and separate possession of joint property consisting of land, houses and moveables, does not for the purposes of court-fee fall under section 7, clause iv (b) but falls under section 7 (v) of the Court Fees Act and therefore section 8 of the Suits Valuation

Act has no application. It is the market value of the lands, houses, etc., that determines the jurisdiction, Dagdu Sakharan v. Totaram, 33 Bom. 658; 4 Ind. Cas. 242; 11 Bom.L.R. 1074.

The plaint in a suit for partition and possession of plaintiff's share of the joint family property, is to be stamped with court-fees calculated ad valorem on the share claimed by the plaintiff, Bulwant Ganesh v. Nana Chintamon, 18 Bom. 209; Motibhai v. Haridas, (1896) 22 Bom. 315.

Calcutta High Court.—According to the Calcutta High Court no case comes under this clause, Kirtee Chunder v. Anath Nath, 8 Cal. 757; 11 C.L.R. 95; if the plaintiff is in joint possession of a portion of the property sought to be partitioned then the case comes under Art. 17, Cl. vi of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act; but if he is not in possession or in other words if there is complete ouster then he must sue for recovery of possession and partition and the plaintiff is to pay ad valorem court-fees upon the plaint (or memorandum of appeal) appropriately framed for that purpose, Bidhata v. Ram Charita, 12 C.W.N. 37; 6 C.L.J. 651; Tulsi Bibi v. Furokh Bibi, 60 C.L.J. 377, a case of partition amongst the heirs of the deceased. See also Sasi Bhusan v. Rai Jatindra Nath, 15 C.L.J. 443; 10 Ind. Cas. 463; Loke Inder Singh v. Dhakeswar Prosad, 21 C.L.J. 253; Beni Madhav v. Govinda Chandra, 22 C.W.N. 669; 46 Ind. Cas. 165 where it was held that the plaint in a suit for partition of joint family business and of immoveable and moveable properties is to be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10.

See also cases under Art. 17, r. 6, Sch. II of this Act, "Partition".

Possession by a co-owner is prima facie the possession of the other co-owners and in order to make the possession by one co-owner adverse there must be ouster of the plaintiff. A person who sues for possession but is out of possession must ask, first of all, to be restored to possession of his share and pay ad valorem court-fees upon his plaint, whereas in the case where the plaintiff is in possession he simply sues for partition and separation of his share, Ahmuddin Tamijuddin v. Amiruddin, 44 I.C. 216 (Cal.).

Central Provinces.—Where the plaintiff in a suit for partition is admittedly in possession and only seeks to change the form of enjoyment, a court-fee of Rs. 10 under Art. 17 (vi), Sch. II of the Court Fees Act is sufficient, but if the suit be for enforcement of a disputed right then ad valorem court-fee is payable on the value of the share, Sripati v. Shridhar, 15 C.P.L.R. 120.

Where a Hindu son claims a partition and includes properties in the claim in respect of which a mortgage decree has been passed against the father, (although the plaintiff son was not a party to the mortgage suit) he is bound to ask for a declaration that the said decree is not binding upon him and to pay ad valorem court-fees on the relief, the value of which is to be the value of the mortgage decree against the father, Ramnarayan and others v. Lachman Prasad and others, 102 I.C. 10: 1927 A.I.R. 239 (Nag.).

Lahore High Court.—A suit to obtain separate possession of admitted share in the joint family property on the allegation that his right to separate possession was denied falls under s. 7, iv (b) and a court-fee of Rs. 10 is insufficient, Raghar v. Salig Ram, 104 P.R. 1895. See contra Fatteh Chand v. Bilas Rai, 61 P.L.R. 1916: 96 P.W.R. 1916: 96 P.R. 1916: 34 Ind. Cas. 857 where a suit was for a declaration to the effect that certain arbitration proceedings by which the father of one of the parties attempted to obtain separate possession of the properties inherited by him, are null and void and praying that joint-possession may be given to him and he valued the relief at Rs. 2,500, held that the suit is one to enforce the right to share in joint family property and the case came under sec. 7, iv (b) and the value of the suit is the amount stated in the plaint, Dwarka v. Krishna, 2 Lahore, 114: 61 Ind. Cas. 628: 1921 A.I.R. 34 (Lah.).

In a suit to enforce the right to share in joint family property, i.e., a suit to be restored to joint possession or enjoyment of joint family property, court-fees would be payable under sec. 7, iv (b), ad valorem on the value of the relief as fixed by the plaintiff, and in a suit for partition of joint family or otherwise, where the plaintiff alleges that he is in actual or constructive possession thereof, court-fee payable would be under Art. 17, cl. (vi) of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, Asa Ram v. Jagan-nath, 15 Lah. 531, 36 P.L.R. 48: 1934 A.I.R. 563 (Lah.): 150 I.C. 994 F.B.

Madras High Court.—In a suit for partition of the joint family property where the plaintiff is in joint possession with other co-parceners, the court-fee is to be paid under Art. I, Sch. I of the Court Fees Act and not under Art. 17, Cl. VI of Sch. II of the Act, Baganadan Rangiah v. Bogangian Subramania, 21 M.L.J. 21: 8 Ind. Cas. 512 F.B. See also Annamalai v. Krishnappa, (1934) 67 M.L.J. 858: 40 L.W. 837: 1934 M.W.N. 1373: 1935 A.I.R. 66 (Mad.).

And court-fees are to be paid on this basis even if the lands be in the possession of tenants, Reference under Court Fees Act, Section 5, 4 M.L.J. 110.

The plaintiff in a suit for partition, where part of the property to be partitioned consists of trade assets, is entitled to put an approximate valuation on such assets in accordance with section 7, iv (f) of the Court Fees Act, Balapattabhi Cheti v. Bubbaraya Chetty, 41 M.L.J. 433: (1921) M.W.N. 611: 14 L.W. 446: 70 I.C. 17, but if the property to be partitioned is not family property then Sch. II, Art. 17 (vi) is applicable, R. P. Gill v. L. Varadaraghavayya and others, 43 Mad. 396: 38 M.L.J. 92: 11 L.W. 174: (1920) M.W.N. 124: 55 I.C. 517: 1920 A.I.R. 585 (Mad.).

Oudh Court.—The valuation in a suit for partition of a grove is to be made at the value of the share of the plaintiff and not the value of the entire property, Harabhan Dutt v. Ladu Saran, (1933) 9 Luck. 219: 10 O.W.N. 1196: 146 I.C. 582: 1933 A.I.R. 547 (Oudh).

Objection to separate items.—Where the appellant, in an appeal from the final decree, attacked separate items of property allowed or disallowed, ad valorem court-fees should be paid on the amounts entered in the various grounds of appeal, Md. Majid Ullah v. Md. Hamid Ullah Khan, (1924) A.I.R. 325 (Lah.): 69 I.C. 196.

Where the family had been already divided in status.—The plaint in a suit by the plaintiff stating that the family had been divided in status from 1921 and asking for a partition by metes and bounds, does not fall under s. 7, iv (b) of the Court Fees Act as after the disruption of a co-percenary the family ceases to be a joint family though the family property may not have been divided by metes and bounds, Srinivas Aiyar v. Krishna-swami Aiyar and others, 59 M.L.J. 913: 1930 M.W.N. 508: 33 L.W. 12: 129 I.C. 462: 1931 A.I.R. 49 (Mad.): 1931 I.R. 270 (Mad.). See also T. R. Manikkam Pillai v. T. S. Murugesam Pillai, 64 M.L.J. 576: 1933 M.W.N. 631: 37 L.W. 748: 143 I.C. 755: 1933 A.I.R. 431 (Mad.); The Secretary of State v. Lakhanna, 64 M.L.J. 24: 1933 M.W.N. 144: 141 I.C. 80: 1933 A.I.R. 430 (Mad.): 1933 I.R. 67 (Mad.).

Valuation.—Allahabad High Court.—According to the Allahabad High Court the valuation is the value of the share sought to be partitioned and not the entire property, Wajih-Uddin v. Walli-Ullah, 24 All. 381: 22 All.W.N. 88.

The Bombay High Court has taken similar view in Motibhai v. Haridas, 22 Bom. 315.

Calcutta High Court.—In a suit for partition the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction is the value of the entire property sought to be partitioned, Edward Dalghesh v. Ramdhari, 4 C.L.J. 509; Rajani Kanta Bag v. Rajahala, 29 C.W.N. 76: 52 Cal. 128; Biraj Mohini v. Chintamoney, 3 C.L.J. 197; 10 C.W.N. 565.

The Nagpore Court has followed the Calcutta High Court. See also Munji v. Sitaram, (1924) A.I.R. 105 (Nagpore); Bhagwan Appa v. Shivappawani, 106 I.C. 770: 1927 A.I.R. 248 (Nag.): 23 N.L.R. 73.

The Punjab Court has taken the view of the Bombay Court in Bhagat Ram v. Gakul Chand, 150 P.R. 1908.

Madras High Court.—In a suit for partition of land of which plaintiff is in joint possession he is entitled to value the suit at his own estimate for purposes of jurisdiction and the Court cannot reject the same even if it be an arbitrary valuation, Chelasamy Ramiah v. Chelasamy Ramasami, F.B. 13 M.L.T. 128: 18 Ind. Cas. 368: 1913 M.W.N. 105: 24 M.L.J. 233; Rangaish Chetty v. Subramaniam Chetty, (1911) 8 I.C. 512: 21 M.L.J. 21 F.B.

Where there is no ouster by the defendant of the plaintiffs from the joint possession of the joint family property, section 7 (iv) (b) applies to the case. The proper test to see whether section 7, iv (b) applies will be whether if the plaintiff state of affairs continued for 12 years the plaintiff would be barred from suit. Where the plaintiff is on the footing that the right to a share exists admittedly and has never been denied and the plaintiff is merely suing to enforce that right to share, a mere statement by the plaintiff in an affidavit filed more than a year after the institution of the suit that he is out of enjoyment of the profits does not affect the question—P. M. Ramakrishna Iyer v. Muthuswamy Iyer, 1925 A.I.R. 468 (Mad.): 86 I.C. 627: 21 L.W. 207.

Patna High Court.—The value for the purpose of jurisdiction of a suit for partition pure and simple, where the plaintiff is in joint possession of his share and there is no dispute as to title or share, is the value of the whole of the property sought to be partitioned, (Dukhi Singh v. Harihar Sah, 5 P.L.J. 546: 1921 Pat. C.W.N. 89: 58 Ind. Cas. 226 dist. on the ground that that was a suit for declaration of title with a consequential relief), Ranjit Sahi v. Maulavi Quasim and others, 72 Ind. Cas. 916: 1923 All.I.R. 342 (Patna).

In Sindh the value is the value of the share claimed, Wadhmal v. Chellumal, 6 S.L.R. 250: 19 Ind. Cas. 879.

SEC. 7, PARAGRAPH IV (c).

Scope.—"A suit in which the plaintiff in terms prays for a declaratory decree with consequential relief prima facie comes within clause (4), sub-clause (c) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act, but if at the same time it comes within any of the other classes of suits specified in the section, it must be treated as a suit of that description and dealt with accordingly."

The Full Bench further held that a suit for a declaration that an instrument of mortgage or sale executed by the plaintiff or a decree that has been passed against the plaintiff for a debt is not binding on him although a mere declaration may be prayed for, is none the less a suit for a declaratory decree with consequential relief, Arunachalam Chetty and another v. Rangasawmy Pillai, F.B. 38 Mad. 922: 28 M.L.J. 118: 1915 M.W.N. 118: 28 I.C. 79.

History of Declaratory Suits is discussed in Deokali Koer v. Kedar Nath, 39 Cal. 704: 16 C.W.N. 838: 15 Ind. Cas. 427. But section 42 of the Specific Relief Act is not exhaustive, Robert Rischer v. Secretary of State for India in Council, 22 Mad. 410 P.C.; Veerama Chaneni v. Soma Pitchayya, 43 Mad. 410: (1920) M.W.N. 393: 58 I.C. 585.

The proviso to s. 42 of the Specific Relief Act (Act I of 1877) is as follows:—

“Provided that no Court shall make any such declaration where the plaintiff being able to seek a further relief than a mere declaration omits to do so.”

N.B.—This clause deals with declaratory decree where consequential relief has been prayed for. Both are to be taken together and not separately.

Consequential relief.—Means a substantial and immediate redemy in accordance with the title which the Court has been asked to declare, Meerza Hyder v. Hussain Reza, 24 Ind. Cas. 316: 1 L.W. 398.

The expression ‘consequential relief’ in sec. 7 iv (c) means some relief which would follow directly from the declaration given, the valuation of which is not capable to being definitely ascertained and which is not specifically provided for anywhere in the Act and cannot be claimed independently of the declaration as a substantive relief, Kalu Ram v. Babu Lal, (1932) 54 All. 812: 1932 A.L.J. 684: 1932 A.I.R. 485 (All.): 139 I.C. 32 F.B. See also Maung Shein v. Ma Lon Ton, 9 Rang. 401: 134 I.C. 1263: 1931 A.I.R. 319 (R.).

Whether the plaintiff must ask for a consequential relief in a suit for declaration depends upon the circumstances of each case, Umarrannessa Bibi v. Janurannessa Bibi and others, 37 C.L.J. 449.

Where the plaintiff frames his suit as one for declaration only when he should have asked for a consequential relief, the Court cannot insist on his adding a prayer for consequential relief and on his paying court-fees on that basis, Tekait Thakur Narayan Singh v. Nawab Saiyid Dildar Ali, 2 Pat. 915: 1925 A.I.R. 210 (P.): 80 I.C. 544: 6 Pat.L.T. 191. See also Maulvi

Muhammad Fahimul Huq v. Jagat Ballav Ghose, (1922) 2 Patna 391.

Note.—It is not possible to enumerate all the consequential reliefs that may be asked. I have attempted to treat them at length in the following pages.

Generally they are removal of an attachment; confirmation of possession; cancellation of a document; suits to declare agreements and documents as not binding; a suit for a declaration coupled with an injunction; assessment of fair rent; the declaration that a record of rights is null and void; suits for declaration that decrees whether based on mortgage or not is not binding; suits to set aside decrees on compromise; under certain circumstances a claim for possession; cancellation of a previous deed of partition whether based on fraud or not; a suit by a minor under certain circumstances; suit to set aside a sale under the Putni Regulation; restitution of conjugal rights; removal of a trustee, suit to set aside a deed creating trust, etc.

The principle of assessment in a suit for declaration with consequential relief.—The principle of assessment of court-fee is that where a plaintiff asks for a declaration with a consequential relief, he is bound to pay an ad valorem fee proportional to the loss from which he seeks to be relieved, Pandit Brij Krishna v. Chowdhury Murli Rai, 4 Pat.L.J. 703. See also Ram Sekhar Prosad Singh v. Sheonandan Dobey, I.L.R. 2 Pat. 198: 73 Ind. Cas. 43.

The allegations in the plaint and not the nature of the defence is to be considered in determining the amount of court-fees payable, Sivasubramania Nadar v. Subramania Nadar, 35 L.W. 393: 1932 A.I.R. 409 (Mad.); T. R. Manikkam Pillai v. T. S. Murugesam Pillai, 64 M.L.J. 576: 37 L.W. 748: 1933 A.I.R. 431 (Mad.): 1933 M.W.N. 631: 143 I.C. 755.

The substance of the plaint is to be considered in determining whether a case falls within the scope of s. 7 iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, Srikishen Das v. Sat Narain, 32 P.L.R. 729: 135 I.C. 499: 1932 A.I.R. 132 (Lah.). See also Mahammad Ismail v. Leyaquat Husain, 1932 A.L.J. 165: 140 I.C. 191: 1932 A.I.R. 316 (All.), where it was held that the question be determined on the plaint as it is and not as it should have been.

In spite of unnecessary prayers the substance of the suit should be looked at to determine what the court-fees payable is, Arunnegha Mudaliar v. Venkatachela Pillai and others, 64 M.L.J. 568: 37 L.W. 552: 1933 M.W.N. 402: 1933 A.I.R. 439 (M.).

But a party cannot alter the nature of a suit or its actual effect by merely asking for a declaration, for example, a suit for cancellation of a decree or for setting aside a previous decree cannot be framed as one for simple declaration only, Venkatasiva Rao v. Venkatanarasimha Sanganainmurthy, 36 L.W. 225: 1932 M.W.N. 992: 139 I.C. 317: 1932 A.I.R. 605 (Mad.): 1932 I.R. 643 (Mad.).

Effect of a general prayer.—A vague and indefinite prayer for any other relief to which the plaintiff may be found entitled to, does not convert a suit for a mere declaration into one for a declaration with a consequential relief, Gangadhar Misra v. Rani Debendrabala, I.L.R. 5 Pat. 211: 94 I.C. 22: 1926 A.I.R. 249 (P.).

In Srikrishna Chandra v. Mahabir Prasad and others, 55 All. 791: 1933 A.L.J. 673: 1933 A.I.R. 488 (All.): 149 I.C. 198, a Full Bench of the Allahabad High Court said "such a relief is unnecessarily added in most plaints and is not intended to mean anything more than reminding the Court of its powers to grant other reliefs even though not specially asked for. We cannot regard it as one which requires additional court-fees nor do we consider that coupled with the declaratory relief it changes the nature of the suit."

Determination of the question of application of s. 7 iv (c).— "For the right determination of the question at issue it is necessary to ascertain what are the object and nature of the suit," Bibi Phulkumari v. Ghanshyam, 35 Cal. 202: 35 I.A. 22: 12 C.W.N. 169: 7 C.L.J. 36: 10 Bom.L.R. 1: 17 M.L.J. 618: 5 A.L.J. 10: 2 M.L.T. 506. The question whether section 7, paragraph iv (c) of the Court Fees Act applies or not must depend on the substance of the claim and not the mere words which the plaintiff may choose to introduce into his plaint, Malikka Meladathil Kelutchammal v. Malika Meladathil Karnavan Kunji, 7 M.L.T. 177: 5 Ind. Cas. 927: 20 M.L.J. 791. See also Chingacham Vitol Sankaran v. Chingachan Vitol Gopala, 30 Mad. 18; Venkata Ramani v. Narayansami, 1925 M.W.N. 276: 48 M.L.J. 688: 87 I.C. 660: 1925 A.I.R. 713 (Madras). See also Secretary of State for India in Council v. A. R. Lakhanna, 141 I.C. 80: 1933 A.I.R. 430 (Mad.).

"For the purposes of stamp the cause of action which is stated in the plaint, and that only, must be looked at," Mohendra Chandra Ganguly v. Ashutosh Ganguli, 20 Cal. 762; Rajabala v. Radhika, 40 C.L.J. 150: 1924 A.I.R. 969 (C.); Banku v. Chatur, 1924 A.I.R. 640 (P.); Zinnatunnessa v. Girindra, 30 Cal. 788; Musst. Barkutinnissa v. Musst. Kaniz Fatima, I.L.R. 5 Pat. 631: 98 I.C. 817: 1927 A.I.R. 140 (Patna).

The Court is to look at the nature of the relief claimed and for that purpose the allegations in the plaint only are to be considered, Bagala Sundari v. Prasanna, 21 C.W.N. 375: 35 Ind. Cas. 797; Manghammal v. Totaram, 6 S.L.R. 72: 16 Ind. Cas. 773.

The actual relief is to be looked into in determining the court-fees payable without any consideration whether the suit fails or not without a consequential relief, Brij Gopal v. Suraj Karan, 1932 A.L.J. 466: 141 I.C. 112: 1932 A.I.R. 560 (All.); Lakshminarayana Rai v. Dip Narayan Rai, 1933 A.I.R. 350 (All.): 55 All. 274: 1933 A.L.J. 311.

In order to make s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act applicable to a suit, it must be incumbent on the plaintiff to ask for a declaration and to perfect his rights also to ask for a consequential relief, for instance, where the plaintiff seeks relief to which he is not entitled unless and until some decree or document, or alienation of property is avoided. A suit in which a declaration in that behalf is claimed is within s. 7, iv (c), Maung Shein v. Ma Lon Ton, 9 Rang. 401: 134 I.C. 1263: 1931 A.I.R. 319 (Rang.).

Different Valuations.—Where the plaintiff valued the declaration and consequential relief of injunction separately and gave the sum of the two values as the value for the purposes of jurisdiction and court-fees, the proper course is to return the plaint to the plaintiff for amendment in order to give the value of the consequential relief of injunction under the last sentence of sec. 7, paragraph iv and to mention that value in the plaint as the value for the purposes of jurisdiction and court-fees. If along with the injunction relief, additional consequential relief or reliefs are prayed for, they should, of course, be also valued according to law, M. Aimuddin v. S. E. S. Kadira Rowther, 1918 M.W.N. 40: 43 Ind. Cas. 995; Krishna v. Secretary of State, 1914 M.W.N. 757: 16 M.L.T. 516: 25 Ind. Cas. 375; Chelasami Ramiah v. Chelasami Ramasami, 1913 M.W.N. 105: 24 M.L.J. 233: 13 M.L.T. 128: 18 Ind. Cas. 363. See also Balkrishna v. Jankibai, 44 Bom. 331: 22 Bom.L.R. 289: 57 I.C. 340. See also Srikishen v. Satnarain, 32 P.L.R. 729: 135 I.C. 499: 1932 A.I.R. 132 (Lah.).

The plaintiff cannot put one valuation for declaration and a different valuation for injunction but is to put one lump valuation for both declaration and injunction and pay ad valorem court-fees on that lump valuation, In re Kalipada Mookherjee, 58 Cal. 281: 34 C.W.N. 870: 1930 A.I.R. 686 (Cal.); Hridoy Kishore Nundy v. Hari Bhusan Dey, 58 C.L.J. 171: 149 I.C. 1044; Basanta Kumari Debya v. Nalini Nath Bhattacharya, 57 C.L.J. 465: 150 I.C. 732. See also Gurdwara Mahant Jawala Singh v. Kalla Singh, 32 P.L.R. 193: 133 I.C. 120: 1931 A.I.R. 307 (Lah.): 1931 I.R. 744 (Lah.).

The Judicial Committee has held in Phul Kumari v. Ghanshyam, L.R. 35 I.A. 22: 35 Cal. 202: 12 C.W.N. 169: 17 M.L.J. 618 that the value of an action is its value to the plaintiff.

Valuation for jurisdiction and court-fees should be the same, Daw Min Thwe v. C. R. M. L. Chettyar Firm, 150 I.C. 1030: 1934 A.I.R. 152 (Rang.).

If the plaintiff has omitted to value the relief of injunction in the original Court, he can value it in the appeal Court. The fact that by omitting to value it in the original Court, the plaintiff succeeded in having his case tried in a higher Court has no bearing on the question of court-fees, Maung Nyi Maung v. Mandalay Municipal Committee, 12 Rang. 335: 1934 A.I.R. 268 (Rang.).

Account and Inspection of Books.—A suit merely praying for a declaration that the plaintiff is entitled to require the defendant to account to him and to permit him to inspect the books, is simply a suit for a declaratory decree without consequential relief and therefore comes within Art. 17, clause (iii) of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act; but if he, in addition, prays not only for such a declaration but also for an injunction for the production of books and property in their hands and for a positive decree for an account to be taken by Court, such a suit is "to obtain a declaratory decree where consequential relief is sought for," Manohar Ganesh v. Bawa Ram Chandra, 2 Bom. 219; Raghunath v. Gangadhar, 10 Bom. 60.

Attachment.—Declaration as to attachment.—A suit for a declaration of plaintiff's right to attach a sum of money in the hands of a third person in execution of his decree against A and also for a decree for such sum against the defendant in the event of his obtaining such money before decision of suit when in fact the defendant did obtain such money, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief and ad valorem court-fee is payable, Durgaram v. Wakdu, 1881 P.J. 98. See also Karam Chand v. Uma Dutt Hans Raj, 31 P.L.R. 383: 129 I.C. 753: 1930 A.I.R. 755 (L.): 1931 I.R. 225 (Lah.).

Removal of attachment.—In a suit for removal of attachment it was held that ad valorem court-fee is payable as the prayer for removal of attachment is a consequential relief, Ostoche v. Hari Das, 2 All. 869.

Removal of attachment and possession of a house.—Held that ad valorem court-fee is payable as consequential relief had been asked for, Moti Chand v. Dadabhai, 11 Bom.H.C. A.C. 186.

Restoration of attachment.—A prayer for restoration of attachment is really a prayer to set aside a summary order as such suits arise after an objection is allowed, hence court-fee of Rs. 10 is payable under clause 1, Art. 17 of the second schedule of the Court Fees, Act, Dayachand v. Hemchand, 4 Bom. 515; Dildar v. Narain, 11 All. 365; Govinda v. Gajraj, 13 All. 389; Vithal Krishna v. Balkrishen, 10 Bom. 610. But see contra, R. M. L. M. Subramanian Chetty v. Maung Maung Pe, U.B.R. 1897—1901, Vol. II, 353.

Suit to set aside an order allowing or disallowing a claim to attached property.—Where a claim was preferred by the plaintiff to the attached property and the claim was lost and the plaintiff then brought a suit to establish his right to the property (although other reliefs were claimed—these were held to be redundant prayers) it was held that the case came under Clause 1, Art. 17 of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, 1870, Bibi Phulkumari v. Ghanshyam, P.C. 35 Cal. 202: 35 I.A. 22: 12 C.W.N. 169: 7 C.L.J. 36. This decision over-rides the older decisions, viz., Muftee Jelalooddeen v. Shoharoollah, 22 W.R. 422: 15 B.L.R. Ap. 1; Ahmed Mirza v. A. Thomas, 13 Cal. 162. Where the plaintiff's property is attached at the instance of a creditor of its ostensible owner and the plaintiff after rejection of his claim to the property brings a suit and asks only for release of his property from attachment, the court-fee payable is rupees ten under Clause 1, Art. 17 of the second schedule of the Court Fees Act. If the ostensible owner is also joined as a party to the suit and a prayer is made against him for recovery of possession, the court-fee payable would be calculated upon the value of the property in accordance with section 7, (iv), (c) of the Court Fees Act, Chandradhari Singh v. Tipon Prosad, 43 Ind. Cas. 971: 3 Pat.L.J. 482.

Valuation.—In Madhusudan v. Rakhal Chandra, 15 Cal. 104, it was held that the amount which is in dispute settles the jurisdiction, i.e., the amount which the execution creditor would recover, if successful, and, not the value of the property in dispute. See also Dwarka Das v. Kameshar Prosad, (1894) 17 All. 69 (73).

The valuation of an appeal against decree in a suit by attaching creditor under Or. 21, rule 63 to set aside an order allowing claim to the property attached, is the value of the property sought to be made liable and not the decretal amount, D. Subramaniam v. Nune Narasimham and others, 56 M.L.J. 489.

Cancellation.—Suits for Cancellation of Deeds.—See sec. 39 of the Specific Relief Act, 1877, Chap. V. The prayer that the deed may be set aside is a prayer for a substantial relief, Tacoorddeen v. Nawab Syed Ali, 1 I.A. 192: 13 B.L.R. 427: 23 W.R. 340. In a suit to declare that a sale deed is fraudulent, for an order to have it cancelled and a copy of the order be sent to the Sub-Registrar is a prayer for a consequential relief and the suit falls under sec. 7 (iv), (c) of the Court Fees Act, Parvati Bai v. Visvanath, 29 Bom. 207: 6 Bom.L.R. 1125; Nga Chit Wet

v. Kwanan, U.B.R. 1915 4th quarter, p. 102: 36 Ind. Cas. 624; Moung Kyng v. Po Thin, 2 L.B.R. 266, see also contrary, Kattiya Pillai v. Ramaswami Pillai (insane) by his wife, etc., 56 M.L.J. 394: 1929 M.W.N. 286: 29 L.W. 584: 1929 A.I.R. 396 (Mad.), where it was held that such a suit is for declaration only as it is the duty of the Court to send it to the registering officer under sec. 39 of the Specific Relief Act, In re Radha Sundar Roy v. Saktipada, (1934) 39 C.W.N. 250: 62 Cal. 479.

Cancellation on the Ground of Fraud.—A suit for cancellation on the ground of fraud, coercion and undue influence falls within this clause and the court-fees are to be calculated ad valorem on the valuation by the plaintiff, Samiya v. Minammal, 23 Mad. 490: 10 M.L.J. 240; Malikka v. Kunji, 20 M.L.J. 791: 7 M.L.T. 177: 5 Ind. Cas. 927. See also Wallace v. Lakshmi Ammal, 49 M.L.J. 608: 1925 M.W.N. 826: 1925 A.I.R. 96 (Mad.).

In Kuber Saran v. Raghubar, 5 Luck. 235: 6 O.W.N. 885: 121 I.C. 281: 1929 A.I.R. 491 (Oudh): 1929 I.R. 57 (Oudh), the Oudh Chief Court said: "certain cases falling under s. 39 of the Specific Relief Act are simple declaratory suits and others are declaratory suits in which consequential relief is desired" "where a person asks for a declaration that certain deeds are voidable against him because his consent to their execution has been caused by fraud and misrepresentation and not only asks for a declaration that these deeds are voidable but also asks for a declaration that those deeds should be cancelled and delivered up, the suit is distinctly a suit for declaration with a consequential relief." Followed in Daya Sankar Vakil, etc. v. Mahammad Ibrahim Khan and others, 141 I.C. 798: 1933 A.I.R. 116 (Oudh) where it was further held that if the prayer be that the document shall be delivered up, cancelled and its registration set aside ad valorem court-fees must be paid.

The plaint in a suit for cancellation of a deed of release (faraghkhati) and for any other consequential relief to which the plaintiff may be found to be entitled to, is to be stamped with a court-fee calculated ad valorem on the valuation, Nanak Chand v. Jiwan Mal, 35 P.R. 1914: 237 P.L.R. 1914: 25 I.C. 435. See also Narain v. Aya Putter, 7 M.H.C.R. 372, in which it was held that ad valorem court-fee was necessary.

A relief to have a registered instrument void or voidable with the possible result of its being delivered up and cancelled and a copy of the decree being sent to the registration office for a note by the registration officer is more than a mere declaration; it is undoubtedly a substantial relief differing from a declaratory relief, Srikrishna Chander v. Mahabir Prasad, 55 All. 791: 1933 A.L.J. 673: 149 I.C. 198: 1933 A.I.R. 488 (All.).

A suit for avoiding an instrument, even if there be no prayer for cancellation carries with it by implication a prayer that the Court may further use the discretion given to it by sec. 39, so as to order the said instrument to be delivered up and cancelled, Akhlag Ahmad v. Musst. Karam Ilahi, 1935 A.L.J. 133: 153 I.C. 599: 1935 A.I.R. 207 (All.).

Deed of gift.—A suit for avoiding a registered deed of gift comes under this clause as the Court is to send a copy of the decree, in case the plaintiff succeeds, to the officer in whose office the instrument had been registered under section 39 of the Specific Relief Act and therefore a consequential relief was asked for and the plaint must be stamped with a court-fee ad valorem on the valuation, Musst. Noowooager v. Sridhar, 3 Pat.L.J. 194: 45 Ind. Cas. 238; Parvati Bai v. Visvanath, 29 Bom. 207: 6 Bom.L.R. 1125 followed.

A suit for declaration that a deed of gift is invalid and for possession of the properties conveyed by it, is a suit for declaration with a consequential relief, Musst. Ganga Dei v. Sukhdeo Prasad, 47 All. 78: 22 A.L.J. 945: 84 I.C. 624: 1924 A.I.R. 612 (All.). See Mathura Prasad v. Ramlal, 11 O.W.N. 1292: 152 I.C. 709: 1934 A.I.R. 505 (Oudh), where it was held that if the substance of the prayer is the cancellation of certain deeds, though in form the suit is declaratory, the suit is one for a declaration with consequential relief and ad valorem court-fees are to be paid.

A suit by a decree-holder to the effect that the deed of gift and a sale deed executed by the judgment-debtor and the judgment-debtor's wife respectively are void and also that the property covered by the two deeds is capable of being sold in execution of his decree, is purely a suit for declaration without a consequential relief, as the prayer that the property covered by the deeds is to be declared to be capable of being attached and sold is implicit in the prayer that the two deeds conveying the property shall be held to be void and therefore the suit is a pure declaratory suit, Ram Dayal v. Baldeo Prasad, 14 O.L.J. 148: 8 O.W.N. 124: 130 I.C. 344: 1931 A.I.R. 72 (Oudh): 1931 I.R. 152 (Oudh).

If the plaintiff really asks for cancellation of a deed of gift then the suit falls under sec. 7, (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act, Kamala Prasad v. Jagarnath Prasad, 10 Patna 432: 130 I.C. 46: 1931 A.I.R. 78 (Patna): 1931 I.R. 142 (Patna). See also Kalu Ram v. Babu Lal, 54 All. 812: 1932 A.L.J. 684: 1932 A.I.R. 485 (All.) F.B., but if a plaintiff deliberately chooses to ask for a declaration only in a suit where cancellation of a deed of gift should have been asked for, he may have offended against the provisions of sec. 42 of the Specific Relief Act, but the court-fees on the basis of a suit for declaration with consequential relief cannot be asked, Abdul Samad Khan v. Anjuman Islamia, Gorakhpore, 56 All. 277: 1933 A.L.J. 1537: 1934 A.I.R. 58 (All.): 147 I.C. 376.

Trust Deeds.—The plaintiff brought a suit against the defendant to set aside the deed of endowment executed by her and to recover Rs. 2,50,000 handed over by her to defendant No. 1. She valued the suit at Rs. 2,50,000 and paid court-fees ad valorem on that. The suit was decreed and the defendant appealed but stamped their memorandum of appeal with a court-fee of Rs. 10 only. The High Court held "that the defendant may not have any personal interest at all and yet the subject-matter of the appeal may be as valuable as the subject-matter of the suit" and ordered that the memorandum of appeal should be stamped with a court-fee ad valorem on Rs. 2,50,000, Mahomed Masik v. Malkai M. Ugwa, 10 Cal. 380.

A suit for cancellation of a Samudayam deed to which the plaintiff was not a party, is a suit for a declaration, but if injunction and accounts are asked for then the suit comes under section 7, cl. iv (c) of the Court Fees Act and ad valorem court-fees are payable. The recently added provision by the amendment Act in the Madras Council does not affect the question.

A suit for removal of trustees on account of their having executed an illegal deed on behalf of the devaswom comes under Art. 17, B. Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, Vellora Karuppan Vithil v. Kallur Vengayil Chathukutti, 78 I.C. 118: 1924 A.I.R. 611 (Mad.).

Suit for cancellation of a deed of Mortgage.—Where one of the defendants executed in favour of another a mortgage in contravention of a stipulation in favour of the plaintiff not to alienate the property in any way without paying off the mortgage money, and the plaintiff sued for cancellation of that mortgage making both of them parties to the suit; held that the case fell under s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act as a consequential relief has been claimed, Chuni Lal v. Bodar Mal, 2 P.R. 1886. See also Karaman Singh v. Norman Cockell, 1 C.W.N. 670; Devidas v. Ramlal, 7 N.L.R. 190: 13 I.C. 864.

A suit for declaration by a member of a joint family governed by Mitakshara Law that the mortgage executed by another co-parcener of the joint family property does not bind the property mortgaged, is not necessarily a suit for cancellation but is a suit falling under Art. 17 (iii) of the 2nd Schedule of the Court Fees Act, Sham Das v. Churn Das, 1925 A.I.R. 90 (L.): 78 I.C. 788.

Cancellation of a deed of partition.—Where the plaintiff amongst other prayers claimed that a previous deed of partition be cancelled, then ad valorem court-fee was leviable on the plaint and the memorandum of appeal, Satish Chandra v. Kali Dasi, 26 C.W.N. 177: 34 C.L.J. 529.

Cancellation of a sale deed.—Where the suit is one for declaration that the sale deed was invalid and might be cancelled, the court-fee payable is ad valorem on the value of the relief claimed, Sit Soe and others v. Ma Thin, 1924 A.I.R. 378 (R.): 84 I.C. 201.

Cancellation of instrument affecting land.—In Konaram v. Komappan, 14 Mad. 169, it was held that the plaint is to be stamped with court-fees calculated ad valorem on the value of the document as the plaintiffs would be gainers to that extent if they obtained a decree, but in Awadhraj Singh v. Dharamraji Kuar, 5 Luck. 98: 6 O.W.N. 704 it was held that in a suit for possession by cancellation of some documents the court-fees are payable as in suit for possession only.

Instrument affecting title.—Where the reliefs prayed were: (1) It may be held by the Court that the disputed properties form portion of the properties left by the husband of the plaintiff and that the defendant No. 1 had no title thereto and that she had no right to transfer the same; (2) on determination of relief No. 1, it may be held that the defendant No. 1 had no right to execute the sale deed, dated the 3rd August, 1920 and that neither it has affected the title of the plaintiff nor has defendant No. 2 acquired any right thereby, held that the suit is one for declaration with a consequential relief as the prayers are not co-extensive but are necessary and separate, unless the plaintiff elects to delete one of them, Khirichand Mahton v. Musst. Meghni, I.L.R. 5 Patna 493: 1926 A.I.R. 453 (Patna): 98 I.C. 432: 8 P.L.T. 296.

A suit for a declaration that a registered deed does not affect the title of the plaintiff, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief. The relief claimed really comes under sec. 39 of the Specific Relief Act and really asks that the deed be adjudged voidable or declared not to affect the title of the plaintiff or be set aside or cancelled, Babu Rao v. Balaji Rao, 25 N.L.R. 52: 118 I.C. 465: 1929 A.I.R. 71 (Nag.).

The plaint in a suit for declaration and injunction filed by one grandson against two grand-daughters by another daughter of the propositus alleging that the deed of settlement in favour of the two grand-daughters is a sham and fictitious document, was correctly stamped under sec. 7, iv (c) as the deed of settlement need not be set aside, Krishnasami Aiyangar v. Kuppu Ammal and another, 1929 A.I.R. 478 (Mad.): 30 L.W. 796: 120 I.C. 378: 1930 I.R. 10 (Mad.).

Cancellation of a bond executed by 3rd party.—A suit to cancel a mortgage bond executed by a third party in respect of the property to which the plaintiff in possession is entitled, is a suit for a simple declaration without consequential relief and a court-fee of Rs. 10 is sufficient, Karam Khan v. Doryai, 5 All. 331: 3 All.W.N. 51 F.B. [This case was dissented from in Parvati Bai v. Visvanath, 29 Bom. 207, but it appears that in that case the contest was between the parties to the instrument]; see also Arunachellam v. Rangasami, 38 Mad. 922 (924): 28 M.L.J. 118: 28 I.C. 79; Sham Das v. Mohant Charan Das, 78 I.C. 782: 1925 A.I.R. 90 (L.); Venkata Ramani v. Narayansami, 1925 M.W.N. 276: 48 M.L.J. 688: 21 L.W. 649a: 87 I.C. 660: 1925 A.I.R. 164 (Madras); Balakrishna Nair v. Vishu Nambudri, 132 I.C. 129: 1931 A.I.R. 375 (Mad.); Venkatasiva Rao v. Satyanarayanamurthy, 56 Mad. 212: 139 I.C. 317: 1932 A.I.R. 605 (Mad.).

Other documents.—A plaintiff praying for possession by cancellation of some other documents to which he was no party, cannot be considered to be asking for two reliefs separately, Awadhraj Singh v. Musst. Dharamraji Kuar and another, 5 Luck. 98: 6 O.W.N. 704: 120 I.C. 398: 1929 A.I.R. 419 (Oudh).

Valuation.—Where a suit to cancel a mortgage-bond for Rs. 4,000 was valued at Rs. 50 the Madras High Court on appeal said that the trial Court cannot refuse to accept the valuation made by the plaintiff "under the sanction of verification of the amount at which he values the relief sought nor can it revise it—a power which is limited to cases provided for by section 9, which relates to an estimate given by the plaintiff of the amount of nett profits of the land or the market value of the land, house or garden as mentioned in section 7, paragraph x and vi".....Until such a rule is framed the valuation given by the plaintiff cannot be revised, Chinnamal v. Madarsa Rowther, 27 Mad. 480: 14 M.L.J. 343.

In a suit for cancellation of a document securing property having a money value, the amount or value of the property for which the document was executed is the amount on which the ad valorem court-fee is to be paid, V. N. Alagar Aiyangar v. Srinivasa Aiyangar and another, 1925 A.I.R. 1248 (Mad.): 1925 M.W.N. 777: 91 I.C. 709.

The valuation of a suit to cancel a sale and a promissory note cannot be at the discretion of the plaintiff especially if it be manifest from the documents themselves that there is no reasonable ground for placing a low valuation, i.e., if the valuation stated in the document sought to be cancelled be Rs. 700 and Rs. 500 then the suit to cancel the documents cannot be laid at Rs. 100, Maung Nae and another v. Maung Kha Pu, 142 I.C. 705: 1933 A.I.R. 40 (Ran.).

Confirmation of possession.—The plaintiff claiming under a Will applied for a certificate under Act XXVII of 1860, but the High Court refused such a certificate. He brought a suit to confirm his possession by enforcing the will by setting aside the summary order, held that a consequential relief was prayed for, Dinabandhu v. Rajmohini, 16 W.R. 213: 8 B.L.R. Ap. 32; Jhumak Kampti v. Debu Lal Singh, 22 C.L.J. 415; Dinanath Das v. Ramanath Das, 23 C.L.J. 561; Rajabala v. Radhika, 40 C.L.J. 150: 1924 A.I.R. 969 (C.); Joynarayan v. Grish Chandra, 22 W.R. 438: 15 B.L.R. 17; Bohuroonissa v. Kurreemoonnesa, 19 W.R. 17; Tacoordeen Tewary v. Nawab Syed Ali, P.C. 1 I.A. 192: 21 W.R. 340: 13 B.L.R. 427.

A prayer for confirmation of possession includes a prayer for recovery of possession if the Court thinks that the plaintiff is out of possession and is a consequential relief within the meaning of section 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act. It is not open to the plaintiff to put an arbitrary and incorrect valuation on the relief sought. The valuation is to be fixed with reference to the value of the subject matter of the relief, Ram Sekhar Prasad Singh and others v. Sheonandan Dubey, I.L.R. 2 Pat. 193: 1922 Pat. C.W.N. 337: 69 Ind. Cas. 316.

Valuation.—The proper valuation in a suit for confirmation of possession, is the market value of the land and not a fictitious value, Mahabir Lal v. Sm. Duthim Rajan, 1935 A.I.R. 191 (Pat.).

Documents.—Suits to avoid or set aside deeds by Purdanashin lady—fraud.—Where a purdanashin lady (the plaintiff in the case) asked that the deed alleged to be executed by her but not in fact executed by her, be set aside as not genuine and also for confirmation of possession; held that the prayer for setting aside the deed is a prayer for substantial relief and Courts of justice are not justified in substituting therefor a mere declaration of the plaintiff's title, Tacoordeen v. Nawab Syed Ali, L.R. 1 I.A. 192: 21 W.R. 340: 13 B.L.R. 427.

When a person is induced to execute a deed other than what she intended to execute, the document is void and need not be set aside; therefore, in a suit to set aside such a document if the plaintiff—in this case a purdanashin lady—alleges that she is still in possession of the disputed property, all she is required to ask at the time of suit, is a declaration that the deed in favour of the defendant is not her deed. The court-fee payable is Rs. 10, Umarannessa Bibi v. Janurannessa Bibi and others, 37 C.L.J. 499: 76 I.C. 448: 1923 A.I.R. 362 (Cal.).

Suit to set aside on the ground of fraud.—A relief praying that a Sankalp deed executed by the plaintiff in favour of the defendant in respect of property in the possession of the plaintiff, be declared invalid and ineffective as against her as the said deed was executed under coercion and undue influence exercised by the defendant, is a relief for a mere declaration only and need be stamped accordingly, Musst. Paterji v. Radhika Baksh Singh, 142 I.C. 699: 1933 A.I.R. 127 (Oudh): 10 O.W.N. 133: 1933 I.R. 124 (Oudh).

A suit to declare that the deed of sale executed by the plaintiff is void and inoperative on the ground that the same was executed under undue influence and coercion, is a suit for declaration only and does not require ad valorem court-fee, Rannaq Ali v. Imamunnissa, 9 O.W.N. 440.

Suits to declare agreement not binding.—The plaint in a suit for a declaration that an agreement is not binding upon the plaintiffs and for any other relief which the Court considers proper, is to be stamped ad valorem on the value of the interest of the plaintiff as the declaration of the invalidity of the agreement would afford the plaintiff relief of a very substantial character, Parathayi v. Sankumani, 15 Mad. 294.

Suits to declare documents not binding.—A suit for a declaration that an instrument of mortgage executed by the plaintiff is not binding, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief within section 7, para. iv clause (c) of the Court Fees Act. The plaintiff is at liberty to put his own valuation, but the case might be different when the relief sought is by a person who is not a party to the bond or decree. In a case like this the suit may be properly regarded as one for declaration only, Arunachellam v. Rangasami, 38 Mad. 922 F.B.: 1915 M.W.N. 118: 28 M.L.J. 118: 17 M.L.T. 154: 28 Ind. Cas. 79.

Lease.—A suit for a declaration that leases executed in respect of debutter properties are illegal, invalid and inoperative and for obtaining possession is a suit for declaration with a consequential relief and court-fees ad valorem on the valuation put by the plaintiff are to be paid on the memorandum of appeal, Sailendra Nath v. Surendra Nath, (1934) 39 C.W.N. 248: 60 C.L.J. 469: 1935 A.I.R. 279 (Cal.).

Forged document.—If a plaintiff complains that a sale deed was forged by the defendant, that it was ordered to be registered by the District Registrar erroneously and that it be declared a forged document, the suit is a suit for mere declaration as when a person impeaches a deed as having been forged, to refer to him as being a party to it, is an obvious misuse of words, Nagabhusanam v. Venkatappayya, (1934) 68 M.L.J. 95: 41 L.W. 90: 1935 A.I.R. 203 (Mad.).

Declaration and injunction.—Suits for ordering demolition of building.—A suit for setting aside a lease and to have buildings thereon demolished is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief and comes under section 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, Jogal Kishore v. Tale Singh, 4 All. 320: 2 A.W.N. 44.

Suit for damages and injunction for interference with proprietary rights.—The plaintiff brought a suit against defendants on the allegation that the defendant had cut away certain trees from a jungle belonging to him and damages for the same and injunction to restrain him from cutting any more trees, held that the case falls within the provisions of paragraph IV, clauses (c) and (d) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act, Hari Sankar v. Kali Kumar, 32 Cal. 734: 9 C.W.N. 690.

Suit for declaration and injunction.—A prayer for a permanent injunction is a prayer for a consequential relief, Deokali v. Kedar Nath, 39 Cal. 704 (710): 16 C.W.N. 838: 15 Ind. Cas. 427. See also Umataul v. Nauji, 11 C.W.N. 705 (707): 6 C.L.J. 427; Hari Sankar v. Kali Kumar, 32 Cal. 734: 9 C.W.N. 690; Rai Charan v. Kunj Behari, 46 Ind. Cas. 884; Saidunnessa v. Tejendra Chandra, 44 Ind. Cas. 398; Rajabala v. Radhika 40 C.L.J. 150: 1924 A.I.R. 969 (C.); Vachhani Keshabai v. Vachhani Naubha, 33 Bom. 307: 11 Bom.L.R. 90: 1 Ind. Cas. 108; Rahimbai Jamalbhoy v. Mariam, 34 Bom. 267: 12 Bom.L.R. 149; Pheroze Shah v. Wakhji, 13 Bom.L.R. 158; Barru v. Lachman, F.B. 228 P.W.R. 1913: 111 P.R. 1913: 23 P.L.R. 1914: 22 Ind. Cas. 503; Vaiyapuri v. P. K. Ramchandra, 1925 A.I.R. 1143 (Mad.): 89 I.C. 930: 21 L.W. 699.

Suit for declaration of title and injunction and rent.—Where A brought a suit against B for rent on the basis of a lease and also asked for declaration of title and injunction against C as he is alleged to have prevented B from paying rent to A, held that the suit embraced two distinct causes of action and falls within paras. i and iv (d) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act, Perumal v. Motumal, 6 S.L.R. 144: 17 Ind. Cas. 44.

Property in the possession of collector and injunction.—“Property having been in the possession of the Collector, it was not necessary for and allowable to the plaintiff to ask for an injunction. He was entitled to ask only for a declaration of title,” Shidappa Venkatrao v. Rachappa Subrao, 36 Bom. 628 (630): 14 Bom.L.R. 757: 16 Ind. Cas. 1005, affirmed on appeal to the Privy Council where their Lordships said that no consequential relief could have been asked for, Rachappa Subrao v. Shidappa Subrao, 43 Bom. 507 (516): 24 C.W.N. 33: 29 C.L.J. 452: 50 I.C. 280: 36 M.L.J. 437: 17 A.L.J. 418: 21 Bom. L.R. 459: L.R. 46 I.A. 24.

Police Act and Injunction.—Where the plaint in substance challenged the validity of the imposition which purported to have been made under ss. 15 and 15A of the General Police Act and the mode in which the amounts of imposition are to be realised and contained prayers for declaration and permanent injunction restraining the realization of the amounts by the said method, the Subordinate Judge was of opinion that Rs. 1,682 and Rs. 18,301 are the amounts of tax and compensation that remain unrealized and the suit, therefore, relates to plaintiff's liability which should be assessed at the sum-total of these two amounts and therefore, ad valorem court-fees should be paid on the aggregate of the said two amounts.

The High Court held, the reliefs sought for in the plaint come within s. 7, iv (c) and (d) of the Court Fees Act. Prima facie, in accordance with the terms of that section, the amount of fees is to be computed according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint but which is not to be an arbitrary valuation. In this case the consequential relief sought for is not recovery of the amounts which have not yet been imposed—for these have not yet been realized—but a permanent injunction restraining the realization thereof by a particular process. There is no knowing whether by the said process the entire amount yet unrealized will be realized. The value of the injunction to the plaintiff is really the value at which the injury to the plaintiff should be assessed, Girish Chandra Sanyal v. The Secretary of State for India in Council, 105 I.C. 80: 1928 A.I.R. 55 (Calcutta).

Right of way and injunction.—A suit for declaration of the plaintiff's right of way and drainage over a piece of land and for a mandatory injunction to remove the fences and walls built in defiance of the said right falls within s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, and the valuation should not be less than half the value of the immovable property, In re Venkatakrishna Pather, 25 L.W. 158: 52 M.L.J. 121: 100 I.C. 263: 1927 A.I.R. 348 (Mad.).

Right to irrigate lands.—A suit to declare the right of the plaintiff to irrigate his lands with water and for an injunction to restrain the defendant from cutting the embankment falls within s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act and the valuation should be reasonable valuation and if an arbitrary valuation is made, then the Court has power to correct the valuation, Ram Chariter Pandey v. Basgit Roy, 11 Pat. 161: 12 P.L.T. 656: 133 I.C. 687: 1931 I.R. 399 (Pat.): 1932 A.I.R. 9 (Patna).

Declaration that the plaintiffs are lessees.—A suit for a declaration that the plaintiffs are lessees for a term of five years of the lands and for a perpetual injunction to restrain the defendants from interfering with their rights, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief. The plaintiff can put his own valuation in such cases, Ghulam Haidar v. Bishambhar Das and another, 33 P.L.R. 458: 140 I.C. 73.

Valuation.—In a suit for a declaration of title and injunction in respect of a portion of land covered by Miras Patta, the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction should be the market value of the land actually in suit and not market-value of the land comprised in the Miras Patta, though the effect of the decision is to set aside the Miras Patta as a whole, Sarat Chandra v. Srimati Swornamayee, 36 Ind. Cas. 615. The plaintiff can put his own valuation, Hari Sankar v. Kali Kumar, 32 Cal. 734: 9 C.W.N. 690; Jogendra v. Toriatunnessa and others, 35 C.L.J. 144: 62 I.C. 685: 1922 A.I.R. 242 (Cal.); Balkrishna Narayan v. Jankibai, 44 Bom. 331: 22 Bom.L.R. 289: 57 Ind. Cas. 340; Musst. Mulkunnessa v. Municipal Committee, Delhi, P.L.R. 1904; Chinnamal v. Madarasa Rowther, 27 Mad. : 14 M.L.J. 343.

A plaintiff is entitled to put his own valuations on the consequential relief of injunction. A plaintiff may elect to abandon the relief of injunction and his prayer for amendment of plaint in this respect cannot be rejected, Amdu v. Fazal, 99 I.C. 868: 1927 A.I.R. 375 (Nag.).

A suit by an occupancy raiyat against proprietors for declaration of certain rights in land and for an injunction restraining the defendant from interfering with the plaintiff's use of those rights, viz., to cut grass, was valued at Rs. 1,000 for the purpose of jurisdiction, held that it was competent to the plaintiff to value the relief sought by him for the purpose of court-fees at Rs. 130, Barru v. Lachman, 228 P.W.R. 1913: 111 P.R. 1913: 23 P.L.R. 1914: 22 Ind. Cas. 503.

Sale in execution of a decree.—A suit for a declaration that a sale in execution of a decree to which the plaintiff was a party was illegal and inoperative and that the right of the plaintiff to redeem the properties still subsists and also for an injunction to restrain the defendants from obtaining possession, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief and the court-fees are to be paid on the lump valuation by the plaintiff and not separately for a declaration and for an injunction valued differently. The Court can adopt the procedure laid down in Order 7, Rule 11, C. P. C. In re Kali Pada Mookherjee, 58 Cal. 281: 34 C.W.N. 870: 1930 A.I.R. 686 (Cal.).

Suits relating to temple.—A suit for a declaration of right to the Shebaitship of a Thakur and for a permanent injunction restraining the defendants from interfering with the rights of the plaintiff, is to be valued for jurisdiction and the court-fees at the value of the debutter or such portion of it from which the plaintiffs may have been dispossessed, Manick Chandra v. Dam- bharudhar, 126 I.C. 267: 1930 A.I.R. 41 (Cal.): 1930 I.R. 715 (Cal.).

Madras amendment.—A suit for a declaration and injunction in respect of immoveable property is governed by s. 7, para. iv, cl. (c) of the Court Fees Act and court-fees should be paid ad valorem on half the valuation of the properties calculated in the manner provided for by paragraph V of section 7 which means that the value is to be calculated on the market value of the property, Bethasami Naicker v. Nagammal, 59 M.L.J. 899: 1930 M.W.N. 656: 33 L.W. 68: 129 I.C. 625: 1931 A.I.R. 69 (Mad.): 1931 I.R. 289 (Mad.).

Landlord and tenant.—Assessment of rent.—Where the landlord sued his tenant for assessment of rent and for recovery of specific sums of money as damages for use and occupation of land and the Court of first instance decreed the suit at Rs. 10-2 per bigha including cesses, held that sec. 7, iv (c) applied, i.e., the suits are suits to obtain declaratory decrees or orders where consequential reliefs are prayed, Kali Charan v. Maharaja Bahadur Keso Prosad Singh, 4 Pat.L.J. 561: 51 I.C. 15.

As there is no particular provision in the Court Fees Act applicable to a suit for assessment of fair and equitable rent, court-fee should be paid ad valorem under Schedule I of the Court Fees Act. A prayer for assessment of rent is not in the nature of a declaratory relief, and therefore does not come under Art. 17, iii of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, Dhanukdhari Tewari v. Mani Sonar, I.L.R. 6 Pat. 17: 8 Pat.L.T. 366: 100 I.C. 913: 1927 A.I.R. 123 (Patna).

Possession or in the alternative for assessment of fair and equitable rent.—A suit for declaration of title and possession or in the alternative for assessment of fair and equitable rent, is a suit for declaration with a consequential relief and falls within sec. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, Dhanukdhari Tewari v. Mani Sonar, I.L.R. 6 Pat. 17: 8 P.L.T. 366: 100 I.C. 913: 1927 A.I.R. 123 (Patna).

BENGAL TENANCY ACT.

Section 104.—Suits for a declaration that the plaintiffs are occupancy raiyat and not tenure holders as recorded, do not come under Art. 17, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act and ad valorem court-fees are to be paid, Pajuruddin v. The Secretary of State for India, 16 C.L.J. 383. Suits for a declaration that the status of the plaintiffs is that of occupancy raiyats and not tenure holders as recorded under sec. 104, B. T. Act and settlement of fair rent on that basis, is a suit for a declaration of title with a consequential relief as the provisions of sec. 104 (H) make it clear that such suits are brought to obtain consequential relief, viz., the settlement of fair rent, and the plaint or the memorandum of appeal should be stamped with ad valorem court-fee, Trailakyanath v. The Secretary of State for India, 17 C.L.J. 426: 18 Ind. Cas. 188.

Sec. 105.—Where a number of tenants were joined as defendants in a proceeding for settlement of rent under sec. 104 (2) (now sec. 105) of the Bengal Tenancy Act and an appeal by the landlord was preferred under sec. 108 of the same Act from the decision of the Revenue Officer making all or nearly all the tenants as respondents, the appeal was dismissed by the Special Judge, on the ground that as many court-fees of rupees ten each as there are tenants defendants, have not been paid. The High Court, on a petition by the landlord held, "The proceedings are, under sec. 104 (2) (now. s. 105) and the Government rules, initiated, not by a plaint, but an application, and this application is not subject to an ad valorem court-fee duty, as suits for money are subject under the provisions of sec. 7 (1) of the Court Fees Act, but, according to a notification of the Government of India No. 5086 S. R. published at page 157, Part I/A of the Calcutta Gazette of the 17th October 1894, to a court-fee of 8 annas. If then the case is not a suit at its initiation, and need not be commenced by a plaint, why should it be a suit, and why should a memorandum of appeal be required to be presented in it at a later stage? The provisions of sec. 107 do not prescribe that the decision of the Revenue Officer in every proceeding under Chapter X shall be a decree, but that it shall have the 'force of a decree,' which it may have without the proceeding necessarily becoming a suit. None of the rules framed by Government under the Tenancy Act lays down that such a proceeding shall be a suit. Rule 30 (b) merely prescribes that the proceedings shall be dealt with as a suit, that is to say, in respect of its procedure which is all that the provisions of sec. 189, clause (1) allow Government to regulate by means of a rule. Rule 30 (b) cannot therefore have been intended to lay down that a proceeding under Chapter X of the Bengal Tenancy Act, shall be dealt with as a suit in respect of the court-fees payable on it. If it did, this would be regulating more than the mere procedure to be followed by Revenue Officers in the discharge of a duty imposed upon them by the Act, and would be ultra vires," Upadhyya Thakur v. Persidh Singh, 23 Cal. 723 F.B. (1896): Petu Gharai v. Ram Khelawan, 18 Cal. 667 overruled. After this case sec. 105 was amended in 1898 by B. C. Act III of 1898 and sec. (3) was inserted which is as follows:—
"Every application under sub-sec. (1) or sub-sec. (2) shall notwithstanding anything contained in the Court Fees Act, 1879, bear such stamp as the Government of India may, from time to time, prescribe by notification in the Gazette of India." The Government of India issued notifications 321, S. R. and 322, S. R., dated 19th January, 1899, which say that such applications shall bear stamp of eight annas for each tenant.

Secs. 105 and 105A.—Afterwards another Notification was issued, i.e., Notification No. 2254F published in the Gazette of India, dated the 10th August, 1918, Part I, page 1253 and Calcutta Gazette, 1922, Part I, page 1451, which provides as follows:—

S. 105. (a) A stamp of 12 annas for each tenant making or joining or joined in the application and

(b) If, at any time during the hearing of the application an issue is raised by the applicant under sec. 105A of the said Act, in addition, a stamp to the amount of an ad valorem fee chargeable under Art. 1, Sch. I of the Court Fees Act, 1870 as amended by Bengal Court Fees (Amendment) Act, 1922, (Act IV of 1922) subject to a maximum of twenty rupees.

The word "tenant" in the above notification has been construed to mean a tenancy. Therefore, a stamp of eight annas is to be levied in respect of each tenancy and not in respect of each tenant, who may be a group of tenants holding a particular tenancy, Reference under Court Fees Act, Sachhidananda Thakur v. Mahesh Chandra Das, 50 Cal. 903: 28 C.W.N. 116. See also Notification No. 1386 L.R., dated 16th April, 1920 of the Government of Assam.

For the rule in Bihar and Orissa, see the decision of Coutts, J., in S. A. 776 of 1920 (Kumar Madhava Surendra Sahi v. Audh Kumar and others) decided on 13th August, 1920 and Bihar and Orissa Government Notification Nos. 6422-II, T-33R; 6423-II, T-33R; 6426-II, T-33R, dated 10th July, 1926, whereby it was provided that in cases arising out of applications under sec. 105A of the Tenancy Act, the court-fee payable is ad valorem subject to a maximum of Rs. 15.

Ad valorem court-fees calculated under Art. 1, Sch. I of the Court Fees Act, as amended in Bengal subject to a maximum of Rs. 20 are payable on an application under sec. 105 and sec. 105A of the Bengal Tenancy Act for settlement of fair and equitable rent and for a declaration that the rents of the lands are liable to be enhanced and also that the tenants are not mokraridars as recorded in the Record of Rights. To such cases sec. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act is not applicable, Gopal Chandra Biswas v. Guru Charan Kirtania, 32 C.W.N. 1136: 117 I.C. 701: 1929 A.I.R. 141 (Cal.).

105, 105A.—Valuation.—An applicant (a zemindar) filed an application under s. 105 of the Bengal T. Act, in respect of 39 tenancies which were grouped together under s. 60 (4) of the rules framed by the Bengal Government. Under the Government Notification the petitioner paid 12 annas for each khatian, i.e., she paid 39×12 annas in court-fees. In her petition the applicant prayed "for settlement of fair and equitable rent claiming inter alia enhancement on the ground of rise in prices of staple food crops; excess rent for excess area and for correction of the entries in the Record of Rights in respect of the jama by incorporation of the hajat (or a portion of the rent kept in abeyance out of grace by the landlord) with the jama recorded."

On objection by the A. S. O. the applicant paid Rs. 20 for each application in question. On appeal the Special Judge held that the proper court-fees payable would be 12 annas for each tenancy plus ad valorem fees not exceeding Rs. 20 on the valuation to be put on the reliefs asked for in respect of each of such tenancy. On further appeal the High Court held that the prayer for settlement of fair and equitable rent and for enhancement on the ground of rise in the price of staple food crops and additional rent for additional area comes within the scope of s. 105 of the Bengal T. Act. The prayer for correction of Record of Rights by incorporation of hajat comes either under s. 106 or s. 105A of the Bengal T. Act and therefore the court-fees payable would be ad valorem on the valuation subject to a maximum of Rs. 20 for each tenancy plus 12 annas for each tenancy. The valuation of a suit if the amount is payable periodically, would be ten times the amount of rent or the difference in the amount of rent as the case may be. The mode of valuation provided in s. 7, ix (cc) of the Court Fees Act does not apply to a case like the present, Charusila Dass v. Mazaffer Sheikh and others, 59 Cal. 997: 55 C.L.J. 303: 143 I.C. 37: 1932 A.I.R. 674 (Cal.): 1933 I.R. 329 (Cal.).

Sec. 105B.—When any issue is raised under sec. 105A, the party raising it shall pay in addition to any other court-fees which he may be liable to pay, such court-fees as he would have been liable to pay if he had claimed relief under sec. 106.

Sec. 106.—A suit under sec. 106 of the Bengal Tenancy Act is a suit for a declaratory decree within the meaning of Art. 17, clause (iii) of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, Satis Chandra v. Gopal Chandra, 12 C.L.J. 638: 15 C.W.N. 110: 7 Ind. Cas. 627. In a suit under sec. 106 of the Bengal tenancy Act, the court-fee to be paid is Rs. 10, as in a suit for declaration, Chandi Charan v. Monoranjan, 17 C.L.J. 417: 18 Ind. Cas. 275. See also Sailaja Nath v. Chandi Charan, 48 Ind. Cas. 552, where it was held that such suits are declaratory suits without consequential relief under Art. 17, Clause iii, Sch. II, of the Court Fees Act even if the suits are transferred to Civil Courts for trial. In a suit under sec. 106 of the Bengal Tenancy Act ad valorem court-fee is payable on the valuation in the plaint, but the maximum is not to exceed rupees ten. See Notification No. 1897F, dated 28th March, 1911, published at page 222, Part. I of the Gazette of India for Bengal, and Notification No. 311F for East Bengal in the India Gazette, Part I, page 366; but these notifications were altered by Notification No. 3789 L.R., dated 3rd April, 1922, Calcutta Gazette, 5th April, 1922, Part I, page 689, which fixed Rs. 20 as the maximum fee in such cases.

But in Chandi Charan v. Monoranjan, 17 C.L.J. 417: 18 Ind. Cas. 275, it was held that the above remissions of court-fees are ultra vires.

Chapter VII, Part III, Rule 60 (4) of the rules framed by the Government of Bengal provides that with the consent of the Revenue Officer any number of tenants, occupying land under the same landlord in the same village, may make joint applications for the settlement of rent or may be joined as defendants in the same proceedings on a similar application by the landlord; and Rules 60 (1) and 61 provide that proceedings under secs. 105A and 106 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, as amended by B. C. Act of 1907 and 1908, shall be dealt with in all respects as suits between the parties.

See also Notification No. 2576/L.A. 25 Clause 42, infra for Bihar and Orissa Government.

One suit under sec. 106, B. T. Act against all tenants of a village in a body upon one plaint with one court-fee of rupees ten is not maintainable; one suit might be instituted against all such tenants as belong to the same caste or follow the same occupation and separate suits ought to have been instituted with respect to each class of tenants and separate court-fees of rupees ten should have been paid for each such suit, Dhakeswar v. Iswardhari Singh, 22 C.L.J. 57: 30 I.C. 862.

Where the zamindar brought suits against all the tenants of a village claiming that the tenants held at Nagdi rent and obtained decree and further obtained an appraisement decree against them and in subsequent settlement proceedings the settlement officer recorded the tenants as holding at Nagdi rent in the Record of Rights and the zamindar further obtained 59 decrees against the tenants by virtue of these Record of Rights; and the tenants, then, combined and brought one suit praying that it may be declared that the lands in the mouzas have been held at uniform rent without alteration or change from time immemorial; that the jama recorded in the survey and settlement Khatian was the result of illegal proceedings; that the enhancement is bad in law and that the orders under sec. 109 is void and that the decrees obtained in the Munsiff's Court are contrary to law and not fit to be executed; and the tenant plaintiffs valued this suit at Rs. 50,000, and stamped the plaint with court-fee of Rs. 20 only; the Patna High Court held, that there are 78 sets of tenants for 78 holdings and there are 59 decrees and that the court-fees of Rs. 10 is to be paid by each tenant as well as for each decree, i.e., the plaint must be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 1,370 and the memorandum of appeal must be similarly stamped, Chethru Mahato v. Khaja Muhammad, 4 Pat.L.J. 297: 50 Ind. Cas. 328. Where the landlord brings one suit against 25 sets of tenants on the ground that they are held under Botai system and that they are wrongly recorded in the Record of Rights as paying cash rent, held, that a court-fee of Rs. 10 should be paid in respect of each of the 25 sets of tenants, Lachhman v. Sheikh Abdul, 4 Pat.L.J. 299: 51 Ind. Cas. 767, but see the case of Mahanth Ram Narain Gir v. Gauri Shankar Lal, 7 Pat. 402: 9 P.L.T. 199: 110 I.C. 151: 1928 A.I.R. 274 (Pat.), where the landlord was allowed to bring one suit against sets of tenants on the ground of conspiracy among them.

Record of rights.—The proviso to sec. 111A of the Bengal Tenancy Act is as follows:—"Provided that any person who is dissatisfied with any entry in or omission from the Record of Rights framed in pursuance of an order made under sec. 101, sub-sec. (2) clause (d) which concerns a right of which he is in possession, may institute a suit for declaration of his right under Chapter VI of Specific Relief Act, 1877." In Ram Golam v. Bishnu, 11 C.W.N. 48 (50), the High Court held "we are of opinion that it is not necessary for the plaintiff to bring a suit to set aside the entry in the record of rights. He might bring a suit for declaration that the entry contains erroneous statements." See also the case of Agin Bindh v. Mohan, 30 Cal. 20: 7 C.W.N. 314 (320-321). See also the unreported case of Serajul Huq v. The Secretary of State for India, S.A. 818 of 1910, where N. Chatterjee and Panton JJ., held that the amount of court-fees payable on a memorandum of appeal arising out of claim under sec. 111A. B. T. Act, falls under Art. 17, Clause iii, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act.

Suit for amendment of Record of Rights and Assessment of Rent.—A suit for amendment of Record of Rights and settlement of fair rent comes under sec. 7, paragraph IV (c) of the Court Fees Act; therefore ad valorem court-fee is payable calculated on the value of the suit and not the sum of rupees ten as a declaratory suit, Sreenath v. The Secretary of State for India, 11 C.L.J. 158: 5 Ind. Cas. 141.

Valuation.—The proper way for determining the value of suit for declaration that the entry in the Record of Rights is not correct for purposes of jurisdiction, is to adopt the mode of valuation of a suit brought by landlord for recovery of possession of immoveable property from a tenant holding over after the period of the tenancy. According to the provisions of sec. 7, xi (cc) of the Court Fees Act the value would be one year's rent and that must be the valuation for court-fees as well as jurisdiction, Suryanarayan and others v. Bullayya and others, 52 M.L.J. 323: 101 I.C. 85: 1927 A.I.R. 568 (Mad.): 25 L.W. 367; but see the case of Charusila Dass v. Muzaffer Sheik, 59 Cal. 997: 55 C.L.J. 303: 143 I.C. 37: 1932 A.I.R. 674 (Cal.): 1933 I.R. 329 (Cal.), where valuation at ten times the amount of rent or the difference between the rent claimed and rent admitted was held to be the value.

Status affected by Record of Rights.—Declaration of title and injunction.—Where the plaintiff sues for a declaration of his title and for an injunction to restrain the defendant, who was declared by the Settlement Officer to be entitled to collect rent from cultivating raiyats, from so realizing rent, the value of the relief sought is the value of the property, Krishna Das v. Hari Charan, 14 C.L.J. 47: 15 C.W.N. 823: 10 Ind. Cas. 865.

Assertion of hostile title.—A claim before a survey officer or an entry in the Record of Rights is an assertion of a hostile title and then the plaintiff must clear his title and get possession before he can claim partition and such suits come under sec. 7, iv (c) of this Act, Hurnarayan v. Suresh, 63 Ind. Cas. 203; but an unfounded assertion of a proprietary right in the Revenue Court which had no jurisdiction to determine the proprietary right in the land, cannot by lapse of six or twelve years, convert what was an occupancy or tenant title into that of an under proprietor, Raja Mohammad Mumtaz Ali Khan v. Mohan Singh, 45 All. 419: 21 A.L.J. 757: L.R. 50 I.A. 202: 39 C.L.J. 295: 28 C.W.N. 840: 19 L.W. 283: 45 M.L.J. 623: 26 O.C. 231: 74 I.C. 476: 1923 A.I.R. 118 (P.C.).

Status of an occupancy raiyat.—See Sch. II, Art. 5, and sec. 7, paragraph XI of this Act.

Occupancy raiyats.—In a suit for declaration that the plaintiffs are occupancy raiyats and not tenure holders and also for a declaration that the survey entries describing them as tenure holders are wrong and not binding on them, the court-fees payable are as in a mere declaratory suit without consequential relief as any other prayer is redundant, Tewari Kora v. Bhupat, 4 Pat.L.J. 302: 50 Ind. Cas. 298.

Suit for a declaration that a record of right is a nullity.—The plaintiffs in possession of the holding and claiming to be occupancy raiyats, brought a suit for declaration that the entry in the Record of Rights describing them as tenure-holders, is erroneous and a nullity, held that sec. 111A of the Bengal Tenancy Act is to be construed strictly and as the plaintiffs asked for something more than mere declaration and one that is not contemplated by sec. 111A of the Bengal Tenancy Act, they therefore must pay ad valorem court-fees on the valuation of the relief. The plaintiffs appellants wanted to amend the plaint which was refused, Midnapur Zemindary Co., Ltd. v. The Secretary of State for India, 21 C.W.N. 834: 44 Cal. 352: 40 Ind. Cas. 96.

A suit for a declaration of the rights of the plaintiffs as shebais of a Thakur and also that an entry in the Record of Right is null and void, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief and ad valorem court-fee on the valuation of the plaintiffs, is payable, The Official Trustee of Bengal v. Gobardhan Guchait, 33 C.W.N. 231: 118 I.C. 357.

Sec. 158, Cl. 3.—In Bhupendra Narayan Dutt v. Nemaye Chand Mondal, it was held that court-fees on an appeal from an order under s. 158, B. T. Act, Cl. 3 are to be assessed under Article 11, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act—decided by Tottenham and Ghose, JJ., on 2nd August, 1887, in M.A. 275 of 1887—unreported, where such an appeal was treated as an appeal from order without discussion.

Sec. 108, 115B, B. T. Act.—Appeals presented under sec. 104G (1) to a superior Revenue Authority and applications for revision presented under ss. 108, 108A will bear a court-fee of 12 annas per tenancy under Sch. II (1) (b) of the Court Fees Act (vide Calcutta Gazette, 1922, Part I, page 1995 and Rule 64 of the Government of Bengal rules); if the superior Revenue Authority be of lower standing than a Commissioner of a division or the Director of the Department of Land records, or if an application for revision be made to the Board under s. 104A (2), the fee will be one rupee per tenancy under Schedule II (1) (c) of the Court Fees Act, Settlement Manual, 1908, Part I, Chap. VII, Rule 175, p. 54 and Appendix J in the Manual of 1917 (No. 8). For the rule in Bihar and Orissa (which is similar to Bengal) see Bihar and Orissa Settlement Manual.

Sec. 149, B. T. Act.—Suit under sec. 149 (3) of the Bengal Tenancy Act by a third person is not a title suit and need not be stamped as such. Such a suit is either a suit for injunction or else a declaratory suit, Jagadamba v. Protap, 14 Cal. 537. See Tirthabasi Singh v. Purna Chandra Nag, 16 C.W.N. 558: 15 C.L.J. 501: 14 I.C. 230.

Mortgage.—Where the mortgagee sued to recover the mortgage-money and paid court-fees ad valorem on the plaint calculated on the amount claimed and some of the defendants appealed on the ground that the properties are not liable for the mortgage debt, i.e., to exonerate the lands from liability, held this is a suit to release lands, therefore, a suit with a consequential relief, and ad valorem court-fees are to be paid on the value of the debt not exceeding the value of the property, Venkappa v. Narasinha, 10 Mad. 187.

Sale.—To exonerate properties from sale.—A suit to exonerate properties from sale under a mortgage decree is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief and therefore the plaint is to be stamped with ad valorem court-fees not exceeding the value of the property, Venkatappa v. Narasimha, 10 Mad. 187. See also Jugal v. Parbhu, 37 Cal. 914. See other cases under Art. 1, Sch. I, infra.

Suit for declaration that the share be exempted.—Suit for establishment of plaintiff's right to 2/3 share of certain property and also for a declaration that such share shall be exempted from a certain mortgage lien falls under sec. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act and court-fees are to be paid on the valuation of the relief made in the plaint, Makhan Lal v. Surja Prasad, 1885, 5 A.W.N. 48. See also Musst. Shahar Banu Begum v. Raj Bahadur Singh and others, 1933 A.I.R. 505 (Oudh), where such a suit was held to be a suit for possession.

Protection from sale.—In a suit where the plaintiff prayed that her right be established in respect of a third share of the house by virtue of a deed of gift and for her possession and enjoyment thereof being protected from sale be established, held, that a consequential relief has been asked for and ad valorem court-fees must be paid, Ram Prasad v. Sukh Dai, 2 All. 720. F.B.; Lachmi Narayan v. Gouri, 6 All.W.N. 154.

Suit to set aside a compromise mortgage decree when the plaintiff interested only in a share.—Where a mortgage decree for Rs. 12,200 was passed on compromise and the plaintiffs sued to set aside the compromise decree, but his interest so affected by the decree was valued at Rs. 1,300: held, that the plaintiffs were only liable to pay court-fees assessed upon their share of the property affected by the compromise decree, Bankey Behary v. Ram Bahadur, 4 Pat.L.J. 101: 1918 (Pat.) C.W.N. 223: 4 Pat.L.W. 281: 14 Ind. Cas. 891.

Suit by puisne mortgagee when he was no party to prior mortgagee's suit.—The plaint in a suit for a declaration by the puisne mortgagee, who was no party to the suit by the prior mortgagee who obtained a decree final for Rs. 6,818 that the prior mortgagee is not entitled to bring the property to sale and an injunction restraining the defendant (the relief for injunction was separately valued at Rs. 100 and court-fees ad valorem on that separately paid) from selling the mortgaged properties, is to be stamped ad valorem on the amount of the prior mortgaged amount, i.e., on Rs. 6,818, Jageshra v. Durga Prosad, 36 All. 500: 12 A.L.J. 844: 24 Ind. Cas. 670.

Priority.—In a suit for enforcing a simple mortgage bond by sale of the property, the decree of the 1st Court was that the property be sold subject to the mortgage of another defendant, held, on appeal by the plaintiff to get rid of the condition of priority of that defendant's mortgage, that the court-fees must be paid ad valorem on the value of the lien sought to be destroyed (in this case on Rs. 14,000 the mortgage amount) with interest due to that defendant, Premasukh Das v. Shah Gopi Saran, 4 Pat.L.J. 323: 56 Ind. Cas. 786. See other cases under "Priority" under Sch. I, Art. 1, infra.

Suit against a subsequent transferee who had parted with his interest.—A was implicated in a suit for sale on a mortgage as a subsequent transferee but it was found that A has parted with his interest in favour of his sons and A's only remaining interest was a right to maintenance which was made a charge upon the property in the hands of his sons. The suit was dismissed as against A's sons but was decreed against A and other defendants. A filed an appeal against the decree praying for a declaration that the decree be modified by granting a declaration that the plaintiffs are not entitled to get the charge sold. The Allahabad High Court held this prayer to be a prayer for a declaration with a consequential relief and ordered that ad valorem court-fees on the valuation of the appeal be paid, Mukund Ram v. Raquaiya Khatoon, (1931) A.L.J. 150: 131 I.C. 39: 1931 A.I.R. 251 (All.): 1931 I.R. 343 (All.).

Suit by a son governed by Mitakshara Law.—The plaintiff in a suit by a Hindu son to recover family properties ignoring a mortgage executed by the father, need only be stamped as in a suit for possession on the value of the share of the son; separate court-fees in respect of the mortgage which the plaintiff does not seek to set aside need not be paid, Veemal Naidu v. The Official Receiver, Coimbatore, 117 I.C. 800.

A suit for the relief that the joint family property cannot be sold in execution of the decree, is a suit under sec. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act and the value of the suit with the value of the interest of the plaintiff is the value of the property and ad valorem court-fees are to be paid on that basis, Munshi Mahton v. Lachman Lal, 10 P.L.T. 545: 120 I.C. 765: 1929 A.I.R. 615 (Pat.).

A suit that the share of the plaintiff is not liable to be attached and sold in execution of a decree against his father, is a suit for a mere declaration without any consequential relief and no ad valorem court-fees need be paid, Adeshwar Prasad v. Badami Devi, 11 O.W.N. 617: 148 I.C. 908: 1934 A.I.R. 212 (Oudh). For cases to set aside decrees see under suits to set aside decrees, infra.

Reversioner.—Where on the death of the mother, the widow of the last male holder, the daughter instituted the present suit for recovery of possession as reversioner to her father, on the allegation that the documents executed by her mother were illegal and inoperative and fraudulent and not for legal necessity and that the defendants have no right to resist the plaintiff's claim to possession of those properties on the strength of those documents and prayed that (i) it be declared that the plaintiff was the sole heir of her father, (ii) that it be declared that the defendants had no right to those properties, (iii) that her possession be confirmed in respect of two plots and that she may be awarded possession regarding others by ejecting the defendants from their wrongful possession, (iv) that mesne profits be awarded to her which she assessed at Rs. 21,000, held, that the widow being dead the plaintiff in addition to the declaration necessarily seeks a consequential relief, viz., possession. Therefore the reliefs in the present case clearly come within the purview of sec. 7, cl. (iv), sub-sec. (c), and ad valorem court-fee upon the valuation of the property stated in the plaint must be paid as this valuation determines not only the jurisdiction of the Court, but also the amount of court-fees payable, Khetra Mohan v. Ganesh Lal, 6 Pat.L.J. 101 (105): 61 Ind. Cas. 565: 2 Pat.L.T. 607. See also Harbans Sahu v. Mt. Lalmoni Koer, 62 Ind. Cas. 36: 1922 A.I.R. 62 (Patna): 3 P.L.T. 22.

A reversioner suing to recover properties from the alienee from the widow after her death, need not ask for a declaration that the alienation is void or is not binding on him. He might claim possession leaving it to the defendant to plead and prove circumstances which will make the alienation binding on him. Such a suit, therefore, comes under sec. 7, v, and not under sec. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, Ramusumran Prasad v. Gobind Das, I.L.R. 2 Pat. 125: 3 P.L.T. 704: 1 Pat.L.R. 1: 1922 Pat. C.W.N. 291: 68 Ind. Cas. 700: 1922 A.I.R. 615 (Pat.) F.B.

When the reversioner is a party.—If a suit by reversioners, who were parties to a decree which will be binding on them so long as it subsists, seek to set aside the decree, the plea that the reversioner is not concerned to set aside the whole of the decree so long as the widow is alive and that as the exact value of the widow's life interest cannot properly be estimated, therefore, the provisions of Art. 17 (b), Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, are applicable, was not accepted by the High Court, as the decree cannot be treated as consisting of separate and independent parts with reference to the widows and the reversioners. The valuation was made under the provisions of s. 7, v. (a) of the Court Fees Act and ad valorem court-fees on that valuation was levied, Venkata Narasimha Raju v. Chandrayya and others, 26 L.W. 159: 53 M.L.J. 267: 105 I.C. 171: 1927 A.I.R. 825 (Mad.): 1928 M.W.N. 120.

Suit for declaration and for appointment of a Receiver.

—See also under Art. 17, Clause iii, Second Schedule.

A relief for the appointment of a receiver is in the nature of a consequential relief, Krishnarao v. Musst. Chandrabhagabai, 1924 A.I.R. 316 (Nag.): 79 I.C. 668. See also Rup Chand Ghosh v. Srimati Khirodamayee Dasi and others, (1917) 27 C.W.N. 457: 75 I.C. 567 infra under "Administration".

Effect of such an appointment.—Where a receiver is appointed, the appointment operates as an injunction against the parties and persons claiming under them restraining them from interfering with the possession of the receiver except by permission of Court, Mahomed Zahuruddin v. Mahomed Noorooddeen, 21 Cal. 85 (91).

Appointment in a suit by reversioners.—A suit by reversioner for a declaration that certain alienations are not binding on them, and for the appointment of a receiver, is one for a declaration with a consequential relief as the prayer was made to preserve the property from being wasted, and therefore ad valorem court-fee is payable on the valuation by the plaintiff, Dodda Sanakappa v. Sakravva, 36 Ind. Cas. 831; Harbans Sahu v. Lalmoni, 3 P.L.T. 22: 62 Ind. Cas. 36: 1922 A.I.R. 62 (Patna). Where the reversioner sued for a declaration that certain alienations made by the Hindu widow will not affect their interest after her death, for appointment of a receiver and for restoration of the property to status quo ante to certain arbitration proceedings, the plaint is to be stamped with ad valorem court-fees calculated on the valuation of the suit by the plaintiffs, Lakshmi Das v. Musst. Draupadi, 134 P.W.R. 1913: 232 P.L.R. 1913: 95 P.R. 1913: 19 Ind. Cas. 839. The plaint in a suit contained two prayers—1st, that certain sales by the official receiver in favour of the defendants be declared null and void and not valid in law: 2nd, that a fresh receiver be appointed and the properties be made over to him. On the first prayer the plaintiff paid rupees ten as court-fees, i.e., for the declaratory relief and valued that relief for the purpose of jurisdiction at Rupees 38,000 and on the second prayer, he valued the relief at Rupees 100 and paid ad valorem court-fee, on that valuation, i.e., Rs. 7-8, held that the proper court-fee has been paid on the plaint and court-fees ad valorem on Rupees 38,000 need not be paid, Ram Swamy v. Subramania, 32 M.L.J. 447: 40 I.C. 620. But a simple suit for injunction and for appointment of a receiver cannot be valued and therefore can be filed if the plaint is stamped with a court-fee of rupees ten, but where it is capable of valuation the Court is to call for additional stamps, Manmathanath v. Rohillimoni, 27 All. 406: (1905) 25 All.W.N. 6: 2 A.L.J. 84.

A suit by a reversioner for declaration that certain alienations and a deed of partition, are not binding upon him and also praying for the appointment of a receiver for the management of the property, is a suit for a declaration with consequential relief, Chhatrapali v. Kalap Dei, 54 All. 232: 1931 A.L.J. 837: 135 I.C. 237: 1932 A.I.R. 114 (All.).

A suit by the heirs in reversion of a deceased Hindu for declaration that (1) an alienation by the 1st defendant (the widow) was not binding on them, and (2) for the appointment of a receiver to take possession of the estate from the widow and manage it during her life-time, is not a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief as the prayer for the appointment of a receiver did not rest upon the specific alienation sought to be impeached but for an entirely different purpose, Karuppa Tevar v. Angammal and others, 51 M.L.J. 67: 96 I.C. 129: 1926 A.I.R. 678 (Mad.): 23 L.W. 581. See also Palaniappa Chettiar v. Settichi and others, 141 I.C. 324: 1933 A.I.R. 108 (Mad.).

Suit to set aside compromise.—A compromise is just as binding on the parties thereto as a decree after a contentious trial, but it is equally well settled that a consent decree cannot have greater validity than the compromise itself, Amrita Sundari v. Serajuddi, 19 C.W.N. 565 (570). Where the plaintiff brought a suit to set aside an adoption and thereby to set aside the deed of solenama (deed of compromise) entered into between the parties and no valuation was put upon the plaint which was filed with a court-fee of rupees ten; held, that the plaintiff ought not to be allowed to frame her suit in this way, i.e., to seek to set aside the solenama and thereby aim at possession of the immoveable property and bring her suit upon a stamp of rupees ten as if it was a suit for setting aside adoption only, Bama Soondaree v. Surjo Coomar Ray, 22 W.R. 338.

Where the plaintiff brought a suit to set aside a compromise decree based on a mortgage bond when he was entitled to a portion of property affected by the mortgage, held that the court-fee is payable on the value of the share of the plaintiff but not on the value of the entire property, Bankey Behary v. Ram Bahadur, 4 Pat.L.W. 281: 1918 (Pat.) C.W.N. 223: 4 Patna L.J. 191: 44 Ind. Cas. 491. A prayer that previous solenama and decree may be invalid is a prayer for a consequential relief, Haro Gouri v. Dukhi, 5 Ind. Cas. 582 (Calcutta). See also Satis Chandra v. Kalidasi, 26 C.W.N. 177: 34 C.L.J. 529.

A suit for possession of certain shares in a Zamindary after cancellation of a compromise and the decree based thereon, against a Hindu widow and the alienee from her is not a suit for declaration with a consequential relief and the plaint need only be stamped as in a suit for possession only, Awadhraj Singh v. Dharamraji Koer, 5 Luck. 98: 6 O.W.N. 704: 120 I.C. 398: 1929 A.I.R. 419 (Oudh).

The plaintiff previously had instituted a suit for possession of immoveable properties with past and future mesne profits or in the alternative for past and future maintenance. The suit was compromised and the plaintiff withdrew the claim as regards the immoveable properties and obtained a decree for maintenance on a reduced scale and a decree was passed on the terms of the compromise. The plaintiff then instituted a suit to set aside the compromise and the decree based on the compromise on the ground of fraud etc., held the proper court-fee is that payable under Art. 17-A, of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act as amended in Madras by Madras Act V of 1922 as the effect of setting aside the compromise decree will be that the suit which has been withdrawn and in respect of which full court-fees on the value of the property have been paid would have to be proceeded with and that the setting aside of the compromise decree would not by itself give any property to the plaintiff but would only give her the right to prosecute a suit which according to her has been terminated in a manner which is not binding on her owing to fraud and other circumstances set out in the present plaint. An order granting permission to withdraw a suit or appeal is not a decree within sec. 2, C. P. C., Kulandai Pandichi v. Indram Ramaswami Pandia Thalavan, 108 Ind. Cas. 539: 51 Mad. 664: 55 M.L.J. 345: 27 L.W. 286: 1928 A.I.R. 416 (Mad.). See Radha Krishna v. Ram Narain, 53 All. 552: 1931 A.L.J. 235: 131 I.C. 604: 1931 A.I.R. 369 (All.): 1931 I.R. 412 (All.), which was a suit by a minor to set aside a compromise and the decree based on it and was considered a suit for declaration with consequential relief. Surajket v. Chandra Mal, (1933) 1934 A.L.J. 955: 1934 A.I.R. 1071 (All.); but a suit to declare that the compromise entered into was the result of collusion and that the decree is null and void and also that the plaintiff is in possession of the property, is not necessarily a suit for a declaration with consequential relief and if the prayers be for declaration only, then court-fees as in a suit for declaration need be paid, Lakshmi Narayan Rai v. Dip Narain Rai, 55 All. 274: 1933 A.L.J. 311: 1933 A.I.R. 350 (All.).

Where a compromise has merged in the preliminary decree which has again merged in the final decree, then a prayer for cancellation of the compromise and the preliminary and final decrees, is not a prayer relating to distinct subjects, Kalu Ram v. Babu Lal, 54 All. 812: 1932 A.L.J. 684: 1932 A.I.R. 485 (All.): 139 I.C. 32 F.B.

A suit for a declaration that the compromise was illegal and in the alternative for a declaration that the lands are wakf property and also for an injunction to restrain the defendant from interfering with its management falls under s. 7, para. iv, cl. (c) of the Court Fees Act and is to be valued at one lump sum and not separately and ad valorem court-fees paid on the lump valuation, Gurdwara Mahant Jwala Singh v. Kala Singh, 32 P.L.R. 193: 133 I.C. 120: 1931 A.I.R. 307 (Lah.): 1931 I.R. 744 (Lah.).

Suit to set aside decree and sales thereunder.—In Manohar Lal v. Jadunath Singh, 33 I.A. 128: 28 All. 585, it was held that if the result of a previous decree be found in a later suit to be not good against one of the parties to it, then it is not necessary to set aside the decree altogether but the proper decree to make was that the previous decree was not binding on the particular plaintiff concerned. See also Balkrishnadass v. Ram Narain Sahu, 30 I.A. 139: 30 Cal. 798: 7 C.W.N. 578. See also Rajlakshmi v. Katayani, (1910) 38 Cal. 639 (668).

The plaintiff brought a suit for declaration that a certain share inherited by her from her mother is not affected by decree and sale; and if she is found not to be in possession then the same be awarded to her. She valued the relief at Rupees 1,025 but paid a court-fee of rupees four and annas eight calculated at ten times the Government Revenue, held that ad valorem court-fees on Rupees 1,025 are payable as the property is a Mokarari property, Bibi Kulsum v. Muhammad Hamid, 45 Ind. Cas. 928 (Pat.). Where the plaintiffs who are Hindus governed by the Mitakshara School, sued for a declaration that the decrees in favour of the decree-holder-defendant, amounting to over Rupees 22,000, obtained by defendant-decree-holders against themselves and their relatives was bad so far as they are concerned as they never took the loan, were not benefited by the loan, and the plaintiffs were not properly represented in the suit by the defendants-decree-holders and that share in the ancestral family property amounting to annas three and valued at Rupees 9,000 was improperly sold in execution of the said decree; and prayed that (i) the orders be declared fraudulent, (ii) the decrees be set aside, (iii) sales be declared fraudulent, (iv) possession of the properties be given to them. They paid court-fees calculated on ten times the Government revenue. The trial Court dismissed the suit holding that court-fees should be paid on Rs. 22,000. The High Court on appeal, following the dictum of the Privy Council in Phul Kumari v. Ghanshyam, 12 C.W.N. 169: 35 Cal. 202 where their Lordships said that "the value of the action must mean the value to the plaintiff. But the value of the property might quite well be Rupees 1,000 while the execution debt Rupees 10,000. It is only if the execution debt is less than the value of the property that its amount affects the value of suit," held that the court-fees payable are on the value of the property, i.e., on Rupees 9,000 and set aside the order of the trial Court, Ganesh v. Sarada, 19 C.W.N. 895: 42 Cal. 370: 30 Ind. Cas. 111. See also Venkappa v. Narasinha, 10 Mad. 187.

If it be incumbent on the plaintiff to ask for a decree to be set aside, then such a prayer is a consequential relief and comes within s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, Maung Shein v. Ma Lon Ton, 9 Ran. 401: 134 I.C. 1263: 1931 A.I.R. 319 (Rang.).

A relief for the cancellation of a decree, or for the setting aside of a decree is not a declaratory decree only. The effect is not merely a declaration as to a person's character or status as contemplated by s. 42, Specific Relief Act, but the effect will be to render the decree void and incapable of execution and will free the plaintiff from all further liability under it. The claim is therefore, not merely for a declaratory relief falling under Art. 17 (iii), Sch. II. Nor does the relief fall under s. 7, iv (c). There is no prayer for a declaration that the decree is void or for a declaration of any sort, so the relief that the decree be set aside cannot be regarded as a consequential relief in any sense of the word. The court-fees in respect of the prayer for cancellation of the decree is payable under Sch. I, Art. 1 on the value of the decree, Kalu Ram v. Babu Lal, 54 All. 812: 1932 A.L.J. 684: 1932 A.I.R. 485 (All.): 139 I.C. 32 F.B.

Suits to set aside decrees as fraudulent.—Suit to set aside a mortgage decree valued at Rupees 10,000 as fraudulent and for an injunction to restrain the defendant from executing it by sale of the mortgaged properties, should be valued at the sum sought to be realized under the decree, because if the injunction is granted, plaintiff is benefited to the extent of the decree and not the value of the mortgaged properties and ad valorem court-fees are to be paid on that valuation, Musst. Bibi Umatul v. Musst. Nauji, 11 C.W.N. 707 (711): 6 C.L.J. 427.

Where the suit was for a declaration that the decree and sale were fraudulent and also for an injunction, and the suit was valued at the amount recoverable under the decree, held that the valuation was proper as the party could put his own valuation on the plaint, Jogendra v. Toriautnessa Bibi, 35 C.L.J. 144: 62 Ind. Cas. 685.

In a suit for declaration that a decree amounting to Rupees 2,794 should be declared forged, illusory and unfit for execution and also for declaration that the family property valued at Rs. 7,000 was not liable to be sold in execution of that decree, held that court-fees ad valorem on Rupees 2,749 should be paid, i.e., on the value of the decree, Harihar Prasad v. Shyam Lal, 40 Cal. 616: 21 Ind. Cas. 404; See also Govinda v. Dhekkku, 56 Ind. Cas. 550: 19 N.L.R. 15 and the judgment on Reference under sec. 5 of the Court Fees Act in (S. A. F. 6039 of 1923), Sheikh Karim Baksha v. Ishan Chandra Chakrabarti and others decided by B. B. Ghose J. on 10th July, 1923 (unreported).

A rent-decree was obtained by the 1st defendant against the 2nd defendant and the holding was advertised for sale; thereupon the plaintiff brought this suit for declaration that the rent decree is fraudulent and collusive and to save the holding from liability of auction-sale. The plaintiff afterwards withdrew his 2nd and 3rd prayers when the question arose whether the suit is maintainable as a mere declaratory suit. The Calcutta High Court said: "The plaintiff is bound to ask for a consequential relief, namely, either to have the fraudulent decree set aside or to have a perpetual injunction granted to restrain the 1st defendant from executing it. As pointed out by this Court in the case of Gour Mohan v. Dinanath, 25 Cal. 49, it is necessary for the plaintiff to ask for a consequential relief in a case of this description, because if consequential relief is not asked for it would be open to the decree-holder to proceed with the execution of the decree" and their Lordships held that the valuation for the purpose of court-fees should be at the amount at which the decree sought to be set aside was obtained, and the plaint was allowed to be amended, Thakur Prasad v. Punkal Singh, 8 C.L.J. 485. See contra, Rafiquddin v. Asgar Ali, I.L.R. 1 Patna 1: 63 Ind. Cas. 38 (Patna), where it was held that although the suit may not be maintainable still nothing beyond Rs. 10 in court-fees can be demanded. In a suit in which plaintiff asked for a declaration that a decree obtained against him and a sale held thereunder are void on the ground of fraud, held, if sale takes place, the loss to the plaintiff was the value of the interest in the property, and therefore court-fee ad valorem on the value of the share, is to be paid whatever may be the amount of the decree (prayer for redemption considered as a prayer for consequential relief), Brij Krishna v. Chowdhury Murli Rai, 4 Pat. L.J. 703: 56 I.C. 316: 1920 A.I.R. 656 (Patna).

A suit for a declaration that a decree obtained by the defendants against the plaintiffs is based on fraud and deception and is not enforceable, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief within sec. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, Hakim Rai v. The Firm Ishardas-Garakh Rai and others, 8 Lahore 531: 9 L.L.J. 400: 102 I.C. 46: 1927 A.I.R. 499 (Lahore).

A suit set aside a decree on the ground of fraud falls under sec. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act and ad valorem court-fees must be paid on the value set on the claim for the purpose of jurisdiction, Baldeo Prosad v. Ghasi Ram, 16 N.L.R. 84: 56 Ind. Cas. 360: 1920 A.I.R. 243 (Nag.).

A suit to declare that an award by the arbitrators and the decree based on the award, are based on fraud and was ineffectual and inoperative against the plaintiff and also for any other relief, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief, Bua Ditta v. Ladha Mal, 54 I.C. 833: 1919 A.I.R. 63 (Lah.).

A suit for a declaration that an exparte mortgage decree is null and void and also for an injunction for restraining the execution of the decree and other proceedings till the disposal of the suit, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief and the valuation for jurisdiction and the court-fees should be the same, Daw Min Thwe v. C. R. M. C. Chettyar Firm, 150 I.C. 1030: 1934 A.I.R. 152 (Ran.).

A suit by the plaintiff praying that the decree obtained by the defendant is void and ineffectual as against him, having been obtained by fraud, is a suit for a declaration without any consequential relief, Mahomed Ismail v. Liyaqut Husain, 1932 A.L.J. 165: 140 I.C. 191: 1932 A.I.R. 316 (All.). See also Sri Krishna Chandra v. Mahabir Prasad, 55 All. 791: 1933 A.L.J. 673 F.B.: 1933 A.I.R. 488 (All.): 149 I.C. 198.

Decree obtained by fraud and not binding on the plaintiff.—A suit for a declaration that a money decree which has been passed ex parte against the plaintiffs had been obtained by fraud and is not binding on the plaintiff and also for an injunction restraining the defendant decree-holder from executing the decree, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief, Jhanda Singh v. Gulab Mal Bhagwan Das, 33 P.L.R. 488: 137 I.C. 240: 1933 A.I.R. 246 (Lah.): 1932 I.R. 320 (Lah.); Ram Nath v. Jaggarnath, 1934 A.I.R. 109 (Peshwar).

Not binding.—In a suit for declaration that an instrument of mortgage or sale and the decree based thereon is not binding and for an injunction restraining defendants from executing the same, the court-fee is payable ad valorem and the Full Bench held, that a suit for declaration that an instrument of mortgage or sale executed by the plaintiff or a decree that has been passed against the plaintiff for a debt contracted by him is not binding on him, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief, Arunachalam v. Rangaswamy, 38 Mad. 922 F.B.: 28 M.L.J. 118: 17 M.L.T. 154: 1915 M.W.N. 118: 28 Ind. Cas. 79. See also Nandu Mal v. Salig Ram and others, 1922 A.I.R. 236 (Lahore).

See also the case of Umrao v. Hardeo, 29 All. 418 as interpreted in Thakur Prosad v. Punkal Singh, 8 C.L.J. 485 (487); Sham Das v. Churn Das, 1925 A.I.R. 90 (Lah.).

See also other cases under heading "Possession after declaration that a decree is not binding", supra.

A suit for a declaration that a decree is not binding upon the plaintiff is in itself a substantial relief. A suit for a declaration that a previous decree declaring certain wakfnamas to be invalid and not binding on the plaintiff does not fall under s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act but comes under Art. 17, Sch. II of the same Act. In such cases no further consequential relief of setting aside the decree is necessary, Shihan v. Abdul Alim Abed, 58 Cal. 474: 34 C.W.N. 1129: 53 C.L.J. 91: 130 I.C. 369: 1930 A.I.R. 787 (Cal.).

Suits under Mitakshara Law to set aside decrees.—Suits by sons to set aside decrees based on mortgaged executed by the father (governed by Mitakshara law) and to recover possession is a suit for declaration with a consequential relief and therefore the plaintiff is bound to put a reasonable valuation on the claim and pay ad valorem court-fees on that valuation, Shama Prosad v. Sheopersan, 5 Pat.L.J. 394: 2 Pat.L.W. 173: 41 I.C. 95: 1920 A.I.R. 290 (Patna).

A suit by members of a joint Hindu family governed by Mitakshara law for declaration that the attachment and sale of joint ancestral property on a bond by the Karta is null and void, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief, Surendra Nath Sing v. Shambehari Singh, I.L.R. 1 Pat. 197: 1922 A.I.R. 404 (Pat.).

When one coparcener of a joint Hindu family sued for a declaration that the usufructuary mortgage of the joint property made by another coparcener was null and void and that possession of the property be given to him and it was found that the mortgagee had already obtained a decree against the widow of the deceased mortgagor, held that when the plaintiff asks declaration as his first relief and possession as his second relief, it must be taken that in the opinion of the plaintiff, the declaration is a necessary relief and therefore, the suit falls under

s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act and court-fees ad valorem on the valuation is payable, Tula Ram v. Dwarka Das and another, 50 All. 510: 26 All.L.J. 316: 115 I.C. 655: 1928 A.I.R. 248 (All.).

A suit for a declaration that a decree is not binding on the plaintiffs and also that the joint family property which they have obtained by right of survivorship is not open to attachment in execution of the said decree, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief as the result of the declaration would be to save the plaintiffs from payment of the decretal amount, i.e., the consequential relief is implicit in the declaration asked for, Lallo Pershad v. Sahebdin Singh, 8 Luck. 668: 11 O.W.N. 617: 1934 O.L.R. 396: 1934 A.I.R. 212 (Oudh): 150 I.C. 722.

If the substance of the plaint in a suit be to declare that a mortgage by a father governed by the Mitakshara law of inheritance and the decree based thereon, is not binding on the plaintiff (the son), who was a party to the 1st suit be for a mere declaration though in form it is not, then the suit comes under Sch. II, Art. 17-A (Madras Amendment) and not under s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, The Secretary of State for India in Council v. A. R. Lakhanna, 64 M.L.J. 24: 1933 M.W.N. 144: 141 I.C. 80: 1933 A.I.R. 430 (Mad.): 1933 I.R. 67 (Mad.).

Declarations as regards decrees.—If the suit be for a declaration that the decree is null and void then according to some decisions it is a suit without a consequential relief and is governed by Art. 17, Clause iii of Sch. II of the Act, Shrimat Sagarji Rao v. S. Smith, 20 Bom. 736. The Calcutta High Court took the same view in Zinnatunnessa v. Girindra, 30 Cal. 788; Bagala Sundari v. Prasanna, 21 C.W.N. 375: 35 Ind. Cas. 797. The former case was explained in Umatul v. Nauji, 11 C.W.N. 705 (707): 6 C.L.J. 427, as rupees ten was payable only because no consequential relief was prayed for. See also Ganeshilal v. Beni Pershad, 22 P.W.R. 1911: 47 P.L.R. 1911: 10 P.R. 1911.

A suit for establishment of title as regards a decree to which the plaintiff was not a party and in execution of which the properties in question were attached, is substantially a suit for mere declaration and any additional prayer as to the order of attachment and sale of properties are null and void as mere supplusage and the court-fees need not be paid under s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, Karam Chand v. Uma Dutt Hans Raj, 31 P.L.R. 383: 129 I.C. 753: 1930 A.I.R. 755 (Lah.): 1931 I.R. 225 (Lah.).

A suit for a declaration that the decree in favour of defendant no. 1 against defendant no. 2 is null and void, virtually includes a prayer for setting aside the decree and therefore includes a consequential relief, hence court-fees are to be computed under s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act on the amount of the decree in favour of the defendant no. 1, Pandharinath Krishna v. Maroti Ganesh and another, 145 I.C. 206: 1933 A.I.R. 214 (Nag.).

Valuation.—A suit, to set aside a sale under Public Demands Recovery Act coupled with a claim for a share in the property sold, is to be valued on the value of the entire property to be sold and not on the value of the share claimed, Pran Krishna v. Nitya Gopal, 1924 A.I.R. 239 (Cal.); 50 Cal. 892. See also Rajlakshmi v. Katyayani, 38 Cal. 639 (667), which was a case of setting aside a consent decree.

Where a decree affecting immoveable property is sought to be set aside, the subject-matter of that decree is the value of the immoveable property in that suit. In such a case the statutory value should be adopted and not the market value of the property, Venkatanarasimha Raju v. Chandrayya and others, 53 M.L.J. 267: 26 L.W. 159: 105 Ind. Cas. 171: 1927 A.I.R. 825 (Madras).

A suit to set aside a decree falls under section 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act and the plaintiff can put his own valuation. Under section 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, a Court cannot reject, for the purpose of jurisdiction, the valuation made by a party for the purpose of court-fees, even if his valuation is arbitrary, Pilla Kakkadu v. Vedula Chenarayya, (1918) M.W.N. 562: 51 Ind. Cas. 536: 24 M.L.T. 254. But if possession is asked for in addition to declaration that a decree is void then the court-fee payable is only as regards relief regarding possession and no separate ad valorem court-fee is payable on the amount of the decree in respect of which the declaration is sought, Raja Gopala v. Vijaya Raghava, 25 Ind. Cas. 683: 38 Mad. 1184.

A suit for avoiding a mortgage decree to which the plaintiff was not a party, is not a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief but a suit for mere declaration and the value for the purpose of jurisdiction is the value of the property mortgaged, Sukh Dial v. Durga Das, 113 I.C. 908: 1929 A.I.R. 448 (Lah.).

A suit by a Zarpeshgidar, to set aside a sale in execution of a rent decree against the landlord on the ground that the same is not binding on him and that nothing passed to the auction purchaser by the said sale and also for an injunction restraining the auction purchaser from taking possession, is to be valued at the Zarpeshgi money (in this case Rs. 300) and not at the sale price (in this case Rs. 40) inasmuch as the sale had already taken place and if the auction purchaser takes possession, the plaintiff will be deprived of his Zarpeshgi money, Sitaram Singh v. Maharajh Kesho Prasad Singh Bahadur, 12 P.L.T. 550: 131 I.C. 808: 1931 A.I.R. 195 (Patna): 1931 I.R. 248 (Patna).

Madras Amendment, S. 7, iv (a).—A suit by the plaintiff who was a minor at the date of the previous suit, on the ground that the decree in the 1st suit is void and not binding on him as he was not properly represented in the 1st suit, is a suit coming under s. 7 (iv) (a), (Madras Amendment) so far as the decree in the 1st suit is concerned. The proper prayer as regards decree being for a declaration that the decree is not binding upon the plaintiff in the subsequent suit. If possession of the property be asked for as the main relief, then such cases being specifically provided for in s. 7, paragraph V, the suit is to be valued and court-fees paid under that paragraph. Per Anant Krishna Aiyar, J. s. 7 (iv) (A) is quite different from s. 7 (iv) either (a), (b) or (c) and the proviso has been added only to s. 7 (iv). S. 7 (iv) (A) is a quite different provision of law, and the proviso does not operate with reference to s. 7 (iv) (A), Venkatasiva Rao v. Venkatanarasimha Satyanarainmurty, (1932) 56 Mad. 212: 63 M.L.J. 764: 36 L.W. 225: 1932 M.W.N. 992: 139 I.C. 317: 1932 A.I.R. 605 (Mad.): 1932 I.R. 643 (Mad.).

A suit by the vendor to set aside a deed executed by him as also for possession comes under s. 7, iv (a) and court-fees are to be paid accordingly. The suit does not come under s. 7, v. of the Court Fees Act and no additional court-fees are payable on that basis, Yhagachi Ammal v. Mahammad Maideen Maricovi, 56 Mad. 401: 64 M.L.J. 127: 142 I.C. 29: 1933 A.I.R. 231 (Mad.).

A suit on the allegation that the father (defendant no. 1) became insolvent and the debts of the father and the sales by the Official Receiver (defendant no 7) are not binding and these may be set aside and asking for a declaration to that effect, is a suit for declaration coming within Art. 17-A of the second Schedule (Madras Amendment) and not under s. 7, iv (a), (Madras Amendment) of the Court Fees Act, Annamalai v. Krishtappa, (1934) 58 Mad. 385: 67 M.L.J. 858: 40 L.W. 837: 1934 M.W.N. 1373: 1935 A.I.R. 66 (Mad.).

Suit on behalf of a lunatic.—Where the wife of a lunatic, sued as manager of the properties of the lunatic to set aside a deed of gift executed by her husband on the ground that the deed was null and void, held, that the suit is one for declaration with consequential relief and court-fees ad valorem are payable on the valuation under section 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act. The suit was framed as a suit for declaration with a consequential relief for possession, Ganga Dei v. Sukhdeo Prosad, 22 A.L.J. 945: (1924) A.I.R. 612 (All.): 84 I.C. 624.

Minors—Suits by.—The principle seems to be that when the minor is not bound by the deed or when it is null and void against him he need not sue to set aside the deed, in such cases a simple declaration is sufficient but when he is bound by the deed and he must have it set aside before he can obtain relief he asks for, his suit comes under this Article and ad valorem court-fees are payable.

A person who was a minor at the date of the execution of a mortgage deed need not sue to set aside the mortgage. It is sufficient if he sues for a declaration that the mortgage is void as against him, Yu Hock Tun v. Yu Hock and others, 11 Ran. 66: 143 I.C. 541: 1933 A.I.R. 109 (Ran.): 1933 I.R. 72 (Rang.).

A suit by certain minor members of a Malabar tarward on the ground that a decree obtained against the Karnarvan and also certain minors represented by him is not binding on them and for recovery of the properties sold in execution of that decree, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief and the court-fees payable would be Rs. 100 for declaration plus ad valorem court-fees on half the value of the properties under the rules of cl. (5) are to be paid as provided by the amending Act as applied to Madras Presidency, Bala Krishna Nair v. Krishna Nambudri, 1930 M.W.N. 509: 132 I.C. 129: 1931 A.I.R. 38 (Mad.).

In a suit by a minor for a declaration that a mortgage-deed executed in his name by his guardian is invalid against him and also for cancellation of the deed and injunction to restrain the defendant from enforcing the terms of the deed, the court-fee payable is to be calculated on the liability under the deed of the minor and the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction is also to be determined by the same criterion. The plaintiff cannot be allowed to fix a lower and arbitrary value, Devidas v. Ramlall, 7 N.L.R. 190: 13 Ind. Cas. 864. A suit by a member of a Malabar tarwad on attaining majority to set aside a karar entered into during his minority by the adult male members of the tarwad, is a suit for mere declaration and not one for a declaratory decree with consequential relief, because though a transaction, which is valid, may, under certain circumstances, be cancelled by a Court, at the instance of a person not a party to it on the ground that it would throw a cloud upon his title, it is not true that such a person must get rid of the transaction by having it actually cancelled, in order to rely on its invalidity as against him. A karar is binding only if consideration passed in a valid exercise of power by the Karnarvan otherwise it is void, Chingacham Vittil Sankaram v. Chingacham Vittil Gopala, 30 Mad. 18: 1 M.L.T. 412.

Plaintiffs who are minors, in a suit to set aside a partition arrangement entered into among all the members of a tarward, so far as their shares are concerned, are to pay court-fees on the valuation of the shares of the property to be partitioned and not on the value of the whole property, Govindan Nair v. Thatta Khandiyil Madhavi, 62 M.L.J. 712: 1932 M.W.N. 579: 1932 A.I.R. 491 (Mad.).

A suit by the plaintiff (a minor at the date of the first suit) for a declaration that the decree (mortgage) passed against him is not binding on him as having been obtained by fraud and that the old case be re-started from the point at which his guardian confessed judgment, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief and hence should bear ad valorem court-fees, Harnam Singh v. Hyat, 1925 A.I.R. 346 (Lah.): 86 I.C. 680: 26 P.L.R. 73.

If a minor on coming of age sues to set aside certain mortgages and the decree based thereon, on the ground of collusion and negligence of the guardian, then the suit falls under s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, Srikrishen v. Satnarain, 32 P.L.R. 729: 135 I.C. 499: 1932 A.I.R. 132 (Lah.).

A suit by minors on attaining majority praying for a declaration that the release executed by their mother as their guardian is invalid and for an injunction is a suit for cancellation of a document and falls within, s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, Doraishwami Reddiar v. Thangavelu Mudaliar, 1929 A.I.R. 668 (Mad.): 119 I.C. 38.

A minor need not sue to set aside a transaction by a guardian to recover possession of a property; he can pray for possession and ignore the transaction and in such a suit he should not be considered as suing for cancellation of the deed, therefore s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act does not apply, Veeraraghalu v. Sreeramulu, 1928 M.W.N. 389: 112 I.C. 96: 1928 A.I.R. 816 (Mad.); see also Vennal Naidu v. The Official Receiver, Coimbatore, 117 I.C. 800: 1929 A.I.R. 307 (Mad.).

A suit for recovery of certain property and also for a declaration that the deed of gift, by virtue of which the defendants obtained possession was ineffectual against the plaintiff owing to his minority, is really a suit for possession and the relief as to cancellation was ancillary to the main relief. Therefore a court-fee of Rs. 10 for the cancellation of the deed and ad valorem court-fees on five times the assessment (being non-permanently settled land) were sufficient, Afsal

Husain v. Shafiquinnissa, 7 O.W.N. 571: 126 I.C. 688: 1930 A.I.R. 368 (Oudh): 1930 I.R. 416 (Oudh).

A suit for a declaration by a minor on his attaining majority that the petition of compromise and the decree based thereon are ineffectual and void against the plaintiff on the ground of fraud is a suit for mere declaration within Art. 17, Cl. iii of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act as the plaintiff did not ask for any consequential relief and no ad valorem court-fees are necessary as the question as to court-fees is to be decided on the plaint, although the suit may be dismissed for the absence of a prayer for consequential relief, Radha Krishna v. Ram Narain, 53 All. 552: 1931 A.L.J. 235: 131 I.C. 604: 1931 A.I.R. 369 (All.): 1931 I.R. 412 (All.).

A suit for a mere declaration by a minor suing through a new guardian that in the previous suit for partition of the joint Hindu family property he was not effectively represented by his guardian who was negligent and did not look after his interest in the case, is a suit for a mere declaration and need be stamped accordingly, although the object of the plaintiff may be to frustrate the effect of a decree passed against him, Srikrishna Chandra v. Mahabir Prasad and others, 55 All. 791: 1933 A.L.J. 673: 1933 A.I.R. 488 (All.): 149 I.C. 198 F.B.

Partition.—Cancellation of a previous deed of partition.—The plaint in a suit for declaration that the previous partition carried out under the terms of the previous decree be reversed and all the properties be brought to hotchpot for a fresh partition, must be stamped with an ad valorem court-fee as the suit is for a declaration with a consequential relief, viz., that the properties be restored to their original state as joint property and then brought under partition, Huro Gowrie v. Dukhi, 5 Ind Cas. 582. Where the plaintiff sued for cancellation of a previous deed of partition on the ground of fraud and unfairness, for declaration of exclusive title to a hardware business, its assets and properties acquired from its income, for declaration of joint title to other properties, for partition and accounts, and other incidental reliefs and the trial Court cancelled the deed of partition, and determined the question of title to properties in suit and rendered the defendant liable for accounts, held that the case does not come under clause iii of Art. 17 of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, but the suit is a suit in which consequential relief has been claimed and the plaint or the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with ad valorem court-fees, Satis Chandra v. Kali Dasi, 26 C.W.N. 177: 34 C.L.J. 529; Ratanchand Rewachand v. Anandbai, 145 I.C. 777: 1933 A.I.R. 53 (Sind).

A suit for partition against father and step-brother on the allegation that the prior registered deed of partition between the parties were voidable having been obtained by pressure and that the said partition deed is not binding on him, is substantially a suit for declaration that the prior deed of partition was not binding and for reliefs following such declaration. Therefore, the court-fees are payable under s. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act so far as the immovable properties are concerned and so far as the movable properties are concerned the plaintiff may value the suit in his own way. Art 17 (b) of the second Schedule is not applicable, Sundara Ganapathi Mudali v. Deivasi Kamana Mudali, 1930 M.W.N. 358: 129 I.C. 824: 1931 A.I.R. 94 (Mad.).

Partition and possession on declaration of title.—The court-fee stamp in a suit for partition and possession of the plaintiff's share of joint family property is an ad valorem fee on the value of the plaintiff's share, Balavant v. Laxman, P.J. 13 (1892). Where the suit is to establish plaintiff's title to a third share and possession and partition, it was held that ad valorem court-fees are payable, (this was a suit by an auction purchaser), Walliullah v. Durga Prasad, 28 All. 340: 26 All.W.N. 38: 3 A.L.J. 181; Makhan Lal v. Surja Prasad, (1885) 5 A.W.N. 48.

If the suit be in essence a suit to obtain a decree for money or a decree for immoveable property then an ad valorem court-fee is payable, Govinda v. Parmeswar, 49 Ind. Cas. 115. "If in the very forefront of their claim the plaintiffs ask the Court for declaration of their title and possession, then it seems to us that they are claiming under the guise of a partition suit, a declaration of their title which is the proper subject-matter of a title suit and therefore ad valorem court-fees are payable," Rachhya v. Musst. Chandoo, 6 P.L.J. 662: 3 P.L.T. 293, 1922 (Pat.) C.W.N. 65: 65 Ind. Cas. 294: 1923 A.I.R. 113 (Patna). Followed in Kanhaiya Lall v. Baldeo Das, 85 I.C. 538: 1925 A.I.R. 703 (Patna).

Madras Amendment.—A suit for a declaration that the defendants are joint tenants and for an injunction and partition comes under s. 7, iv (c) and the valuation should be at half the value calculated in the manner provided by paragraph V of sec. 7, Bethasami Naicker v. Nagammal, 59 M.L.J. 899: 1930 M.W.N. 656: 33 L.W. 68: 129 I.C. 625: 1931 A.I.R. 69 (Mad.): 1931 I.R. 289 (Mad.).

A suit in which the main relief is possession and in order to succeed in this relief, the plaintiff asks that the obstacles, i.e., the prior partition and alienations be declared as not binding on the plaintiff is one for declaration with consequential relief; the valuation should be under s. 7, iv (c) (Madras Amendment) at half the value of the immoveable property affected by the declaration. Such a case does not come under s. 7, iv (a)

(Madras Amendment), Karaga Gowda and other v. Somappa Gowda and others, 140 I.C. 585: 1933 A.I.R. 93 (M.): 1932 M.W.N. 1322.

When the plaintiff is not in possession of any part of the property.—"If the plaintiff is not in possession of any part of the property, she is not entitled to sue for partition without at the same time suing for possession of her share—a course entailing payment of ad valorem court-fees both on the plaint and the memorandum of appeal," Rangamoni v. Jogendra, 9 C.L.J. 128. A suit for partition is not a substitution of a suit for ejectment. Where the plaintiff has got his name registered under the Land Registration Act, the weight to be given to that depends upon the facts of each case, Loke Nath v. Dhakeswar, 21 C.L.J. 253. In a suit for partition if it is established that he is not in possession at all of any portion of the joint property, that there had been a complete ouster, he must sue for recovery of possession and partition and pay ad valorem court-fees upon a plaint appropriately framed for the purpose. The true distinction between two classes of cases, is that in one class, the plaintiff really prays for ejectment, in the other he claims a division of lands, on part of which he is in actual occupation and over the remainder of which he is in constructive possession through the co-owners. There is no foundation for the contention, that mere denial of the title of the plaintiff converts a suit for partition into a suit for possession, Bidhata Ray v. Ram Chariter, 12 C.W.N. 37 (41): 6 C.L.J. 445: 10 Ind. Cas. 463: Rajani Kanta v. Rajabala, 29 C.W.N. 76: 52 Cal. 128.

Where it appears that the defendants are not in possession of a portion of the property then a suit for partition is really a suit for recovery of that portion and a court-fee ad valorem on that share must be levied, Dipchand Rai v. Chhetri Lal, 1 Pat.L.T. 529: 56 Ind. Cas. 570. See also Hassan Khan v. Ahmad Khan, 1935 A.I.R. 30 (Pesh.).

Effect of symbolical possession.—Where there is a complete ouster, the plaintiff has to sue for recovery of possession and pay ad valorem court-fees upon a plaint appropriately framed for the purpose. In a suit for partition symbolical possession amounts to actual possession, Sabjan Bibi v. Asanulla Sheikh, 54 Cal. 524: 31 C.W.N. 406: 101 I.C. 622: 1927 A.I.R. 411 (Cal.).

Suit for declaration of title with recovery of possession.—A suit by plaintiff for declaration of title and recovery of possession of certain revenue paying estates on the allegation that although there is a valid mortgage decree on the properties still the sale of these properties in execution being in contravention of the previous adjustment of the decree, is a nullity and therefore, the decree against the principal mortgagor under Or. 34, r. 6, C. P. C. is inoperative, is a suit for possession of land within the meaning of section 7, v (a) of the Court Fees Act and the court-fees payable are on ten times the Government Revenue. Such suits are not suits to obtain a declaratory decree where consequential relief is sought. The Calcutta High Court said: "The plaintiffs do not seek to set aside the decree nor do they seek to obtain a declaratory decree where consequential relief is sought. Their contention is that although the decree was validly made, the circumstances which led up to the sale held at the instance of the decree-holders could not in law pass their title to the execution-purchaser, and on that basis, they seek to recover possession of the property. No doubt, they seek a declaration that the personal decree could not have been made against them. This declaration, however, can only be consequential to the success of their substantial claim in the suit," Radha Kanta Saha and others v. Debendra Narain Saha and others, 49 Cal. 880: 27 C.W.N. 567: 33 C.L.J. 74: 70 Ind. Cas. 101: 1922 A.I.R. 506 (Calcutta).

In a suit for possession and Wasilat the plaintiff obtained a decree declaring his right to possession upon death of his father, held that as the decree had given consequential relief, i.e., relief from the operation of conveyances and mortgages, which on the face of them affected the plaintiff's interest, on an appeal from the decree the memorandum should bear an ad valorem duty, A. B. Miller v. Akhoree Ram, 15 W.R. 412.

Where the plaintiff claimed that he was joint owner of the property in suit with the defendant and that the property had been sold without his concurrence or authority, but framed the suit as one for recovery of possession and for cancellation of sale deed, the Allahabad High Court held that the suit was a suit for possession only, as the prayer for declaration is superfluous and allowed the plaint to be amended. (The case Dhakeswar Prasad v. Jiva Chowdhury, 3 Pat.L.J. 448: 46 Ind. Cas. 385 is not applicable as there the declaratory relief was necessary), Rup Narain v. Bishwar Nath, 44 All. 629: 20 All.L.J. 587: 68 Ind. Cas. 265: (1921) A.I.R. 358 (Allahabad). See also M. Ganga Dei v. Sukhdeo Prasad, 22 A.L.J. 945: 84 I.C. 624: 1924 A.I.R. 612 (All.): 47 All. 78; In re Seethayamma, 48 Mad. 652: 47 M.L.J. 919: 21 L.W. 15: 85 I.C. 405: 1925 A.I.R. 323 (Mad.).

Where the plaintiff asks for a declaration as his first relief and possession as his second relief, it must be taken that in the opinion of his legal advisers the declaration is a necessary relief, Tula Ram v. Dwarka Das, 26 All.L.J. 316: 1928 A.I.R. 248 (Allahabad): 115 I.C. 655: 50 All. 510.

A plaint (or memorandum of appeal) in a suit for declaration of title and recovery of possession, requires ad valorem court-fees and not ten times the Government-revenue in a revenue paying estate, Rasik Behary v. Hriday, 1922 (Pat.) C.W.N. 162: I.L.R. 1 Pat. 471: 66 I.C. 769.

A suit for possessino of Math properties on the allegation that the plaintiff is a chela of the deceased Mohant and that the defendant Mahant had taken a wife thereby incapacitated for continuing as a Mahant, is a suit for declaration with a consequential relief as the plaintiff before he obtains a decree for possession, must have it decided in his favour that the defendant had vacated office of Mahant and secondly that the plaintiff had succeeded to that office and a finding and a declaration to that effect is necessary, Ram Bhusan v. Bachu Rai, (1934) 152 I.C. 1003: 1934 A.I.R. 641 (Pat.).

Against licensee.—Where the plaintiff sued for a declaration of his title and possession of the land and for removing the defendant (a licensee) and for a permanent injunction on the defendant, restraining him from coming upon the land after removing him therefrom, the plaintiff valued his suit at Rs. 100 for ejectment and injunction and claimed Rs. 46 as damages and paid court-fees ad valorem on that valuation, and the defendant objected that the suit should be valued at Rs. 2,200—the value of the land, held that as the defendant is a mere licensee he has no interest in the land. The valuation made is therefore sufficient, Basiram v. Ganesh, 24 C.W.N. clxvii (notes).

Where the plaintiff sued on a stamp of Rupees ten for a declaration of his title to land worth more than Rs. 19,000 in the possession of the defendant, that the demarcation by the Revenue Officer is erroneous and for a declaration of his title thereto, the Court was satisfied that the plaintiff, Zamindar, wanted to get possession of the land by way of declaration and thereby deprived the adversary of the benefit of the pleading open to him in an ejectment suit, held that the plaintiff ought to pay ad valorem court-fees on the plaint, but having regard to the circumstances of the case, refused to allow the plaintiff to put in additional stamp, Chokalinga Peshana v. Achiyar, 1 Mad. 40.

Declaration of title as an adopted son and possession.—Where a challenge is thrown on the plaintiff's title as the adopted son of a certain person and the plaintiff comes into Court in order to meet that challenge and claims a declaration of his title as an adopted son, and also seeks to recover possession of his adoptive father's property, the suit falls under sec. 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act and not under sec. 7 (v) of that section, Ugra Mohan & Lachmi Prosad, 5 Pat.L.J. 341: 56 Ind. Cas. 422. See also the P. C. case of Rachappa Desai v.

Shiddappa, 24 C.W.N. 33: 43 Bom. 507: 29 C.L.J. 452, where ad valorem court-fee was paid on the property sought to be recovered but only Rupees ten was paid in respect of properties in the custody of Collector as in a suit for mere declaration because the property in the custody of the Collector should be deemed to be in the possession of the successful party.

A suit for a declaration that an adoption is valid affects title to property and if the value is over Rs. 400 ad valorem court-fees are to be paid under C. P. Civil Circular II-8, Amdu and others v. Pissi, 120 I.C. 408. See other cases under Sch. II, Art, 17, Cl. (v).

Possession after declaration that a decree is not binding.—A suit for a declaration that certain decree was of no legal effect against plaintiff and for possession of the portion sold in execution, is a suit for declaration with possession as a consequential relief. Therefore, court-fee is payable only for the relief regarding possession and no separate ad valorem court-fee is payable on the amount of the decree in respect of which the declaration is sought. In such a case the question is whether one relief is to be taken as consequential to the other or as independent of each other. The Madras High Court said: "The learned District Judge was clearly mistaken in his statement that sec. 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act regulated the valuation of the whole suit, since part of the relief claimed was for possession and it had to be valued in accordance with sec. 7 (v) notwithstanding that a declaration also was asked for. That is recognised in one of the cases cited by the learned District Judge, Chinnammal v. Madrasa Rowther, 27 Mad. 480: 14 M.L.J. 343." Raja Gopal v. Vijaya Raghava, 38 Mad. 1184: 25 Ind. Cas. 683: 12 L.W. 824. See also Shama Prosad v. Sheoperson, 5 Pat.L.J. 394: 2 Pat.L.W. 173: 41 I.C. 95 where it was held that the case comes under sec. 7 (iv) (c) and the plaintiff must put a reasonable valuation and pay court-fee ad valorem on that valuation. See also Iswari Dial v. Kishen Das, 1 A.W.N. 5. But where in order to succeed in a suit for possession, it is necessary for the plaintiff to obtain a declaration that a document or decree is void or inoperative, the court-fee to be paid must be calculated on the actual value of the property, Lagan Burt v. Khakhan, 43 Ind. Cas. 962 (Patna): 3 Pat.L.J. 92.

The test is whether the plaintiff includes amongst the reliefs claimed not merely a request for possession, but also as paving the way of such request, the relief of declaration of title, Tularam v. Dwarka Das and others, 50 All. 510: 26 A.L.J. 316: 115 I.C. 655: 1928 A.I.R. 248 (All.).

In a suit for declaration of title and possession, "if the principal relief claimed is one for possession another relief for declaration is merely ancillary to it, in that case it is enough to pay the court-fee on the relief for possession. On the other hand, if the principal relief is for declaration and the plaintiff's right to possession depends on his being entitled to the declaration, then the relief for possession must be regarded as a consequential relief and the court-fee would be payable according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or the memorandum of appeal." * * * * In the present case it is necessary for the plaintiffs to get a declaration about the mortgage decrees against his father, of the said decrees not being binding on him before he could be entitled to a decree for possession, therefore, the relief for possession is a consequential relief, Deoraj v. Kunj Behari and others, (1929) 5 Luck. 474: 124 I.C. 420: 1930 A.I.R. 104 (Oudh).

Suit for possession.—A suit for possession without any prayer for setting aside a decree, may be stamped as in a simple suit for possession, Babuappa v. Ramchandra, 1929 A.I.R. 276 (Nag.).

Reversioners.—Sec. 7 (iv) (c) does not apply to a suit by reversioners, Ramakrishnayya v. Peda Seshamma, 41 L.W. 488: 1935 M.W.N. 406: 1935 A.I.R. 436 (M.).

Patni Sale.—A suit for reversal of a sale held under Patni Regulation (Reg. VIII of 1819) under section 14 of that Regulation, is not a suit for pure declaration within the meaning of Sch. II, Art. 17, clause (iii) of the Court Fees Act, but is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief, as under the provisions of sections 14 and 15 of the Regulation VIII of 1819, a suit for reversal of a putni sale is not a suit for a declaratory relief within the meaning of Art. 17 of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, Tara Prosonno Chongdar v. Nrisingha Moorari Pal and others, 51 Cal. 216: 28 C.W.N. 683: 39 C.L.J. 212: 1924 A.I.R. 731 (Cal.). See also Bidhu Bhusan Bakshi v. Kala Chand Roy, 1927 A.I.R. 775 (Cal.): 106 I.C. 335: 31 C.W.N. 1045.

Valuation.—Where a putni was sold for arrears of rent under Reg. VIII of 1819, the plaintiff, in suing to set aside the sale for his own share, is to value the suit on the value of the entire property to be sold, Unnoda Pershad Ray and others v. Messrs. Erskine and Co., 21 W.R. 68: 12 B.L.R. 370; Suresh Chandra Mukhopadhyaya v. Akkori Singh, 20 Cal. 746 (753).

Police Act.—A plaint in a suit against impositions under the general Police Act and injunction restraining the realization of those impositions, is to be valued at which the injury to the plaintiff is assessed when the amounts of imposition are not yet realized and ad valorem court-fees paid on that valuation—Girish Chandra Sanjyal v. The Secretary of State for India in Council, 105 I.C. 80: 1928 A.I.R. 55 (Cal.).

Public Demands Recovery Act.—The valuation of a suit to set aside a sale under the Public Demands Recovery Act, is the value of the entire property sold for both court-fees and for jurisdiction, Pran Kristo v. Nitya Gopal, 50 Cal. 892: 1924 A.I.R. 239 (Cal.). (In this case the subject-matter of suit was land held in occupancy right by a raiyat.)

Restitution of Conjugal Rights.—When the plaintiff seeks for a declaration that the defendant is lawfully married to him and she should be ordered to live with him, the case comes under section 7, paragraph (iv), clause (c) of the Court Fees Act, Aminul Hossain v. Khairunnessa, 28 Cal. 567. (In this case injunction was sought against people other than the wife, therefore, it was a case of declaration with a consequential relief.) Generally when reliefs against third parties have to be asked for, a declaration is also necessary.

A declaration may have to be prayed for various reasons and not merely for establishment of the fact of marriage. In Gatharam v. Moohita Kochin, (1875) 23 W.R. 179 the Calcutta High Court held: "Whenever the law recognizes that the relation of husband and wife exists, it also recognizes that the husband is bound to live with the wife and the wife with the husband, and if the obligation is denied by either of the parties to the marriage, the Courts ought certainly to declare the right to exist. If also any person should interfere and prevent the wife from returning to her husband, or the husband to the wife, there is no difficulty in punishing this invasion of the rights of others and even compensating the injured party to some extent." The real difficulty arises when one comes to deal with a refusal to perform the conjugal duties by one of the parties to the marriage after the existence of the matrimonial relation has been ascertained. See also Gajendra Nath Saha Chowdhury v. Sm. Sulochana Chowdhurani, 39 C.W.N. 131: 60 C.L.J. 203: 1935 A.I.R. 338 (Cal.) which was a case of refusal of conjugal right owing to alleged cruelty by the husband.

Valuation.—Although in the cases of Golam Rahaman v. Fatima, 13 Cal. 232, and Moula Newaz v. Sajidunnessa, 18 Cal. 378, the High Court held that a suit for restitution of conjugal rights is incapable of valuation and in the case of Aklemunnessa v. Mahomed Hatim, 8 C.W.N. 705: 31 Cal. 840 it was held that the suit cannot be instituted in the Court of the Munsiff; still in the case of Jan Mahamad v. Masher, 34 Cal. 352: 11 C.W.N. 458: 5 C.L.J. 400, the High Court held that the plaintiff, in the absence of rules framed under section 9 of the Suits Valuation Act, can put any valuation he likes and stamp his plaint with ad valorem court-fees calculated on that valuation. See also the Full Bench case of Jair Hossain v. Khurshed, 28 All. 545: 26

All.W.N. 99: 3 A.L.J. 266, where it was held that the value of such a suit is the value which the plaintiff chooses to put on it. But again it was held in the case of Aisha v. Faiyaz, 8 A.L.J. 889: 11 Ind. Cas. 186, that a court-fee of Rupees ten is payable.

Restitution of Property.—Where the plaintiff sued to recover mortgage money on the basis of a mortgage bond executed by the mother of defendant No. 1, a Mahomedan, and on behalf of her two minor daughters, defendants Nos. 2 and 3, but not as their guardian and wanted to make them liable but during the trial it was found that the loan benefited the defendants Nos. 2 and 3, held that the minors are to make restitution of the money so far as they are concerned, and the appeal cannot be filed on a stamp of Rupees ten but ad valorem court-fees should be paid on the amount due on the shares of the minors, Moyna v. Banku, 6 C.W.N. 667. Orders of restitution under section 114, C. P. C. (Act V of 1908) come under section 47 (1), C. P.C. and a court-fee of Rupees two only is payable on the memorandum of appeal to the High Court under Art. 11, Sch. II, Madan Mohan v. Nagendra, 21 C.W.N. 544, Gangadhar v. Lachman, 11 C.L.J. 541. This is also the view taken by the Patna High Court in M. A. 142 of 1917 (unreported). See also other cases under Art. 11, Sch. II of this Act, infra, for other High Courts.

Revenue Sale.—Where the plaintiff brought a suit to set aside the revenue sale of a certain Taluq in part of which he is interested but framed the suit as one for mere declaration only and stamped the plaint with a court-fee of Rupees ten only, held, when the plaintiff asks for relief to have the auction sale set aside the plaint is to be stamped as one for the recovery of the property, Drapu v. Ishan, 9 C.L.R. 231. Where the plaintiff brought a suit to set aside Revenue sale of an estate alleging that he is in possession of the property and prayed (a) that by setting aside the said illegal, unjust and irregular sale, it may be held and declared that the plaintiff's rights have not thereby been destroyed nor has it been jeopardised in any way, (b) that it may be declared that the plaintiff has the right to and possession of the said Taluq and he stamped the plaint with a court-fee of Rupees ten, held that this is a suit for a declaration wherein a consequential relief has been prayed for and that the plaint is to be stamped ad valorem as the plaintiff seeks to set aside an alleged illegal auction sale and a declaration of right and possession in respect of the property in dispute, Mahomed Takibuddi v. The Collector of the District 24-Perganas, 6 C.W.N. 157, approved in Tara Prosonno Chongdar v. Narsingha Moorari Pal, 51 Cal. 216, supra. Where the holder of an eight annas Makarari interest in an estate which was sold for arrears of Government Revenue, sued (i) for a declaration that the sale was invalid by reason of fraud and irregularity, that the necessary processes were issued and served irregularly, and that in consequence of the said irregularities the estate was sold for a very low price; (ii) he asked for an injunction to restrain the defendant from taking possession; (iii) that the possession of the plaintiff be confirmed and if it be found that he has lost possession then the same be given to him, held, that the plaintiff should pay ad valorem court-fees on the value of the estate, Dhakeswar v. Jiva, 3 Pat.L.J. 448: 46 Ind. Cas. 385, but it was held in In the matter of F. A. 128 of 1922 that such a suit is one for possession only. Walmsley and B. B. Ghose, JJ., decided on 15th Dec. 1924 (unreported).

Suits relating to Trust.—As for public Trusts, See under Art. 17 (vi), second schedule.

Shebaitship.—Suit for a declaration that the plaintiff is the sole Shebait and for an injunction to restrain the defendant from interfering with his possession of the endowed property and also for a declaration that the defendant is not the Shebait of the idol, falls within section 7, paragraph (iv), clause (c) of the Court Fees Act and the plaint is to be stamped with ad valorem court-fees calculated on the valuation of the properties, Raj Krishna v. Bepin Behary, 40 Cal. 245: 17 C.W.N. 591: 16 C.L.J. 194: 17 Ind. Cas. 162. Where the plaintiff sued for declaration that he is the sole Shebait of the endowed properties and that the defendants who had been constituted joint *Shebait*s under the compromise decree had not been validly appointed and that the compromise decree is inoperative and also asked injunction on the defendants to restrain them from interfering with his management, the plaint is to be stamped with a court-fee ad valorem on the valuation made by the plaintiff, Mohendra v. Dinabandhu, 19 C.L.J. 15: 21 Ind. Cas. 771. See also The Official Trustee of Bengal v. Gobardhan Guchait, 33 C.W.N. 231: 118 I.C. 357. But where the plaintiff is out of possession, a prayer for an injunction is insufficient, he must also ask for possession as an injunction is a discretionary relief and cannot be claimed by a plaintiff when he does not seek possession against defendants in possession, Rathnasebapathi v. Ramasami, 33 Mad. 452. See also V. Ramadas v. K. Hanumantha, 36 Mad. 364: 21 M.L.J. 952: 12 I.C. 449. Where the plaintiff sued to obtain a declaration that he is entitled to have the exclusive management of certain devasthan moveable and immoveable properties attached to an idol, held that the real object being to obtain an injunction also and as injunction is a consequential relief the case comes under section 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act and ad valorem court-fee is payable calculated on the value of the relief claimed, Raghunath v. Gangadhar, 10 Bom. 60. See also Manni Lal v. Radhey Gopal, 23 A.L.J. 344: 47 All. 501:

1925 A.I.R. 602 (All.): 87 I.C. 650 where the prayers were that (1) it may be held that the defendant has no power to supervise and manage the properties of the plaintiffs 1 and 2 and it may be declared that the plaintiff No. 3 is the lawful manager of the plaintiffs 1 and 2; (2) that the defendant be restrained by means of a perpetual injunction from supervising and managing the properties of plaintiffs 1 and 2 and from entering on the properties of the plaintiffs.

A suit by a Shebait to set aside leases of certain debutter properties and for possession comes under sec. 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act and the subject-matter of the suit is not the properties irrespective of the lease but was the leaseholds created by the documents, Sailendra Nath Kundu etc. v. Surendra Nath Sarkar, (1934) 39 C.W.N. 248: 60 C.L.J. 469: 62 Cal. 417.

Valuation.—See Hridoy Kishore Nandy v. Hari Bhusan De, 58 C.L.J. 171: 1934 A.I.R. 250 (Cal.): 149 I.C. 1044, where it was held that ad valorem court-fees on the valuation of the debutter properties are not chargeable as the object of the suit was to exclude the defendant from the management of the debutter property and interference of the same. The valuation in this case was held to be reasonable.

Removal of Trustee.—Where the suit is for the removal of M. as manager and for appointment of the plaintiff as manager of the property, held that the plaintiff was not entitled to sue for removal of M. without praying for his ejection from the property, Sanachella v. Manika, 8 Mad. 516. See also Chokalingapeshana v. Achiyar, 1 Mad. 40. Where the plaintiffs ask for a declaration that a mutwali had been guilty of misfeasance and asked to have her removed from the mutwalliship and themselves appointed in her place whereby they would have been entitled to a share in the produce of trust money, the High Court held, "The plaintiffs ask for a distinct and important consequential relief; they ask not only that the defendants may be declared to have wasted the endowment, and thereby to have destroyed the trust, but also that she may be turned out of her mutwalliship and they, the plaintiffs, be appointed in her place. The plaintiffs say that what they claim does not admit of being properly estimated at a money value, but this is not so. Under the towliatnama, the mutwallis were to receive six-twenty-eighths of the produce of the estate, a very considerable sum and the plaintiffs' claim to this share as an appurtenance to the office of mutwalli was easily to be estimated in money. I am of opinion that the plaint ought to have been engrossed on a stamp of proper value," Delroos Banoo Begum v. Nawab Syed Ashgar Ali, 23 W.R. 453: 15 B.L.R. 167 (187) P.C. Where although no emoluments are attached to the office of the trustee still if the suit be for the purpose of controlling the endowment and also for removal of the trustee from the management for the misconduct of the trustee, the valuation for the purpose of court-fees was also regarded as valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction, Omrao Mirza v. Jones, 10 Cal. 599: 12 C.L.R. 148.

A suit instituted for the purpose (1) that the present Mohant may be removed and a new Mohant appointed in his place and (2) that along with the Mohant so appointed a Committee may be formed to fulfil the object of the Trust, (3) the property of the trust may be made over to the new Mohant and the newly appointed committee and list of the said property be prepared and a scheme be settled. The defendant denied the existence of the trust and claimed title in himself, held that the suit was one under sec. 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure and Article 17, clause (vi) of the Second Schedule to the Court Fees Act applies to such a case. The suit is not one for a declaration with a consequential reliev, therefore, s. 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act and the cases decided with regard to that provision do not apply, Beli Ram and others v. Ishar Das, I.L.R. 8 Lahore 730: 1928 A.I.R. 113 (Lahore).

For other cases under sec. 92, C. P. C. See cases under Sch. II, Art. 17 (vi), infra.

Suit to set aside Deeds.—See Mahomed Masik v. Malkai M. U. Badshah Mehal Saheba, 10 Cal. 380, where the plaintiff sued to set aside a deed of endowment executed by her and to recover rupees 2,50,000 handed over by her to defendant No. 1. The suit was valued at Rs. 2,50,000 and court-fees ad valorem on that amount paid. The suit was decreed and the defendant appealed but stamped the memorandum of appeal with a court-fee of Rs. 10 only. The High Court held that “the defendant may not have any personal interest at all yet the subject-matter of the appeal may be as valuable as the subject-matter of the suit,” and ordered that the memorandum of appeal should be stamped with court-fees ad valorem on Rs. 2,50,000.

Valuation.—A suit for declaration and injunction in respect of private debutter property, is a suit for a declaration with consequential relief and therefore such suit falls within sec. 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act and court-fees ad valorem on the value made by the plaintiff are payable (16 C.L.J. 194). The valuation of the relief sought must be reasonable (19 C.L.J. 15). This will also be the result where any other consequential relief is claimed, as in all such cases the suit falls under sec. 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act.

This will also be the case where the trustee is sought to be removed.

Where emoluments are attached to the office of the trustee, the prayer is capable of valuation and court-fees ad valorem on the valuation are payable (23 W.R. 453 P.C.); but if no emoluments are attached to the office of a trustee and if the suit be for the purpose of controlling the endowment and also for removal of the trustee, court-fees ad valorem on the valuation are payable (10 Cal. 599). In a suit for declaration that the plaintiff is entitled to receive a share in the charao offerings to Baidyanathji from the successor in office of the defendant and for arrears of the same, the plaint is to be stamped as in a suit for declaration plus ad valorem fees on the amount claimed as arrears (23 Cal. 645).

As regards ancient temples devoted absolutely and in perpetuity to religious purposes, the subject-matter of the suit or appeal, is incapable of valuation as it is a subject-matter for which there is no market (46 Mad. 782).

When the trust property is in the hands of a receiver or is in the possession of Court of Wards, the principle enunciated in Shiddappa v. Rachappa, 36 Bom. 628 affirmed by P.C., in 43 Bom. 507 will apply.

But the case will be different if the suit falls under sec. 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure; then the court-fees payable will be under Art. 17, cl. (vi) of the Second Schedule of the Court Fees Act as such cases are incapable of valuation for the purpose of court-fees. The valuation for jurisdiction will be the valuation made by the plaintiff. In suits of this class no court-fees other than the fixed fees are payable even if the prayer be for removal of the trustee or for an injunction or any other consequential relief.

A claim to remove a Karnavan from management and appoint in his place the plaintiff, is incapable of valuation and it is erroneous to value such a claim as one for the recovery of property (4 Mad. 146 and 314).

A suit for a declaration that the plaintiff is the Bara Thakur of a temple and for a permanent injunction on the opposite party to prevent them from interfering with the right of the plaintiff, should be valued for the purposes of jurisdiction and court-fees on the value of the temple property or such portion of it from which the plaintiff had been dispossessed, Manick Chandra Sarma v. Damhasudhar Sarma and others, 1930 A.I.R. 41 (Cal.): 1930 I.R. 715 (Cal.): 126 I.C. 267.

Suits arising out of proceedings under the Land Registration Act (B. C. Act VII of 1876).—See Art. 17, clause (ii), Sch. II of the Act. The weight to be given to the registration of the name of the plaintiff in the proceedings under the Land Registration Act depends on the facts of each case, Loke Nath

v. Dhakeswar, 21 C.L.J. 253. Where the plaintiff sued, after an adverse order by the Collector, for declaration of his title to the land, alleging, that he is in possession, it was held that he must also seek for possession, otherwise the suit is barred as he does not seek further relief as required by section 42 of the Specific Relief Act, Raj Narayan v. Shyamnanda, 26 Cal. 845. But the above decision was upset on review and it was found on remand that the plaintiff is in possession and the Calcutta High Court held when the case came back again after remand that if a party be in possession by receipt of rent from tenants then "he must be deemed to be in constructive possession till the tenants refuse to pay him rent. Section 89 of the Land Registration Act, clause (a) contemplates a regular suit by the defeated party, either for possession or for a regular suit by the defeated party, either for possession or for declaration of title to immoveable property. Therefore, the plaintiff can sue only for declaration of his title without asking for any further relief, Shyamanand v. Raj Narayan, 4 C.L.J. 568 (572): 11 C.W.N. 186 (189).

The effect of the order under section 59 of the Land Registration Act is stated in section 62 of that Act to be that of "settling the actual possession," that is to say, "of determining that the plaintiff in the present case was not in possession of the property which forms the subject of the present suit." Therefore, a suit for a mere declaration is barred by section 42 of the Specific Relief Act, Ram v. Janki, 12 C.L.R. 136. In the following cases it was held that a prayer for possession was necessary, Omurunnessa v. Dilwar, 10 Cal. 380; Fakir Chand v. Anunda Chunder, 14 Cal. 586.

Effect of mutation of name.—Mutation of name by itself does not create any proprietary rights, Chokhey Singh v. Jote Singh, L.R. 36 I.A. 38: 31 All. 73: 6 A.L.J. 100: 11 Bom.L.R. 69: 13 C.W.N. 274: 9 C.L.J. 151: 29 M.L.J. 123: 12 O.C. 288: 1 I.C. 166 P.C.

Where the plaintiff has got his name registered under the Land Registration Act, the weight to be given depends on the facts of each case, Loke Nath v. Dhakeswar, 21 C.L.J. 253.

Succession as Heir.—Where the plaintiff sued to establish his right as heir of her deceased son and to set aside a certificate under Act XXVII of 1860 granted jointly to her as well as to the defendant, with a view to being permitted to draw interest on Government Promissory notes belonging to the estate of the deceased, held that as consequential relief was to follow the declaratory decree sought, the stamp of Rupees 10 prescribed by Art. 17, clause (iii) of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, is not sufficient for the plaintiff, Mokhoda v. Nabin Chandra, 16 W.R.

259. Where the plaintiff sued the defendant, a co-widow, for declaration that she is entitled to share equally with the co-widow, the properties left by her husband, held that the plaintiff was bound to sue for a specific share and she must pay ad valorem court-fee on her share, Musst. Ganesha v. Musst. Darobati, 20 P.R. 1975.

A suit for a declaration that the plaintiff was the owner of certain Toda Giras Hak annuity of a certain amount received by a certain lady as heir and as such entitled to recover the same, comes within section 7 (iv) (c) and court-fee payable is ad valorem on the valuation by the plaintiff, Bhimsangji Chhatrasangji v. Dowlatsangji Hamersangji, 27 Bom.L.R. 247: 1925 A.I.R. 282 (Bom.): 87 I.C. 801.

Succession Act.—There is nothing in sec. 387 of the Indian Succession Act which prescribes the nature of a suit brought to contest an order passed under it. It is in no sense analogous to one brought under Order 21, Rule 63, C. P. C., and where the action involves consequential relief, court-fee has to be paid on the value of the subject-matter, Ghulam Mohammad v. Hazrat Ghani and others, 1933 A.I.R. 13 (Peshawar): 141 I.C. 221.

Title.—Assertion of hostile title.—An unfounded assertion of a proprietary right in a Revenue Court which had no jurisdiction to determine the proprietary right in the land, cannot by lapse of six or twelve years convert what was an occupancy or tenant title into that of an under proprietor, Raja Mohammad Mumtaz Ali Khan v. Mohan Singh, 28 C.W.N. 840: 39 C.L.J. 295 P.C. See contra—Hurnarayan v. Suresh, 68 Ind. Cas. 203.

Challenge to Title.—Where upon a challenge being thrown on the title of an adopted son, he came to Court with a claim for declaration of his title and recovery of possession of properties left by adoptive father, the suit came under section 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act, Ugra Mohan v. Lachmi, 5 Pat.L.J. 39: 50 Ind. Cas. 422.

Instruments affecting title.—A suit for a declaration that the defendant No. 1 had no title thereto and that she had no right to transfer the same, and that the sale deed executed by defendant No. 1 does not affect the title of the plaintiff and that the defendant No. 2 has not any right under the deed, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief as the prayers are not co-extensive but are necessary and separate unless the plaintiff elects to delete one of them, Khirichand Mahton v. Musst. Meghni, I.L.R. 5 Patna 493: 8 P.L.T. 296: 98 I.C. 432: 1926 A.I.R. 453 (Patna).

Partition and possession on establishment of title.—See under heading "Partition and possession on establishment of title," supra.

Wills.—The plaint in a suit to set aside a will as a forged document and for confirmation of possession, is to be stamped with court-fees ad valorem according to the valuation of the subject-matter, Jay Narayan v. Girish Chandra, 22 W.R. 438: 15 B.L.R. 172. See also Dinabandhu v. Rajmohini, 16 W.R. 213: 8 B.L.R. App. 32. Where the plaintiff simply sued for a declaration that the will by the deceased is genuine and that a certificate under Act XXVII of 1860 was erroneously granted, it was held, a court-fee of Rupees 10 is sufficient as no consequential relief was necessary, Gangamoni v. Gopal Chandra, 19 W.R. 214. During the lifetime of a testator a simple declaration as to any will by the testator is sufficient, but after the death of the testator the will becomes operative and the person seeking to avoid it must sue for its cancellation, Hukam Singh v. Gyan Devi, 36 Ind. Cas. 95: 87 P.R. 1916: 13 P.L.R. 1917: 127 P.W.R. 1916. See also Hakim v. Musst. Mahtab, 109 P.R. 1893, which was a case of a suit by a reversioner.

A bequest by A. to his wife J. of his property for her maintenance was followed by another bequest empowering her to alienate the property. J. made a gift of the property to one of their sons who sold it away. A grandson filed a suit for a declaration during the lifetime of J. that the gift and the subsequent sale are invalid. It was held that on the death of A. the will has lost its ambulatory character and that the plaintiff is bound to ask for the cancellation of the will and pay ad valorem court-fees, Charan Das v. Musst. Jamna Debi and others, 1929 A.I.R. 811 (Lah.): 10 Lah. 403: 10 L.L.J. 562: 30 P.L.R. 672: 112 I.C. 48.

Forged Will.—A suit for a declaration that a will set up by the defendant is a forged document and that the plaintiff is the legal heir of the deceased and for an injunction restraining the defendant from interfering with the property of the deceased, is a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief. If the valuation is erroneous then the party may be allowed to amend, Bura Mall v. Tulsi Ram, 107 I.C. 609: 9 Lah. 366: 9 L.L.J. 579: 29 Punj.L.R. 27: 1927 A.I.R. 890 (Lah.).

When the prayers in the plaint were that the will may be declared to be a forgery; secondly, that the will may be cancelled, and thirdly, that the order of the sub-registrar registering the will may be cancelled, the suit was held to be for a declaration only as the 2nd and 3rd prayers were superfluous inasmuch as under sec. 39 of the Specific Relief Act, the Court is bound to perform those acts and therefore the suit does not come under sec. 7 (iv) (c) as there the relief asked for is not a declaratory decree plus consequential relief but comes under Art. 17-A of the Second Schedule as amended in Madras, Kattiya Pillai and another v. Ramaswami Pillai (insane) by his wife etc., 56 M.L.J. 394: 1929 M.W.N. 286: 29 L.W. 584: 1929 A.I.R. 396 (Mad.): 119 I.C. 35.

Valuation.—Where a plaintiff sues for a declaratory decree and asks for a consequential relief, and puts his own valuation upon that consequential relief, then for the purpose of court-fees and also for the purposes of jurisdiction, it is the value that the plaintiff puts upon the plaint that determines both, Sunderabai v. Collector of Belgaum, L.R. 46 I.A. 15: 43 Bom. 376: 23 C.W.N. 753: 1919 M.W.N. 254: 21 Bom.L.R. 1148: 52 I.C. 897 P.C. (but in this case the question about court-fees was not exactly before the Judicial Committee).

In cases falling under section 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act, the plaintiff must value in his plaint the relief sought and the plaint must be stamped according to such valuation, Sit Soe and others v. Ma Thin, 1924 A.I.R. 378 (R.).

Where a plaintiff seeks to obtain a declaratory decree with consequential relief [sec. 7 (iv) (c) or to obtain an injunction cl. (d)] the suit must be valued according to the amount for which the relief sought is valued in the plaint, Rajendra Baksh Singh v. Musst. Bahu Rani, 107 I.C. 330: 1928 A.I.R. 260 (Oudh).

The plaintiff is entitled to put his own valuation in a suit for a declaration with a consequential relief. The valuation of the suit would be the valuation put by the plaintiff under the provisions of the Suits Valuation Act, The Official Trustee of Bengal v. Gobardhan Guchait, (1928) 33 C.W.N. 231: 118 I.C. 357.

In the absence of rules under sec. 9 of the Suits Valuation Act, the Court not having any standard of valuation to refer to, would be unable to revise the valuation by the plaintiff, The Narayanganj Central Co-operative Sale and Supply Society Ltd. v. Mafizuddin, 61 Cal. 796: 38 C.W.N. 589: 59 C.L.J. 233: 149 I.C. 3: 1934 A.I.R. 448 (Cal.) F.B.

If a plaintiff values his suit for the purpose of jurisdiction at a certain amount, he cannot put a different valuation when it is found that the suit falls under sec. 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act, Srikishen Das v. Satnarain, 32 P.L.R. 729: 135 I.C. 499: 1932 A.I.R. 132 (Lah.).

In a suit for declaration with consequential relief, the plaintiff may put his own valuation, but the defendant is entitled to object to the valuation and if such objection is taken then the Court is to enter into the question as to the correctness of the valuation, Kirtyanand Singh v. Dinu Manjhi, 149 I.C. 109: 1934 A.I.R. 234 (Patna).

It is not necessary for a plaintiff in a suit falling under sec. 7, paragraph (iv) of the Court Fees Act to fix any value for the purposes of jurisdiction, as under sec. 8 of the Suits Valuation Act the value determinable for the computation of court-fees governs the value for the purposes of jurisdiction, Gobindabin Krishna Sathi v. Hanmaya Lingaya Fulmali, (1921) 45 Bom. 567; Maung Nyi Maung v. The Mandalay Municipal Committee, (1934) 12 Rang. 335 (339): 1934 A.I.R. 268 (Rang.).

Note.—It should be borne in mind that the provisions of sec. 12 of the Court Fees Act, which is in this chapter allows the Court to revise the valuation.

The valuation can also be revised under rules 10 and 11 of Or. 7 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Sec. 8 of the Suits Valuation Act requires that the value as determinable for the computation of court-fees and the value for the purposes of jurisdiction shall be the same.

Sec. 7 (iv) (c), Proviso (Madras).—The proviso merely introduces a downward valuation below which reliefs sought in respect of immoveable property consequential on declaratory decrees shall not be valued, Venkatasiva Rao v. Venkatanarasinha and others, 63 M.L.J. 764: 36 L.W. 225: 1932 M.W.N. 992: 139 I.C. 317: 1932 A.I.R. 605 (Mad.): 1932 I.R. 643 (Mad.): 56 Mad. 212 (221).

PARAGRAPH (iv) (d)—Injunction.

This clause applies only to suits for perpetual and mandatory injunction. As regards orders for injunction under Order 39, C. P. C., an appeal lies as an appeal from order and consequently ad valorem court-fee is not necessary.

See also under "Declaration and injunction", supra, under sec. 7 (iv) (c).

In Gangadhar Misra v. Rani Debendrabala, I.L.R. 5 Patna 211: 94 I.C. 22: 1926 A.I.R. 249 (Patna) the Patna High Court held that a prayer for an ad interim injunction in a suit for declaration is a prayer for a consequential relief.

Stay of Batwara Proceedings.—Suit by an allottee under a private partition to stay subsequent partition proceedings under Bengal Regulation XIX of 1814 and to have his possession confirmed, should be considered as one for a declaratory decree or something in the nature of an injunction and therefore the plaint should not be stamped according to the value of the entire estate, Joynath v. Lal Bahadoor, 8 Cal. 126: 10 C.L.R. 146.

Suits under sec. 149 of the Bengal Tenancy Act.—The institution fee in a suit under section 149 (3) of the Bengal Tenancy Act is ad valorem on the rent deposited, Trailokya Mohini Dassi v. Kali Prasanna Ghose, 11 C.W.N. 380 (382). But it was said in that case that it could hardly have been the intention of the Legislature that a simple suit such as sec. 149, cl. (3) of the Bengal Tenancy Act appears to contemplate, should develop into a suit involving intricate questions of title. A suit contemplated by this section is a suit with reference to the money deposited in Court and for an injunction restraining the paying out of the money. It does not contemplate a suit for the establishment of the relation of landlord and tenant, Haranath Banerji v. Ananta Dasi, 9 C.W.N. 492. A suit under this subsection is in the nature of an interpleader suit; the question of title and possession may be incidentally gone into, Gurudas Rakshit v. Kumud Bandhu Ray, 7 C.L.J. 40 (notes).

"A suit under section 149 (3) of the Bengal Tenancy Act is not a title suit and need not be stamped as such. It is in the nature of a suit for an injunction under the Specific Relief Act or else a declaratory suit," Jagadamba Devi v. Pratap Ghose, 14 Cal. 537 (539). See also the case of Rubiunnessa v. Gooljan Bibee, 17 Cal. 829, where it was also said that the object of section 149 is to prevent tenants being harassed in disputes between rival claimants to the land.

In a suit under section 149 of the Bengal Tenancy Act unless the plaintiff establishes his title and possession he is not entitled to the order restraining payment out of the money under clause (3), Kazi Mahomed Mazhar v. Shetkh Kadir, 11 C.W.N. 128 (note).

Injunctions.—Where the plaintiff in a suit under section 539, C. P. C. (Act XIV of 1882) asked for possession and also for an injunction which he valued separately at Rs. 100, held that the plaintiff is to pay court-fees ad valorem on that valuation, Thakuri v. Brahma Narain, 19 All. 60.

Mandatory Injunctions.—Mandatory injunction to demolish a house must be valued separately and ad valorem court-fees are payable thereon, Jogal Kishore v. Tale Singh, 4 All. 329.

Account and Injunction.—A suit for a declaration that the plaintiff is entitled to require the defendant to account to him and to permit him to inspect the account book, and also for a positive order in the nature of a mandatory injunction for the protection of defendant's books and property in their hands, should be considered as a suit to obtain a declaratory order where consequential relief is prayed and also a suit to obtain an injunction, Manohar Gonesh v. Bawa Ram, 2 Bom. 219; Raghunath Ganesh v. Gangadhar, 10 Bom. 60.

Declaration and injunction by reversioner.—In suits by a reversioner against Hindu widow in possession, for a declaration and injunction, the court-fees payable must be computed according to the valuation made in the plaint, Kandhaiya Ojha v. Musst. Jagrani Kuar, 46 All. 419: 79 I.C. 358: 22 All.L.J. 349: 1924 A.I.R. 597 (All.).

Injunction against Municipality.—A suit for an injunction restraining a Municipal Committee from demolishing a thara not constructed in accordance with sanction falls within sec. 7 (iv) (d) of the Court Fees Act and the plaintiff is entitled to value the relief at his own valuation and under sec. 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, the valuation for court-fees and for jurisdiction should be the same, Dongarsi Das v. The Municipal Committee, Fazilka, 116 I.C. 908: 1929 A.I.R. 566 (Lah.).

Where the plaintiff alleging herself to be in possession along with others of the piece of land in suit sued the Municipality and the transferee from the Municipality, praying for a declaration of her right to use the same and for a further declaration that the Municipality is not entitled to use it in a manner detrimental to her right of user and for an injunction on the Municipality and the transferee prohibiting them to use the land in such a manner, held that the valuation for injunction can be a nominal amount permissible under the Suits Valuation Act and the court-fee payable is ad valorem on such value plus Rs. 10 for each of the two declarations, Musst. Mulkunnissa v. Municipal Committee, Delhi, 118 P.L.R. 1904.

Valuation of a suit for a permanent injunction restraining defendant from cutting timber in jungle and undergrowth and accounts.—The valuation of suit is the value of the relief sought in the plaint, and the plaint is to stamped with court-fee calculated ad valorem on that valuation, Rai Charan Pandey v. Kunja Behary, 46 Ind. Cas. 884; Hari Sankar Dutta v. Kali Kumar Patra, 32 Cal. 734: 9 C.W.N. 690; Gulab Singhji v. Lakshman Singhji, 18 Bom. 100.

Valuation.—The valuation should not be an arbitrary valuation, Mohendra v. Dinabandhu, 19 C.L.J. 15: 21 Ind. Cas. 771; Rajabala v. Radhika, 40 C.L.J. 150: 1924 A.I.R. (969) (C.) where it was held that value of the property involved is not necessarily the value for the purpose of ascertaining court-fees. A suit for declaration of title regarding a piece of land and for an injunction restraining the defendant from interfering with the construction of a chabutra was valued for the purpose of jurisdiction at Rs. 1,100 for the land and at Rs. 10 for the relief of injunction; held that under section 7, iv (d) of the Court Fees Act read with section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, the plaintiff was bound to pay court-fee ad valorem on Rs. 1,100 for injunction, Bachhan v. The Municipal Board of Mirzapore,

The valuation of a suit for an injunction restraining the defendant from enforcing a money decree personally against the plaintiff, must be according to the amount expressed in the money decree. The plaintiff cannot put an arbitrary value in such a suit, Nadir Khan Abdullah Khan v. Firm of the Cox's and King's Shipping Agency Ltd., 25 S.L.R. 15: 130 I.C. 445: 1931 A.I.R. 15 (Sind).

Power of Court to increase valuation.—A plaint was filed in a certain Court praying for an injunction, the relief sought being valued at Rs. 50. On the objection of the defendant an issue was framed and the question was tried and it was held that the value was Rs. 2,700 which exceeded the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court. The plaint was accordingly returned for presentation to the proper Court. Held, that the Court had no jurisdiction to increase the value of the suit: section 7, paragraph IV (d) of the Court Fees Act requires that, in a suit for an injunction, the plaintiff shall state the amount at which he values the relief sought, Guruvaamma v. Venkata Krishnama Chetty, 25 Mad. 34, but see Umatul Batul v. Musst. Nauji Koer, 11 C.W.N. 705: 6 C.L.J. 427; Balwant Rao v. Bhima Sankar, 13 Bom. 517.

A suit for an injunction comes under section 7 iv (d) of the Court Fees Act and the court-fees payable are to be computed according to the amount at which the plaintiff values the relief sought, in the plaint, which value the plaintiff is entitled to fix himself. In such a case it is wholly unnecessary for the plaintiff to fix any value for the purpose of jurisdiction as, by section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, the value for the purpose of court-fees is also the value for the purpose of jurisdiction, Gobind Krishna Sathe v. Hanmaya Lingaya Fulmani, 45 Bom. 567: 22 Bom.L.R. 1450: 59 Ind. Cas. 777. See also Shrimant Sunderbai v. Collector of Belgaum, 43 Bom. 376: 23 C.W.N. 753 P.C.

There is no direct authority for the Court to interfere with the valuation set up by the plaintiff who seeks relief under sec. 7, iv (c) or (d) of the Court Fees Act unless the Court can take advantage of sec. 151, C. P. C., Rajendra Baksh Singh v. Musst. Bahu Rani, 107 I.C. 330: 1928 A.I.R. 260 (Oudh).

The plaintiff in a suit for a declaration and injunction is entitled to put his own valuation on the relief claimed and to pay court-fees thereon, Pannalal Lala v. Abdul Gani and others, 34 C.W.N. 321: 127 I.C. 665: 1930 A.I.R. 473 (Cal.). See also In re Kalipada Mookherjee, 58 Cal. 281: 34 C.W.N. 870: 1930 A.I.R. 686 (Cal.).

The valuation of a relief of injunction is entirely in the discretion of the plaintiff and the Court is incapable of revising the valuation, Maung Nyi Maung v. Municipal Committee, Mandalay, 12 Ran. 335: 1934 A.I.R. 268 (Ran.). See other cases under sec. 7, iv (c), supra.

The real valuation may be shown.—"Notwithstanding the fact that, having regard to section 7 of the Court Fees Act, (VII of 1870), sub-section 4, the value of this suit was fixed at Rs. 1,500, I think, it is open to the petitioner, having regard to the nature of the relief sought, to show what was the real value of the property," Hari Mohan Misser v. Surendra Nath Singh, 31 Cal. 301; Kumar Basanta K. Ray v. The Secretary of State for India, 14 C.W.N. 872: 6 Ind. Cas. 792.

PARAGRAPH IV (e).—Easement.

In a case of conflicting claims with regard to the waters of a flowing stream, the claim by the plaintiff having been to have her lands irrigated in the way she claimed, the valuation according to section 7 would be the extent of the declaration of her interest if that right could not be established, Ajuaskooer v. Musst. Luteefa, 18 W.R. 21.

In a suit to close a new door alleged to have been opened with a design to injuriously assert right over adjacent lands, the plaint need not be stamped as in a suit for the land itself, Chundun v. Taleb Ali, 2 N.W.P. 41. See also Venkata Krishna Pather In re, 52 M.L.J. 121: 25 L.W. 158: 100 I.C. 263: 1927 A.I.R. 348 (Madras) where there was a prayer for injunction; hence it was held that the suit fell under sec. 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act.

PARAGRAPH IV (f).—Account.

Suits for accounts: what are.—A suit for injunction on the defendant to restrain him from cutting the trees of a forest, or in the alternative, for an order to keep an account of the trees removed, is a suit for accounts, Gulab Singji v. Lakshman Singhji, 18 Bom. 100.

A suit for a decree for such amount as may be found due on taking accounting is a suit for accounts if it turns out that the defendant is the accounting party, Suryanarayana v. Raja Vizianagram, 35 L.W. 358: 1932 A.I.R. 565 (Mad.): 137 I.C. 871.

Nothing could prevent a defendant in a suit framed as a suit for account from claiming the benefit of an account if in his favour just as the plaintiff claims it if a larger amount than is specified in the plaint be found due to him. Such a suit is essentially one for accounts, Hurro Nath Roy v. Krishna Coomar Bakshi, 13 I.C. 123: 14 Cal. 147.

The defendant in a suit for accounts can plead that money would be due to him on taking accounts and can also ask for a decree in his favour for such amount as may be found to him on enquiry. It is not necessary in such cases for the defendant to pay court-fees on the written statement filed by him as it is not a set-off nor a cross claim. A Court of equity cannot refuse to pass such a decree in his favour. There is no warrant for holding that where a defendant nominally values his relief on which he pays court-fees and offers to pay additional court-fee on such sum as may be found due to him on settlement of accounts, he must be deemed to have relinquished his claim for the balance, Wali Mahomed v. Khoja Ismaillia Trading Co., 1933 A.I.R. 247 (Sind): 150 I.C. 464.

What are not suits for accounts.—There cannot in essence be a suit for accounts by the plaintiff against the defendant, unless the defendant is under liability to render accounts to the plaintiff. A suit for the recovery of a specific sum of money does not assume the character of a suit for accounts, merely because in the determination of the question in controversy accounts may have to be examined, Kshetranath Banerjee v. Kali Dasi Dasi, 21 C.W.N. 784: 27 C.L.J. 96: 41 I.C. 929. See also Hansraj v. Ratni, 27 All. 200; Konduru v. Subbiah, 28 Mad. 394; Maroti v. Balaji, 4 N.L.R. 36; Sri Ranga Thathachariar v. Srinivasa Thathachariar, 50 Mad. 866.

A suit by a commission agent to recover money due on taking a balance of accounts, is not a suit for accounts falling within s. 7, iv (f) of the Court Fees Act. The mere fact that it is necessary to examine the account does not make the suit a suit for accounts and if the defendant appeals against the decree, ad valorem court-fees on the plaint valuation is to be paid. The defendant appellent cannot evade payment of court-fees on the ground that he wants a declaration only, Pochalal Ranchhod v. Umedram Kalidas, 52 Bom. 904: 30 Bom.L.R. 1284: 115 I.C. 391: 1928 A.I.R. 476 (Bom.).

Accounts against a karta of a joint Hindu family.—The court-fees payable on a plaint or a memorandum of appeal in a suit for partition and accounts against a karta of a joint family is leviable under Art. 17, vi of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act as ordinarily there can be no suit for accounts against the karta as an agent on behalf of the other members of the family, but only to disclose the properties including cash in his hands and that might necessitate looking into the accounts. Therefore, a prayer for accounts does not bring it within s. 7, iv (f) of the Court Fees Act, Jyotirbati Chawdhurani v. Lakshmeswar Prasad Chawdhury, 8 Pat. 818: 10 P.L.T. 491: 120 I.C. 770: 1930 A.I.R. 1 (Patna). But see Parmeshwar Dubey and others v. Gobind Dubey, 43 Cal. 459: 20 C.W.N. 25

(28): 33 I.C. 190 where the Calcutta High Court held that a karta is the accountable party. See also Beni Madhab Sarkar v. Gobind Chandra Sarkar, 22 C.W.N. 669 where ad valorem court-fee on the approximate valuation was ordered to be levied.

Accounts relating to trust properties.—Suit for partition of offerings and accounts.—The plaintiffs, who are pujaris, brought a suit for partition of offerings in the temple and to have the accounts explained to them and for inspection of the strong room, in which the offerings are stored. Held, that the suit is really one for accounts and ad valorem court-fees are payable, Kalka Ram v. Ram Saran, 13 P.R. 1901: 137 P.L.R. 1901.

Suit for removal of Mohant and accounts.—Where the plaintiffs brought a suit for removal of trustees, and for accounts, in case it be found that the trustee has embezzled any money of the idol, the suit does not come under this clause, as the money will be due to the idol and there will be no relief sought by the plaintiff on this account, Ramrup Das and others v. Mohunt Sitaram Das, 14 C.W.N. 932: 12 C.L.J. 211: 7 Ind. Cas. 92; Giridhari Lal v. Ram Lal, 21 All. 200. See also under Art. 17, Clause 6 of the second Schedule of this Act under "Charitable and Religious 'Trusts.'"

Administration suit.—For decree in Administration Suit see Order 20, Rule 13, C. P. C.

Administration suit.—An administration suit is in essence a suit for accounts and application of the estate of the debtor for satisfaction of the dues of all the creditors.

An administration suit by a creditor is an action for an account within the meaning of section 7, iv (f) and the plaintiff is, therefore, entitled to put his own valuation on the relief claimed and that valuation would be valuation both for purposes of jurisdiction and for court-fees. Court-fees need not be paid on a higher valuation than the amount claimed by the plaintiff, Sashi Bhusan Bose v. Maharaja Sir Manindra Chandra Nundy, 24 C.L.J. 448: 21 C.W.N. 1310: 44 Cal. 890: 38 Ind. Cas. 835. See also Ma Ma v. Ma Hmon, 4 L.B.R. 279; Chandramani v. Basdeo, 4 Pat.L.J. 57: 49 I.C. 442; Satya Kumar Bannerjee v. Satya Kripal Banerjee, 10 C.L.J. 503: 3 Ind. Cas. 247.

The claim in a suit for accounts of the estate of a deceased and for its administration by the Court was valued at Rs. 130 for the purpose of court-fees and at Rs. 30,00,000 (thirty lakhs) for the purpose of jurisdiction, held, that having regard to the statements made in the plaint, the suit is an administration suit; and that it should be treated as a suit for accounts; the plaintiff being at liberty to value it at Rs. 130 or any other sum under section 7, iv (f) of the Court Fees Act, Khatija v. Sheikh Adam Husenally, 39 Bom. 545: 17 Bom.L.R. 574: 29 Ind. Cas. 949.

In an administration suit valued at Rs. 30,000 for the purpose of jurisdiction and at Rs. 100 for the purpose of adjustment of accounts, wherein ad valorem court-fees were paid on the latter sum only together with Rs. 10 apparently on the ground that the claim for administration was incapable of valuation, held, that such a suit was in essence a suit for accounts, within the meaning of section 7, Clause iv (f) of the Court Fees Act, and that the plaintiff is competent to value the claim for accounts approximately and to pay court-fees thereon, the balance of court-fees being payable under s. 11 of the Court Fees Act, Saraju Bala Dasi v. Jogmaya Dasi, 45 Cal. 634: 22 C.W.N. 115: 26 C.L.J. 265: 41 Ind. Cas. 693.

An administration suit is a suit for accounts and court-fees are payable under s. 7, iv (f) of the Court Fees Act ad valorem on the valuation made by the plaintiff, C. K. Ummar v. C. K. Ali Ummar, 9 Ran. 165: 133 I.C. 91: 1931 A.I.R. 146 (Ran.); Ma Thin On v. Ma Ngwe Hmon, 12 Rangoon 512: 1935 A.I.R. 13 (Ran.). The valuation for jurisdiction and court-fees should be the same, Ma Fatima v. Mouin Bibi, 7 Ran. 164: 118 I.C. 122: 1929 A.I.R. 211 (Ran.).

Suit for declaration of title and administration and appointment of a receiver.—Suit for a declaration of title after a true construction of the will of the testator and for declaration that the estate has been fully administered and that the executors are not entitled to remain in possession of the estate and for the appointment of a receiver, is a suit for declaration where a consequential relief, viz., administration of the estate and appointment of a receiver, has been prayed for and the High Court ordered ad valorem court-fees to be paid in the High Court as well as the Courts below, Rup Chand Ghosh v. Srimati Khirodamayee Dasi and others, (1917) 27 C.W.N. 457: 75 Ind. Cas. 567.

Suit for administration and payment to the plaintiff of his share.—A suit for administration of the estate of a deceased person and inter alia payment to the plaintiff of his share, is a suit for administration and accounts within the meaning of section 7, iv (f) of the Court Fees Act and court-fees calculated ad valorem on the valuation by the plaintiff in the suit, are payable on the plaint. The valuations for the purpose of jurisdiction and for court-fees are the same, Shujauddin v. Ashaibi, 100 P.R. 1914.

Other creditors.—"When, after the preliminary decree has been made, and creditors have been invited to establish their claims, if any, against the debtor, each creditor, who puts forward a claim not already transformed into a judgment debt, may well be required to pay court-fees ad valorem on his application as if it were a plaint in a suit for the recovery of the sum he claims," Sashi Bhusan v. Maharaja Manindra Chandra, 44 Cal. 890: 21 C.W.N. 1310: 24 C.L.J. 448: 38 I.C. 835.

Contra.—a creditor who puts forward his claim in pursuance of the notification of the Court, after the preliminary decree in an administration suit, need not pay any court-fees, as such a claim cannot be deemed a plaint in a cross suit, Ramaswami Ayyar v. Rangaswami Ayyar, 55 Mad. 26: 61 M.L.J. 933: 1931 M.W.N. 916: 34 L.W. 429: 134 I.C. 1137: 1931 A.I.R. 683 (Mad.).

Principal and agent—set off.—A suit for accounts by a principal against his agent necessarily involves an undertaking by the plaintiff to pay to the defendant any sum that may be found due to the defendant by him on the taking of accounts, and it is unnecessary that the defendant should plead a set off or counterclaim. (In this case necessary court-fees were ordered to be paid and were paid), Parmanand v. Jagat Narain, (1910) 32 All. 525: 7 A.L.J. 543: 6 I.C. 163. See also Ram Charan v. Bulagi, 22 A.L.J. 783: 83 I.C. 800: 1924 A.I.R. 854 (All.), but see contra, Narasimha Rao v. Zamindar of Tirmur, 42 Mad. 873 (879, 880): 53 I.C. 234, where the case in 32 All. 525 was dissented from and the High Court said that the defendant cannot have a claim which is barred by limitation.

Suit by a succeeding administrator.—A suit by a proceeding administrator to set aside a decree against the previous administrator and the sale in execution therefor is a suit for possession and the suit falls under section 7, paragraph V of the Court Fees Act, Bai Meherbai v. Maganchand, 29 Bom. 96: 6 Bom.L.R. 853.

Partnership.—The application to wind up a partnership made under section 265 of the Contract Act, is in the nature of a suit for an account, and should be stamped accordingly, Abad Ali v. Jamiruddin, 13 C.L.R. 160. See also Bhogilal v. Papat Bhai, 7 Bom. 125; Erakshah v. Adarji, 7 Bom. 535.

Where some partners brought a suit for recovery of amounts due to them on the ground that the partnership was dissolved some years ago, the stamp duty payable on memorandum of appeal against the orders of the Lower Court, should be ad valorem fee as in a suit for accounts, Ladubhai v. Revichand, 6 Bom. 143; Dhani Ram v. Bhagirath, 22 Cal. 692; In the matter of Bholanath, 7 All. L.J. 546: 32 All. 517: 6 Ind. Cas. 832.

A decree could be passed in favour of a defendant in a suit for taking accounts between partners of a dissolved partnership under Or. 20, Rule 15, C. P. C. on payment of necessary court-fees, Ram Charan v. Bulaqui, (1924) 46 All. 858: 22 A.L.J. 783: 83 I.C. 880: 1924 A.I.R. 854 (All.).

Court-fees payable.—Under this paragraph the Court fees are payable according to the value of the relief sought and not according to the value of the subject-matter of the plaint, Manohar Ganesh v. Barwa Ram, 2 Bom. 219.

The plaintiff is to give an estimate of the amount at which he values the relief sought and pay whatever court-fee is legally payable thereon; Sita Ram v. Hanuman Prasad, 8 P.L.T. 145: 100 I.C. 632: 1927 A.I.R. 413 (Patna).

The court-fee on the plaint is to be determined with reference to the provisions of section 7, iv (f) of the Court Fees Act, and the fee payable is to be calculated ad valorem upon the value of the relief sought as given in the plaint.

A judge, after having found in the initial stage of the case that, owing to plaintiff's inability to value the relief claimed, the plaint was sufficiently stamped with a ten rupee court-fee under Art. 17 (vi) of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act, can subsequently declare under section 11 of the Court Fees Act, that there is a deficiency which is liable to be made good, Prince Mirza Suraiya Qudr. v. Nawab Qudsia Begum, 24 Ind. Cas. 643.

When the amount due is found to be in excess.—If the amount decreed be in excess of the amount at which the relief was valued, the deficiency in court-fees must be recovered as laid down in section 11 of the Act, San Paw v. Ma Yin, 12 Bur.L.T. 207: 55 Ind. Cas. 258.

Appeal from the final decree.—A party who has paid ad valorem court-fees in an appeal from the preliminary decree in a suit for accounts on the valuation made in the plaint, need not pay the same court-fee over again in the appeal from the final decree in that suit but need only pay ad valorem court-fees on any excess amount found to be due; In re Supputhayamual, 62 M.L.J. 624: 35 L.W. 621: 1932 M.W.N. 438: 1932 A.I.R. 453 (Mad.). See also Kanchan Mandar v. Kamala Prasad, 16 C.L.J. 564: 15 I.C. 572 infra. Contra, Kanti Chandra Tarafdar v. Radharaman, 33 C.W.N. 743: 1929 A.I.R. 815 (Cal.).

After the passing of the preliminary decree in a suit for accounts two persons were appointed as referees with the consent of the parties for the purpose of going into the accounts. A decree was passed in accordance with their report. An appeal was filed with a court-fee of Rs. 10 on the memorandum of appeal while the appellant claimed that an excess amount should have been awarded. The High Court held that the appeal should be valued and ad valorem court-fees paid on that basis, Mt.

Niamati Bai v. Daulat Ram and another, 1933 A.I.R. 633 (Lah.): 144 I.C. 559: 14 Lah. 738: 34 P.L.R. 1079.

Appeal—Valuation.—An appeal from a preliminary decree in a suit for rendering of accounts and winding up of partnership must bear ad valorem court-fees on the amount of which the relief claimed is valued, Dhupati Srinivasacharlu v. A. Perindervamma, 39 Mad. 725: 30 M.L.J. 402: 33 I.C. 604; Kanji Mal v. Panna Lal, 28 Ind. Cas. 262. But if during the pendency of appeal from the preliminary decree, the enquiry as to amount due is completed, and a smaller amount than the value of the appeal from preliminary decree, is found due, then court-fees are necessary in the appeal from the final decree, Kanchan Mandar v. Kamala Prasad, 16 C.L.J. 564: 15 Ind. Cas. 572. In section 7 the amount of court-fee is to be computed, in the suits for accounts, according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or the memorandum of appeal, Faizulla Khan v. Mauladad Khan, 56 I.A. 232: 10 Lah. 737: 31 Bom.L.R. 841: 57 M.L.J. 281: 1929 A.I.R. 147 (P.C.). But this is to be done only when the suit is for accounts properly so called, Mahomedali v. Akbarali, 36 Bom.L.R. 1234: 1935 A.I.R. 69 (Bom.).

Where the account is for a limited period.—If the defence of the defendant be that he is liable to render accounts but only for a limited period owing to the operation of the statute of Limitation, then the defendant appellant can put his own valuation on the memorandum of appeal and is not bound to accept the valuation by the plaintiff, Kanhaiya v. Seth Ram Sarup, 44 All. 542: 20 A.L.J. 416: 66 Ind. Cas. 841: (1923) All. I.R. 228 (Allahabad). See also Kuldip Sahay v. Harihar Prasad Jha, I.L.R. 3 Pat. 146: 75 Ind. Cas. 871: 1924 A.I.R. 161 (Patna).

Where the plaintiff loses and is ordered to pay a sum to the defendant.—If a plaintiff approximately values his relief for accounts at Rs. 200 and on hearing he not only lost his suit but was ordered to pay Rs. 1,400 to the defendant. It was held that the valuation of the appeal should be at Rs. 1,600, the test being the value of the relief granted which is sought to be got rid of, Shivandas Matumal v. Hariram and another, 1933 A.I.R. 322 (Sind): 27 S.L.R. 335.

Procedure where the court-fee is found insufficient.—The appellant whether he is a plaintiff or a defendant, in an appeal arising from an account suit can give the same valuation and pay court-fees on such notional valuation under s. 7, iv (f) of the Court Fees Act. Even if some of the items in respect of which he was appealing were definite amounts, the actual court-fee he pays should be supposed to cover actual sums decreed and any uncertain sums in respect of which the relief is soughts. 11 no doubt furnishes one method but for the protection of the interest of the Crown, it is necessary to indicate what the proper practice should be. If the appellate Court after hearing the appeal comes to the conclusion in favour of the appellant in respect of a far larger sum than which the appellant has paid court-fees for, the proper thing would be to post the case for orders and then direct the appellant to pay additional court-fees and only then the judgment should be delivered and the decree allowed to be drawn up; In re Nukala Venkatanandan, 56 Mad. 705: 1933 M.W.N. 36: 64 M.L.J. 122: 37 L.W. 106: 1933 A.I.R. 330 (M.): 141 I.C. 602.

Suit—Valuation.—The Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908) requires that the plaintiff should only approximately state the amount he claims. See Order 7, Rule 2, C. P. C. (Act V of 1908).

The plaintiff is, therefore, free to fix any value but the execution of the decree he might obtain is controlled by sec. 11 of the Court Fees Act. Section 11 precludes execution of the decree in case it exceeds such value until additional court-fee has been paid, Govinda v. Dayabhai, 9 Bom. 22.

In a suit for account the plaintiff is entitled to value it approximately but if the Court thinks that the suit has been under-valued it can at any time apply section 54, C. P. C. (Or. 7, Rule 11) and reject the plaint, Balwant Rao v. Bhima Sankar, 13 Bom. 517. This valuation determines the jurisdiction of the Court and also the amount of court-fees to be paid on the plaint at the time of filing the suit, Khushall Chand v. Nagin Das, 12 Bom. 675; Sellamuthu Seravagor v. Ram Swami Pillai, 12 M.L.J. 66; Hardayal v. Ram Deo, (1924) A.I.R. 354 (R.): I.L.R. 2 Ran. 408: 3 Bur.L.J. 307.

But the plaintiff cannot afterwards amend the plaint by altering the valuation, especially if such alteration will affect the jurisdiction of Court, Arogya v. Appachi, 25 Mad. 543: 12 M.L.J. 35; Bai Amba v. Pranjivandas, 19 Bom. 198; Bhagabantraï v. Mehta, 18 Bom. 40. But if he places a low valuation and institutes the suit in a Court with a limited pecuniary jurisdiction, and if after enquiry, it is found that the plaintiff is entitled to larger sum which was not in the jurisdiction of the Court to decree the plaintiff is limited to the jurisdiction of that primary Court, Golap Singh v. Indra Coomar, 13 C.W.N. 493: 9 C.L.J. 467: 1 I.C. 86; Bhupendra K. Chakrabarti v. Purna Ch. Bose, 43 Cal. 650: 13 C.L.J. 132: 15 C.W.N. 504: 8 I.C. 31; Harjibhai v. Jamshedji, (1913) 15 Bom.L.R. 1021.

The reason for allowing the plaintiff to put an arbitrary value can be gathered from the fact that the plaintiff does not know how much is due to him, and as this can be definitely ascertained, only after an enquiry. See Gulab Khan v. Abdul Wahab Khan, 31 Cal. 365; Manna Lal v. Samandu, 46 P.R. 1906: 94 P.L.R. 1906. See also Rishikesh v. Melaram, 94 I.C. 650: 1926 A.I.R. 242 (Lahore).

Under sec. 7, iv (f), Court Fees Act, the plaintiff is obliged in a suit for accounts to state the amount at which he values the relief sought, and court-fees are payable ad valorem according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint. The plaintiff cannot put one value for the purpose of jurisdiction and then select one or two items and pay court-fees on the selected items with an additional court-fee of Rs. 15 on other items, Gourilal and others v. Raja Babu, 1929 A.I.R. 626 (P.).

In a suit for accounts the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and valuation for the purpose of court-fees should be the same; the valuation by the plaintiff fixes the jurisdiction of the trial Court which is not ousted if on enquiry an amount exceeding the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court is found due, Ishwarappa Manvi v. Dhanji Gujjar, 56 Bom. 23: 34 Bom.L.R. 44: 1932 A.I.R. 111 (Bom.): 137 I.C. 702. See Vershi Kanji v. Taku Munji, (1935) 37 Bom.L.R. 148 where separate valuations for court-fees and for assessment for pleader's fees were allowed. [This decision seems incorrect.]

The plaintiff in a suit for accounts may put an arbitrary valuation. The Court cannot ask the plaintiff to revise the valuation, even if he admits in evidence that a larger amount will be found due and to direct that the valuation be amended, Kandaswami Pillai v. Arunachalam Pillai, 1932 M.W.N. 979: 35 L.W. 846: 1932 A.I.R. 656 (Mad.): 139 I.C. 105.

In Inayat Husain v. Bashir Ahmed, 1932 A.L.J. 416: 1932 A.I.R. 413 (All.), the Allahabad High Court held that (1) where the valuation of the suit is contested the value must be determined by the Court, (2) where the valuation can be ascertained correctly, the plaintiff cannot be allowed to put an arbitrary valuation upon his claim, nor can he be allowed to over-value or under-value his claim with a view to choose his forum.

Valuation of the relief sought.—Section 7 says that ad valorem court-fees shall be paid "according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or memorandum of appeal." In all such suits "the plaintiff shall state the amount at which the relief sought" is valued. The proper meaning to be attached to the latter words is that the plaintiff shall truly state the amount at which he values the relief sought, and that it cannot mean that a plaintiff is entitled to put in a fictitious value when the relief is capable of valuation. That this is not a mere matter of form becomes apparent when one considers the fact that the valuation affects jurisdiction and decides the Court by which the case is to be tried, Jogeshra v. Durga Prasad Singh, 36 All. 500: 12 A.L.J. 844: 24 I.C. 679.

The valuation for purposes of court-fees is to be determined first and that for the purpose of jurisdiction must follow on the same; but the plaintiff in a suit in which a consequential relief is prayed cannot at one and the same time obtain the services of the highest possible tribunal for the determination of his claim and evade payment of ad valorem court-fees. If for the purposes of jurisdiction he sets a high value on the relief by way of injunction, it is doing him no injustice to hold that "the relief sought" on which court-fees must be levied, is the sum total of the two reliefs, Manni Lal v. Radhey Gopalji, 47 All. 501: 23 A.L.J. 344: 1925 A.I.R. 602 (All.). See also Bal-krishna Narayan v. Jankibai, 44 Bom. 331: 22 Bom.L.R. 289: 57 I.C. 340; Sailendra v. Ram Chandra, 25 C.W.N. 768: 34 C.L.J. 94: 66 I.C. 268.

Order VII, Rule 1, C. P. C. requires that a plaint shall contain a statement of the value of the subject-matter of suit for the purposes of jurisdiction. It is not contemplated that the subject-matter shall have two values, one purely arbitrary and fanciful for the purposes of jurisdiction and one in strict conformity to the real value for the purposes of court-fees. In either case the valuation should conform to reality. Therefore, when a plaint contains a valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction, it is a natural assumption that the same valuation would apply if it were necessary to have a valuation for an ad valorem court-fee. A suit for an injunction and for the appointment of a receiver falls within the purview of section 7, iv (c) of the Court Fees Act, and under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, the value of such a suit for purposes of court-fees and jurisdiction must be the same. If in such a suit the plaint does not state the value put by the plaintiff upon the relief sought, and there is no valuation for the purpose of computing ad valorem court-fees, the value for the purposes of jurisdiction must also be taken to be the value for the purposes of court-fees, Pothi Annapurnayya v. Pothi Nagaratnamma minor by next friend, etc., 92 I.C. 730: 1926 A.I.R. 591 (Mad.).

Although it is for the plaintiff to state the amount at which he values the relief sought, yet, it is open to the Court, if a question be raised as to the true valuation to determine such question and in any event the value sought to be put by the plaintiff must be a reasonable one, but which may not be the value of the properties, Mt. Zalur Bibi v. Sharifuddin Khan, 154 I.C. 850: 1935 A.I.R. 68 (Pat.).

PARAGRAPH V.

Scope.—Suits for possession.—A suit for recovery of property on declaration that a deed of gift which is the basis of the defendant's title is not binding on the plaintiff owing to his minority and for cancellation of the same is really a suit for possession, Afzal Husain v. Shafiqunnessa, 7 O.W.N. 571: 126 I.C. 688: 1930 A.I.R. 368 (Oudh): 1930 I.R. 416 (Oudh).

A suit by a beneficiary under a trust for supplying the want of Bairagis, the plaintiff having an interest in the surplus income to set aside alienations by the trustees by way of mortgage, sale and lease, does not come under Art. 17B of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act (Madras Amendment) but comes under sec. 7, paragraph II of the Court Fees Act and not under sec. 7, iv (c) or sec. 7, para. IX or sec. 7, para. XI of the Court Fees Act, Venkatalal v. Kasaldap Bavaji, 61 M.L.J. 39: 33 L.W. 206: 130 I.C. 449: 1931 A.I.R. 24 (Mad.).

Religious land.—The fact that the land is "religious land" does not make any difference and render it incapable of valuation with reference to the value of similar lands in the neighbourhood and the plaint is to be stamped according to the value of the subject-matter, Maung Meik v. Kumara, 60 Ind. Cas. 5: (1920) 3 U.B.R. 236.

S. 7, paragraph V is applicable to suits for possession of immoveable property and no distinction is made between a suit for possession as a beneficial owner and a suit for possession as a trustee or as manager of a religious endowment. The Legislature has laid down certain rules governing the court-fees payable on suits for possession of immoveable property and there is no justification for interpreting the word 'possession' as meaning possession as a beneficial owner. A suit for possession by a Mohant comes under this clause. The property excluding the math is to be valued at the market price, the math itself having no market value, Parsottamanand Giri v. Mayanand Giri, 54 All. 869: 1932 A.L.J. 777: 142 I.C. 251: 1932 A.I.R. 563 (All.).

A suit for possession may be by a proprietor, under-proprietor, lessee, mortgagee or a tenant. There is no justification for qualifying the word 'possession' by reading into s. 7, paragraph V, the word 'proprietary'. A suit by a subsequent mortgagee to recover possession of certain mortgaged properties consisting of houses, groves, etc., from a prior mortgagee, is a suit for possession when no offer to return the purchase money is made and therefore does not come under s. 7, paragraph IX of the Court Fees Act and the plaint is to be stamped ad valorem on the value of the properties under paragraph V, Sheo Ram Singh v. Barkan Singh, 14 O.L.J. 365: 8 O.W.N. 536: 134 I.C. 596: 1931 A.I.R. 366 (Oudh): 1931 I.R. 389 (Oudh).

A suit to eject an encroacher is within the scope of s. 7 (v) as recovery of possession is an essential element in such a suit, Manikkam Pillai v. N. M. Nagasami Ayyar, (1934) 67 M.L.J. 688: 40 L.W. 718: 1934 M.W.N. 1248: 152 I.C. 679: 1934 A.I.R. 714 (Mad.).

A suit by the manager of a tarwad against a junior member of the tarwad on the ground that the property in question was acquired by that junior member and his brother jointly and on the death of that brother his (half) share has passed to the tarwad and that the junior member is holding that half share of his brother adversely, is a suit for possession and does not fall either under s. 7, iv (b) or under Sch. II, Art. 17 of the Court Fees Act, Kandunni Nair v. Itunni Raman Nair and others, 53 Mad. 540: 58 M.L.J. 497: 31 L.W. 826: 1930 M.W.N. 291: 127 I.C. 128: 1930 A.I.R. 597 (Mad.): 1930 I.R. 944 (Mad.).

Question of title.—A suit for possession on the basis of plaintiff's title as an adopted son, is a mere suit for possession and falls within s. 7, paragraph V of the Court Fees Act as a declaration of title as an adopted son is not claimed and is not necessary, Maung Shein v. Ma Lon Ton, 9 Rang. 401: 134 I.C. 1263: 1931 A.I.R. 319 (Rang.). See Maung Po Lu v. Bank of Chettinad, 1934 A.I.R. 313 (Rang.).

A suit for the relief "that on proof of the plaintiff's right of ownership and of possession, and the invalidity of the sale deed, the plaintiff may be granted actual and proprietary possession of the six annas share by ejectment of the defendant," is a suit for possession and mesne profits and the court-fees are payable under s. 7, v (b) of the Court Fees Act as the lands formed part of a temporarily settled estate, Amir Hasan Khan v. Hafiz Mahammad, 1930 A.L.J. 1100: 128 I.C. 779: 1931 I.R. 107 (All.).

Appeal by the landlord.—The plaintiff claiming a jote right in the land sued defendants 1 and 2 as tenants on the land and defendant no. 3 as the landlord, for recovery of the possession of the jote. The trial Court passed a decree for possession against defendants 2 and 3 but dismissed the suit against defendant no. 1. The landlord (defendant no. 3) filed an appeal in the High Court on a court-fee of Rs. 20 on the ground that he is concerned with a declaration that plaintiff is not his tenant. He was overruled and the High Court held that he must pay court-fees under s. 7, paragraph V as the suit was a suit for recovery of possession, Haladhar Pal Chowdhury v. Sheikh

Mangal Reza, 34 C.W.N. 217: 126 I.C. 777: 1930 A.I.R. 793 (Cal.).

Suits for recovery of possession by landlord.—Where a suit for possession is brought by the landlord against several persons, one being an admitted tenant and as between the others and the landlord, the relationship of landlord and tenant did not exist, the suit against the latter cannot be proceeded with without a declaration of title; the court-fee in the claim against the admitted tenant is ad valorem on one year's rent; Pramatha Nath v. Amiraddin, 24 C.W.N. 151: 55 Ind. Cas. 178.

A suit by an enamdar claiming both melavaram and kudi-varam rights for a declaration of his title and for possession by ejecting the tenants who claim rights of occupancy in the lands, is a suit for declaration with a consequential relief. In re Majumdar Sobhandri Rao Pantulugaru and others, (1932) 56 Mad. 314: 63 M.L.J. 759: 1932 M.W.N. 1197: 36 L.W. 701: 140 I.C. 462: 1933 A.I.R. 42 (Mad.).

Suits for recovery of possession by tenant.—Where the tenant plaintiff sues for recovery of possession of land, and makes the admitted landlord as well as other persons who claim to be tenants under him parties to the suit, the court-fee is to be paid under sec. 7, iv (c) on the valuation of the relief sought. The valuation must not be an arbitrary valuation, Ram Ekbal Singh v. Baldeo Singh and others, 19 C.L.J. 418: 25 Ind. Cas. 507. See also Furzand Ali v. Mohanth Lal, 32 Cal. 268; Ram Raj v. Girnandan, 15 All. 63. Where a suit for possession is brought by the tenant on declaration of his rights as an occupancy raiyat in a garden, the valuation is the value of the interest claimed by the plaintiff and not the entire interest, i.e., the interest of the tenant plus the interest of the landlord, Upendra v. Satcowrie, 23 Ind. Cas. 964.

A suit by a plaintiff alleging that he was a tenant on the land against the landlord and a third person who was in possession of the property, is not a suit between the landlord and the tenant and the court-fees are to be paid under s. 7, v, Musst. Bhagobai Devisingh v. Shiamlal Dwarka Prasad, 1933 A.I.R. 312 (Nag.): 29 N.L.R. 367: 147 I.C. 749.

Application.—The effect of clauses (a) to (d) of this paragraph is confined to the land in respect of which revenue might have been paid but not as regards leasehold lands, Ram Ekbal v. Baldeo Singh, 19 C.L.J. 418: 25 Ind. Cas. 507; Bibi Kulsum v. Muhammad Hamid, 45 Ind. Cas. 928 (Patna); Dhakeswar v. Jiva Chowdhury, 3 Pat.L.J. 448. But see Habibul Hossein v. Mahomed Reja, 8 Cal. 892: 10 C.L.R. 385.

Land.—The word "land" as used in the Court Fees Act, does not include buildings, Durga Singh v. Bisheswar Dayal, 24 All. 218: 28 All. W.N. 27; Dayachand v. Hemchand, 4 Bom. 515.

Trees.—The trees standing on separate items of land need not be separately valued as these are included in the items themselves, Subramania Ayyar v. Rama Ayyar and others, 27 L.W. 489: 105 I.C. 881: 1927 A.I.R. 1002 (Mad.): 54 M.L.J. 67.

Declaration and possession.—See under “declaration and possession” supra and also under “possession” infra.

“The Court is in all cases bound to adjudicate upon the matters in issue between the parties and it is not necessary for the plaintiff to pray that this should be done. The real relief which the plaintiff seeks is the delivery of possession of the property by dispossession of the defendant, and if he asks for a decree in those terms when he is not bound first to ask for a declaration before such relief can be granted, I do not think that, merely because he asks the Court to adjudicate upon the matters in issue, the suit should be treated as a suit to obtain a declaratory decree with consequential relief,” Ramsumran Prasad v. Govind Das, 2 Pat. 125: 1922 Pat. C.W.N. 291: 3 P.L.T. 704: 1 Pat.L.R. 1: 68 I.C. 700: 1922 A.I.R. 615 (Pat.) F.B.

Even where the suit was one for a declaratory decree and also for possession, then the suit for possession having been specifically provided for by s. 7, paragraph V, the suit is to be valued accordingly and court-fees paid under the provisions of that sub-section. Venkatasiva Rao v. Venkatanarasinha, 63 M.L.J. 764: 36 L.W. 225: 1932 M.W.N. 992: 139 I.C. 17: 1932 A.I.R. 605 (Mad.): 1932 I.R. 643 (Mad.).

Suit by a succeeding administrator.—A decree on award having been passed against an administrator at the instance of the creditor of the estate represented by the administrator, the decree-holder in execution of the decree put up a property to sale and purchased it himself with the sanction of the Court. A succeeding administrator brought a suit to set aside the decree and the sale in execution thereof on the ground that under section 282 of the Succession Act (Act X of 1865), the decree-holder was only entitled to a rateable distribution among the creditors of the estate; held, that the case fell under section 7, paragraph V of the Court Fees Act, Bai Meherbai v. Magan-chand, 29 Bom. 96: 6 Bom.L.R. 853.

Raiyat at fixed rates.—A suit to eject a tenant at fixed rates is a suit for possession within this paragraph and the valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction and court-fees is the value of the subject-matter of suit, i.e., the tenant-right and not of the land itself nor one year's rent, Ram Raj Tewari v. Girnandan, 15 All. 63: (1892) 12 All. W.N. 240.

When a landlord claims to eject a tenant, he claims to recover the tenant-right in the holding, and the stamp duty chargeable on the plaint, should be determined with reference to the market-value of that right, Ajodhya v. Daibee, 3 Agra 5. But see Kebul Ram Mundul v. W. S. Wells, 24 W.R. 454, where it was held that the stamp is to be paid on the valuation by the plaintiff.

Where ejectment is asked for breach of the covenant, and the title of the plaintiff, as appearing from the plaint, is complete the court-fee payable is as in a suit for possession under section 7 (v) to be ascertained by reference to sub-clause (e) of the same clause, Mahomed Ibrahim Shahib Khatun v. Bhyameah A. Ismailyi, 1 L.B.R. 303. But see sec. 7 (xi) (cc) for cases of ejectment of tenants by landlords and of tenants holding over after expiry of the period of written lease, and the cases noted there.

Milkiat and Khudkast.—A claim for possession of Milkiat does not include a claim for possession of the Khudkast. The test is "would the plaintiff be entitled to the direct possession of Khudkast lands in a suit for possession of Milkiat share?If the claim for possession of Milkiat shares included the claim for the possession of Khudkast lands then clearly there was no necessity for asking for any relief in respect of the Khudkast land." The result is that where the claim for khudkast land is not included in the claim for Milkiat shares then the claim as to khudkast lands should be separately valued and ad valorem court-fees paid on that valuation, Raghubans Narain Singh v. Khub Lal Singh, 80 I.C. 439: 6 Pat.L.T. 255.

Suit by a lessee.—Where the lessee sues for possession of land comprised in the lease but of which possession is not given, the suit is not a suit for specific performance of contract but is governed by section 7, paragraph V of the Court Fees Act, Ghulam Sabir v. Narain Prasad, (1908), 28 All.W.N. 201: 5 All.L.J. 534.

Suit for possession by mortgagee.—A suit for possession by a mortgagee by conditional sale, claiming to have foreclosed the mortgage under Regulation xcii of 1806, is a suit for possession, Tellu Mal v. Lal Singh, 20 P.R. 1893.

Section 7, v (d) applies to a suit by the usufructuary mortgagee to recover possession of the property, and the property is to be valued at the market value, which means in such cases the mortgagee's interest in the property, i.e., the amount of mortgage-money, Mahdi v. Gajadhar, 73. Ind. Cas. 244: 1924 A.I.R. (Oudh) 163.

Suit for possession by parties who were not parties to the mortgage deed.—A suit by persons not parties to the mortgage bond on the ground that the mortgagor has mortgaged properties in excess of his share in the properties and consequently the mortgagee auction purchaser is entitled to all the properties mortgaged and for recovery of their share in the properties is a suit for possession of those properties, Musst. Shahar Bano Begum v. Raj Bahadur Singh, 1933 A.I.R. 505 (Oudh): 149 I.C. 1138.

Redemption and possession.—Where the suit is one for possession but the Court allowed redemption on payment of a certain sum due as mortgage money, the nature of the suit is not thereby changed, Purna Singh v. Kesar Singh, 39 P.R. 1907: 119 P.L.R. 1907; but when the mortgagor asks for redemption and possession in a suit for cancellation of the mortgage deed and possession, the suit comes under section 7, paragraph ix of the Court Fees Act, Karaman Singh v. Norman Cockell, 1 C.W.N. 670.

Valuation.—Valuation for jurisdiction in a suit for possession after a decree for foreclosure in a mortgage by conditional sale is not to be calculated under the Court Fees Act, Ahalyabai Debye v. Shama Charan Bose, 1 C.L.R. 473.

Suit for partition and separate possession.—Suit for partition and separate possession of joint family property comes under this paragraph according to Bombay High Court. It is the market value of the land and houses that determines jurisdiction, Dagdu v. Totaram, 11 Bom.L.R. 1074: 33 Bom. 658.

Suit by reversioners.—A suit by a reversioner on the death of a Hindu widow to recover possession of immoveable property, which was in his possession as a limited owner, is a suit for possession only although the plaint contained a prayer for declaration that the lease is not binding upon him as the institution of the suit indicates his election to treat it as a nullity, Bijoy Gopal Mookherjee v. Krishna Mahini Debi, (1907) 34 I.A. 87: 34 Cal. 329: 4 A.L.J. 329: 9 Bom.L.R. 602: 11 C.W.N. 424: 5 C.L.J. 334: 17 M.L.J. 154; Ramakrishnayya v. Peda Sheshamma, 41 L.W. 488: 1935 M.W.N. 406: 1935 A.I.R. 346 (Mad.).

Specific performance and possession.—The plaint in a suit for specific performance of contract and possession should be stamped under section 7, paragraph V according to the value of the subject-matter, Madan Mohan Singh v. Gaja Prasad Singh, 14 C.L.J. 159: 11 Ind. Cas. 228.

The plaintiff sued for recovery of possession of a mine, for mesne profits and damages alleging that she is a transferee from the grantee from the mother of the 1st defendant, who has since then entered into an agreement with other persons, whom he had authorised to enter upon the land, to grant them a lease. The plaintiff was unable to obtain possession of the property claimed by her, and her suit was in substance a suit for possession, held that the suit fell under section 7, paragraph V and not under section 7, paragraph XI (e) or under section 7, iv (c) of this Act, Sundar Lal Marwari v. Jessie Caroline Murray, 16 C.L.J. 375: 16 Ind. Cas. 963.

Where the plaintiff alleged that the defendant agreed to sell certain land to him and had received part of the consideration money and the present suit is one for possession of the land and also that the defendant may be ordered to execute a sale deed and have it registered on receipt of the balance of the consideration. Held, that the suit is one for possession and other prayers are ancillary to that prayer and the court-fee is payable under section 7, paragraph V of the Court Fees Act, Gopal Das v. Parmanand, 60 Ind. Cas. 512; Nihal Singh v. Sewa Ram, 38 All. 292: 14 All.L.J. 434: 55 Ind. Cas. 275: Nathe Khan v. Muhammad Khan, 128 P.W.R. 1918: 46 Ind. Cas. 534. See also cases noted under "specific performance and possession" infra.

Valuation.—Declaration and possession.—The plaint in a suit for declaration and possession is to be stamped and valued under this paragraph as the suit for possession has been specifically provided for under this paragraph, Venkatasiva Rao v. Venkatanarasimha, 56 Mad. 212: 63 M.L.J. 764: 36 L.W. 225: 1932 M.W.N. 992: 139 I.C. 317: 1932 A.I.R. 605 (Mad.): 1932 I.R. 643 (M.).

Suits by reversioners.—The valuation for jurisdiction in a suit for possession by a limited reversioner against another limited owner in possession of immoveable property, in relation to property alienated by the latter, is the market value of the property alienated, Dhanabaggiammal v. Mari Ammal and others, 36 L.W. 483: 1932 M.W.N. 780: 1932 A.I.R. 671 (Mad.): 139 I.C. 471: 1932 A.I.R. 671 (Mad.).

Value of improvements.

Appeal.—Where the tenant-right was valued at Rs. 50 and the tenant claimed Rs. 500 as value of the improvements which claim was disallowed, held in an appeal by the tenant for compensation only, the memorandum is to be stamped as in a suit for possession of land, and that the claim for improvements was not the subject-matter of suit but merely incidental to the proceedings, Reference under Court Fees Act, 23 Mad. 84.

A memorandum of appeal by the defendants in an ejectment suit against the refusal of the lower Court to grant them compensation for buildings, was stamped in the same way as the plaint of the plaintiffs claiming ejectment. On objection the High Court held that as the memorandum is not confined to the question of compensation only but also raised the question of title also, the subject-matter in dispute is the claim for possession and the fee paid is sufficient, Pathumma Umma v. Mohideen, 110 I.C. 752: 1928 A.I.R. 929 (M.).

Reversioners.—A suit by reversioner for possession of land, after a decree declaring their right to the possession of the land, on the death of the alienor, requires to be valued for the jurisdiction and court fee on the market value of the land. No additional court-fees need be paid for the value of the buildings put up by the alienees as the reversioners are entitled to ignore the buildings and leave to the alienees to remove them in the way they like, Durga Das v. Nihal Chand, 110 I.C. 319: 1928 A.I.R. 852 (Lah.).

Clause (a).—Application.—A plaintiff cannot avail himself of Clause (a) of paragraph V of section 7 of the Court Fees Act unless he brings his case strictly within its terms, and for that purpose the determining factor is the land in suit and not a larger property in which it may be included. The lands must further be recorded in the Collector's register as separately assessed with revenue, within the meaning of clause (a) of para. (v) of section 7, Chandra Narayan Singh v. Ashutosh Deo, 41 Cal. 812: 18 C.W.N. 659: 19 C.L.J. 342: 23 Ind. Cas. 89.

Cl. (a) will apply only to a suit where the prayer is for possession of a half, one-third or any other fractional share of the entire estate and will not apply to a suit for a plot of land in the estate, Kandasami Goundan v. Subbai Goundan, 46 M.L.J. 345: 1927 M.W.N. 338: 34 M.L.T. 92: 77 Ind. Cas. 781: 1924 A.I.R. 646 (Mad.).

Collector's register.—In Punjab the jamabandi should be treated as Collector's Register for purposes of court-fees, Muhir Ahmad v. Azim Bakhsh, 37 P.L.R. 41: 1935 A.I.R. 331 (Lah.).

Bagayat land.—Paying revenue to Government should be valued, for the purposes of court-fees under Clause (a) and not under Clause (e) of this paragraph, Raghu v. Tellapa, 1884 P.J. 50.

The conversion of an assessed arable land into a cocoanut ~~tope~~ does not make section 7 (v) (a) inapplicable and the trees standing thereon should not be separately valued, Kullappa Gounder v. Abdul Rahim Sahib, 40 Mad. 824: 5 L.W. 270: 21 M.L.J. 251: 39 Ind. Cas. 254. Growing cocoanuts on a rice field must be taken to be an election by the tenant to raise that particular kind of crop, Venkayya v. Ramasami, 22 Mad. 39: 8

M.L.J. 278; Murugesu Chetti v. Chima Thambi Goundan, 24 Mad. 421.

Definite share of an estate.—A definite share does not mean a definite share separately assessed with revenue. When land which is the subject-matter of a suit is a definite share (such as five annas) of an estate paying annual revenue to Government, the court-fee should be fixed on the value mentioned, i.e., ten times the proportionate revenue payable annually. It is true that the second part of cl. (a) contemplates land which is part of a permanently-settled estate, such part having been separately assessed by the Collector with annual revenue. If the Legislature had intended that the definite share mentioned in the 1st part of cl. (a) must be also a definite share separately assessed with revenue by the Collector, as in the second part of that clause, it would have said so, Buniad Lal v. Shyam Lal, 12 C.W.N. 990, but in Chandra Narayan v. Ashutosh, 41 Cal. 812: 18 C.W.N. 659: 19 C.L.J. 342: 28 I.C. 89, the above view was not accepted.

Definite share in a subordinate tenure.—The plaint in a suit by a subordinate tenureholder to recover possession of a definite share in a permanently-settled area, should be stamped according to clause (a) of paragraph (v) of section 7, Habibul Hossein v. Mahomed Reza, 8 Cal. 892: 10 C.L.R. 385.

A share in an under-proprietary-tenure in a permanently-settled village, is a definite share of the estate as a whole and the court-fee payable in a suit for possession of such share is to be calculated on ten times the revenue payable on the share in suit. The Judicial Commissioner said: "who pays the Revenue to Government is immaterial for the purpose of determining the court-fees payable on such a claim....." "the 5 annas 4 pies share of the subject-matter (the under-tenure) is certainly a definite share of the estate as a whole which pays annual revenue to Government, and as such revenue is permanently settled, it follows that the amount of the court-fees payable by the plaintiff in this suit must be calculated with reference to ten times the revenue payable," Swaminath v. Jang Bahadur Sing, 24 O.C. 39: 7 O.L.J. 403: 58 Ind. Cas. 132 (133). See contra—Bibi Kulsum v. Muhammad Hamid, 45 Ind. Cas. 928 (Patna).

Clause (b).—Fractional share.—When a part of an estate paying annual revenue to Government under a settlement which is not permanent, is recorded in the Collector's register as separately assessed with such revenue, the value of the subject-matter of a suit for the possession, or to enforce a right of pre-emption in respect of a fractional share of that part, shall, for the purpose of computation of the amount of court-fee payable in the suit, be deemed not to exceed five times the revenue separately assessed on that part as may be rateably payable in respect of the same, Government of India Notification, No. 1746, dated 4th April, 1889. See also Reference under the Court Fees Act, 16 All. 493 (494, 495): 1894 A.W.N. 174; Chandhan v. Bishan Singh, (1911) 33 All. 630.

The fractional share of an estate covers the claim for a definite area within a survey chamber, Subramania Aiyar v. Rama Ayyar and others, 105 I.C. 881: 1927 A.I.R. 1002 (M.): 54 M.L.J. 67: 27 L.W. 489, dissenting from 16 All. 493 and 33 All. 630.

Definite share of an estate.—In a Bhaiya chera village the plaintiff sued to pre-empt certain plots of lands measuring half a kata paying revenue to Government. Held, that the property sold was a definite share of an estate paying revenue to Government and the court-fee payable was under section 7 (v) (b) of the Court Fees Act, Zaharia v. Gopal, 3 A.L.J. 511: (1906) 26 A.W.N. 195.

In a suit for declaration of right to land and possession of definite shares of estate paying an annual revenue to Government but not permanently, the plaint is to be stamped with a court-fee calculated on five times the revenue payable in respect of the share, Ishri Dial v. Kishen Das, 1 A.W.N. 5.

Khata.—A khewat khata is not a 'definite share' of an estate, as it is not a 'definite share' of the mahal. It is merely a part of the mahal, but not a fractional share or definite share of the mahal, although it is assessed with a definite share of the revenue assessed upon the mahal. It follows that a fractional share of a "khewat khata" is not a 'definite share' of an estate. So if the suit were for the possession of an entire khewat khata the court-fee would be payable ad valorem under sec. 7 (v) (b) upon five times the revenue assessed upon the khata, a suit for fractional share of khewat khata comes under sec. 7 (v) (d) of the Court Fees Act and ad valorem court-fees on the market value are to be paid, Musst. Haliman v. Musst. Mediya, 55 All. 531: 1933 A.L.J. 398: 1933 A.I.R. 414 (All.): 145 I.C. 332.

In a suit for possession of a khata jointly with the defendant, the entire khata being part of revenue paying estate and recorded in the Collector's Register as separately assessed with revenue, the value of the suit must be deemed to be five times the revenue payable on the khata, Ganda Mal v. Musst. Mahato, 1878 P.R. 67.

The plaint in a suit for possession of under-proprietary rights in plots forming separate *khata*s in themselves, which must be taken to be separately assessed with Government revenue when they are so assessed with rent, which the khatas as a whole are liable to pay to the superior proprietor, is to be stamped as if the khatas were separately assessed with revenue, Mahomed Hanif v. Gobardhan Das, 7 O.W.N. 956: 128 I.C. 286: 1930 A.I.R. 520 (Oudh): 1931 I.R. 46 (Oudh).

Application.—As to mokrari lease of a definite share, this sub-section does not apply, Bibi Kulsum v. Muhammad Hamid, 45 I.C. 928 (Patna).

Where entire field plots are separately assessed to revenue then section 7 (v) (b) applies, Ma Shin v. Maung Hman and others, 1924 A.I.R. 102 (R.): 79 I.C. 579: Maung Po Lu v. Bank of Chettinad, 1934 A.I.R. 313 (Rang.).

A suit for possession of land assessed to revenue by setting aside the sale in favour of the defendant, falls under section 7 (v) (b) of the Court Fees Act, Sarju and another v. Sheoraj, 94 I.C. 179: 1926 A.I.R. 380 (Oudh): 13 O.L.J. 124.

Inam Lands.—Where inam lands were for a long time treated as ryotwari land but after the institution of the suit by the plaintiffs for possession, were recorded as inam lands. Held, that the valuation is to be on the basis that the lands are ryotwari lands at five times the revenue payable under section 7 (v) (b) of the Court Fees Act, Narayani Mandal v. Secretary of State, 41 Ind. Cas. 167.

Reversioners.—A suit by Hindu reversioners, asking that a sale deed be declared null and void as against them and that possession of the property be given to them, is an ordinary suit for possession of property and the court-fee payable thereon is to be calculated ad valorem on five times the Government Revenue, as it is not necessary for the plaintiffs to ask for any declaration, Tika Ram v. Salig Ram, 18 A.L.J. 903: 57 Ind. Cas. 494: but see Chandan v. Bishun Singh, 8 A.L.J. 798.

Clause (c).—Application.—Before a party can rely upon clause (c) of paragraph (v) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act, he must establish that the land in suit pays no revenue, permanently or temporarily settled thereon, or has been partially exempted from such payment or is charged with a fixed payment in lieu of such revenue, Chandra Narayan Singh v. Ashutosh Deo, 41 Cal. 812: 18 C.W.N. 659: 19 C.L.J. 342: 23 Ind. Cas. 89. See also Chandra Sekhar v. Thakurji Maharaj, (1935) A.L.J. 548.

Paramba in Malabar.—“In Malabar the assessment is levied upon the cocoanut, areca or jack trees which grow in parambas. If a paramba contains no cocoanut, areca or jack trees, no assessment is charged. In fact in Malabar a tree tax is substituted for the land assessment, and whether or not a paramba is assessed depends upon the nature of the trees grown therein. It is, therefore, evident that parambas should either be classed as lands paying no revenue or as gardens..... We are of opinion that the term refers primarily to garden in English sense, ornamental or pleasure or vegetable, and that parambas do not ordinarily come under that category..... The Acting District Judge will be informed that in case of parambas the amount of fees payable under Act VII of 1870, is to be computed either under sub-section (c) or (e) of section 7, clause (v) according to the circumstances of each case," Audathodan Moidin v. Pullambath Mamally, 12 Mad. 301.

When the plaintiff sued for possession of colony land and stamped the plaint with a court-fee calculated on five times the revenue it was held that court-fees should be paid on the market value of the land and valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction should be at the same figure, Wasawa Ram v. Bahadur Chand, 194 P.L.R. 1914: 25 I.C. 24.

Land subject to fluctuating assessment.—In a suit for possession of land subject to a fluctuating assessment, the court-fee payable is governed, not by clause (b) or clause (d) but by the clause (c) of section 7, paragraph (v) of the Court Fees Act, Mahna Singh v. Bahadur Singh, 100 P.R. 1919: 50 Ind. Cas. 142.

"Such Revenue."—The words "such revenue" mean "annual revenue payable to Government."—Ibid.

The year next before the date of presenting the plaint.—Means a period of 365 days reckoned backwards from the date of presentation of the plaint, Ghasi Ram v. Har Govinda, 28 All. 411: 3 A.L.J. 244: 26 A.W.N. 66. See Chandra Sekhar v. Thakurji Maharaj, (1935) A.L.J. 548 where the year was calculated according to the Fasli year according to which the revenue was payable.

Clause (d). Not a definite share of an estate.—The principle seems to be that if the suit be not for a definite share, say a fourth or a fifth share, of a separately assessed estate, then the court-fees payable is to be valuated on 5 times the revenue assessed on that share, but if the suit be for distinct plots and not a definite share then the court-fee is to be paid on the market value of the share, Reference under the Court Fees Act, 1870, section 5, 16 All. 493: 13 A.W.N. 174.

Where the subject-matter of suit consists of individual field plots forming a part of the holding but not separately assessed nor an entire holding or a definite share of a holding, the court-fees are to be assessed under section 7 (v) (d) and not under section 7 (v) (b) of the Court Fees Act, Ma Sha Ma v. L. S. M. Somasundaram Chetti, 75 Ind. Cas. 217: 1923 A.I.R. 246

(Rang.); Ma Shin v. Maung Hman, 79 I.C. 579: 1923 A.I.R. 102 (R.).

In a suit to recover possession of specific plots of land not constituting a definite share of a distinct revenue-paying area and not being separately assessed with revenue, the court-fees should be assessed on the market value of the land in suit, Godavarthi Mangamma v. Gadavarthi Sundaramma, 19 M.L.T. 226: (1916) M.W.N. 325: 33 Ind. Cas. 683.

A suit by a ryot against another ryot for possession of a plot of land forming part of a Zemindary estate is governed by sub-clause (d) of clause (v) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act. Where a Court finds that a suit valued under clause (a) falls under clause (d) of paragraph (v) of sec. 7 of the Court Fees Act, it should call upon the plaintiff to state what the market value of the land is and after determining the market value should order the plaintiff to pay the proper court-fees and fix the time for payment and in case of failing to pay to reject the plaint, Kandasamy v. Subbai, 77 Ind. Cas. 781: 46 M.L.J. 345: 1924 M.W.N. 338: 34 M.L.T. 92: 1924 A.I.R. 646 (Mad.).

The court-fee payable in respect of a suit for recovery of land forming part of an entire area, but neither sub-divided nor separately assessed to land revenue, must be computed on the market value of the land sued for under section 7 (v) (d) of the Court Fees Act, Godavarthy Sundaramma v. Godavarthy Mangamma, 34 M.L.J. 538: 47 Ind. Cas. 543: 8 L.W. 88.

A suit for a share in a specific plot of land which is not separately assessed to revenue, is governed by s. 7, para. 5, cl. (d) of the Court Fees Act and the court-fees payable will be ad valorem on the market-value of the land which for the purpose of jurisdiction will be governed by rules framed by the Local Government, Rajwant Singh v. Mutalli, 116 I.C. 209: 1930 A.I.R. 182 (Lah.).

Valuation.—A suit by a person for possession as a quondam owner of land and not for a declaration as to land, is to be valued at 30 times the assessment on the land for the purpose of jurisdiction, Khuda Baksh and another v. Ahmad and others, 1930 A.I.R. 18 (Lah.): 120 I.C. 794.

Construction of cl. (d).—In Buniad Lal v. Shyam Lal, 12 C.W.N. 990, the Calcutta High Court said, “clause (d) is in two parts but those parts are linked together by conjunction ‘and’—therein differing from cl. (a) which uses the disjunctive ‘or’.” The principle underlying the distinction between the two clauses seems to be that the court-fees must be paid on the market value of the distinct plots because they may be the most valuable part of the estate and the rule of proportion not having been applied by the Collector cannot be invoked by the owner.” But see contra—Chandra Narayan v. Ashutosh, 41 Cal. 812: 18 C.W.N. 659: 19 C.L.J. 342: 23 I.C. 89.

Market Value.—The expression “market value” in section 7 (v) (d) means market value of the subject-matter in dispute. The “market value” of a suit for possession by a usufructuary mortgagee is the mortgage money, Madhi v. Gajadhar, 73 Ind. Cas. 244. See also Raja Gopala Naidu v. Ramasubramania Aiyar, 46 Mad. 782: 45 M.L.J. 274: 1923 M.W.N. 550: 74 Ind. Cas. 198: 18 L.W. 326: 1924 A.I.R. 19 (Madras) F.B.

Reversioners.—When the reversioners sued for specific plots of land totalling 11 bighas and 77 biswas of land out of 17 bighas of land assessed with a revenue of Rs. 19-7-0 but did not sue as two-third share of the said 17 bighas, held that court-fee should be paid on the market value of the land and not on 5 (five) times the revenue payable, Chandan v. Bishun Singh, 8 A.L.J. 798. Where the subject-matter is not a definite share, the court-fees must be calculated under section 7 (v) (d), Musst, Jian v. Musst. Nadir Nishan, 6 P.R. (1883).

For court-fees payable, see Government Notification, dated 10th September 1889, No. 4650, clause 18 in the Appendix.

Ghatwali Lands.—In a suit for recovery of possession of five Ghatwali Mahals where the property in suit consisted of five Ghatwali Mahals, and was included in an aggregate of 52 Ghatwali Mahals for which a sum of Rs. 16,183 was payable annually as sudder jama, no apportionment of this sum was made with reference to the several tenures. It appeared from the Collector's Register that a sum of Rs. 22,494 was collected by Government from 52 Ghatwali Mahals out of which the Government retained a sum of Rs. 16,183 on account of sudder jama and paid the balance to the zemindar within whose estate the Ghatwali land was originally comprised. The collections from the five Ghatwali Mahals in suit amounted to Rs. 3,748-12-8. Held, that Clause (d) in paragraph V of section 7 of the Court Fees Act was applicable and the value of the subject-matter was the market value; that the sum of Rs. 3,748-12-8 was not the revenue payable in respect of those five Ghatwali Mahals; that even if the disputed land was deemed as part of revenue paying estate, it was not recorded in the Collectors' Register as separately assessed with revenue within the meaning of clauses (a) of paragraph V of section 7 of the Court Fees Act, Chandra Narayan Singh v. Ashutosh Deo, 41 Cal. 812: 18 C.W.N. 659: 19 C.L.J. 342: 23 Ind. Cas. 89.

The plaint in a suit to recover possession of a Ghatwali tenure which is not a definite share of an estate paying revenue to Government, is to be stamped with court-fees ad valorem on the market value of the lands, Jogendra Narayan Singh and another v. Radha Prasad Singh, 13 P.L.T. 590: 140 I.C. 817: 1932 A.I.R. 319 (Patna).

Indigo factory.—In suits to recover indigo factory court-fees are payable on the market value of the buildings and not according to the value of the site, Durga Singh v. Bisheshar Dayal, 24 All. 218: 22 A.W.N. 27.

In a suit for recovery of certain land after removing the building, illegally erected thereon, by the defendant, the value of the land alone will be taken into account and not the value of the building, Ramaswami v. Gundappa, 7 M.L.J. 49. See also Muthu Namasivayalla v. Subramania, 24 M.L.J. 37.

But if there be permanent structures which are not sought to be demolished then the value of the house must be taken into account, Nihalchand v. Uday Ram, 1886 A.W.N. 106.

Temple.—An ancient temple devoted absolutely and in perpetuity to religious purposes has no market value and there cannot be any market value at all. Therefore suits relating to such temples come under Sch. II, Art. 17 (vi) of the Court Fees Act and has to be dealt with as a matter "not otherwise provided for." It is doubtful whether such a temple can be considered to be a house, Rajagopala Naidu v. Ramasubramania Ayyar, I.L.R. 46 Mad. 782 (789, 790): 45 M.L.J. 274: 1923 M.W.N. 550: 18 L.W. 326: 33 M.L.T. 21: 74 I.C. 198: 1924 A.I.R. 19 (Madras).

Proviso 1.—The three clauses of the proviso seem to apply only to lands which have been subjected to a survey settlement as ordinarily understood and legally provided for in the Bombay Presidency; the first clause being applicable to land settled for a period not exceeding thirty years, the second to lands settled for a longer period or permanently, and the third to inam (alienated) lands on which the whole or a part of the survey assessment has been expressly remitted, per Birdwood J. in Alachela v. Oghadbhai Thakersi, 11 Bom. 541 (549) (F.B.).

Khoti estate is an estate paying revenue to Government upon which an assessment is temporarily settled, and a suit for its recovery should be assessed at eight times the annual assessment under Act XXVI of 1867, Schedule B, Art. II, Note (a), Special Rule 1, for the Bombay Presidency, Ex parte Vithal, 4 Bom. H.C.A.C. 148.

Proviso 3.—Proviso 3 to paragraph V of section 7 has reference only to the rate of remission at the date of suit. It has no reference to remissions previously made, but no longer existing, Balvant Ram Chandra v. The Secretary of State, (1905) 29 Bom. 480: 7 Bom.L.R. 497:

The proprietor of a talukdari village who had, under a settlement from Government for a period of twenty-two years, agreed to pay an annual jama of graduated assessment instead of full survey assessment of the whole village, sued for possession of 353 acres and 2 grantees of land and claimed Rs. 2,100 as mesne profits and obtained a decree; against this the defendant appealed to the High Court valuing his claim at Rs. 151-0-9 for the portion of land decreed. On the report of the taxing officer, held by the majority of the Full Bench, that the difference in amount between the jama and the full survey assessment was a remission, and therefore a suit for possession of lands in this village was to be valued according to clause 3 of the proviso to Article V of section 7 of the Court Fees Act (VII of 1870), Alachela v. Oghadbbhai Thakersi, F.R. 11 Bom. 541 (548).

The remission contemplated by clause 3 of the proviso is an express remission, and not a mere difference in amount between actual assessment payable by talukdar and the survey assessment, Bavaji Mohanji v. Pemjabhai Hambhai, 1881 P.J. 177: 11 Bom. 550 (notes).

Clause (e).—Suit for the possession of a house.—Ad valorem court-fee should be levied on the value of the house and not on its rent, In the Goods of Ram Chandra Das, 9 B.L.R. 30: 18 W.R. 153. In a suit for possession the valuation would be the market value of the house, Parsick v. Parsick, 72 P.R. 1899. See also Abdur Rahman v. Charagdin, 19 P.R. 1908: 129 P.L.R. 1908: 38 P.W.R. 1908 F.B. But this was before the amendment in 1905 by cl. (xi) (cc) was inserted. See also cases under paragraph XI (cc) of section 7, Sundar Das v. Musst. Umda Jan, 82 I.C. 614: 1924 A.I.R. 1 (Lahore).

The plaintiff brought a suit on the ground that the defendants are licensee-tenants-at-will of the house they are residing in but the house really belongs to her and she had served a notice on them to quit but they have set up an oral gift by her to them and refuses to vacate the house; that they may be ordered to vacate the house and garden in suit. The trial Court held that the suit is a suit for declaration with a consequential relief and that ad valorem court-fee is payable on the value of the house and garden which it found to be in excess of the valuation made by the plaintiff and returned the plaint. The lower appellate Court affirmed this decision on appeal. The High Court in revision held that the suit as framed is a suit for ejectment. The prayer for determination of plaintiff's title was only incidentally made in the plaint. The court-fee is payable in accordance with the market value of the subject-matter of the suit. The subject-matter is the right to eject the defendants and the value of that right is the value at which the defendant's right to remain in the house under license is valued, Musst. Barkatunnisa v. Musst. Kaniz Fatima, I.L.R. 5 Patna 631: 98 I.C. 817: 1927 A.I.R. 140 (Patna).

A suit to recover a building site, which was granted by the Collector and subsequently cancelled after the plaintiff has begun to build upon it, is a suit for the house and the site and the court-fees in such a case are to be assessed under s. 7, v (e) of the Court Fees Act upon the market value of the land and such part of the building as was already built by the plaintiff and not under s. 7, v (a) of the Court Fees Act merely on the revenue assessed upon the site. Per Rupchand A. J. C.—The word 'house' means a building used as a dwelling place and includes the land on which such building is erected, Mahomed Taher v. Pir Bux, 130 I.C. 550: 1931 A.I.R. 6 (Sind): 1931 I.R. 38 (Sind).

Garden.—For suits for possession of a garden by a tenant on declaration of his occupancy right, see Upendra Chandra Mitra v. Satcouri Dhar, 23 Ind. Cas. 964, supra.

A garden primarily means an ornamental or pleasure or vegetable garden, yet it is a question of fact which must be decided in each case, Audathodan Moidin v. Pullambath Mamally, 12 Mad. 301.

A few isolated trees on a piece of land will not make it a garden, but where a number of trees are planted on a particular piece of land which is well defined and can be marked off from the rest of the land, it is difficult to see why the particular plot should not be treated as a garden, if the land is used for cultivation of flowers, fruits or vegetables. In suits in respect of land on which cocoanut trees have been planted, the question whether it is a garden or not and whether for the purpose of determination of jurisdiction it fell under paragraph (v) (c) or (v) (e) is a question of fact to be determined on the evidence in each case. Whether the land is assessed or unassessed it will fall under paragraph (v) (e) if it is a garden, Abdul Rahim Shahib v. Kullappa Gounden, 18 M.L.T. 243 reversed on appeal in Kullappa Gounden v. Abdul Rahim Shahib, 40 Mad. 824: 5 L.W. 270: 21 M.L.T. 251: 39 Ind. Cas. 254, where it was held that a garden means an ornamental or pleasure or vegetable garden and the fact that cocoanut trees were planted does not make it a garden.

In a suit for land though assessed with land revenue forming a garden and two houses, the valuation for the purposes of court-fees is governed by section 7, paragraph (v) (c) of the Court Fees Act and is not to be arrived at either for the purpose of court-fees or for jurisdiction by the artificial 30 times jama rule, Musst. Bhag Bhari v. Jowahir Singh, 25 Ind. Cas. 545: 71 P.R. 1914: 241 P.L.R. 1914: 155 P.W.R. 1914.

A fruit garden would be a "garden" even though the land is assessed with revenue, Siri Dhar v. Amar Nath, 34 P.W.R. 1908: 61 P.L.R. 1908: 146 P.R. 1908.

A suit for a parcel of land coming within the meaning of the expression "garden" requires court-fees as provided in sec. 7, paragraph (v), clause (e) of the Court Fees Act although the land may be assessed for Government revenue, Hakim Bibi v. Mir Ahmad, 24 S.L.R. 24: 117 I.C. 781: 1930 A.I.R. 15 (Sind).

Trees.—The trees standing on specific items claimed in the plant need not be separately valued. They are included in the valuation of the item, Subramania Ayyar v. Rama Ayyar and others, 105 I.C. 881: 1927 A.I.R. 1002 (Mad.): 54 M.L.J. 67: 27 L.W. 489.

PARAGRAPH VI.

Valuation.—The valuation is to be computed in accordance with paragraph (v) of this section, Sunder Singh v. Dhian Singh, 15 P.R. 1919.

The valuation of a suit for pre-emption of land of the description falling under section 7, v (d) of the Court Fees Act, the valuation for court-fees and jurisdiction is to be determined with reference to the market value of the land at the date of sale and not at the date of institution of suit. (The cases of Sundar Das v. Sham Singh, 74 P.R. 1875; Fazl v. Godar Khan, 161 P.R. 1883 dist. on the ground that in those cases the claim for value of improvement had to be considered and the pre-emptor had to pay the value of the improvements in addition to the value of the property sold at the time of sale), Sher Muhammad v. Ahmad Said and others, 69 Ind. Cas. 650: (1924) A.I.R. 380 (Lahore).

The valuation of a suit to enforce a right to pre-empt is, in accordance with section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, that fixed in the manner provided by sec. 7 (v) of the Court Fees Act, Narayan Nair v. Cheri Katiri Kutty, 34 M.L.J. 397: 45 Ind. Cas. 89.

Valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction.—In a pre-emption suit, the subject-matter is the right of pre-emption, the value of which, and not that of the property itself, determines the question of jurisdiction under section 20, Act IV of 1871 (Bengal Civil Courts Act), Nanu Singh v. Rash Behari Singh, 13 Cal. 255.

Valuation for the purpose of court-fee.—"The bill, as first amended, imposed a fixed charge of Rs. 10 on suits relating to rights of pre-emption. The effect of that provision would be to reverse the existing practice, under which such suits were assessed according to the value of the property regarding which a right of pre-emption was claimed. Further consideration of the matter had led to the conclusion that this practice was in accordance with the principle adopted throughout the Bill; that the valuation of the suits would be regulated by the value of the subject-matter actually in dispute, and should therefore be maintained. In the cases referred to, the subject-matter was in fact the possession of the property which the litigants claimed a right to purchase, and the application of the above-mentioned principle to such cases was in no way barred or affected by the circumstances that one or other of the disputing parties had to pay a certain amount to a third person as a preliminary condition to obtaining the actual possession of the property to which the suit has reference." Gazette of India, Supplement, dated 12th March, 1870.

In a suit for pre-emption in respect of separate plots of land, which did not constitute any definite portion of a distinct revenue-paying area, and were not themselves separately assessed with revenue, the court-fee should be paid on the market value of the land in suit and not as the case where the suit is for a definite fractional share, on five times the Government-revenue. See Government of India Notification, dated 10th September, 1889. No. 4650, Clause 18 in the Appendix.

In a suit for pre-emption the court-fee payable is to be calculated on ten times the land revenue assessed on the land and has no connection with the sale price of the land or any encumbrance thereon, Chandji Ram and others v. Ram Sukh and others, 1933 A.I.R. 767 (Lah.): 35 P.L.R. 26: 147 I.C. 29.

Pre-emption in respect of a revenue paying estate.—For the purpose of court-fees a suit for pre-emption in respect of a sale of land paying revenue to Government falls under section 7 (vi) of the Court Fees Act, Sunder Singh v. Dhian Singh, 15 P.R. 1919: 43 P.L.R. 1919: 49 Ind. Cas. 358.

The principle seems to be that when the suit is for a definite share, say a $\frac{1}{4}$ th or $\frac{1}{5}$ th of a separately assessed revenue paying estate, the court-fee may be paid on five times the revenue assessed on that part but if the suit be for distinct plots and not for a fractional part then the court-fee must be paid on the market value, Reference under the Court Fees Act, 1870: 16 All. 493: 14 A.W.N. 174. Whether the plaintiff sued for pre-emption of shares of two villages out of a large number sold in one and the same transaction, the plaint is properly stamped if the court-fees paid are calculated on five times the aggregate amount of the Government revenue payable for each of the two villages, Durga Prosad v. Purandar Singh, 27 All. 186: 24 All. W.N. 210. See also the cases of Chamaili Rani

v. Ram Dei, 1 All. 552; Mulchand v. Shib Charan Lal, 2 All. 676; Sukru v. Tufazzul Hossein Khan, 16 All. 401. In a suit for pre-emption, the court-fees are to be calculated on the market value of land under paragraph V (d) of section 7 unless the suit be for a definite share of an estate paying revenue to Government or is recorded in the Collector's Register as separately assessed, Musst. Jian v. Musst. Nadir Nishan, 6 P.R. 1883. There is no provision in the Court Fees Act for the valuation of the fractional part of a holding which is recorded in the Collector's Register as separately assessed with land revenue, Haidar Ali v. Sandha, 102 P.R. 1880.

Pre-emption of land not forming a definite share of a revenue paying estate.—In a suit for pre-emption in respect of separate plots of land which is not a definite share of the revenue paying estate and were not in themselves separately assessed with revenue, the court-fee should be assessed on the market value of the property, Baiju v. Mir, (1894) 14 A.W.N. 174; 16 All. 493. See also Salamat Ali v. Nur Mahamad Khan and others, 1933 A.I.R. 533 (Oudh); 10 O.W.N. 1100; 147 I.C. 852.

It is the duty of the Munsarim to see that where pre-emption of certain land out of a larger one is sought, that the plot in dispute is a definite share of the whole as recorded in the Collector's Register or itself is separately assessed with Revenue as under section 7, v (b), Hasibunissa v. Ghafurullah Khan, 29 All. 382; (1907) 27 A.W.N. 110; 4 A.L.J. 363.

Garden.—In a suit to pre-empt a garden with a house and out-houses, the High Court held that the term "garden" includes a fruit garden though the land might have been assessed to land revenue, and that the value of a suit for possession of such garden for the purposes of the Court Fees Act must be assessed at the market value of the garden, Behari Lal v. Nand Lal, 68 Ind. Cas. 345; 2 L.L.J. 362, approving Musst. Bhagbhari v. Jawahir Singh, 71 P.R. 1914; 25 Ind. Cas. 545.

Indigo factory.—A claim, therefore, for pre-emption of an indigo factory, although the site of the factory may be land paying revenue to Government, must be valued, and the Court fees paid thereon according to the value of the buildings constituting the factory and not according to the value of the site. Such buildings as constitute the factory would fall within the meaning of the term "houses" as used in the Court Fees Act, Durga Singh v. Bisheshar Dayal, 24 All. 218; 22 A.W.N. 27.

Mortgage.—This paragraph applies even if the land is subject to a usufructuary mortgage, and immediate possession cannot be obtained or is not sought, Daryao Singh v. Bharat Singh, 32 All. 19 F.B.; 6 A.L.J. 905; 3 Ind. Cas. 562.

Transfer of equity of redemption.—In a suit for pre-emption on the transfer of equity of redemption of a house, the court-fee to be paid is to be calculated on the market value of the house which is the subject-matter of the mortgage, Ghasita Mal v. Kanshi Ram, 123 P.L.R. 1903.

In case of deficiency, Court to give time.—In a pre-emption suit when the plaint is insufficiently stamped the Court must give time to make good the deficiency under Order 7, Rule 11, C. P. C., Jiwan Das v. Khusabi Ram, 27 P.L.R. 1917: 25 P.W.R. 1917: 39 Ind. Cas. 766.

As to appeals.—See Hafiz Ahmad v. Sobha Ram, 6 All. 488: 3 All. W.N. 179—where the defendants appealed on the ground that they are entitled to a larger amount and that the plaintiffs have estopped themselves by refusing to purchase the same. The High Court, at page 490 of the report, said, “We do not agree that the nature of suit has changed in appeal, on the contrary, the subject-matter of the dispute between the parties was the right of pre-emption, the value of which was to be determined in the manner directed by section 7, paragraph (vi) of the Court Fees Act.....We are of opinion that where an appeal is preferred in a suit for pre-emption, on the ground that the right to pre-empt has or has not been established, as the case may be, no matter what other pleas may be taken, the value of the subject-matter in dispute, for the purposes of the Court Fees Act, must be determined as in terms provided in paragraph (vi) of section 7 of the Act. But when the question in appeal relates solely to the amount to be paid by the pre-emptor, then we think that it should be calculated ad valorem on the difference between the amounts alleged as sale price on the one side and the other.” See also Mathura Prasad v. Karam Singh, 6 O.W.N. 276: 177 I.C. 480: 1929 A.I.R. 240 (Oudh).

A memorandum of appeal against a decree in a suit for pre-emption of an estate assessed to revenue, where the appellant seeks to set aside the whole decree or a reduction of the amount payable, is to be stamped with court-fees assessed on ten times the annual revenue and not on the amount by which the pre-emption money is sought to be reduced, Surain Singh v. Sundar Singh and others, 120 I.C. 532: 1929 A.I.R. 879 (Lah.).

The vendee who appeals against the decree in a suit for pre-emption, is entitled to pay court-fees on ten times the amount of revenue assessed on the land, although his real motive may be to increase the value and the court-fees payable on the difference between the value claimed and the value allowed is far higher than the court-fees payable on ten times the revenue assessed. The High Court said: “It is an anomaly in the law relating to court-fees that a person who appeals only against a part of the decree should pay more court-fees than the one who appeals against the whole of it. But a litigant is entitled to appeal against the whole of a decree though he intends to attack only a part of it," Nazar Muhammad v. Kaluram and others, 9 Lah. 563: 113 I.C. 538: 1929 A.I.R. 190 (Lah.).

If the vendees appellants in appeal contest the right of the pre-emptors to sue for pre-emption and also claim the balance of the purchase money which has not been allowed to them, the stamp payable on the memorandum of appeal is the stamp originally payable by the pre-emptors, i.e., on ten times the land revenue but if the appeal related to the amount of purchase money only, then ad valorem court-fees on the amount in dispute would have been payable, Harichand v. Attar Singh, 131 I.C. 751: 1931 A.I.R. 490 (Lah.): 1931 I.R. 511 (Lah.). See also Ram Labhaya v. Vaid Prakash, 1934 A.I.R. 424 (Lah.).

PARAGRAPH VIII.

The plaintiff sued to remove an attachment placed by the Collector of Thana on a cocoanut garden in Salsette in order to levy a fine of Rs. 2,340. The Bombay High Court said at page 357: "The word 'value' in the last clause must be construed in the same way as in the previous clauses of the same section, and therefore, in case of land held on assessment for a period not exceeding thirty years, and paying the full assessment to Government (which is the present case), the value must be deemed to be sum equal to five times the survey assessment. The meaning of clause (viii) evidently is that a person suing to set aside an attachment on land shall in no case be called upon to pay a higher fee than he would have to pay if he were suing for possession of the land." The word "Government land" explained, Collector of Thana v. Dadabhai Romanji, 1 Bom. 352; but in Daya Chand Nemchand v. Hemchand Dharam Chand, 4 Bom. 515 F.B., it was held that a plaint in a suit to restore an attachment of a house which has been reversed at the instance of an intervenient is to be stamped with court-fee of Rupees ten only.

The valuation for stamp duty of a suit brought by trustees to set aside an attachment should be calculated on the value of the lien claimed by the judgment creditor in the case of an assignment by insolvent for the benefit of his creditors, Cecil Stephenson v. Baumgartner, 3 Agra 104. Where the suit is for a declaration that a certain property valued at Rupees 400 is not to be sold in execution of the plaintiff's decree for Rupees 1,500 the court-fee payable is to be calculated on the value of the property and not on the value of the decree, Durga Prosad v. Rachla Koer, 9 All. 140. When the only parties to a suit are the execution creditor or his representative on one side and the claimant objector or his representative on the other, and the sole question between them is whether the property attached in execution of the decree is or is not liable to be sold in execution of the decree then the value means the value of the subject matter of suit, i.e., the value of the property when the value of the decree exceeds the value of the property. But if the suit be under section 283, C. P. C. then the valuation for the jurisdiction within the meaning of Civil Courts Act (xii of 1887) must be the value of the property attached whatever may be the value of the decree sought to be executed, Dwarka Das v. Kameshar Prosad, 17 All. 69 and the cases cited therein. See also Narayana Singh v. Ayyasamy Reddi, 1914 M.W.N. 910: 29 M.L.J. 728: 27 I.C. 396.

Suit to set aside an execution sale.—A suit to set aside a sale on the ground that the attachment is not binding is virtually a suit to set aside an attachment and the court-fee is to be paid on the value of the land or the value of the decree which even is less, Gangadhar Aiyar v. Vela Chetty, 14 M.L.J. 144.

PARAGRAPH IX.

Application.—This paragraph applies only to suits and not to appeals, Nepal Rai v. Debi Prosad, 27 All. 477, infra. In the matter of Mahadeo Prosad v. Gorakh Singh, 30 All. 547, infra; Raghubir Prosad v. Sankar Baksh Singh, 36 All. 40, infra. Reference under Court Fees Act, 29 Mad. 367, infra. But where the sole question in appeal is the right to redeem, the court-fees payable, are to be calculated under section 7, paragraph (ix) of the Court Fees Act, Dhiraj Singh v. Rajaram, 6 N.L.R. 164; Gumani v. Banwari, 22 O.C. 289: 54 Ind. Cas. 733; Sekhara Nair v. Eacharan Nair, 20 M.L.J. 120: 3 Ind. Cas. 459. See also Karaman v. Norman Cockell, 1 C.W.N. 670.

Subject-matter of suit.—The subject-matter of the suit is the amount of the mortgage money and not the market value of the lands in suit, Kubair Singh v. Atma Ram, 5 All. 332; Kedar Singh v. Matabadal Singh, 31 All. 44: 28 All. W.N. 296: 5 All. L.J. 713: 1 Ind. Cas. 704; Reference under the Court Fees Act, 5 Mad. 288; Reference under the Court Fees Act, 14 Mad. 480; Jallaldeen v. Vijoyasami, 39 Mad. 447; Mandoth v. Puthanpurayil, 15 Ind. Cas. 587; Rupchand Khemchand v. Balvant Narayan, 11 Bom. 591; Muhammad Khan v. Ashak Muhammad Khan, 106 P.R. 1895 F.B.; Amrita Bin Bapuji v. Naru Bin Gopalji Shamji, 13 Bom. 489, where it was held that if the mortgage is denied and the mortgagee does not say what is due, then the amount found to be due at the date of suit is the subject-matter of suit.

In all suits within paragraph ix of sec. 7, the principal amount secured by the instrument of mortgage is the determining factor, Sheoram Singh v. Barkan Singh, 8 O.W.N. 536: 14 O.L.J. 365: 134 I.C. 597: 1931 A.I.R. 366 (Oudh).

Payments are not to be deducted.—In a suit for redemption against a mortgagee in possession, where the mortgagee has not paid rent due under the demise and the plaintiff asks for an account in taking which the arrears of rent should be deducted from the amount to be found due under the mortgage, held that the court-fees should be computed according to the principal amount expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage, Eacharan Pattar v. Appu Pattar, 19 Mad. 16; Konna Panikar v. Karunakara, 16 Mad. 328.

Improvements.—Where an instrument of mortgage does not expressly secure the amount to be allowed for improvements on redemption of the mortgage, the value of the improvements is not to be taken into account in ascertaining the subject-matter of suit as under paragraph (ix) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act; the subject-matter is the charge and not the value of the land mortgaged. By custom of the country, in Kanom demises the value of improvements are payable. Therefore, for valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction of the suit for redemption the value must include the value of improvements, Zamorin of Calicut v. Narayana, 5 Mad. 284 F.B. See also Govindan Nayar v. K. Ithalithy, 50 M.L.J. 493: 1926 A.I.R. 764 (Mad.).

Suit for recovery of mortgaged property.—A suit for recovery of property mortgaged from a mortgagee is one for redemption and the suit comes under section 7, paragraph (ix), when one of the questions at issue is whether the mortgage money is paid off, and if not what amount is remaining due, Maruti v. Sripati, 1889 P.J. p. 58. See also Karaman v. Norman Cockell, 1 C.W.N. 670.

Redemption.—In a suit for redemption of a kanom (which is not only a mortgage but also a lease) the plaint is to be stamped with court-fees according to the Kanom debt as it originally stood, Reference under the Court Fees Act, 14 Mad. 480. A suit for redemption of a kanom and Puran Kadam is a suit for redemption and the court-fees are payable ad valorem on the principal amount secured by the instrument of mortgage, Sreedhar Nambudri v. Peramba Nair, 1925 M.W.N. 747: 1925 A.I.R. 1254 (Mad.): 22 L.W. 408: 91 I.C. 81.

In a suit for redemption the determining factor in calculating court-fees is the principal amount secured by the instrument of mortgage. A suit for possession against a prior mortgagee in possession for recovery of the land mortgaged by a subsequent mortgagee is not necessarily a suit for redemption but is a suit for possession when an offer is made to return the mortgage money to the mortgagee, Sheo Ram Singh v. Barkan Singh, 14 O.L.J. 365; 8 O.W.N. 536; 134 I.C. 597; 1931 A.I.R. 366 (Oudh); 1931 I.R. 389 (Oudh).

Claim for redemption regarded as a consequential relief.—In the case of Pandit Brij Krishna Das v. Chowdhury Murli Ray, 4 Pat.L.J. 703, it was held that a claim for redemption can be regarded as a consequential relief and as such the plaint or the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with a court-fee ad valorem on the value of the properties.

Redemption by a co-mortgagor.—The plaint in a suit for redemption by a co-mortgagor is to be stamped with an ad valorem fee calculated on the amount secured by the instrument of mortgage, Bhairam Baksh Singh v. Raghubansa Kunwar, 5 O.L.J. 43; 45 Ind. Cas. 300; Kodi Venkatappa v. Barnala, 17 Ind. Cas. 442; 12 M.L.T. 493.

A suit between two persons, who are not co-mortgagors, each claiming exclusive right to redeem the same mortgage, is a suit for redemption, although one of them having succeeded in inducing the mortgagee to allow him to redeem it, thus forcing the other to bring the suit. The valuation of such a suit for the purpose of jurisdiction is the amount of mortgage-money and not the value of the mortgaged property, Shanker Baksh Singh and others v. Ram Bahadur Singh and others, 1922 A.I.R. (O.) 45; 70 Ind. Cas. 311.

In case of redemption of a part.—Where it is competent to the mortgagor to redeem a portion of the mortgaged property, the debt must be regarded as distributed over the whole property and as regards the portion of the property, sued for, the principal money expressed to be secured must be taken to be proportional to the amount of the debt for which such portion of the property is liable, Balkrishna Dhondo v. Nagvekar, 6 Bom. 324. But where a mortgagee purchased the share of two out of three mortgagors, and thereby enabled the third mortgagor to sue to redeem his share alone, held, that court-fees are payable on the share of the plaintiff alone and not on the amount secured by the instrument of mortgage, Amanat Begum v. Bhajan Lal, 8 All. 438; 5 All. W.N. 146 F.B.

Where some of the properties mortgaged could not be redeemed on account of the claim in respect thereto being barred by time, held, that the plaintiff can redeem the rest on payment of proportionate amount and the Court can allow the plaintiff to abandon a part of the claim under section 373 (Or. 23, Rule 1), C. P. C., Husaini Begum v. The Collector of Cawnpore, 29 All. 471; 4 All.L.J. 375; (1907) 27 All.W.N. 133.

Reference to title.—The court-fee payable by the plaintiff in a suit to redeem a kanom mortgage, should be in accordance with the provisions of section 7, clause (ix) of the Court Fees Act. The fact that the plaintiff refers to his title does not make it obligatory on him to pay any additional court-fee, the question litigated being the right to redeem, Kavalapara Moopli Nair v. Ammalam Amma, 1926 M.W.N. 324: 95 I.C. 26: 23 L.W. 738: 1926 A.I.R. 667 (Madras).

Mortgage with a clause of sale.—In suits for redemption of mortgages with a clause of conditional sale, if the amount due upon the mortgage be unknown the plaint is to be stamped with court-fees calculated on the amount of mortgage, even though the defendant claims that the lands have become his absolute property, Ramchandra v. Janardan, 14 Bom. 19.

Redemption after taking accounts.—Where the mortgagor also prays for payment to him, after taking accounts, and after discharge of mortgage debt, of the amount found due to him, then the plaintiff must state the amount due to him and pay additional court-fees on the plaint, Kodi Venkatappa Row v. Barnala Suryonarayana, 12 M.L.T. 493: 17 Ind. Cas. 442; Vasudeva v. Madhava, 16 Mad. 326.

The value of a suit to redeem a usufructuary mortgage for the purposes of jurisdiction is the principal sum expressed to be secured by the instrument, although there may be a claim relating to excess realisation by the mortgagee of profits of the property as, under section 76, cl. (h) of the Transfer of Property Act, the mortgagee is bound to repay an excess amount realised by him. Section 17 of the Court Fees Act is not applicable to a suit unless the suit embraces two or more "distinct causes of action" and consequently is not applicable to a case of redemption by a usufructuary mortgagor when excess realization is also claimed by him, Seth Gopi Kishen v. Sorabjee, 68 Ind. Cas. 226: 1922 A.I.R. 259 (Nagpore).

Where in a suit for redemption, a definite amount is claimed against mortgagee in possession, the court-fee payable is to be calculated on the principal amount of mortgage money secured, and not on the surplus profits claimed, Daulatram v. Gulab Chand and another, 76 Ind. Cas. 131: 1924 A.I.R. 346 (Nag.).

Redemption and Mesne Profits.—Where the suit is for redemption as well as for surplus mesne profits realized by the defendant—mortgagee in possession, the plaint is to be stamped with a court-fee calculated on the principal amount secured by the instrument of mortgage only, Chhidu Singh and other v. Jhanjhan Singh and other, 45 All. 154: 79 I.C. 303: 1923 A.I.R. 261 (All.); Abdul Aziz v. Rahamatullah, 1933 A.I.R. 155 (Lah.).

In a suit for redemption with a claim for surplus profits, the court-fees are payable ad valorem on the amount of principal money expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage as the surplus will be awarded as a result of the accounting under Order 34, rule 7 of the Code of Civil Procedure and consequently not separately chargeable with court-fees, Musst. Wajdi Begum v. Abdul Gani, 24 N.L.R. 197: 113 I.C. 34: 1929 A.I.R. 1 (Nag.).

A suit for redemption of a usufructuary mortgage plus claim for surplus mesne profits, is a suit for redemption and the court-fees are payable under sec. 7 (ix) of the Court Fees Act on the principal amount secured by the instrument of mortgage and no court-fees on surplus mesne profits need be paid in addition, G. Pothanna v. Satyanandacharlu, 60 M.L.J. 698: 33 L.W. 785: 132 I.C. 317: 1931 A.I.R. 479 (Mad.): 1931 I.R. 669 (Mad.), but in Ram Chand v. Bhagwan Das, 1935 A.I.R. 8 (Pesh.): 154 I.C. 460 the Peshwar Court held that court-fees are payable on each issue in a claim for redemption and mesne profits. (This is wrong as the claim for mesne profits does not form a separate cause of action as regards court-fees.)

Redemption and recovery of Arrears of Rent.—But where the suit is to redeem and to recover arrears of rent, these are really two distinct causes of action; the court-fee is to be computed on the arrears of rent and the principal amount of Kanom debt as it did not appear that the claim of rent was intended to be set off against mortgage debt, Rama Varmah Raja v. Kadar, 16 Mad. 415 (418). In a suit by the plaintiff to redeem the Kanom, and to recover the arrears of rent, it was held that for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of the Court of appeal the value of the subject-matter of suit was the aggregate value of the two heads of relief, Konna Panikar v. Karunakara, 16 Mad. 328.

Valuation for jurisdiction.—According to section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act (Act VII of 1887) the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction of suits falling under this paragraph and their valuation for the purpose of determining the court-fees payable, may be different.

The valuation of suit for redemption for purposes of jurisdiction is the amount remaining due on the mortgage or claimed on it by the mortgagee. It is that amount and the right connected with it, which is the usual subject of contention in a suit for redemption, Rupchand Khemchand v. Balwant Narayan, 11 Bom. 591; followed in Amrita Bin Bapuji v. Naru Bin Gopalji, 13 Bom. 489, in which it was held "that where the mortgage itself is denied and the mortgagee does not say what he claims in respect of the mortgage debt, the amount found to be remaining due on the mortgage, if any amount was due at that time, when the suit was filed, would represent the true valuation of the subject-matter of suit." Where the plaintiff sought redemption on payment of Rs. 266-0-0 but mentioned the sum of Rs. 5,257-0-0 as value for jurisdiction, held that the value for the purpose of jurisdiction and court-fees is the amount in lieu of which redemption is sought and the pleader's fees are to be calculated on that basis, Monohar Lal v. Khushi Shah, 61 P.W.R. 1917.

The cases of Kedar Nath v. Matabadal, (31 All. 44) and Jallaldeen v. Vijayasami, (39 Mad. 447) were doubted in Saroda Sundari v. Akramannessa, 51 Cal. 737: 78 I.C. 147: 28 C.W.N. 710 (712): 1924 A.I.R. 783 (Cal.) where the Court held that valuation for purposes of jurisdiction of a suit for redemption is not the amount of the principal mortgage money, but on the amount ultimately found to be due.

The valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction is the amount secured by the instrument of mortgage, Sreedhar Nambudri v. Peramba Nair, 1925 M.W.N. 747: 1925 A.I.R. 1254 (Mad.): 22 L.W. 408: 91 I.C. 81. See also Grandhi Pothanna v. Simhadri Satyanada Charyulu, 132 I.C. 317: 1931 A.I.R. 479 (Mad.).

The value of a suit for redemption plus damages for the purpose of jurisdiction is the Kanom amount alone and not that amount plus damages claimed, Gopala Memon v. K. V. Raman Memon, 1932 M.W.N. 53: 1932 A.I.R. 217 (Mad.): 35 L.W. 64: 138 I.C. 136.

The valuation of a suit for redemption where surplus profits are also claimed, is the amount of mortgage money expressed in the deed of mortgage, Musst. Wajdi Begum v. Abdul Gani, 24 N.L.R. 197: 113 I.C. 34: 1929 A.I.R. 1 (Nag.): 11 N.L.J. 232.

The valuation of a suit to redeem a usufructuary mortgage and for recovery of surplus profits of the mortgaged property, is the principal amount of mortgage money both for the purpose of court-fees and for jurisdiction, Mahantha Long Singh v. Bishun Lall Singh, 1933 A.I.R. 625 (Patna).

Appeals.—Allahabad High Court.—Where a mortgagor claims to redeem alleging that the whole of the mortgage debt has been satisfied, but the Court granted a decree for redemption on payment of a certain sum, held, on appeal by the mortgagor, that the memorandum of appeal should be stamped under this section, according to the principal amount secured by the instrument of mortgage and not on the difference between the sum awarded and the sum admitted by the appellant to be due; but where the mortgagee is the appellant, the court-fees are to be calculated on the difference between the amount admitted and the amount ordered to be paid by the mortgagor, Pirbhu Narain Singh v. Sila Ram, 13 All. 94: (1890) 10 All.W.N.

23; but in later cases this view has been dissented from. Section 7, paragraph (ix) applies only to suits and not to appeals. Therefore, the court-fees to be paid are to be calculated ad valorem on the subject-matter of appeal and not on the sum secured by the instrument of mortgage, Nepal Rai v. Debi Prosad, 27 All. 447: 25 All.W.N. 40: 2 All.L.J. 105; followed in Mahadeo Prosad v. Gorakh, 30 All. 457: 20 All.W.N. 247: 5 All.L.J. 531, where the suit was on the ground that the mortgage money has been satisfied out of the proceeds and nothing remained due and that 4 annas and not 5 annas 4 pies share only has been mortgaged. The criterion laid down in section 7, paragraph (ix) of the Court Fees Act, 1870, for determining the court-fees payable in respect of a suit for redemption or foreclosure does not apply to appeals in such suits. In case of appeals or cross objections in suits for redemption or foreclosure and in all cases in which the amount declared by the Court to be due at the date of the decree can be ascertained by reference to the judgment and the decree, the subject-matter is the amount at which the appeal or cross objection ought to be valued and future interest should not be taken into account, Raghubir Prasad v. Shankar Baksh Singh, 36 All. 40: 11 A.L.J. 1016: 21 I.C. 723; modifying Baldeo Singh v. Kalka Prasad, 35 All. 94. See also Lalia Prasad v. Sheoraj Singh, (1917) 39 All. 452: 15 A.L.J. 464: 41 I.C. 346; Prag v. Bhagwan Din and others, 23 A.L.J. 863: 47 All. 926: 1925 A.I.R. 734 (All.): 88 I.C. 888.

Note.—But it does not appear why the court-fees should be paid ad valorem on the market value on a memorandum of appeal although the subject-matter of appeal may still be a claim to redeem. The wording of Sch. I, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act does not justify the conclusion.

Bombay High Court.—Where the money secured amounted to Rs. 1,152-15-4 and the Court in decreeing the redemption suit against the defendants ordered Rs. 568-9-8 to be paid to Umarkhan and Rs. 584-5-8 to More and each of the defendants filed separate appeals and each claimed that larger amounts are due, held that each of the memorandum of appeals must be stamped with court-fees according to section 7, paragraph (ix) of the Court Fees Act, Umarkhan v. Mahomed Khan, 10 Bom. 41; Raj Gopal v. Ram Krishna, 10 Bom. 44.

Where the appeal in a redemption suit relates only to an item in the accounts, the memorandum of appeal need only be stamped as if the whole suit was to recover that amount, Fakir Mahomed v. Manakasajshet, (1883) P.J. 39. Where the principal amount is Rs. 375 and on the contention of the mortgagee defendant the Court found that Rs. 1,812 is due to the mortgagee and the mortgagee appealed on the ground that the accounts were not properly taken and valued the appeal at Rs. 375 the mortgage amount, held that the appeal was properly valued, Gopal v. Gangaram, 1891 P.J. 218.

Lahore High Court.—A memorandum of appeal against a decree for redemption on payment of a certain sum is to be stamped with court-fees ad valorem on the amount of money expressed to be secured by the instrument, Fatteh Singh v. Babu Ram, 3 Lah.L.J. 156. In a suit for redemption, the Court of first instance found that the amount payable on redemption was Rs. 570, the Appellate Court reduced the sum to Rs. 190. The mortgagee in further appeal prayed that this amount be raised to Rs. 1,190. Held, that under Schedule I, Art. I of the Court Fees Act, the court-fees payable on the memorandum of further appeal should be calculated on Rs. 1,000 the difference between Rs. 190 and Rs. 1,190 which is the value of the subject-matter in dispute in appeal, Banwari Das v. Nathu Shah, 5 P.R. 1911: 48 P.L.R. 1911: 59 P.W.R. 1911: 9 Ind. Cas. 676; Lekhram v. Ramji Das, 1 Lah. 234: 57 I.C. 215. See also Har Lal v. Siri Ram, 32 P.L.R. 591: 134 I.C. 124: 1931 A.I.R. 633 (Lah.): 1931 I.R. 892 (Lah.), where it was held in addition that the subject-matter of a suit may change in appeal, as in an appeal from a suit for redemption the only question may be the amount payable under the decree.

Madras High Court.—The provisions as to suits, by or against a mortgagee is section 7, paragraph (ix) of the Act are intended to apply to suits and not to cases of appeals therefrom, which latter are chargeable with court-fees on the subject-matter actually in dispute therein as provided for in Schedule I, Article I of the said Act as the word "suit" does not apply to appeals and the same rule should apply if the appeal be by a defendant, Reference under the Court Fees Act, 29 Mad. 367: 16 M.L.J. 287; Vasudeva v. Madhava, 16 Mad. 326.

Where the defendant in appealing against the decree allowing redemption, contended that the plaintiff cannot redeem and if he be found to be so entitled, he can do so on payment of a larger amount, held, that the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped under section 7, paragraph (ix) according to the principal amount expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage and the court-fee is the same as that on the plaint. If the question be as to the amount payable then only the case comes under Art. I, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act and the court-fees are payable on the amount in dispute. In a redemption suit the subject-matter of the suit is the existence of the right to redeem, and any question as to the amount is only incidental to that right, Sekharan Nair v. Eacharan Nair, 6 M.L.T. 245: 20 M.L.J. 120: 3 Ind. Cas. 459.

Nagpore Court.—In Vithoba v. Ramji, 1931 A.I.R. 180 (Nag.) it was held that if in the appeal not only the right under the mortgage decree to foreclose or redeem was contested but the amount of the decree is disputed and the appellant seeks either to enhance or diminish that amount, then court-fees ad valorem on the amount by which the decree is sought to be enhanced or diminished must be paid.

Oudh Court.—Court-fees on the memorandum of appeal should be computed ad valorem on the difference between the amount found to be payable by the Court below and the amount which the appellant claims to be payable in cases of dispute as to the amount payable, Ram Adhin v. Hanuman, 9 O.C. 153; Muhammad Hussain v. Syed Jahan Begam, 2 O.C. 87; Basudeo Ram v. Srikrishna Gir, 13 O.C. 62; 5 Ind. Cas. 941; see also Sangat Baksh Singh v. Rawal Dijdeo Baksh Singh, 25 O.C. 30; 67 Ind. Cas. 968; 1922 A.I.R. 82 (Oudh); Gumani v. Banwari, 22 O.C. 289; 54 Ind. Cas. 733.

If the amount declared by a Court to be due at the date of the decree in a suit for redemption or foreclosure can be ascertained by a reference to the judgment and the decree, then the appeal or cross objection should be valued at that sum and future interest is not to be taken into account, Nirman Singh v. Shyam Narain, 6 Luck. 34; 7 O.W.N. 585; 127 I.C. 32; 1930 A.I.R. 329 (Oudh); 1930 I.R. 448 (Oudh).

If in an appeal from a decree in a foreclosure suit the amount of the decree is not disputed but the decree is challenged on the ground that the deed is bad for want of registration or that the deed was not executed for legal necessity, or that the suit is barred by limitation, or that the deed is not genuine or that the interest is penal, then ad valorem court-fees on the principal amount secured by the instrument of mortgage is sufficient, Ram Sarup Singh v. Gaya Prasad, 8 O.W.N. 836; 134 I.C. 604; 1931 A.I.R. 353 (Oudh); 1931 I.R. 396 (Oudh).

Patna High Court.—In case of appeals or cross objections arising out of suits for redemption or foreclosure, when the amount due can be ascertained by reference to the judgment and decree appealed from, it is that amount at which the appeal or cross objection is to be valued and future interest is not to be taken into account, T. K. Rawlins v. Lachmi Narain Jha, 3 Pat.L.J. 443; 1918 Pat. C.W.N. 264; 44 I.C. 50.

Cross objection to reduce the amount decreed.—The party filing the memorandum of cross objection must pay court-fees calculated ad valorem on the sum by which he seeks to reduce the amount decreed, Mansa Ram v. Umra, 134 P.W.R. 1911; 213 P.L.R. 1911; 11 Ind. Cas. 198.

Where no additional relief is claimed against mortgagee.—

Where the plaintiff merely seeks to redeem the property without asking for any additional relief against the mortgagee, then the suit falls under section 7, paragraph (ix) of the Court Fees Act, but if he prays that any amount that may be found due to him after taking accounts, and after the discharge of mortgage debt, be paid to him, then he must approximately state the amount so claimed and pay additional court-fees thereon, Kodi Venkatappa v. Barnala Surjanarayana, 12 M.L.T. 493: 17 Ind. Cas. 442 (Madras).

Conditional sale.—Suits to have conditional sales declared absolute.—The plaint in a suit to declare a conditional sale declared absolute is to be charged with court-fees calculated ad valorem under section 7, paragraph (ix), clause (iii) of the Court Fees Act, Hasara Singh v. Mahammad Khan, 134 P.L.R. 1901.

A suit for possession of land by a mortgagee by conditional sale who claims to have foreclosed his mortgage under Regulation XVII of 1806, is a suit for possession of "land" within paragraph (v) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act and is not a suit by a mortgagee to foreclose his mortgage under paragraph (ix) of section 7 of the same Act, Telu Mal v. Lal Singh, 20 P.R. 1893.

A suit by a mortgagee to foreclose the mortgage or a suit by a mortgagee by conditional sale to have the sale declared absolute, falls under sec. 7 (ix) of the Court Fees Act and the court-fee payable is to be calculated on the principal money expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage. A suit by the mortgagee to recover possession of the property mortgaged under the terms of the deed of mortgage also falls under sec. 7 (ix) of the Court Fees Act and court-fee is to be paid accordingly, Hemnath v. Wilayat Ahmad, 6 O.W.N. 491: 117 I.C. 766: 1929 A.I.R. 321 (Oudh).

Foreclosure Suits.—Allahabad.—Where in a foreclosure suit the plaintiff is ordered to redeem a prior mortgage on payment of Rs. 5,914-6-5 and the plaintiff appealed against that decree, held that the memorandum of appeal should be stamped ad valorem on the amount the plaintiff has been ordered to pay because he wants to get rid of the liability imposed upon him, Baji Lal v. Goverdhan Singh, 31 All. 265: 6 All.L.J. 155: 1 Ind. Cas. 1000; Nepal Rai v. Debi, (1907) 27 All.W.N. 40.

C. P.—In foreclosure suit, the plaintiff mortgagee obtained a decree under section 86 of the Transfer of Property Act declaring the amount due under the mortgage. The defendant mortgagor appealed on the ground that so much is not due and that the amount ought to be reduced. Held, that the memorandum of appeal should be stamped with court-fees, calculated ad valorem under Schedule I, Art. I of the Court Fees Act on the amount by which the amount fixed in the decree is sought to be reduced and not under section 7, paragraph (ix) of the Court Fees Act on the amount secured by the instrument of mortgage, Onkar v. Lakmichand, (1907) 5 N.L.R. 130. Similarly where the mortgagee-decree-holder appealed on the ground that the amount so decreed should be enhanced by Rs. 8,902 which is also payable under the decree, held that court-fees ad valorem on the amount by which the decretal amount is sought to be enhanced are payable, Basdeo v. Dayaram, 11 N.L.R. 83: 29 Ind. Cas. 609. But when the subject-matter of appeal is the right to foreclose, then the court-fees are payable on the amount secured by the instrument of mortgage, Dhiraj Sing v. Rajaram, 6 N.L.R. 164 F.B.

Appeal against final decree in a foreclosure suit.—The appeal against an order passed under Order 34, rule 3, C. P. C. passed in a suit for foreclosure, is to be treated as an appeal from a decree and the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with ad valorem court-fees, Ramdhani v. Chowdhury Magbul Ahmad Khan, 18 O.C. 114.

Appeal by purchaser of a portion of the property.—Where the purchaser of the mortgaged property being the defendant in a suit for foreclosure, preferred an appeal against the decree for foreclosure made in the suit, the amount found due on the mortgage being over a lakh of rupees, to exonerate that property. Held (for the purpose of calculating court-fees payable on the appeal) that the value of the property affected by the decree only is to be taken into account and as the appellant purchased the property at Rs. 2,500 that is to be taken as the valuation for the purpose of court-fees, Jagatdhar Narain v. Brown, 33 Cal. 1133: 10 C.W.N. 1070: 4 C.L.J. 121. See contra, Mahadaji v. Balkrishna, (1881) P.J. 106, where it was held that such cases come under section 7, paragraph (ix) of the Court Fees Act.

Further Charge.—In a case where A executed a usufructuary mortgage and after the death of A his widow executed two deeds of "further charge" and the reversioners wanted to redeem the mortgage by A, the trial Court held that the plaintiffs are also liable to pay the amount secured by the subsequent deeds of further charge. The plaintiffs appealed but paid court-fees on amount of the deed executed by A. Held, there being no dispute as to the amount due on the subsequent deeds, the court-fees paid were sufficient, Ram Phal v. Deputy Commissioner of Bahraich, 12 O.C. 130: 2 Ind. Cas. 600.

When the mortgagee defendant in a suit for redemption of a usufructuary mortgage set up a deed of further charge but the trial Court decreed the suit for redemption on payment of the principal money only, and the mortgagee defendant appealed, held, that the mortgagee-appellant must pay court-fee ad valorem on the amount by which the defendant wishes the appeal Court to increase the amount, Lachman Singh v. Bahadur Singh, 16 O.C. 354.

PARAGRAPH X.—Specific Performance.

Note.—As to contracts which cannot be specifically enforced, see section 21, Specific Relief Act.

Scope.—Contract of Guarantee.—Suits against defendants to specifically perform their contract of guarantee by causing restoration of village to plaintiffs, to do all acts necessary to give them full possession and for compensation, are not suits for specific performance and are not provided for and do not come under section 7, paragraph (x) of the Court Fees Act but as suits for compensation such suits fall under section 7 (1) of the Court Fees Act, Chunibai v. The Secretary of State for India, 1890 P.J. 204.

Suit by a joint purchaser.—Where the plaintiffs brought a suit for 3/11 share of two plots of land on the ground that it was agreed between the plaintiffs and the defendants that the lands should be purchased in partnership. Held, that the suit did not fall under section 7 (x) of the Court Fees Act and cannot be maintained as the plaintiffs did not pay their share of the money, Nanda Sing v. Sunder Sing, 97 P.L.R. 1901.

Suit for refund of purchase price.—Where the plaintiff offers to perform his part, a suit for refund of purchase price is a suit for specific performance, Bhashya Karlu v. Andalammal, (1918) M.W.N. 896. See also Lakshmi Ammal In re, 1926 A.I.R. 96 (Mad.): 49 M.L.J. 608: 1925 M.W.N. 826: 91 Ind. Cas. 729 where the vendee sued to recover the amount paid and damages alleging that the sale is a fraudulent one.

Suit for possession by lessee.—A suit for possession by the lessee of land comprised in a lease is not a suit for specific performance of the contract of lease, and the court-fee payable on the plaint is the same as in a suit for possession. But the memorandum of appeal must be stamped according to the value of the relief asked for, Ghulam Sabir v. Narain Prosad, 5 A.L.J. 534: (1908) 28 A.W.N. 201.

Clause (a).—Where the mother of a Hindu minor entered into a contract for sale of his land and the vendor sued for specific performance of the contract and for possession and it was found that the minor is bound by the contract; the suit having been dismissed by the trial Court, held, on appeal by the plaintiff that he must pay court-fees upon the prayer for possession and a conditional decree was passed in his favour to take effect upon payment of the requisite court-fee, Krishna Sami v. Sundarappayyar, 18 Mad. 415: 5 M.L.J. 164.

Suits for specific performance and possession.—Where the plaintiff asks for specific performance of a contract of sale and possession, held, that the suit is in substance one for possession of the property and ought to be valued under section 7 (v) of the Court Fees Act according to the value of the subject-matter of suit, and it was further held, that it was not necessary for their Lordships to hold that in cases of this description, the plaintiff must not only sue for specific performance of the contract and execution of the conveyance by the defendant but also for recovery of possession, Madan Mohan Singh v. Gaja Prosad Singh, 14 C.L.J. 159: 11 Ind. Cas. 228. See also the cases cited therein and Nathekhan v. Muhammad Khan, 128 P.W.R. 1918: 46 Ind. Cas. 534.

A suit for specific performance of a contract and for possession is to be valued for the purpose of court-fees under sec. 7, paragraph (v) and not on the amount of consideration under sec. 7, paragraph (x) of the Court Fees Act, Ram Bahadur v. Banwari Lal, 118 I.C. 134: 1929 A.I.R. 642 (Pat.).

Where the plaintiff alleged that the defendants Nos. 2 and 3 having contracted to sell certain property to him, received part of the price, and thereafter sold the same property to defendant No. 1 who had notice of the agreement with the plaintiffs, and they asked (1) that the defendants 2 and 3 might be compelled to complete the sale to the plaintiffs and (2) for possession of the property. Held, that the suit is really one for specific performance of a contract and the court-fees thereon was assessable under section 7, clause (x) of the Court Fees Act, 1870. Mr. Justice Tudball observed at pages 295, 296 of the report, "as stated by a Bench of this Court in Mohiuddin Ahmed v. Majlis Rai, 6 All. 231, the suit is in substance one for specific performance of a contract and falls prima facie under section 7, clause (x) of the Court Fees Act, 1870. I have no hesitation in accepting this as the true solution of the case for one simple reason, viz., when a vendor contracts to sell, he contracts as laid down in section 55 of the Transfer of Property Act, to execute a proper conveyance of the property to the buyer, and tender it to him for execution at a proper time and place on payment of the amount due in respect of the price. He also contracts to give the buyer or such person as he directs, such possession in the property as its nature admits. The plaintiffs in the present case, are clearly seeking to enforce the contract of sale and they also seek from the vendor to do that which he is bound to do under the contract, i.e., to execute and register a sale deed and to hand over possession of the property. The suit is one in form and substance a suit for specific performance," Nihal Singh v. Sewa Ram, 38 All. 292: 14 A.L.J. 434: 35 Ind. Cas. 275.

Where the defendant promised to transfer property in consideration of Rs. 600 in cash and some lands belonging to the plaintiff, but failed to carry out his promise which compelled the plaintiff to bring a suit, the Lahore High Court on appeal held, "According to sub-clause (a) of section 7 (x), court-fees payable in suits for specific performance of a contract of sale will be levied according to the amount of consideration. The court-fees cannot be paid as if the suit was a suit for possession of land, Kundun Lal v. Anund Sarup, 73 Ind. Cas. 709: 1923 A.I.R. 456 (Lahore). See Gopal Das v. Parmanand, 60 I.C. 512 (Lahore) where part of the consideration money was paid, but it was held that the suit was a suit for possession.

There may be a suit for specific performance of a contract of sale without a prayer for possession. In such a case court-fees ad valorem on the valuation were held to be payable. (In this case the plaintiffs alleged that they are in possession and asked that the defendant may be ordered to (1) execute a conveyance, (2) to return the original deed and (3) register the deed), Faqir Chand v. Ram Dutt, I.L.R. 5 Lahore 75: 80 I.C. 953: 1924 A.I.R. 439 (Lah.).

A suit to enforce specific performance of a contract to sell land and for possession of the property agreed to be sold is a suit for specific performance falling under sec. 7, cl. (x) (a) of the Court Fees Act. Such a suit is not a suit for possession falling under section 7, cl. (v) (e), nor one embracing "two or more distinct subjects" within the meaning of section 17 of the Act. The delivery of possession is a part of specific performance of the contract of sale, unless the terms indicate that the vendor was not under an obligation to deliver possession, although the decree may have to be executed to obtain delivery of possession, Sundara Ramanujam Naidu v. Sivalingam Pillai and others, 47 Mad. 150: 45 M.L.J. 431: (1924) A.I.R. 360 (M.); 18 L.W. 333: 77 Ind. Cas. 542.

See also the case of Narayana Kabirayan v. Kandasami Goundan, 22 Mad. 24, where it was held that the plaintiff in a suit for specific performance of an agreement to sell land must also ask for possession and a separate suit for possession does not lie. See also Krishnammal v. Soundararaja Ayyar, 38 Mad. 698.

But see contra, Nathu Valad Pandu v. Bhudhu Valad Bhika, 18 Bom. 537. See also Shib Kristo Dah v. Abdool Sobhan Chowdhury, 15 W.R. 498; Abhiram Das v. Sriram Das, 8 B.L.R. 421; Anderson, Wright & Co. v. Kalagarla Surji Narain, 12 Cal. 339 (346).

Clause (b).—Suit to recover possession of a date-garden, of which the plaintiff was in possession as a mortgagee, on the ground that he was ousted by the defendants, does not fall under sec. 7 (x) (b) of the Court Fees Act but falls under section 7 (v) of the Court Fees Act, Chela Mal v. Fazl Beg, 33 P.R. 1880.

Clause (c).—In a suit filed in a Sub-Judge's Court the plaintiff prayed that his mourasi mokrari right in certain lands be declared and a decree passed against the defendants directing them to grant him a lease, the yearly rent payable under which was to be Rs. 71. The plaintiff valued the suit for the purpose of jurisdiction at Rs. 1,100, but gave no materials or data to support the valuation. Held, that under the provisions of section 7, paragraph (x), clause (c) of the Court Fees Act and section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, the suit should have been valued at Rs. 71 for the purpose of court-fees and jurisdiction, and it ought to have been filed in the Munsiff's Court, and as title would accrue after execution of the deed, valuation cannot be made on that basis, Port Canning and Land Improvement Co., Ltd. v. Roson Ali, 17 C.W.N. 16: 15 Ind. Cas. 46. See also Sailendra Nath Mitra v. Ram Charan Pal, 25 C.W.N. 768: 34 C.L.J. 94: 66 Ind. Cas. 268.

Clause (d)—Award.—Where the suit was one for recovery of possession of property or specific performance of an award, the court-fee payable is to be calculated on the value of the property in suit, U. Thi Ha v. U. Thudatthana, U.B.R. 1909, 2nd quarter. When an agreement to refer to arbitration was filed in Court and arbitrators were appointed, but after the award both parties objected on the ground of misconduct of the arbitrators, and one of the parties succeeded, whereupon the other party filed an appeal under section 104, C. P. C. (Act V of 1908). Held, that this clause does not apply but court-fees were payable under Art. 17, clause (iv), second schedule of the Court Fees Act, Ram Jawaya v. Devi Ditta Mal, 117 P.R. 1916: 70 P.L.R. 1917: 107 P.W.R. 1916: 34 Ind. Cas. 192. See also cases under Art. 17, clause (iv), second schedule, infra, and under Art. 11 of the second schedule to this Act.

Valuation.—The valuation of a suit for specific performance for court-fees is to be assessed ad valorem on the amount of consideration and the valuation for jurisdiction shall be the same under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, Saiyed Ashfaq Hussain v. Saiyed Bunyad Hussain and others, 77 Ind. Cas. 874: (1923) A.I.R. 252 (Oudh).

The proper valuation of a suit for specific performance of a contract for sale of land, is the price agreed upon to be paid, Shiv Dial v. Shiv Ram Das, 111 I.C. 72: 1928 A.I.R. 635 (Lah.).

Under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, the value for the purpose of jurisdiction and court-fees must be the same except in cases coming under section 7 (x) (d) of this Act.

PARAGRAPH XI.

Application.—In a suit under sec. 95 of the Agra Tenancy Act, 1901, to declare the plaintiff's status as an occupancy tenant, the plaint or memorandum of appeal should bear a court-fee of eight annas as provided by Article 5 of Schedule II to the Court Fees Act; sec. 7, clause (xi) of the Act does not apply to such a suit, Ratan Singh v. Khem Karan, 40 All. 358: 16 A.L.J. 117: 44 Ind. Cas. 608.

A suit for assessment of rent implies that no rent was payable previously by the defendant and there being no rent previously payable the clause (xi) of sec. 7 does not apply to such a suit, Dhanukdhari Tewari v. Mani Sonar, 100 I.C. 913: 1927 A.I.R. 123 (Patna): I.L.R. 6 Pat. 17: 8 P.L.T. 365.

Where in a suit a declaration of title is sought and also a relief against one of the defendants on the ground that he is a trespasser, the suit is not strictly within section 7, paragraph (xi) of the Court Fees Act, Hira Lal Bannerjee v. Surendra Nath Sarbonga and others, 1926 A.I.R. 504 (Cal.): 91 I.C. 488.

Valuation.—In the case of suits falling under paragraph (xi) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act the valuation for the purpose of court-fees must be the same as the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction. There is nothing to indicate that section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act should be read subject to the provisions of section 14, Madras Civil Courts Act, Vannavalli Seshagiri Row v. Narayan Swami Naidu, 26 M.L.J. 573: 22 Ind. Cas. 374.

The valuation of a suit or appeal for enhancement of rent of a tenure is to be computed on the annual amount to which the rent is sought to be enhanced minus the amount admitted or awarded in the lower Court, Prasannadeb Raikat v. Purna Chandra Shaha and others, 61 Cal. 513: 38 C.W.N. 527: 152 I.C. 753: 1934 A.I.R. 674 (Cal.).

Clause (b)—Enhancement.—Note that the words used are 'to enhance the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy'. Compare this with clause (f) where this clause is absent. A suit for increased rent for increased area found to be so on measurement is not a suit for enhancement of rent. See Ejel Mullick v. Felai Mullick, 21 C.L.J. 309 (311); Pratap Mahton v. Musst. Warisunnissa, 4 Patna 604.

Valuation.—In a suit for arrears of rent and for enhancement of rent, the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and court-fees should be the same, Dhaturi Singh v. Kedar Nath Goenka, 8 P.L.T. 475.

Tenant having a right of occupancy.—In Prasannadeb Raikat's Case, 38 C.W.N. 527: 61 Cal. 513: 152 I.C. 753: 1934 A.I.R. 674 (Cal.) the Calcutta High Court held that the expression 'right of occupancy' does not include the rights of a tenure-holder and is to be understood in a general sense. See Palaniappa Chetti v. Silviavelu Servai, (1907) 31 Mad. 14: 17 M.L.J. 478 where the Madras High Court held that words 'occupancy of land' seem properly to be applicable to the case of ryots.

Clause (cc)—Scope.—Sec. 7, clause (xi) (cc) is not confined to cases where the defendant is clearly estopped from denying the plaintiff's title. If a landlord sues a tenant for possession of the immovable property, the court-fee may be assessed under sec. 7 (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act. The plea of the defendant that he is an occupancy raiyat, does not remove the suit from the category of sec. 7, clause (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act, Punnamurthulu Venkata Rattamma v. Ghalasani Sreeramulu, 25 L.W. 76: 52 M.L.J. 100: 99 I.C. 981: 1927 A.I.R. 331 (Mad.). A suit for ejectment and a declaration that the plaintiff was absolute owner of the property in suit, is a suit for declaration with a consequential relief and comes under sec. 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act and is outside the scope of sec. 7 (xi) (cc) of the same Act, Ramalinga Mudaliar v. Ramaswami Iyer, 1929 M.W.N. 239: 29 L.W. 760: 1929 A.I.R. 529 (Mad.): 110 I.C. 577. A suit based on alleged relationship of landlord and tenant comes within sec. 7 (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act, Sivasubramania Nadar v. Subramania Nadar, 35 L.W. 393: 1932 A.I.R. 409 (Mad.) but the suit in its inception must be suit of this description, Haladhar v. Mangal Reza, 34 C.W.N. 217.

If an inamdar claims both kudivaram and melavaram rights and seeks to eject the tenants after notice by virtue of his kudivaram right, then the suit is one for declaration of his right with a consequential relief as the plaintiff seeks a declaration that he is entitled to the kudivaram right and prays for possession as a consequential relief; such a suit does not come under sec. 7 (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act, In re Majumdar Sobhandri Rao Pantulu Garu and others, 56 Mad. 314: 63 M.L.J. 759: 1932 M.W.N. 1197: 36 L.W. 701: 140 I.C. 462: 1933 A.I.R. 42 (Mad.).

Question of title of plaintiff.—The fact that the defendant denies the relationship of landlord and tenant does not alter the character of the suit and valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and court-fees must be the same under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, Ram Chand v. Ram Sukh Das, 27 P.R. 1910: 210 P.L.R. 1910: 30 P.W.R. 1910: 5 Ind. Cas. 910;

Govind Kumar Sur v. Mohini Mohan Sen, 33 C.W.N. 769, but the title of plaintiff is not to be decided on payment of court-fees on only one year's rent, Balasidhantam v. Perumal Chetti, 27 M.L.J. 475: 27 I.C. 102. See also Bapurao and others v. Narayan Keshav Ghande, 103 I.C. 337: 1927 A.I.R. 321 (Nagpur), infra.

Ejectment of a tenant.—A right of landlord to recover immoveable property from his tenant arises when the relationship of landlord and tenant has ceased between them and the tenant has lost the right to remain on the land; therefore the word tenant in sec. 7 (xi) (cc) means an ex-tenant, i.e., a person who was a tenant but has at the date of suit ceased to be. A suit by landlord to eject a tenant after serving him with a notice to quit comes under sec. 7 (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act and should be valued and court-fees paid under that article, Govinda Kumar Sur and others v. Mohini Mohan Sen and others, 57 Cal. 349: 33 C.W.N. 769: 1930 A.I.R. 42 (Cal.): 125 I.C. 726; Mohan v. Bhuteswar, 83 I.C. 1: 1925 A.I.R. 142 (All.).

When the plaintiff landlord sued the tenant for rent and the tenant set up a defence that the relationship of landlord and tenant never existed, the defence was upheld by Courts. The landlord plaintiff then sued to eject the tenant as trespasser, the High Court held that the suit to eject the tenant is really a suit for possession of the land from a trespasser and the plaint is to be stamped as in a suit for possession, Govinda Ram Agarwala v. Dulu Pada Dutt and others, 32 C.W.N. 1113: 116 I.C. 374: 1928 A.I.R. 753 (Cal.).

Suits to eject the tenant by the landlord are governed by section 7, clause (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act and are included in the provisions of section 8 of Suits Valuation Act (VII of 1887) which provides that the valuation of suits for the computation of court-fees and for the purpose of jurisdiction shall be the same. The effect of the amendment of the Court Fees Act by Act VI of 1905 is to repeal by implication section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act (III of 1873) so far as suits falling under the newly added clause (xi) (cc) to section 7 of the Act of 1870 were concerned, and to apply to them the provisions of section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act. Although suits for recovery of immoveable property from tenants have not been expressly withdrawn from the operation of section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, the effect of amendments of section 7 by adding to it clause (xi) (cc) is to bring such suits also under the operation of section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act and not under section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, so that in the case of such suits the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction is the same as that for court-fees, Narayan Swami Naidu v. Seshagiri Rao, 39 Mad. 873: 2 L.W. 1031: 29 M.L.J.

572: 18 M.L.T. 398: 31 Ind. Cas. 104. See also Pramatha v. Amiruddi, 24 C.W.N. 151: 55 I.C. 178, where it was held that if persons other than the tenants are parties to the suit the court-fees ad valorem on the valuation as for possession, are payable. See also Hira Lal Bannerjee v. Surendra Nath Sarbanga, 91 I.C. 488: 1926 A.I.R. 504 (Cal.); Musst. Bhagobai Devisingh v. Shiamlal Dwarkaprasad, 1933 A.I.R. 312 (Nag.).

Tenant—who is.—A suit to eject a thicadar after expiry of his lease falls within section 7 (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act. All suits by landlord to recover possession of land from a tenant where the tenancy has terminated either by efflux of time or otherwise, come under section 7 (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act. The word “tenant” in clause (cc) includes a person to whom that description would apply immediately before the institution of the suit but whose tenancy has terminated entitling his landlord to eject him, Ram Charan Singh v. Sheo Dutta Singh, I.L.R. 2 Pat. 260: 4 Pat.L.T. 666: 74 Ind. Cas. 619: 1923 A.I.R. 380 (Patna). See also Sriram v. Jagat Narain, 93 I.C. 291; Ram Lal v. Musst. Bibi Salvia, 1935 A.I.R. 90 (Patna); Telenga Marandi Majhi v. Chandra Mohan Singh, 1933 A.I.R. 664 (Patna): 14 P.L.T. 616: 147 I.C. 1177; Narayan Jha Narone v. Jagni Prasad Jha, 13 Patna 329: 1934 A.I.R. 184 (Pat.): 15 P.L.T. 139.

The words landlord and tenant must include ex-landlord and ex-tenant. An action by an ex-landlord against an ex-tenant might ordinarily be described as an action of the landlord against the tenant, Karnani Industrial Bank v. Satya Niranjana Shaw, L.R. 55 I.A. 342 (350): 32 C.W.N. 1093.

Tenant holding over.—A suit for recovery of possession of land against a tenant who “holds over” comes under section 7 (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act, but if the tenant “holds over” in defiance of a written notice then he is a trespasser and court-fees as in a suit for possession are to be paid. A tenant holding over is a tenant, who after his right to the occupation under a lawful title is at an end continues (having no title at all) in possession of the land without agreement or disagreement of the person in whom the right of possession resides, Narayan v. Tukaram, 74 Ind. Cas. 93 (Nagpore): 1923 A.I.R. 310; Champat v. Bolak Das, 1925 A.I.R. 131 (Nag.): 20 N.L.R. 124: 80 I.C. 202 [discussed in Vithaldas v. Ghulam Ahmad, 23 N.L.R. 5: 99 I.C. 438: 1927 A.I.R. 156 (Nagpore)].

Son of the original tenant.—A defendant (son of the tenant who was holding over) who paid rent after the demise of his father cannot be said to be a trespasser on the land against whom the plaintiff landlord has to proceed by way of getting his title established in a properly constituted suit. (The case was in respect of homestead land only and ad valorem court-fee was not demanded), Ashutosh Pramanic and another v. Jibandhan Ganguli, 1933 A.I.R. 822 (Cal.): 147 I.C. 209.

Ejectment from a house.—The plaintiff instituted a suit for ejectment from a house of the defendants as tenants holding over. The defendants denied the lease and raised the question of title, which therefore had to be gone into although the plaint was stamped under sec. 7 (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act. The trial Court decreed the suit. The defendants appealed to the District Judge where they did not raise the question of court-fees; on second appeal to the High Court the defendants raised the question that plaint should have been stamped as in a suit for possession, although the lease was negatived, held, the question of title having been raised by the defendants independently of their denial of their lease it is clear that in the circumstances of the case, court-fee should have been payable on the market value of the property under sec. 7, paragraph (v) of the Court Fees Act. As this question has only been raised for the first time in second appeal and as the defendant-appellants in their appeal to the lower appellate Court only paid court-fees at the lower rate themselves, the question cannot be re-opened now, no defect of jurisdiction being involved, Bapurao and others v. Narayan Keshav Ghande, 103 I.C. 337: 1927 A.I.R. 321 (Nagpore).

A suit to eject a tenant from a house after notice to quit, is a suit to eject a tenant and court-fees calculated ad valorem on the rent payable for the year next before the institution of the suit, are to be paid on the plaint. The Judicial Commissioner said, "A tenant or a tenant holding over is a trespasser and not a tenant of any kind after he has refused to comply with the proper notice to quit. But the claim in a suit must be regarded with reference to the facts existing when the cause of action accrued and not to the state of things when the suit was filed. Up to the moment he gives rise to a cause of action by refusing to quit on demand, a tenant is still a tenant, and that is the point of time to which the suit for ejectment in consequence of that refusal must be referred, Vithaldas v. Ghulam Ahmed, 23 N.L.R. 5: 99 I.C. 438: 1927 A.I.R. 156 (Nagpore).

The court-fees payable on a plaint in a suit to eject a tenant from a house let out to him is chargeable on one year's rent under sec. 7, paragraph (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act as amended and not on the market-value of the house, Diwan Dilbagh Rai v. Fateh Singh, 24 P.L.R. 1907. See also Ebrahim Shahib v. Ismailji, 1 L.B.R. 303.

A suit for possession of a house and two years' rent is to be valued at one year's rent for the possession of the house from the tenant holding over plus the amount of two years' rent, Balakrishna Bhimaji v. Ramkrishna, 33 Bom.L.R. 263: 1931 A.I.R. 234 (Bom.).

If the defendants be not in possession of the whole of the house but of some rooms in the house then the plaintiff need not put the value of the property at the value of the whole house but can value the relief at 12 times the monthly rent payable by the defendant, Tayabali v. Parbatibai, 26 S.L.R. 29: 1932 A.I.R. 73 (Sind).

Tenant at Fixed Rate.—In a suit to eject a tenant at fixed rent the plaint should be stamped with court-fees according to the market value of the right, Ajodhya Chowbey v. Daibee Singh, 3 Agra, Rev. 5. See also Ram Raj Tewari v. Girnandan Bhabat, 15 All. 63: 12 All.W.N. 240.

Valuation (cc).—When a suit was brought for possession of leased property on the ground that the tenancy has terminated, the proper value of the suit is not the value of the immoveable property itself, but the amount of the rent payable for the year next before the date of the presentation of the plaint, Mohan Lal v. Bhuteswar, 83 I.C. 1: 1925 A.I.R. 142 (All.).

A suit by the landlord for recovery of immoveable property from a tenant, is to be valued at the rent payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint and the valuation for purpose of jurisdiction is the same as for the purpose of court-fees, Nandan Sing v. Debi Din, 12 A.L.J. 933: 25 Ind. Cas. 975.

Where the plaintiff landlord wanted the tenants to vacate the portion of the house occupied by them, the value of the relief claimed by her cannot be the value of the land and the buildings thereon. Either the relief cannot be valued at all or if it is to be valued, it is not unreasonable to value it at 12 times the monthly rent which the portion would yield, Musst. Murlibai v. Musst. Vassibai, 104 I.C. 412: 1927 A.I.R. 248 (Sind).

A suit for ejectment and recovering possession of a raiyati land, is not to be valued as a possible building site on the hypothetical assumption that the landlord would on receiving some nazrar, be willing to allow it to be so used under the provisions of the Madras Estates Land Act, T. K. M. Alagappa Chetty v. Saminathan Chetty and others, 1933 M.W.N. 1128: 1933 A.I.R. 367 (Mad.): 142 I.C. 195.

The court-fees payable on a plaint to eject an under-raiyat by a raiyat are to be calculated ad valorem on one year's rental, Girish Chandra Dutt v. Girish Chandra Mali, 36 C.W.N. 190: 54 C.L.J. 68: 133 I.C. 689: 1932 A.I.R. 6 (Cal.): 1931 I.R. 737 (Cal.).

Improvement by tenant.—Courts have no power to ask the tenant to pay court-fees for improvements claimed by him, but are bound to determine the amount, in the suit to contest the notice of ejectment, Wasaya v. Isa, 4 P.W.R. 1915 (Rev.).

When the plaintiff sues for redemption of kanom and also prays for deduction of a certain amount claimed as damages for improvement, he is entitled to pay the court-fee after the amount recoverable by way of damage has been ascertained and set off against the amount payable by way of improvement as the words "any sum of money accruing due for rent or otherwise in respect of the tenancy" are wide enough to include damages, Govindan Nayar v. Kankiratholikayi Ithalithy, 50 M.L.J. 493: 1926 A.I.R. 764 (Madras) reversing 1926 A.I.R. 542 (M.).

Clause (d). Claim for Improvements.—A suit to contest the notice of ejectment on the ground that the plaintiff to receive compensation for improvements, before he vacates, is to be stamped on the amount of rent payable for previous year, as claim for improvement is incidental to the decree for possession and is not the subject-matter of suit, Nurulla v. Atr Singh, 111 P.R. 1883; see also Reference Under Court Fees Act, 23 Mad. 84; Wasaya v. Isa, 4 P.W.R. 1915 (Rev.).

Tenant-at-will.—In a suit to eject a tenant at will the court-fee is 8 annas under Schedule II, Art. 5 of the Court Fees Act, Nurjahan v. Marfan Mundul, 11 C.L.R. 91. And an application to the Collector under section 25 of the Act of 1859 for assistance in ejecting a ryot should also be stamped with a court-fee of 8 annas as such a proceeding is not a suit, Pyary Mohan Mookerjee v. Kina Bewa, 11 W.R. 90: 2 B.L.R.A.C. 226.

Clause (e). Suit against landlord and some others.—A suit was brought for recovery of possession of an occupancy holding against the landlord and some others whom the landlord inducted on the land, held that court-fees should be computed according to market value of the land, Farzand Ali v. Mahanth Lal Puri, 32 Cal. 268; but this case was not approved in The Secretary of State for India v. Dinshaw Naoroji and another, 1925 A.I.R. 275 (Sind): 87 I.C. 1002, where it was held that when in order to avoid delay in execution proceedings a person inducted on the land by the landlord is joined as a party, such a suit falls under section 7 (xi) (e) of the Court Fees Act.

A suit for possession by a tenant against landlord and certain other persons claiming melawaram rights under him is governed by section 7 (v) and not by section 7 (xi) (e). The words "occupancy of land" and "ejected" are applicable to the case of ryot or persons in actual possession rather than to persons who are only entitled to the malawaram rights, Palaniappa

Chetty v. Sithrave, 31 Mad. 14: 17 M.L.J. 478: 3 M.L.T. 80. See also Musst. Bhagobai Devisingh and another v. Shiamal Dwarkaprasad, 147 I.C. 749 (Nagpore): 29 N.L.R. 367: 1933 A.I.R. 312 (Nag.).

Illegally ejected.—The words “illegally ejected” have been explained to mean “ejected nominally in conformity with, but really, in contravention of the provisions of the rent law of ejectment of tenants by landlords, Sunder Mal v. Jessie Caroline Murray, 16 C.L.J. 375 at page 376: 16 Ind. Cas. 963.

Suit against landlord on the basis of illegal ejectment.—A suit for possession by an occupancy tenant against his landlord on the basis of illegal ejectment falls under section 7 (xi) (e) of the Court Fees Act only when there is no question of title to be gone into, but where there is a question of title involved, the case falls under section 7 (v) of the Act and the court-fees payable would be ad valorem on the market value, Krishna Chandra Gountia v. Raja Mahakur, I.L.R. 5 Patna 208: 94 I.C. 16: 1926 A.I.R. 251 (P.): 7 P.L.T. 642.

Clause (f).—The year next before the date of presenting the plaint “denotes a period of 365 days reckoning backwards from the date of presentation of plaint,” Ghasi Ram v. Har Govind, 28 All. 411: 3 A.L.J. 244: 26 All.W.N. 66.

8. The amount of fee payable under this Act on a memorandum of appeal against an order relating to compensation under any Act for the time being in force for the acquisition of land for public purposes shall be computed according to the difference between the amount awarded and the amount claimed by the appellant.

Fee on memorandum of appeal against order relating to compensation.

NOTES.

Application.—This section applies to appeals by persons claiming compensation. An appeal by the Secretary of State against the award of the Court requires a court-fee of Rs. 10 only under Art. 17, clause (4) of Schedule II of the Act, The Secretary of State v. Basawa, 17 Ind. Cas. 764: 17 P.L.R. 1912. See also In re Assistant Commissioner of Labour, (1924) A.I.R. 489 (Mad.): 1924 M.W.N. 108: 78 Ind. Cas. 435: 46 M.L.J. 150, but in 1921 the Land Acquisition Act (1 of 1894) was amended by Act XIX of 1921 and every award is a decree and appeals will lie accordingly. See Rai Bahadur Narsing Das v. The Secretary of State for India in Council, 29 C.W.N. 822 P.C. See also The Secretary of State for India in Council v. K. S.

Bonerjee, 97 I.C. 140: 1927 A.I.R. 45 (Calcutta) where it was held that the provisions of s. 8 of the Court Fees Act may, after the amendment of the Land Acquisition Act, now be regarded as redundant and the discrimination between the claimant and the Secretary of State is no longer warranted.

The Secretary of State for India is not a claimant to any sum awarded by the Collector in a land acquisition proceeding, therefore, s. 8 does not apply to an appeal by the Secretary of State for India to reduce the amount of compensation awarded but the memorandum of appeal is to bear ad valorem court-fees on the amount in question as the order of the Land Acquisition Court is a decree, The Secretary of State for India v. Baijnath, 9 O.W.N. 396: 1932 A.I.R. 224 (Oudh).

Section 8 of the Court Fees Act being a special provision as regards appeals from Land Acquisition cases, overrides the general provision of Schedule II, Art. 17 (iv), Puran Chand and others v. Emperor, 1926 A.I.R. 343 (Lahore): 92 I.C. 991.

Effect of Amendment.—The court-fees payable on a memorandum of appeal preferred against a decision in reference under sec. 30, Land Acquisition Act are payable ad valorem under Sch. I, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act and s. 8 of the Court Fees Act does not apply to such a case, Mahalinga Kudumban v. Theetharappa Mudaliar, 56 M.L.J. 387: 1929 M.W.N. 62: 115 I.C. 345: 1929 A.I.R. 233 (Mad.).

N.B.—Application for compensation under the Land Acquisition Act need not be stamped with court-fees under section 19, clause xxxii of this Act.

Scope.—Section 8 deals with the fee payable on a memorandum of appeal against an order relating to compensation under any Land Acquisition Act for the time being in force, and under the Act of 1894 such appeals lie to the High Court but under older Act the appeal lay to the District Judge, Krishna Mohan v. Raghunandan, 1925 Pat.C.W.N. 65: 4 Patna 336; 1925 A.I.R. 392 (Patna): 6 Pat.L.T. 262: 87 I.C. 137 (F.B.).

Power of Appellate Court.—The appellate Court cannot pass a decree for a larger amount than that stated in the memorandum of appeal unless the memorandum of appeal be amended and additional court-fees put in, Percival v. Collector of Chittagong, 30 Cal. 516.

In cases coming under the Land Acquisition Act (I of 1894), the amount awarded under the decree on appeal should be limited to the amount for which court-fee has been paid on the memorandum of appeal, Mahomed Ali Amjad v. The Secretary of State for India, 30 Cal. 501.

Valuation of appeal.—Statutory allowance.—The extra amount of compensation claimed by the appellant in an appeal under s. 8 of the Court Fees Act includes also the 15% of the market value and he should pay court-fees on the total amount including the 15%. He cannot value his appeal, and at the same time in case of success, not only claim to have that excess market value decreed to him but also claim that the appellate decree should automatically give an additional 15% of the said excess market value. An appeal is different from the claim put forward by him before the Collector, Koppaka Brahmanandam v. The Secretary of State for India, 53 Mad. 48: 57 M.L.J. 357: 1929 M.W.N. 599: 30 L.W. 242: 1930 A.I.R. 45 (M.): 122 I.C. 523 but see contra F.A. 314 of 1917 (unreported) where Rankin C. J. and Mookerjee J. agreed that court-fees on statutory allowance are not leviable. In Percival v. The Collector of Chittagong, 30 Cal. 516 at page 520, the Calcutta High Court said: "under the provisions of s. 582 (s. 107, paragraph 2), Code of Civil Procedure we ought to restrict our award to the amount stated in the memorandum of appeal, plus the amount allowed by the lower Court and the usual statutory allowance."

Notes.—After the amendment of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 by Act XIX of 1921 every decision is a decree, and the provisions of Sch. I, Art. 1 are applicable to an appeal, hence the 15% awarded must be subject-matter of an appeal before court-fees can be assessed on the same. No grounds in any memorandum of appeal are directed against the award of 15% which it is the duty of Court to award. The award of 15% being a duty cast upon Court under s. 22 (2) the same cannot be deemed a subject-matter of appeal, hence it is submitted no court-fees can be levied on the same. The market-value of the land is the subject-matter of appeal.

Memorandum of Appeal.—The memorandum of appeal against all orders made by the District Judge under the Land Acquisition Act is to be stamped with ad valorem court-fees, Kasturi v. Deputy Collector of Bellary, 21 Mad. 269. See In re Assistant Commissioner of Labour, 1924 M.W.N. 108: (1924) A.I.R. 489 (Mad.): 46 M.L.J. 150: 78 I.C. 435; Mahamed Suleman v. Ghumandi Lal, 32 P.L.R. 251: 134 I.C. 127: 1931 A.I.R. 343 (Lah.): 1931 I.R. 895 (Lah.).

The memorandum of appeal from an order by the Improvement Tribunal is to be charged with ad valorem court-fees on the amount in claim. Rankin C. J. proceeded to say, 's. 8 while not itself imposing any fee upon any one provides a rule for computation of the fee payable under the Act in certain classes of cases.'.....'The purpose of s. 8 is to say that when you come to make a charge under Sch. I, Art. 1, the figure which is to be taken as the appropriate figure under col. 2 is the figure to be computed by finding out the difference between the amount awarded to the appellant and the amount claimed by him.'.....'S. 8 necessarily involves that there is an ad valorem charge laid down either under s. 4 or under s. 6 and contained in s. 6.'.....'The provisions of s. 8 involving as they do that the fee in the class of cases dealt with, is an ad valorem fee are themselves sufficient to exclude any question of Art. 11 of Sch. II being made applicable to such cases.'.....'It is not necessary to consider whether the tribunal's award which is an order and not a decree is an order having the force of a decree whatever the effect of that phrase may be, s. 8 shows one perfectly clear that an appeal regarding compensation in land acquisition case is not under Art. 11, Sch. II because it is not a fixed fee at all.' In re Anand Lall Chacarbutty, 59 Cal. 528: 35 C.W.N. 1103: 1932 A.I.R. 346 (Cal.).

Appeal by Secretary of State.—A memorandum of appeal by the Secretary of State against an award of compensation by the District Court made under the Land Acquisition Act (I of 1894) as amended, is to be stamped under Schedule I, Art. 1 of the Court Fee Act if s. 8 of the Court Fees Act does not apply to such a case. Art. 17, cl. iv of the second Schedule does not apply as it is not sought to set aside an award, Special Collector of Rangoon v. Ko Zi Na and others, 6 Ran. 281: 110 I.C. 870: 1928 A.I.R. 197 (Ran.). See also The Secretary of State v. K. S. Bonerjee, 97 I.C. 140: 1927 A.I.R. 45 (Cal.).

Apportionment of award.—In an appeal from an order for apportionment of compensation between claimant and the Government the memorandum of appeal should bear court-fee stamp ad valorem on the value of the land claimed because apportionment really means determination of the amount payable by Government, Mangal Das Giridhar Das v. The Assistant Collector of Ahmedabad, 64 Ind. Cas. 582: 45 Bom. 277: 23 Bom.L.R. 148 F.B.

Disposal of Compensation.—In an appeal from the order of the District Judge made upon a reference by the Collector under sections 18 and 19 of the Land Acquisition Act as to the disposal of compensation money awarded for land taken up by Government under the Act, the memorandum of appeal must be stamped as an appeal from an original decree and not an appeal from an order, Sheo Ratan Rai v. Mohri, 21 All. 354: 12 All.W.N. 96; Bālāram v. Sham Sundar, 23 Cal. 531.

Investment of award.—Where certain debutter properties were acquired under the Land Acquisition Act and the Court ordered, under section 32 of the Land Acquisition Act, that the compensation money be invested in Government Promissory Notes and the shebait is to draw interest only and against that order the shebait filed an appeal, and stamped the memorandum of appeal with a court-fee of Rupees 10, held, that the relief sought could be estimated at a money value, at least approximately, and that the case fell under section 8 of the Court Fees Act and the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with an ad valorem court-fee calculated on the difference between the amount awarded and the amount claimed by the plaintiff, Trinayani Dasi v. Krishna Lall Dey, 39 Cal. 906: 17 C.W.N. 933 (935): 14 I.C. 724; Mahammad Ali Raja Avergal v. Ahammad Ali Raja Avergal, 26 Mad. 287; Shiva Rao v. Nagappa, 29 Mad. 117.

The above cases in 39 Cal. 906 and 23 Cal. 531 were dissented from in Ram Chandra v. Ram Chandra, L.R. 49 I.A. 129 (137) where the Judicial Committee said: "the award constituted by statute is nothing but an award which states the area of the land, the compensation to be allowed and the apportionment among the persons interested in land of whose claims the collector has information, meaning thereby people whose interests are not in dispute but from the moment when the sum has been deposited in Court under s. 31, sub-section 2, the function of the award have ceased, and all that is left is a dispute between interested people as to the extent of their interest. But the dispute forms no part of the award and it would indeed be strange if a controversy between two people as to the nature of their respective interests in a piece of land should enjoy certain rights of appeal, which would be wholly taken away when the piece of land was represented by a sum of money paid into Court."

A memorandum of appeal from a decree passed in a contest between a purchaser from a widow (who was alive at the date of contest) and the reversioner as to the investment of the award is to be stamped as in an appeal from a declaration only and ad valorem court-fees need not be paid, Rash Behary Sanyal v. Gosto Behari, (1934) 62 Cal. 331: 39 C.W.N. 110: 60 C.L.J. 216: 1935 A.I.R. 243 (Cal.).

After the amount of compensation money is paid into Court by the Collector, an appeal in which the subject-matter is that which of the claimants is entitled to the compensation money is an appeal for the recovery of the money from the successful claimant and would have to be valued as a claim for money and ad valorem court-fees paid on that basis; but if the claimant be a widow then if the money be held in trust for her by the Court then the above dictum will not apply as the property is in custodia legis and the court-fee payable would be as for a mere declaration, but if any interest paid to the widow be sought to be recovered then ad valorem court-fees on the amount in claim will have to be paid, Thamanayya Naidu v. Venkataramanamma, 55 Mad. 641: 62 M.L.J. 541: 1932 M.W.N. 420: 35 L.W. 618: 1932 A.I.R. 438 (Mad.). See also Ponnuswami Nadar v. The Secretary of State, 68 M.L.J. 327: 1935 A.I.R. 318 (Mad.).

[But in these cases the language of this section as to an order relating to compensation was disregarded.]

Orders dismissing petitions.—But if the District Judge dismisses the petition of the petitioner and refers him to the Civil Court, then the memorandum of appeal by the petitioner, is to be stamped with a court-fee under Art. 11, Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, Hurrish v. Bhoba Tarini, 8 C.W.N. 321.

Case of several appeals.—Where there are a number of appeals, in which the parties are the same and the lands which are contiguous to one another, form one estate, although in occupation of different tenants, who were not parties to appeals, the court-fees payable are to be calculated on the value of the consolidated appeals under s. 17 of the Court Fees Act subject to the limitation in proviso under Art. 1, Sch. I of the Court Fees Act, Kashi Prasad Singh v. The Secretary of State, 29 Cal. 140, but see Moosa Soleman Saleji and others v. The Secretary of State for India, 32 C.W.N. 776, where it was held that Court fees must be paid on each appeal separately.

Refund.—Orders for refund of money paid under a mistake is not an award and is not therefore appealable, Nobin Kali Debi v. Banalata Devi, 32 Cal. 921.

After section 8 of the said Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

8A. In every suit in which an ad valorem court-fee is payable under this Act on the plaint, the plaintiff shall file with the plaint a statement of particulars of the subject-matter of the suit and his own valuation thereof unless such particulars and the valuation are contained in the plaint. The statement shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed by the Local Government by notification in the Calcutta Gazette. In every such suit the plaintiff shall also, if the Court so directs, file a duplicate copy of the plaint and of the said statement.

8B. (1) In every suit in which a court-fee is payable under this Act on the plaint or memorandum of appeal the Court shall, as soon as may be after the registration of the plaint or memorandum of appeal, and in every case before proceeding to deliver judgment, record a finding whether a sufficient court-fee has been paid.

(2) If the Court records a finding that an insufficient court-fee has been paid on the plaint or memorandum of appeal the Court shall—

- (a) stay all further proceedings in the suit until it has determined the proper amount of such court-fee payable and the plaintiff or the appellant, as the case may be, has paid such amount or until the date referred to in clause (b), as the case may be:

Provided that if the plaintiff or appellant gives, within such time as the Court may allow, security, to the satisfaction of the Court, for the payment of any additional amount for which he may be found liable the Court may proceed with the suit,

- (b) fix a date before which the plaintiff or appellant shall pay the amount of court-fee due from him, as determined by the Court under clause (a).

(3) If the plaintiff or appellant fails to give the security referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (2) or to pay the amount referred to in clause (b) of that sub-section within the time allowed, or before the date fixed, by the Court, as the case may be, the suit shall be dismissed.

8C. If the Court is of opinion that the subject-matter of any suit has been wrongly valued it may revise the valuation and determine the correct valuation and may hold such inquiry as it thinks fit for such purpose.

Inquiry as to valuation of suits.

8D. (1) For the purpose of an inquiry under section 8C the Court may depute, Investigation to ascertain proper valuation. or issue a commission to, any suitable person to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary and to report thereon to the Court. Such report and any evidence recorded by such person shall be evidence in the inquiry.

(2) The Court may, from time to time, direct such party to the suit as it thinks fit to deposit such sum as the Court thinks reasonable as the costs of the inquiry, and if the costs are not deposited within such time as the Court shall fix, may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act, dismiss the suit if such party is the plaintiff or the appellant and, in any other case, may recover the costs as a public demand.

8E. (1) The Court, when making an inquiry under section 8C and any person Power of persons making inquiry under sections 8C and 8D. making an investigation under section 8D shall have, respectively, for the purposes of such inquiry or investigation, the powers vested in a Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in respect of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath or affirmation;
- (b) compelling the production of documents or material objects; and
- (c) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses.

(2) An inquiry or investigation referred to in subsection (1) shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code.

8F. If in the result of an inquiry under section 8C the Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit has been undervalued the Court may order the party responsible for the undervaluation to pay all or any part of the costs of the inquiry.
Costs of inquiry as to valuation and refund of excess fee.

If in the result of such inquiry the Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit has not been under-valued the Court may, in its discretion, order that all or any part of such costs shall be paid by Government or by any party to the suit at whose instance the inquiry has been undertaken, and if any amount exceeding the proper amount of fee has been paid shall refund the excess amount so paid.

Repeal of sections 9 and 10.

9. Sections 9 and 10 of the said Act are hereby repealed.]

9. If the Court sees reason to think that the annual nett profits or the market-value of any such land, house, or garden as is mentioned in section 7, paragraphs (v) and (vi), have or has been wrongly estimated, the Court may, for the purpose of computing the fee payable in any suit therein mentioned, issue a commission to any proper person, directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary, and to report thereon to the Court.

Power to ascertain nett profits or market value.

NOTES.

Repeal.—Repealed in Bengal.

Application.—This section applies to suits and not to appeals, Balkaran Rai v. Gobinda, 12 All. 129: 10 A.W.N. 39 F.B.; Hari Ram v. Akbar Hossain, 4 All.L.J. 636: 29 All. 749: 27 All.W.N. 253: 2 M.L.T. 373 F.B.

Scope.—Section 9 merely lays down the procedure to be followed when the Court is of opinion that the suit has been under-valued. It is not open to Court without any evidence on the point and without following the procedure prescribed by section 9 to hold that the land in suit is worth more than the present value, Hari Pada Chakrabarti v. Dwijendra Narain Roy, 5 C.L.J. 28 (notes).

If the Court sees reason to think—Charts of valuation.—Where the determination of the amount of court-fees payable depends upon valuation, the particular and appropriate provisions of s. 9 of the Court Fees Act should always be followed, "S. 9 begins with the words, 'If the Court sees reason to think that the market-value of any land has been wrongly estimated.' For the purpose of these opening words there is no illegality in any reference to a chart or to a gazetteer or to anything else that will assist. This is not a question of judicial decision. The Court merely sees reason to think that the suit is undervalued and that by itself will hurt nobody. But if the Court wants this matter to be pursued and it is a matter upon which evidence of external facts is plainly necessary—the Court must undertake the investigation in a judicial manner. It says that the Court may issue a commission to any proper person directing him to make a local or other investigation and to report to it. If that commission is issued and if a report is made, it is clear that then the learned Judge has a judicial duty to come to a decision on the basis of the commissioner's report. Such a commission is a commission under the Civil Procedure Code and what the commissioner may do and what the duty of the learned Judge is, is laid down quite clearly by the Civil Procedure Code." * * *

"It is very necessary that these investigations should not be embarked without due reason. It will obviously be a hardship to the plaintiff that he should have an extra stage of litigation to go through before he can prosecute his suits." * * * *
 "There is no power to make the plaintiff deposit the costs of the commission." * * * * * "The proper course is to deal with the matter when the plaint or the memorandum has been filed. If the result of the enquiry is to the effect that the plaintiff's valuation is insufficient, then the plaintiff may be called upon to make the necessary deposit."

A District Judge, if he has any uneasiness as to the amount of court-fees paid, is to take action under s. 9 by appointing a commission or by holding a judicial enquiry himself. Charts of valuation may be used for the purpose of opening words of s. 9 of the Court Fees Act but such charts should not be used as evidence in themselves, Jalekha Bibi and another v. Danis Mohomed and others, 33 C.W.N. 952: 50 C.L.J. 164: 1930 A.I.R. 65 (Cal.). See also Badarannessa Chowdhurani v. Ram Chandra Mala Das and others, 33 C.W.N. 845: 49 C.L.J. 562: 1929 A.I.R. 717 (Cal.).

Local investigation.—This section as originally drawn, followed the provisions of the then existing law (Act XXVI of 1867) on this subject; but the committee were strongly of opinion that local investigation for the purpose of valuing a suit should be discouraged as much as possible, as, in effect, they entailed to the parties to the suit all the trouble and expense of an extra suit merely to determine the question of the amount due to the revenue. They proposed, therefore, to substitute words the effect of which would be to require the Court to determine, in each case, whether such local investigation was necessary or expedient instead of directing the enquiry to be made as a matter of course on the mere requisition of a party to the suit, Proceedings of the Legislative Council, (India Gazette Supplement, 26th February, 1870).

On questions arising as to the proper valuation of a suit, the Court may issue a commission and make enquiry as to the market-value and nett proceeds of the property; the final decision as to valuation rested with the Court, Uma Sanker Ray Chowdhury v. Sayad Mansur Ali Khan, 5 B.L.R. Ap. 6: 13 W.R. 326. But the Court is not bound to appoint a commissioner to hold an investigation, Hari Ram v. Akbar, 29 All. 749: 4 A. L.J. 636: 27 (1907) A.W.N. 253: 2 M.L.T. 373; and a party has no absolute right to adduce evidence before Court after the report of the commissioner. The point must be decided on the facts of every particular case, Girish Chandra v. Sashi, 27 Cal. 951. This section does not restrict the Court to Amin's report but allows the Court to appoint an Amin to make a local investigation just as in any other case under the Code of Civil Procedure, Madoosoodan v. Ryemonee, 13 W.R. 415.

Parties to the question as to the court-fees payable.—

A question as to the amount of court-fees payable is a question between the Court and the plaintiff and is not a question between the parties at all, Godha Mal and others v. Prem Singh and others, 110 I.C. 179: 1928 A.I.R. 560 (Lah.).

Onus of proving valuation.—When the defendant asserts that the suit is over-valued, the onus of proving the truth of his assertion lies on him, Umasankar v. Mansur Ali, 13 W.R. 326: 5 B.L.R. (App.) 6; Wajid Ali v. Hanuman, 12 W.R. 484: 4 B.L.R.A.C. 139; Musst. Soobudra v. Raja Ram Prabash Singh, 16 W.R. 5; Musst. Dhunnoo v. Damodar Das, 2 N.W.P. 177. But where, whether any commission had been issued or not, the munsiff finds the value to be within his jurisdiction, the Subordinate Judge cannot hold that the munsiff had no jurisdiction to do so, Ishan Chandra Mookerjee v. Lokenath Ray, 6 B.L.R.A.C. 72: 14 W.R. 451.

Determination of stamp duty on appeal.—Where for the purpose of the stamp duty on an appeal, it is impracticable to ascertain accurately what portion of permanent revenue has been assessed on the lands in dispute in a suit, the appellant should furnish to the Registrar a memorandum giving an estimate of the market-value and the data on which it is founded. If the Registrar considers the estimate clearly insufficient, the Court will issue a commission to ascertain the proper market-value, Ex parte Moore Rangappen, 3 Mad.H.C. 352; Dhunnoo v. Damodar, 2 N.W.P. 177.

Power of revision.—The power of revision provided by section 9 relates to an estimate given by the plaintiff of the annual nett profits of the land or the market-value of the land, house or garden as mentioned in section 7, paragraphs v and vi, Chinnammal v. Madarsa Rowther, 27 Mad. 480: 14 M.L.J. 343.

10. (i) If in the result of any such investigation the Court finds that the nett profits or market-value have or has been wrongly estimated, the Court, if the estimation has been excessive, may in its discretion refund the excess paid as such fee; but, if the estimation has been insufficient, the Court shall require the plaintiff to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the said market-value or nett profits been rightly estimated.

(ii) In such case the suit shall be stayed until the additional fee is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed.

NOTES.

Repeal.—Repealed in Bengal.

Alteration in law.—This section had another clause repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act (XII of 1891), which ran as follows:—

Section 180 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be construed as if the words, “the market-value of any property or” were inserted after the word “ascertaining” and as if the words “or annual nett profits” were inserted after the word “damages.”

Local Amendment.

The following paragraph has been substituted for paragraph (ii) by Assam Legislature:—(ii) In such case—

(a) the suit shall be stayed until the additional fee is paid and if the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed; and whether the additional fee is or is not paid,

(b) the Court may, if it is of opinion that the estimation has been grossly insufficient, further order that the expenses of the commission, or such portion thereof as the Court may think reasonable, be paid by the party in fault to the Government and the order so made shall have the force and effect of a decree passed by the Court.

Application.—Section 54 of the Code of Civil Procedure, [Order 7, Rule 11 (Act V of 1908)] which directs that a plaint shall be rejected in certain cases, applies only to the initial stages of a suit before a plaint has been registered, whereas the application of this section is not susceptible of restriction to any particular stage, Valya Kesava Vadyar v. Suppan Nair, 2 Mad. 308; Padmanand Singh v. Anant Lal Misser, F.B. 34 Cal. 20: 11 C.W.N. 38: 4 C.L.J. 422, where it was held that section 54 applies to any stage of a suit.

Section 54 of the Code of Civil Procedure and section 10 of the Court Fees Act have reference to different stages of a suit. Where the plaint had been valued bona fide and the proper court-fees had been paid so far as such valuation was concerned, but payment of additional court-fee was necessitated by the result of the enquiry under section 9 of the Court Fees Act, such a suit cannot be held to be barred because when the additional court-fee called for by the Court was paid the period of limitation for the suit had expired, Babu Lal v. Asi Kunwar, 27 All. 197: (1904) 24 All.W.N. 224: 1 All. L.J. 641; Ghasiram v. Hargobind, 27 (1907) A.W.N. 18: 28 All. 411. But see contra, section 54 applies to any stage of a suit, Kishore Singh v. Sabdal Singh, 12 All. 553.

Scope.—Sections 9 and 10 provide machinery for ascertaining the value of land and houses, the subject-matter of a suit, when the Court thinks that the value has been wrongly estimated to the detriment of revenue, Krishna Mohan Singha v. Raghunandan Pandey, 1925 Pat. C.W.N. 65: 4 Pat. 336: 6 Pat.L.T. 262: 87 I.C. 137: 1925 A.I.R. 392 (Pat.) F.B.

Section 10 allows a Court to dismiss a suit for non-payment of the additional court-fees where it has jurisdiction to hear and decide the suit. No other Court can dismiss the suit under s. 10. When at a subsequent stage of the suit, it is found that the court-fees are insufficient and that the value of the property has been under-estimated, the Court has power to make an enquiry as to the value of the property and if the Court has jurisdiction to decide the case, can dismiss the suit, if the additional court-fees are not paid within such time as the Court shall fix and that is because the party disobeys the order of the Court and the suit shall fail for want of prosecution. Where, however, the market value of the property goes beyond the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court which has made such enquiry, then it is the imperative duty of the Court under Order 7, Rule 10,

C.P.C. to return the plaint for presentation to the proper Court. When the plaint is returned for presentation to the proper Court, the plaintiff can take advantage of the court-fees that has been paid on the previously filed plaint and he could pay the deficit court-fees in the Court having jurisdiction to hear the case, Ganesh Tavanappa Barde v. Taty Bharmappa Mirji, 51 Bom. 236: 29 Bom.L.R. 280: 100 I.C. 343: 1927 A.I.R. 257 (Bom.).

Construction of the section.—In the case of Mahammad Salim v. Nabian Bibi, 8 All. 282 (287), Mr. Justice Mahmood said at pages 286-287: "The object of these provisions, as indeed of the Act, is to lay down rules for the collection of one form of taxation, and this, I regard to be the scope of the enactment, though it contains no preamble at all; and, I hold it as a fundamental rule of construction that statutes which impose pecuniary burdens or encroach upon the rights of the subject, or qualify those rights, must be construed strictly. The rule applies with special force to such provisions as provide a penalty, whatever its nature may be."

Duty of appeal Court.—The District Judge should come to a finding on the true value of the properties in suit for the purpose of court-fees and without coming to a finding on the question he could not hold that the memorandum of appeal was insufficiently stamped in an appeal against a decree of the trial Court rejecting a plaint for non-payment of the deficit court-fees, Amarta Lal Kumar v. Basu, 1926 A.I.R. 427 (Cal.). See also Jalekha Bibi and another v. Danis Mahomed and others, 33 C.W.N. 952: 50 C.L.J. 164: 1930 A.I.R. 65 (Cal.).

Effect of dismissal of suit.—Dismissal of a suit under this section cannot operate as res judicata as this is only a penal clause, Muhammad Salim v. Nabian Bibi, 8 All. 282.

The dismissal has the same effect as under section 56 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Or. 7, rule 13) in cases of rejection under section 54 (Or. 7, rule 11) of the Code of Civil Procedure, Balkaran Rai v. Govinda, 12 All. 129: 10 A.W.N. 39.

Clause II.—The word "suit" in clause (ii) of section 10, includes an appeal, Dyal Singh v. Ram Rakha, 109 P.R. 1912: 136 P.W.R. 1912: 15 Ind. Cas. 463.

Procedure in case of non-payment.—Stay of suit until the deficiency is made good.—Where the munsiff returned the plaint for want of jurisdiction and the plaint was presented to the proper Court where the Munsarim reported that the court-fee paid was insufficient, whereupon the Court extended the time to pay the deficit court-fees and stayed the suit, the deficiency was paid within the time and the plaint registered, held, that the sub-judge was right in staying the suit under section 10 of the Court Fees Act, Tajammal Hossain Khan v. Nowabdad Khan,

6 M.L.T. 362: 3 Ind. Cas. 830; following Hariram v. Akbar, 29 All. 749 F.B.

Dismissal of suit.—Where upon the proper valuation of a suit an appellate Court finds that there is a deficit in the amount of court-fees paid by the plaintiff on his plaint and memorandum of appeal, the correct procedure for the Court to adopt is to call upon the plaintiff to make good the deficiency and on his failing to do so, to enforce its order by dismissal of the suit in the appellate Court. In such cases the rejection of plaint is inappropriate, because section 10 of the Court Fees Act enjoins dismissal without option, Brij Krishna Das v. Murli Rai, 4 Pat. L.J. 703: 56 Ind. Cas. 316. Cf. Or. 7, rr. 10 & 11 of the C. P. C., 1908.

If, as the result of the enquiry under section 9 of the Court Fees Act the Court orders the additional court-fees to be paid within a time, and the plaintiffs fail to do so, then plaint is not to be rejected under section 54 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Order 7, rule 11) but the suit itself should be dismissed under section 10 of this Act, Walli Amanji v. Mahmud Adam, 16 Bom. L.R. 763: 26 Ind. Cas. 746.

Where the party to an appeal has been called upon to pay the deficit court-fees (due from him) but not paid in the lower Court and he fails to pay it, the Court is bound to dismiss the suit under s. 10 (ii) of the Court Fees Act. The provisions of s. 10 (ii) of the Court Fees Act are mandatory and the power may be exercised at any time so long as the suit remains before the appellate Court, Bidhu Bhusan Bakshi v. Kalachand Ray, 31 C.W.N. 1045: 106 I.C. 335: 1927 A.I.R. 775 (Cal.).

But the original suit cannot be dismissed under sections 10 and 12 of this Act before the appeal is admitted, Govinda v. Parameswara, 1 M.L.J. 528.

Penalty for non-payment.—The original bill contained no effectual provision as to consequences of the non-payment of the additional fee discovered to be due by the result of the local enquiry as to market value of the litigated property. The amended bill empowered the Court to fix the time within which such additional fees must be paid and to dismiss the suit in default of such payment.

The powers conferred by sections 54 (a) and (c) and 55 (of the Act of 1882), read with section 582 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or by section 12 of the Court Fees Act (VII of 1870), read with clause (ii) of section 10, are intended to be exercised before the disposal of the case, and not after it has been decided finally so far as that Court is concerned, Mahadei v. Ram Kishen Das and others, 7 All. 528: 5 A.W.N. 140.

Question of court-fees to be dealt with at the earliest possible moment.—It is desirable that where the appellate Court has to deal with the question of deficit court-fees it must be done at the earliest possible moment and the expense of printing a paper book should not be incurred till the question is settled, Hitendra Sing v. Sir Rameshwar Singh, 62 Ind. Cas. 43: (1921) C.W.N. Pat. 161: 2 P.L.T. 383: 6 Pat. L.J. 293 F.B. See also Walaiti Ram v. Gopiram and others, 152 I.C. 799: 1935 A.I.R. 75 (Lah.), where it was further held that the Court if it finds that a document is insufficiently stamped it should stay the proceedings in the suit and fix a time within which the court-fees are to be paid and dismiss the suit if the demand is not complied with. The Court should not while dismissing the suit on the merits add a rider to the decree that the deficient court-fee is to be realized from the plaintiff.

Extension of time.—The Court is competent to extend the time originally fixed for payment of additional court-fees, Chuni Lal v. Ajudhia Prasad, 19 All. 240: (1897) 17 A.W.N. 40; Dwarka Nath Biswas v. Kedar Nath Biswas, 2 Ind. Cas. 1; Bhagwandas v. Haji Abu, 16 Bom. 263; Raikisori v. Madan Mohan, 31 Cal. 75; Budrinarain v. Sheo Koer, L.R. 17 I.A. 1: 17 Cal. 512; Majlis v. Munna Singh, 84 P.R. 1876. (See section 148, C. P. C.).

Abandonment of portion of claim.—Where the plaintiff abandons a portion of the claim at the initial stage of the litigation, the trial Court cannot take action under section 10 (2) and dismiss the entire suit as this state of things was not considered when the Court Fees Act was passed into law; Ram Prasad v. Bhimon, 27 All. 151: 24 All.W.N. 198: 1 All. L.J. 577; Duni Chand v. Aziz Khan, 10 I.C. 207.

Government is interested.—The question whether court-fees should be paid or not is really a matter that is important from the view of Government and Government alone, Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway Co. v. Millin, 1931 A.L.J. 727: 133 I.C. 465: 1931 A.I.R. 659 (All.): 1931 I.R. 673 (All.).

11. In suits for mesne-profits or for immoveable property and mesne-profits, or for an account, if the profits or amount decreed are or is in excess of the profits claimed or the amount at which the plaintiff valued the relief sought, the decree shall not be executed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits or amount so decreed shall have been paid to the proper officer.

Procedure in suits for mesne-profits or account when amount decreed exceeds amount claimed:

Where the amount of mesne-profits is left to be ascertained in the course of the execution of the decree, if the profits so ascertained exceed the profits claimed, the further execution of the decree shall be stayed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed.

Substitution of new section 11.

For section 11 of the said Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

“11. Where, in any suit for mesne-profits or for land and mesne-profits or for an account, the fee which would have been payable if the suit had comprised the whole of the relief to which the Court finds the plaintiff to be entitled exceeds the fee actually paid, the Court shall require the plaintiff to pay an additional fee equal to the amount of the excess, and if such additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court may fix, the suit, or if a decree has previously been passed therein, so much of the claim as has not been so decreed, shall be dismissed:

Provided that, where the additional fee is payable in respect of a portion of the claim which can be relinquished, that portion only shall be dismissed.”]

where a decree directs an enquiry as to mesne-profits which have accrued on the property during a period prior to the institution of the suit, if the profits ascertained on such inquiry exceed the profits claimed, no final decree shall be passed till the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the claim for the excess shall be dismissed, unless the Court, for sufficient cause, extends the time for payment.

Where a decree directs an inquiry as to mesne profits from the institution of the suit, and a final decree is passed in accordance with the result of such inquiry, the decree shall not be executed until such fee is paid as would have been payable on the amount claimed in execution if a separate suit had been instituted therefor.]

NOTES.

Amendment.—This section has been amended in Madras by Madras Act V of 1922 as indicated above and in Bengal by B. C. Act VII of 1935.

Application of the section.—The section applies to suits and not to appeals, Balkaran Rai v. Govinda Nath Tewari; 12 All. 129: 19 All.W.N. 139 F.B. This section also applies to the case of mesne profits for which an amount can be and has been claimed in the plaint and in respect of which some court-fees have already been paid, Ram Krishna Bhikaji v. Bhima Bai, 15 Bom. 416; Vithal Hari Athvale v. Govind Basudeb Thosar, 17 Bom. 41; and also applies to the case of past as well as future mesne profits where an amount was claimed and court-fees paid on the estimated amount of past mesne profits only, Dwarkanath v. Debendra Nath, 33 Cal. 1232: 3 C.L.J. 94-95n.; Ijjatulla Bhuiya v. Chandra Mohan Bannerjee, 34 Cal. 954: 11 C.W.N. 1133: 6 C.L.J. 255; Kewal Kishen Singh v. Sookhari, 24 Cal. 173; and also to the case where compensation is claimed from the date of suit to the date on which, under the terms of the decree, possession should have been delivered, Chedi Lall v. Kiran Chand, 2 All. 682 F.B.

Where it does not apply—to the case of an interest accruing upon a decree passed in a suit—which is not for mesne profits, nor for immoveable property nor for an account but simply a suit for money lent, Krishnarav v. Antaji Birupaksha, 12 Bom.H.C. 227; Bhawani Prosad v. Kutubunnissa, 27 All. 559: 2 All. L.J. 263: (1905) 25 All. W.N. 84.

Frame of suit.—A claim for possession and mesne profits may be united or may be brought separately and when united, separate court-fee for the mesne profits claimed is not necessary, Bebae Syedun v. Syud Allah, W.R. 327, Gap Number—which was a case of succession to the office of a religious superior in a Mahomedan religious endowment.

Valuation.—Under the present Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908), Order 7, Rule 2, paragraph (ii), the plaintiff is to state approximately the amount of mesne profits claimed, and in suits for accounts he is to state approximately the amount which will be found due to him on taking unsettled accounts.

Every suit should state approximately the amount claimed and ad valorem court-fees must be paid on that amount, Nand Kumar Singh v. Bilas Ram Marwari, 3 Pat.L.J. 67: 1 Pat.L.W. 781: 40 Ind. Cas. 579. But court-fees cannot be levied either in the original Court or the Court of appeal in respect of possible value of mesne profits pendente lite, Bhupendra Kumar Chakrabarti v. Purna Chandra Bose, 43 Cal. 650: 13 C.L.J. 132: 24 Ind. Cas. 232; Bunwarilal v. Daya Sankar, 13 C.W.N. 815; Ram Krishna v. Bhimabai, 15 Bom. 416; Maiden v. Janakiramya, 21 Mad. 371.

Account suit.—When a plaintiff is required by the Court Fees Act to place a valuation on his claim and places a valuation which needs only to be approximately correct, it must not be arbitrary or manifestly inadequate. The valuation can only be made approximately, and s. 11, Court Fees Act makes provision for the payment of additional court-fees if the original valuation should be ultimately found to have been inadequate. But this does not mean that the plaintiff having valued his claim is entitled to select one or two items and to leave the rest for assessment under s. 11 after the final decree has been obtained. The plaintiff has to value his suit for the purpose of determining jurisdiction, not necessarily exactly, but in an approximately correct fashion; and the court-fees are payable on the valuation so made, Gauri Lal and others v. Raja Babu, 1929 A.I.R. 626 (Patna): 11 P.L.T. 561: 123 I.C. 634: 1930 I.R. 362 (Pat.).

Final decree.—Under the present Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908) the amount of mesne profits to be awarded is ascertained in the decree itself. See Order 20, Rule 12, C. P. C. Paragraph (ii) of that rule speaks of a final decree in respect of rents or mesne profits passed according to the result of the enquiry under clauses (a) and (c) of paragraph (i) of that rule; but no form of that final decree is given in the schedule.

The procedure prescribed by Order 20, Rule 12 of the Code of Civil Procedure supersedes section 244 (a). (b) of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act XIV of 1882), Dawood v. Rahaman, 62 Ind. Cas. 175.

A decree directing that the plaintiffs should get wasilat from the defendants but the same should be ascertained through the intervention of a court-amin and in the course of execution proceedings, was an interlocutory decree only, so far as wasilat was concerned and did not become final until the amount of wasilat had been ascertained by the amin and until his report had been adopted or confirmed by the Court, Hajon Manick v. Bur Singh, 11 Cal. 17.

The memorandum of appeal against a final decree under Order 20, Rule 12 (2), C. P. C. in respect of subsequent mesne profits, is to be stamped with court-fee calculated ad valorem on the amount of mesne profits in dispute, Pilla Balaramanaidu v. Pilla Sangannaidu, (1922) 42 M.L.J. 184: 45 Mad. 280: 69 Ind. Cas. 722: 14 L.W. 730.

Power of executing court.—Costs—In Lakshmanan Chettiar and others, R. M. C. T. C. T. Chidambaram Chettiar, 57 Mad. 303: 65 M.L.J. 526: 38 L.W. 572: 1933 M.W.N. 1116: 145 I.C. 946: 1933 A.I.R. 787 (Mad.), the Madras High Court held that in view of the mandatory provision of sec. 11, Court Fees Act, no direction as to payment of additional court-fees need be given in the final decree. The costs so incurred by the decree-holder by reason of the payment of the additional court-fee may be deemed to be costs relating to execution and the executing Court has jurisdiction to pass any order relating to it. See also Perianan Chetty v. Nagappa Mudaliar, (1907) 30 Mad. 32: 16 M.L.J. 543.

Section 11 requires the plaintiff to make up the deficiency in court-fees if on enquiry a larger amount than the approximate value is found due; therefore the successful plaintiff is to make up the deficiency found to be due after ascertainment of mesne profits. On payment of the court-fees a regular decree comes into existence, Collector of Etawah v. Bindrabhan, 1931 A.L.J. 413: 1931 A.I.R. 538 (All.).

Determination of the amount of mesne profits.—

(a) Application to ascertain the amount of mesne profits. Nature of proceedings.—In a suit for possession with mesne profits "the proceedings, in determining the amount of wasilat are not proceedings in execution of a decree in regard to any fixed sum, but merely a continuation of the original suit and carried on in the same way as if a single suit was brought for mesne profits by itself," Puranchand v. Ray Radha Kissen, 19 Cal. 132 (136) F.B.

Proceedings for ascertaining the amount of mesne profits on an application for that purpose is not a proceeding "in execution of the decree" and therefore an application for delivery of possession of land decreed will not be barred by lapse of three years although the claim to possession was barred, Pryag Singh

v. Raju Singh, 25 Cal. 203, accepted by the Bombay High Court in Uttam Ram v. Kishordas, 24 Bom. 149; Harmonoje Narain Singh v. Ram Prosad, 6 C.L.J. 462. But see Ram Kishore v. Gopi Kantha, 28 Cal. 242; Upendra Chandra v. Sakhi Chand, 12 C.W.N. 3, where an application for ascertaining the mesne profits was regarded as an application in execution.

Determination of amount cannot be left open to a future date.—Before passing a final decree in a suit for accounts the Court is bound to go into accounts and fix definitely the amount which is payable by one party to the other. It cannot leave the examination of account to a future date and pass a decree for rendition of accounts to the extent of the sum found to have been received by the defendant without deciding what deduction, if any, he is entitled to make. Nor can the determination of the amount of court-fees be left at the option of the plaintiff. Under s. 11, Court Fees Act, the plaintiff should be called upon to pay court-fees on the difference between the sum decreed and the value tentatively fixed by him in the plaint, Harry Percival Robson v. Administrator-General, Punjab, 11 Lah. 325: 30 P.L.R. 503: 1929 A.I.R. 753 (Lahore): 122 I.C. 467.

Mesne profits subsequent to suit.—"It is manifest that mesne profits antecedent to suit and mesne profits pendente lite stand on very different grounds. In fact as regards the latter, there is no cause of action at the time of the commencement of the suit, and it is only by means of statutory provisions, framed with the obvious purpose of shortening litigation, that they can be awarded in the suit even though they accrued subsequent to the institution of the suit. The mesne profits antecedent to the suit have, on the other hand, accrued before the commencement of the suit, and although, therefore their amount may not be stated with absolute certainty, the amount can be mentioned with some approach to approximation. When, therefore, a plaintiff institutes his suit for possession and mesne profits antecedent to the suit in a Court of limited pecuniary jurisdiction he may be rightly deemed to have limited his claim to the maximum amount for which that Court can entertain a suit," Bhupendra Kumar Chakrabarti v. Purna Chandra Bose, 43 Cal. 650: 14 C.W.N. 506: 13 C.L.J. 132: 24 Ind. Cas. 232.

Stamps to be paid on antecedent mesne profits in appeals.—As to mesne profits claimed prior to the institution of the suit, the memorandum of appeal must bear the same court-fees as in the plaint; but as to mesne profits accruing subsequent to the institution of the suit when the decree directs that the same be determined in execution, it is not necessary for the appellant to pay any additional court-fees on the memorandum of appeal, Rudra v. Radhabhai, 1883 P.J. 37. The court-fees that have to be paid only upon the mesne profits claimed are antecedent to the suit and a plaint or memorandum of appeal is not liable to stamp-duty in respect of mesne profits subsequent to the suit, Bunwarilal v. Daya Sunkar Misser, 13 C.W.N. 815: 1 Ind. Cas. 670. See Ram Krishna Bhikaji v. Bhimabai, 15 Bom. 416; Maiden v. Janakiramayya, 21 Mad. 371, but see Pilla Balaramanaidu v. Pilla Sankannaidu, (1922) 42 M.L.J. 184: 14 L.W. 370: 45 Mad. 280: 69 I.C. 722, where it is held that on appeal from a final decree under Order 20, Rule 12 (2), court-fees are payable on mesne profits subsequent to suit.

(b) When the suit is instituted in a Court of limited jurisdiction.—The Calcutta and Bombay High Courts have held that if the suit be instituted in a Court of limited pecuniary jurisdiction, the amount of mesne profits to be awarded after it has been ascertained cannot exceed the pecuniary jurisdiction of that Court, i.e., the amount of mesne profits that can be awarded by such Court is the maximum limit of pecuniary jurisdiction of that Court minus the value of the disputed property, Golap Sing v. Indra Coomar Hazra, 13 C.W.N. 493: 9 C.L.J. 367: 1 Ind. Cas. 86: 5 M.L.T. 360; Hajibhai v. Jamshedji, (1913) 15 Bom. L.R. 1021. See also Manna Lal v. Samandu, 46 P.R. 1906: 94 P.L.R. 1906, but see Rameswar v. Dilu, 21 Cal. 550; Panchanon v. Kinoo, 40 Cal. 56 but in Bidyadhar v. Manindra, F.B. 42 C.L.J. 49: 53 Cal. 14: 29 C.W.N. 869: 89 Ind. Cas. 726: 1925 A.I.R. 1076 (Cal.), the Calcutta High Court held that the Munsiff can pass a decree for any amount in respect of mesne profits accruing pending suit. For the view taken by Allahabad, Madras and Patna High Courts, see Sundarsan Das v. Ram Prosad, 23 All. 97: 7 All.L.J. 963; Madho Das v. Ramji Pathak, 16 All. 286. A suit was instituted in the Court of the Munsiff and was valued at Rs. 1,400, but on investigation the amount was found to be Rs. 8,000 by the commissioner appointed; the Munsiff directed that plaint be returned, the High Court directed the Munsiff to resume the trial of suit, Arogya v. Appachi, 25 Mad. 543: 12 M.L.J. 35; Putta Kamayya v. Rudhabhallavenkata, F.B. 40 Mad. 1: 32 M.L.J. 221: 1917 M.W.N. 367: 39 I.C. 439; Sheikh Mohammad v. Mahtab, (1917) 2 Pat.L.J. 394: 41 I.C. 231. In Musst. Urehan Kuer v. Musst. Kabutri, 13 Patna 344: 15 P.L.T. 131: 148 I.C. 579: 1934 A.I.R. 169 (Pat.) S.B., the Patna High Court held that the pecuniary jurisdiction is ordinarily governed by the value stated by the plaintiff but such jurisdiction is not ousted by the Court finding that a sum exceeding its pecuniary jurisdiction is due. The Court in such cases can pass a decree beyond its pecuniary jurisdiction.

In a suit for settlement of partnership accounts a Court is competent to pass a decree for an amount exceeding the limit of its pecuniary jurisdiction, provided it had jurisdiction.

at the inception of the suit to try the same, Hotchand v. Tejmal Mulchand and others, 1925 A.I.R. 324 (Sind): 18 S.L.R. 286: 89 I.C. 353.

A Court can pass a decree, in an account suit, for an amount exceeding the pecuniary limits of the jurisdiction of such Court, if on enquiry such an amount is found due, Ishwarappa v. Dhanji, 56 Bom. 23: 34 Bom.L.R. 44: 1932 A.I.R. 111 (Bom.).

(c) The date upto which the mesne profits are to be calculated.—See Order 20, Rule 12 of the Code of Civil Procedure, (Act V of 1908). When the decree awards possession and mesne profits from the date of the decree to the date of recovery of possession, the date of the decree means the date of the decree of the trial Court, Nanda Kumar Singh v. Bilas Marwari, 3 Pat.L.J. 116: 1 Pat.L.W. 781: 40 I.C. 579.

When the decree is silent, as to mesne profits or interest.—Where a decree declared that the plaintiff is entitled to the possession of land with wasilat from a date named, directing “the amount thereof to be ascertained on local enquiry” and to bear interest from the date of its ascertainment until payment, without saying more, held, that the decree-holder was entitled to wasilat until the date of delivery of possession to him, Fakharuddin Mahomed Ahsan v. Official Trustee of Bengal, L.R. 8 I.A. 197: 8 Cal. 178: 10 C.L.R. 178.

The words possession with wasilat mean wasilat up to the time of possession being delivered, Dhurum Narain Sing v. Budhoo Ram, 12 W.R. 75; Bunsee Sing v. Mirza Muzuf Ali Beg, 22 W.R. 328.

In Sadasiv Pillai v. Ramalinga Pillai, L.R. 2 I.A. 219, the Judicial Committee accepted as settled law the proposition, first, where the decree is silent touching interest or mesne profits subsequent to the institution of the suit, the Court executing the decree cannot under the clause in question assess or give execution for such interest or mesne profits; and secondly, that the plaintiff is still at liberty to assert his rights to such mesne profits in a separate suit. See also Ghulusam Bivi v. Shamadia Rowther, 42 Mad. 296; Doraisami v. Subramania, 41 Mad. 188 F.B. where the question as to mesne profits was left untouched.

Objections to report of Commissioner.—When the judgment-debtor does not appear before Commissioner.—Where an amin has been deputed to make enquiries as to the amount of mesne profits to be awarded and the judgment-debtor failed to appear before him and the investigation and the report were made in the absence of the judgment-debtor, such judgment-debtor is not precluded from pleading that the investigation is erroneous, Karoo Lal Thakoor v. Baboo Taruck Nath Sein, 7 W.R. 140.

Court-fees on mesne profits during the pending period of a suit.—No court-fees are payable in respect of possible value of mesne profits pendente lite, Ram Krishna Bhikaji v. Bhima Bai, 15 Bom. 416; Bhupendra Kumar Chakrabarti v. Purna Chandra Bose, 43 Cal. 650: 13 C.L.J. 132: 24 Ind. Cas. 432; Maiden v. Janakiramayya, 21 Mad. 371; Bunwarilal v. Daya-sunker, 13 C.W.N. 815; Saminath v. Muthuswami, 20 M.L.J. 98: 5 Ind. Cas. 850; Jafri Begum v. Syed Ali Reza, 6 O.C. 351.

A memorandum of appeal by the plaintiff from a decree awarding mesne profits but claiming a larger amount between the institution of the suit and the delivery of possession, need not be stamped with ad valorem court-fees as no such fee can be claimed until the amount has been ascertained, Sheodhin Singh v. Narangi Lal Ram Marwari, 11 P.L.T. 703: 129 I.C. 662: 1931 I.R. 118 (Patna); Ram Ghulam v. Chintaman Singh, 5 Patna 361: 7 P.L.T. 313: 93 I.C. 939: 1926 A.I.R. 218 (Patna); Dhanukdhari v. Ramadhicary, 12 Pat. 188: 13 P.L.T. 810: 142 I.C. 617: 1933 A.I.R. 81 (Pat.): 1926 Pat. C.W.N. 49 F.B.; Musst. Fatima Bibi v. Shafullah Khan, 1935 A.L.J. 254: 153 I.C. 476: 1935 A.I.R. 206 (All.).

Court-fees on future mesne profits can only be levied after the amount has been ascertained on enquiry, Daw Soe and others v. Ko Pu, 126 I.C. 224: 1930 A.I.R. 246 (Rang.): 1930 I.R. 304 (Rang.).

Determination of additional court-fees payable.—

(i) Method of Assessment.—Court-fees already paid are to be taken into consideration in assessing the amount of additional court-fees payable, Ram Bijoy Bahadoor Singh v. Jagatpal Singh, 1 O.C. 8.

The plaintiff in his plaint, prayed for mesne profits only from the institution of the suit till the date of recovery of property and the decree awarded him those profits and directed that those be determined in execution. The property was restored to him and the plaintiff applied for execution of his decree for determination of mesne profits and there was further execution of the decree by the plaintiff for the realization of the amount of mesne profits ascertained, held that no court-fees are payable on mesne profits, Ramakrishna Bhikaji v. Bhimbai, 15 Bom. 416. But Mookherjee, J. in Ijjatulla Bhuian v. Chandra Mohan Bannerjee, 34 Cal. 954: 11 C.W.N. 1133, said: "In my opinion, there is no substantial distinction, for our present purpose, between mesne profits antecedent and subsequent to the institution of the suit, and I am not prepared to accept the decision of the learned Judges of the Bombay High Court to which reference has been made. A contrary view has been taken by this Court in the case of Dwarkanath Biswas v. Debendra Nath Tagore, (33 Cal. 1232: 3 C.L.J. 94-95 N), in which it has been ruled that where a plaintiff asks for past as well as future mesne profits and paid court-fees on the amount claimed for past mesne profits only, the provisions of section 11 of the Court Fees Act were applicable."

Under s. 11 of the Court Fees Act, the plaintiff should be called upon to pay court-fees on the difference between the sum decreed and the value tentatively fixed by him in the plaint, Harry Percival Robson v. Administrator-General, Punjab, 30 P.L.R. 503: 1929 A.I.R. 753 (Lah.): 11 Lah. 325: 122 I.C. 467.

(ii) When the additional court-fee is to be paid.—The plaintiff must pay the excess amount of court-fees before executing the decree, Arogya v. Appachi, 25 Mad. 543: 12 M.L.J. 35.

When the plaintiff sues for damages on the ground of fraud and gives an approximate valuation, then payment of additional court-fee can be made after the decree, Raghavji Sati v. Annamalai Mudali, 17 M.L.J. 628.

Court-fee is leviable on an application for ascertainment of future mesne profits under second part of section 11 of the Court Fees Act only after the amount of such mesne profits has been actually ascertained, Ram Golam Sahu v. Chintamon Singh, 93 I.C. 939: 7 P.L.T. 313: I.L.R. 5 Pat. 361: 1926 Pat. C.W.N. 49: 1926 A.I.R. 218 (Patna) F.B.

If in a suit for dissolution of partnership, the arbitrator makes an award exceeding the value of the suit, then the plaintiff is to pay court-fees on the difference of court-fees payable on the value of the suit and the court-fees on the award before he executes the decree, Mahan Lal v. Nihal Chand, 152 I.C. 608: 1935 A.I.R. 40 (Lah.).

"Where however a preliminary decree only makes provision for the subsequent determination of the mesne profits, the apt occasion for requiring a defendant to pay court-fees in this respect would be if and when the profits have been determined by a final decree," Kandunni Nair v. Ithuni Raman Nair, 53 Mad. 540: 58 M.L.J. 497: 1930 M.W.N. 291: 31 L.W. 826: 127 I.C. 128: 1930 A.I.R. 597 (Mad.): 1930 I.R. 944 (Mad.).

(iii) Effect of non-payment of additional court-fees assessed.—If the court-fees are not deposited within the time fixed, as provided by this section or within the time so extended, then the application for execution will be dismissed and no further application for mesne profits can be entertained as no such decree for mesne profits is in existence, Kewal Kissen Singh v. Sookhari, 24 Cal. 173: 1 C.W.N. 243.

When the amount is ascertained, then section 11 provides that the execution is to be stayed till the difference is paid within a time to be fixed by the Court and if the Court omits to fix a time, then the execution is to be in abeyance and there is no bar to the execution being proceeded with as soon as the difference in court-fee is paid, Subhagga Singh v. Shiva Nath Singh, 1 All. L.J. 350.

A decree for partition was passed on 30th June 1900, conditional upon payment of court-fees and the decree was not to be executed till the 29th June 1903. The application to execute the decree was made on the 27th June, 1903, and it was dismissed and the court-fees were not paid; held, that a second application was in time as it was competent to the Court to order that the execution should begin on court-fees being paid within a certain time, Nathu Bhai Kusandas v. Pranjivan Lalchand, 34 Bom. 189: 12 Bom.L.R. 13: 5 Ind. Cas. 601.

The plaintiff can state any value, but execution of the decree, in case it exceeds the valuation, is not to proceed until the difference in court-fees has been paid, Gobinda v. Dayabhai, 9 Bom. 22.

Where the order to pay additional court-fees is contained in the concluding portions of the decree, the order does not form part of the decree and no amendment is necessary when the Court orders the time to be extended. The 1st part of the section applies to such a case and the meaning of that part is that execution is to be stayed till the additional court-fee is paid, and the Court should fix a time for payment of additional court-fees, Perianan v. Nagappa, 30 Mad. 32: 2 M.L.T. 23: 16 M.L.J. 543.

Payment of additional court-fees under section 11 is not necessary in order that the execution of a mortgage decree by the appeal Court exceeding the amount claimed in the trial Court, may be proceeded with, Ram Bhujhwan Prasad Singh v. Natho Ram, 70 Ind. Cas. 483: 3 P.L.T. 146: 1922 A.I.R. 59 (Patna). See also Thakan Chowdhury v. Lachhami Narain and others, 14 Pat. 4: 15 P.L.T. 548: 152 I.C. 244: 1934 A.I.R. 571 (Patna), F.B.

Rejection of plaint does not preclude the plaintiff from presenting in the same Court a fresh plaint, properly framed and valued, in respect of the same cause of action, Rachappa Subrao v. Shidappa Venkatarao, 43 Bom. 507: 24 C.W.N. 33: 17 A.L.J. 418: 25 M.L.J. 298: 21 Bom. L.R. 489: 50 I.C. 280: 25 M.L.T. 298 P.C.

Penal sections must be strictly construed and a dismissal of a suit under its provisions cannot operate as a res judicata, Muhammad Salim v. Nabian Bibi, 8 All. 282.

If a decree for possession of immoveable property plus past and future mesne profits be passed then the decree-holder can take out execution of the decree in his favour for possession of the immoveable property irrespective of the question whether the mesne profits have or have not been ascertained or whether court-fees have or have not been paid on the mesne profits, Ramalinga Sethapathi Ambalam v. Andiappa Ambalam, 54 Mad. 980: 61 M.L.J. 424: 34 L.W. 99: 134 I.C. 181: 1931 A.I.R. 717 (Mad.).

Effect of late payment of the deficit court-fees.—"It appears to me that whatever the date on which the applicants or their predecessors chose to comply with the Court Fees Act, in a suit for accounts, the date of the decree, for the purposes of Article 182 (of the Limitation Act), must be taken to be that indicated in section 205 (now Order 20, Rule 7) of the Code of Civil Procedure, Bhajan Behary Shaha v. Girischunder Shaha, 17 C.W.N. 959: 19 Ind. Cas. 410.

Power of Court to enlarge time for payment of additional court-fees.—The Court has power to enlarge time originally fixed for payment of additional court-fees on applications for ascertaining the amount of mesne profits, Golab Chand v. Bahuria Rammurat Koer, 13 C.L.J. 432. (See section 148, C. P. C.).

Power of appellate Court.—The appellate Court has no power to extend the time fixed by the original Court, nor reduce the amount awarded but no special procedure for dismissal for default in payment of court-fees under section 11 of the Court Fees Act is necessary so long as it is clear that the parties have had fair notice of the nature of the proceedings, Nathersa Rowther v. Mahomed Rowther, 28 Ind. Cas. 890. See also Priyanath Bachhar v. Meajan Sardar, 24 C.L.J. 88: 29 I.C. 571.

Abandonment of part of the claim.—Where the plaintiff abandons part of his claim at the initial stage of the suit, in respect of which court-fee already paid is insufficient, he is not compellable to pay the court-fees upon that claim under penalty of having his whole claim dismissed, Ram Prosad v. Bhiman, 27 All. 151: 24 All. W.N. 198: 1 All. L.J. 577.

Where a suit for accounts and recovery of account papers was instituted in a Court of limited jurisdiction and it was found that the sum which ought to be awarded to the plaintiff exceeded the jurisdiction of the Court, the plaintiff ought to be called upon to relinquish the excess and thus place the case formally within the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court of his deliberate choice; the Court may in such case remit the excess, or presume the excess to have been remitted, Golap Singh v. Indra Coomar Hasra, 13 C.W.N. 493 at page 499: 9 C.L.J. 367: 1 Ind. Cas. 86: 5 M.L.T. 360.

Where the Court insisted upon payment of additional court fees because a large amount was found due and the plaintiff offered to relinquish that portion of his claim but the Court refused holding that it had no power to allow such relinquishment and dismissed the suit, held that the order is erroneous, Sellamuthu Servagar v. Ramaswamy Pillai, 12 M.L.J. 66. See also under heading "Reduction of claim and value" under Sch. I, Art. 1 infra.

PARAGRAPH II.

Application.—The final provision of section 11 of the Court Fees Act does not apply to the condition set forth in the 1st paragraph of that section, Gonesh Chandra v. Pramatha, 11 Ind. Cas. 73.

The second part of s. 11, Court Fees Act, has no application until the amount of mesne profits payable is determined in execution. Part II, s. 11, Court Fees Act, whether it applies to appeals or not, applies only to a claim for mesne profits accruing subsequently to the date of the suit, of which the plaintiff is unable to calculate the approximate value because he cannot say for how long a period he is likely to be kept out of possession, Dhanukdhari Prasad Pandey v. Ramadhikary Misser, 142 I.C. 617: 1933 A.I.R. 81 (Patna): 12 Patna 188: 13 P.L.T. 810: 1933 I.R. 162 (Pat.).

Construction.—In applying section 11 of the Court Fees Act to a suit for partition and mesne profits, the term "decree" in that section should be taken to refer to the final, and not to the interim decree in the suit. Where in a suit for partition and mesne profits, the Court decrees the claim and awards a specific sum on account of such profits conditional on payment by the plaintiff of additional court-fees due in respect of the profits, the Court has no power under section 11, paragraph (ii) of the Court Fees Act to fix any time for payment and the only penalty which the plaintiff incurs in the event of his not paying the court-fees is that he cannot execute the decree until he pays the additional court-fees. Their Lordships proceeded: "The 1st paragraph deals with a case where the profits are settled by the decree and the penalty under it for non-payment of the additional court-fee is, that the decree should not be executed till it is paid; under that paragraph the Court has no power to fix any time for payment, any order to that effect being mere surplusage..... The 2nd paragraph deals only with a case where mesne profits are ascertained in execution of the decree, the two paragraphs being mutually exclusive." "The word 'ascertained' implies that the exact sum of money representing the profits has been fixed. It is not sufficient for the application of the section to show that a method had been indicated for the purpose of calculating those profits..... If the Court proposes to act under clause (2) it should ascertain the amount of profits in money and state the additional court-fees payable and fix a reasonable time for payment of it," Natharsa Rowther v. Muhammad Rowther, 59 Ind. Cas. 385. See also Perianan Chetty v. Nagappa Mudaliar, 30 Mad. 32: 16 M.L.J. 543: 2 M.L.T. 23.

Suit.—The word "Suit" in the last paragraph of section 11 does not mean the entire suit, Fulchand v. Bai Ichha, 12 Bom. 98; Kewal Kissen Singh v. Sookhari, 24 Cal. 173: 1 C.W.N. 243.

Part execution of decree.—The word 'suit' in the last part of paragraph (ii) of section 11 of the Court Fees Act does not mean the entire suit. It means the claim in respect of mesne profits, Kewal Kissen Singh v. Sookhari, 24 Cal. 173: 1 C.W.N. 243.

Where there are claims other than mesne profits, the plaintiff decree-holder may obtain execution of that other part without payment of additional court-fees for mesne profits. He need not pay so long as he does not ask for mesne profits, Fulchand v. Bai Ichha, 12 Bom. 98.

Valuation.—The plaintiff need only state approximately the amount of mesne profits claimed in the suit. See Order 7, Rule 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908), Bhupendra Kumar Chakravarti v. Purnachandra Bose, 43 Cal. 650: 13 C.L.J. 132: 24 Ind. Cas. 232; Ijjatulla Bhuiya v. Chandra Mohan Banerjee, 34 Cal. 954: 11 C.W.N. 1135: 6 C.L.J. 255; Nand Kumar Singh v. Bilash Ram Marwari, 3 Pat. L.J. 67: 1 Pat. L.W. 781: 40 Ind. Cas. 579; see also Gouri Prosad Koondoo v. Reily, 9 Cal. 112; Jadomoney Dabee v. Hafez Mahammad Ali Khan, 8 Cal. 295. But see the following decisions:—Baboojan v. Baijnath Dutt Jha, 6 Cal. 472: 7 C.L.R. 539; Karoo Lal Thakoor v. Taruck Nath Sein, 7 W.R. 140; Gooroo Das Ray v. Bungshee Dhar Sein, 15 W.R. 67.

Increase of valuation.—Where the plaintiff brought a suit for mesne profits and valued his claim at Rs. 300, but on enquiry by the Commissioner Rs. 580 was found due, the trial Court passed decree for Rs. 223 only and the plaintiff appealed and valued the appeal at Rs. 357, i.e., on the difference, held, that no second appeal lay to the High Court as the plaintiff did not amend his plaint and the value could not be increased without the plaint being amended, Kali Kamal v. Fazlar Rahaman, 15 C.W.N. 454: 7 Ind. Cas. 778.

Forum of appeal.—In case where the Court after investigation finds the valuation should be higher and orders return of the plaint, so long as there has been no acceptance by the plaintiff of the order to make good the deficiency in court-fees, the original value assigned by the plaintiff must be taken as the value of the suit for the purpose of regulating the jurisdiction of the appellate Court, but after the plaintiff has accepted the order made, the value of the suit must be taken as being in accordance with the fee actually paid by the plaintiff, Goswami Sri Raman Lalji Maharaj v. Bohra Desraj, 32 All. 222: 7 All.L.J. 203: 5 Ind. Cas. 875.

Where in a suit for accounts, the plaintiff valued the relief approximately at Rs. 600, but the Subordinate Judge passed a decree for Rs. 30,830-9-2 and the plaintiffs paid additional court-fees, the defendant appealed to the High Court from the decree of the Subordinate Judge, held, that the appeal lay to the High Court because what the plaintiffs in this account suit demanded was the amount that might be found due to them, and so long as they claim Rs. 30,830-9-2 to be decreed to them, they cannot be allowed to say that the subject-matter is only Rs. 600 in value, Ibrahim Issaji v. Bejanji Jamsetji, 20 Bom. 265. But the case would be different if the suit is dismissed or the plaint rejected when the valuation would be the valuation made by the plaintiff, Khushalchand v. Nagindas, 12 Bom. 675, (677), Bhagvantraï v. Mehta Bajurao, 18 Bom. 40, Gulab Singhi v. Lakshman Singhi, 18 Bom. 100 and Bai Varunda v. Bai Manegavri, 18 Bom. 207.

Where the plaintiff valued the land at Rs. 2,800 and tentatively valued the claim for mesne profits at Rs. 1,200 but on investigation the Subordinate Judge found the claim for mesne profits to be at Rs. 2,305 held that as the total claim now exceeds Rs. 5,000 in value, the value of the suit must be taken to exceed Rs. 5,000 and the appeal lies to the High Court, Jogendra Nath Maiti v. Ram Gopal Das, 103 I.C. 639 (641): 45 C.L.J. 462: 1927 A.I.R. 616 (Cal.).

Where the plaintiff definitely fixes a certain sum as the amount of his claim, this must be considered as the value of the original suit and the appeal will lie accordingly but when he fixes a certain sum as the amount of his claim only approximately or tentatively and prays that the amount of his claim may be ascertained in the course of the suit, then the amount found by the Court to be due to him must be regarded as the value of the original suit for the purpose of determining the forum of appeal, Gulab Khan v. Abdul Wahed Khan, 31 Cal. 365: 8 C.W.N. 233, applied in Ijjatullah Bhuiya v. Chandra Mohan Banerjee, F.B. 34 Cal. 954: 11 C.W.N. 1133: 6 C.L.J. 255; Ganga Ram v. Hakim Rai, 15 Lah. 512: 36 P.L.R. 361: 151 I.C. 703: 1934 A.I.R. 506 (Lah.) F.B.

In suits for recovery of money on unsettled accounts the value as determinable for computation of court-fee is the value as given in the plaint, unless it is enhanced by an adjudication of Court in which case it is the latter sum which becomes the value on which the court-fee is to be computed and is also the value for the purpose of jurisdiction, Kalu Ram v. Hanwant Ram, 15 Lah. 151: 36 P.L.R. 391: 151 I.C. 641: 1934 A.I.R. 488 (Lah.), F.B.

For account suits see Buddha Mal v. Rallia Ram, 9 Lah. 23: 9 Lah.W.N. 1: 29 P.L.R. 320: 110 I.C. 631: 1928 A.I.R. 157 (Lah.), where the High Court held that if the amount found after enquiry exceeds the pecuniary jurisdiction of the first appeal Court, then appeal lies to the High Court.

The approximate valuation made in an account suit determines the forum of appeal. This valuation continues to determine the forum appeal even if on investigation the amount to be awarded is found to exceed the pecuniary limits of the District Court, Harichand v. Madan Lal, 31 P.L.R. 536: 128 I.C. 491: 1930 A.I.R. 832 (Lah.): 1931 I.R. 59 (Lah.).

The memorandum of an appeal by the plaintiff from a decree awarding mesne profits but claiming a larger amount between the institution of the suit and the delivery of possession need not be stamped with ad valorem court-fees as no such fees can be demanded until the amount has been ascertained, Sheodhin Singh v. Narangi Lal Ram Marwari, 11 P.L.T. 703: 129 I.C. 662: 1931 I.R. 118 (Patna).

Appeal from final decree during the pendency of appeal from preliminary decree.—Where the plaintiff valued the relief for recovery of possession at Rs. 1,020 and of the mesne profits antecedent to the suit at Rs. 4,199-8-0 and the trial Court made a (preliminary) decree in favour of the plaintiff to recover possession of the land and to realize mesne profits to be subsequently ascertained and the defendant appealed and valued the appeal at Rs. 5,219-8-0, the aggregate of the above sum and valued the appeal at Rs. 5,219-8-0, the aggregate of the above sums and paid court-fees ad valorem on that amount, the mesne profits were subsequently ascertained at Rs. 2,570-1-10 and a final decree for that amount was passed in favour of the plaintiff. The defendant filed another appeal against the amount also while the appeal against the first decree was pending, held, it is not incumbent on the defendant to pay court-fees a second time and the High Court said, "If mesne profits had been decreed for a higher sum than what is claimed in the plaint and if the plaintiff had obtained a decree for such sum upon payment of additional court-fees, the defendant might have been called upon to pay the difference between the court-fees payable on the sum ultimately determined and the sum originally mentioned respectively," Kanchan Mondar v. Kamala Prasad Chowdhury, 16 C.L.J. 564: 15 Ind. Cas. 572. See Kanti Chandra Tarafdar v. Radha Mohan Sikdar, 33 C.W.N. 743: 1929 A.I.R. 815 (Cal.) where the High Court held that additional court-fees are to be paid on the increased amount decreed.

12. (i) Every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under this chapter on a plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be decided by the Court in which such plaint or memorandum, as the case may be, is filed, and such decision shall be final as between the parties to the suit:

Decision of questions
as to valuation.

(ii) But whenever any such suit comes before a Court of appeal, reference or revision, if such Court considers that the said question has been wrongly decided, to the detriment of the revenue, it shall require the party by whom such fee has been paid to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the question been rightly decided, and the provisions of section 10, paragraph (ii), shall apply.

[For Bengal only—

12. in paragraph (ii) of section 12 of the said Act, for the words and figures "and the provisions of section 10, paragraph (ii), shall apply" the following shall be substituted, namely:—

Amendment of section 12.

(a) if the party required to pay is the appellant or petitioner, the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 8B shall, so far as may be, apply;

(b) if the party required to pay is the respondent or the opposite party, the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 8B shall, so far as may be, apply, and, if such party fails to pay the fee required before the date fixed by the Court, the Court shall recover the amount of such fee from him as a public demand.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section a question relating to the classification of any suit for the purpose of section 7 shall not be deemed to be a question relating to valuation.”]

NOTES.

Effect of the Bengal Amendment.—Reference to section 10 had to be deleted consequent on the repeal of that section under the Bengal Amendment Act.

The application of s. 8B requires the Court to stay proceeding with the appeal till the deficit has been realised. Clause (b) makes the provisions of the Public Demands Recovery Act applicable to the case of respondents who have not paid proper court-fees.

Application.—Section 12 has no application to a question of court-fees payable on a memorandum of appeal presented to a High Court but only applies to the fees payable in other Courts. It is true the High Court would have powers conferred by cl. (ii) but the fees dealt with are the fees paid in the lower Court, Krishna Mohan Singha v. Raghunandan Pandey, 1925 Pat. C.W.N. 65: 6 P.L.T. 262: I.L.R. 4 Patna 336: 87 I.C. 137: 1925 A.I.R. 392 (Pat.) F.B.

“It has been ruled that the section has no application where the question for decision is as to the class under which a suit falls and not merely of valuation in that class,” Sunder Mal v. Jessie Caroline Murray, 16 C.L.J. 375 (377): 16 Ind. Cas. 963, see also Omrao Mirza v. Jones, 10 Cal. 599: 12 C.L.R. 148; Brojo Coomar Sen v. Eshan Chandra Das, 3 C.L.R. 79. Section 12 of the Court Fees Act has no application, where the question raised before the trial Court was not a question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of court-fees payable on the plaint, but relating essentially to its jurisdiction to entertain the suit. “Section 12 should be strictly construed and it cannot be applied to bar an appeal where the question raised was one of the class under which the suit falls and not merely of valuation in that class. The section was framed for fiscal purposes,” Peary Shah v. Suraj-mal, 16 C.L.J. 371: 17 C.W.N. 503: 16 Ind. Cas. 575. See also Venkata Ramani v. Narayansami, 1925 M.W.N. 276: 48 M.L.J. 685: 87 I.C. 660: 1925 A.I.R. 713 (Mad.). Section 12 of the Court Fees Act has no application where the valuation is made by the Court for the purpose of determining the question whether the suit is within the pecuniary limits of the Court’s jurisdiction, and where on the basis of such valuation the plaint is returned for presentation to the proper Court, an appeal lies against the order made under Order 43, Rule 1 (a), C. P. C., Chihu Kuri Nara Sinha Charyalu Garu v. Zemindar of Balliti, 1919 M.W.N. 599: 10 L.W. 178: 26 M.L.T. 153: 52 Ind. Cas. 1001.

The finality does not attach to a decision, where such decision as to court-fees, was arrived at only incidentally in the decision as to valuation for jurisdiction, section 12 being inapplicable to such cases, Sikandar Shah v. Ghulam Nabi Shah, 151 P.W.R. 1918: 47 Ind. Cas. 7.

Section 12 has no application whatever to a case in which the appellate Court has to ascertain the nature of the suit and to determine whether it falls in a particular category. If after hearing the parties the Court found that the appeal was under-stamped it could have called upon the plaintiff to make good the deficiency within a certain time and if this was not done it could then have dismissed the appeal, Musst. Parmeshri v. Panna Lal and another, 32 P.L.R. 244: 130 I.C. 643: 1931 A.I.R. 378 (Lah.): 1931 I.R. 323 (Lah.).

Cross-objection.—Section 12 has no application to a petition of objection under section 561 (Order 41, Rule 22), C. P. C. Husan Bano v. Nizamuddin, (1893) 13 All.W.N. 85.

Rejection of plaint.—The procedure set out in Order 7, Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, is not applicable to a case in which an appellate Court acts under section 12 of the Court Fees Act, 1870. In such a case rejection of the plaint is an appropriate remedy and the law enjoins a dismissal without option, though it may be that the result of the dismissal, from the point of view of res judicata, is the same as that of a rejection, Pandit Brij Krishna Das v. Chowdhury Murli Rai, 4 Pat.L.J. 703: 56 Ind. Cas. 316.

Construction.—Provisions of a fiscal statute should not be so construed as to furnish a chance of escape and a means of evasion, Raj Rajeswar Jiu v. Gati Krishna, 39 C.L.J. 217: 82 I.C. 128: 1924 A.I.R. 953 (Cal.); Nanhe Lal v. Jogendra Chandra, 28 C.W.N. 403: 39 C.L.J. 222 (228): 82 I.C. 297: 1924 A.I.R. 881 (Lah.).

Shall be decided by the Court.—The words “every question relating to valuation. . . . shall be decided by the Court in which such plaint is filed” do not carry with them the meaning that a distinct question or issue relating to valuation must be raised and a formal decision thereon passed by the Court of first instance before a Court of appeal can interfere, Shama Soondary v. Hurro Soondary, 7 Cal. 173: 8 C.L.R. 528. See Bidhu Bhusan Bakshi v. Kala Chand Roy, (1926) 31 C.W.N. 1045: 106 I.C.

335: 1927 A.I.R. 775 (Cal.), where it was held that a formal decision is not necessary for the application of this sub-section and in case of deficiency the memorandum should be placed before the Court.

The expression 'shall be decided by the Court' does not mean that an issue shall be raised and decided by the Court. All that it means is that the Court, either the presiding officer or the ministerial officer who is charged with that duty, has to determine what the court-fee is. It cannot be said that where the ministerial officer whose duty it is to see whether proper court-fee is paid or not, decide what the proper fee is, his decision is not a decision of the Court * * *. The act of the ministerial officer receiving the plaint etc. is an act of the Court when a Court receives a plaint, petition or any other pleading and files it as properly stamped, its act amounts to a decision that the proper court-fee has been paid, In re Lakshmi Ammal, 49 M.L.J. 608 (611, 613): 1925 M.W.N. 826: 91 I.C. 729: 1926 A.I.R. 96 (Mad.).

SHALL BE FINAL.

"Final", meaning of.—"I have no doubt that the term "final" in section 5 of the Court Fees Act has precisely the same meaning as the term "final" in section 12 of that Act. But the subject to which the term is applied in section 5 is different from that to which it is applied in section 12. In section 5 it is applied to a decision as "to the necessity of paying a fee or the amount thereof," whereas in section 12 it is applied to decision as to every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under the Chapter (Chapter III) on plaint or memorandum of appeal, Balkaran Rai v. Gobind Nath Tewary, 12 All. 129 (152): 10 (1890) All. W.N. 39 F.B.; Muhammad Sadik v. Muhammad Jan, 11 All. 91 considered.

If there be no doubt as to the class in which the suit falls, and the section of the Court Fees Act which applies to it, the decision of the first Court as to the valuation, which depends on the value of the property, is final; but if, there is a dispute as to the class in which the suit falls, that is to say, the section of the Court Fees Act which applies to it, an appeal will lie. Govind v. Vitha Bai, 87 I.C. 911: 1925 A.I.R. 435 (Nagpur); see also Dada Bhau Kittur v. Nagesh Ram Chandra, 23 Bom. 486; Pirya Shah v. Surajmal, 17 C.W.N. 503: 16 C.L.J. 371: 16 I.C. 575; Sundar Lal v. Jestie C. Murray, 16 C.L.J. 375: 16 I.C. 963.

The provision as to finality attaches to the value of the suit and not to the value of the stamp to be used, Raj Kristo v. Bama Sundari, 23 W.R. 296.

The decision of the trial Court as to valuation is final only between the parties. The Court of appeal can correct the valuation when the decision of the trial Court is to the detriment of public revenue, Gajendra Nath v. Sulochana, 39 C.W.N. 131: 60 C.L.J. 201: 1935 A.I.R. 338 (Cal.).

Decision as to valuation.—"According to the terms of the section, it is only the decision of a Court on a question relating to the valuation of a suit that is final but the decision of the special Judge in this case does not dispose of any question relating to valuation far less any question relating to the valuation of a suit," Upadhyaya Thakur v. Pershidh Singh, 23 Cal. 723 (729) F.B.

Under section 12 of the Court Fees Act (Act VII of 1870) the decision of the Court of first instance upon a question of valuation, not affecting the question of category is final, Wilayat Ali Khan v. Umardaraz Ali Khan, 19 All. 165 (168): 17 All. W.N. 33, but see Kanaram v. Komappan, 14 Mad. 169, where the trial Court erroneously estimated the value and the High Court held that it is not precluded by section 12 from revising it, and reversing the decree.

An appeal would lie from the decision of a Court in respect of the class in which a suit falls, but no appeal shall lie from a decision in respect of the valuation of the suit in that class, Dada v. Nagesh, 23 Bom. 486.

If the appeal Court holds that the suit is rightly classified by the Court of first instance, the latter Court's valuation must be upheld as final, but if the appeal Court be of opinion that the suit has been wrongly classified, the decision of the lower Court as regards valuation must necessarily be set aside, should such valuation be different from what would have to be placed on the suit if rightly classified, Mahna Singh v. Bahadur Singh, 100 P.R. 1919: 50 Ind. Cas. 125; Bawa Mangal Das v. Mohant Niranjan Das, 56 P.R. 1895, approved.

Where the Court calls upon the plaintiff to make up court-fee on his plaint and the plaintiff contends that the court-fee already paid is sufficient, the High Court will not interfere in revision. It is for the plaintiff to make up his mind whether he will pay or not. If he fails to comply, the plaint will be rejected and unless the order is final under section 12 the plaintiff will have a right of appeal. If the order is final neither an appeal nor revision will lie, Chuni Lal v. Roshan Lal, 120 P.R. 1919: 53 Ind. Cas. 427. No appeal lies against an order rejecting a plaint under Order 7, Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, when such order refers to the valuation only, Chandra Mohi Koor v. Budeb Narain Singh, 4 Pat.L.J. 57: 49 Ind. Cas. 442. See also Mani Lal v. Durgu Prasad, 80 I.C. 667: 1924

The scheme of the Act appears to be that in the subordinate Courts under section 12 the trial Court alone has power to decide what is the proper valuation for the purpose of determining the fee payable on the plaint and the Appellate Court alone has the like power with regard to the memorandum of appeal presented in that Court, even if the trial Court has arrived at a different valuation, and each Court's decision is final subject to the provisions of the second clause of section 12, Krishna Mohan Sinha v. Raghunandan Pandey, F.B. 1925 Pat.C.W.N. 65 (78): 1925 A.I.R. 392 (Patna): 6 Pat.L.T. 262: I.L.R. 4 Pat. 336: 87 I.C. 137.

Objection to valuation.—Objection as to valuation was entertained in appeal Court in admitted cases of under-valuation. In Sheo Govind Razvi v. Abhai Narayan Singh, 5 B.L.R. Ap. 17, the High Court held, that as the under-valuation is admitted the Court of appeal below was right in entertaining the question as to valuation as it affected the jurisdiction of the trial Court, —decided on April 26, 1870. In Kaladdin Guru Bakas v. Raghoji, 1 Bom. H.C.A.C. 62), it was held that an objection as to improper valuation cannot be raised for the first time in appeal Court. See also Wilayat Ali Khan v. Umardaraz Ali Khan, 19 All. 165 and other cases cited at page 31, supra.

Powers of Taxing Officer.—The taxing officer can make an order only in respect of a document filed, exhibited or received in the High Court which are insufficiently stamped but not in respect of court-fees not paid in the lower Courts. To such cases sec. 12, clause (ii) is applicable, Mithoo Lal v. Musst. Chamelli, 1934 A.L.J. 957: 150 I.C. 653: 1934 A.I.R. 805 (All.), but in Bidhu Bhusan v. Kalachand, (1926) 31 C.W.N. 1045: 106 I.C. 335: 1927 A.I.R. 775 (Cal.), the Calcutta High Court upheld a demand by the Taxing Officer as to court-fees not paid in the lower Courts. The Hon'ble Judge said that the memorandum of appeal is to be registered in the High Court on payment of requisite court-fees for that Court and the memorandum of appeal is to be placed before the Hon'ble Court before the appeal is dealt with under Order 41, Rule 11, C. P. C.

Order not final if the party had no notice.—The decisions of the Court in order to be final must be between parties to the suit on record and after they have had an opportunity of being heard, and not a decision based on the Munsarim's report before the filing of the plaint or the memorandum of appeal and consequently before any parties are before the Court, Amjad Ali v. Muhammad Ismail, 20 All. 11 (1897) 17 A.W.N. 157 F.B.

Power of appellate Court.—Under section 12 (i) of the Court Fees Act, a decision on the question of court-fees by the Court of first instance is final between the parties though it can be re-opened by the Appellate Court itself under clause (2) of the section; only in the interest of revenue, Tekana v. Alagiri, 25 Ind. Cas. 506. "Section 12 of the Court Fees Act was evidently framed for fiscal purposes as it is manifest from the second clause of the section which shows how a Court of appeal may review the decision of the primary Court upon a question of this character only when there has been a loss of the public revenue," Peary Shah v. Suraj Mal, 17 C.W.N. 503: 16 C.L.J. 371 (374): 16 Ind. Cas. 575. See also Shama Soondary v. Hurro Soondary, 7 Cal. 173: 8 C.L.R. 528.

An appellate Court may, under second part of section 12 of the Court Fees Act, set aside an order as to the value of the property for the purpose of protecting the revenue and return the plaint for presentation to the proper Court, Musst. Ladli Begum v. Ramdas and others, 1925 A.I.R. 488 (Patna): 1925 Pat.C.W.N. 167: 6 Pat.L.T. 448: 90 Ind. Cas. 321.

The High Court is not bound by the decision of the lower Court.—In deciding the amount of court-fees payable on the memorandum of appeal, the High Court is not bound by the decision of the Court of first instance, as to the stamp payable on the plaint, Motigarvi v. Pranjivandas, 6 Bom. 302; Kashinath Narayan v. Govindabin Piranji, 15 Bom. 82.

Case of review.—The finality of the decision by the Court is thus taken away by the Act itself as by the second clause of this section the Court of appeal is authorized to demand additional court-fees when the question has been wrongly decided to the detriment of revenue; and by section 28 of the Court Fees Act, an appeal Court is authorized to demand additional court-fees whenever an insufficiently stamped plaint or memorandum of appeal has been received by the Court below through mistake or inadvertence.

The finality of the order of the 1st Court may also be set aside by the Court itself by review, or in revision by the High Court or on appeal by the appeal Court.

The order of demand by the Court may be set aside on review by the Court making the demand either on the application by the plaintiff or its own motion, but before the order of demand fructified by non-compliance into a recorded order of rejection, because there is nothing in section 12 of the Court Fees Act to prevent a Court from reviewing its own orders; on the contrary section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908) empowers it to do so, Chandramoni Koer v. Basdeo Narain Singh, 4 Pat.L.J. 57: 49 Ind. Cas. 442. See also Mani

'Case'.—A Court has jurisdiction to assess court-fees under sec. 12 of the Court Fees Act. Therefore an order by the Court to pay deficit court-fees and allowing time within which to pay, is not a "Case" within sec. 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure and is not revisable, Kotilingam Mudaliar v. Board of Commissioner, etc., 1927 A.I.R. 1021 (2) (Madras): 104 Ind. Cas. 145: 52 M.L.J. 452: 39 M.L.T. 220. Contra, see Manilal v. Durga Prasad, 3 Patna 930 (941) where it was held that such decision is a decision of a case.

The determination of the question whether an additional court-fee should be paid or not marks the termination of a definite stage of the suit and settles the controversy between the parties on a particular issue. Therefore the order decides a case and can be revised if there be a failure to exercise jurisdiction, Lakshmi Narayan Rai v. Dip Narain Rai, 55 All. 274: 1933 A.L.J. 311: 1933 A.I.R. 350 (All.): 148 I.C. 152.

Contra—In Messrs. Gupta & Co. v. Messrs. Kripa Ram Brothers, 1934 A.L.J. 381: 149 I.C. 1183: 1934 A.I.R. 620 (All.), a Full Bench of the Allahabad High Court held the word 'case' is not an exact equivalent of the word 'suit'. Obviously it is something wider. It cannot be a case unless it is a proceeding which can be regarded as something separate and in a sense independent from the suit under hearing and the termination of that proceeding should be somewhat different from mere orders passed in the ordinary trial of suit itself." "Where the case is a proceeding which can be considered separate and distinct and finally disposed of by an order which terminates it, it may well be considered to be a case decided although the suit has not in one sense been completely disposed of."..... "A mere decision as to the amount of the court-fees payable does not amount to a 'case decided' nor is it necessarily an irregularity in procedure or illegality or a refusal to exercise jurisdiction. (The case of Buddhu Lal v. Mewa Ram, 43 All. 564: 63 I.C. 15: 1921 A.I.R. 1 (All.) approved].

Cases where the High Court interfered in revision.—

Bombay High Court.—Vithal Krishna v. Bala Krishna Janardan, 10 Bom. 610: 1888 P.J. 339.

Calcutta High Court.—See Ramrup v. Mahunt Sitaram Das, 12 C.L.J. 211: 14 C.W.N. 932; 7 Ind. Cas. 22. Where the Court below, on an erroneous view of law, decided that no court-fees are payable, held, the High Court can interfere in revision under section 15 of the Indian High Courts Act, The Collector of Malda v. Nired Kamini Debye, 17 C.W.N. 21: 15 I.C. 621; Sundar Lal Marwari v. Jessie Caroline Murray, 16

C.L.J. 375: 16 Ind. Cas. 963; Sailendra Nath v. Surendra Nath, 60 C.L.J. 469: 39 C.W.N. 248.

Lahore Court.—The order for rejection under Order 7, Rule 11 (b) is appealable as the order is a decree, hence a petition of revision of the order is incompetent, and section 12 does not bar an appeal against such an order, Sada Kuar v. Buta Singh, 25 Ind. Cas. 565: 80 P.R. 1914: 265 P.R. 1914: 167 P.W.R. 1914.

Madras High Court.—When an erroneous order is made for payment of court-fees, the party affected need not wait till the final dismissal of the suit. The High Court can interfere under section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Dodda Sonnekappa v. Sakrayya, 36 Ind. Cas. 831. Where the lower Court wrongly orders the plaintiff to pay additional court-fees, the practice of the Madras High Court is to interfere in revision without leaving the aggrieved party to the cumbrous remedy of filing an appeal after the rejection of plaint for non-payment of court-fees demanded, Sudalimuthu v. Peria Sundaram, 48 M.L.J. 514: 1925 M.W.N. 104: 1924 A.I.R. 722 (M.): 87 I.C. 25. Section 12 of the Court Fees Act does not prevent the High Court's power of revision, where it is not a mere question of amount or arithmetical calculation, Konaran v. Komappan, 14 Mad. 169.

Where a Court erroneously demands court-fees and refuses to proceed with the suit until additional court-fees are paid, it fails to exercise a jurisdiction vested in it, as a party is entitled to have his case tried if he has paid court-fees and its orders can be revised under sec. 115, C. P. C. The mere fact that an appeal would lie later on on the consequential orders passed by the Judge if stamp is not paid, is no ground for refusing to entertain a petition under sec. 115, C. P. C. to revise the order, Kulandai Pandichi v. Indram Rame. mi Pandia Khalavan, 108 I.C. 539: 51 Mad. 664: 55 M.L.J. 45: 27 L.W. 286: 1928 A.I.R. 416 (Mad.).

When it is a question of a principle to be applied to the levying of court-fees, the High Court can interfere in revision, T. K. M. Alagappa Chetty v. Saminathan Chetty, 1933 A.I.R. 367 (Mad.).

Where the order complained against relates only to a question of court-fees, the High Court can interfere where the order is unfavourable to the plaintiff. The High Court does not interfere if the order is favourable to the plaintiff. The revisional jurisdiction of the High Court is not excluded by sec. 11 of the Sale Valuation Act. That section has the effect of curing the defect of a mistake in regard to jurisdiction and the section certainly does not say that the superior Court has no power to prevent beforehand a mistake from being committed, Kattiya Pillai v. Ramaswami Pillai (insane) by his wife, etc., 56 M.L.J. 394: 1929 M.W.N. 286: 29 L.W. 584: 119 I.C. 35: 1929 A.I.R. 396 (Mad.). See also Muhummad Elliyas v. Rahimee Bibi, 56 M.L.J. 302: 29 L.W. 42: 114 I.C. 842: 1929 A.I.R. 191 (Mad.).

But if a decision in favour of the plaintiff be given then as the question can be gone into under sec. 12, Court Fees Act, the High Court will not interfere in revision. The Government unless a party to the suit cannot apply for revision, Secretary of State v. Raghunath, 65 M.L.J. 25: 1933 M.W.N. 737: 144 I.C. 526: 38 L.W. 80: 1933 A.I.R. 506 (Mad.).

Patna High Court.—The Patna High Court has adopted the practice of the Calcutta High Court in interfering in revision with orders as to amount of court-fees payable, Nauratan Lal v. Stephenson, 4 Pat.L.J. 195. See also Bankey Behary v. Ram Bahadur, 4 Pat.L.J. 281: 44 I.C. 891: 4 Pat.L.W. 281: (1918) Pat.C.W.N. 223; Mani Lal v. Durga Prasad, 80 I.C. 667: 1924 A.I.R. 673 (Patna): 1924 Pat.C.W.N. 254: 5 Pat.L.T. 425: I.L.R. 3 Pat. 390.

The High Court is competent to interfere with an erroneous decision of a Subordinate Court as regards the court-fees, but such an interference will be made only in exceptional cases, i.e., when there is no other remedy open to the party or when non-interference with the order complained of will result in an irreparable loss to the party or when the order complained against is manifestly wrong or perverse and amounts to a denial of justice, Maharaj Bahadur Singh v. Prithichand Lal, 10 P.L.T. 464: 1929 A.I.R. 427 (Pat.): 119 I.C. 78; Ram Bhusan v. Bachu Rai, 1934 A.I.R. 641 (Patna): 14 Patna 220: 152 I.C. 1003.

But where after Court has ordered the deficiency in court-fees to be made good, the matter is brought up before the High Court by an application under section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, it was held that the order to make up the deficiency being an interlocutory order, the High Court will not interfere in revision as no irremediable harm will be done by the interlocutory order, Musst. Lachmibati Kumari v. Nund Kumar Singh, 5 Pat.L.J. 400: 1 Pat.L.T. 268: 56 Ind. Cas. 649.

But in Raghunandan Prasad Misra v. Ram Charan Manda, 4 P.L.J. 94: 49 I.C. 150: 1919 A.I.R. 425 (Patna), it was held that the High Court will not interfere in revision where another remedy is open to the party.

Forum of Appeal.—Where the plaintiff valued his claim at Rs. 2,100 but on objection by the defendant, the Court found that valuation ought to be Rs. 24,000 and demanded additional court-fees, held, that appeal lay to the Judicial Commission as the plaintiff contended that the valuation is Rs. 2,100 and sec. 12 of the Court Fees Act does not bar such an appeal, Prakash Chandra Sarkar v. Bishambar Nath Shahi, 14 C.W.N. 343: 5 Ind. Cas. 18. See also Goswami Sri Raman Lalji v. Bohra Desraj, 32 All. 222: 7 All.L.J. 203: 5 Ind. Cas. 875.

Appeal.—In the following cases the Calcutta High Court held that there is nothing in section 12 of the Court Fees Act to prevent the plaintiff from appealing on the ground that the case falls in a different category, i.e., governed by a different Article of the Court Fees Act than that found in the lower Court, Ganga Monee Chowdhurani v. Gopal Chunder Ray, 12 W.R. 214; Ajjodhya Pershad v. Gunga Pershad, 6 Cal. 249 in which it was held, an appeal lies from an order rejecting a plaint as insufficiently stamped, Omrao Mirza v. Mary Jones, 10 Cal. 55: 12 C.L.R. 148; H. C. Studd v. Mati Mahto, 28 Cal. 334; Prakash Chandra Sarkar v. Bishambhar Nath Sahi, 14 C.W.N. 343: 5 Ind. Cas. 18; Pirya Sha v. Surajmal Marwari, 17 C.W.N. 503: 16 C.L.J. 371: 16 Ind. Cas. 575; Sundar Lal Marwari v. Jessie C. Murray, 16 C.L.J. 375: 16 Ind. Cas. 963. See also Taraprasanna Chongder v. Nrisingha Murari Pal and others, 51 Cal. 216: 28 C.W.N. 683: 39 C.L.J. 212: 81 I.C. 763: 1924 A.I.R. 731 (Cal.).

Allahabad High Court took the same view as the Calcutta High Court in Balkaran Rai v. Govinda Nath Tewari, 12 All. 129: 10 All.W.N. 39, modifying Muhammad Sadik v. Mohammad Jan, 11 All. 91; Amjad Ali v. Mohammad Ismail, 20 All. 11: 17 All.W.N. 157 F.B.

Bombay High Court.—The Bombay High Court, although it took a contrary view in Narayan Madhavrao Naik v. Collector of Thana, 2 Bom. 145, yet in later decisions, has accepted the views of the other High Courts. See Vithal Krishna v. Balakrishna Janardan, 10 Bom. 610 F.B.; Dada Bhan Kittur v. Nagesh Ram Chandra, 23 Bom. 486.

An appeal lies from a decision on the question as to the class under which a suit falls, Balakrishna Bhimaji v. Ramakrishna Ganadhar, 33 Bom.L.R. 263: 1931 A.I.R. 234 (Bom.).

An order assessing court-fees is not appealable, Ujagar Singh v. Sohan Singh and others, 105 I.C. 610: 1927 A.I.R. 775 (Lah.).

Sec. 12 of the Court Fees Act bars an appeal only where the dispute is about the proper valuation of the subject-matter of the suit and not when the question is as to which of the several Articles of the Court Fees Act applies to the facts stated in the plaint, but if the order directing payment of additional court-fee is incorporated in the decree, it becomes an essential part of the decree and is appealable as such, Musst. Jintan v. Ahmad and another, 106 I.C. 817: 1928 A.I.R. 221 (Lah.).

The Madras High Court also took the same view in Annamalai Chetti v. Lt. Col. J. C. Cloete, 4 Mad. 204. The Chief Justice said at page 207: "In order to determine the court-fees payable on a plaint or memorandum of appeal, it is necessary to decide to which of the several classes, recognised by the Court Fees Act, the suit belongs. Where the fee prescribed for a particular class of suits is regulated by the value of the subject-matter of the suit, the further question arises, what is the valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of fee? In our judgment the terms of section 12 of the Court Fees Act ought not to receive a larger interpretation than what they fairly admit of. They do not declare the decision of the Court in which the plaint or appeal is filed, final, on all questions which may arise respecting the court-fees, but on every question relating to the valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of the fee. This may be a mere arithmetical calculation; it may involve the decision of a simple question of fact. On the other hand, apart from the valuation necessary to determine the amount of the fee, questions of much nicety may arise respecting the fee properly leviable on the suit; it is conceivable that the Legislature designedly prohibited appeal in the one case and permitted in the other." See also Kanaran v. Komappan, 14 Mad. 169; Champadan v. Kummimal, 4 Mad. L.J. 173; Venkata Ramani v. Narayanasami, 1924 M.W.N. 276: 48 M.L.J. 488: 87 I.C. 660: 1925 A.I.R. 713 (Madras).

Patna High Court.—When an order necessarily involves a decision of the category or class under which a suit falls, even though it incidentally decides a question of valuation, the order is appealable, Chandramani Koer v. Basdeo Narain Singh, 4 Pat.L.J. 57: 1918 (Pat.) C.W.N. 264: 49 Ind. Cas. 442.

A decision as to category is not final but a decision as to valuation is final, Manilal v. Durga Prasad, 3 Pat. 930: 80 I.C. 667: (1924) A.I.R. 673 (Patna): 5 P.L.T. 425.

In Sidheshwari v. Ram Kumar, 12 Patna 694: 14 P.L.T. 180: 1933 A.I.R. 234 (Patna): 144 I.C. 684, the Patna High Court said: "The question of the sufficiency of the stamp on the memorandum of appeal must always be regarded as open until the appeal is finally heard and disposed of, in view of the provisions of the 1st part of sec. 12, Court Fees Act, which directs that every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable on a memorandum of appeal shall be decided by the Court in which such memorandum is filed; and it is suggested that at the final disposal of the appeal it is open to the respondent to object that the memorandum of appeal has not been properly stamped. This view is certainly correct as applying to Courts subordinate to the High Court, and as applying to the High Court when considering the question of the sufficiency of the stamp in the Courts below under the second part of the section."

Oudh Chief Court.—See Dwarka Prosad v. Oudh Commercial Bank, Ltd., 5 O.C. 319; Gumani v. Banwari, 22 O.C. 289: 54 Ind. Cas. 733.

Compliance with order.—The fact that a certain sum was put in compliance with the order of Court did not preclude the plaintiff from disputing the decision of the Court afterwards in appeal, Mani Lal v. Durga Prasad, 3 Pat. 930: 80 I.C. 667: 1924 A.I.R. 673 (P.): 5 Pat.L.T. 425.

CLAUSE II.

Power of higher Court to realize deficiency.—Where the trial Court disposed of the suit without any decision as to sufficiency of court-fees as the defendant did not raise any objection as to the sufficiency of court-fees but on appeal the District Judge demanded additional court-fees and on failure of the plaintiff to comply with the demand of the District Judge the decision of the lower Court was set aside, held, on second appeal, that the District Judge acted rightly as a formal decision of the trial Court is not necessary before an appeal Court can interfere, Shama Sundari v. Hurro Soondary, 7 Cal. 348: 8 C.L.R. 528; Kalachand Sen v. Anundo Kristo Bose, 22 W.R. 433, dissented from.

Section 12 of the Court Fees Act was evidently framed for fiscal purposes, as is manifest from the second clause of the section which shows how a Court of appeal may review the decision of the primary Court upon a question of this character only when there is a loss of public revenue, Peary Shah v. Surajmal, 16 C.L.J. 371: 16 Ind. Cas. 575: 17 C.W.N. 503.

Although under section 12, clause (1) of the Court Fees Act, a decision on the question of court-fees by the Court of first instance is final between the parties, it can be re-opened by the appeal Court itself under clause (2) of this section in the interest of revenue, Tekana Kavandan v. Alagiri Kavandan, 25 Ind. Cas. 506.

A plaint insufficiently stamped, was filed in the City Civil Court, Madras, and was accepted by the sheristadar who was entrusted with the duty of checking the stamp of that Court as duly stamped. The suit was dismissed and on appeal to the High Court the court-fees paid on the plaint was found insufficient and the Taxing Officer of the High Court demanded the deficiency to be made up, held that decision by the sheristadar amounted to a decision by City Civil Judge and the Taxing Officer was right in demanding the difference, In re Lakshmi Ammal, 49 M.L.J. 608: 1926 A.I.R. 96 (Mad.); 91 I.C. 729: 1925 M.W.N. 826.

When a memorandum of appeal to the lower appellate Court is insufficiently stamped, the deficit court-fee should be levied by the appellate Court, Chenappa v. Raghunatha, 15 Mad. 29. It is sometimes the duty of the appeal Court to see that proper court-fees were paid in the lower Court. It is the duty of the High Court to see that proper court-fees are paid in the High Court and the Courts below from which the case came, Narain Prosad v. Kameshwar Prosad Singh, 3 Pat.L.J. 101: 43 Ind. Cas. 489. The appeal Court is bound to require the (plaintiff) appellant to make good the deficiency, Nihalchand v. Ghulam Muhammad, 19 Ind. Cas. 856 (Punjab).

Attachment. Recovery of court-fees by attachment of property.—A Court has no power to direct recovery of the court-fees by attachment of the property of the party liable to pay the court-fees even if the court-fee in question was payable in law; still less after the Court finally parts with the seisin of the case, Mohammad Ismail v. Leyaquat Husain, 1932 A.L.J. 165: 140 I.C. 191 (All.): 1932 A.I.R. 316 (All.). See also Ashgari Begum v. Fashiuddin, 1934 A.L.J. 820: 152 I.C. 816: 1934 A.I.R. 989 (All.) (case of withdrawal of a suit).

Procedure.—The word “filed” in sec. 12 occurs only in the first half and not on the second half, and, even if there is room for the contention, that the phrase “whenever any such suit comes before a Court of appeal” is satisfied when the memorandum is presented and before it has been accepted or registered, even so it is plainly much the better practice that these contentious questions as to documents in the lower Court should be dealt with when the memorandum of appeal has been accepted and registered and should not be dealt with as a condition of the acceptance or registration of the memorandum of appeal. A Judge in refusing to permit an appeal to be filed unless the plaintiff pays further fees in respect of a document in the lower Court, follows a practice which is not to be commended and which is of an extremely doubtful nature, Jalekha Bibi and another v. Danis Mahomed and others, 33 C.W.N. 952: 50 C.L.J. 164: 1930 A.I.R. 65 (Cal.): Bidhu Bhusan Baksi v. Kala Chand Ray, 31 C.W.N. 1045: 106 I.C. 335: 1927 A.I.R. 775 (Calcutta).

Formal decision not necessary.—It is not necessary for the application of sec. 12 (ii) that there should have been a formal decision of the question of sufficiency of the court-fees in the Court below. A suit comes before the appeal Court within the meaning of sec. 12 (ii) of the Court Fees Act when the appeal is registered in such Court, Bidhu Bhusan Bakshi v. Kala Chand Ray, 31 C.W.N. 1045: 106 I.C. 335: 1927 A.I.R. 775 (Calcutta); Jalekha Bibi and another v. Danis Mahomed and others, 33 C.W.N. 952: 50 C.L.J. 164: 122 I.C. 630: 1930 A.I.R. 65 (Cal.).

Written statement.—But where no court-fees have been paid on a written statement claiming a set-off, Court has no power to demand payment of additional stamp, Muthu Emlappo Pillai v. Vimker Maistry, 36 Ind. Cas. 957: 10 Bur.L.T. 242, but see contra, Chenappa v. Raghunatha, 15 Mad. 29, supra.

It is open to the appellate Court to demand additional court-fees from a party who has obtained a set-off in the trial Court without paying court-fees on his written statement and to allow the set-off on payment of such court-fees, Maneklal Vadilal v. Chandulal Balabhai Shah, 28 Bom.L.R. 525: 94 I.C. 646: 1926 A.I.R. 343 (Bom.).

The position of Court.—"If it were the appellant who was in fault and failed to pay the full court-fee due from him in the lower Court, this Court certainly could stay the hearing of his appeal and, if the deficient fees were not paid, could dismiss the appeal, and no doubt would do so; but where the appellant is not in fault, it would be most unjust that the respondent by failing to pay the court-fee due from him in the lower Court should have it in his power to prevent the appellant from having his appeal heard," Narain Singh v. Chaturbhuj Singh, 20 All. 362: 18 All.W.N. 72.

The Court of appeal when admitting an appeal is entitled to demand under the provisions of section 12 (2) the proper court-fees payable in the appellate Court as well as in the Court below by reason of the Judges in the Court below not having given a decision as to the proper amount of the court-fees payable, Lakshmi Ammal, In re, 1926 A.I.R. 96 (Mad.): 49 M.L.J. 608: 91 I.C. 729: 1925 M.W.N. 826.

Undertaking to pay.—"The breach of an undertaking given to the Court by a litigant, pending proceedings, on the faith of which the Court sanctions a particular course of action or inaction, is misconduct amounting to contempt. It is further well settled that when a person is guilty of such contempt he places himself in a perilous position so as not to be heard by the Court till he has purged his contempt," Raj Rajeswari Jiu v. Krishna, 39 C.L.J. 217 (220, 221): 82 I.C. 128: 1924 A.I.R. 953 (Cal.).

No demand can be made by Court after disposal of a case.

Calcutta High Court.—Where after dismissal of suit, the Court ordered the deficit court-fee to be paid by the plaintiff and on his default, the Court of its own motion ordered attachment of the property, held, that the Court had no jurisdiction to do so, Jatra Mohan Sen v. Secretary of State for India, 46 Cal. 520: 52 I.C. 435: 1919 A.I.R. 194 (Cal.).

Allahabad High Court.—The powers conferred by section 54 (a) and (b) and sec. 455 read with sec. 582, C. P. C., or by section 12 of the Court Fees Act, read with paragraph 2 of section 10 of the Court Fees Act, are intended to be exercised before the disposal of the case, and not after it has been decided finally so far as that Court is concerned, Mahadei v. Ram Kisen Das and others, 7 All. 528: (1885) 5 All.W.N. 140.

Lahore High Court.—The Court has no power to order the appellant to make up the deficiency discovered in the court-fees after dismissal of the appeal, Abdullah v. Secy. of State for India, 82 I.C. 588: 1925 A.I.R. 131 (Lah.); Musst. Durga Devi v. Musst. Parhati, 34 P.L.R. 84: 141 I.C. 175: 1933 A.I.R. 208 (Lah.).

Oudh Court.—The Court after the disposal of an appeal becomes functus officio and cannot entertain an application for an order to compel the appellant to pay additional court-fees, Durga Prasad v. Surat Singh, 5 Luck. 229: 6 O.W.N. 757: 1929 A.I.R. 483 (Oudh).

Madras High Court.—See Govinda Nambi v. Parameswar Nambi, 1 M.L.J. 528; In re the Collector of Coimbatore, 1933 M.W.N. 330: 37 L.W. 300: 1933 A.I.R. 321 (M.): 142 I.C. 25.

Patna High Court.—The Court cannot after disposal of a case demand court-fees from a party. Sec. 28 of the Court Fees Act confers no such power on the Court, Kedar Nath Goenka v. Chandra Mouleshwar Prasad Singh Bahadur, 11 Patna 532: 13 P.L.T. 304: 137 I.C. 855: 1932 A.I.R. 228 (Patna).

Patna High Court.—If the appeal to the High Court be dismissed, owing to the appellant's failure to pay the deficit court-fees on the memorandum of appeal or for any other reason, the High Court has no power to call upon the respondent to make good the deficiency in court-fees payable by him in the lower appellate Court and has no power to restrain the respondent from executing the decree obtained by him as the High Court is functus officio, Kumar Radhika Raman Prasad Singh v. Mussammat Janki Koer, 4 Pat.L.J. 472: 1919 (Pat.) C.W.N. 276: 51 Ind. Cas. 756.

When it is intended to recover deficit court-fees from a respondent before the High Court, or in the lower Court, the proper course is to admit the appeal for hearing and to take action under section 12 of the Court Fees Act read with section 10 of the Court Fees Act. The Court is then in full seisin of the case and can punish the defaulting plaintiff or first appellant, as the case may be, by the dismissal of the suit or appeal. Where, however, the appeal before the High Court is dismissed under Order 41, Rule 11, C. P. C. no such action can be taken till the order of dismissal is reviewed and the appeal admitted for hearing, Rajendra Narain Singh v. Ramdil Singh, 5 Pat.L.J. 508: 58 Ind. Cas. 271.

Rangoon High Court.—The provisions of the Court Fees Act relating to the levy of additional fees apply only to cases which are still pending and cannot be enforced in cases which have been finally decided, Shanghai Life Insurance Co., Ltd. v. Mrs. Helen Constance Brown, 9 Bur.L.T. 43: 32 Ind. Cas. 534.

Realization of court-fees from respondent.—When it is discovered in second appeal that the memorandum of appeal to the lower appellate Court was insufficiently stamped but the respondent on being called upon to pay the deficit court-fee, did not make good the deficiency, held, that the proper procedure was not to dismiss the appeal by the respondent to the lower appellate Court but to stay the issuing of the decree, if any, of the High Court in favour of the respondent until such time as the additional court-fee due by him might be paid, Narain Singh v. Chaturbhuj Singh, 20 All. 362: (1898) 18 All. W.N. 72.

The Allahabad High Court in the case of Madan Lal v. Jaikishen Das, 25 All.W.N. 277: 1 All.L.J. 392, held, that if the respondent persists in refusing to pay the deficit court-fee then the appeal to the lower appellate Court will be dismissed. But this case was overruled in the Full Bench case of Mohan Lal v. Nand Kishore, 28 All. 270: 23 All.W.N. 280: 2 All.L.J. 839, where the same High Court held, that when it is discovered that the respondent in the High Court, when appellant in the lower appellate Court had not paid proper court-fees on his memorandum of appeal and has not paid the deficit court-fees when called upon to do so, the proper procedure would be to stay issuing the decree, if any, of the High Court in favour of the respondent and to dismiss the respondent's appeal in the lower Court.

The High Court cannot stop preparation of the decree after the judgment has been pronounced, Kedar Nath Goenka v. Chandra Mouleshwar Prasad Singh Bahadur, 11 Patna 532: 13 P.L.T. 304: 137 I.C. 855: 1932 A.I.R. 228 (Patna).

The proper procedure is for the Court to hold that the respondent is bound to pay deficit court-fees and if a decree is passed in favour of the respondent in default no decree will be issued until the deficit court-fee is paid, Mahiuddin Sikdar and others v. Ram Prasad Das and another by Cuming and Ray, JJ. in S. A. 337 of 1927 decided on 10th August, 1927 (unreported).

N.B.—The Bengal Act VII of 1935 makes the provisions of Public Demands Recovery Act applicable to such cases.

In Shama Soondary v. Hurro Soondary, 7 Cal. 173: 8 C.L.R. 528, the Calcutta High Court held that unless the plaintiff-respondent submits to the order of the appeal Court in complying with the order for payment of deficit court-fees then under sec. 10, cl. (ii) such a plaintiff loses the advantage she has obtained, viz., that her suit is liable to be dismissed. See Kammathi v. Kunhamed, 15 Mad. 288.

But the Patna High Court has held in Pandit Brij Krishna Das v. Chowdhury Murli Rai, 4 Pat.L.J. 803, that if a plaintiff respondent fails to make good a deficiency in the court-fees paid on the plaint, it is competent to the appellate Court to call upon him, to pay the deficit court-fee, and, in the event of his failure, to dismiss his suit.

When it appears to the High Court in a second appeal that the memorandum of appeal of the appellant in the lower appellate Court but who was respondent before the High Court was insufficiently stamped and that the deficiency was not made good by him, although he was called upon to do so, the High Court may not hear the counsel for the respondent as he was in contempt, Baijnath v. Dhani Ram, 27 A.L.J. 1024: 1929 A.I.R. 77 (All.): 117 I.C. 107.

13. If an appeal or plaint, which has been rejected by the lower Court on any of the grounds mentioned in the Code of Civil Procedure, is ordered to be received, or if a suit is remanded in appeal, on any of the grounds mentioned in section 351 [the first Schedule, Order XLI, Rule 23] of the same Code, for a second decision by the lower Court, the Appellate Court shall grant to the appellant a certificate, authorizing him to receive back from the Collector the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of appeal:

Refund of fees paid on memorandum of appeal.

Provided that if, in the case of a remand in appeal, the order of remand shall not cover the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, the certificate so granted shall not authorize the appellant to receive back more than so much fee as would have been originally payable on the part or parts of such subject-matter in respect whereof the suit has been remanded.

NOTES.

Change in law.—According to section 158 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908) the reference to section 351 of the Old Code (Act VIII of 1859) is altered to that of the New Code (Act V of 1908). The original words were “in section 351 of the same Code.”

Rejection.—Rejection of a plaint can be made under Order 7, Rule 11; Of a memorandum of appeal, See Order 41, Rule 3. Section 351 of the Code of 1859 (Act VIII of 1859) corresponds to section 562 of the Code of 1882 (Act XIV of 1882) and to Order 41, Rule 23 of the present Code (Act V of 1908). The section in the Code says that where the case has been disposed of on a preliminary point and that the decision of that preliminary point has been reversed on appeal, then the appeal Court is to remand the case for hearing to the lower Court.

This section provides that in remanding such cases the court-fees paid are to be refunded.

Construction. Preliminary point.

Please see an edition of the Code of Civil Procedure. Some of the cases are given below.

The words “preliminary point” have not been defined anywhere, but they mean and include all points or issues of fact or law the determination of which precludes the necessity for determining the other points or issues of fact or law and such determination disposes of the entire suit, Sheoamber v. Lallu Singh, 9 All. 26; Muhammad Allahabad v. Muhammad Ismail, 10 All. 289; Matadin v. Jumna Das, 27 All. 69; Ram Narain v. Bhagwandin, (1884) 9 All. 29.

Preliminary point means a matter preliminary to the general determination of the suit which the parties bring before the Court for decision, Krishnan Dutti v. Muthan Palandi, 22 Mad. 172.

A decision where several issues remain undecided is one on a preliminary point, Sushilamala v. Joya Deman, 40 L.W. 372; 1934 M.W.N. 670; 151 I.C. 721; 1934 A.I.R. 643 (Mad.); Raman Nayar v. Krishnan Nambudripad, (1922) 45 Mad. 900 F.B.

An order by an appeal Court directing addition of parties to a suit and remanding that suit for retrial is an order upon a preliminary point, Jadav Govinda Singh v. Anath Bandhu Sahu, 37 Cal. 171; 5 I.C. 998. A suit disposed of on a point which precludes consideration of other issues is a suit disposed of on a preliminary point, Nirmala v. Golap, (1933) 57 C.L.J. 473.

An order of remand directing a retrial on an amended plaint, is an order under Order 41, Rule 23, C. P. C., Mahammad Shafi v. Panchayet, Fatehgar through etc., 100 I.C. 491: 1927 A.I.R. 196 (Lahore).

A decision by the trial Court that certain documents are inadmissible in evidence and disposal by that Court of the suit on that issue alone without decision on other points raised, is a decision on a preliminary point and when such a decision is reversed in appeal and the case is remanded to the first Court, the court-fees paid on the memorandum must be refunded under sec. 13 of the Court Fees Act, Sher Mahammad v. Mian Ahmad and others, 103 I.C. 298: 1927 A.I.R. 592 (Lahore). See also Abdul Gafar v. Muhammad Ziauddin, 2 P.R. 1908: 12 P.W.R. 1908; Bhadoi v. Sheikh Manowar, 4 P.L.J. 645.

Suit.—The word 'suit' in sec. 13 includes an appeal. A remand by a Court of second appeal to the Court of first appeal, is a remand and the court-fees paid on the memorandum of appeal to the Court of second appeal is refundable, Shanti Lal v. Agha Dost Mohammad and others, 54 All. 1081: 1932 A.L.J. 745: 140 I.C. 56: 1932 A.I.R. 641 (All.).

Lower Court.—The expression 'lower Court' includes the Court of first instance in the case of a remand by the High Court, Kanhaiya Lal v. Musst. Mahadei and others, 54 All. 523: 1932 A.L.J. 320: 140 I.C. 466: 1932 A.I.R. 550 (All.). [In this case the remand was as to a part of the subject-matter and the High Court ordered court-fees proportional to that part to be refunded].

Application for refund.—In an application for refund it is obligatory upon the Court to consider whether the memorandum of appeal was or was not properly stamped, Lakhi Narain Jagdeb v. Chowdhury Kirtibas Das, 18 C.L.J. 133: 19 I.C. 971.

Exception.—An application for refund of court-fees is exempted from the levy of court-fees under sec. 19 (xx) of the Court Fees Act, Jag Narain Pandey v. Mata Badal, 54 All. 790: 1932 A.L.J. 601: 142 I.C. 16: 1932 A.I.R. 590 (All.): 1933 I.R. 100 (All.).

Delay in making application.—An application for refund of court-fees should be made within a reasonable time after the disposal of the case. A delay of more than two years was considered to be too long. Refund of court-fees by Government is a matter of grace, Jadubansi Sahay v. Barhamdeo Narayan, 11 P.L.T. 476: 126 I.C. 294: 1930 A.I.R. 495 (Pat.).

Court in which the application is to be filed.—In a suit the trial Court held the suit to be for maintenance and realised deficit court-fees on that basis. The High Court held the suit to be one for declaration only. An application for refund was held to be entertainable in the Court in which the plaint was filed, although no suit was pending before that Court, Musst. Deba v. Secretary of State, 1935 A.L.J. 376: 154 I.C. 520: 1935 A.I.R. 455 (All.).

Refund on remand.—Where a suit has been dismissed on preliminary ground by the Court of first instance and the appeal was allowed with costs by the High Court on appeal, afterwards on the application of the judgment-debtors the decree was amended, the High Court remarked that an order ought to have been made for refund of court-fees and the amount paid in court-fees ought not to have been shown in the decree and the decree was ordered to be amended, Surendra Nath v. Girija Nath, 15 C.L.J. 659: 15 Ind. Cas. 220. See also Nand Kumar v. Bilas Ram, 3 Pat.L.J. 116: 1917 (Pat.) C.W.N. 377: Bhausing Ragho v. Chaganiram Harachand, 42 Bom. 363: 20 Bom.L.R. 348: 45 Ind. Cas. 552 in which case the lower appellate Court having refused to grant refund on remand to it, the Bombay High Court held that the said order was illegal and revised the order under sec. 115, C. P. C., Goura Telin v. Shriram, 92 I.C. 926: 1926 A.I.R. 265 (N.).

It is only when the appeal is remanded under Order 41, Rule 23 that the Court Fees Act permits refund of court-fees and not in other cases, Jaganath v. Maruti, 12 N.L.R. 126: 36 Ind. Cas. 241. See also Vithoba v. Waman, 42 Ind. Cas. 304: 1918 A.I.R. 271 (Nag.); Nand Kumar v. Bilas Ram, 3 Pat.L.J. 116: 43 Ind. Cas. 855: 4 Pat.L.W. 100: 1917 Pat.C.W.N. 377.

An order refunding court-fees can only be made under sec. 13 of the Court Fees Act in a case where the remand is made under Order 41, Rule 23, C. P. C., Agent, Bengal Nagpur Railway Company v. Behari Lall Dutt, 52 Cal. 783 (787): 29 C.W.N. 614: 90 I.C. 426: 1925 A.I.R. 716 (Cal.). See also Anantha Narayan v. Harihar Pattar, 1927 M.W.N. 761 (case of a promissory note); Mahomed Shafi v. Panchayet, Fatehghar, etc., 100 I.C. 49: 1927 A.I.R. 196 (Lah.); Sushilamala v. Sumanto, 1934 M.W.N. 1070: 40 L.W. 372: 151 I.C. 721: 1934 A.I.R. 643 (M.) (where the remand was erroneously ordered to be under sec. 151, C. P. C.).

In Kanhaiya Lal v. Mahadeo, 54 All. 523: 140 I.C. 466: 1932 A.I.R. 550 (All.): 1932 A.L.J. 320: 1932 I.R. 667 (All.), the High Court allowed refund of the court-fees paid in the High Court and not of the court-fees paid in the lower Courts. See also Musst. Kaulpati Kuar v. Kashi Prasad Singh and others, 1934 A.L.J. 41: 1934 A.I.R. 106 (All.): 56 All. 526: 147 I.C. 686 F.B. The High Court also held that the court-fees paid on the memorandum of appeal to the lower appellate Court which dismissed the appeal could not be refunded.

When the decree is set aside against some defendants only.—When the decree appealed against was set aside as against some of the respondents but was left outstanding against other respondents, held, that the successful appellants were not entitled to a certificate for refund under section 13 of the Court Fees Act, In the matter of Bhagawanti, (1916) 14 All.L.J. 671: 39 Ind. Cas. 28.

In Musst. Kaulpati Kuar v. Kashi Prasad Singh and others, 56 All. 526: 14 A.L.J. 41: 1934 A.I.R. 106 (All.): 147 I.C. 686 F.B. the trial Court passed a decree against three out of the six defendants. The plaintiff appealed claiming a decree against the three defendants exonerated by the trial Court; the High Court in second appeal set aside the decrees of both the Courts and remanded the whole case to the trial Court and ordered refund of court-fees paid in the High Court only.

Refund on part remand.—Where an appeal was remanded in part, the appellant is entitled to a return of the proportionate part of the stamp duty paid by him, In the matter of the petition of Doorga Dass Dutt, B.L.R. Supp. Vol. 511: 6 W.R. Mis. 65: Sevaster, Vol. 9, p. 176. See also the 2nd paragraph to the section.

Re-payment of court-fees on the reversal of the order of remand.—Where a suit has been remanded by the lower appellate Court under section 562, C. P. C. (Act XIV of 1882) and the court-fees on the memorandum of appeal and cross objection were refunded to the respective parties, on appeal the High Court, held, that the remand was bad and returned the appeal to the lower appellate Court for decision. Here the appellants failed to repay the court-fees but the respondents repaid the stamp on their cross objection; held, that the respondents only were entitled to be heard, Rajmal Motiram v. Tapu Bin Kundlipa Matee, 1898 P.J. 72.

Partition suit.—Court-fees cannot be refunded when the appeal Court after deciding on the merits of the appeal arising out of a partition suit remanded the case in order that the partition might be finally carried out. Held, also that the memorandum should be stamped as an appeal from a decree, Umrao Alikhan v. Abdul Subhan Khan, 28 All.W.N. 40: 5 All.L.J. 545; Nand Kumar Singh v. Bilas Ram Marwari, 3 P.L.J. 116: 4 P.L.W. 100: 1917 Pat.C.W.N. 377: 43 I.C. 855.

Compromise.—No refund can be made when a suit is compromised, The Land Mortgage Bank of India, Limited v. Gregory Paul Mahtus, (March, 1870) 4 B.L.R. Ap. 96. See contra, In the matter of Gajendra Narain Ray, 11 W.R. 158, (decided on 23rd February 1869) where the High Court held that if the petition of compromise is filed before the case is on the cause list, the appellant is entitled to a full refund of court-fees (this is in accordance with the code then in force). But in Musst. Seba v. Secretary of State, 1935 A.L.J. 376: 154 I.C. 520: 1935 A.I.R. 455 (All.), the Allahabad High Court ordered refund of court-fees after recording a compromise on the ground that the suit was one for declaration as regards maintenance and not for maintenance.

No refund in cases of payment under orders of the Taxing Officer.—There is no provision in the Court Fees Act which empowers a Court to order refund of any amount paid on demand by the Taxing Officer, Puran Singh v. Kesor Singh, 30 P.R. 1907; Hitendra Singh v. Maharajadhiraj of Darbhanga, 7 P.L.T. 392: 92 I.C. 626: 1926 A.I.R. 147 (Patna). But see Indur Sen Singh v. Rikhai Singh, 30 All. 103: 28 All.W.N. 31: 5 All.L.J. 18 where the Court said that refund ought to be made. [But the Revenue authorities may refund on application].

Court-fees paid in cash.—The petitioner-appellant who was directed to pay deficit court-fees on his memorandum of appeal and who paid the fee in cash instead of in court-fee stamps, applied for refund of his money on the ground that when his memorandum of appeal has been rejected for non-payment of court-fees, the amount in deposit should be refunded. The Patna High Court held that there is no provision in the Court Fees Act, or indeed anywhere else, for refunding of court-fees which has been deposited with the memorandum of appeal, or during the hearing of the appeal, when the appeal has been dismissed on the ground that deficit court-fees ordered to be paid has not been paid. It can make no difference whatever that the sum deposited in Court undoubtedly as court-fees, was not converted into the shape of a stamp, Janak Prasad v. Askaran Prasad, I.L.R. 6 Pat. 602: 9 P.L.T. 337: 1928 A.I.R. 29 (Patna): 105 I.C. 742.

Refund.—In In re Chidambaram Chettiar, 57 Mad. 1028: 40 L.W. 295: 1934 A.I.R. 566 (Mad.): 1934 M.W.N. 678: 67 M.L.J. 321: 152 I.C. 778, the Madras High Court held that the Court can order a refund (1) where the Court Fees Act applies; (2) where there is an excess payment by mistake, or (3) where on account of the mistake of a Court a party has been compelled to pay court-fees either wholly or in part; outside these cases it is doubtful if a Court can grant refund.

Order for refund under inherent power of Court.—The cases of Harihar Garu v. Anand Mahanty, 40 Cal. 365, was followed in Chandra Dhari Singh v. Tippan Prosad Singh, 3 Pat.L.J. 452: 46 Ind. Cas. 271: 1918 Pat.C.W.N. 273, where it was held that although there is no provision in the Court Fees Act for refund of court-fees over-paid by mistake, the High Court in the exercise of its inherent power vested in it can under section 151, C. P. C. order refund of the excess court-fees paid. See also Probhas Kumar v. Nithar Lal, 28 C.W.N. 928: 1924 A.I.R. 1054 (Cal.): 84 I.C. 278.

But in Jagdish Chowdhury v. Radha Dubey, 105 I.C. 740: I.L.R. 6 Pat. 599, the Patna High Court thought that the inherent power is not to be exercised in every case.

Court-fees paid in excess under a bona fide mistake was ordered to be refunded in M. Muhammad Reza v. Raj Ballabh Nath Singh, 107 I.C. 320: 9 P.L.T. 240. See Sasi Bhusan Majumdar v. Manick Lal Chandra, 107 I.C. 825 (Patna).

The Subordinate Courts have inherent power to issue certificate for refund of excess court-fees paid by inadvertence, In the matter of Chaube Munna Lal, (1930) 52 All. 546: 1930 A.L.J. 805: 122 I.C. 188: 1930 A.I.R. 471 (All.).

The Court has jurisdiction to order refund of court-fees in cases which do not fall within secs. 13, 14 and 15 of the Court Fees Act. (A case of withdrawal of the memorandum of appeal), Mahammad Sadiq Ali Khan v. Ali Abbas and others, 1933 A.I.R. 170 (171) (Oudh): 7 Luck. 588: 10 O.W.N. 292: 146 I.C. 789; Jawala Singh v. Ghulam and others, 34 P.L.R. 1: 142 I.C. 633: 1933 A.I.R. 351 (Lah.): 1933 I.R. 226 (Lah.).

The court-fees may be refunded even in a remand under sec. 151, C. P. Code, Musst. Gendo v. Radhe Mohan, 33 P.L.R. 54: 136 I.C. 559: 1932 A.I.R. 219 (Lah.): 1932 I.R. 239 (Lah.); The Central Bank of India v. Firm Thakurdas Tulsi Ram, 34 P.L.R. 270: 141 I.C. 400: 1933 A.I.R. 135 (Lah.); contra, Punjab Ram v. Jowaya, 1933 A.I.R. 47 (Lah.): 141 I.C. 425: 34 P.L.R. 252; Ramchand v. Bhagwan, (1935) A.I.R. 8 (Pesh.).

Refund after disposal of a case.—After a case has been disposed of, the Court has no power either to refund or levy court-fees. The power to do justice under sec. 151 cannot be invoked in support of a claim for refund, In re the Secretary of State, 1933 A.I.R. 321 (Mad.): 37 L.W. 300: 1933 M.W.N. 330: 142 I.C. 25.

In Girish Chandra Mali v. Girish Chandra Dutta, 36 C.W.N. 190: 54 C.L.J. 68: 133 I.C. 689: 1932 A.I.R. 6 (Cal.): 1931 I.R. 737 (Cal.) the Calcutta High Court ordered refund of excess court-fees paid even after disposal of the appeal before it on the ground that justice should be done. See also Musst. Seba v. Secretary of State, 1935 A.L.J. 376: 154 I.C. 520: 1935 A.I.R. 455 (All.) where the application for refund was treated as an application for review.

Refund of excess stamp paid.—Where the stamps on a memorandum of appeal were over-paid the High Court directed the Taxing Officer to issue necessary certificate to entitle the appellant to apply to the revenue authorities to obtain a refund of the excess paid in court-fees, Harihar Garu v. Ananda Mahanty, 40 Cal. 365: 20 Ind. Cas. 498. See also the case of In the matter of G. H. Grant, 14 W.R. 47. See also Miss Hirabai Burjorji Cowasji v. Fakir Mahomed Vali Mahomed Khoja, 102 I.C. 193: 1927 A.I.R. 192 (S.). So where a party, in appealing against an order stamped the memorandum of appeal as an appeal from a decree, held, that section 13 applies, and the excess stamp duty should be refunded to him, Orr v. Nagappa, 16 M.L.J. 30.

An appeal Court may refund court-fees paid in a claim for mesne profits, if the appellant can make out a case that the mesne profits have been over-estimated, Deonandan Misra v. Ganga Prasad and others, 8 Patna 906: 10 P.L.T. 622: 120 I.C. 312: 1929 A.I.R. 731 (Patna).

A claim for refund of court-fees, after dismissal of an appeal on the ground that no appeal lies, based on the plea that the excess payment was made on the wrong advice by the Stamp Reporter and that the party acted on the advice without questioning it, was negatived by the Patna High Court, Jagadish Chowdhury v. Radha Dubey, 105 I.C. 740: I.L.R. 6 Patna 599: 1928 A.I.R. 35 (Pat.); Mirza Muhammad Reza and another v. Rajballabh Nath Singh and another, 9 P.L.T. 240: 107 I.C. 320.

The High Court has inherent power to determine judicially the court-fees payable and to order refund of excess fees paid in proper cases and then to issue certificate for refund. It still lies with the Revenue authorities to decide whether or not they will refund the excess fees in the circumstances of the case, Thammayya Naidu v. Ven'ataramanamma, 55 Mad. 641: 62 M.L.J. 541: 35 L.W. 618: 1932 M.W.N. 420: 139 I.C. 131: 1932 A.I.R. 438 (Mad.). See also Vijoyalakshmi Ammal v. K. R. Srinivasa Iyengar, 57 Mad. 542: 66 M.L.J. 35: 1934 M.W.N. 7: 38 L.W. 983: 148 I.C. 1108: 1934 A.I.R. 84 (Mad.) where the Madras High Court held that the only certificate the Court can grant is that the court-fees have been paid in excess. See also Raoji Bhiosangji v. Collector, Amraoti, 1934 A.I.R. 263 (Nag.).

Refund on return of plaint.—The High Court has inherent power to order refund of the value of stamps on a memorandum of appeal which has been returned as not sufficiently stamped, Bhubaneswari Prasad v. Kishen Dayal, 72 I.C. 405 (Patna); Lachmi Prasad v. Secretary of State for India, 11 P.L.T. 711: 131 I.C. 530: 1931 A.I.R. 39 (Patna).

Refund in the case of an appeal against preliminary decree.—A refund certificate cannot be granted by Court for court-fees paid on an appeal against a preliminary decree, Nand Kumar Singh v. Bilas Ram Marwari, 3 Pat.L.J. 116: 4 Pat.L.W. 100: 1917 (Pat.) C.W.N. 377: 43 Ind. Cas. 855.

Appeal from final decree.—When an appeal was pending from the preliminary decree, it was not necessary for the mortgagee to file another appeal from the final decree. The court-fees paid on the memorandum of appeal from the final decree was ordered to be refunded, Swami Dayal v. Muhammad Sher Khan, 1925 A.I.R. 39 (Oudh): 83 I.C. 829; Khanhaiya Lal v. Tribeni Sahai, 36 All. 532: 12 A.L.J. 876: 24 I.C. 827. The Calcutta High Court allows the memorandum of appeal to be corrected by making it an appeal both from the preliminary and final decrees, Nanibala v. Ichchamoyi, 40 C.L.J. 291.

Withdrawal of appeal—Refund.—In In re Chidambaram Chettyar, 57 Mad. 1028: 40 L.W. 295: 67 M.L.J. 321: 1934 M.W.N. 678: 152 I.C. 778: 1934 A.I.R. 566 (Mad.), the Madras High Court ordered refund of court-fees on a memorandum of appeal withdrawn by the appellant; Mahammad Sadiq Ali Khan v. Ali Abbas, 7 Luck. 588: 146 I.C. 789: 1933 A.I.R. 170 (Oudh).

Refund of court-fees paid under order of Court.—The plaintiff paid court-fees under orders of Court on a valuation made by it; subsequently after hearing the parties the trial Court dismissed the suit, on appeal the High Court accepted the plaintiff's valuation but refused to grant a certificate of refund holding that its powers are limited to cases specified in sections 13, 14, 15 and therefore it cannot refund the excess amount paid. In the matter of the petition of Maulvi Syud Zoynooddeen Hossein Khan, 11 B.L.R. A.C. 370.

Contra.—Where under order of Court excess court-fees were paid, the High Court on appeal ordered excess court-fees paid, to be refunded, Bebee Syedun v. Syud Allah, W.R. Gap Number 327 (329); In the matter of G. H. Grant, 14 W.R. 47; Indar Sen Singh v. Rikhai Sing, 30 All. 103: 28 All.W.N. 31: 5 All. L.J. 18; Katchi Rowther v. Naina Mohammad, 28 Ind. Cas. 300; In re Chidambaram Chettyar, 57 Mad. 1028, supra.

Refund on amendment of plaint.—The fact that on amendment of a plaint by which the original prayers are altered and rendered unnecessary, by itself, would not entitle the plaintiff to a refund of court-fees paid on original prayers, Ramakrishnayya v. Seshamma, 41 L.W. 488: 1935 M.W.N. 406: 1935 A.I.R. 346 (Mad.).

Mistake of party, no refund, use of wrong stamp.—Where the final decree in a partition suit was drawn up, by mistake, on a court-fee stamp, instead of on a non-judicial stamp and the plaintiff asked for refund, held, that the plaintiff is not entitled to a refund, as a matter of right, Maulavi Rafiuddin v. Syed Ahmed, 12 C.L.J. 324: 7 Ind. Cas. 94: 14 C.W.N. 1101.

Mistake of Counsel.—Where an appeal was filed forma pauperis and the application was rejected and then the pauper appellant stamped his memorandum of appeal with proper court-fees, but it was found that the period for appealing has expired, whereupon counsel for the pauper appellant asked for a refund, held, that the counsel having been heard in support of the appeal so stamped, no refund can be granted, S. Annamallay v. O. M. R. M. Chetty Firm, 22 Ind. Cas. 884: 7 L.B.R. 90; but in J. C. Galstaun v. Janakinath Roy, 38 C.W.N. 185: 152 I.C. 215: 1934 A.I.R. 615 (Cal.) the Calcutta High Court ordered refund where the appeal was barred by time owing to negligence of advocate.

Refund of excess stamp (paid by mistake).—The Government has directed that excess court-fees stamp put in by mistake in matters of administration should be refunded, I. G. Resolution No. 132, dated the 11th January, 1888. The Government has directed that excess court-fee stamps put in by mistake in matters of administration should be refunded. I. G. Notification No. 2025 of 1872, dated 17th September, 1872, p. 782.

Refund of excess stamp in Probate, Letters of Administration, etc.—See sections 19A, 19B of the Court Fees Act.

Other cases of refund—Refund under Presidency S. C. C. Act.—See Presidency S. C. C. Act, section 73.

Refund under Madras City Civil Courts Act.—See section 13 of that Act, I. G. Notification No. 4650, dated 10th September, 1889, dated the 14th September, Part I, pages 506-509.

As to refund of fees paid on application to the Chief Court or the Court of the Financial Commissioner of the Punjab for the exercise of its revisional jurisdiction under the Code of Civil Procedure—see the Punjab Courts Act, 1884 (18 of 1884), section 72, as amended by the Punjab Courts Act, 1899 (25 of 1899), Punjab and North West Code.

Full value to be refunded.—Under section 13 of the Court Fees Act, 1870, an applicant is entitled to receive from the Collector the full amount of court-fees paid on the memorandum of appeal without any deduction, on production of the certificate of the appellate Court, and no further sanction is necessary for the refund of the court-fees, B. G. Resolution No. 8912, dated 13th December 1890; I. G. Resolution No. 132, dated the 11th January, 1888.

Revision.—If a Court having jurisdiction to decide on an application for refund, fails to do so, then the High Court can revise the order, Musst, Deba v. Secretary of State, 1935 A.L.J. 376: 154 I.C. 520: 1935 A.I.R. 455 (All.); Bhansing Ragho v.

Chaganiram Harachand, 42 Bom. 363: 20 Bom.L.R. 348: 45 I.C. 552.

Return of stamps.—In Raoji Bhiosanji v. Collector, Amraoti, 31 N.L.R. 82: 1934 A.I.R. 263 (Nag.), in a case of affixing of wrong stamps the Nagpore Court held that in that the applicant had no absolute right of refund and that the stamps could only be returned as a matter of grace, if the Court was of opinion that there was a bona fide mistake; when once the plaint has been admitted, the stamps should be cancelled and there is no question of returning them. See also Jaunji Pandey v. Saudagar Singh, 131 I.C. 532: 1931 A.I.R. 113 (Patna).

14. Where an application for a review of judgment is presented on or after the ninetieth day from the date of the decree, the Court, unless the delay was caused by the applicant's laches, may, in its discretion, grant him a certificate authorizing him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee which would have been payable had it been presented before such day.

Refund of fee on application for review of judgment.

NOTES.

Object of the section.—This section was enacted in modification of section 377 of the then Code of Civil Procedure. By the latter, on the application for review of judgment presented after ninety days from the date of such judgment, the same fee was levied as if it were a plaint in a suit, whilst an application made within ninety days was subject only to the court-fee chargeable on ordinary applications. In many cases when the delay had accrued through the laches on the part of the applicant, this rule had been found to entail hardship; and the measure of relief provided by this section, under which a refund of the difference between the amount paid and that which would have been payable had the application been presented within ninety days, might be obtained in such cases, was thought to be called for, India Gazette, dated 26th February, 1870.

N. B.—See section 114 and Order 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908).

According to Art. 5 of Schedule I of the Court Fees Act, half the fee leviable on the plaint or memorandum of appeal is to be paid, if the application is presented within the ninetieth day from the date of decree, and according to Art. 4 of the same schedule, full court-fee is to be paid if presented on or after the ninetieth day. Applications for review of judgments are to be stamped with court-fees actually leviable on the memorandum of appeal in which the judgment sought to be reviewed, was passed irrespective of the relief claimed, M. C. Husania v. Sahib Nur, 20 Ind. Cas. 3: 254 P.L.R. 1913.

Computation of time.—In computing the 89 days from the date of the decree, the time during which the Court is closed is not to be excluded and an application cannot be filed on half court-fee on the re-opening day if the Court be closed on the 89th day. Held also, reference to Limitation Act cannot be made, that Act not being in Pari materia with the Court Fees Act, Kota, 9 Mad. 134. Where the application for review of judgment was filed on the re-opening day of the High Court after vacation, but after the ninetieth day fell during the vacation—held, that full fee leviable on the memorandum of appeal must be paid in the first instance, but that the Court, if satisfied, might direct a refund of one half of such fee. In re Doorga Prosanno Ghosh, 9 C.L.R. 479.

An application for review of judgment was presented on the ninetieth day as the previous day was a Sunday, should be stamped with full fee leviable on the plaint or the memorandum of appeal. To such cases under the Court Fees Act, section 5 of the Limitation Act of 1877 has no application. Section 10 of the General Clauses Act, being applicable only to Acts of the Governor-General in Council and Regulation made on or after the 14th January, 1887, is inapplicable to such cases. The general principle that a party may be taken to have done an act within the prescribed time, if he has done it on the first day the Court is open after expiry of the holidays within which the prescribed time terminated, is inapplicable in view of section 14 of the Court Fees Act, Sayera Bibi v. Bhutnath Haldar, 15 C.L.J. 505: 15 I.C. 455.

For other cases see also under Arts, 4, 5 of Schedule I of this Act.

Refund.—When an application for review was filed with half court-fees, the High Court said, "The position is that if the strict letter of law be followed, the applicant should be called upon to pay one half of the court-fee in addition to what he had paid before, and we should then forthwith grant a certificate under section 14 for a refund of this sum. This would be an idle formality which would needlessly delay the consideration of this application on the merits." The application was then heard on the merits, Nowrang Singh v. Janardan, 39 C.L.J. 344: 1924 A.I.R. 994 (Cal.): 80 Ind. Cas. 794.

Stamp duty paid on a petition of the nature of an application for review, may be refunded where there is no final decision,

Prosanna Chunder Ray Chowdhury v. Nābo Kristo Chatterji,
18 W.R. 434.

15. Where an application for a review of judgment is admitted, and where, on the rehearing, the Court reverses or modifies its former decision on the ground of mistake in law or fact, the applicant shall be entitled to a certificate from the Court authorizing him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the [application] as exceeds the fee payable on any other application to such Court under the Second Schedule to this Act, No. 1, clause (b) or clause (d).

But nothing in the former part of this section shall entitle the applicant to such a certificate where the reversal or modification is due, wholly or in part, to fresh evidence which might have been produced at the original hearing.

NOTES.

Amendments.—The word “application” was substituted for the original words “plaint or memorandum of appeal” by the Court Fees Act, (Amendment Act, 1870, XX of 1870), sec. 1.

Elements.—In order to attract the operation of section 15 of the Court Fees Act, the conditions requisite are that there should be an application for review of judgment, that it should have been admitted, that on the rehearing, the Court should have reversed or modified its former decision on the ground of mistake in law or fact and that such reversal or modification is not due to fresh evidence which might have been produced at the original hearing, Prabhas Kumar v. Nithar Lal, 28 C.W.N. 928: 1924 A.I.R. 1054 (Cal.): 84 I.C. 278.

The requirements of s. 15 are perfectly definite (1) the admission of the application for review of judgment irrespective of the correctness of the grounds of admission: (2) a reversal or modification of the former decision on the ground of mistake in law or in fact, such reversal or modification not being due wholly or in part to fresh evidence which might have been produced at the original hearing. Therefore, if the application for review was admitted and the judgment modified without admission of fresh evidence, the party is entitled to relief under s. 15.

of the Court Fees Act, Tej Narain Singh v. The Secretary of State, 10 Patna 649: 133 I.C. 83: 1932 A.I.R. 86 (Patna).

Object of the section.—It was proposed through the provisions of the section to guard against the increased fee working harshly by allowing a refund of the enhanced amount payable under its operation, where the result of the application was the reversal or modification of the previous judgment on such grounds as amounted to an admission of the Court's order, India Gazette, 26th February, 1870.

Refund.—The power of Court to refund is limited to sections 13, 14, 15 and if the case does not come under any of these sections then the party must apply to the Government. In the matter of the petition of Moulvie Syud Zoynooddeen Hossein Khan, 11 B.L.R.A.C. 370.

"Section 15 authorizes a successful applicant for review of judgment, save when he succeeds wholly or in part on the ground of fresh evidence, which he could not produce at the original hearing to receive back nearly the whole of his fee he had to pay on his application for review," In the matter of Maqbul Ahmad, 31 All. 294 (299): 6 All.L.J. 215: 1 Ind. Cas. 209.

See also Labhu Ram v. Amir Chand, 73 P.L.R. 1916: 35 Ind. Cas. 663:105 P.W.R. 1916, where it was held that an application made to a Court can be treated as an application for review and the Court upon granting the application would remit the court-fees under section 15 of the Court Fees Act even if already paid.

Section 15 provides for re-payment in certain cases of so much of the fee paid on an application for review as exceeds the fee payable on any other application to the Court under the second Schedule, Art. 1 cl. (b) or (d) where the Court modifies or reverses on review its former decision, Krishna Mohan Sinha v. Raghunandan Pandey, F.B. 1925 Pat. C.W.N. 65: 1925 A.I.R. 392 (Patna): I.L.R. 4 Pat. 336: 6 Pat.L.T. 262: 87 I.C. 137.

Section 151, C. P. C.—Where an application was under section 151, C. P. C. and Order 47, Rule 1, C. P. C. and the Court modified its former decision, held that refund should be ordered, Probhas v. Nithar, 28 C.W.N. 928: 1924 A.I.R. 1054 (Cal.): 84 Ind. Cas. 278. See other cases under section 13, supra.

An application for review was admitted in order to correct an error in the decree of the Court and not on the ground of any substantial error of fact or law and the Court corrected the error under ss. 151 and 152 of the Code of Civil Procedure, held that a refund of court-fees paid on the application could be made apart from s. 15 of the Court Fees Act, C. T. A. M. Chettyar Firm v. Ko Yin Gyi, 7 Ran. 88: 117 I.C. 585: 1929 A.I.R. 158 (Ran.).

Review of consent decree obtained by fraud.—Where the appellant suppressed all processes to the respondent and obtained a decree on compromise by filing a false vakalatnama and the respondent on coming to know of the compromise filed an application to set aside the order on compromise, it was held, that as the Court has inherent power to correct its own proceedings when it has been misled and as the order could be summarily set aside by the Court, no court-fee as on an application for review need have been paid on the application, Peary Chowdhury v. Sonoo Das, 19 C.W.N. 419: 27 Ind. Cas. 628.

Sub-section II.—Sub-section II refers to cases when the reversal or modification is due to evidence which could have been produced at the original hearing. In such cases no certificate for refund can be granted. See In the matter of Maqbul Ahmad, 31 All. 294: 6 A.L.J. 215: 1 Ind. Cas. 209 and Probash v. Nithar, 28 C.W.N. 928: 1924 A.I.R. 1054 (Cal.): 84 I.C. 278.

16. Repealed by Schedule V of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908). It was as follows:—

“When any appeal is presented to a Civil Court, not against the whole of a decision, but only against so much thereof as relates to a portion of the subject-matter of the suit, and, on the hearing of such appeal, the respondent takes, under section 561 of the Code of Civil Procedure, an objection to any part of the said decision other than the part appealed against, the Court shall not hear such objection until the respondent shall have paid the additional fee which would have been payable had the appeal comprised the part of the decision so objected to.”

NOTE.—Schedule V of Act V of 1908 was again repealed by the second Repealing and Amending Act XVII of 1914, section 3. This last repeal does not restore the original provision. See s. 7 of the General Clauses Act (Act X of 1897).

17. Where a suit embraces two or more distinct subjects, the plaint or memorandum of appeal [or of cross objection—in Bihar and Orissa] shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees to which the plaints or memoranda of appeal in suits embracing separately each of such subjects would be liable under this Act.

Multifarious suits.

Nothing in the former part of this section shall be deemed to affect the power conferred by the Code of Civil Procedure; Section 9. (Sch. I, Order II, R. 6 of Act V of 1908).

[For Bengal only—Bengal Amendment Act VII of 1935.

For section 17 of the said Act, the following section

Substitution of new shall be substituted, namely:— section 17.

“17. (1). In any suit in which two or more separate and distinct causes of action are joined and separate and distinct reliefs are sought in respect of each, the plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees with which the plaints or memoranda of appeal would be chargeable under this Act in separate suits instituted in respect of each such cause of action:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to affect any power conferred by or under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, to order separate trials.

(2) Where more reliefs than one based on the same cause of action are sought either jointly or in the alternative, the fee shall be paid according to the value of the relief in respect of which the largest fee is payable.”]

NOTES.

Local Amendment.—This section has been amended in Bihar and Orissa whereby the words ‘or of cross-objection’ have been inserted after the words ‘of appeal’. It has been replaced by a new section in Bengal.

Application.—This section applies only to plaints and memoranda of appeal in suits and to applications or appeals arising out of those suits, Upadhyia Thakur v. Persidh Singh, F.B. 23 Cal. 723 (734).

Section 17 of the Court Fees Act applies where the relief claimed is one and the same though based on alternative grounds but does not apply where the reliefs are claimed in the alternative, Ananda v. Laxman, 120 I.C. 411 : 1930 A.I.R. 55 (Nag.) : 1930 I.R. 43 (Nag.).

Section 17 of the Court Fees Act applies to suits and appeals from suits and not to applications or to appeals from orders passed on applications. Hence, two prayers in a petition one for the transfer of the decree and another for handing over the decree papers to the petitioner need not bear double court-fee specially as the second prayer is ancillary and incidental to the main prayer, viz., the transfer of the decree, Dhanpatmal Dewanchand v. F. O. Labhchand Sardarilal, 1933 A.I.R. 343 (Sind): 27 S.L.R. 312: 148 I.C. 150.

Alternative relief.—This section does not apply where the plaintiff sues in the alternative for one of two reliefs, but only applies to a case where cumulative relief is sought by the plaintiff, Kashinath Narayan v. Govinda Bin Piraji, 15 Bom. 82. See also Motigavri v. Pranjivandas, 6 Bom. 302; Monohar Ganesh v. Bawa Ram Charan, 2 Bom. 219; Girdhari Lal v. Ram Lal, 21 All. 200.

Section 17 also applies to cases where alternative reliefs are asked for in respect of different causes of action, Jawahir Singh v. Baldeo Prosad, 11 O.C. 173; Hashmatunnissa Begam v. Muhammad Abdul Karim, 29 All. 155: 4 All. L.J. 127: (1907) 27 All.W.N. 4; Neelakandhan v. Anantanarayan, 30 Mad. 61.

The section, therefore, refers to “multifarious suits” in which two or more distinct causes of action have been joined under section 45, (Order 2 Rule 3) of the Code of Civil Procedure. Reference under the Court Fees Act, 16 All. 401: (1894) 14 All.W.N. 124.

Where a suit was brought to recover lands from defendant No. 2, on the plea that the said lands were surrendered by defendant No. 1, and it was claimed in the alternative that in case of failure of the 1st prayer the defendant No. 1 may be ordered to refund the amount paid to him to induce him to surrender the land, held, that the suit embraced two distinct causes of action and separate court-fees must be paid on each relief, Hirderam v. Ram Charan, 78 I.C. 703: 1924 A.I.R. 169 (Nag.).

Court-fees to be paid on the higher relief.—Where the plaintiff claimed in the alternative but paid court-fees on the lesser of the two alternative reliefs, that relief alone should be tried. The court-fees, in such cases, are to be paid on the larger of the two reliefs, Kundun Lal v. Anund Sarup, 1923 A.I.R. 456 (Lahore): 73 Ind. Cas. 709.

Where a plaintiff prays for one of two reliefs in the alternative, based on one cause of action, the larger of the two reliefs determines the value of the claim and section 17 of the Court Fees Act does not apply, Raja and others v. Muttalli and others, 1926 A.I.R. 467 (Lahore): 96 I.C. 826: 8 L.L.J. 449: 27 P.L.R. 626.

The plaintiff in a suit for declaration of his right to a half share in certain properties after setting aside the sale or in the alternative for recovery of the whole property with an account of the income of those properties, is to pay ad valorem court-fees on the 2nd relief which carries the higher court-fee. In re Venugopalayya, (1931) 55 Mad. 336: 62 M.L.J. 150: 1932 M.W.N. 14: 32 L.W. 837: 1934 A.I.R. 158 (Mad.): 136 I.C. 747.

Section 17 of the Court Fees Act applies to alternative reliefs claimed with reference to more causes of action than one. The operation of the section is not necessarily confined to cases where cumulative reliefs are sought, Dharamchand v. Gorelall, 47 Ind. Cas. 886; and also to separate reliefs claimed in the alternative, Nur Nahi v. Umar Baksh and Pata Mal, 41 P.R. 1910: 6 Ind. Cas. 715: 65 P.W.R. 1910; Mukhlal Gir v. Ramdheyan Rai, 44 Ind. Cas. 143 (Patna); Dhanukdhari Tewari v. Mani Sonar, I.L.R. 6 Pat. 17: 100 I.C. 913: 8 Pat.L.T. 366: 1927 A.I.R. 123 (Patna).

Where two reliefs are identical in actual money value, but different in respect of court-fees leviable on each, then the amount of court-fees payable is to be determined on the relief carrying the higher fee, Dasarate Meshy v. Joy Chand, 78 I.C. 530: 1925 A.I.R. 193 (Patna).

A suit on a pronote claiming money from the representative of the executant or in the alternative from the agent of the executant need not be stamped separately, Anand v. Laxman, 120 I.C. 411: 1930 A.I.R. 55 (Nag.): 1930 I.R. 43 (N.).

Distinct subjects.—The words “distinct subjects” in section 17 of the Court Fees Act mean distinct causes of action or distinct kinds of relief, Chamaili Rani v. Ram Dei, 1 All. 552; see also Mulchand v. Shib Charan Lal, 2 All. 676 F.B.; Chedilal v. Kirath Chand, 2 All. 682 F.B.; Kissori Lal Ray v. Sharut Chandra Mozumdar, 8 Cal. 593: 10 C.L.R. 359 F.B.; In re P. R. M. N. Perchiappa Chetty v. Po Kin, 5 L.B.R. 94: 4 Ind. Cas. 289; Mothia Meera Muhaideen v. P.K. Muhammad Ismail Rowther, 1930 M.W.N. 758.

The words mean also distinct matters which may form the subject of separate suits though contained in the same instrument, and the word “subject” is not capable of precise definition, Neelakhandhan Nambudripad v. Anantanarayana Pattar, 30 Mad. 61: 16 M.L.J. 462: 1 M.L.T. 426; Kelu Achan and others v. Cheriya Parvathi Nethian, (1924) A.I.R. 6 (Madras); 72 Ind. Cas. 87.

The word “subject” in section 17 of the Court Fees Act means “cause of action,” Nauratan Lal v. Stephenson, 4 Pat.L.J.

195: 1922 (Pat.) C.W.N. 79: 50 I.C. 470. See also Wasiri Begum v. Shashi Bhusan Roy, I.L.R. 2 Pat. 874: 4 P.L.T. 546: 74 Ind. Cas. 820: (1924) All.L.R. 77 (Patna); East Indian Railway Co. v. Ahmadi Khan, 1924 Pat. C.W.N. 175: 78 Ind. Cas. 415: 1924 A.I.R. 596 (Pat.); Hirderam v. Ram Charan, 78 Ind. Cas. 703: 1934 A.I.R. 169 (Nag.); Mahantha Ram Narain Gir v. Gouri Shanker Lal and others, 9 P.L.T. 199: 7 Pat. 402: 110 I.C. 191: 1928 A.I.R. 274 (Pat.).

But simply because one suit is brought or is required to be brought on several causes of action (for example on mortgage, etc.) would not mean one subject for the purpose of this section. See Pollachi Town Bank, Ltd. v. A. S. Krishna Ayyar, 68 M.L.J. 316: 41 L.W. 327: 1935 M.W.N. 198: 1935 A.I.R. 262 (Mad.); In re Maharajah Venkatagiri, 53 Mad. 248: 58 M.L.J. 510: 31 L.W. 282: 123 I.C. 203: 1930 A.I.R. 376 (Mad.); Moosa Soleman Saleji v. The Secretary of State, 32 C.W.N. 776: 1929 A.I.R. 135 (Cal.).

Suit for several declarations.—The plaint in a suit by reversioner for declaration regarding separate alienations by the widow, should be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10 for each declaration, Dairachilaya Pillai v. Pannathal, 18 Mad. 459. See also Shambhu Diyal Singh v. Iswar Saran, (1923) A.I.R. 306 (Allahabad): 75 I.C. 567; Balkaran Rai v. Gobind Nath Tewari, 12 All. 129 (160).

Where a claimant, filing a claim under section 278 (Order 21, Rule 58), C. P. C. and whose claim has been disallowed, filed a suit against judgment-creditor and judgment-debtor and prayed 1st for a declaration of his right to the property; 2nd for a declaration that judgment-creditor has no right to sell the property in execution of the decree, held that in the plaint two substantial declarations have been prayed for, Moti Singh v. Kaunsilla, 16 All. 308.

Damages and injunction.—Where the plaintiff sued the defendants for wrongful cutting and removing certain trees and in the meantime during the pendency of suit obtained injunction against the defendants restraining them from removing certain trees cut down, the trial Court dismissed the suit and ordered the plaintiff to pay damages to the defendants under section 497, C. P. C. (XIV of 1882). The plaintiff appealed against the whole of the decree, and the damages awarded. Held, the court-fees on each head should have been given and the lower appellate Court should have allowed the plaintiff to amend his memorandum of appeal, Misr Behari Lal v. Bhagwan Das, 13 (1893) All. W.N. 220.

Deposits.—The plaint in a suit to recover three deposits made on different dates with the defendants should be stamped with court-fees on each deposit separately as each deposit is a distinct subject, Ramaswami Chettiar v. Ramaswami Chettiar, 61 M.L.J. 680: 34 L.W. 378: 134 I.C. 988: 1931 A.I.R. 712 (Mad.): 1931 I.R. 876 (Mad.).

Ejectment.—In an action for ejectment, all the parties in possession are to be joined, and this includes the lessee as well as the tenants, if the lessee happens to be in possession of part of the land in suit, Nundo Kumar v. Banomali Gayan, 29 Cal. 871.

Ejectment, damages and rent.—Claims for ejectment and damages are not distinct subjects but if a claim for rent is added, that claim is a distinct subject as it arose out of the contract of tenancy and can be enforced by a separate suit, A. W. Zamal v. Cyril Brown, 36 Ind. Cas. 883: 10 Bur.L.T. 60: 8 L.B.R. 529.

Hundis.—In a suit upon three Hundis executed on the same day in favour of the same person and executed by the same person, the plaint ought to bear the aggregate amount of fees payable on 3 plaints in a suit on each of them as each of them constitutes a separate cause of action, Pursottum Lal v. Lachman Das, 9 All. 252: 7 (1887) All. W.N. 42.

Inheritance.—The plaintiff sued his brothers and a nephew for his share, inherited by him under the Hindu Law and under a will, of the moveable and immoveable properties by cancelling a deed of gift in favour of the nephew. Held, that the plaint and memorandum of appeal are chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees to which the plaints and the memoranda of appeal in separate suits for the moveable and immoveable property would have been liable under the Act, Mulchand v. Shibcharan Lal, 2 All. 676 F.B.

Khata.—Where the plaintiff sought to recover a sum as the balance due to him on seven separate transactions which took place on different dates, held, that the several items in the khata constituted distinct subjects within the meaning of section 17 of the Court Fees Act, Ramchandra v. Appaji, 1887, P.J. 271, but a suit for balance due on a khata does not come under section 17 as the balance due is the subject matter, Hiralal Motichand v. Ganpat Lahanu, 46 Bom. 142: 64 Ind. Cas. 486: (1922) A.I.R. (Bom.) 376.

Landlord and tenant.—In a suit by the landlord against 25 sets of tenants that the entries in the Record of rights as to the nature of the holdings are incorrect and were of a different kind, are 25 distinct subjects under section 17 of the Court Fees Act. Court-fee payable for each is Rs. 10, Lachman Sahu v. Sheikh Abdul Karim, 4 Pat.L.J. 299: 51 Ind. Cas. 767. In a suit by tenant against landlord with regard to 78 different holdings a similar decision was given, Chethru Mahato v. Khaja Muhammad Karim Nawab, 4 Pat.L.J. 297: 50 Ind. Cas. 328.

Where the rates of rent payable by tenants varied according to occupation and caste to which they belonged, one suit under section 106 of the Bengal Tenancy Act against all the tenants of a village in a body upon one plaint, with a court-fee of Rs. 10 only for a declaration that the entry in the Record of Rights and Furd Rewaz Bhowli as regards the proprietor's share, is wrong. One suit is to be instituted against such of the tenants as belonged to the same caste or followed the same occupation and each such suit should be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10, Dhakeswar Prosad v. Iswardhari, 22 C.L.J. 57: 30 I.C. 862.

Where the landlord sued several persons who hold different plots of land but alleged in the plaint that as all the defendants have, in league and collusion with one another, caused wrong entries to be made in the survey records and have dispossessed the plaintiff, they are all made parties to the suit, held on reference to the taxing judge, that there is only one cause of action against all the tenant defendants and the fact that the several defendants may be separately liable for mesne profits does not alter the nature of the case and one set of court-fees is payable, Mahanth Ram Narain Gir v. Gauri Shankar Lal and others, 9 P.L.T. 199: 7 Patna 402: 110 I.C. 191: 1928 A.I.R. 274 (Pat.).

Enhancement of rent.—One suit by the landlord against a number of ryots in a village under s. 193 of the Madras Estates Act, does not comprise distinct subjects. The court-fee is payable on the total of the rents claimed as the suit was one for enhancement of rent on a common ground and also as the conditions mentioned in that section must all exist before a suit under the section can be instituted, The Raja of Vizianagram v. The Government, 63 M.L.J. 73: 1932 M.W.N. 777: 36 L.W. 141: 139 I.C. 102: 1932 A.I.R. 667 (Mad.).

Mortgages.—A mortgagee holding more than one mortgage against the same person and on the same property must sue on all of them, see Ghose on Mortgage, 4th Ed., pages 593 to 595. Where a mortgagee having several mortgages on the same property brought a suit on the prior mortgages and applied for sale of the property but not subject to the last mortgage which he held and had not sued upon, Held, that the suit is maintainable, Govind Prosad v. Teknarain Mahto, 38 Cal. 60: 14 C.W.N. 1033: 13 C.L.J. 21. But in Nilu Ray v. Asirbad 25 C.W.N. 129: 33 C.L.J. 232: 60 Ind. Cas. 809, it has been held that such a mortgagee can sue off each of such independent mortgages on the same property although he cannot sell it twice over. Where a mortgagee holds two mortgages on the same property the decree obtained by him in the first suit precludes any further lien upon the property brought to sale, Atab Pramanig v. Arif Tarafdar, 19 C.L.J. 590: 23 I.C. 426.

Where a mortgagee holds two mortgages on the same property executed by the same person, he cannot maintain a suit to recover the sum due on the later mortgage, by sale of the property subject to prior mortgage as it would be a "splitting of claims" within the meaning of Sir Lawrence Jenkins' judgment in Govind v. Pareshram, (25 Bom. 161: 2 Bom.L.R. 864), which section 43 (now Or. 2, R. 2), C. P. C. was intended to prevent, Keshavram v. Ranchhod, 30 Bom. 156: 7 Bom.L.R. 811: Dhonda v. Bhigaji, 39 Bom. 138. See also Dorasami v. Venkateshayer, 25 Mad. 108 (for a converse case to the above) modified in Subramania v. Balasubramania, 38 Mad. 927 F.B.; Matabin Kasodem v. Kasim Husain, 13 All. 432.

One suit on more mortgages than one against the same mortgagor by the same mortgagee does not come under section 17 of the Court Fees Act. See Thakur Jawahir Singh v. Balwant Singh, 7 O.C. 152; Thakur Jawahir Singh v. Baldeo Prosad, 11 O.C. 173. But the Patna High Court holds a different view. A suit upon two separate mortgage bonds embraces two distinct causes of action within the meaning of section 17 of the Act; therefore, the amount of court-fees payable on the plaint or memorandum of appeal in such suit is the aggregate of ad valorem fees on each of the bonds, Nawab Waziri Begum v. Sashi Bhusan Ray, 1 P.L.T. 414: 57 Ind. Cas. 685; Jogendra Nath v. Mohra, 2 P.L.J. 118.

A person holding two mortgages from the same mortgagor hypothecating the same properties and even when the due dates in both are the same, can bring suits separately on both bonds; hence the mortgages are separate and distinct and not one under section 17 of the Court Fees Act. (In this case an observation was made by the Hon'ble Judges that if the mortgagee is required to sue on all the mortgages either according to contract or by law then separate court-fees are not payable), Nawab Waziri Begum v. Shashi Bhusan Ray, 74 Ind. Cas. 820: (1924) A.I.R. 77 (P.): 1923 Pat. C.W.N. 293: 4 Pat. L.T. 546: I.L.R. 2 Pat. 874.

The Madras High Court in Pollachi Town Bank, Ltd. v. A. S. Krishna Ayyar and others, 68 M.L.J. 316: 41 L.W. 327: 1935 M.W.N. 198: 1935 A.I.R. 262 (1) (Mad.), held that one suit on two mortgages executed in lieu of five promissory notes embraces two distinct subjects and court-fees on that footing are to be computed on the plaint. The principle of consolidation applied by sec. 67-A, T. P. Act has no bearing upon the interpretation of s. 17 of the Court Fees Act.

N.B.—The cause of action on each contract is the breach of the covenant, hence compulsion to bring one suit on separate mortgages does not constitute one cause of action. It has been enacted by s. 67A of the Transfer of Property Act that the mortgagee must bring one suit on several mortgages but that section does not apply to mortgages executed before 1st April 1930 (vide s. 63 of the Amending Act).

But if several mortgagees decide to take one mortgage bond in the place of several mortgage bonds executed in their favour severally, then one suit on the one bond so executed does not include distinct subjects and court-fees on the entire claim are to be paid as on one subject, Muthuram Chetty v. Sivasubramania Chetty, 63 M.L.J. 316: 1932 M.W.N. 986: 36 L.W. 424: 139 I.C. 431: 1932 A.I.R. 737 (Mad.): 1932 I.R. 702 (Mad.).

Partition and accounts.—In a suit for partition and accounts, the plaint is to be stamped with court-fees for partition plus ad valorem court-fees on the approximate valuation for accounts, Beni Madhab Sarkar v. Gobind Chandra Sarkar, 22 C.W.N. 669. See also Satis Chandra Ghosh v. Kalidasi Dasi, 26 C.W.N. 177: 34 C.L.J. 529, Manikkam Pillai v. Murugesam Pillai, 143 I.C. 755: 1933 A.I.R. 431 (Mad.): 37 L.W. 748: 64 M.L.J. 576: 1933 M.W.N. 531.

Partition and debts.—If in a suit for partition creditors are made parties and it is prayed that respective shares be delivered free from those debts, then separate court-fees in respect of each of those debts are payable, Perraju v. Subba Rao, 68 M.L.J. 376: 41 L.W. 405: 1935 M.W.N. 346: 1935 A.I.R. 419 (Mad.).

Partition and possession.—Where a decree-holder-auction-purchaser obtained merely symbolical possession through the Court and then sued for partition and possession, held that the suit embraced two distinct causes of action and required to be stamped as a suit for partition and as a suit for possession, Sitaram Jha v. Lokenath Missir, 3 Pat. 618: 81 I.C. 1052: 5 Pat.L.T. 618: 1924 A.I.R. 558 (Patna).

Possession and compensation.—Suit for possession of a house, and compensation in the nature of rent and like compensation from the date of the foreclosure to the date of delivery of possession, is a suit with distinct subjects and court-fees are payable on the aggregate amount of fees payable for the different claims, Chedilal v. Kirathchand, 2 All. 682 F.B.

Suits for possession with claims for mesne profits.—Such suits are suits based on the same cause of action and therefore section 17 of the Court Fees Act does not apply, Kissory Lal Roy v. Sharut Chandra Majoomdar, 8 Cal. 593: 10 C.L.R.

359; Venkoba v. Subbanna, 11 Mad. 151; Reference under the Court Fees Act, 16 All. 401: 14 All. W.N. 124.

The court-fees in a suit for possession with mesne profits are to be paid ad valorem on the aggregate value of both the reliefs claimed and are not to be assessed separately. In re Pameswara Pottar, 54 Mad. 1: 59 M.L.J. 469: 1930 M.W.N. 880: 32 L.W. 433: 1930 A.I.R. 833 (Mad.): 130 I.C. 742: 1931 I.R. 438 (Mad.), F.B.

Suit for possession, malikana and mesne profits.—In a suit for possession with a claim for malikana as well as a claim for mesne profits, the plaintiff is entitled to add together the valuation of the three items of his claim for the purpose of assessing the court-fees payable and need not assess it separately on each of the three items separately on the value of the land, separately on the malikana and separately on the amount of the mesne profits, Nawwatan Lal v. Stephenson, 4 Pat.L.J. 195: 50 Ind. Cas. 470: 1922 Pat. C.W.N. 79.

But if the suit for possession with a claim for mesne profits is coupled with a claim for rent, the claim for rent is a distinct cause of action, but not in cases where the suit is against a tenant holding over after the tenancy has terminated, In the matter of A. W. Zamal v. Cyril Brown, 36 Ind. Cas. 883: 10 Bur.L.T. 60: 8 L.B.R. 529.

Pre-emption.—The right to pre-empt the sale in respect of more villages than one is one cause of action and consequently court-fees are not leviable in respect of different villages, Durga Prosad v. Purandar Singh, 27 All. 186: 24 (1904) All. W.N. 210.

But if the plaintiff sues on an agreement to sell with an alternative claim for pre-emption of a mortgage of the same property the suit is within section 17 and therefore chargeable with court-fees assessed on each alternative relief, Hashmat-unnessa Begum v. Muhammad Abdulkarim, 29 All. 155: 4 All. L.J. 127: (1907) 27 All. W.N. 4. Where the plaintiff alleges a definite contract with him to sell a house and a right to pre-empt a subsequent sale of the same house, if such sale is not rendered nugatory by the previous agreement, held, that these are distinct causes of action and the court-fees payable should be the same as if separate suits had been filed, Musst. Fatima Begum v. Mahomed Zakaria, 96 P.R. 1895.

Where the vendee in an appeal by him against a decree in favour of the pre-emptor on payment of Rs. 6,800 asks for a decree restoring that to him or else requiring the successful pre-emptor to pay him an additional sum of Rs. 3,200, these are two alternative reliefs based on exactly the same cause of action and only one of them can be granted. They are not distinct subjects within the meaning of s. 17 of the Court Fees Act and the correct fee is one calculated not on the aggregate of two values but the higher of the two, Tek Chand v. Tara Chand, 5 Lah. 114: 1924 A.I.R. 494 (Lah.): 85 Ind. Cas. 556.

Suits against principal debtor and his guarantor.—Where the plaintiff sues the principal debtor on a cash credit account and also in the same suit seeks decrees against persons who guaranteed the promissory notes and one equitable mortgage, held that the plaint should be stamped with a court-fee calculated on the various amounts claimed from each and all the guarantors separately as each note is a separate cause of action and each mortgage affords an entirely distinct cause of action, In re Bank of Bengal v. R. M. L. Muthia Chetty, F.B. 8 L.B.R. 219: 8 Bur.L.T. 217: 30 Ind. Cas. 705.

Promissory Notes.—Where the suit is upon several promissory notes in favour of the same payee, the plaint is to be stamped with a fee amounting to the aggregate amount of court-fees payable on a plaint for each of the sums as failure to satisfy each promissory note is a distinct cause of action, In re P. L. R. M. N. Perchiappa Chetty v. Po. Kin, 5 L.B.R. 94: 4 Ind. Cas. 289.

A suit on a pro-note claiming money from the representative of the executant or in the alternative from the agent of the executant, need not be stamped separately as the relief claimed is one and the same though the claim is sought to be made out on distinct grounds, Ananda v. Laxman, 120 I.C. 411: 1930 A.I.R. 55 (Nag.): 1930 I.R. 43 (Nag.).

The plaintiff suing as an endorsee of the pro-note and failing in his suit, cannot by obtaining an assignment of the original obligation succeed without paying fresh court-fees as the plaintiff cannot tack on to a suit a cause of action which is foreign to the cause of action on which the suit was brought, Pethee Reddiar v. Chidambara Reddiar, 1931 M.W.N. 390: 131 I.C. 1: 1931 A.I.R. 533 (Mad.): 1931 I.R. 465 (Mad.).

A plaintiff suing on two promissory notes is to pay court-fees not on the aggregate sum but on the two sums which go to make up the aggregate, as if separate plaints have been filed, The Secretary of State for India in Council v. A. M. R. Ayyasami Chettiar, 141 I.C. 533: 1933 A.I.R. 178 (Mad.): 65 M.L.J. 252: 1933 M.W.N. 215: 37 L.W. 74.

Suit against Railway Company.—A plaintiff who has sustained losses in respect of different consignments of different dates by reason of the negligence of a Railway Administration, can consolidate his claim and serve the Railway Administration with one notice in respect of all losses. Where one notice is served there is only one cause of action and court-fee is chargeable only on the consolidated amount of money claimed. The aggregate amount of court-fee calculated separately on each item, cannot be charged, The East Indian Railway Co. v. Ahmadi Khan, 1924 Pat. C.W.N. 175: 78 I.C. 415: (1924) A.I.R. 596 (P.).

Redemption and arrears of rent.—If the suit be for redemption as well as for recovery of arrears of rent then there are really two distinct causes of action and the court-fee is to be computed on arrears of rent and the principal amount of debt, Rama Varmah Raja v. Kadar, 16 Mad. 415 (418).

Suit for specific performance and for possession.—Inasmuch as in a suit for specific performance of a contract of sale and for possession of the property agreed to be sold, the relief for specific performance is the main relief and is not ancillary to the claim for possession a separate court-fee is, under section 17 of the Court Fees Act, payable in such relief both in the original Court and the Court of appeal, Ram Nidh v. Balkaram Singh, 60 Ind. Cas. 654: 23 O.C. 388; but see contra, Madan Singh v. Gaja Prosad Singh, 11 I.C. 228: 14 C.L.J. 159, where the plaintiff asked for specific performance of a contract of sale and also asked that the defendant may be compelled to execute a conveyance and to deliver possession of the property to him, held that the suit was one for possession only and court-fees are to be assessed under s. 7 (v) of the Court Fees Act.

A suit for specific performance and possession does not comprise two distinct subjects, Sundara Ramanujam Naidu v. Sivalingam Pillai and others, 45 M.L.J. 431: 1924 A.I.R. 360 (M.): 47 Mad. 150: 77 Ind. Cas. 542: 18 L.W. 333.

Suit for specific moveable property and for compensation.—The plaint in a suit by the present holder of a certificate of administration to the estate of a minor against another whose certificate of administration has been revoked and for delivery or specific moveable property or for compensation for non-delivery need not be charged with court-fees under section 17 of the Court Fees Act as the suit did not embrace "distinct subjects" within the meaning of that section of the Court Fees Act on the total value of the claim, Amar Nath v. Thakur Das, 3 All. 131.

Consolidation of suits or appeals.—The power of High Court to consolidate appeals is inherent in it. See Kashi Prasad Singh v. The Secretary of State for India, 29 Cal. 140; In the matter of the falls of Ettricate, 22 Cal. 511; Peacock v. Byjnath, 10 Cal. 58 (allowed); Vengu Naidu v. Dy. Collector Madura, 34 M.L.J. 279: 45 I.C. 468: 30 Bom. 601; 17 C.W.N. 526: 40 I.C. 13.

In Moosa Soleman Saleji v. The Secretary of State, 32

C.W.N, 776: 1929 A.I.R. 135 (Cal.): 117 I.C. 692, the Calcutta High Court declined to consolidate 4 appeals as one appeal embracing two or more distinct objects. The High Court said: "The appeals may be consolidated for the purpose of hearing them but court-fees must be paid separately for each according to the provisions of the Court Fees Act." See also other cases under Sch. II, Art. 10, infra.

Separate suits (118 in number) of rent against separate tenants having failed in both the Courts below, separate appeals were filed in the High Court. An application was filed in the High Court to consolidate the appeals so that one memorandum of appeal, one vakalatnama may be filed and one consolidated court-fee may be paid; the High Court held that such consolidation cannot be allowed under s. 151, C. P. C. as it would contravene, s. 4 and Art. 10, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act and also Rules 1 and 3 of Order 41 of the Code of Civil Procedure. In re Maharaja of Venkatagiri, (1929) 53 Mad. 248: 58 M.L.J. 510: 31 L.W. 282: 123 I.C. 203: 1930 A.I.R. 376 (Mad.): 1930 I.R. 475 (Mad.) F.B.

Maximum limit.—The rule is that section 17 of the Court Fees Act is subject to the proviso at the end of Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act and the maximum fee leviable is Rs. 3,000 as indicated in the schedule, Kashi Prosad Singh v. The Secretary of State for India, 29 Cal. 140; Raghobir Singh v. Dharam Kuar, 3 All. 108 F.B.

18. When the first or only examination of a person who complains of the offence of wrongful confinement, or of wrongful restraint, or of any offence other than an offence for which police-officers may arrest without a warrant, and who has not already presented a petition on which a fee has been levied under this Act, is reduced to writing under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the complainant shall pay a fee of eight annas, [one rupee—Bengal, Madras and the Punjab; twelve annas in B. & Orissa and U. P.] unless the Court thinks fit to remit such payment.

NOTES.

Local Amendments.—Under the Court Fees Amendment Act of Bengal (B. C. Act IV of 1922), of Madras (Madras Act V of 1922), and the Punjab Act VII of 1922, a fee of one rupee is substituted for a fee of eight annas for those provinces. In Bihar and Orissa and U. P. a fee of twelve annas has been substituted in place of eight annas. No stamp is necessary on petition of complaint made to Magistrates of cognisable offences. Bom. H. C. Cr. Ruling, 4th April, 1873.

A petition of complaint requires a court-fee stamp under Sch. II, Art. 1 (b) of this Act. This section requires a court-fee stamp on complaints which have been reduced to writing. The Criminal Court is empowered to remit such levy of court-fee. Compare s. 33 of this Act where no such power to remit was prescribed, one fee is to be levied either on the petition or on the written examination of the complainant and not two fees. The elements are: (1) no petition previously filed and (2) offences not cognizable by police officers or of wrongful confinement or wrongful restraint.

The Presidency Magistrates' Act 1877 (Act IV of 1877).

Section 57. A fee of eight annas shall be paid for every summons issued by a Presidency Magistrate except in the case of a summons to attend and give evidence or to produce documents, in which case there shall be paid a fee of four annas.

Provided that such Magistrate may in any case remit any such fees, if he is satisfied that the complainant is unable to pay the same, and shall remit it when the complaint is made by a public servant in the execution of his duty.

19. Nothing contained in this Act shall render the following documents chargeable with any fee:—

Exemption of certain documents.

- i. Power-of-attorney [or other written authority—added in Bengal] to institute or defend a suit when executed by an officer, warrant-officer, non-commissioned officer, or private of Her Majesty's army not in civil employment.
- ii. [Repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1891 (XII of 1891).]
- iii. Written statements called for by the Court after the first hearing of a suit.
- iv. [Repealed by the Contonments Act, 1889 (XIII of 1889).]

- v. Plaints in suits tried by Village Munsifs in the Presidency of Fort St. George.
- vi. Plaints and processes in suits before District Panchayats in the same Presidency.
- vii. Plaints in suits before Collectors under Madras Regulation XII of 1816.
- viii. Probate of a will, letters of administration, [and, save as regards debts and securities, a certificate under Bombay Regulation VIII of 1827], where the amount or value of the property in respect of which the probate or letters or certificate shall be granted does not exceed one thousand rupees.
- ix. Application or petition to a Collector or other officer making a settlement of land revenue, or to a Board of Revenue, or a Commissioner of Revenue, relating to matters connected with the assessment of land or the ascertainment of rights thereto or interests therein, if presented previous to the final confirmation of such settlement.
- x. Application relating to a supply for irrigation of water belonging to Government.
- xi. Application for leave to extend cultivation, or to relinquish land, when presented to an officer of land-revenue by a person holding under direct engagement with Government, land of which the revenue is settled, but not permanently.
- xii. Application for service of notice of relinquishment of land or of enhancement of rent.
- xiii. Written authority to an agent to distrain.
- xiv. First application (other than a petition containing a criminal charge or information) for the summons of a witness or other person to attend either to give evidence or to produce a document, or in respect of

- the production or filing of an exhibit not being an affidavit made for the immediate purpose of being produced in Court.
- xv. Bail-bonds in criminal cases, recognizances to prosecute or give evidence, and recognizances for personal appearance or otherwise.
 - xvi. Petition, application, charge or information respecting any offence when presented, made or laid to or before a Police-Officer, or to or before the Heads of Villages or the Village-Police in the territories respectively subject to the Governors in Council of Madras and Bombay.
 - xvii. Petition by a prisoner, or other person in duress or under restraint of any Court or its officers.
 - xviii. Complaint of a public servant (as defined in the Indian Penal Code), a Municipal officer, or an officer or servant of a Railway Company.
 - xix. Application for permission to cut timber in Government forests, or otherwise relating to such forests.
 - xx. Application for the payment of money due by Government to the applicant.
 - xxi. Petition of appeal against the chaukidari assessment under Act No. XX of 1856, or against any Municipal tax.
 - xxii. Applications for compensation under any law for the time being in force relating to the acquisition of property for public purposes.
 - xxiii. Petitions presented to the Special Commissioner appointed under Bengal Act No. II of 1869 (to ascertain, regulate and record certain tenures in Chota Nagpur).
 - xxiv. Petitions under the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872, sections 45 and 48.

[Added in Bengal—B. C. Act VII of 1935.]

xxv. Petitions of appeal by Government servants or servants of a Court of Wards against orders of dismissal, reduction or suspension; copies of such orders filed with such appeals, and applications for obtaining such copies.]

NOTES.

Change in Law.—The words “and save as regards debts and securities, a certificate under Bombay Regulation VIII of 1827,” in Clause VIII, have been substituted for the words “and certificates mentioned in the first schedule to this Act annexed, No. 12” by Act VII of 1889, section 13 (2).

The Clause XXIV was substituted for the original by the Indian Christian Marriage Act, XV of 1852, section 2. The original ran as follows:—Petition under the fourteenth and fifteenth of Victoria, Chapter forty (an Act for the Marriages in India), section 5 or under Act V of 1852, section 9. The present Act is Act XV of 1872. Clause XXV has been added by the Bengal Amendment Act of 1935 (VII of 1935).

Local Amendment.—The words “one thousand rupees” in clause (viii) have been changed to “two thousand rupees” in Bengal by Local Amendment Act of 1922. Clause 1 amended by B. C. Act VII of 1935.

Clause III. Written statement.—Written statement filed by party at the first hearing of suit does not require court-fees, Cheerag Ali v. Kadir Mahomed, 12 C.L.R. 367.

Written statement of his case, tendered by party to a suit at any time before or at the first hearing of the suit, is not liable to any court-fee, and may be written on a plain paper and a written statement called for by the Court after first hearing is also exempt from duty, Nagu v. Yeknath, 5 Bom. 400. But a written statement containing a plea of set-off must be stamped ad valorem, J. J. Guise v. Anantha Rama Rathi, 10 C.W.N. 199. See the cases under Schedule I, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act under “set-off”.

There is nothing in the law which requires a defendant in a partition suit to pay court-fees in order to have his share separately allotted to him; he has merely to ask for it in his written statement, and it is open to the Court to order the shares of the defendants in a partition suit to be separated as among themselves, Hem Chandra Mahto v. Prem Mahto, 7 P.L.T. 295 (299): 1925 Pat. C.W.N. 330: 90 Ind. Cas. 789: 1926 A.I.R. 154 (Patna).

A written objection to an award filed in Court must be stamped. It clearly does not fall within the exception provided by s. 19 of the Court Fees Act which inter alia exempts a written statement in a pending suit but makes no mention whatsoever of written objections to an award, Adamali v. Abdul Ali, 107 I.C. 223: 1928 A.I.R. 87 (Sind).

Note:—Under Schedule I, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act only "a written statement claiming a set-off, or counterclaim" is chargeable with court-fee stamps, therefore other written statements are not chargeable with duty.

Section 19 (iii) of the Court Fees Act includes not only suits but also miscellaneous cases. Therefore, written statements which are filed opposing an application by the Official Liquidator under the Companies Act do not require court-fees, The Indian States Bank Ltd. (in liquidation) v. Musst. Rukmini Rani and others, 56 All. 747: 1934 A.L.J. 881: 148 I.C. 642: 1934 A.I.R. 332 (All.).

Clause VIII.—No duty is payable in respect of a grant of probate or Letters of Administration where the value of the estate, after making the deductions specified in Annexure B of the 3rd schedule, is less than Rs. 1,000. In the goods of Mrs. E. E. W. Meik, 40 All. 279: 46 Ind. Cas. 865.

Clause XVII.—Petition of appeal presented by pleader on behalf of a prisoner need not be stamped with court-fees, Emperor v. Maruti Teli, 14 N.L.R. 77: 45 Ind. Cas. 158: 19 Cr.L.J. 494. See In re Court Fees Act, 1924 A.I.R. 160 (R.). See Kali Prosad Banerjee v. Gisborne and Co., 10 Cal. 61: 13 C.L.R. 156, where it was held that a memorandum of appeal by a judgment-debtor in custody under Ch. XX, C. P. C. (Act XIV of 1882) need not bear stamp.

Application for bail signed by the advocate is an application by the prisoner himself and comes under section 19, clause (xvii) and is not required to be stamped, Jagannath Kahar v. Emperor, 4 U.B.R. 27: 65 Ind. Cas. 553: (1922) A.I.R. 14 (Upper Burma).

An application by an advocate on behalf of a prisoner in jail should be held to be made by the prisoner and therefore exempt from court-fee duty under s. 19 (17) of the Court Fees Act, Bhaya Lal v. Emperor, 1930 A.I.R. 261 (Allahabad): 52 All. 542: 1930 A.L.J. 682: 31 Cr.L.J. 1121: 126 I.C. 827: 1930 I.R. 875 (All.).

Clause XVIII.—No fee is leviable on complaints made by Municipal officers, Queen Empress v. Khajabhoy, 16 Mad. 423.

A complaint by a Munsiff, though it does not bear the seal of the Munsiff's Court, need not be on stamped paper, Reg. v. Sajjan Valad, 5 Bom.H.C. (Cr. Ca.) 104.

A complaint by a Tahsildar to a Magistrate on the ground that the amin under him was assaulted in the discharge of his duty, does not require court-fees, Emperor v. Sheo Pratap Singh, (1930) 53 All. 208: 1930 A.L.J. 1316: 129 I.C. 436: 1930 A.I.R. 820 (All.): 32 Cr.L.J. 306: 1931 I.R. 164 (All.).

Clause XX.—An application for refund of costs deposited in Privy Council appeal, is to be stamped with a court-fee of two rupees, Haridas Debi v. Gopeswar Pyne and others, 27 C.W.N. 646: (1923) A.I.R. 599 (Cal.): 23 I.C. 469.

Section 19, cl. 20 covers the case of an application for refund of court-fees and therefore no court-fee is chargeable on it, Jog Narain Pandey v. Mata Badal, 54 All. 790: 1932 A.L.J. 601: 142 I.C. 16: 1932 A.I.R. 590 (All.): 1933 I.R. 100 (All.).

Clause XXI.—Application for compensation under the Land Acquisition Act need not be stamped. India Gazette, dated the 26th February, 1870.

CHAPTER IIIA.

PROBATES, LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION AND CERTIFICATES OF ADMINISTRATION.

19A. Where any person on applying for the probate of a will or letters of administration has estimated the property of the deceased to be of greater value than the same has afterwards proved to be, and has consequently paid too high a court-fee thereon, if, within six months after the true value of the property has been ascertained, such person produces the probate or letters to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority [for the local area] in which the probate or letters has or have been granted

Relief where too high a court-fee has been paid.

and delivers to such Authority a particular inventory and valuation of the property of the deceased, verified by affidavit or affirmation, and if such Authority is satisfied that a greater fee, was paid on the probate or letters than the law required, the said Authority may—

- (a) cancel the stamp on the probate or letters, if such stamp has not been already cancelled;
- (b) substitute another stamp for denoting the court-fee which should have been paid thereon; and
- (c) make an allowance for the difference between them as in the case of spoiled stamps, or repay the same in money, at his discretion.

NOTES.

Change in law.—Chapter IIIA was inserted by the Probate and Administration Act, 1875 (13 of 1875).

The words “for the local area” were substituted for the words “of the Province” by section 3 (1) of the Court Fees (Amendment) Act, 1901 (10 of 1901).

Application.—The provisions of Chapter III of the Court Fees Act, 1870, does not apply to Probate. In the matter of the Last Will and Testament of Ram Chandra Lakshmanji, 1 Bom. 118 (121).

Until the Court Fee is paid and grant is issued to the party there is no grant of Probate, Alamelammal v. P. N. K. Surya Prokasoroya Mudaliar, 38 Mad. 988: 29 M.L.J. 680: 31 I.C. 491.

Nature of duty.—“The sum charged upon a grant of Probate or of Letters of Administration, is not a tax or duty levied upon the property upon which the Probate or Administration operates, and it is not charged thereon as in Estate Duty in England, but it is merely a fee levied by the Court issuing the Probate or Letters of Administration for the work done in this connection. And I do not think that this is any less the case because the fee is levied upon the value of the property.” In re the Goods of George Thomas Williams, 27 CW.N. 812: (1924) A.I.R. 115 (Cal.): 50 Cal. 597: 75 Ind. Cas. 466.

19B. Whenever it is proved to the satisfaction of such Authority that an executor or administrator has paid debts due from the deceased to such an amount as, being deducted out of the amount or value of the estate, reduces the same to a sum which, if it had been the whole gross amount or value of the estate, would have occasioned a less court-fee to be paid on the probate or letters of administration granted in respect of such estate than has been actually paid thereon under this Act, such Authority may return the difference, provided the same be claimed within three years after the date of such probate or letters.

But when, by reason of any legal proceeding, the debts due from the deceased have not been ascertained and paid, or his effects have not been recovered and made available, and in consequence thereof the executor or administrator is prevented from claiming the return of such difference within the said term of three years, the said Authority may allow such further time for making the claim as may appear to be reasonable under the circumstances.

NOTES.

As for cases when the incumbrances are to be deducted, see In Re Will of Ram Chandra Lakshmanji, 1 Bom. 118; In the goods of Charles Edward Maclean, 6 N.W.P. 214; In re the goods of Peter Innes, 8 B.L.R. Ap. 43: 16 W.R. 253.

Payment of debts.—Debts due by the deceased are not to be deducted in the first instance, In the goods of Ram Chandra Das, 9 B.L.R. O.C. 30: 18 W.R. 153.

19C. Whenever a grant of probate or letters of administration has been or is made in respect of the whole of the property belonging to an estate, and the full fee chargeable under this Act has been or is paid thereon, no fee shall be chargeable under the same Act when a like grant is made in respect of the whole or any part of the same property belonging to the same estate.

Relief in case of several grants.

Whenever such a grant has been or is made in respect of any property forming part of an estate, the amount of fees then actually paid under this Act shall be deducted when a like grant is made in respect of property belonging to the same estate, identical with or including the property to which the former grant relates.

NOTES.

Change in law.—The word “such” following the word “whenever” in the first paragraph is omitted having been repealed by Act XII of 1891, Schedule I.

As to the amount of duty payable, see also Schedule I, Art. 11 of the Court Fees Act.

Application.—This section does not apply to the estate of a deceased person in respect of which no fees have yet been paid in India under the Succession Act, In re Murch, 4 Cal. 725 (726); In the goods of Gladstone, 1 Cal. 168.

Applies only to properties situate in British India.—“Where London is the locality in which the business which is the property of the firm is situate” no probate duty is payable on the death of the partner, on the assets of the firm in India as “there is no capital account in Bombay at all and that the Bombay business is not a distinct business from London business.” In the goods of Sir Albert A. D. Sassoon, 21 Bom. 673. But where a part is situate in British India and part outside, court-fee is payable in respect of property within British India although some property may have been brought into British India after the death of the testator, the test of liability being the locality of assets at the time of testator's death. In re Ezekiel Joshua Abraham, 21 Bom. 139.

Probate duty is payable in respect of property within the jurisdiction of the Court at the time of the application for probate. Therefore when the testator left properties which are not saleable or transferable unless they have been transferred to the executor or trustee in the Bank of England, held, that such securities are not assets in India and no duty is leviable thereon. In the goods of Major-General Millet, 51 P.R. 1902.

Valuation.—See also under Art. 11, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act. The word “property” has been explained in In the goods of T. H. Maddock, 15 W.R. 456: 7 B.L.R. 57, to mean not only the property which the deceased was beneficially entitled in his life-time but also property standing in his name as trustee.

When letters of administration are granted in respect of property which is subject to mortgage, the value of the property is the value of the property less the amount of encumbrance, In the goods of Peter Innes, 16 W.R. 253: 8 B.L.R. Ap. 43; In the goods of Charles Edward Maclean, (1874) 6 N.W.P.

214; but see contra, In the goods of Ram Chandra Das, 18 W.R. 153: 9 B.L.R. 30.

An executor is bound to pay probate duty only on the amount of the right, title and interest of the testator in the property bequeathed, Anna Purnamma v. Atchutaramayya, 100 I.C. 111.

Annuity.—The valuation in the case of an annuity is its market value and not ten times the annual payment. In the matter of last Will and Testament of Ramachandra Lakshmanji, 1 Bom. 118.

Where the estate is subject to the payment of an annuity for life to a person who survived the testator, the fee payable is on the value of the property less the capitalized value of the annuity. In the goods of Rushton, 3 Cal. 737: 2 C.L.R. 430; In the goods of Peter Innes, 8 B.L.R. App. 43: 16 W.R. 253.

Mortgage.—The word "value" means market value and the value of a mortgaged property is the equity of redemption. If after filing of accounts it is found that sufficient stamp duty has not been paid, payment of any deficiency may be enforced. In the goods of Charles Edward Malcean, 6 N.W.P. 214.

Partnership.—"A deceased partner has (in the absence of special agreement) no share in the properties of the firm as such. It is his interest in the firm which is the asset which is assessable to probate duty." In the goods of A. D. Sassoon, 21 Bom. 673 (678).

Properties subject to litigation.—Properties which are subject-matter of litigation and which have not come into the possession of the deceased, were allowed to be valued at less than Rs. 1,000, but the parties were ordered to file statements in Court showing the result of litigation, Seldanha v. The Secretary of State for India in Council, 24 Mad. 241.

There is no provision in the Court Fees Act, 1870, authorizing exemption in respect of an entire claim or a portion of it supposed to be doubtful. Edward Lane Beake, 21 W.R. 297: 13 B.L.R.A.C. 24; In the Goods of Abdul Aziz, 23 Cal. 577; In the goods of Ram Chandra Ghose, 24 Cal. 567 (case of a judgment-debt).

But desperate and doubtful debts need not be included in the list in the first instance, but if they afterwards form part of the estate, court-fees on the same may be recovered, Moses v. Crofter, 4 C. and P. 524 approved in A. G. v. Brunning, 8 H. L. Case 243 (62).

See also Halsbury's Law of England, Vol. XIII, pages 312-314 as to the method of valuing the property and deductions that can be made from that valuation.

Shares.—In case of shares the court-fees are chargeable on the value prevailing on the date of application for probate and subsequent changes do not alter the amount of court-fees payable. In the matter of A. C. Macmillan, 5 Bur.L.T. 39: 14 Ind.* Cas. 804.

Proof of valuation.—See Schedule III and annexures A. & B. of the Court Fees Act.

Proof of valuation is by affidavit but this valuation is inspected and enquired into by Revenue authorities under section 19H of the Court Fees Act. But the Administrator-General is exempted from verifying the affidavit. In the goods of McComiskey, 20 Cal. 879; In the goods of P. J. Advall, 26 Cal. 404: 3 C.W.N. 298.

The valuation is now checked by the Collector under authority conferred by Resolution No. 980 S. R. dated the 10th February, 1902 (Calcutta).

No double duty payable.—No fresh court-fees are payable in the 2nd grant. In the goods of Lt.-General Peter Innes deceased, 16 W.R. 253: 8 B.L.R. Ap. 43. The Deputy Commissioner of Singhbhum v. Jagadish Chandra Dhobal Deo, 6 Pat. L.J. 411: 62 Ind. Cas. 513, although the rate may have increased in the meantime.

When an executor to whom probate has been granted dies, leaving a part of the testator's estate unadministered, and a new representative is appointed for the purpose of completing the administration, no new succession duty should be levied as there is no new succession and no devolution of the estate. Full fee is chargeable under the Court Fees Act on probate where it is first granted and no further fee shall be chargeable when no second grant is made in respect of the same property as comprised in the estate and the Court cannot ask the applicant in the second application even to pay the difference between the old rate of duty payable and the new rate having been increased in the interval. An order calling upon the party to pay the difference amounts to a refusal to grant probate and an appeal lies under section 86 of the Probate and Administration Act, Swarnamoyee Devi v. The Secretary of State for India in Council, 43 Cal. 625: 22 C.L.J. 370: 20 C.W.N. 472: 30 Ind. Cas. 394, see also In the goods of Julia Oram, 21 W.R. 245: 12 B.L.R. Ap. 21; In the goods of Bibee Ameerun, 15 W.R. 496.

Although the value of the property must have increased in the meantime.—No fresh court-fees are payable, although the value of the property may have increased in the meantime. See Samuel Balthazer, Petitioner, 4 L.B.R. App. 139 (copy of the exemption of probate of the will annexed and of the document produced in lieu of the former Letters of Administration).

Grant in favour of some executors—grant de bonis non.—By section 19C, provided that the full fee chargeable under the Act has been paid, no further fee is to be chargeable when a like grant, i.e., a grant of probate or letters of administration, is made in respect of the whole or any part of the same property belonging to the same estate. There is nothing in the wording of section 19C to confine its application to the case of some executors coming in to take out after one of their members has already taken out probate. It will apply equally to a subsequent applicant for the administration of the whole estate and an application to administer that which has been unadministered so far. When the appointment is made de bonis non there is no new succession, no new devolution of the estate, which would justify a finding that fresh court-fees must be paid. In the matter of the estate and effects of Maung Win Pan deceased, and In the matter of the estate and effects of Haeo Wah Kin deceased, I.L.R. 3 Rangoon 90 (92) : 1925 A.I.R. 217 (Rangoon).

But fresh court-fees are payable for a fresh devolution.—The estate mentioned in section 19C, means property of the deceased person. Section 19C implies that, where court-fees have already been paid by some previous executor or administrator in respect of the whole or part of the property comprised in the estate of the deceased person and a fresh grant of probate or letters of administration is necessary, no fresh fees should be charged for such grant; but where a husband applies for probate of his wife's will, most of the property devised by which was included in her father's will, the husband must pay the full court-fee, even though full court-fees have already been paid for probate of the father's will, Bhagawati Saran Singh v. The Secretary of State for India in Council, 5 Pat.L.J. 36: 54 Ind. Cas. 703: 1920 (Pat.) C.W.N. 81.

But second fees were payable, as at the time of the second grant the Court Fees Act, 1870, had come into force. In the Goods of George, 6 B.L.R. App. 138; In the goods of W. G. Chalmers, 6 B.L.R. App. 137: 21 W.R. 246.

Annuling grant.—The duty paid on former Letters of Administration which was afterwards cancelled, was allowed to be deducted from the amount payable for fresh Letters of Administration. In the goods of Peter Innes, 16 W.R. 253: 8 B.L.R. App. 43.

Where an application is filed that the grant be annulled under section 234 explanation 4 of Act X of 1865 in order that a fresh grant might be applied for, the latter will be exempt from further court-fees under section 19 (C) of the Court Fees Act, 1870. Application by Elizabeth A. Desouza for probate of will of Alfred Jones Desouza under Act X of 1865, 1 S.L.R. 177.

Power of appointment.—No fresh court-fees are payable in respect of any property where a person having a life interest in a fund with a general and absolute power of appointment thereover, exercises such power by will. In the goods of Julia Oram, 21 W.R. 245: 12 B.L.R. Ap. 21; In the goods of George, 6 B.L.R. Ap. 138.

But in the case of In re Lakshminarayana, 25 Mad. 515, such power of appointment by wife was held to be property within the meaning of Art. 11, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act and the property in respect of which such power of appointment was exercised was held to be liable to probate duty a second time.

19D. The probate of the will, or the letters of administration of the effects of any person deceased heretofore or hereafter granted, shall be deemed valid and available by his executors or administrators for recovering, transferring or assigning any moveable or immoveable property whereof or whereto the deceased was possessed or entitled, either wholly or partially as a trustee, notwithstanding the amount or value of such property is not included in the amount or value of the estate in respect of which a court-fee was paid on such probate or letters of administration.

NOTES.

See Notification No. 4650, dated 10th September, 1889, in the Appendix.

Trust property descending on the death of the trustee is liable to ad valorem court-fee duty. In the goods of Beresford, 15 W.R. 456: 7 B.L.R. 57.

The deceased, a German subject, married a lady in Rhenish Prussia where Code Napoleon prevails, and under that law the husband and wife have equal interest in the properties and on the death of one of them, the one half goes to the heirs and the other half to the survivor. Hence on the death of the deceased only one half of the property was held liable to stamp duty. In the goods of Foerschman, 20 Cal. 575

Property held in trust—means property of which the testator was a trustee, not that of which he has created a trust. The Deputy Commissioner of Singbhum v. Jagadish Deo Dhabal, 6 Pat. L.J. 411: 62 Ind. Cas. 513.

See Mangaldas v. The Secretary of State for India, 108 I.C. 709, 1928 A.I.R. 55 (Bom.) infra.

Dayabhaga.—Where one of two brothers governed by Dayabhaga law of inheritance died unmarried leaving the other brother as heir who applied for Letters of Administration of the property and credits of the deceased consisting of (1) moneys in Government Bank, (2) Government securities standing in the name of the deceased, (3) family dwelling house. Held, that the court-fees are payable on the share of the deceased brother, but the surviving brother's share was to be treated as trust property in his hands and therefore exempt from duty. In the goods of Brindaban Ghose, 19 W.R. 239: 11 B.L.R. Ap. 39.

Where a Hindu daughter died possessed of her father's property and also some Government Promissory Notes standing in his own name. Held, that no duty is payable in respect of these properties. In the goods of Joymoney Dassi, 14 B.L.R. 184. But see In the goods of Tarun Kumar Ghosh deceased, 62 Cal. 114, where the father of the deceased minor was made to pay although the money in the post office standing in the name of the deceased minor was his own money.

Survivorship in Mitakshara.—Where property was purchased by four brothers as members of joint Hindu family and with joint funds and one of them subsequently died leaving a will, and the surviving brothers applied for probate as executors and trustees under the will notwithstanding that it was bequeathed to them as tenants in common. Held that it was not liable to probate duty, In the goods of Pokhurmull Agarwala, 23 Cal. 890: 1 C.W.N. 31.

The above case was followed in the case of Collector of Khairā v. Chuni Lall, 29 Bom. 161: 6 Bom.L.R. 652, where it was held that the grant of Letters of Administration is exempted from stamp duty and that exemption of trust estate does not depend upon the condition whether there had been a previous grant or not; the exemption has reference to the character of the property and not to the procedure adopted. But a contrary rule was laid down in In the matter of Dasu Manavale Chetty, 33 Mad. 93: 19 M.L.J. 591: 6 M.L.T. 286: 4 Ind. Cas. 1064, where the decisions reported in 23 Cal. 980, and 29 Bom. 161, were not followed on the ground that in these decisions the effect of the words "not beneficially or with general power to confer a beneficial interest," following the words "property held in trust" in Annexure B, was not considered. See also Mulukutta Annapurnamma v. Mulukutta Atchutarammayya, 100 I.C. 111: 38 M.L.T. 7 (H.C.): 1927 A.I.R. 1101 (Mad.) where it was held that the probate duty is to be paid only on the right, title and interest of the testator in the property bequeathed.

Also where one member of a joint Hindu family died leaving a will by which his share in the joint family property was disposed of; held that the whole property was liable to probate duty, inasmuch as the parties claiming under the will could not go behind its terms or claim any exemption whatever upon allegation inconsistent with the will or its provision, Kashinath Parashram v. Gourabai Mullappa Warad, 17 Bom.L.R. 169: 39 Bom. 245: 28 Ind. Cas. 473; the case of Kashinath v. Gourabai was not followed in Keshavlal v. Collector of Ahmedabad, 48 Bom. 75: (1924) A.I.R. 228 (Bom.): 25 Bom. L.R. 1240: 77 Ind. Cas. 749, but was reaffirmed in In the goods of Madho Prasad, 1935 A.L.J. 391: 154 I.C. 722: 1935 A.I.R. 449 (All.) where it was held that the necessity for the issue of letters of administration is not a question to be determined when such letters have been ordered to be issued but such letters cannot issue without prepayment of court-fees. If a person applies for it he has got to pay court-fees. See also Re Estate of Ram Kumar Prasad, 5 Pat.L.J. 510: 58 Ind. Cas. 1007: 1 Pat.L.T. 710. See also In re Bhubaneswar Trigunait, (the case reported in 29 C.W.N. 372 having been reversed by the appeal Court) in 52 Cal. 871: 29 C.W.N. 879: 95 I.C. 529: 1925 A.I.R. 1201 (Cal.) where a Hindu father and his brother lived together in a joint Mitakshara family and on the death of the father intestate leaving certain money in a Bank, the Letter of Administration granted to the sons was exempted from court-fee duty.

A Hindu testator by his will made his wife and the minor sons of his nephew joint owners of the estate and appointed his wife executrix of his estate and further provided that after the death of his wife the sons of the nephew are to take possession of the estate, held that no joint tenancy was created by the will and that after the death of the wife the property was to vest absolutely in the sons of the nephew. There was no trust created by the will appointing the widow a trustee for the sons of the nephew, hence the sons of the nephew are not entitled to be exempted from duty under sec. 19D of the Court Fees Act, Mangaldas Kilabai Patel v. The Secretary of State for India, 1928 A.I.R. 55 (Bom.): 108 Ind. Cas. 709: 52 Bom. 188: 30 Bom.L.R. 54.

Shares.—A share in the Bank, for the purpose of devolution or survivorship, must be deemed so far as the bank was concerned, the exclusive property of its registered holder. Therefore when that shareholder dies, a probate or letters of administration is necessary as a claim by survivorship cannot prevail, Bank of Bombay v. Ambalal Sarabhai, 24 Bom. 350: 2 Bom.L.R. 467. See In the goods of Madho Prasad, 1935 A.L.J. 391: 154 I.C. 722: 1935 A.I.R. 449 (All.). But if the shares stand in the joint names of husband and wife then it is presumed that an advancement to the survivor was intended and if the wife survives the husband, then the property is hers and not the property of the deceased husband, hence no court-fees are leviable, Deputy Commissioner, Lucknow v. Mrs. M. D. Aikman, 9 Luck. 370: 11 O.W.N. 78: 1934 A.I.R. 72 (Oudh): 148 I.C. 247.

Refund.—A Mitakshara father died leaving two sons who were joint with him and to whom the property passed by survivorship. The deceased had, before his death, deposited with two banks 2 sums of Rs. 5,000 each (property of the joint estate), who refused to hand over the money to the sons unless they take out Letters of Administration with respect to the same; consequently Letters of Administration were obtained and the duty paid. Subsequently the sons filed an application for refund of the duty paid as the property in respect of which it was paid was joint family property; held, that no refund could be granted as no duty has been previously paid, Collector of Ahmedabad v. Savchand Ladukchand, 27 Bom. 140: 4 Bom.L.R. 974.

19E. Where any person on applying for probate or letters of administration has estimated the estate of the deceased to be of less value than the same has afterwards proved to be, and has in consequence paid too low a court-fee thereon, the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority [for the local area] in which the probate or letters has or have been granted may, on the value of the estate of the deceased being verified by affidavit or affirmation, cause the probate or letters of administration to be duly stamped on payment of the full court-fee which ought to have been originally paid thereon in respect of such value and of the further penalty, if the probate or letters is or are produced within one year from the date of the grant, of five times, or, if it or they is or are produced after one year from such date, of twenty times, such proper court-fee, without any deduction of the court-fee originally paid on such probate or letters:

Provided that, if the application be made within six months after the ascertainment of the true value of the estate and the discovery that too low a court-fee was at first paid on the probate or letters, and if the said Authority is satisfied that such fee was paid in consequence of a mistake or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, and without any intention of fraud or to delay the payment of the proper court-fee, the said Authority may remit the said penalty, and cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped on payment only of the sum wanting to make up the fee which should have been at first paid thereon.

NOTES.

Change in law.—The words “for the local area” were substituted for the words “of the Province” by the Repealing and Amending Act (Act X of 1901), section 3 (1).

Power of Chief Controlling Revenue-Authority.—As to the powers of Chief Controlling Authority to remit the whole or part of any penalty or forfeiture imposed under this section, see section 20 of the Probate and Administration Act (Act VI of 1889). See also sec. 19J, infra.

Manner of collection.—See I. G. Notification No. 1522, dated the 10th March, 1885, as amended in the Appendix.

Scope.—Rights of Secretary of State.—The Secretary of State has the right to sue for recovery of penalty imposed by Revenue authority under statutory powers, but these powers must be exercised in conformity with the statute. Section 19E of the Court Fees Act contemplates an application on the part of the person who has taken out probate and produces the same to be duly stamped. It further contemplates that when the estimated value of the estate is less than what the value afterwards proved to be, a Civil Court cannot revise the valuation of a Revenue officer unless the same is ultra vires or not in accordance with law, Nikunja Rani Chowdhurani v. Secretary of State for India, 43 Cal. 230: 20 C.W.N. 504: 22 C.L.J. 875: 31 Ind. Cas. 460. Section 19E contemplates an application by a person who has taken out probate and produces the same to be duly stamped, Manekji v. Secretary of State for India in Council, (1896) P.J. Bom. 751.

Mistake.—Section 19G, Court Fees Act, has to be read with sec. 19E of that Act, the words used being identical and the sections providing the similar cases. Sec. 19E shows clearly that it refers to a wrong estimate of the property arising either from a mistake or from the fact that a certain property is not known to have belonged to the deceased. The learned Counsel for the Crown contends that the words “not known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased” include both a mistake of fact as well as a mistake of law. If the word 'estimate' does really cover both, then similarly the word 'estimate' in sec. 19H also covers similar mistake and, therefore, the procedure is as prescribed for the revenue authorities where there is contest as to whether there is or is not such a mistake, Feroze A. Cooper v. The Secretary of State for India, 111 I.C. 692: 1928 A.I.R. 947 (Lah.).

19F. In case of letters of administration on which too low a court-fee has been paid at first, the said Authority shall not cause the same to be duly stamped in manner aforesaid until the administrator has given such security to the Court by which the letters of administration have been granted as ought by law to have been given on the granting thereof in case the full value of the estate of the deceased had been then ascertained.

Administrator to give proper security before letter stamped under section 19E.

19G. Where too low a court-fee has been paid on any probate or letters of administration in consequence of any mistake, or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, if any executor or administrator acting under such probate or letters does not, within six months * * * after the discovery of the mistake or of any effects not known at the time to have belonged to the deceased, apply to the said Authority and pay what is wanting to make up the court-fee which ought to have been paid at first on such probate or letters, he shall forfeit the sum of one thousand rupees and also a further sum at the rate of ten rupees per cent. on the amount of the sum wanting to make up the proper court-fee.

Executors, &c., not paying full court-fee on probates, &c., within six months after discovery of under-payment.

NOTES.

Change in law.—The words and figures "after the 1st day of April, 1875, or" are repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act (Act X of 1901), Schedule I.

Frame of section.—Section 19G is moulded on section 43 of 55 George III, c. 184 and section 122 of 56 George III, C. 56, Nikunja Rani v. Secretary of State for India in Council, 43 Cal. 230: 22 C.L.J. 375: 20 C.W.N. 504: 31 Ind. Cas. 460.

For the protection of revenue, however, section 19G provides a penalty. The duty of determining whether too low a court-fee is paid is imposed on Revenue authorities and the Civil Court has no power of reviewing his decision and ordering penalty to be repaid if such decision by Revenue authority happens to be wrong, Manekji Edalji v. Secretary of State for India in Council, (1896) Bom.P.J. 751.

19H. (1) Where an application for probate or letters of administration is made to any Court other than a High Court, the Court shall cause notice of the application to be given to the Collector.

Notice of applications for probates or letter of administration to be given to Revenue authorities, and procedure thereon.

(2) Where such an application as aforesaid is made to a High Court, the High Court shall cause notice of the application to be given to the Chief Controlling Revenue-Authority [for the local area in which the High Court is situated.],

(3) The Collector within the local limits of whose revenue-jurisdiction the property of the deceased or any part thereof is, may at any time inspect or cause to be inspected, and take or cause to be taken copies of, the record of any case in which application for probate or letters of administration has been made; and if, on such inspection or otherwise, he is of opinion that the petitioner has under-estimated the value of the property of the deceased, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, require the attendance of the petitioner (either in person or by agent) and take evidence and inquire into the matter in such manner as he may think fit, and, if he is still of opinion that the value of the property has been under-estimated, may require the petitioner to amend the valuation.

(4) If the petitioner does not amend the valuation to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector may move the court before which the application for probate or letters of administration was made, to hold an inquiry into the true value of the property:

Provided that no such motion shall be made after the expiration of six months from the date of the exhibition of the inventory required by section 277 of the Indian Succession Act, 1865, or, as the case may be, by section 98 of the Probate and Administration Act, 1881.

(5) The Court, when so moved as aforesaid, shall hold, or cause to be held, an inquiry accordingly, and shall record a finding as to the true value, as near as may be, at which the property of the deceased should have been estimated. The Collector shall be deemed to be a party to the inquiry.

(6) For the purposes of any such inquiry, the Court or person authorized by the Court to hold the inquiry, may examine the petitioner for probate or letters of administration on oath (whether in person or by commission), and may take such further evidence as may be produced to prove the true value of the property. The person authorized as aforesaid to hold the inquiry shall return to the Court the evidence taken by him, and report the result of the inquiry, and such report and the evidence so taken shall be evidence in the proceeding, and the Court may record a finding in accordance with the report, unless it is satisfied that it is erroneous.

(7) The finding of the Court recorded under subsection (5) shall be final, but shall not bar the entertainment and disposal by the Chief Controlling Revenue-Authority of any application under section 19E.

(8) The Local Government may make rules for the guidance of Collectors in the exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3).

NOTES.

Change in law.—The words “for the local area in which the High Court is situated” were substituted for the words “of the Province” by section 3 (2) of the Court Fees (Amendment) Act, 1901 (10 of 1901).

Note.—Sections 19H, 19I, 19J, 19K were inserted by the Court Fees Amendment Act, 1899 (Act XI of 1899), section 2.

The Indian Succession Act, 1865 was Act X of 1865. The present Act is Act XXXIX of 1925.

The Probate and Administration Act was Act V of 1881.

The present Act is Act 39 of 1925.

Sec. 277 of Succession Act, 1865 and sec. 98 of P. & A. Act of 1881 correspond to sec. 317 of Act 39 of 1925.

Instructions on the working of sec. 19H of Court Fees Act, 1870 (as amended by Act XI of 1899) are embodied in Letter No. 980-S. R., dated Calcutta, the 10th February 1902, (see Stamp Manual). Under this letter the Civil Courts are not required to check the valuation put upon the various items of property set out in the affidavit, but merely to satisfy themselves that proper fees have been paid upon the valuation declared by the Collector, the correctness of which valuation it is the duty of the Collector to check on receipt of notice of application from the Civil Court.

There are similar letters in other Provinces (see Stamp Manuals for such Province).

Enquiry by Civil Courts and the Registrar of the High Court.—The Civil Courts ought not to concern themselves to check the valuation put upon the various items of property set out in the affidavit of valuation according to the form prescribed in the third schedule of the Court Fees Act, but should merely satisfy themselves that the appropriate fee has been paid on the valuation declared by the executors themselves. The duty of checking the correctness of valuation is entirely a matter for the revenue authorities on receipt from the High Court of notice of grants of (application for) probates or letters of administration as the case may be.

The Registrar should merely satisfy himself that all the proper duty has been paid in accordance with and upon the basis of the figures which the executors themselves put forward in their affidavit of valuation. If that valuation is not correct, it is the business not of the High Court but of the revenue authorities to make such investigation as they think fit, and if they are so advised to move the Court under sub-sec. (4) of sec. 19H of the Court Fees Act, 1870. That section provides ample machinery for ensuring that sooner or later the proper amount of duty will be paid by the executors, In the Goods of Aratoon Stephen, 32 C.W.N. 799. See also In the goods of Omda Bibee, 26 Cal. 407: 3 C.W.N. 392.

“By section 19H, notice of every application for probate or Letters of Administration has to be given to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority and measure provided whereby the revenue authorities may check valuations and recover proper court-fees," In re Bhubaneswar Trigunait, 52 Cal. 871: 29 C.W.N. 879: 95 I.C. 529: 1925 A.I.R. 1101 (Cal.). See also In the Goods of Tarun Kumar Ghose, deceased, 62 Cal. 114 where the father of the deceased minor was made to pay duty although the money standing in the name of the deceased minor was his own money.

Procedure in moving for an enquiry.—In moving the Court for an enquiry into the true value of the assets of deceased person under 19H of the Court Fees Act, it is not enough for the Collector simply to make an application for enquiry, he should place before the Court materials showing that an enquiry was needed, i.e., he should make out a case for enquiry upon definite facts. The Act does not specify in what way or by whom the expense of inquiry should be met. It would be the duty of the Court, if possible, and if the circumstances permit, to hold the inquiry itself and so save further expense to the parties, In the Goods of J. R. A. Stevenson, 6 C.W.N. 898.

Review.—Where in an enquiry under section 19H of the Court Fees Act the Government Pleader was not ready to go on with the case on the date fixed and the Court dismissed the enquiry on the ground of negligence, but afterwards granted a review "for other sufficient reason" and reopened the case, held, that the grant of review was bad, Bindu Basini Raychowdhurani v. Secretary of State for India in Council, 51 Cal. 70: 40 C.L.J. 163: 79 I.C. 745: 1924 A.I.R. 744 (Cal.).

Finding by District Judge—Final.—Where an applicant for probate refuses to amend the valuation of the estate to the satisfaction of the Collector, and the latter applied to the District Judge asking that an enquiry be made into the true valuation of the property, the finding of the District Judge as to the value of the property under sub-section (5) of section 19H of the Court Fees Act, is final and no appeal lies against it by virtue of the provisions contained in sub-section (7) of that section, but the refusal by the District Judge to consider the allegations of the applicant that other properties have been erroneously included may be revised, Chinmatha Nath Pal Chowdhury v. Secretary of State for India in Council, 78 I.C. 901: 1925 A.I.R. 357 (Calcutta).

Costs of enquiry.—A Court has no power to award costs in a proceeding under section 19H of the Court Fees Act, for ascertaining the valuation of properties in respect of which Letters of Administration have been granted. There is no provision for the realisation of any costs which may be incurred in connection with such an enquiry, Hriday Mohini Dasi v.

Secretary of State for India in Council, 50 Cal. 239: 27 Ind. Cas. 472: 1923 A.I.R. 406 (Calcutta).

Limitation.—Where after the issue of letters of administration with a copy of the will annexed, the applicant for the same filed a list of immoveable properties on 13th May, 1905, belonging to the estate of the deceased and then filed a list of moveable properties on 17th August, 1905, but no document which may be said to contain under section 98 of the Probate and Letters of Administration Act, a full and true estimate of the properties of the deceased; and after several attempts by the Collector to obtain the inventories, on 16th July, 1908, the Collector applied under 19H, cl. (4) of this Act to the District Judge to enquire into the true valuation of the estate. Held by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council that the period of six months mentioned in cl. (4) is to run from the lodging of the inventory required by the statute and that no inventory having been filed which satisfied the statutory requirements namely, “a full and true estimate of all the property in possession,” the application by the Collector was not barred under cl. (4) of section 19H of the Court Fees Act. (The decision does not say that a single document containing a full and true estimate is to be filed), Rajkumari Bhubaneswari v. The Collector of Gaya, P.C. 41 556: 18 C.W.N. 153: 19 C.L.J. 136: 21 Ind. Cas. 915: 12 A.L.J. 69: 16 Bom.L.R. 95: 1914 M.W.N. 13: 26 M.L.J. 5: 15 M.L.T. 87.

The period of six months prescribed in the proviso to sub-sec. (4) to sec. 19 (H) Court Fees Act, must be taken to run from the time of the presentation of a revised inventory, Deputy Commissioner, Lucknow v. Mrs. M. D. Aikman, 9 Luck. 370: 11 O.W.N. 78: 1934 A.I.R. 72 (Oudh): 148 I.C. 247.

19L. (1) No order entitling the petitioner to the grant of probate or letters of administration shall be made upon an application for such grant until the petitioner has filed in the Court a valuation of the property in the form set forth in the third schedule, and the Court is satisfied that the fee mentioned in No. 11 of the first schedule has been paid on such valuation.

(2) The grant of probate or letters of administration shall not be delayed by reason of any motion made by the Collector under section 19H, sub-section (4).

Payment of court-fees in respect of probates and letters of administration.

NOTES.

Note.—The valuation required to be put in under this section should be checked by the Collector and not by the Civil Court. The Civil Court is to send the notice of application to the Collector and on receipt of a report from the Collector is to see whether proper fee has been paid on that valuation. The Civil Court is not to check the valuation by the Collector. See cases under s. 19H supra.

Scope.—The question whether a certain property is trust property or not and has been included in List B through mistake, the matter is covered by s. 19I and it would be for the High Court to decide before granting probate whether the property was or was not rightly included in Sch. B, and in any event the decision of the Financial Commissioner would be ultra vires, Feroze A. Cooper v. The Secretary of State for India, 111 I.C. 692: 1928 A.I.R. 947 (Lah.). See also In the matter of Dasu Manavala Chetty, 33 Mad. 93: 19 M.L.J. 591: 4 I.C. 1064.

This section prohibits an order by Court entitling a petitioner to a grant of Probate or Letters of Administration until the petitioner has filed in Court a valuation of the property in the form set out in the 3rd Schedule of the Court Fees Act and the Court is satisfied that proper fees have been paid on such valuation, Maung Ye Gyan v. Ma Hme, 1 L.B.R. 228.

Section 19I contemplates the prepayment of duty before an order for grant of probate is made, Nikunja Rani v. Secretary of State for India, 43 Cal. 230: 20 C.W.N. 504: 22 C.L.J. 375: 30 Ind. Cas. 460; Swarnamoyee v. The Secretary of State for India, 43 Cal. 625: 20 C.W.N. 472: 22 C.L.J. 370: 30 I.C. 394.

“The Court is not required to satisfy itself that the valuation is correct but only that the fee mentioned in No. 11 of the First Schedule has been paid on such valuation. In re Bhubaneswari Trigunait, 52 Cal. 871: 29 C.W.N. 879 (882): 95 I.C. 529: 1925 A.I.R. 1021 (Cal.).

An executor cannot be compelled to pay probate duty till the Collector has finished his investigation into the valuation of the property, Monmohini Dassi v. Taramoni, 1929 A.I.R. 733 (Cal.).

Construction.—The expression ‘valuation of the property’ in sec. 19I must mean valuation of the property of the deceased, Deputy Commissioner, Lucknow v. Mrs. M. D. Aikman, 9 Luck. 370: 11 O.W.N. 78: 1934 A.I.R. 72 (O.): 148 I.C. 247.

Administration for a part of the property.—The court-fee payable for the issue of Letters of Administration in respect of part of the property is to be calculated on the value of the part and not on the value of the entire property, Gurbachan Kaur v. Satwant Kaur and others, 1925 A.I.R. 493 (Lah.): 7 L.L.J. 288: 26 P.L.R. 608: 90 I.C. 620. But in In the goods of Girish Chunder Mitter, 6 Cal. 483 the Calcutta High Court held that in all cases general Letters of Administration to the estate of a deceased Hindu is to be taken out for the immoveable as well as the moveable property. See also In the goods of Ram Chand Seal, 5 Cal. 2; Framji Dorabji Ghaswala v. Adarji Dorabji Ghaswala, 18 Bom. 337.

Grant cannot be delayed.—The grant of a probate to the petitioner, after she has filed the valuation in accordance with section 19H (1) of the Court Fees Act and paid proper court-fees, cannot be delayed simply because Collector has failed to move under section 19H (4) of the Court Fees Act. In Re Srimoti Prasanna Moyee Basu, widow of Kritanta Kumar Bosu, 40 Ind. Cas. 576.

Assessment of duty.—Effect of amendment.—Where an application for probate was made on the 29th March, 1922, and on 30th March, 1922, the estate was valued and the court-fees paid, but the Will was proved on the 18th April, 1922 after Amending Act has come into force, held that the court-fees were correctly paid under the old law and the Amending Act does not apply as the fee payable had been paid before the Amending Act came into operation, Thaddeus Nahapiet v. The Secretary of State for India, 39 C.L.J. 209: 1924 A.I.R. 987 (Cal.): 81 I.C. 751.

The probate duty is to be levied on the value of the estate as at the time of making the application. Court-fees ought to be levied as a preliminary on the valuation put forward by the applicant for probate, but the duty chargeable may subsequently be revised as a result of reference made by the Collector under s. 19H, Court Fees Act. In the goods of R. N. Clark, 14 Lah. 526: 34 P.L.R. 809: 148 I.C. 279: 1933 A.I.R. 936 (Lah.).

Contra.—The law in force at the date of the grant is the law which must be applied in deciding the amount of court-fees payable, i.e., whether the court-fees are payable under the old Act or under the amended Act, Gangaram Tillockchand v. The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, etc., 52 Bom. 61: 29 Bom. L.R. 1511: 106 I.C. 66: 1927 A.I.R. 643 (Bombay).

Undertaking by Counsel—Section 19I (1) of the Court Fees Act is no bar to the hearing of an application previous to deposit of the court-fees, when counsel for the petitioner expresses his willingness to pay any court-fees which may be found due once it is decided that the application for the grant of administration be accepted, Deputy Commissioner of Lucknow v. Taj Kihen, 8 Ind. Cas. 695.

19J. (1) Any excess fee found to be payable on Recovery of penalties, any inquiry held under section 19H, sub-section (6), and any penalty or forfeiture under section 19G, may, on the certificate of the Chief Controlling Revenue-Authority, be recovered from the executor or administrator as if it were an arrear of land-revenue by any collector in any part of British India.

(2) The Chief Controlling Revenue-Authority may remit the whole or any part of any such penalty or forfeiture as aforesaid, or any part of any penalty under section 19E or of any court-fee under section 19E in excess of the full court-fee which ought to have been paid.

NOTES.

Penalty—imposition.—The Collector cannot, without moving the Court for an enquiry under section 19H into the true value of the assets, impose a penalty upon the applicant, Nikunja Rani Chowdhurani v. Secretary of State for India, 20 C.W.N. 504: 43 Cal. 230: 22 C.L.J. 375: 31 Ind. Cas. 460.

Penalty—recovery.—The court-fees and the penalties may be recovered under the provisions of the Public Demands Recovery Act.

Sections 6 and 28 not to apply to probate or letters of administration.

19K. Nothing in section 6 or section 28 shall apply to probates or letters of administration.

NOTES.

Section 19 (VIII) and Art. 11 of Schedule I of the Court Fees Act exempt from liability to fees Probate or Letters of Administration where the amount or the value of the property, in respect of which the grant is made, does not exceed one thousand rupees. This exemption, however, applies only to cases where the gross value of the property does not exceed one thousand. The fee mentioned in No. 11 of Schedule I is to be paid on the valuation mentioned in Schedule III and is to be paid on the net value of the property where the gross value is above and the net value is below one thousand rupees, a fee of two per cent. is payable on the net value, Collector of Malda v. Nirode Kamini Debya, 17 C.W.N. 21: 15 Ind. Cas. 621. But this case was not followed in Nikunja Rani Chowdhurani

v. Secretary of State for India, 43 Cal. 230: 20 C.W.N. 504: 22 C.L.J. 375: 31 Ind. Cas. 460.

The stamps are not to be filed with the application for Probate or Letters of Administration. The court-fee stamps are paid into Court after the will is proved or issue is ordered and an application is made for obtaining the same, Pa Ke v. Naw Bo He, L.B.R. (1893-1900) 623.

CHAPTER IV.

PROCESS-FEES.

20. The High Court shall, as soon as may be, make rules as to the following matters:—

- (i) The fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by such Court in its appellate jurisdiction, and by the other Civil [and Revenue] Courts established within the local limits of such jurisdiction;
- (ii) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the Criminal Courts established within such limits in the case of offences other than offences for which police-officers may arrest without a warrant; and
- (iii) the remuneration of the peons and all other persons employed by leave of a Court in the service or execution of processes.

The High Court may from time to time alter and add to the rules so made.

All such rules, alterations and additions shall, after being confirmed by the Local Government * * * be published in the local official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Confirmation and publication of rules.

Until such rules shall be so made and published, the fees now leviable for serving and executing processes shall continue to be levied, and shall be deemed to be fees leviable under this Act.

NOTES.

Change in law.—In the Punjab, the words “and revenue” are repealed, see the Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887 (17 of 1887).

The words “and sanctioned by the Governor-General of India in Council” were repealed by Act XXXVIII of 1920 (The Devolution Act), sec. 2 and Schedule.

Note.—Sections 20 to 23 do not apply to areas to which the Burma Process Fees Act, 1910 (Bur. Act I of 1910) applies.

Recovery of process fees.—Process fees when not paid can be recovered under the provisions of the Public Demands Recovery Act.

Power to make rules.—As to power of the Bombay High Court to prescribe fees for processes issued by Courts constituted under the Bombay Civil Court Act, 1869 (14 of 1869), see s. 42 of that Act. As to computation of certain fees on applications under s. 17 of the Agra Tenancy Act, 1901 (U.P. Act II of 1901). See also Local Rules and orders of the several Provinces and High Courts.

As to power of Chief Commissioner of British Baluchistan to make rules and prescribe fees, see the British Baluchistan Criminal Justice Regulation, 1896 (8 of 1896), s. 20 (1) (a), and the British Baluchistan Civil Justice Regulation, 1896 (IX of 1896), s. 92 (a).

The High Court has no power to relax process fee rules framed by it in accordance with the provisions of section 20 of the Court Fees Act and s. 93 (Order 48 Rule 1) of the Code of Civil Procedure does not give any power to any Court to depart from those rules as that section gives Court power to pass judicial orders between party and party as to who should pay the process fees. In the matter of application of Studd, 26 Cal. 124: 3 C.W.N. 82.

Note.—But in later rules there is a provision for reduction of process fees where there are numerous persons to be served in the same or adjacent villages regarding process fees for cases pending in the High Court.

The Madras High Court in In re Vaithilinga Pandara Sannadhi Avergal, 1930 A.I.R. 381 (Mad.), held that they have no power to accept one process fee for the common respondents and cannot consolidate.

A commission issued to an Amin to make a local investigation is not a process, Jagat Kishore Acharyea Chowdhury v. Denonath Chukerbuttery Chowdhury, 17 Cal. 281.

Fees in settlement cases.—Fees on processes issued by settlement officers in proceedings for settlement of rent under Part III of Chapter X of the Bengal Tenancy Act are subject to the rules framed by the High Court under s. 20 of the Court Fees Act, 1870, Revenue Circular dated 2nd March, 1994.

The Court of a Special Judge is a Civil Court, hence process fees for service of notice on respondents in an appeal before the Special Judge are to be paid according to the scale laid down in the High Court rules framed under s. 20. Rule 65 of the rules framed by the Local Government under s. 189 of the Bengal Tenancy Act has no application to notices to the respondents in appeals filed in the Court of a Special Judge, Charusila Dassi v. The Government Pleader, Birbhum, 58 Cal. 995: 35 C.W.N. 253: 132 I.C. 683: 1931 A.I.R. 572 (Cal.): 1931 I.R. 603 (Cal.).

Clause III.—"The remuneration of peons, is by section 20 settled by the High Court," Dharamchand Lall v. Queen Empress, 22 Cal. 596 (607).

21. A table in the English and Vernacular languages, showing the fees chargeable for such service and execution, shall be exposed to view in a conspicuous part of each Court.

NOTES.

Change in law.—The words “and the Governor-General of India in Council” are repealed by Act XXXVIII of 1920 (The Devolution Act), sec. 2 and First Schedule.

N.B.—For the reference to Act XI of 1865 should be read the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887 (Act IX of 1887) under section 2 (2) of the General Clauses Act (Act X of 1897).

CHAPTER V.

OF THE MODE OF LEVYING FEES.

25. All fees referred to in section 3 or chargeable under this Act shall be collected by stamps.

26. The stamps used to denote any fees chargeable under this Act shall be impressed or adhesive, or partly impressed and partly adhesive, as the [Local Government] may, by notification in the [Local Official Gazette] from time to time direct.

NOTES.

Change in law.—For the words "the Governor-General of India in Council," the words "Local Government" and for the words "Gazette of India," the words "the Local Official Gazette" were substituted by Act XXXVIII of 1920 (The Devolution Act). Sec. 2 and First Schedule.

Rules.—For rules as to levy of court-fees by adhesive and impressive stamps, see Gazette of India, 1883, Part. I, p. 189, but it is doubtful if those rules are in force after the amendment of this section in view of the provisions of s. 27.

Stamp to be used.—A certificate was issued on an ordinary stamp and an objection was taken that it was not properly stamped in accordance with the Court Fees Act of 1870, as required by section 17 of the Succession Certificate Act (Act VII of 1889), because it does not bear upon it the words "court-fees," as directed in the Notification of the Governor-General, No. 361, dated 18th April, 1883. The High Court held:—

"It is true that section 26 of the Court Fees Act (VII of 1870) provides that the stamp used to denote the fee chargeable under the Act 'shall be impressed or adhesive or partly impressed and partly adhesive as the Governor-General of India in Council may by notification in the Gazette of India from time to time direct,' and that by notification of the Governor-General (No. 361, dated 18th April, 1883), it was provided that in case the fee chargeable should be under Rs. 10, an adhesive stamp should be used, and when the fee should exceed Rs. 10, an impressed stamp, and that in both cases the stamp should bear the words 'court-fees'; but as to the direction that the stamp should bear the words 'court-fees', it is to be remarked that it is not a matter on which by the terms of section 26 of the Court Fees Act, the Governor-General in Council had authority to give any direction, and it can, therefore only be regarded as a departmental order, the non-observance of which cannot invalidate the stamp for the purposes of the act," Annapurna Bai v. Lakshman Bhikaji, 19 Bom. 145.

Stamps for use in High Court only.—When the lower Court rejected a plaint after punching the stamps bearing the words "for use in the High Court only" impressed upon the back of the stamps on the ground that such stamps are for use in the High Court only, held, that such rejection was not justified. The words on the back of the stamps may have some significance for administrative purposes, but they are not capable of invalidating the stamps themselves, Naresh Chandra Sinha v. Charles Joseph Smith, 1926 A.I.R. 408 (Patna): 97 I.C. 822: 8 Pat. L.T. 33.

Rules for supply, number, renewal and keeping accounts of stamps.

27. The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules for regulating—

- (a) the supply of stamps to be used under this Act,
- (b) the number of stamps to be used for denoting any fee chargeable under this Act,
- (c) the renewal of damaged or spoiled stamps, and
- (d) the keeping accounts of all stamps used under this Act;

Provided that in the case of stamps used under section 3 in a High Court, such rules shall be made with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of such Court.

All such rules shall be published in the Local Official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

NOTES.

The parties ought to use as small a number of stamps as they can, Ranee Khajooroonissa v. Musst. Rohimunnessa, 16 W.R. 152.

But there is no illegality in making up the stamp fee chargeable in an appeal by means of a number of stamps, Mirza Dawd Ali v. Syed Nadir Hossein, 16 W.R. 153; Tarinni Churn v. Taranath Goocha, 12 W.R. 449; Huro Monee v. Kristo Indro Shaha, 17 W.R. 220.

Note.—These cases proceeded upon the footing that as there is no rule governing the use of number of stamp, the required amount can be made up by any number of small stamps.

Where the appellant being unable to procure one stamp filed his appeals with two labels with a certificate by treasurer that one label was not in stock, but the District Judge rejected the appeal held that the appeal should not have been dismissed, Bansi Lall v. Raghunath Sahai, (1887) 7 All. W.N. 212.

Effect of using several stamps.—If the court-fees paid are not denoted in the manner provided by rules under s. 27 of the Court Fees Act, but were denoted by several stamps of lower values, the document is to be treated as unstamped. Time may be extended to the party for compliance with the rules, Tota Rajayya v. Margoni Rajmalaya, 26 N.L.R. 263; 130 I.C. 112; 1931 A.I.R. 94 (Nag.). See also Jangi Pande v. Saudagar Sinha, 11 P.L.T. 708; 1931 A.I.R. 113 (Pat.), where the High Court considered the question of refund of the values of separate stamps and held that the application should be addressed to the Revenue Authorities and only granted a certificate to the party stating the facts in the form as set out in 40 Cal. 365.

Rules.—For rules in Bengal under s. 27 see Bengal statutory rules and orders Vol. II and Calcutta Gazette, 1907, Part I, page 432 as altered by Notification No. 7175 of 1925.

For Eastern Bengal and Assam see E. B. and A. Gazette, 1908. Part II, page 642.

But now see the notification of the Government of Bengal No. 3 T. S. R., dated 14th May, 1932.

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (b) of section 27 of the Court Fees Act, 1870 (VII of 1870) and in supersession of the existing orders on the subject, the Governor-in-Council is pleased to make the following rules to regulate the use of adhesive and impressed court-fees stamps in Bengal, in consequence of the abolition of impressed court-fee stamps in respect of fees upto Rs. 25, namely:—

(1) In cases where the amount of fees is less than Rs. 25 such fee shall be denoted by adhesive stamps bearing the words 'court-fees'.

(2) In cases where the amount of fee is equal to or exceeds Rs. 25 and such amount can be denoted by impressed stamps, bearing the words 'court-fees', adhesive stamps being employed to make up fractions of less than Rs. 25.

For similar provisions in other provinces, see Stamp Manuals of each province. U. P. Stamp Manual, Chap. 1B, pages 233, 234 as amended.

The Assam Government Notification No. 7865 G. J. dated the 22nd December, 1925 contains the additional paragraph—

When in any case the fee chargeable under the Act is less than Rs. 25 such fee shall be denoted by adhesive stamps and when the fee amounts to or exceeds Rs. 25, such fee shall be denoted by impressed stamps.

And the Government of Bengal Notification No. 275-S.R. dated the 9th March, 1907, clause 11 provides—

'A document stamped otherwise than in accordance with the preceding rules is not properly stamped within the meaning of section 28 of the Court Fees Act, 1870.'

The Bihar and Orissa Government has made a similar rule.

In Bombay, C. P. and U. P. there are similar provisions as to the number of stamps to be used but there is no penal clause in case of breach. The provisions for those Provinces may, therefore, be regarded as not mandatory and as mere recommendations.

See the Stamp Manual and Local Rules and Orders for each Province.

Damaged and spoiled stamps.—See the Stamp Manual for the province.

28. No document which ought to bear a stamp under this Act shall be of any validity, unless and until it is properly stamped.

Stamping documents inadvertently received.

But, if any such document is through mistake or inadvertence received, filed or used in any Court or office, without being properly stamped, the presiding Judge or the head of the office, as the case may be, or, in the case of a High Court, any Judge of such Court, may, if he thinks fit, order that such document be stamped as he may direct; and, on such document being stamped accordingly, the same and every proceeding relating thereto, shall be as valid as if it had been properly stamped in the first instance.

NOTES.

Application.—Section 28 does not apply to cases where there was no stamp on the plaint when presented but supplied afterwards, Lakha v. Munshi Ram, 38 P.R. 1900.

Scope.—The section does not apply to probate duty. See s. 19K of this Act. In re Bhubaneswar Trigunait, 52 Cal. 871: 29 C.W.N. 879: 95 I.C. 879: 1925 A.I.R. 1021 (Cal.).

Section 28, Court Fees Act, refers to a case where the question is not raised by a reference by the Taxing Officer under s. 5. Section 28 applies to the case where the deficiency in court-fee is noticed otherwise and the jurisdiction then will lie in a judge of the High Court before whom the deficiency is noticed, Sarfuddin v. M. Khadim Ali Khan, 1934 A.L.J. 643: 150 I.C. 1090: 1934 A.I.R. 807 (All.): 4 A.W.R. 263.

[N.B.—This section allows the Court in which the document insufficiently stamped was filed to order the recovery of the insufficient duty.]

Construction.—Document.—The word “document” bears the same meaning as in ss. 4 and 6 of this Act. “A memorandum of appeal is consequently a document which ought to bear a stamp under the Court Fees Act, 1870, within the meaning of s. 28 of that Act,” Balkaran Rai v. Gobinda Nath, 12 All. 129 (139): 10 All. W.N. 39 F.B.

Head of the office.—The expression “head of the office” in section 28 does not refer to the head of the office of a Court, or at any rate to the head of the office of a High Court, but to the head of the public offices as, for instance, the Board of Revenue, Balkaran Rai v. Gobind Nath Tewari, 12 All. 129: 10 All. W.N. 39.

The second paragraph to s. 28.—Object.—"The object of the second paragraph of s. 28 is to empower the Court or the Judge, when such an improperly stamped document has through mistake or inadvertance been received, filed or used in the Court, to make an order that such document may be properly stamped, and on being so stamped to give effect to it as a document as valid as if it had been properly stamped in the first instance," Balkaran v. Gobind Nath, 12 All. 129 (150): 10 All. W.N. 39 F.B.; Dilwar Husain v. Bhagwant Das, 27 (1907) All. W.N. 63: 4 All.L.J. 130.

Application of s. 149, C. P. C.—An appeal must be taken to be filed on the date on which the memorandum of appeal is properly stamped. An appeal was decided by a District Judge on 3rd March, 1915. A petition for revision agasnit that decision was filed on 4th June, 1915. On 7th February 1916, after hearing both parties, the Judge in chambers held that an appeal lay in the case and gave time to the appellants to make up the deficiency in court-fees on the memorandum of appeal. The deficiency was made up on 11th February, 1916. On the appeal coming on for hearing before a Division Bench, the respondent objected that the appeal was barred by time: held (1) that the order of the Judge in Chambers must be taken to have been made subject to all just exceptions; (2) that the memorandum of appeal must be taken to have been filed on the date on which the deficiency in court-fees was made up, and was, consequently, barred by time; (3) that section 149 of the C. P. C. was inapplicable to the case. Umed Ali v. The Municipal Committee, Jhang Maghiana, 2 Lah. 1: 2L.L.J. 486: 8 P.W.R. 1920: 56 I.C. 143: 1922 A.I.R. 233 (L.). See page 37 et seq., supra for other cases.

The Lahore High Court held that if after the mistake in the amount of court-fees paid being pointed out, Counsel refused to rectify the mistake, he is not entitled to any extension of time under section 149, C. P. C., Tikkan Ram v. Bosa Ram, 67 Ind. Cas. 106.

As to deficiency of court-fees made up after the expiry of the time for filing the appeal. See under s. 6, supra.

After the trial Court has extended the time, the appeal Court cannot interfere with the judicial discretion exercised, Priyanath v. Meajan, 24 C.L.J. 88. See also cases under s. 6 supra. And an order excusing delay in payment of deficit court-fees, is according to the practice of the Madras High Court, made subject to objection at the final hearing, Acharath Parakhat v. Acharath Bappam, 23 Ind. Cas. 946.

If deficiency in court-fees is remedied within the time allowed by the Court, then s. 28 validates the document from the date of presentation, U. Shin v. Maung Tha Gywe, 8 Rangoon 538: 129 I.C. 500: 1931 A.I.R. 38 (Ran.): 1931 I.R. 68 (Ran.).

Miscalculation.—Where the insufficiency was due to miscalculation on the part of the plaintiff and deficiency was supplied after the period of limitation, held, that the suit must be dismissed as it is not the duty of the office to point out miscalculation, Chaterpat v. Jagram, 27 All. 411: (1905) 25 All.W.N. 127: 2 All.L.J. 55; Jagram v. Chaterpat, (1904) 24 All.W.N. 133; Muhammad Ahmad v. Muhammad Sirajuddin, 23 All.W.N. 118.

Mistake.—Mistake is a slip made, not by design, but mischance, Hari Ram v. Akbar Hossein, 29 All. 749: 4 A.L.J. 36: (1907) 27 A.W.N. 253: 2 M.L.T. 275.

Mistake or Inadvertence—means mistake or inadvertence on the part of the Court and its officers and not on the part of the parties or their advisers, Balkaran v. Gobinda Nath, 12 All. 129: 10 All.W.N. 39 F.B.; Dilwar Husain v. Bhagwat Das, 27 All.W.N. 63: 4 All.L.J. 130.

Mistake of plaintiff.—When by a mistake of plaintiff, and not of the Court or of any officer of the Court, a plaint was filed upon insufficient court-fees and this was not discovered until after the period of limitation for the suit had expired, it was held that the suit was barred, Ram Tahal Singh v. Dubri Rai, 28 All. 310: (1906) 26 All.W.N. 21: 3 All.L.J. 838; Munro v. The Cawnpore Municipal Board, 12 All. 57: 9 All.W.N. 197; Muhammad Ahmad v. Muhammad Sirajuddin, 23 All. 423; Balkaran v. Gobind, 12 All. 129: 10 All.W.N. 39 F.B.

A mistake of law as to the court-fee payable brings the case within section 28 of the Court Fees Act, Haricharan Dey v. Baikuntha Nath, 21 Ind. Cas. 866; Valambal Aminal v. Vythilinga Mudaliar, 24 Mad. 331; on appeal in 25 Mad. 380: 11 M.L.J. 119.

Mistake of a trivial nature.—Where through mistake a memorandum of appeal was insufficiently stamped, but the mistake was of such a trivial nature that by exercise of due care and attention it could have been avoided, the Court refused to allow the appellant time to pay proper court-fees, Fatteh Singh v. Babu Ram, 67 Ind. Cas. 130 (Punjab).

Mistake of officer.—If the plaint be received in office through mistake or inadvertence of the officer of Court, then plaintiff is entitled to the benefit of s. 28 of the Court Fees Act, Hasibulnissa v. Ghafurullah Khan, 29 All. 382: 22 All.W.N. 110: 4 All.L.J. 363; Anupa v. Madho Singh, 22 All.W.N. 153; Debendra Mohan Rai v. Sona Kuar, 21 All.W.N. 21.

Power of Court after registration of appeal.—When a plaint has been registered, and a Court, having reason subsequently to think that the market value or nett profits of the subject-matter of claim, have been wrongly estimated, holds an enquiry either by itself or through a commissioner appointed for the purpose and finds that sufficient court-fees have not been paid, it is bound to stay that suit and to fix a time within which the additional court-fee is to be paid. If the court-fee is paid within that time the plaint is valid as if presented with proper stamp. The Court is not bound to appoint a commissioner under s. 9 and s. 10 applies even when the Court itself holds the enquiry. The plaint having been registered on the report of the Munsarim the Court was bound to give the plaintiff time to make good the deficiency in court-fee, when subsequently discovered, and s. 28 of the Court Fees Act applies to such a case, Hari Ram v. Akbar Hossein, F.B. 29 All. 749: 4 A.L.J. 636: (1907) 27 A.W.N. 233: 2 M.L.T. 375, followed in Tajammell Husain Khan v. Nawabdad Khan, 6 M.L.T. 360: 3 Ind. Cas. 830; Govaranga Sahu v. Boto Krishna Patro and others, 4 Ind. Cas. 503: 32 Mad. 305: 6 M.L.T. 129: 19 M.L.J. 340.

Where a memorandum of appeal was reported by the officer of Court to be sufficiently stamped but at the hearing the Court found that the memorandum is, in fact, insufficiently stamped and demanded additional court-fees which was paid within the time allowed, the Court cannot at a later stage refuse to hear the appeal or that portion of the appeal in which deficiency occurred, Anupa v. Madho Singh, (1902) 22 All.W.N. 153.

Power of appeal Court to demand court-fees not paid in lower Courts.—When a document has been received in the lower Courts without being properly stamped, and the deficiency is detected in the High Court, that Court can under section 28 of the Act direct that it should be properly stamped, Chedi Lal v. Kirath Chand, 2 All. 682 F.B.; see also Debendra Mohan Rai v. Sona Kuar, (1901) 21 All.W.N. 21; Chenappa v. Raghunath 15 Mad. 29.

The Court of appeal is not bound by the decision of the Court below as to the stamp on the plaint, Motigauri v. Pranjivandas, 6 Bom. 302. See also cases under section 12 of this Act.

The High Court has power to determine in appeal whether proper court-fees were paid in the lower Court or not. The Court cannot require a party to put in deficit court-fees after it has pronounced judgment, Kedar Nath Goenka v. Chandra Mouleshwar Prasad Singh, 11 Patna 532: 13 P.L.T. 304: 137 I.C. 855: 1932 A.I.R. 228 (Patna). [See other cases under s. 12 (ii), supra.]

Power of revenue officer to demand court-fees.—A Revenue Officer has power to direct, on revision, the payment of court-fees and to order that plaint bearing insufficient court-fee be properly stamped, although no objection was raised as to the same in the lower Court before the Assistant Settlement Officer, Dhakeswar Prosad Narain Singh v. Iswardhari Narain Singh, 22 C.L.J. 57: 30 I.C. 862.

Power of appeal court to reject the memorandum.—As this section does not override the Code of Civil Procedure, a Civil Court cannot reject a memorandum without giving the party time to make up the deficiency, Sardar Khusal Singh v. Purna Singh, 150 P.R. 1888, followed in Jiwan Das v. Khusali Ram, 39 I.C. 766. See also Manmatha Nath Biswas v. Rohilli Moni Dassi, 27 All. 406: (1905), 25 All.W.N. 6: 2 All.L.J. 84; Bai Anope v. Mulchand Girdhar, 9 Bom. 355; Achuta Ramchandra Rai v. Nagappa Bab Balgaya, 38 Bom. 41: 15 Bom.L.R. 902: 21 Ind. Cas. 327. See also Radha Kanta Saha v. Debendra Narain Saha, 49 Cal. 880: 38 C.L.J. 74: 27 C.W.N. 567: 70 Ind. Cas. 101: (1922) A.I.R. 506 (Cal.).

Reduction of claim.—Where the subject-matter of appeal is not capable of being split, it is not competent to the appellant to reduce his claim to the proportion of the court-fees paid, Gurusaran Das v. The District Board, Jullunder District, etc., 102 I.C. 615: 9 L.L.J. 290: 28 P.L.R. 338.

Abandonment of a portion of the claim.—When in the trial Court, the plaintiff when called upon to pay deficit court-fees abandons a part of his claim, he cannot be compelled to pay the deficit in a higher Court under the penalty of having his whole case dismissed, Ram Prosad v. Bhiman, 27 All. 151: 1 All.L.J. 577. See also Karam Chand v. The Jullunder Bank in liquidation, etc., 102 I.C. 705.

Objection in appeal Court after decision by the trial Court.—Where on an objection as to the sufficiency of the court-fee on the memorandum of appeal it appeared that the court-fee was exactly the same as that on the plaint and the trial Judge had on an objection by the defendant framed the issue on the point and decided it in favour of the plaintiff and that the defendant had accepted the decision and stamped his own appeal in the lower appellate Court accordingly, held, that under the circumstances the objection could not be entertained, Chhunnul Lal v. The Bank of Upper India Ltd., 106 P.W.R. 1917: 40 I.C. 904.

29. Where any such document is amended in order merely to correct a mistake Amended document. and to make it conform to the original intention of the parties, it shall not be necessary to impose a fresh stamp.

NOTES.

When a Revenue Court returns a plaint for presentation to the Civil Court as regards part of the claim, the party is not exempted under section 29 of the Court Fees Act from payment of the court-fees, Ganda Ram v. Sain, 132 P.R. 1892.

30. No document requiring a stamp under this Act shall be filed or acted upon in any proceeding in any Court or office until the stamp has been cancelled.

Such officer as the Court or the head of the office may from time to time appoint shall, on receiving any such document, forthwith effect such cancellation by punching out the figure-head so as to leave the amount designated on the stamp untouched, and the part removed by punching shall be burnt or otherwise destroyed.

NOTES.

Stamps with the name of different purchasers.—Where a plaint was stamped with an impressed stamp and an adhesive stamp but the adhesive stamp had the name of a different attorney and a different date and the punching officer refused to punch it. Held, that the punching officer was right and that the attorney should have placed before the Registrar the special circumstances to enable him to extend the rules and the practice in the original side amongst attorneys of accommodating each other in respect of stamps not used was deprecated, George Gerson v. Radha Kissen, 6 C.W.N. 785.

Return of plaint by Court after cancellation of stamp.—A Court when returning a plaint for presentation to proper Court under Order VII, Rule 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure, cannot be said to be acting upon it within the meaning of section 30 of the Court Fees Act and the plaintiff should not be required to pay court-fees over again, S. Visveswara v. T. M. Nair, 35 Mad. 567; 21 M.L.J. 533; 10 M.L.T. 29; 10 Ind. Cas. 201. See also Jagjivan v. Magdum Ali, 7 Bom. 487; Kandu v. Konda, 8 Mad. 62; Prabhakar Bhat v. Vishwambhar Pandit, 8 Bom. 313 F.B.

CHAPTER VI.

MISCELLANEOUS.

31. (i) Whenever an application or petition containing a complaint or charge of an offence, other than an offence for which police-officers may arrest without warrant, is presented to a Criminal Court, the Court, if it convicts the accused person, shall, in addition to the penalty imposed upon him, order him to repay to the complainant the fee paid on such application or petition.

(ii) In the case mentioned in section 18, the Court, if it convicts the accused person, shall, in addition to the penalty imposed upon him, order him to repay to the complainant the fee, if any paid, by the latter for the examination.

(iii) When the complainant has paid fees for serving processes in either of the cases mentioned in the first and second paragraphs of this section, the Court, if it convicts the accused person, shall in addition to the penalty imposed upon him, order him to repay such fees to the complainant.

(iv) All fees ordered to be repaid under this section may be recovered as if they were fines imposed by the Court.

NOTES.

Alteration in law.—This section has been re-enacted as section 546A of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Act V of 1898) as amended by Act XVIII of 1923 whereby appellate Courts are also empowered to pass similar orders and order simple imprisonment.

S. 546A. (1) Whenever any complaint of a non-cognisable offence is made to a Court, the Court, if it convicts the accused, may, in addition to the penalty imposed upon him, order him to pay to the complainant—(a) the fee (if any) paid on the petition of complaint or for the examination of the complainant, and (b) any fee paid by the complainant for serving processes on his witnesses or on the accused, and may further order that in default of payment, the accused shall suffer simple imprisonment for a period not exceeding thirty days.

(2) An order under this section may also be made by an appellate Court or by the High Court when exercising its powers of revision.

Scope.—An Order under section 31 of the Court Fees Act directing an accused to pay the complainant the amount paid in court-fees by the latter, can only be passed where the offence complained of was a non-cognizable one, Mingan v. Emperor, 80 I.C. 56 (All.).

In cognizable cases the accused should not be ordered to pay costs to the complainant, Maung San Myin and others v. King Emperor, 80 I.C. 187: 1923 A.I.R. 245 (Rangoon).

Nature of the order to pay the fee.—Where the magistrate convicted two accused and ordered them to pay court and process fees in equal shares but the appellate Court acquitted one of them and ordered the other to pay the whole amount, held that court-fees ordered to be paid under section 31 of the Court Fees Act are recoverable as if they are fines imposed by the Court, but they are not part of the fine imposed as punishment for the offence. In re Vemuri Seshamma, 26 Mad. 421. But see Queen Empress v. Tangavelu Chetti, 22 Mad. 153, where it was held that an order to pay fee under section 31 is an integral part of the sentence and such fee must be treated as a fine imposed by the Court. In this case the Assistant Magistrate's order was that it should be paid out of the fine collected, hence the order cannot be said to be under section 31. See also In re Ediga Thimmiah, 47 Mad. 914: 1925 A.I.R. 136 (M.): 82 I.C. 141.

A person who was convicted by a Deputy Magistrate of having caused hurt, was ordered to pay a fine of Rs. 15, and also complainant's costs of the prosecution. In the month following the conviction, the Deputy Magistrate issued a warrant for the collection of Rs. 12-4 from the accused, of which Rs. 2-4 was leviable under section 31 of the Court Fees Act as court-fee paid by the complainant, and Rs. 10 under section 545 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for two fees of Rs. 5 each paid by the complainant to the medical officer for a certificate and for giving evidence in the case. Objection having been made to the recovery of these sums, the case was referred to the High Court for orders. Held, that the levy of court-fees was warranted by section 31 of the Court Fees Act, which is not modified by section 545 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, Queen Empress v. Yamana Rao, 24 Mad. 305.

Order for repayment is in addition to penalty imposed.—This section directs that the order for repayment of the process fees and stamp must be in addition to penalty imposed. An order passed by a Magistrate under section 31 of the Court Fees Act, directing an accused person to pay to the complainant, the court-fees on the petition of complaint is no part of the sentence so as to make it a sentence of fine within the meaning of section 413 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of 1882, Madan Mundul v. Haran Ghose, 20 Cal. 687: followed by Emperor v. Karuppana Pillai, 20 Mad. 188. Therefore an appellate Court is not competent to set aside an order by the trying Magistrate under section 31 of the Court Fees Act, Emperor v. Maddipatla Subbarayudu, 31 Mad. 547: 5 M.L.T. 223.

The order for payment to the complainant of the Court and process fees paid by him must be in addition to the fine imposed and not out of the fine imposed, Crown v. Po. Hlaw, 1 L.B.R. 9.

Maintenance order.—The Court cannot order the defaulter to pay to the complainant the amount of court-fee paid. In the matter of Pali, Bom. H. C. Ref. No. 118 of 1889.

Workman's breach of contract.—Magistrate cannot order repayment of the amount of stamps, Emperor v. Dhandu Krishna, 6 Bom.L.R. 255.

Costs ordered under section 22 of the Cattle Trespass Act.—Illegal seizure and detention of cattle is not an offence within the meaning of section 31 of the Court Fees Act. Hence Courts are not competent to order repayment of the amount of stamp, Reg. v. Avij Bin Naru, 8 Bom. H. C. Cr. Ca. 22. But see section 4 (o) of the Criminal Procedure Code (V of 1898) and section 19 of the Court Fees Act. See also Sheikh Hussain v. Sanjivi, 7 Mad. 345; Queen Empress v. Khajabhoy, 16 Mad. 423; King-Emperor v. The Nyo U. and others, 4 L.B.R. 11.

32. [Amendment of Act VIII of 1859 and Act IX of 1869.] Repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1891 (XII of 1891).

33. Whenever the filing or exhibition in a Criminal Court of a document in respect of which the proper fee has not been paid is, in the opinion of the presiding Judge, necessary to prevent a failure of justice, nothing contained in section 4 or section 6 shall be deemed to prohibit such filing or exhibition.

Admission in criminal cases of documents for which proper fee has not been paid.

NOTES.

The word 'document' has not been defined in this Act. In this section the word refers to petition of complaint in a criminal case or a statement reduced to writing in a Criminal Court. This section empowers a Magistrate to admit an insufficiently stamped document in cases where it is necessary to do so to prevent failure of justice. This section does not refer to remission of duty as in section 18 of this Act.

34. (1) The Local Government may from time to time make rules for regulating the sale of stamps to be used under this Act, the persons by whom alone such sale is to be conducted, and the duties and remuneration of such persons.

(2) All such rules shall be published in the local official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

(3) Any person appointed to sell stamps who disobeys any rule made under this section, and any person not so appointed who sells or offers for sale any stamp, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

NOTES.

Change in law.—This section was substituted for the previous one by Repealing and Amending Act XII of 1891, Sch. II.

Licensed vendors of stamps in Calcutta at the High Court, the Custom House, the Calcutta Collectorate, the Police Court and the Small Cause Court and in the 24-Perganas at the Alipore need not put in the dates of sale on the stamps vide rules infra, dated 22nd September, 1932.

Substitution of one stamp for another.—Removing a new court-fee stamp from a document and substituting a used one with alteration of figures thereon is alteration of paper, under section 477A of the Penal Code, Emperor v. Bibudhananda Chakrabarti, 47 Cal. 71: 54 Ind. Cas. 892.

Sale of stamp.—Sub-section 3 contemplates the case of a thief selling a stolen stamp for value, although the thief cannot give a legal title by the transaction, Queen Empress v. Virasami, 24 Mad. 319.

Under old law sale of court-fee stamps without authority was not offence, Emperor v. Jallu, 4 All. 216: 2 All.W.N. 23.

Exchange of stamps.—Where a mukhtear who has purchased a Court Fee Stamp for one client transfers it to another client in exchange of another stamp of the same value to be delivered later on, held, that there was no sale within the meaning of section 34 of the Court Fees Act and the conviction of mukhtear was set aside, Kedar Nath Shaha v. Emperor, 30 Cal. 921: 7 C.W.N. 704; Emperor v. Abdul Hakim, 133 I.C. 645.

Gift of stamp.—An opinion was expressed that a person can make a gift of a court-fee stamp to another, Bibi Chandoo v. Jawala Pershad, 253 P.L.R. 1911: 169 P.W.R. 1911: 11 Ind. Cas. 840.

If a pleader's Munshi without obtaining refund on a stamp alters the name on the stamp and uses it for the first time for another client the accused cannot be convicted under s. 468, I. P. C. read with s. 34 of the Court Fees Act in the absence of evidence that he did so dishonestly or fraudulently, or merely to save himself from trouble. The saving of the small charge in making refunds would not indicate a guilty mind. The accused was given the benefit of doubt, Emperor v. Abdul Hakim, 32 P.L.R. 432: 133 I.C. 645: 1931 A.I.R. 337 (Lah.): 1931 I.R. 821 (Lah.): 32 Cr.L.J. 1051.

[For Bengal only—by Bengal Act VII of 1935—

After section 34 of the said Act, the following
New section 34A. section shall be inserted, namely:—

“34A. Where any period is fixed or granted by the Court for the doing of any act prescribed or allowed by this Act, the Court may, in its discretion, from time to time, enlarge such period, even though the period originally fixed or granted may have expired.”

Enlargement of time.

NOTES.

It was deemed advisable to provide for extension of time in this Act.]

35. [The Local Government] may, from time to time, by notification in the [local official Gazette] reduce or remit, in the whole or in any part of [the territories under its administration], all or any of the Power to deduce or remit fees.

fees mentioned in the first and second Schedules to this Act annexed, and, may in like manner, cancel or vary such order.

NOTES.

Change in law.—For the words “British India” the words “the territories under its administration” were substituted by Act XXXVIII of 1920 (The Devolution Act).

The words “Local Government” and “local official Gazette” were substituted for the words “Governor-General of India in Council” and “Gazette of India” by Devolution Act, 1920 (Act XXXVIII of 1920) section 2, and first schedule.

]For Bengal only—by Bengal Act VII of 1935—

For section 35 of the said Act, the following section

Subsection of new section shall be substituted, namely:— 35.

“35. (1) The Local Government may from time to time subject to such conditions or restrictions as it may think fit to impose, by notification in the “Calcutta Gazette”, suspend the payment of or reduce or remit, in the whole of Bengal or in any part thereof, all or any of the fees mentioned in the first and second schedules to this Act annexed and may in like manner cancel or vary such order.

Power to suspend, reduce or remit fees.

(2) The Local Government may from time to time by rules prescribe the manner in which any fee the payment of which is suspended under sub-section (1) may be realised and for this purpose direct that such fee may be recovered as a public demand.”]

36. Nothing in Chapters II and V of this Act

Saving of fees to certain officers of High Courts, applies to the commission payable to the Accountant-General of the High Court at Fort William, or to the fees which any officer of a High Court is allowed to receive in addition to a fixed salary.

SCHEDULE I

[Ad Valorem Fees.]

Number.		Proper Fee.
1. Plaint [written statement pleading a set-off or counter-claim] or memorandum of appeal (not otherwise provided for in this Act) [or of cross-objection] (in any suit between landlord and tenant for an arrear of rent—added in C. P.) presented to any Civil or Revenue Court except those mentioned in section 3 (in suits other than those provided in Art. 1—Art. 1-A—added in C. P.)	When the amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute does not exceed five rupees, when such amount or value exceeds five rupees, for every five rupees, or part thereof, in excess of five rupees, up to one hundred rupees, when such amount or value exceeds one hundred rupees, for every ten rupees, or part thereof, in excess of one hundred rupees, up to one thousand rupees, when such amount or value exceeds one thousand rupees, for every one hundred rupees, or part thereof, in excess of one thousand rupees, up to five thousand rupees, when such amount or value exceeds five thousand rupees, for every two hundred and fifty rupees, or part thereof, in excess of five thousand rupees, upto ten thousand rupees, when such amount or value exceeds ten thousand rupees, for every five hundred rupees or part there-	Six annas. Six annas. Twelve annas. Five rupees. Ten rupees.

	of, in excess of ten thousand rupees, up to twenty thousand rupees,	Fifteen rupees.
	when such amount or value exceeds twenty thousand rupees, for every one thousand rupees, or part thereof, in excess of twenty thousand rupees, upto thirty thousand rupees,	Twenty rupees.
	when such amount or value exceeds thirty thousand rupees, for every two thousand rupees, or part thereof, in excess of thirty thousand rupees, up to fifty thousand rupees,	Twenty rupees.
	when such amount or value exceeds fifty thousand rupees, for every five thousand rupees or part thereof, in excess of fifty thousand rupees:	Twenty-five rupees.
	Provided that the maximum fee leviable on a plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be three thousand rupees.

NOTES.

N.B.—This rate of fees applies to those provinces where the rates have not been changed by Amending Acts.

Change in law.—The words “written statement pleading a set-off or counter-claim” after the word “plaint” and the words “or of cross objection” after the bracket, were substituted by section 155 and Schedule 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908).

Local Amendments.—This Article has been amended in Bengal (by Bengal Act IV of 1922), in Madras (by Madras Act V of 1922), in Bombay (by Bombay Act II of 1932), in B. & O. (by B. & O. Act I of 1922), in Punjab by Punjab Act VII of 1922 as amended by Punjab Acts I and VI of 1925, in U. P. by U. P. Act III of 1932 and in C. P. by C. P. Act XVI of 1935.

See the Tables of Rates of ad valorem fees for each province, vide the Appendices, infra.

Fees payable in suits instituted and decided by Union Courts under the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919 (B. C. Act V of 1919):—

Sec. 90. (1) In all suits instituted in and decided by a Union Court a fee of one anna in the rupee shall be payable on the amount of the claim upto twenty-five rupees, and an additional fee of half-an-anna for every rupee of the claim above twenty-five rupees.

(2) If the claim be decreed in full, the fee shall be realized from the judgment debtor together with the amount decreed.

(3) If the amount be decreed in part, the fee shall be realized pro rata from the decree-holder and the judgment-debtor.

(4) If the suit be dismissed, the fee shall be realized from the plaintiff.

(5) All such fees realized by the Union Court shall be credited to the Union fund and shall not be paid to either party. N.B.—But this section has been proposed to be amended in 1935.

Note.—Under this Article the court-fees payable on a memorandum of appeal or cross objection is to be assessed ad valorem on the value of the subject-matter in dispute; but as regards plaints the amounts of the court-fees payable are to be calculated under section 7 of the Court Fees Act read with this Article.

Application.—Article 1 of Schedule I of the Court Fees Act applies only to those cases which are not otherwise provided for under the Act, Qyaunuddin v. Delhi Flour Mills Company, 47 Ind. Cas. 992.

Application of sec. 7 to appeals.—The principles contained in section 7 of Chapter III are applicable also to appeals before the High Court, Chunni Lal v. Sheo Charan Lal Lalman, 23 A.L.J. 725: 47 All. 756: 1925 A.I.R. 787 (Allahabad): 89 Ind. Cas. 122. Sec. 7 has no application to an appeal against a decree in a suit on a mortgage in which no amount is claimed. To such a case Sch. I, Art 1 of the Court Fees Act applies, Rama Krishna Reddi v. Kolla Kota Reddi, (1906) 30 Mad. 96.

Suits Valuation Act.—The provisions of section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act applies to suits as well as to appeals which arise out of these suits, Bai Varunda Lakshmi v. Bai Manegavri, 18 Bom. 207.

Scope.—Sch. I, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act does not stand by itself but is a supplement to s. 7 and other sections of the Act. Sec. 7 states the various processes by which the value in different suits is arrived at and the schedule then supplies the proper court-fees to those values payable either upon the plaint or memorandum of appeal. The value of a particular relief, ~~once~~ correctly found for the purpose of stamping the plaint in a suit, remains unchanged in subsequent stages of the suit. The value of the particular appeal remains the same whether the appeal is preferred against its refusal or its grant, Dhiraj Singh v. Rajaram, 6 N.L.R. 164.

Computation of duty payable on probate or Letters of Administration.—We are bound to read the schedules together with the Act. On a construction of the Court Fees Act, 1870, no duty is payable in respect of a grant of probate or letters of administration where the value of the estate, after making the deductions specified in annexure B of the third schedule, is less than Rs. 1,000, In the goods of Mrs. Meik, 40 All. 279 (281).

Method of calculation.—In determining the amount of court-fee payable, the sole question to be considered is what is the "subject-matter" of the suit. In cases where the plaintiff is bound to ask for possession, ad valorem court-fees under section 7, paragraph 5 are to be paid, Syed Mahamed Gouse v. Government, 1925 M.W.N. 252: 48 M.L.J. 571: 88 Ind. Cas. 209: 22 L.W. 163: 1925 A.I.R. 804 (Mad.).

Subject-matter.—The words "subject-matter in dispute" refer to matters in dispute in appeals and the provisions of section 7, paragraph (ix) applies to suits and not to appeals, Reference under the Court Fees Act, 29 Mad. 367: 16 M.L.J. 287. See also Krishnama Chariar v. Srinivasa Ayyangar, 4 Mad. 339 (valuation of a charge).

Where the subject-matter of suit and the subject-matter of appeal are the same, the amount or value of subject-matter is nothing more than the value of the property which the plaintiff is seeking to recover or retain, Sohan Lal v. Sardar Khan, 16 P.W.R. 1916: 25 P.R. 1916: 32 Ind. Cas. 121.

The term subject-matter is obviously not to be confined and applied only to what is capable of valuation in money. There are many suits which are incapable of such valuation, for example, suits for restitution of conjugal rights, suits for precedence in ceremonial worship, and so on. The test simply is, what is the nature of the relief sought, Vasireddi Veeramma v. Butchayya, 50 Mad. 646 (649): 52 M.L.J. 381: 25 L.W. 440: 101 I.C. 379: 1927 A.I.R. 563 (Mad.).

The amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute in a cross objection as to costs only, must be read as amount or value of the sum claimed as costs, Ma Shin v. Maung Shwe Hnit, 1925 A.I.R. 145 (R.): 2 Ran. 637: 3 Bur.L.J. 279: 85 Ind. Cas. 257.

The subject-matter in an appeal against a joint decree for mesne profits against several defendants is the whole of the decretal amount as the liability of the several defendants cannot be split up, Dhanukdhari Prasad v. Ramadhikari, 12 Pat. 188: 13 P.L.T. 810: 142 I.C. 617: 1933 A.I.R. 81 (Pat.): 1933 I.R. 162 (Pat.).

Ad valorem court-fee is payable on the amount for which the appellant sought to avoid liability, or on the amount by which he sought to enhance the value of his decree, on the principle that the case is governed by Art. 1, Sch. I, Court Fees Act, which prescribes that a memorandum of appeal must bear a court-fee stamp calculated on the value of the subject-matter in dispute in appeal. The rule applies to all appeals from decisions determining the amount of mesne profits, whether the profits may have accrued before suit, or after the institution of the suit, Sideshwari Prasad and others v. Ram Kumar Rai, 12 Patna 694: 1933 A.I.R. 234 (P.): 14 P.L.T. 180: 144 I.C. 684.

But if the appeal embodies a prayer which cannot be valued then the appeal comes under Article 17, clause (vi), Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, and Rs. 10 is payable, Ram Jawaya v. Debi Ditta Mal, 107 P.W.R. 1916: 117 P.R. 1916: 34 Ind. Cas. 192.

Court-fees on appeal against part.—It was not contemplated by the legislature that the court-fees payable on part of the whole claim in appeal, is in the absence of express direction to the contrary to exceed the court-fees payable on the whole claim, Hazari Singh v. Piran, 92 P.R. 1900; Harbhagwan v. Amar Singh, 5 Lah. 137: 83 I.C. 332: 1924 A.I.R. 530 (Lahore).

An appellant is entitled to pay diminished court-fee by attacking the whole of the decree, in an appeal from a decree in a pre-emption suit, while in reality the subject-matter of appeal is a part of the decree requiring increased court-fees, Nazar Muhammad v. Kala Ram, 9 Lah. 563: 113 I.C. 538.

A party can appeal from the whole decree when obviously his intention was to appeal against a part only, in order to avoid payment of a larger amount of court-fees, as the Court Fees Act does not prohibit it, Harlal v. Siri Ram, 32 P.L.R. 591: 134 I.C. 124: 1931 A.I.R. 633 (Lah.): 1931 I.R. 892 (Lah.).

Appeal as to a part—Cross objection not filed.—Where the plaintiff has obtained a decree for a portion of his claim and has appealed for relief in respect of the remainder, the defendant, who has not taken statutory steps to assail the decree in so far as it is adverse to him, should not be allowed to contend that not only the appeal by the plaintiff but the entire suit should be dismissed, Akimannessa v. Bepin Behary, 22 C.L.J. 397 (399): 20 C.W.N. 544: 32 Ind. Cas. 499.

Valuation of appeal.—The court-fee payable on an appeal, is to be calculated upon the valuation of the subject-matter of the suit arrived at by the lower Court, Surendra Narain Sinha v. Hafijur Rahman, 30 Ind. Cas. 379.

The value of an appeal is the value of the relief granted by the decree which a party wishes to get rid of; and in a claim for possession the value is to be determined under section 7, para (v) of the Court Fees Act. In re G. B. Seethayamma, 42 Mad. 652: 47 M.L.J. 919: 21 L.W. 15: 85 I.C. 405: 1925 A.I.R. 323 (M.). See also In re Parkodi Achi, 45 Mad. 246: 41 M.L.J. 587: 1921 M.W.N. 854: 68 I.C. 444: 1922 A.I.R. 211 (M.).

The proper method of determining court-fee payable on a memorandum of appeal is to find out the value of the relief granted which is sought to be got rid of, Mithomal v. Bashomal, 116 I.C. 110: 1929 A.I.R. 161 (Sind).

The defendant appealing against the whole decree is bound by the valuation made in the plaint by the plaintiff, Dhupati Srinivasa Charlu v. A. Periandevamma, 39 Mad. 725: 30 M.L.J. 402: 33 I.C. 602 F.B.

In a suit against a Matwalli of a Mosque "the defendant may not have any personal interest at all and yet the subject matter of appeal may be as valuable as the subject-matter of suit" and the High Court ordered the defendant to stamp the memorandum of appeal with the same amount of court-fees as on the plaint, Mohamed Masik v. Malkai M. Ugwa Budshah Mehala Shaheba, 10 Cal. 380.

Valuation for suits and appeals is to be constant and the valuation of a particular relief in appeal remains unchanged whether the appeal be against the grant or refusal of the relief in the lower Court, Dhiraj Singh v. Rajaram (1910) 6 N.L.R. 164: 8 I.C. 1125; Shiwa Kunbi v. Dashrath, 147 I.C. 1113.

The appellant appealing against a decree in a suit for recovery of possession and for antecedent mesne profits, is bound to value the appeal at the same amount at which the subject-matter was valued by the plaintiff in the first Court, Deonandan Misra v. Ganga Prasad and others, 8 Patna 906: 10 P.L.T. 622: 120 I.C. 313: 1929 A.I.R. 731 (Patna).

The defendant appealing against a decree in a suit for money to be determined on examination of accounts, is to pay ad valorem court-fees on the valuation made in the plaint. The defendant appellant cannot evade payment by pleading that he only wants a declaration in the appeal stage, Pochalal Ranchhod and other v. Umedram Kalidas, and another, 52 Bom. 904: 30 Bom.L.R. 1284: 115 I.C. 391: 1928 A.I.R. 476 (Bom.), dissented from in Vershi Kanji v. Kaku Kanji, 37 Bom.L.R. 148: 1935 A.I.R. 212 (Bom.), on the question of valuation only.

The appeal is to be valued on the same principle as the plaint was valued, Abdul Rahman v. A. B. Crisp, 126 I.C. 645: 1930 A.I.R. 164 (Ran.): 1930 I.R. 325 (Ran.).

The defendant in appealing against a decree which found the liability to exist as also in a case where the liability is denied for a portion of the claim, must accept the valuation of the plaintiff and pay court-fees accordingly, Phulartand Coal Co. v. Burrakar Coal Co., 11 P.L.T. 629: 128 I.C. 795: 1930 A.I.R. 605 (P.): 1931 I.R. 59 (P.). See also Batna Ram v. Rahmatullah, 32 P.L.R. 62: 131 I.C. 337: 1931 A.I.R. 143 (Lah.). See also Faizullah Khan v. Mauladad Khan, (1929) 56 I.A. 232: 10 Lah. 737: 31 Bom.L.R. 841: 33 C.W.N. 781: 50 C.L.J. 39: 57 M.L.J. 281: 30 L.W. 104: 1929 M.W.N. 818: 117 I.C. 493: 1929 A.I.R. 147 (P.C.) where the Judicial Committee in a case of accounts considered that the payment of court-fees only on the amount found due to the defendant in the final decree, may not only be full (i.e., involving the claim of the plaintiff and the amount found due to the defendant) but also largely in excess.

Reduction of claim and value.—The appellant cannot reduce the value of the suit for the first time in appeal to escape the payment of court-fees, Harbans Sahu v. Lalmoni Kuer, 62 Ind. Cas. 36: 1922 A.I.R. 62 (Patna). The defendant in his appeal should not depart from the original valuation by the plaintiff when the subject-matter continues to be identical, Samiya Mavali v. Minammal, 23 Mad. 490: 10 M.L.T. 240.

But in Chuni Lal v. Sheo Charan Lal Lalman, 23 A.L.J. 725: 47 All. 756: 89 I.C. 122: 1925 A.I.R. 787 (A.), the Allahabad High Court allowed the defendant appellant to put in a reduced valuation on the memorandum of appeal in a suit for dissolution of partnership when the lower appellate Court decided against the defendants and directed accounts to be taken. The High Court held, that "in cases where the valuation has of necessity to be arbitrary and tentative, the person who has to present a petition or plaint or appeal and who is called upon to pay the necessary court-fee will have to fix the valuation and unless the Court is of opinion that the valuation has been put down fraudulently, it will be difficult not to accept the valuation so made."

A defendant appellant, if he has paid sufficient court-fees, is not bound by the incorrect statement of value by the plaintiff in the trial Court. He may be allowed to correct the valuation, Bhagwan Puri v. The Secretary of State for India in Council, 49 All. 398: 25 All.L.J. 258: 100 I.C. 35: 1927 A.I.R. 308 (Allahabad).

There is nothing to debar the appellant from relinquishing a part of his claim and to claim the rest paying proper court-fee stamp on the memorandum of appeal on the claim as reduced in appeal, Karam Chand v. The Jullunder Bank Ltd., in liquidation, etc., 102 I.C. 705: 1927 A.I.R. 543 (Lah.): 29 Punj.L.R. 64.

The valuation of a suit under the former Court Fees Act may be altered in appeal under the provisions of the existing Court Fees Act which repealed the former Act, Mt. Bhugabutty Koer v. Mt. Kustoori Koer, 15 W.R. 272.

The plaintiff or an appellant may reduce his claim and thereby reduce the amount of court-fees payable provided under the circumstances of the case such a course is permissible. The result will be that in so far as he submits to the decree appealed against the decree becomes final and court-fee need only to be paid on the remainder, i.e., the disputed amount, Ramchand v. Panna Lal, 27 A.L.J. 547: 1929 A.I.R. 308 (All.): 116 I.C. 82.

A pauper appellant may reduce his claim after rejection of his application to sue forma pauperis, and pay court-fees on the diminished valuation. No question of mala fides arises in such a case, Rajendra Prosad Bose v. Gopal Prosad Sen, 9 Pat.L.T. 613.

A Court can allow a plaintiff-appellant to give unnecessary reliefs and limit his claim, In re Nanda Lal Mookherjee, 35 C.W.N. 942; Jai Dayal v. Narain Das, 32 P.L.R. 854. In Amir Shah v. Syed Shah Mahomed, 32 P.L.R. 129: 131 I.C. 297: 1931 A.I.R. 237 (Lah.): 1931 I.R. 425 (Lah.) the Lahore High Court allowed the plaintiff in a pre-emption appeal to reduce the valuation and held that the District Court should have decreed the appeal for the portion within the amount of court-fees paid.

Rejection of plaint or memorandum of appeal.—An appeal from an order rejecting a plaint for non-compliance with an order to pay additional court-fees is capable of valuation and the subject-matter is the same as in the original suit and the same court-fee is payable on the memorandum of appeal as on the plaint, Ganpati v. Venkatesh and others, 1935 A.I.R. 83 (Nag.). F.B.

Decree for a higher amount.—Insufficient court-fee.—An appellant Court cannot pass a decree for a larger amount than that claimed in the memorandum of appeal, unless before the judgment is pronounced, an amendment of the memorandum of appeal is allowed and additional court-fees put in, Percival v. Collector of Chittagong, 30 Cal. 576. In Ram Doolal v. Gopal Kristo, 16 W.R. 156, the Calcutta High Court refused to pass a full decree because full court-fees were not paid but passed a simple declaratory decree.

Where an appeal for recovery of money and interest thereon due on bahi accounts, is not properly stamped, the appeal cannot be dismissed in toto but a decree for a larger amount in excess of the sum for which court-fees have been paid cannot be passed, Firm Nihal Chand Atma Ram v. Sardari Mal, 96 I.C. 136: 1926 A.I.R. 558 (Lah.).

A memorandum of appeal was properly stamped when presented and a judgment was passed in the appeal. It was then found that the appellant is entitled to a larger amount than that on which he has paid court-fees, held that there is no provision in the Court Fees Act under which the appellant may be called upon to pay additional court-fees upon the amount found due under the directions contained in the judgment of the High Court. The judgment having been passed the office cannot refuse to draw up the decree in terms of the judgment without payment of any additional court-fee, Debi Lal Sahu v. Gossain Koleshar Gir and others, 8 P.L.T. 331: 105 I.C. 395: 1928 A.I.R. 58 (Pat.).

Change of character of suit in appeal.—A suit for partition was instituted on a plaint bearing a ten rupee court-fee. The trial Court in deciding the issue as to court-fees and possession several months before the trial of the suit commenced decided that ad valorem court-fees are payable, upon which the plaintiff paid ad valorem court-fees but did not amend the plaint. At the hearing of the suit the defendants objected that the trial cannot commence on the plaint as it is drawn up. An application was filed to amend the plaint which did not contain all the necessary elements to convert the suit into a suit for recovery of possession. The trial Court dismissed the suit. The order was upheld by the High Court, Rebati Ramon Basak and others v. Harish Chandra Basak and others, 24 C.W.N. 749: 58 I.C. 665. See also Haladhar Pal Chowdhury v. Sheikh Mangal Reza, 34 C.W.N. 217: 126 I.C. 777: 1930 A.I.R. 793 (Cal.) where in a suit for possession by tenants, the landlord was held to be appealing as if it was a declaratory suit.

The defendant appellant cannot evade payment of court-fees in an appeal from a decree in an account suit by pleading that he only requires a declaration at the appeal stage, Pochalal Ranchhod v. Umedram Kalidas, 52 Bom. 904: 30 Bom.L.R. 1284: 115 I.C. 391: 1928 A.I.R. 476 (Bom.).

Proper appeal Court.—In order to determine the proper appellate Court what has to be looked is the value of the original suit, i.e., the amount or value of the subject-matter of the suit. The word "value" must be taken to be the value assigned by the plaintiff in his plaint and not the value as found by the Court unless it appears that either purposely or through gross negligence, the true value has been altogether misrepresented by the plaintiff, Muhammad Abdul Majid v. Ala Bux alias Allan, 47 All. 534: 23 A.L.J. 216: 86 I.C. 1055: 1925 A.I.R. 376 (All.). See also Chuni Lal v. Tricamdas Ramdas, 1926 A.I.R. 81 (Nag.): 89 I.C. 407.

The plaintiff in a suit for accounts approximately valued the relief for accounts at Rs. 1,100, but on accounts being taken the amount was found to be over Rs. 1,100, held that the amount found by the trial Court to be due to the plaintiff and not the amount at which the plaintiff approximately valued the suit, was the criterion for determining the forum of the appeal, Budho Mal v. Rallia Ram and others, 9 Lahore 23: 9 L.W.N. 1: 29 P.L.R. 320: 110 I.C. 631: 1928 A.I.R. 157 (L.).

Account suit.—Appeal valuation.—When the defendant appeals from the whole decree in a suit for accounts, he is found by the valuation by the plaintiff in the plaint, Damodara Padhano v. Haribandhu Patnaick, 1921 M.W.N. 558: 70 Ind. Cas. 392: 14 L.W. 389.

The defendant-appellant in an appeal arising out of a preliminary decree in a suit for accounts can put his own valuation on the memorandum and need not accept the valuation made in the plaint by the plaintiff. (In this case the defendant-appellant did not question the liability but objected as to the period for which he is liable), Kanhaiya Lal v. Seth Ram Sarup, 44 All. 542: 20 A.L.J. 416: (1922) A.I.R. 228 (All.), approving Bholanath v. Parsottam Das, 32 All. 517: 7 A.L.J. 546: 6 I.C. 832; Thakur Das v. Daulat Ram, 1926 A.I.R. 189 (Lahore): 91 I.C. 32: 26 P.L.R. 825.

Where the plaintiff in an account suit valued the relief prayed for at a certain amount and obtained a preliminary decree for accounts and the defendant thereupon filed an appeal against the whole decree, he is bound by the valuation made in the plaint, Dhupati Srinivasa Charlu v. A. Perindevamma, 39 Mad. 725: 30 M.L.J. 402: 33 Ind. Cas. 602 F.B.

The approximate valuation by the plaintiff in a suit for accounts must be adhered to in an appeal from the preliminary decree, unless the subject-matter of appeal is not identical with that of the suit, and in the latter class of cases the appellant can value the subject-matter of appeal in a different way and pay court-fees on that basis, Mahomed Rahmoo Mowji v. Ibrahim Gangaji, 21 S.L.R. 377: 98 I.C. 909: 1927 A.I.R. 100 (Sind); Shivandas Matumal v. Hariman, 27 S.L.R. 335: 147 I.C. 251: 1933 A.I.R. 332 (Sind).

Appeal—valuation.—The defendant appealing against the final decree in a suit for accounts, is to value the appeal at the entire amount decreed against him and cannot put an arbitrary value, Sharfuddin v. M. Khadim Ali, 1934 A.L.J. 643: 150 I.C. 1090: 1934 A.I.R. 807 (All.): 4 A.W.R. 263; Kailash Chandra v. Narayan Chandra, 59 C.L.J. 447: 152 I.C. 97: 1934 A.I.R. 786 (Cal.).

The defendant in appealing against a decree in a suit for accounts, is not bound by the valuation by the plaintiff and may put his own valuation on the memorandum of appeal, C. K. Ummar v. Ali Ummar, 9 Ran. 165: 133 I.C. 91: 1931 A.I.R. 146 (Rang.): 1931 I.R. 235 (Rang.) F.B.

The defendant in appealing against a decree for rendition of accounts is bound by the valuation by the plaintiff and therefore must pay court-fees accordingly, Batua Ram v. Rahmatullah, 32 P.L.R. 62: 131 I.C. 337 (1): 1931 A.I.R. 143 (Lah.). See cases noted under section 7, paragraph (iv) (f), supra.

Dissolution of partnership.—In a suit for dissolution of partnership, the defendant appealed against the preliminary decree, pleading that they had no interest in the partnership, and that they sought only a declaration to that effect, held that appellants ought to pay an ad valorem court-fee according to the amount at which the relief was valued.

Mr. Justice Tudball said at page 522 of the report: "The fact that it is now compulsory on the appellant to appeal against the preliminary decree passed in such suits, does not affect the matter of court-fees in any way. Section 7 of the Court Fees Act distinctly lays down that the amount of court-fees payable shall be computed in suits for accounts according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or the memorandum of appeal. The language of the section seems to be quite plain whether the appeal be from a preliminary or a final decree. It seems to me to be impossible to hold otherwise than that an ad valorem court-fee should be paid according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the memorandum of appeal," In the matter of Bholanath v. Parsottam Das, 32 All. 517: 7 All.L.J. 546: 6 Ind. Cas. 832.

In an appeal from a preliminary decree in a suit for dissolution of partnership and taking of accounts, the memorandum of appeal should bear ad valorem court-fees on the valuation of the relief claimed in the plaint. A ten rupee court-fee is insufficient, Kanji Mal v. Panna Lal, 15 P.L.R. 1916: 7 P.R. 1915: 28 Ind. Cas. 262.

But see Chunni Lal v. Sheo Charan Lal Lalman, 23 A.L.J. 725: 47 All. 756: 1925 A.I.R. 787 (All.): 89 Ind. Cas. 122, supra.

A suit between partners for rendition of accounts was approximately valued at Rs. 3,000. The defendant claimed Rs. 29,000. The trial Court dismissed the suit but decreed the claim of the defendant to the extent of Rs. 29,000. The appeal against the decree was valued at Rs. 19,000 but court-fees on the entire sum including Rs. 3,000 was paid. Before the Judicial Commissioner it was argued that the item of Rs. 3,000 had gone and must be dismissed as a nullity. The Judicial Committee did not accept the view and pointed out that direction should have been given to lodge the extra amount if required or the question of the amount of court-fees should have deferred until final value was determined, Faizullah Khan v. Mauladad Khan and others, L.R. 56 I.A. 232: 10 Lah. 737: 31 Bom.L.R. 841: 33 C.W.N. 781: 50 C.L.J. 39: 57 M.L.J. 281: 30 L.W. 104: 1929 M.W.N. 818: 117 I.C. 493: 1929 A.I.R. 147 (P.C.).

The defendant appellant in an appeal from a decree against him in a suit for accounts of a partnership business, can put a notional valuation on the subject-matter of the appeal, but if the appellate Court after hearing and consideration of the appeal comes to the conclusion in favour of the appellant in respect of a far larger amount than that he has paid court-fees for, the proper thing would be to post the case for orders and direct the appellant to pay additional court-fees and only then should the judgment be delivered and the decree should be allowed to be drawn up. In re Nukala Venkatanandan and others, 141 I.C. 602: 1933 A.I.R. 330 (Mad.).

It is open to the appellants in an appeal from a preliminary decree in a partnership suit to fix their own valuation provisionally for the purpose of court-fees, Binjraj and another v. Kisanlal and another, 1933 A.I.R. 127 (Nag.): 29 N.L.R. 34.

Winding up partnership.—A memorandum of appeal against a preliminary decree for winding up partnership business, need only to be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. Ten, the other questions relating to allowing or disallowing certain items being incidental, Ram Singh v. Ram Chand, 6 P.W.R. 1920: 1 Lah. 6: 9 P.L.R. 1920: 57 I.C. 185.

Execution against an alleged partner.—An appeal against an order refusing execution against an alleged partner of a firm is an appeal from a decree [Order 21, Rule 50 (2)] and should be stamped with court-fees calculated ad valorem on the claim, there being no notification under section 35 reducing the court-fees, Valliappa Chetty v. Rangaswamy Naicker, 8 L.B.R. 300: 35 Ind. Cas. 429. See also other cases under section 7 (iv) (f) supra and under the heading 'Civil Procedure Code' infra.

Award.—Application to file an Award.—See sections 89 and 104, C. P. C. (V of 1908) and Schedule II of that Act.

Where an award was made on a reference to arbitration without the intervention of Court and a decree was made that the plaintiff is entitled to a certain sum as awarded by the arbitration; held, that the order directing such an award to be filed has the force of a decree and consequently the memorandum of appeal ought to bear ad valorem court-fees calculated on the amount decreed as provided by Schedule I, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act, Hari Mohan Singh v. Kali Prasad Chaliha, 33 Cal. 11, followed in Maganlal Gopaldas v. Lalchand Hirachand, 9 Bom.L.R. 259; Khulam Khan v. Muhammad Hassan, 29 Cal. 167 P.C.; Wolee Alum v. Bibee Misrun, 3 B.L.R. Ap. 104: 12 W.R. 50; Daya Nand v. Bhaktawar Singh, 5 All. 333: 3 All. W.N. 56; Janki Tewari v. Gagan Tewari, 3 All. 427. But see Lurkhur Choubey v. Ram Bhajan Choubey, (1903) 23 All.W.N. 214; Bhagat Ram v. Paras Ram, 84 P.R. 1907: 184 P.L.R. 1908. [In both these cases it was held that ten rupees court-fee is payable under Art. 17, clause (iv) of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act and not ad valorem.]

Court-fees payable on a memorandum of appeal against a decree passed on reference to arbitration under Schedule II, para. 16, C. P. C. are ad valorem on the value of the appeal, Gouri Shanker v. Ananta Ram, 1926 A.I.R. 403 (Lah.): 94 I.C. 646.

The present Code of Civil Procedure by enacting s. 104 provides for an appeal from an order allowing an award made on a reference without the intervention of Court as an appeal from an order. Therefore the court-fees are to be paid under Art. 11, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, Ram Autar v. Ram Samujh, (1931) 6 Luck. 703.

An application to the 1st Court.—An application to the 1st Court to file an award is liable to be stamped with an 8 annas court-fee as on an application, Lala Dharam Das v. Ajudhia Pershad, 70 P.R. 1881.

An appeal against the decree of the trial Court over-ruling the plea of the defendant that other members of the family are also interested, requires a court-fee of rupees ten on the memorandum of appeal under Art. 17, (vi), Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, Kripal Singh v. Sant Singh, 71 P.R. 1911: 13 Ind. Cas. 305.

Civil Procedure Code.—Order 21, rule 50.—The memorandum of an appeal from an order under the provisions of Or. 21, Rule 50 (2) or (3), is to be stamped with ad valorem court-fees on the amount sought to be recovered as that order is a decree under the Code of Civil Procedure, Jugal Kishore Gulabsingh v. Dinanath Sri Ram, 126 I.C. 562: 1930 A.I.R. 825 (Lah.): 1930 I.R. 754 (Lah.); on appeal in 1934 A.I.R. 958 (Lah.): 35 P.L.R. 565: 15 Lah. 893; Bhutanath Ta and others

v. Barindra Nath Bhattacharya, 37 C.W.N. 227: 60 Cal. 530: 146 I.C. 123: 1933 A.I.R. 546 (Cal.): 6 I.R. 178 (Cal.); Sital Prasad v. Messrs. Clement Robson and Company, (1921) 43 All. 394 (397); Punjab National Bank Ltd. v. Ranchoredas Gordhandas and others, 25 S.L.R. 25: 127 I.C. 704: 1930 A.I.R. 255 (Sind): 1930 I.R. 320 (Sind); Valliappa Ghetty v. Rangaswamy Naicker, 8 L.B.R. 300: 35 I.C. 429.

Order 21, rule 95.—An order made on an application under Ord. 21, Rule 95 comes under s. 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure if the decree-holder is the auction-purchaser, Kailash Chandra Tarafdar v. Gopal Chandra Paddar, 53 Cal. 781: 30 C.W.N. 649: 43 C.L.J. 345: 95 I.C. 494: 1926 A.I.R. 798 (Cal.) F.B.

Where a person obstructed the execution of a decree and a decree was passed against him under section 330 (Or. 21, Rule 98), C. P. C., in an appeal by him the memorandum must be stamped with an ad valorem duty, Balasundra Mudelly v. Raja Lingam Chettier, 29 Mad. 172. (In this case the proceeding was registered as a suit).

Section 331.—Memorandum of appeal from decisions passed under section 331 (Order 21, Rule 99), C. P. C. are chargeable with full court-fees stamp as in the case of appeals from decrees, Mahbubani v. Umrao Begum, 8 Cal. 720: 11 C.L.R. 98.

Order 21, Rule 103.—In Shiva Kunbi v. Dashrath, 1933 A.I.R. 362 (Nag.), the Nagpore Court held that a suit under Or. 21, Rule 103, the proper court-fee is Rs. 10, under Sch. II, Art. 17, cl. (i) of the Court Fees Act, but the defendant appellant was ordered to pay higher court-fees as the plaintiff had to pay higher court-fees at his instance.

Order 41, Rule 33.—The powers conferred on Court by Order 41, Rule 33 should be cautiously exercised and should not be permitted to be invoked in favour of a litigant so as to enable him to evade the provisions of other statutes, e.g., the Limitation Act and the Court Fees Act, Akimannessa v. Bepin Behary, 22 C.L.J. 399: 20 C.W.N. 544: 32 I.C. 499; Abjal Majhe and others v. Intu Bepari and others, 22 C.L.J. 394: 20 C.W.N. 542. See also Rangam Lal v. Jhandu, 34 All. 32 F.B.

But the above cases were doubted in Bhutnath Deb v. Sashimukhi Brahmani, 30 C.W.N. 885 (888): 45 C.L.J. 119 (123).

Section 332B, C. P. C.—See 3rd Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908).

Under paragraph 6 of that schedule the appeals from decisions regarding the extent of liability of a judgment-debtor to a claim preferred against him, must be stamped with ad valorem.

court-fees as an appeal from a decree, Ahmadkhan v. Madho Das, 7 All. 565: (1885) 4 All. W.N. 99. See contra, Srinivasa v. Peria Tamb, 4 Mad. 420.

Condition.—Appeal against (see under heading 'Decree with a Condition' infra).

Cost.—Court-fees are not payable on costs as costs are not subject-matters of suit, Doorga Das Chowdhury v. Romanath Choudhury, 8 M.I.A. 262, i.e., it being in the discretion of the Court to grant or not to grant it; Nilmadhav Das v. Bishumbhar Das, 13 M.I.A. 85 (103): 3 B.L.R. 27 P.C. A party appealing from a decree disposing of the whole claim need not pay court-fees on the costs awarded in the decree, Beni Prasad v. Raja Ram, 37 P.L.R. 50: 1935 A.I.R. 379 (Lah.). But if relief as to costs form a distinct and independent ground in the memorandum the court-fee ad valorem on costs is payable on the value of such distinct relief, In re Makki, 19 Mad. 350: 4 M.L.J. 148; Kewal Singh v. Makrand Singh, 12 O.C. 171: 3 I.C. 584. Where an appeal as to costs is distinct and separate from other parts of the appeal, court-fees must be paid ad valorem on the costs in dispute, T. K. Rawlins v. Lachmi Narain, 3 Pat.L.J. 443: (1918) Pat. C.W.N. 264: 44 Ind. Cas. 50: 4 Pat. L.W. 221; Debendra Mohan Rai v. Sona Kuar, 21 All. W.N. 21; Krishnaji v. Babaji, 1891, P.J. 52; Valiram and another v. Karachi Bank and others, 23 S.L.R. 277: 104 I.C. 391: 1927 A.I.R. 251 (S.); Fateh Singh v. Manj Rai, 1934 A.I.R. 739 (Lah.): 35 P.L.R. 656.

The defendants seeking to recover costs disallowed to them by the trial Court are bound to pay court-fees according to the amount under Sch. I, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act as costs are subject-matter in dispute between the parties, Kamakhyia Narain Singh v. Ramraj Singh and others, 8 Patna 543: 1929 A.I.R. 286 (Patna): 117 I.C. 166.

Appeal as to costs out of a suit for partition.—The memorandum of an appeal against costs only in a suit for partition need only bear a court-fee under Art. 17 (vi) of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act, Raja Jyoti Prasad Singh Deo v. Jogendra Ram Ray, 56 Cal. 188: 32 C.W.N. 1105: 116 I.C. 383: 1928 A.I.R. 878 (Cal.).

Cross objection as to costs.—There is apparently no provision made in the Court Fees Act, 1870, for the case of a petition of objection by the respondent under section 561 (Order 41, Rule 22) of the Code of Civil Procedure where such objection relates to costs only and the appellant appeals against the whole decree, Hasan Bano v. Nizabuddin, (1893) 13 All.W.N. 55. A memorandum of cross objection filed in the High Court relating to costs only does not fall either under Art. 11 of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act or Art. 1, Schedule I of the same Act but is to be treated as a petition and comes under clause (d) of Article I of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act and a court-fee of rupees two is payable thereon, Kamal Kamini Debi v. Rangpore North Bengal Bank, Ltd., 25 C.W.N. 934: 64 Ind. Cas. 606.

Contra.—A memorandum of cross objection as to costs only must be stamped ad valorem for the amount of costs claimed, Ma Shin v. Maung Shwe Hnit, 2 Ran. 637: 3 Bur.L.J. 279: 1925 A.I.R. 145 (R.): 85 I.C. 257. See also Sharoda Soonduree v. Govind Monee, 24 W.R. 179; Babaji Hari v. Raja Ram, 4 Bom. 75.

The provisions of Art. 1 of Schedule I of the Court Fees Act govern a memorandum of cross objection relating to costs, Nihal Chand v. Amar Nath, 8 L.L.J. 434: 98 I.C. 272: 1926 A.I.R. 645 (Lah.); see other cases under costs, supra.

A memorandum of cross objection as to costs is to bear ad valorem court-fees, Chiranji Lal v. Balchand, 53 All. 1020: 1930 A.L.J. 1907: 128 I.C. 780: 1930 A.I.R. 832 (All.): 1931 I.R. 108 (All.).

Cross objection.—Section 16 of the Court Fees Act having been repealed by Sch. V of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908) the court-fees necessary must be paid at the time of filing the cross objection.

To be stamped in the same way as an appeal.—Cross objection must be stamped as a memorandum of appeal, Sayad Amir Saheb v. Sheikh Masleudin, 40 Bom. 541. (Suit under section 92, C. P. C.).

The memorandum of cross objection stands in the same position, for some purposes at least, as a memorandum of appeal under Art. 1, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act as amended by Act V of 1908, and the court-fees must be paid in the same manner as on a memorandum of appeal. Although the appellant may have paid more than adequate court-fees on the memorandum of appeal, it is incumbent on the respondent to value the memorandum of cross-objection, Secretary of State for India v. Digambar Nanda, 27 C.L.J. 443: 45 Ind. Cas. 939. Under Sch. I, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act, 1870, a cross-objection must bear ad valorem court-fees on the value of the subject-matter, Daroga Rout v. Musst. Parema Kuar, 3 Pat.L.J. 197: 4 Pat. L.W. 38: 45 I.C. 508; Syed Wasi Ali v. Jung Bahadur Singh, 18 O.C. 121.

A cross objection must bear court-fees calculated on the value of the subject-matter in dispute, but where the value is not capable of being estimated in money, the valuation placed on the cross objection by the party presenting the same must be accepted, if such valuation is not unreasonable, Sri Rajeo Lochan Maharaj v. Mahant Ram Manohar Prosad, 25 O.C. 275: 70 Ind. Cas. 286: 1923 A.I.R. 44 (Oudh).

A memorandum of cross objection should bear ad valorem court-fees and not as under Schedule II, Art. 17 of the Court Fees Act as the word 'cross objection' occurs in Sch. I, Art. 1 and not in Sch. II, Art. 17 of the Court Fees Act, Harnoun Singh v. Bahu Rani, 10 O.W.N. 1202: 1933 A.I.R. 528 (Oudh): 147 I.C. 186.

In Balak Ram High School, Panipat v. Nannu Lal, (1930) 11 Lahore 503: 31 P.L.R. 509: 128 I.C. 532: 1930 A.I.R. 579 (Lah.): 1931 I.R. 68 (Lah.) it was held that the direction by the trial Court that if the sum of Rs. 50,000 lying in deposit with a firm could not be realised then it should be realised from the estate of the testator in the hands of the plaintiff, does not create a definite charge on the estate, therefore a cross objection relating to this order falls within Sch. II, Art. 17 (vi) of the Court Fees Act and may be stamped accordingly.

A cross objection in a declaratory suit where no other relief is asked for does not require ad valorem court-fees, but is sufficiently stamped on court-fee as prescribed under Art. 17 (iii), Sch. II of the Court Fees Act as the omission of the word 'cross objection' from that Article is a mere clerical error, Surendra Singh v. Gambir Singh, 1934 A.L.J. 743: 3 A.W.R. 803: 152 I.C. 196: 1934 A.I.R. 728 (All.).

Cross objection as to removal of a condition.—A cross objection filed objecting to a condition precedent imposed by the decree, is to bear ad valorem court-fees, on the amount ordered to be paid, Ishdat Tewari v. Tameshwar Tiwari, 45 All. 537: 1924 A.I.R. 175 (All.): 83 I.C. 780.

Cross objection in appeals arising out of mortgage suits.—If the object in filing a cross objection be to set aside a mortgage then the memorandum is to be stamped with court-fees ad valorem on the value of the mortgage, Sat Deo Narain v. Ramayan, 52 Ind. Cas. 1002. If the object of filing the cross objection be to set aside the decree of the lower Court exempting certain mortgaged properties from sale, the memorandum of cross objection is to be stamped with a court-fee calculated ad valorem on the value of the property and not on the mortgage amount decreed, Kachera v. Kharag Singh, 33 All. 20: 7 All. L.J. 842: 7 Ind. Cas. 315; Kesavarappu v. Kotta Kota, 30 Mad. 96: 16 M.L.J. 458: F.B. followed.

Cross objection in redemption suits.—Cross objection in appeals arising out of redemption suits must be stamped ad valorem on the amount by which the decretal amount is sought to be reduced, Mansa Ram v. Umra, 213 P.L.R. 1911: 134 P.W.R. 1911: 11 Ind. Cas. 198; Harihar Baksh Singh v. Lachhman Singh, 11 O.W.N. 559: 1934 A.I.R. 246 (Oudh).

Cross objection in appeals arising out of partition suits.—Under Article 1, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act, 1870, a party filing cross objections must pay ad valorem court-fees according to the value or amount of the subject-matter in dispute in a partition suit. The High Court said that this is a hardship which can be remedied only by legislature and not by the High Court, Lakhan Singh v. Ram Kishen Das, 40 All. 93: 15 All. L.J. 886: 43 Ind. Cas. 179.

[But according to the Calcutta High Court the value of partition suit is the value of the entire property sought to be partitioned and ten rupees are paid as stamp as the subject-matter is incapable of valuation; it does not appear how it is capable of valuation when a cross objection is filed. The above ruling, therefore, cannot apply to Calcutta High Court.]

Cross objection as to possession.—A memorandum of cross objection claiming possession of property should be stamped ad valorem on the value of the property and is not to be stamped according to section 7, para. v, Bishen Sahai v. Chhotey Lal, 1925 A.I.R. 119 (All.): 85 I.C. 270: 22 All.L.J. 911: 47 All. 89.

Note.—The notifications of the Government of India reducing fees would also apply to cross objections unless those notifications specially mention plaints or memoranda of appeal.

Deficiency of court-fees in cross objection filed in the lower Court.—The High Court has an inherent power to realise deficiency of court-fees in cross objection filed by respondent in the lower appellate Court, on appeal preferred by one of the defendants only, even if the appellant to the High Court may not object to that part of the decree of the lower appellate Court which disallowed his cross objection although the Court had not before it the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, Rasik Behary Pal Chowdhury v. Hriday Narain, (1922) Pat. C.W.N. 162: I.L.R. 1 Patna 471: 66 Ind. Cas. 769.

Note.—The memorandum of cross objection would be a document within the meaning of sections 4, 6 and 28 of the Court Fees Act, and therefore section 28 of the Court Fees Act would be applicable.

Objections to findings.—In a case where the decree was in favour of the defendant, and upon an appeal being filed by the plaintiff against that decree, the defendant filed objections to certain findings in the judgment against him and paid a court-fee of 8 annas, held, that the court-fee was sufficient in as much as the objections were not cross objections within the meaning of Order 41, Rule 22 of the Code of Civil Procedure and what the respondent was seeking to do was to support the judgment of the lower Court, Bhajan Lal v. Chahat Rai, 15 All. L.J. 325: 39 Ind. Cas. 279.

Where the decree of the lower Court is entirely in favour of the respondents and it totally dismissed the suit by the plaintiff, the respondents could support the decree on any ground they like, and if with that purpose they filed a petition stating grounds upon which they supported the decree, that is not a cross objection for which an ad valorem court-fee is payable, Ram Prosad Kakwar v. Musst. Ajanasia, 44 All. 577: 68 Ind. Cas. 861.

Petition by a respondent criticising the judgment is not a cross objection and hence not liable to stamp duty, Shahdeo Nath Deo v. Kusum, I.L.R. 1 Pat. 258. See also Damodar Prosad v. Masudan Singh, 105 I.C. 108.

A memorandum of objection filed under Order 41, Rule 26, C. P. C. is not an application, therefore no court-fees need be paid, Mahammad Salimullah Khan v. Khalil-ur-Rahaman Khan, (1932) 54 All. 465: 1932 A.L.J. 149: 140 I.C. 47: 1930 A.I.R. 526 (All.).

Decree.—Where a decree is obtained against a firm and execution is refused as against the alleged partner, the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with ad valorem court-fee under Art. 1, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act. In such cases Art. 11 of Schedule II does not apply, Valiappa Chetty v. Rangaswamy Naicker, 8 L.B.R. 300: 35 Ind. Cas. 429.

Decree with a condition.—Where a decree awards possession on condition that the plaintiff to pay all the encumbrances on the property, and the plaintiff appealed against that part of the decree which required him to pay the encumbrance, the court-fee payable on the memorandum of appeal must be ad valorem on the amount of such encumbrances, Kishen Dutt v. Kasi Pandey, 5 Pat.L.J. 455: 1 Pat.L.T. 738: 57 Ind. Cas. 481; Basdeo Ram v. Sri Krishna Gir, 13 O.C. 62: 5 Ind. Cas. 941.

The plaintiff obtained a decree for possession conditional upon the payment of a certain sum of money and on his failure to pay that sum, the decree would be null and void. If the plaintiff files an appeal against the condition, he must stamp his memorandum appeal with a court-fee calculated upon the sum decreed by the last Court, Pirbhu v. Soudagar, 33 P.R. 1884.

In a suit for possession of an area of land mortgaged by the predecessor-in-title without payment of any sum, the lower appellate Court decreed the suit on condition that the plaintiff can obtain possession after payment of Rs. 967 to the defendant in possession. On appeal to the High Court by the plaintiff-appellant, counsel for the respondent raised the question of court-fees. The High Court held, "the relief sought being the removal of this condition precedent, court-fees must be paid on the amount so fixed" and followed the decision of Wadhawa Singh v. Sunder Singh, 59 Ind. Cas. 607: 21 P.L.R. 1921; Tikkan Ram v. Bosa Ram, 67 Ind. Cas. 106 (Punjab). See also Ragha Sha v. Wajib Ali, 50 Ind. Cas. 353, where it was held that as the defendants were ordered to pay and not the plaintiffs, therefore in an appeal by the plaintiff the memorandum need only be stamped with a court-fee calculated ad valorem on five times the Government Revenue payable for the lands in dispute.

Where the appellant seeks to realise their property from a charge declared by the lower Court to be on the property, the memorandum of appeal should bear a court-fee ad valorem on the charge declared, Tharu Mal v. Chandra Ram, 11 P.R. 1916: 59 P.W.R. 1916. This is also the case in case of appeals by transferees on the ground that the property having been alienated before the date of mortgage, it is not liable, Sheoraja v. Debi Din, 5 O.L.J. 663: 48 Ind. Cas. 535.

Where the plaintiff sued for recovery of mortgage money by a sale of two properties but the trial Court ordered that one of the properties be proceeded with first and if the proceeds do not satisfy the decree then the second property be sold. Held, that as regards the condition the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with a court-fee of rupees 10 plus ad valorem court-fees on the amount disallowed, Ujagar Lal v. Mohan Kuar, (1886), 6 All.W.N. 312.

Where a decree grants relief on payment of a certain sum to the defendant the court-fees payable on the memorandum of appeal against so much of the decree as directs payment is ad valorem on the said sum irrespective of the nature of the suit, In re Parkodi Achi, 45 Mad. 246: 41 M.L.J. 587: 1921 M.W.N. 854: 14 L.W. 624: 68 I.C. 444: 1922 A.I.R. 211; Lekh Ram v. Ramji Das, I.L.R. 1 Lah. 234: 3 L.L.J. 370: 144 P.W.R. 1920: 57 I.C. 215; Balkishan Das and others v. Musst. Jendo, 108 I.C. 370: 10 L.L.J. 55.

Conditional decree in favour of reversioners.—Where the plaintiffs sued as reversioners and in the alternative prayed for redemption, and the trial Court ordered redemption on payment of certain sum but the plaintiff appealed on the ground that he is not liable to pay any sum. Held, that the memorandum of appeal should be stamped ad valorem on the amount they were ordered to pay, Mata Badal Singh v. Jai Singh, 15 Ind. Cas. 746.

In a suit for possession of property where the trial Court decreed the suit conditional upon plaintiff's paying a sum to the defendant and where the appeal is against that part of the decision which imposes the liability, the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with court-fees ad valorem on the amount from which the plaintiff-appellant seeks to escape liability. The value of the appeal in such cases is the value on the relief granted by the decree which the appellant wishes to get rid of, In re Porkodi Achi, 45 Mad. 246: 68 Ind. Cas. 444: 41 M.L.J. 587: 1921 M.W.N. 854: 14 L.W. 624: (1922) A.I.R. 211 (Madras).

Other conditions.—Where the plaintiff sued as transferee of certain properties from one Musst. Gomi, and for possession and obtained a decree limited to the life-time of Musst. Gomi and the plaintiff thereupon filed an appeal to the High Court to have this condition removed. Held, that the memorandum of appeal is properly stamped with a court-fee of rupees ten, Rup Chand v. Fateh Chand, 8 All. L.J. 821: 33 All. 705.

Alienation by manager of a joint Hindu family—conditional decree.—The plaintiff—a member of a joint Hindu family—sued for possession of half share of the family property alleging the same to have been improperly alienated by the manager, and the trial Court decreed the suit on condition of the plaintiff paying Rs. 12,000 to the alienee defendant. The defendant preferred an appeal claiming that the entire suit should have been dismissed in toto, held, that the appellant was bound to pay court-fees only on the value of the lands decreed to the plaintiff, such value to be ascertained in the manner prescribed by section 7, cl. v of the Court Fees Act. It was further held that if the plaintiff appealed on the ground that the amount he was ordered to pay, is too large then ad valorem court-fees are to be paid on the amount by which he wants that amount to be reduced, In re Ganapati Butchi, Seethayamma, 47 M.L.J. 919: 85 I.C. 405: 48 Mad. 652: 21 L.W. 15: 1925 A.I.R. 323 (M.).

Where a suit by a son for declaration that certain alienations by the father of a family governed by the Mitakshara Law of inheritance would not be binding on the reversionary interest, was decreed but a portion of the consideration money was declared a charge upon the property, held that the memorandum of appeal against the declaration of charge should be stamped as a declaratory relief as the memorandum of appeal need not bear a higher court-fee than the plaint, Harbhagwan v. Amar Singh, 5 Lah. 137: 83 I.C. 332: 1924 A.I.R. 530 (Lahore).

The plaint in a suit by a reversioner to prevent the holder of an inalienable estate, which the then holder is about to alienate requires ad valorem court-fees to be paid on it, although the court-fees payable would be Rs. 10 when the suit is instituted after the death of the holder, Pratap Singh v. Nanhelal and others, 110 I.C. 163: 1928 A.I.R. 243 (Nag.).

Conditional-redemption.—In a suit for the redemption of a mortgage the plaintiff obtained a decree for redemption conditional upon payment by him of a sum fixed in the decree. The plaintiff appealed upon the ground that such sum was in excess by a specified amount of the sum rightly payable by him for redemption. Held, that the court-fees payable on memorandum of appeal are to be calculated upon the amount which the appellant claims to be deducted from the decree and not as in the case of redemption, according to the principal sum secured by the mortgage, Nepal Rai v. Devi Prosad, (1905), 25 All. W.N. 40: 27 All. 447: 2 All.L.J. 105. Where in a foreclosure suit a decree was passed in favour of the plaintiff conditional upon his payment of rupees 5,914, 6 annas 5 pies and if the plaintiff-appellant wants to get rid of the condition imposed upon him by the trial Court he must pay court-fees ad valorem on the amount he is ordered to pay, Baji Lal v. Goverdhan Singh, 31 All. 265: 6 A.L.J. 155: 1 Ind. Cas. 100, see also Moti Begum v. Har Prasad, 16 All.L.J. 81: 47 Ind. Cas. 311 (claim for dower charged upon property) but in Ragha Sha v. Wajib Ali Shah and others, 50 Ind. Cas. 353, the Oudh Judicial Commissioner's Court held that the court-fees payable in a suit for possession, is under section 7, paragraph v although the lower Court may have allowed possession in case the defendants fail to redeem.

Two preliminary decrees.—The Court of 1st instance in a suit for redemption passed in effect two decrees. It first passed a decree declaring the plaintiff's right to redeem, which was denied by the defendants and against which the defendants filed an appeal and then while the appeal was pending, a second preliminary decree was passed deciding the amount for which redemption might take place. Against that decree the defendant also appealed. Held, that the two appeals are not to be regarded as separate appeals for the purpose of assessing court-fees but should be counted as one as there is no warrant for the procedure adopted by the lower Court in embodying in the form of a decree its decision on the question of the plaintiff's title to redeem. The Court should have gone on to ascertain the amount due and then, and not till then, have passed its decree and the public are not to be penalized for no fault of theirs to pay court-fees twice over, Lalta Prosad v. Sheoraj Sinha, 39 All. 452: 15 A.L.J. 464. See contra, Raja Peary Mohan v. Manohar in 27 C.W.N. 989 (991, 992): 38 C.L.J. 255: 74 I.C. 373, where the Calcutta High Court held, that if after passing of a preliminary decree where accounts were ordered to be taken, a further order is passed by the Court determining the period for which accounts are to be taken, such order is also a preliminary decree.

Appeal against the final decree during the pendency of the appeal against the preliminary decree.—The plaintiff valued the relief for recovery of land at Rs. 1,020 and of the mesne profits antecedent to the suit at Rs. 4,199-8 and obtained a decree. The defendants appealed to the High Court and valued their appeal at Rs. 5,219-8 and paid court-fees ad valorem on the memorandum of appeal. During the pendency of this appeal the proceedings for the assessment of mesne profits were carried on and the mesne profits assessed at Rs. 2,570-1-10 pies. The defendants wanted to prefer an appeal against this decree assessing the mesne profits and the High Court held that they cannot be called upon to pay court-fees over again and held that if the decree had been for a higher sum then they could have been called upon to pay court-fees upon the difference between the original claim and subsequent assessment, Kanchan Mandar v. Kamal Prasad, 16 C.L.J. 564: 15 I.C. 572.

A suit for account was approximately valued at Rs. 1,000 and preliminary decree was passed and appeal was preferred against the preliminary decree on the approximate valuation. During the pendency of the appeal from the preliminary decree a final decree was passed decreeing Rs. 6,000 as due. The court-fees payable on the memorandum of appeal from the final decree are to be assessed on the amount decreed in the final decree less the amount decreed in the preliminary decree. The fact that the plaintiff will have to pay additional court-fees on the increased amount does not relieve the defendant-appellants from paying court-fees. Art. 17 of the second schedule would not apply as the appellant seeks to set aside a definite amount decreed, Kanti Chandra Tarafdar v. Radha Raman Sikdar, 33 C.W.N. 743: 1929 A.I.R. 815 (Cal.).

Where full ad valorem court-fees were paid on the memorandum of appeal on the appeal against the preliminary decree in suit for redemption, the memorandum of appeal against the final decree need only bear a court-fee of Rs. 2, Bhuddu Ram v. Niamat Rai and others, 1923 A.I.R. 632 (Lahore): I.L.R. 4 Lahore 406: 6 L.L.J. 72.

The plaintiff sued for possession with mesne profits. He valued the land at Rs. 775 and approximately valued mesne profits at Rs. 4,693-8-3. The suit was decreed for possession and mesne profits were ordered to be ascertained. An appeal was preferred to the High Court on which full court-fees were paid. The appeal was dismissed by the High Court. The mesne profits were then ascertained and found to be Rs. 1,604-10-3. The defendant appealed to the District Judge and on the dismissal of his appeal preferred a second appeal to the High Court. The High Court said: "The appellant has paid the court-fee, and in fact more than the court-fee payable on the amount of the decree for the mesne profits against which he appeals, and I can see no reason why he should be required to pay again. When he first appealed, the amount of mesne profits had not been ascertained but had only been ordered to be ascertained. The fee was paid on the amount at which the plaintiff estimated the mesne profits. This turns out to be much more than the mesne profits actually awarded. Therefore the appellant has really paid more than the decree that has now been made against him would have necessitated. There is a further reason against requiring the appellant to pay an additional court-fee on the memorandum of appeal before the District Judge. The appeal was incompetent. The District Judge had no jurisdiction as the appeal lay to the High Court," Ram Mandar v. Maharani Nowlakhbati, I.L.R. 3 Pat. 815: 1924 Pat. C.W.N. 206: 79 Ind. Cas. 908: 1924 A.I.R. 694 (Patna). (In this case the memorandum of appeal to the District Judge bore only a court-fee of eight annas, hence the question of court-fees arose).

Appeals against preliminary and final decrees.—Section 97 of the Code of Civil Procedure (V of 1908) does not prevent a party from filing a combined appeal against a preliminary and a final decree, if the dates permit him to do so.....“we will permit the appellant to have a reasonable time to combine such objection, if any, he may have against the final decree in this appeal; of course, the court-fees, such as may be necessary, will have to be paid.” Per Scott, C. J., in Balwant Sing Ram Chandra v. Sakhamam Mancharam, 18 Bom.L.R. 80 (note): 33 I.C. 137; Kanchan Mandar v. Kamala Prosad, 16 C.L.J. 564: 15 Ind. Cas. 572; Dottatraya Ramchandra Savale v. Ajmuddin Fakruddin, 18 Bom.L.R. 76: 33 I.C. 146, where the system of filing appeals against preliminary decrees after the final decree was passed, was deprecated as an attempt to evade payment of stamp duty (but in this case the amount of the preliminary decree was lower than that of the final decree). There the defendant-appellant filed an appeal against the preliminary decree on a stamp of rupees ten after the passing of a final decree for a higher amount. See also Khanhaiya Lal v. Tribeni Sahu, 36 All. 532: 12 A.L.J. 876: 24 I.C. 827.

A party who has paid ad valorem court-fees in an appeal from the preliminary decree in a suit for accounts on the valuation made in the plaint, need not pay the same court-fees over again in the appeal from the final decree in that suit but need only pay ad valorem court-fees on any excess amount found to be due. The appellant will not be entitled to deduction, if he files the appeal after the disposal of the appeal from the preliminary decree, Supputhayammal, In re, 62 M.L.J. 624: 55 Mad. 664: 35 L.W. 621: 1932 M.W.N. 438: 1932 A.I.R. 453 (Mad.).

In an appeal against a preliminary decree under section 215A (Or. 20, Rule 16), C. P. C. the appellant ought to pay ad valorem court-fee on the amount at which the suit was valued in the plaint under section 7 (iv) (c), Bhagat Ram v. Gopalchand, 150 P.R. 1908.

The defendant in a suit for accounts may prefer a single combined appeal against the preliminary and the final decrees if the dates permit him to do so, but in determining whether the appeal is to be regarded as an appeal against the preliminary or a final decree or against both, the dates of the decrees and the valuation of the appeal are more material than the grounds of the appeal, Damodar Padhano v. Haribandhu Patnaick, 14 L.W. 389: 1921 M.W.N. 558: 70 Ind. Cas. 392 (Madras).

Where an appeal was pending from the preliminary decree it was not necessary for the mortgagee to file another appeal from the final decree. Therefore the court-fees paid on the memorandum of appeal from the final decree were ordered to be refunded, Swami Dayal v. Muhammad Sher Khan, 1925 A.I.R. 39 (Oudh): 88 I.C. 829: 11 O.L.J. 148. See also Nanibala Dasi and another v. Ichhamoyee Dasi and others, 40 C.L.J. 291: 84 I.C. 674: 1925 A.I.R. 218 (Cal.), where the memorandum of appeal against preliminary decree in a suit on a mortgage bond was allowed to be amended and the appeal to be converted into a combined appeal both against preliminary and final decrees. See also Kulada Prasad v. Ramanand, 25 C.W.N. 776: 33 C.L.J. 414.

Separate appeals by individual appellants when they could have preferred joint appeal.—When two out of a larger number of defendants against all of whom a decree for a certain sum had been passed, elected to present two entirely distinct and separate appeals though they were entitled to file a joint appeal, held, there is no provision of law which would exempt the memorandum of appeal filed at the later date, from also bearing, as the other did, the full ad valorem court-fee payable, Panna Lal v. Marwar Bank, Ltd. of Hissar, 91 P.R. 1918: 48 Ind. Cas. 424. Where two defendants filed two separate appeals from a decree in a suit for redemption, against orders of Court allowing redemption on payment to each of the defendants a moiety of the mortgage money, held, that each appeal should be stamped ad valorem on the amount under section 7, paragraph 9 of the Court Fees Act, Umar Khan v. Mahomed Khan, 10 Bom. 41.

But the Court Fees Act does not provide for consolidation of appeal. If, therefore, there were two appeals in the same suit, and then one party files two second appeals one against each decree in the first appeal, the appellant will have to pay the full court-fee on each of the appeals, Shib Dayal v. Meherban, 43 All. 56: 18 All.L.J. 894: 58 Ind. Cas. 230. The High Court said: "It is a pity that one appeal cannot be filed as it seems unjust to make a man pay double court-fees because under law it is necessary for him to file two separate appeals."

Dower.—In a suit for recovery of property in the possession of a Muhammadan lady, the defendant (the lady) pleaded 1st, that the plaintiff had no title, and 2nd, that she is not entitled to a decree for possession without payment to the defendant of Rupees 8,000 the amount of decree due to the defendant. The Court of first instance decreed the suit for possession, holding that payment of the defendant's dower, whatever it might amount to, was not a condition precedent to the plaintiff's obtaining a decree. The defendant appealed, paying court-fee on the value of the property; on a reference by the taxing officer as to whether she was not liable to pay court-fees on Rupees 8,000 as well, held, that the subject-matter in dispute in the appeal was the property of which possession is sought and the court-fee paid was sufficient. Mr. Justice Tubdall said: "In my view it seemed to me impossible to hold that the amount or value of the subject-matter of the appeal is anything more than the value of the property which the plaintiff is seeking to recover and which the defendant is seeking to retain," Haidari Begum v. Gulzar Bano, 36 All. 322: 12 A.L.J. 481: 25 Ind. Cas. 395. See also Moti Begum v. Har Prasad, 47 Ind. Cas. 311: 16 All.L.J. 81.

Ejectment and mesne profits.—A memorandum of appeal from a decree directing an ejectment and awarding mesne profits is chargeable with court-fees calculated both on the land and on the mesne profits allowed, which are the subject-matter of appeal, Brahmayya v. Lakshminarain, 16 Mad. 310.

Foreclosure.—See under redemption and under section 7 (ix). See the case of Jagatdhar Narain v. Brown, 33 Cal. 1133: 10 C.W.N. 1010: 4 C.L.J. 121 which says the valuation must be on the purchase-money in a suit against purchaser of the equity of redemption. See Ghastram v. Liladhar, 9 N.L.R. 86: 20 I.C. 257.

Grounds of appeal going to the root of the whole of the respondent's case.—Where one of several appellants take a ground of appeal, which goes to the root of the respondent's case, and which if successful, would deprive the respondent of his decree as a whole and not merely of his interest in it quod the particular appellant, the appellate Court is justified in refusing to hear the appeal on such ground as aforesaid unless he pays a court-fee sufficient to cover the whole relief obtainable on such grounds of appeal, Bujhawan Rai v. Mukund Lal, 15 All. 112: 12 All.W.N. 248.

Limitation.—Where the plea of limitation involves dismissal of suit and the appellant fails to pay the court-fees on the entire claim within the period prescribed for an appeal, the appellate Court cannot give him the advantage of limitation, as the law is, that where a suit ought to be dismissed in toto as time barred, the defendant must appeal on the whole and not on any particular portion of it, Hukum Singh v. Shahab Din, 14 P.W.R. 1918: 44 Ind. Cas. 890.

Misjoinder.—When the plaintiff brought one suit for sale upon several mortgages against several defendants and a decree was passed in their favour, some of the defendants who were liable to pay a part only of the decretal amount appealed on the ground that the suit is bad for misjoinder of parties. Held, this ground went to the root of the whole of the respondent's case and ad valorem court-fee on the entire decree was payable, Dilwar Husain v. Bhagwat Das, 4 All.L.J. 130: (1907) 27 All. W.N. 63.

Hypothecation.—Where the trial Court in a suit on a hypothecation bond exonerated the 2nd defendant but passed a decree against the 1st defendant for the whole amount, held that the plaintiff in appealing against the decree with a view to make the 2nd defendant who was made the sole respondent, liable, must stamp the memorandum ad valorem on the amount sought to be recovered, Ramasami v. Subbusami, 13 Mad. 508.

Instalment decree.—When the lower court ordered that the decretal amount be paid in three instalments, held that the court-fees should be calculated upon the difference between the amount claimed in the court below and the sum of the present values of the three instalments payable on the dates mentioned in the decree reckoning interest at the rate allowed, Lukhun Chunder Ash v. Khoda Buksh Mondul, 19 Cal. 272.

The memorandum of an appeal by the decree-holder from a decree for money allowing payment by instalments, must be stamped on the difference between the amount claimed in appeal and the amount decreed and also on the difference to the appellant between getting his money on the date of the decree under appeal and getting it by instalments as ordered, Lala Govind Lal v. Rao Baldeo Singh, 12 P.W.R. 1914: 226 P.L.R. 1914: 24 Ind. Cas. 931. But if the decree be, that on the defendant furnishing security the decretal amount will be payable by instalments then the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with a court-fee of rupees ten under Article 17, clause vi, Schedule II of the Court Fees Act as the subject-matter cannot be valued because all that they ask is that they may be allowed to satisfy the debt in a particular way, Beharilal v. Seth Nanhe Lal, 14 C.P.L.R. 172.

Interest.—No additional stamp is required on account of claims for interest from the date of institution of the suit until payment, Vithal Hari Athvale v. Vasudev Thosar, 18 Bom. 41, the reason being none are payable for future mesne profits; but in Dwarka v. Devendra, 33 Cal. 1232, it has been held that there is no analogy between future mesne profits and future interest, the latter being penal in its nature and is no part of the claim or relief granted as in the case of mesne profits. The proper court-fees payable on memorandum of appeal claiming interest up to the realization of mortgage money is rupees ten under Art. 17 (vi) of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act, Bhawani Prasad v. Kutubunnissa Bibi, 27 All. 559: 2 All.L.J. 363: 25 (1905) A.W.N. 84; Ram Bujhawan v. Natho Ram, 1922 Pat. C.W.N. 59: 3 P.L.T. 146: 70 Ind. Cas. 483.

Interest during the pendency of suit.—The appellant is not liable to pay court-fees on the amount of interest from the date of grace up to the date of the hearing of the appeal, Bhagwati Prashad Singh v. Bishun Narain, (1922) Pat. C.W.N. 73: 6 P.L.J. 676: 3 P.L.T. 310.

“When a mortgage suit is dismissed the plaintiff is entitled to value his appeal at the sum claimed in the plaint in respect of principal and interest up to the date of filing the plaint and is not bound to value the future interest which he may claim from the date of the suit up to the date of realisation or to pay court-fees thereon, but if any future interest is determined by the trial Court and is entered in the decree then the plaintiff on appeal by the defendant, is bound to pay additional court-fees on the sum of interest so added in the decree as having accrued from the date of suit up to the date of preparation of the decree in the lower Court,” Kali Prasad Singh and others v. Mathura Singh and others, 77 Ind. Cas. 1054: 1923 A.I.R. 28 (Patna).

Where a suit on a mortgage bond was dismissed by the trial Court, the plaintiff cannot be required to pay additional duty on any amount in excess of the amount claimed in the plaint by reason of the fact that additional interest has accrued due during the pendency of the suit in the trial Court; but it might be otherwise when the defendant appeals, Sadhu Saran Rai v. Lala Barhamdeo Lal and another, 8 P.L.T. 355: 103 I.C. 592: 1927 A.I.R. 230 (Patna), Debi Lal v. Gossain Kolashar, 105 I.C. 395: 1928 A.I.R. 58 (Patna): 5 P.L.T. 548; Thakan Chaudhuri v. Lachmi Narain, 14 Patna 4: 15 P.L.T. 548: 152 I.C. 244: 1934 A.I.R. 571 (Patna), S.B.

A claim for interest pendante lite disallowed by the trial Court, is a part of the amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute. Therefore, ad valorem court-fees on the amount of the interest claimed are payable, Damodar Pershad v. Hardeo Pershad, 52 All. 1029: 1931 A.L.J. 233: 131 I.C. 253: 1931 A.I.R. 351 (All.): 1931 I.R. 365 (All.). See also Bhagshah v. Labha Mal and others, 1933 A.I.R. 941 (Lah.): 148 I.C. 213.

Future interest.—Although future interest is not to be taken into account, still in all appeals from original decrees, the court-fee is to be calculated on the sum due at the date of passing the original decree and in all second appeals it should be levied on the sum at the date of the decree of the lower appellate Court and in all cross-objections when these can be ascertained by reference to the judgment and the decree, it is at that amount at which appeals or cross-objection are to be valued, Rawlins v. Lachmi Narain Jha, 3 P.L.J. 443: (1918) Pat. C.W.N. 264: 44 Ind. Cas. 50; Bhagwati Prasad Singh v. Bishun Pragash Narain, 6 P.L.J. 676: 1922 Pat. C.W.N. 73: 3 P.L.T. 310; Raghubir Prasad v. Shanker Bux Singh, 36 All. 40: 11 A.L.J. 1016: 21 Ind. Cas. 723.

In appeals relating to future interest, the proper court-fee is an ad valorem fee on the amount of interest claimed up to the date of presentation of appeal, Gobardhan Das v. Narendra Bahadur Singh, 22 O.C. 1: 50 Ind. Cas. 798.

In an appeal from a decree awarding future interest, the interest accruing subsequent to suit need not be included, Srinivas Row v. Ramaswami Chetti, 10 M.L.J. 144. See also Reference under the Court Fees Act, 29 Mad. 267: 16 M.L.J. 287.

Ad valorem court-fees are payable on interest decreed up to the date fixed for redemption, Valiram v. Karachi Bank, 23 S.L.R. 277: 104 I.C. 391: 1927 A.I.R. 251 (Sind).

Where the appellate Court awarded additional interest over and above the sum awarded by the trial Court, held, that the memorandum of appeal ought to bear ad valorem court-fees on the amount of interest awarded, Jamuna Rai v. Ramtahal Raut, I.L.R. 1 Pat. 19: 1922 Pat. C.W.N. 387: 77 Ind. Cas. 1039.

In an appeal from an order in execution of a decree where future interest is awarded the memorandum is to be stamped with an ad valorem court-fees on the amount calculated on the difference between the amount awarded under the decree (on which court fees were paid) and the amount claimed in the appellate Court up to the date of the appellate decree, Tarapadu Mitter v. Rani Jagadamba, 5 Pat.L.J. 235; (the arguments proceeded upon the grounds that s. 47 (2) is entirely new, but subsequent Notification No. 1872J published in Calcutta Gazette, dated 1st June, 1921, speaks of section 47 instead of section 244 (c), consequently this decision has now no force, so far as Bengal is concerned.) See similar Notification for Patna in the Appendix. See Bhawani Parshad v. Qutabunnissa 27 All. 559: 2 A.L.J. 263: 1905 A.W.N. 84, where it was held that proper court-fee payable on a memorandum of appeal in the suit up to the date of realization of the decree is Rs. 10 under Sch. II, Art. 17 (vi).

Interest on mesne profits.—In Mithoo Lal v. Musst. Chameli, 1934 A.L.J. 957: 150 I.C. 653: 1934 A.I.R. 805 (All.), it was held that court-fees on interest accruing due between the date of suit and the date of the decree, need not be paid.

Inter-pleader suit.—In an appeal from a decision in an inter-pleader suit in respect of money, the court-fee payable is rupees ten under Article 17, clause vi of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act and not an ad valorem fee calculated under section 7 (vi) (c) of the Court Fees Act, Brij Narain v. Balmiki Prosad, 61 Ind. Cas. 820: 3 Pat.L.T. 280.

Landlord and tenant.—See also under “Landlord and Tenant” supra. The perpetual (mourashi) character of the plaintiff’s lease under which the claim was having been disallowed, an appeal was preferred to have it declared that the lease was perpetual. Held, as the value of the claim would be the difference in the value of the land as held under a mourashi tenure at a fixed rent or an ordinary tenure at a fluctuating rent, and as this might be an extremely difficult calculation, the stamp upon the memorandum of appeal would be properly fixed according to the valuation put by the appellant upon the subject-matter of the claim, Kebal Ram Mundal v. W. S. Wells, 24 W.R. 454.

Where a suit is decreed against defendant by the lower Court, that he do pay to the plaintiff rent for certain (Fasli) years at the rate of $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. on the gross revenue of the zemindary and the determination of the amount was reserved for execution proceedings; an appeal from that decree is capable of being valued and the appellant is to value the appeal under section 7 (iv) (f) of the Court Fees Act, Reference under the Court Fees Act, 4 M.L.J. 12.

A landlord defendant appealing from a decree by the lower appellate Court, awarding possession to the disputed land to the tenant plaintiff, against the landlord and also one of the two tenant defendants, the claim against the other tenant defendant having abated, cannot claim in second appeal that he is only to pay court-fee as on an appeal from a declaration only, because the plaintiff tenant will in that case be his tenant and therefore the question of possession does not arise, Haladhar Pal Chowdhury v. Sheikh Mongal Reja, 34 C.W.N. 217: 126 I.C. 777: 1930 A.I.R. 793 (Cal.).

A memorandum of objection against a decree of the first appellate Court declaring that a distraint is valid only to the extent of Rs. 2,000 and odd and in which no question was raised that went to the root of the whole matter and thus render the distrain invalid but in which question as to the exact amount of rent due was raised, is capable of valuation and therefore does not fall under Art. 17 (b) of the Court Fees Act as amended in Madras and is to be stamped with ad valorem court-fees, The Maharajah of Pitapuram v. Srichelikani Venkatarayanam Garu, 57 M.L.J. 260: 1929 M.W.N. 608: 30 L.W. 357: 122 I.C. 526: 1930 A.I.R. 22 (Mad.).

Appeal for declaration of a lien.—Where the mortgagee appeals on the ground that the lien be declared, the valuation for the purpose of stamp in such appeal would be with reference to the value of the lien and not to the value of the mortgaged properties, Mahomed Sheerun Khan v. Koondan Lal, Agra F.B. 158.

Mesne profits.—In an appeal from a decree directing ejectment and mense profits, the court-fee should be calculated on the land and on the mense profits, both being subject-matter of the appeal, Brahmayya v. Lakshmi Narasimham, 16 Mad. 310. And improvements by tenant are not to be taken into account, Reference under the Court Fees Act, 23 Mad. 84.

Where a decree allows mesne profits and directs inquiry to be made subsequent to the institution of the suit and a final decree is passed in accordance with Order 20, Rule 12, C.P.C., an appeal against such a decree is chargeable under Art. I, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act with ad valorem court-fees calculated on the amount of the mesne profits in dispute, P. Balaram Naidu v. P. Cangan Naidu, 45 Mad. 280: 42 M.L.J. 184: 69 L.C. 722: 30 M.L.T. 83: 14 L.W. 730: 1923 A.I.R. 19 (Mad.).

A memorandum of appeal from an order dismissing an application for ascertainment of mense profits must be stamped with an ad valorem stamp on the amount claimed. It is doubtful whether an appellate Court has power to allow a party to reduce the claim in order to relieve him from liability to pay proper court-fees, Narain Prasad v. Kameshar Prosad Singh, 3 Pat. L.J. 101: 43 Ind. Cas. 489.

A suit for recovery of possession of land and mesne profits which was valued at the value of the land plus the amount of antecedent mesne profits was decreed in its entirety, but the Court did not ascertain the amount of mesne profits. The defendant appealed, challenging the whole decree. Held, that the appeal must be valued at the same valuation as the suit and must bear the same court-fee stamp, Manick Chand Ram v. Bibi Najiban, 49 Ind. Cas. 962 (Patna).

Ad valorem court-fees on the amount claimed must be paid. The practice of allowing plaintiffs to include in a suit for possession a claim for mesne profits without payment of court-fees condemned, Nand Kumar Singh v. Bilas Ram Marwari, 3 P.L. 967: 40 I.C. 579.

Where a suit for possession with mesne profits was decreed and an appeal preferred to the High Court on payment of full court-fees and afterwards on investigation as to the amount of mesne profits it was found to be much less than the amount in further appeal to the High Court an objection was raised that the memorandum of appeal to the High Court should have been stamped ad valorem, held, that full court-fees having been paid on the appeal to the High Court the memorandum of appeal to the District Judge was sufficiently stamped with a court-fee of 8 annas, Ram Mandar v. Maharani Nowlakhbati, I.L.R. 3 Pat. 815: 1924 Pat. C.W.N. 206: 79 Ind. Cas. 908: 1924 A.I.R. 694 (Patna).

Where the mesne profits have been ascertained the court-fee payable is calculated on the ascertained rate; where the amount of mesne profits have not been ascertained the court-fee is chargeable on the valuation of mesne profits as claimed in the plaint, In re Punya Nahako and others, 50 Mad. 488: 52 M.L.J. 128: 1927 M.W.N. 101: 100 Ind. Cas. 72 (73): 1927 A.I.R. 360 (Mad.).

Court-fees on the memorandum of appeal must be paid on the amount claimed as mesne profits (antecedent to the suit) and not under Art. 17, Cl. vi, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, Bunwari Lal v. Daya Sunker 13 C.W.N. 815.

Where mesne profits are directed to be ascertained in a separate proceeding.—A memorandum of appeal against a decree ordering possession of the property in suit and declaring that the amount of mesne profits to be ascertained in a future proceeding, is to bear court-fees on the whole decree at the same amount at which the subject-matter was valued by the plaintiff in the lower Court including the approximate valuation for mesne profits, Deonandan Misra v. Ganga Prasad, 8 Patna 906: 10 P.L.T. 622: 120 I.C. 313: 1929 A.I.R. 731 (Patna); Nand Kumar Singh v. Bilas Ram Marwari, 3 P.L.J. 67: 40 I.C. 579.

An application for ascertainment of mesne profits is not a plaint, Ramgulam Sahu v. Chintaman Singh, (1925) 5 Patna 361; Bidyadhar Bachar v. Manindra Nath Deb, (1925) 53 Cal. 14: 42 C.L.J. 49 F.B.

A memorandum of an appeal from a decree passed on an application for ascertainment of mesne profits, is to be stamped ad valorem on the amount in dispute, Kedar Nath Goenka v. Chandra Mauleshwar Prasad Singh, 11 Patna 532: 13 P.L.T. 304: 137 I.C. 855: 1932 A.I.R. 228 (Patna).

Appeal as to amount of mesne profits.—A memorandum of appeal from a decree awarding a lesser sum than the amount claimed, is to bear a fixed fee, Sheodhin Singh v. Narangi Lal, 11 P.L.T. 703: 129 I.C. 663.

Appeal as to period for which mesne profits are payable.—The amount of court-fees payable on an appeal against an order about the period for which mesne profits had been decreed, is not an ad valorem fee on the amount of mesne profits claimed in appeal, but the court-fee will be payable when mesne profits have been ascertained, Lala Jagdip Sahay v. Khajuri Sahu, 108 I.C. 801: 9 Pat. L.T. 657.

Valuation of appeal.—See under sec. 11 of this Act.

Where some of the defendants appeal.—A preliminary decree in a suit for mesne profits was passed against all the defendants. Some of the defendants appealed adopting a valuation calculated on the proportion which the area held by them bore to the total area from which the plaintiff was dispossessed. Then a final decree was passed against all the defendants jointly after the commissioner submitted his report. Those defendants who had filed an appeal against the preliminary decree, then filed an appeal against the final decree valuing the relief in the same way as they did in the appeal from the preliminary decree. The High Court held that as the final decree was passed against all the defendants jointly, court-fees ad valorem on the entire amount of the final decree and not on the proportionate part should be paid as the liability of the defendants cannot be split up and apportioned. The High Court proceeded to lay down 'where a definite value is placed in the plaint on the mesne profit claimed and the suit decreed, the defendant appealing from the decree must pay court-fees calculated ad valorem on the value of the mesne profits claimed in the plaint, whether the suit is only for mesne profits, or whether the claim for recovery of mesne profits accompanies a claim for recovery of land.' An appeal differs from a mere application for mesne profits and a memorandum of appeal from a decree awarding mesne profits is liable to be stamped with ad valorem court-fees on the amount in dispute under Art. I, Sch. I of the Court Fees Act, Dhanukhari Prasad Pandey v. Ramadhikary Missir, 12 Patna 188: 13 P.L.T. 810: 142 I.C. 617: 1933 A.I.R. 81 (Patna). See also Sideshwari Prasad v. Ram Kumar, 14 P.L.T. 180: 1933 A.I.R. 234 (P.): 144 I.C. 684: 12 Patna 694, where it was also held that ad valorem court-fees are payable on the amount for which the appellant sought to avoid liability or on the amount by which he sought to enhance the deductal amount as in such a case the subject-matter of appeal falls within Sch. I, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act.

Money appeals against defendants exonerated.—The plaintiff sued for money several persons as defendants but obtained a decree against only one of them, and then appealed against other defendants on the ground that the decree should have been passed against all of them jointly. Held, that the memorandum of appeal should be stamped with court-fees calculated ad valorem on the amount of the decree under Art. 1, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act and not with a stamp of Rupees Ten, Amirchand v. Kanhaiya Ram, 225 P.W.R. 1912: 86 P.R. 1912: 222 P.L.R. 1912: 16 Ind. Cas. 777. See also Ram Kishan v. Hirde Ram, 71 I.C. 737: 1923 A.I.R. 135 (Lahore).

Where the plaintiff sued several defendants for recovery of money but obtained a decree against one of them, and thereafter he filed an appeal seeking a decree against the rest of the defendants; the appeal must be valued on the original claim and court-fees paid on the amount of the memorandum of appeal, Anna Narayan Pavji v. Madhyama Sthitila Paraspara, etc. 46 Bom. 840: 24 Bom. L.R. 313: 67 Ind. Cas. 364: (1922) A.I.R. 172 (Bom.). See also Ramasami v. Subbusami, 13 Mad. 508.

Mortgage.—A mortgage decree was passed against the defendant making him liable for a sum but he appealed on the ground that he is an agriculturist hence not liable and valued the appeal at a nominal sum; the High Court held that the appeal should be valued at the decretal amount as the whole decree is to be set aside and court-fees ad valorem on the amount should be paid on it, Mahomedali v. Akbarali, 36 Bom.L.R. 1234: 1935 A.I.R. 69 (Bom.): 154 I.C. 550.

In an ordinary suit for sale the value of the subject-matter of appeal is the amount which the Court below has declared to be due to the plaintiff on the date fixed for payment and the court-fee payable is ad valorem on that amount, Baldeo Singh v. Kalka Prasad, 35 All. 84: 11 All.L.J. 20; Husaini Khanum v. Husain Khan, 29 All. 471: (1907) 27 A.W.N. 133: 4 All.L.J. 175.

Where the appellant seeks to establish that he is not liable to pay money adjudged by the lower Court to be due from him, he is to stamp his memorandum of appeal with ad valorem court-fee calculated on the decretal amount, Mardan Singh v. Sheeroj Narain Sinha, 30 Ind. Cas. 322.

The first mortgagee instituted a suit for sale against the mortgagor and also joined the puisne mortgagee a party to that suit. The mortgagor denied the puisne mortgage but the suit was decreed and the puisne mortgage was found to be subsisting and a mortgage decree was drawn up in Form No. 9 of Appendix D of the Civil Procedure Code. The mortgagor appealed against that part of the decree which held the puisne mortgage to be subsisting. The Lahore High Court held that ad valorem court-fees on the amount of the puisne mortgage are to be paid as the decree of the trial Court must be interpreted to be a decree for the payment of the amount of the puisne mortgage, Khairati Ram v. Chuni Lal and others, 146 I.C. 1003: 1933 A.I.R. 954 (Lah.).

A was impleaded in suit for sale on a mortgage as a subsequent transferee but it was found that A has parted with his interest in favour of his sons and A's only remaining interest was a right to receive maintenance which was made a charge upon the property in the hands of his sons. The suit was dismissed as against the sons but was decreed against A and the other defendants. A filed an appeal praying for a declaration that the decree be modified by granting a declaration that the plaintiffs are not entitled to get the charge sold. The Allahabad High Court held this prayer to be a prayer for a declaration with a consequential relief and ordered that ad valorem court-fees on the valuation to be paid, Mukund Ram v. Raqaiya Khatun, 1931 A.L.J. 150: 131 I.C. 39: 1931 A.I.R. 251 (All.): 1931 I.R. 343 (All.).

Mitakshara joint family.—If the sons in a joint family governed by Mitakshara Law of inheritance appeal against a mortgage decree obtained against them and their father, on the ground that the mortgage and the decree are not binding against them as the debt was tainted with immortality and their shares are not liable to be sold, they need only pay court-fees on the valuation of their share of the property or the amount of the mortgage-decree whichever is less, Sarangpani Ayyangar v. Pichu Ayyar, 1931 A.I.R. 710 (Mad.): 135 I.C. 11: 1932 I.R. 43 (Mad.).

Separate liabilities of different properties.—Where the decree appealed against declares separate liabilities of different properties.—In a suit for sale on a mortgage, a decree was passed declaring separate liabilities of the different properties mortgaged. One of the defendants whose property was held liable for specific sum of money appealed, held that the proper court-fee payable on the memorandum of appeal was a fee calculated on the sum of money for which the defendant's property was held liable and not one calculated on the full amount of the decree. In the reason given in the judgment it was said, "if they succeed in this appeal, it is only those properties which will be released from the operation of the decree and it is only those sums which the decree-holder will lose," Chhabraji Kunwar and others v. Court of Wards, 35 All. 92: 11 All.L.J. 33: 18 Ind. Cas. 577.

Where the question whether the properties are liable to be sold for the decretal amount and where liability of some of the mortgaged properties is in question.—Where in an appeal the amount decreed is not in dispute but the appellant disputes the liability of certain properties to be sold for the mortgage decree, and claims that the sub-judge should have held that the mortgage was not operative and binding against the appealing defendants so far as their shares in the mortgaged properties were concerned, the High Court held that the memorandum of appeal ought to be stamped with a court-fee calculated ad valorem on the value of these properties, Jugal Pershad v. Parbhu Narain, 37 Cal. 914: 8 I.C. 1145; Pandit Sukh Nandan v. Lachman Prosad, 17 O.C. 90: 24 Ind. Cas. 286.

If the subject-matter of the appeal be whether certain properties are liable to be sold for the decretal amount and there is no dispute as to the amount in claim, then the court-fee is to be paid on the debt not exceeding the value of the property, Venkappa v. Narasimha, 10 Mad. 187; Kesavarappu Ram Krishna Reddi v. Kottakota Reddi, 30 Mad. 96: 16 M.L.J. 458: 1 M.L.T. 311 F.B.; Tharu Mal v. Chandan Ram, 11 P.R. 1916: 59 P.W.R. 1916: 33 Ind. Cas. 138.

Where the appellant's appeal was against so much of the decree as rendered his property liable and sought that his property should be released from the effects of the decree, the proper stamp to be paid was an ad valorem fee on the value of the property not exceeding the value of the decree, Atma Singh v. Nathu Mal and others, 96 I.C. 473: 1926 A.I.R. 408 (Lah.): I.L.R. 7 Lah. 216: 27 P.L.R. 412: 8 L.L.J. 319.

When the dispute is not as regards the amount due but the defendant-appellants say that they are not personally liable and they dispute the liability of the properties held by them for the decretal amount, held that court-fees ad valorem must be paid on the memorandum of appeal, calculated on the value of the properties sought to be exonerated, Madho Ray v. Musst. Bibi Mahbuwannissa, I.L.R. 5 Patna 721: 8 P.L.T. 284: 98 Ind. Cas. 807: 1927 A.I.R. 46 (Patna).

A memorandum of appeal seeking to exclude the property in dispute in appeal from liability to sale under the mortgage decree requires to be stamped ad valorem on the valuation. A fixed fee as in a suit for declaration is insufficient. It is the value of the debt or the value of the property, whichever is less that determines the value of the relief in appeal for the purposes of the Court Fees Act, Punjaji v. Ramchand, 24 N.L.R. 142: 111 I.C. 650: 1928 A.I.R. 316 (Nag.).

If an appeal be filed against a mortgage decree in which the decretal amount is not disputed but the liability of some of the properties be in question, then the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped ad valorem on the market value of the properties or the decretal amount whichever is less, A. U. John and others v. Suraj Bhan and others, 54 All. 553: 1933 A.I.R. 45 (All.): 1932 A.L.J. 385: 136 I.C. 837: 1932 I.R. 256 (All.).

If a decree be passed excluding the assets of S. in the hands of defendants 2 to 5 from liability for the decretal amount, then the memorandum of appeal against this decree is to be stamped ad valorem on the value of assets of S. in the hands of defendants 2 to 5 or the liability under the decree which it is sought to be imposed whichever is less, Sabir Husain and another v. Farzand Hasan and another, (1932) 54 All. 608: 1932 A.L.J. 387: 138 I.C. 622: 1932 A.I.R. 406 (All.).

Order 34, Rule 3.—There is no difference in principle between a final decree for sale under Order 34, Rule 4 and one for foreclosure under Order 34, Rule 3 and anybody desiring to appeal against the final decree for foreclosure must pay ad valorem court-fees, Balaji v. Ballabh Das, 107 I.C. 671: 1928 A.I.R. 146 (Nagpore); Ramdhari v. Chowdhury Magbul Ahmad Khan, 18 O.C. 114.

Orders refusing to extend time.—An appeal from an order refusing to extend time for payment of the amount is an appeal from order under Or. 43, Rule 1, cl. (o), although an order for a final decree may have been passed, Musst. Manjari v. Surajmal, 111 I.C. 294: 1928 A.I.R. 383 (N.). But see Dadnoo v. Somerath, 7 N.L.R. 41.

Extension of time.—The memorandum of an appeal by the mortgagee from the final decree in a mortgage suit on the ground that no time should have been extended to the mortgagor within which to pay the mortgage debt should be stamped with ad valorem court-fees as it is not an exception to the general rule that an appeal against the final decree requires ad valorem court-fees and also as it is not necessary to file an appeal against the final decree. (7 N.L.R. 41: 10 I.C. 736 overruled.) Singai Raghubar Prasad v. Chhogmal, 130 I.C. 98: 1931 A.I.R. 1 (Nag.): 1931 I.R. 34 (Nag.) F.B.

Order 34, Rule 4.—Where the unsuccessful defendant wishes to be relieved of the liability under a decree passed under Order 34, Rule 4, C. P. C., the court-fee payable should prima facie be calculated on the value of the liability which means the amount shown in the decree inclusive of interest up to the date fixed for redemption, Valiram and other v. Karachi Bank and others, 23 S.L.R. 277: 104 I.C. 301: 1927 A.I.R. 251 (Sind).

Appeal against order overruling objection.—A judgment-debtor appealing against order rejecting his objection to the passing of the final decree for sale, must stamp the memo-random of appeal as an appeal from decree and not as an appeal from order, Ahmad Rahman v. A. L. A. R. Chettiar Firm, 6 Rang. 285: 110 I.C. 87: 1928 A.I.R. 194 (Rang.). See also Ranga Raju v. Ethirajammal, 53 Mad. 155: 57 M.L.J. 718: 1930 A.I.R. 30 (Mad.): 30 L.W. 846: 1930 M.W.N. 402: 1930 I.R. 687 (Mad.).

Order under Order 34, Rule 5 (order absolute).—An application for an order absolute is an order in continuation of the original suit hence section 244, C. P. C. is inapplicable and the appeal lies under section 540, C. P. C. as an appeal from an original decree, Manmatha Nath Ray v. Khetra Mohan Ghosh, 29 Cal. 651. An appeal from the final decree passed under Order 34, Rule 5, C. P. C. (order absolute) requires ad valorem fees on the amount decreed and cannot be stamped as an appeal from order, Bajrangi Lal v. Mahabir Kunwar, 35 All. 476 F.B.: 11 A.L.J. 80: 21 Ind. Cas. 498. See also Tajammal Husain Khan v. Muhammad Husain Khan, 14 A.L.J. 328: 35 Ind. Cas. 158; Jankibai Ramdayal v. Chimna Sadashiv, 22 Bom.L.R. 811: 57 Ind. Cas. 579.

Ad valorem court-fee should be paid on a memorandum of appeal from an application for an order absolute under section 89 (Order 34, Rule 5, C. P. C.) of the Transfer of Property Act, Charu Chandra Mitter v. Bhagirath Pershad, 12 C.W.N. 1028. See also Bechu Singh v. Becharam Sahu, 10 C.L.J. 91 (appeal by J. D.); Bibi Barkatunnissa Begum v. Bibi Quamarunnissa, 50 Ind. Cas. 279. See contra Balmukund v. Haji Husanali Bohra, 14 C.P.L.R. 100.

Order under Order 34, Rule 6, C. P. C. (Personal decree).—An order on an application for a decree under Order 34, Rule 6, C. P. C. is a 'decree' as that term is defined in the Code. An appeal, therefore, from such an order must bear ad valorem court-fee stamp and not merely a two rupee stamp, Muhammad Iltifat Hussain v. Alimunnissa Bibi, 40 All. 553: 47 Ind. Cas. 561; Tajammal Hassain Khan v. Muhammad Hussain Khan, 14 All.L.J. 328: 35 Ind. Cas. 158; Bindhiachal Rai v. Sita Misir, 74 Ind. Cas. 21 (All.). In appeal against an order under Order 34, Rule 6 of the Code of Civil Procedure the memorandum is to be stamped with ad valorem court-fees; Ayyakutti Mankondan v. Periyasami Kavandan, 30 Ind. Cas. 497; Saiyed Wasi Ali v. Jung Bahadur Singh, 18 O.C. 121. See also Lakhi Narain Jagdeb v. Chowdhury Kirtibas Das, 18 C.L.J. 133 (appeal by J. D.), where the effect of pendency of appeal was considered; this case was considered in In re Kartic Chandra, (1934) 39 C.W.N. 315.

If in a preliminary decree in a mortgage suit, the Court orders sale of the mortgaged properties and also if the proceeds do not satisfy the decree than the plaintiff was given option to apply for a personal decree against the mortgagor, then the memorandum of appeal for the personal decree portion only, is to be stamped the ad valorem on the excess of the decree over the net sale proceeds, although the same may be more or less conjectural, Venkatarama Sastrigal v. Sabapathi Tevar, 57 Mad. 632: 66 M.L.J. 348: 1933 M.W.N. 1408: 39 L.W. 648: 1934 A.I.R. 230 (Mad.): 149 I.C. 548.

An appeal by the sons in a suit against the father and them on the ground that they are not personally liable for the amount decreed, need be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10, Bulaqui Das v. Lalchand, 36 P.L.R. 104: 1934 A.I.R. 865 (Lah.).

Order 34, Rule 7.—Court-fees ad valorem on the principal amount are to be paid and no court-fees need be paid on surplus which is the result of accounting, Musst. Wajdi Begum v. Abdul Gani, 24 N.L.R. 197: 11 N.L.J. 232: 113 I.C. 34: 1929 A.I.R. 1

Order 34, Rule 8.—Where, after the preliminary decree in a suit for redemption, the plea of the mortgagor that the decretal amount has been paid off, is overruled and a final decree shall bear ad valorem court-fees; Ashgar Ali v. Mahabir and another, 27 O.C. 225: 84 I.C. 742: 1925 A.I.R. 102 (Oudh).

Possession of property.—A suit for possession of a house was decreed conditional upon the payment of the value of the improvement. On appeal it was held that the value should be on the market value under section 7, para. v (e) of the Court Fees Act and (as rules are framed in the Punjab under section 9 of the Suits Valuation Act) the valuation for the purpose of court-fees and for jurisdiction shall be the same, Abdur Rahaman v. Cheragdin, 19 P.R. 1908: 129 P.L.R. 1908: 38 P.W.R. 1908.

A Hindu sued to recover his half share of the ancestral estate from the defendants. The suit was decreed conditional upon payment of a sum of money. The defendants filed an appeal to get rid of the decree for possession passed against them and did not seek to increase the amount to be paid to them; held, that the subject-matter of the appeal is the land itself and as the appellant is asking to get rid of the decree against them, which has given the respondent the right to recover possession of the land from them, the case falls under section 7, paragraph v (in various clauses) of the Court Fees Act for the purpose of court-fees and valuation. The valuation of the appeal cannot be reduced by the amount, the plaintiff was to pay, In re Seethayamma, 48 Mad. 652: 47 M.L.J. 919: 21 L.W. 15: 85 405: 1925 A.I.R. 323 (Mad.).

The defendant appellant in a suit for possession of property awarding possession to the plaintiff must value the appeal in the same way and pay the same court-fees as on the plaint, Mithomal v. Bashomal, 116 I.C. 110: 1929 A.I.R. 161 (Sind).

Pre-emption.—See under section 7, paragraph vi. Where in an appeal, the appellants ask the Court to reduce the amount payable by them under the decree appealed against, by a certain figure, that sum represents the value of the subject-matter of the appeal and it is upon that sum that they must pay ad valorem court-fees as specified in Art. 1, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act, but if the appellants pray that the plaintiff is not entitled to the land in suit, court-fee to be affixed to the memorandum of appeal is to be computed in accordance with the provisions of section 7, paragraph 6 of the Court Fees Act, Waryam Singh v. Mahtab Singh, 19 Ind. Cas. 961 F.B.: 240 P.L.R. 1913: 141 P.W.R. 1913: 76 P.R. 1913. Five villages were transferred by means of one sale deed, the consideration set forth in the deed being Rupees 44,000. In respect of this transaction a suit for pre-emption was brought, but the plaintiff alleged that the true consideration was Rupees 2,500 only. As to two of the villages the suit was decreed, on payment of Rupees 21,000 which was found to be proportional part of Rupees 44,000 the value for all the villages; as to the other three villages the suit was dismissed. The plaintiff appealed (a) as to the price to be paid for those two villages in respect of which the decree was in his favour and (b) in respect of the disallowance of his claim to pre-empt the other three villages. A question having arisen as to the proper court-fees payable in this appeal, it was held, that the appeal being divisible into two clear and distinct parts, in respect of part (a) the appellant should pay ad valorem court-fees on the difference between 21—44 of Rupees 2,500 and Rupees 21,000, while in respect of (b) the appellant should pay court-fees calculated according to section 7 (vi) of the Court Fees Act, 1870, on five times the Government Revenue of the three villages claimed, Abinash Chandra v. Shekhar Chand, 40 All. 335: 16 All. L.J. 174: 44 Ind. Cas. 666.

Priority.—A plaintiff brought a suit to recover money due on a mortgage bond by sale of the mortgaged properties; it was also prayed that as defendant No. 3 had a deed of conditional sale reciting a mortgage prior to the plaintiff's mortgage, the property might be sold subject to defendant No. 3's mortgage or that he might be given an opportunity to redeem. The suit was decreed and the property was ordered to be sold subject to the mortgage of defendant No. 3. The plaintiff appealed against the latter part of the decree, praying for its modification, "by removing the condition as to priority to the deed of defendant No. 3 and its redemption, by the appellate Court." He valued the appeal for the purposes of jurisdiction at Rupees 1,400 the amount of defendant No. 3's mortgage, but he paid a court-fee of rupees ten only for the declaratory relief that defendant No. 3's bond had no priority of charge over his own. Held, that the relief sought was not declaratory, but sought to obtain an order that the property be sold free of the lien declared by the trial Court; and that, therefore ad valorem court-fees must be paid on the value of the lien which it was sought to destroy, Premsookh Das v. Shah Gopi Saran, 4 Pat.L.J. 323: 51 Ind. Cas. 786.

A memorandum of appeal by the defendants mortgagees for a declaration that they are prior mortgagees, is to be stamped ad valorem on the value of the appellant's interest in the property as they obviously seek to get the property sold subject to the mortgage for which they claim priority, Kundan Lal v. Dulichand and others, 54 All. 347: 1932 A.L.J. 45: 140 I.C. 38: 1932 A.I.R. 221 (All.). (See also another case between the same parties reported in 142, I.C. 770).

In a suit for recovery of certain amount from a company and from certain debenture-holders of that company as also for a declaration that the amount is recoverable in priority over the debentures, the claim for money was decreed against the company with a declaration that the amount decreed shall have priority over the debentures in favour of defendant No. 7. On appeal by the debenture-holders, it was held as they seek to exonerate the property which is security for their debentures from liability to satisfy the decretal debt, court-fees are payable ad valorem on the decretal debt or on the value of their debentures, whichever is less, A. U. John v. Suraj Bhan and others, 54 All. 553: 1932 A.L.J. 385: 136 I.C. 837: 1933 A.I.R. 45 (All.): 1932 I.R. 256 (All.).

But if a mere declaration in respect of a prior mortgage is sought, then court-fee as on a declaration is to be paid and not ad valorem fees on the amount in claim under the prior mortgage, Iswar Dayal v. Annasaheb, 1935 A.L.J. 168: 1935 A.I.R. 100 (All.): 152 I.C. 814.

Redemption.—See also under section 7, paragraph ix, pages 179 to 182, supra. In cases of appeals or cross-objections in suits for redemption in which the amount declared by the Court to be due at the date of the decree can be ascertained by reference to the judgment and the decree, it is that amount at which the appeals or the cross objections should be valued and future interest should not be taken into account, Raghubir Prosad v. Shankar Baksh Singh, 36 All. 40: 17 All.L.J. 1016: 21 Ind. Cas. 723, modifying Baldeo Singh v. Kalka Prosad, 35 All. 94, where the High Court held that in an appeal from decree for sale on a mortgage which declared that where on the date fixed for payment a specified sum would be found due from the mortgagor, which included interest pendente lite, the court-fee is to be paid ad valorem on that amount.

Appeal as to the amount payable.—Where the mortgagor-appellant appeals on the ground that he is not liable to pay money adjudged to be due to the mortgagee, his memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with a court-fee ad valorem on the amount by which he asks the appeal Court to vary the decree, Mardan Singh v. Sheoraj Singh, 30 Ind. Cas. 323. In an appeal arising out of a redemption suit, the court-fees payable on the memorandum of appeal is ad valorem on the amount by which the mortgage money is sought to be reduced, Lekh Ram v. Ramji Ram, 1 Lahore 234: 57 Ind. Cas. 215: 3 L.L.J. 370: 144 P.L.R. 1920.

Ad valorem court-fees must be paid on the amount by which the mortgage decree in a redemption suit is sought to be reduced, Ramji Lal v. Shibba Ram and others, 1923 A.I.R. 309 (Lahore): 75 Ind. Cas. 667.

Where the mortgagee appellant claims a larger amount than that awarded by the decree appealed against court-fees must be paid ad valorem on the amount claimed in excess, Sant Baksh Singh v. Sheikh Dildar Hossein, 74 Ind. Cas. 88: 1924 A.I.R. 170 (Oudh); Sangat Baksh Singh v. Rawat Dijdeo Baksh Singh, 67 Ind. Cas. 968: (1922) A.I.R. 82 (Oudh): 25 O.C. 30.

If in an appeal from a decree in a redemption suit a diminution of the amount is prayed, then the memorandum is to be stamped ad valorem on that amount, Hiralal v. Mulchand, 31 P.L.R. 173: 122 I.C. 736: 1930 A.I.R. 601 (Lah.): 193 I.R. 384 (Lah.).

If a mortgagee appellant in an appeal from a decree in a redemption suit, contests not only the amount due to him but also whether the transaction is a sale or a mortgage, the court-fees payable by him are to be calculated ad valorem upon the principal amount secured by the instrument of mortgage, Abdul Aziz v. Rahmat Ullah, 1933 A.I.R. 155 (Lah.): 148 I.C. 234.

Where in a suit for redemption the trial Court ordered redemption on payment of Rs. 39,340-11-7 and the plaintiff having paid that amount together with interest which accrued due later, the trial Court passed a final decree. The plaintiff filed two appeals against the two decrees for reduction of the decretal amount by Rs. 32,225-11-7. The High Court held that full court-fees having been paid on the memorandum of appeal against the preliminary decree the memorandum of appeal against the final decree is sufficiently stamped if it bears a court-fee of Rs. 2, Buddha Ram v. Niamat Rai and others, 1923 A.I.R. 632 (Lahore): I.L.R. 4 Lahore 406: 6 L.L.J. 72.

Suit for possession in the alternative for redemption.—In such suits if the Court orders that the plaintiff can redeem on payment of a certain sum, the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped ad valorem calculated on that sum, Mata Badal Singh v. Jai Singh, 15 Ind. Cas. 745; Wadhawa Singh v. Sunder Singh, 59 Ind. Cas. 667: 21 P.W.R. 1921.

Appeal against a decree allowing redemption on payment of a certain sum should bear ad valorem court-fees on the amount of the principal sum under section 7 (ix) of the Court Fees Act, Fateh Singh v. Babu Ram, 3 L.L.J. 156.

Appeal as to the right to redeem.—In a suit for redemption or foreclosure, where the question arose as to the right to redeem or foreclose for an adjudged sum, the court-fees payable will be according to section 7 (ix), i.e., according to the principal amount secured by the instrument, but if the appellant challenges the amount payable, the fee will be paid ad valorem calculated on the difference between the sum awarded in the lower Court and that mentioned in the memorandum of appeal as due, Gumani v. Banwari, 22 O.C. 289: 54 Ind. Cas. 733. See also Sangat Baksh Singh v. Rawat Dijdeo Baksh Singh, (1922) A.I.R. 82 (Oudh): 25 O.C. 30: 67 Ind. Cas. 968.

In a suit to redeem a kanom, a decree for redemption was passed. The defendants appealed against the decree on the ground that the plaintiffs are not entitled to redeem and if they are held to be so entitled they can do it only on payment of a higher sum, which amount was not stated in the memorandum of appeal and no court-fees paid in respect of the higher amount. Held, that the memorandum of appeal came under Article 1, Schedule 1 and section 7 (ix) of the Court Fees Act and the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with a court-fee calculated on the principal amount secured and is the same as that paid on the plaint. In a redemption suit the subject-matter of the suit is the existence of the right to redeem and any question as to the condition of redemption is only incidental to that right, Sekharam Nair v. Eacharan Nair, 6 M.L.T. 245: 20 M.L.J. 120: 3 Ind. Cas. 459.

Where the lower Court decreed the plaintiff's claim for foreclosure not as the amount but only in respect of a quarter of the mortgaged property, the plaintiff filed an appeal regarding the other $\frac{3}{4}$ of the property which he claimed. Held, that the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with a court-fee ad valorem calculated on the principal amount secured, Ghasiram v. Liladhar, 9 N.L.R. 86: 20 Ind. Cas. 257.

Redemption of mortgage by one, not a party to the mortgage.—Where the plaintiff, a Mahomedan lady, sued to redeem a mortgage of her property inherited by her from her father, in spite of the sale of the property by her mother and one of her brothers for their personal debts as their own property, and the plaintiff did not claim through the mother or the brother,

Appeal as to the amount payable.—Where the mortgagor-appellant appeals on the ground that he is not liable to pay money adjudged to be due to the mortgagee, his memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with a court-fee ad valorem on the amount by which he asks the appeal Court to vary the decree, Mardan Singh v. Sheoraj Singh, 30 Ind. Cas. 323. In an appeal arising out of a redemption suit, the court-fees payable on the memorandum of appeal is ad valorem on the amount by which the mortgage money is sought to be reduced, Lekh Ram v. Ramji Ram, 1 Lahore 234: 57 Ind. Cas. 215: 3 L.L.J. 370: 144 P.L.R. 1920.

Ad valorem court-fees must be paid on the amount by which the mortgage decree in a redemption suit is sought to be reduced, Ramji Lal v. Shibba Ram and others, 1923 A.I.R. 309 (Lahore): 75 Ind. Cas. 667.

Where the mortgagee appellant claims a larger amount than that awarded by the decree appealed against court-fees must be paid ad valorem on the amount claimed in excess, Sant Baksh Singh v. Sheikh Dildar Hossein, 74 Ind. Cas. 88: 1924 A.I.R. 170 (Oudh); Sangat Baksh Singh v. Rawat Dijdeo Baksh Singh, 67 Ind. Cas. 968: (1922) A.I.R. 82 (Oudh): 25 O.C. 30.

If in an appeal from a decree in a redemption suit a diminution of the amount is prayed, then the memorandum is to be stamped ad valorem on that amount, Hiralal v. Mulchand, 31 P.L.R. 173: 122 I.C. 736: 1930 A.I.R. 601 (Lah.): 193 I.R. 384 (Lah.).

If a mortgagee appellant in an appeal from a decree in a redemption suit, contests not only the amount due to him but also whether the transaction is a sale or a mortgage, the court-fees payable by him are to be calculated ad valorem upon the principal amount secured by the instrument of mortgage, Abdul Aziz v. Rahmat Ullah, 1933 A.I.R. 155 (Lah.): 148 I.C. 234.

Where in a suit for redemption the trial Court ordered redemption on payment of Rs. 39,340-11-7 and the plaintiff having paid that amount together with interest which accrued due later, the trial Court passed a final decree. The plaintiff filed two appeals against the two decrees for reduction of the decretal amount by Rs. 32,225-11-7. The High Court held that full court-fees having been paid on the memorandum of appeal against the preliminary decree the memorandum of appeal against the final decree is sufficiently stamped if it bears a court-fee of Rs. 2, Buddha Ram v. Niamat Rai and others, 1923 A.I.R. 632 (Lahore): I.L.R. 4 Lahore 406: 6 L.L.J. 72.

Suit for possession in the alternative for redemption.—In such suits if the Court orders that the plaintiff can redeem on payment of a certain sum, the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped ad valorem calculated on that sum, Mata Badal Singh v. Jai Singh, 15 Ind. Cas. 745; Wadhawa Singh v. Sunder Singh, 59 Ind. Cas. 667: 21 P.W.R. 1921.

Appeal against a decree allowing redemption on payment of a certain sum should bear ad valorem court-fees on the amount of the principal sum under section 7 (ix) of the Court Fees Act, Fateh Singh v. Babu Ram, 3 L.L.J. 156.

Appeal as to the right to redeem.—In a suit for redemption or foreclosure, where the question arose as to the right to redeem or foreclose for an adjudged sum, the court-fees payable will be according to section 7 (ix), i.e., according to the principal amount secured by the instrument, but if the appellant challenges the amount payable, the fee will be paid ad valorem calculated on the difference between the sum awarded in the lower Court and that mentioned in the memorandum of appeal as due, *Gumani v. In a suit to redeem a kanom, a decree for redemption was passed. The defendants appealed against the decree on the ground that the plaintiffs are not entitled to redeem and if they are held to be so entitled they can do it only on payment of a higher sum, which amount was not stated in the memorandum of appeal and no court-fees paid in respect of the higher amount. Held, that the memorandum of appeal came under Article 1, Schedule 1 and section 7 (ix) of the Court Fees Act and the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with a court-fee calculated on the principal amount secured and is the same as that paid on the plaint. Eacharan Nair*, 6 M.L.T. 245: 20 M.L.J. 120: 3 Ind. Cas. 459.

Where the lower Court decreed the plaintiff's claim for foreclosure not as the amount but only in respect of a quarter of the mortgaged property, the plaintiff filed an appeal regarding the other $\frac{3}{4}$ of the property which he claimed. Held, that the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with a court-fee ad valorem calculated on the principal amount secured, Ghasiram v. Liladhar, 9 N.L.R. 86: 20 Ind. Cas. 257.

Redemption of mortgage by one, not a party to the mortgage.—Where the plaintiff, a Mahomedan lady, sued to redeem a mortgage of her property inherited by her from her father, in spite of the sale of the property by her mother and one of her brothers for their personal debts as their own property, and the plaintiff did not claim through the mother or the brother, held, that the memorandum of appeal is sufficiently stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10, Musst. Imaman v. Lalta Baksh, 7 N.W.P. 343.

Redemption suit—extension of time.—Where the appeal relates to the further time granted for redemption after the expiry of the original time granted, the memorandum of appeal need only be stamped with a court-fee of rupees ten only, Dadnoo v. Somnath, 7 N.L.R. 41, overruled partly in 1931 A.I.R. 1 (Nag.).

Cost of improvements on redemption.—In a suit for redemption of a kanom, the plaintiff obtained a decree for possession subject to the payment of the kanom amount and the value of the improvements. The plaintiff appealed against the award as to the value of the improvements are to be paid on the value of the improvements, Tiruvangalah Nellyton Paidal Nayar and others v. Emperor, 1926 M.W.N. 169: 92 I.C. 624: 1926 A.I.R. 225 (Mad.): 22 L.W. 691.

Procedure in case of claim for improvements in a redemption.—When a redemption is allowed and the price of redemption is fixed and an application is made to add to that sum the price of improvement made on the property by the applicant, who is a purchaser of the property without notice of the mortgage, the way to get it done is not by way of review of the appellate judgment in a case in which not a word was said about the matter in either Court. The proper course is to make a demand on the opposite party for one of the alternatives mentioned in sec. 51 of the Transfer of Property Act, and if he refuses the demand can be enforced by a suit. As for the court-fees on the application for review, the review sought is measured by the value of the improvement made on the property by the applicant and is not a relief of which it is not possible to estimate a money value, The Sialkot Mission v. Sir Bisheshardas Daga and others, 109 I.C. 95: 1928 A.I.R. 114 (Nag.).

Rejection of plaint.—Duty of Appeal Court.—The plaintiff brought a suit for declaration of title to and recovery of possession of certain immoveable property. He valued his suit for the purpose of court-fees at Rs. 60 and paid court-fees ad valorem on that valuation. The defendant raised a question that the suit has been undervalued and that the court-fee paid was insufficient. The trial Court enquired into the matter and found that the true value of the land in suit should be assessed at Rs. 9,905 and gave the plaintiff an opportunity of paying the deficit court-fees. The plaintiff defaulted and the result was that the plaint was rejected under Order 7, Rule 11, C. P. C. The plaintiff appealed against that order to the District Judge and valued his appeal at the same value as he put upon the original plaint and questioned the finding of the trial Judge as to the value of the suit. The learned District Judge disposed of the appeal saying "as the memorandum of appeal is insufficiently stamped it is rejected." On the second appeal the High Court held, it is clear that the District Judge did not go into the question of true value of the properties in suit for the purpose of court-fees and without coming to a finding upon the question he could not hold that the memorandum was insufficiently stamped and remanded the case for a trial of the question as to what the true value of the property in suit is and what the court-fee upon that finding should be, Amarta Lal Kumar v. Sisir Kumar Basu, 87 I.C. 651: 1926 A.I.R. 427 (Calcutta). (N.B.—In this case the same fee was paid on the memorandum of appeal to the High Court as was paid in the 1st Court).

A memorandum of appeal from a decree rejecting a plaintiff for non-payment of deficit court-fees which the plaintiff was ordered to pay is not liable to be stamped with ad valorem Court fees as the appeal is against the decree and not against the judgment and also as the decree does not contain any directions ordering the plaintiff to make good the deficiency in court-fees, but merely dismisses the plaintiff's suit with costs. The plaintiff is entitled to contest the finding as to court-fees and the fact that no grounds have been added challenging the demand for court-fees is not material, Jai Protap Narain Singh v. Rabi Protap Narain Singh, 52 All. 756: 1930 A.L.J. 987: 124 I.C. 708: 1930 A.I.R. 443 (All.): 1930 I.R. 504 (All.).

Court-fees payable.—An appeal against an order rejecting a plaintiff for non-payment of court-fees must bear ad valorem court-fees as the order rejecting the plaintiff is a decree, Musst. Sado Kuar v. Buta Singh, 265 P.L.R. 1914: 80 P.R. 1914: 167 P.W.R. 1914; Shahu v. Bakri, 3 L.L.J. 237. See also Rakhal Chandra Ghose v. Ashutosh Ghosh, 17 C.W.N. 807 (808) (Limitation); Govinda v. Bansilal, 98 I.C. 663: 1927 A.I.R. 100 (Nagpure).

An order rejecting a plaintiff for non-payment of court-fees demanded is a decree and the appellant must pay ad valorem court-fees on the value of the subject-matter of the suit and not merely on the further fee demanded in the lower Court, Harihar Rao v. Salu Bai and another, 103 Ind. Cas. 268: 1927 A.I.R. 256 (Nag.).

In Kossella Koer v. Beharee Patuk, (1869) 12 W.R. 70, it was held by the Calcutta High Court that an appeal from an order rejecting a plaintiff is an appeal from order and is to be valued and stamped as such, but the words "or from an order rejecting a plaintiff," in Article II, Schedule 11 of the Court Fees Act, having been repealed by section 155 and Schedule 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908) and an order rejecting a plaint having been included in the definition of a "decree" in the Code of Civil Procedure, this is no longer good law.

An order rejecting a plaint is a decree and a memorandum of appeal against the decree must be stamped in the same way as the plaint; and the plaintiff should be given an opportunity to pay the deficit court-fee on the memorandum of appeal, Munshi Mahton v. Lachman Lal, 10 Pat.L.T. 545: 120 I.C. 765: 1929 A.I.R. 615 (Patna).

Specific performance.—Where the plaintiff sued for specific performance of a contract by landlord to grant a lease of some lands at an annual rental of Rs. 32 but the valuation for the purpose for jurisdiction was made at Rs. 1,200. Held, that the memorandum of second appeal was correctly stamped with fees ad valorem calculated on Rs. 32 under sec. 7, para. (x) (c) of the Court Fees Act and the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and court-fees consequently should be Rs. 32, Sailendra Nath Mitra v. Ram Chandra Pal, 25 C.W.N. 768: 34 C.L.J. 94: 66 Ind. Cas. 268.

Set-off.—A written statement containing a set-off must be stamped as a plaint in a suit, Amir Zama v. Nathu Mal, 8 All. 396: (1886) A.W.N. 159; Bai Shri Majirajbai v. Narotan Horgovan, 13 Bom. 672; Chenappa v. Raghunath, 15 Mad. 29: 1 M.L.J. 598.

Ad valorem court-fees are to be paid on the amount claimed as set-off even if that amount exceeds the claim of the plaintiff made in the plaint, Chhakkan Lal v. Kanhaiya Lal, 45 All. 218: 20 All.L.J. 1005: 69 Ind. Cas. 921: (1923) A.I.R. 118 (Allahabad); Budhoo Lal v. Mewa Lal, 19 A.L.J. 558: 43 All. 564: 63 Ind. Cas. 15 F.B.

A plea of set-off is quite different from a plea of payment and should not be entertained without payment of proper court-fees in respect of it by the defendant, Muhammad Raza v. Kubura Bibi, 15 Ind. Cas. 526.

Where in a written statement the defendant pleaded a set-off, within the meaning of Article 1, Schedule 1 of the Court Fees Act but omitted to pay the requisite court-fees, the Court can either go into the question of set-off, or make an order for payment of additional court-fees, as no court-fees at all have been paid, Mathu Emlappa Pillay v. Vunuku Thathayya Maistry, 36 Ind. Cas. 957.

When a set-off is pleaded, court-fee is payable only on the amount claimed in excess of that claimed in the plaint by the plaintiff and only if the defendant wants a decree for that excess, Ramnagir v. Achheram, 1927 A.I.R. 74 (Nagpore): 97 I.C. 916.

Equitable set-off.

In T. S. Sitarama Aiyar v. G. Ramaniya Mudaliar, 1933 A.I.R. 203 (M.): 142 I.C. 719 the Madras High Court held "there is nothing to show that the set-off mentioned in this article is confined only to legal set-off coming under Order 8, Rule 6, C. P. C. Prima facie the expression 'set-off' used in this article may well night include an equitable set-off." Therefore, a claim by way of damages in the written statement in a suit on a pro-note is liable to duty. See Lakshmanan Chettiar v. Ramanathan Chettiar, 58 Mad. 338: 68 M.L.J. 23: 1935 M.W.N. 24: 41 L.W. 27: 1935 A.I.R. 115 (Mad.): 154 I.C. 432.

Set-off and counter claim.

The words 'set-off' and 'counter claim' are not defined in the Court Fees Act but they have a definite meaning attached to them. They refer to a cross claim against the plaintiff which entitles the defendant to refuse to pay the amount demanded by the plaintiff and to assert that the result of setting off the cross claim of the defendant would be that the defendant would on the contrary be entitled to a decree for the balance, Wali Mahomed v. Khoja Ismailia Trading Co., 1933 A.I.R. 247 (Sind): 150 I.C. 464.

What is a set-off?—See Order 8, Rules 6 and 7, C. P. C. See Mahesh Narain v. Newbat Patuk, 32 Cal. 654: 1 C.L.J. 364, where it was held that for certain purposes the set-off has the same effect as a plaint in a cross suit. See also Guise v. Anantha Ram, 10 C.W.N. 199; Bhagatsingh v. Debi Dyal, 85 P.R. 1908: 130 P.L.R. 1908: 80 P.W.R. 1908, where it was held that if the claim be not an ascertained amount and the defendant does not ask for a decree but merely claims that he is entitled to get certain sums arising out of the same transaction and that his claim may be set-off against the claim of the plaintiff, such claim does not require court-fee. See contra, Fakir Chandra v. Gisborne & Co., 8 C.W.N. 175; Subramania v. Authuswami, 17 M.L.J. 481.

What is not a set-off?—In a suit for account and to recover the amount found due on taking unsettled accounts in a dissolved partnership, the defendants claimed that some money to be ascertained on taking accounts, is due from the plaintiff to them and prayed that they might get that amount, expressing their willingness to pay court-fee on any sum awarded to them. Held, that the defendant's claim is neither a set-off nor a counter claim, so is not liable to pay court-fee under Art. 1, Schedule 1 of the Court Fees Act and the defendants cannot be compelled to value their claim or to pay court-fees under section 7 (iv) (f) of the Court Fees Act, Fateh Mahomed Haji Sulleman v. K. S. Ramjan Khan, 8 S.L.R. 122: 27 Ind. Cas. 316.

In a suit for accounts in a dissolved partnership business, the plaintiff sued to recover the money due to the plaintiff; the defendant pleaded that money will be found due to him, held, that no court-fee is payable as the defendant's claim is not a counter-claim but merely a statement that something is likely to happen if accounts are taken, Jessoram Dhanuram v. Isardas, 8 S.L.R. 124: 27 Ind. Cas. 320.

In a contribution suit if the defendant claim that the previous payments by him should be taken into consideration, such sums are not strictly speaking a matter of set-off, Gogun Chand v. Hurimohun, 12 C.L.R. 539.

Under section 108 (f) of the Transfer of Property Act, the deduction the lessee is authorized to make for the expenses of repairs from the rent as it becomes due, is in the nature of payments to the landlord and does not bear the character of a set-off, Katie Graham v. Colonial Govt. of British Guinea, 12 C.L.J. 351.

Valuation of a set-off.—There is no reason why the provisions of the Court Fees Act should not apply to the Valuation of the set-off for the purposes of court-fees, D. S. Abraham & Co. v. Ebrahim, 1925 A.I.R. 65 (R.): 84 I.C. 971: 2 Ran. 462.

Assessment of fees.

The court-fees are payable on the whole amount claimed and not on the difference between the set-off and the amount claimed in the plaint, Chakkan Lal v. Kanhaiya Lal, 45 All. 218: 69 I.C. 9211: 1923 A.I.R. 118 (All.); Jugal Kishore v. Bankey Behari, (1934) 16 P.L.T. 76: 1935 A.I.R. 110 (Pat.).

Counter-claim.—If the defendant do not put forward any counter-claim but is making various claim as to items in the partition account to be taken in the suit, then he cannot be asked to pay court-fees on those items, Balgis Beevi Ammal v. Hathiya Beevi Ammal, 1933 A.I.R. 353 (Mad.): 147 I.C. 300.

Garnishee.—The equity arising from the cross debt could be set-off by the defendant without payment of court-fees, Tayabali Gulam Hossein v. Atmaram Sakharam Vani, 16 Bom. L.R. 520: 38 Bom. 631.

Proviso.—Maximum court-fee leviable on plaints, and memorandum of appeal, is Rs. 3,000 under this proviso, Kashi Prasad Singh v. Secretary of State for India, 29 Cal. 140. The rule laid down in section 17 of the Court Fees Act regarding multifarious suits is subject to the proviso at the end of Art. 1, Schedule 1 of that Act, and the maximum fee leviable on the plaint or memorandum of appeal in such a suit is under that proviso Rs. 3,000, Raghobir Singh v. Dharam Kuar, 3 All. 108 F.B. The Court Fees Act does not authorize the recovery of any sum by way of court-fees in excess of Rs. 3,000. The proviso to Art. 1 of Sch. I refers only to the maximum fee leviable on a plaint or a memorandum of appeal, and leaves out any reference to a written statement pleading a set off or counter-claim, but there is nothing in the Act to suggest that there is any fee in excess of Rs. 3,000 and there is no authority for charging a larger sum on a written statement than that fixed as maximum in Schedule I which is simply headed as 'ad valorem fees' and the table of reference applies to the whole schedule and not in particular to Article 1 which is the only article which makes any proviso indicating that there is a different maximum for the fees leviable on a plaint or memorandum of appeal from those leviable on a written statement. There is no reason for confining the words of the proviso to a plaint or a memorandum of appeal but the words may apply equally to a written statement claiming a set-off, (Raja Mahomed Mumtaz Ali v. Muhammad Saadat Ali, 5 Luck. 621: 7 O.W.N. 147: 125 I.C. 172: 1930 A.I.R. 140 (Oudh): 1930 I.R. 300 (Oudh)).

2. Plaint * * * in a suit for possession under [the Specific Relief Act, 1877, section 9.]

A fee of one-half the amount prescribed in the foregoing scale.

NOTES.

Amendments.—The words "Specific Relief Act, 1877, section 9" were substituted for the words and figures "Act No. XIV of 1859 [An Act to provide for the limitation of suits by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1891 (12 of 1891)]. The words "or the memorandum of appeal" after the word "plaint" were repealed by the Court Fees Amendment Act, 1870 (Act 20 of 1870).

VIII of 1871.]

4. Application for review of judgment, if presented on or after the ninetieth day from the date of the decree.

The fee leviable on the plaint or memorandum of appeal.

5. Application for review of judgment, if presented before the ninetieth day from the date of the decree.

One-half of the fee
leviable on the plaint or memorandum of appeal.

NOTES.

Application.—Neither Art. 4 nor Art. 5 of Schedule I of the Court Fees Act refers to an interlocutory order; it is clear from the language of these articles that they refer to orders ending in decrees, Jagannath Prosad v. Mulchand, 31 All. 261: 6 All. L.J. 151: 1 Ind. Cas. 999. See also DeSouza v. The Secretary of State for India, 1892 P.J. 383. For other cases see under sections 14 and 15 of this Act, supra.

Application for new trial.—The application for review does not include new trial application in a Small Cause Court suit in the mufasil, Gopinath Ray v. Ram Joy, 14 W.R. 249. See also Chotelal v. Bulakidas, 7 Bom.H.C.R. 109.

Application under section 151, C. P. C.—No application, far less any with court-fees as on an application for review need be filed under section 151, C. P. C., Probhas Kumar Ganguli v. Nithar Lal Ganguli, 28 C.W.N. 928: 1924 A.I.R. 1054 (Cal.).

Leviable.—The word “leviable” seems to have been used instead of the word “levied” in order to provide, for an application for review by a defendant or respondent in the case of a suit in forma pauperis, In the matter of Maqbul Ahmed, 31 All. 294 (300): 6 All.L.J. 215: 1 Ind. Cas. 209.

The words “leviable on a plaint or memorandum of appeal” in Art. 5 of the Court Fees Act mean “leviable on the plaint or memorandum of appeal” in which the judgment, review of which is asked for, was passed and cannot be construed to mean “leviable on a plaint or memorandum of appeal” asking for the same relief as that asked for in the application for review. Application for review must, therefore, bear court-fees without reference to the relief asked for in the application for review, Nageshar Sahai v. Shiam Bahadur, 74 Ind. Cas. 255: 1924 A.I.R. 108 (Oudh): 11 O.L.J. 339.

The word “leviable” in Arts. 4 and 5 has reference to the time when the plaint or memorandum of appeal was presented. As the application relates back to the plaint or memorandum of appeal, as the case may be, the fee is levied in a fixed proportion independent of the scope of the application for review, Nanhilal Agrani v. Jogendra Chandra Dutta, 28 C.W.N. 403: 39 C.L.J. 222 (225, 226, 227): 82 I.C. 297: 1924 A.I.R. 881 (Cal.). The High Court heard an application for review on half court-fees, although the time had expired and held that the payment of full court-fees and then an immediate order for return of half is an idle formality, Nowrang v. Janardan, 39 C.L.J. 344: 80 I.C. 794: 1924 A.I.R. 994 (Cal.).

The word ‘leviable’ does not mean ‘levied’, A. A. R. Chettyar Firm v. Daw Htoo and others, 11 Rang. 120: 146 I.C. 560: 1933 A.I.R. 203 (Rang.).

Plaint.—The word ‘plaint’ in the 3rd column means nothing else than the plaint which was actually filed and which has resulted in the judgment which is sought to be reviewed. It does not mean an imaginary plaint which might be filed at the time of the filing of the application for review and asking for the same relief as in the application for review. Therefore half the court-fees originally paid on the original plaint, are to be paid even if the application for review relates to a small portion of the relief asked for in the plaint, Satya Kripal Bannerjee v. Satya Bikash Bannerjee, 57 Cal. 679: 129 I.C. 191: 1930 A.I.R. 631 (Cal.): 1931 I.R. 143 (Cal.) followed in Ibrahim Ali v. Ahsan Hussain and others, 142 I.C. 416 (Nag.): 1933 A.I.R. 207 (Nag.): 1933 I.R. 118 (Nag.).

Date of the Decree.—See Order 20, Rule 7, C. P. C. The decree shall bear the date when the judgment was pronounced, etc. See Nowrang v. Janardan, (1923) 39 C.L.J. 344: 80 I.C. 794: 1924 A.I.R. 994 (Cal.).

Computation of time.—Sundays and holidays are not to be excluded in computing the time of 90 days, Sayera Bibi v. Bhutnath Haldar, 15 C.L.J. 505: 15 Ind. Cas. 455; In re Kota, 9 Mad. 134.

The time for presenting an application is 90 days from the date of signing the decree although no copy is required to be filed and the time for obtaining the copy is to be excluded, Gangadhar v. Shekhar Bashini, 20 C.W.N. 967: 24 C.L.J. 235; Kalipada v. Sekhar, 35 I.C. 348.

Time for copying cannot be excluded in computing the period of 89 days, Jugat Pal Singh v. Jogeshwar Baksh Singh, 2 O.C. 302; Ruldu Mal v. Sobha, 39 P.R. 1879. See also Midnapore Zemindary & Co. v. Dayarda Nath Bhowmick, 96 I.C. 437. See for other cases under section 14 of this Act. Application for review filed after 90 days must bear full court-fees, Hari Lal Ram Dhan v. Mussammut Gaivabai, 7 C.P.L.R. 111.

Presentation.—The presentation to the Stamp Reporter was presentation within the meaning of Arts. 4 and 5 of Sch. I to the Court Fees Act, Nowrang v. Janardan, 39 C.L.J. 344: 1924 A.I.R. 994 (Cal.): 80 I.C. 794.

Review application—Court-fee payable.—For the purpose of ascertaining the court-fees payable under Art. 5, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act upon an application to review an appellate judgment, the fee to be considered is the fee leviable on the memorandum of the appeal in which the decree sought to be reviewed was passed, and not the fee which was leviable on the plaint, nor when the decree sought to be reviewed was passed on appeal under section 10 of the Letters Patent from an appellate judgment of a Division Bench, nor the fee which was leviable on the memorandum of the appeal before such Bench, Husaini Begum v. The Collector of Muzaffarnagar, 15 All. 176: 9 All. W.N. 27.

The dismissal of an appeal under Order 41, Rule 11, C. P. C. by the High Court is a decree and falls within the definition of a decree in section 2 (2), C. P. C. Court-fee is payable under

Art. 4 of Schedule I of the Court Fees Act on all documents irrespective of the schedules of the Court Fees Act in which such a document may be included, Altap Ali v. Jamsur Ali, 30 C.W.N. 334: 93 I.C. 909: 1926 A.I.R. 638 (Cal.).

Fee payable after amendments.—If after the memorandum of appeal has been filed, the Court Fees Act was amended which required enhanced fees, the court-fees on an application for review of judgment in that appeal, filed after the amendment has come into force, are to be assessed at the old rate before the amendments, Nanhilal Agrani v. J. C. Dutt and others, 28 C.W.N. 403: 39 C.L.J. 222: 82 I.C. 297: 1924 A.I.R. 881 (Cal.).

But In re Punya Nahako and others, 50 Mad. 488: 52 M.L.J. 128: 100 I.C. 72: 1927 A.I.R. 360 (Mad.) the Madras High Court held that when the application for review is filed after the amended Act has come into operation, then the court-fees should be calculated as if the application for review was a plaint or a memorandum of appeal for the relief sought for and presented on that date.

An application for review is to be stamped with half the fee (when within 90 days from the date of judgment) payable on the memorandum of appeal at the time the appeal was filed, although the scale of fees may have increased when the application for review was presented, Parmeshwar Kurmi v. Bakhtawar Pande, 54 All. 1092: 1932 A.L.J. 908: 1933 A.I.R. 20 (All.): 143 I.C. 481.

Application for review of one claim out of several.—Where a plaint or memorandum of appeal comprises a number of claims and a portion only of such claims has been allowed by the judgment, the party asking a review should be required to stamp his application with a fee sufficient to cover the amount of the claims in regard to which he wishes the Court to review its judgment on the ground that a plaint or memorandum of appeal embracing two or more distinct subjects is treated, for the purpose of stamp revenue as a collection of distinct plaints or memoranda of appeal, and treating it in the manner, I think the words “the plaint or memorandum of appeal in Article 5 may be construed as meaning, not necessarily the plaint or memorandum of appeal, formed by the combination of several subjects comprised in it but the plaint or memorandum of appeal which would have been presented in respect to the particular subject, in regard to which the review is sought, if the suit had embraced that subject and no others,” In re Monohar G. Tambekar, 4 Bom. 26. See also Anonymous, 7 M.H.C.R. App. 1. The court-fee payable on an application for review would be the court-fee payable as if, on the date, when the review application was put in, the applicant was filing a plaint or memorandum of appeal for the same relief. The court-fees payable on an application for review in a case of award for mesne profits are to be calculated on the amount of mesne profits which the applicant seems to be relieved from payment, In re Punya Nahako and others, 50 Mad. 488: 52 M.L.J. 128: 1927 M.W.N. 101: 100 I.C. 72: 1927 A.I.R. 360 (Mad.). See also A. A. R. Chettyar Firm v. Daw Htoo and others, 11 Rang. 120: 1933 A.I.R. 203 (Rang.): 146 I.C. 560.

Contra.—The court-fee payable must be calculated on that paid on the plaint or memorandum of appeal in which the judgment sought to be reviewed was passed whether the question relates to whole or part of a decree, In the matter of Sheikh Magbul Ahmed, 31 All. 294: 6 All.L.J. 215: 1 Ind. Cas. 209; Imdad Hasan Khan v. Badri Prasad, 1898 All.W.N. 212; Nageshar Sahai v. Shiam Bahadur, 1924 A.I.R. 108 (Oudh): 11 O.L.J. 339: 74 Ind. Cas. 255; Nanhilal v. Jogendra Chandra, 28 C.W.N. 403: 39 C.L.J. 222 (227): 82 I.C. 207: 1924 A.I.R. 881 (Cal.); Sheikh Abdul Gani v. Sito Singh, 6 P.L.T. 40: 56 I.C. 143: 1925 A.I.R. 368 (Pat.) where the appellant gave up on of the reliefs asked for in argument.

Applications for reviews of judgments are to be stamped with court-fees actually leviable on the memoranda of appeal in which the judgment sought to be reviewed was passed irrespective of the relief claimed, Musst. Hussaina v. Musst. Sahib Nur, 59 P.W.R. 1913: 154 P.L.R. 1913: 20 Ind. Cas. 3.

The application for review is to be stamped on the entire valuation of the suit and not merely on the value of the relief sought for in the review. The policy of the Legislature is to put a clog on the possible mala fide application for review, Satya Kripal Bannerjee v. Satya Bikash Bannerjee, 129 I.C. 191: 1930 A.I.R. 631 (Cal.): 1931 I.R. 143 (Cal.): 57 Cal. 679.

Review as to mesne profits.—See In re Punya Nahako and others, 50 Mad. 488: 52 M.L.J. 128: 1927 M.W.N. 101: 100 I.C. 72: 1927 A.I.R. 360 (Mad.). (This view cannot be accepted by other High Courts except Bombay as expressed in cases cited above).

Review as to costs.—A suit being decided in favour of the plaintiff, one of the defendants filed an application for review as to costs only and stamped his petition of review on the entire amount of costs. The Munsiff ordered that stamp on the entire value of the suit should be paid and on the failure of the petitioner to comply with the order, rejected the petition. The petitioner moved the High Court; held, that the decision of the Munsiff was right, Nobinchandra Chuckerbuty v. Mohamed Usir Ali Sarkar, 3 C.W.N. 292. Contra, see A. A. R. Chettyar Firm v. Daw Htoo and others, 11 Rang. 120: 1933 A.I.R. 203 (Rang.): 146 I.C. 560 where it was held that the application need only bear stamps as to costs only.

Restoration of an appeal dismissed for default.—An application for restoration of an appeal dismissed for non-payment of paper-book costs, is not an application for review, therefore is to be stamped as an application under Sch. II, Art. 1 (d), Nalini Sundari Debya v. Narendra Chandra Lahiri, 36 C.W.N. 246: 141 I.C. 305: 1932 A.I.R. 641 (Cal.). See also Hari Dassi Debi v. Sajani Mohan Sanyal, 36 C.W.N. 564: 55 C.L.J. 314: 1932 A.I.R. 770 (Cal.).

Fraudulent petition.—Application for review filed to set aside fraudulent solenama.—Where an application was filed to set aside an order passed on a fraudulent vakalatnama and a fraudulent petition of compromise, the High Court held that in such case, the Court had an inherent jurisdiction summarily to set aside the order passed and as such, no court-fees as on an application for review, is necessary, Pearry Chowdhury v. Sanoo Das, 19 C.W.N. 419: 27 I.C. 628.

Fraud as to terms in the compromise.—In J. C. Gaulstaun v. Kumar Pramatha Nath Ray, 33 C.W.N. 883, the Calcutta High Court held that ad valorem court-fees are necessary in an application for review on the ground of fraud by insertion of the word "whole" in place of the word "balance."

Petition insufficiently stamped.—Information to be given to the party.—The applicant must be informed of the deficiency in court-fees on the application. If it is not in form he cannot be refused permission at the time of hearing to make up the deficiency, In re Shahazada Fakeeroddeen Ahmed, 15 W.R. 278.

Hearing of an insufficiently stamped application.—A Court has jurisdiction to hear an application for review even if the application be insufficiently stamped, Surendranath v. Sitanath, 21 I.C. 943 (Cal.).

NOTES.

Local Amendment.—This Article has been amended in Bengal, Bombay, Bihar and Orissa and U. P.

The Indian Stamp Act now in force is Act II of 1899. Act I of 1879 has been repealed.

See now the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (2 of 1899), section 42. Copies of entries from account books relied on by the plaintiff are kept with the record when such account books are returned to him under section 141 (Order 13, Rule 4) of the Code of Civil Procedure. When so furnished they are not certified "by or by order of any public officer" and are not stamped but the question having arisen when the Court clerk subsequently certified the copies as to their having been compared and found correct, held, that the originals not having been chargeable under the Stamp Act, no court-fees can be levied by reason of the certificate, Hari Chand v. Jivna Subhana, 11 Bom. 526.

A copy or an extract from an entry in an account book filed under section 141A, C. P. C. (Act XIV of 1882) does not require to be stamped under Art. 24, Sch. I of the Stamp Act, Kastur v. Fakiria, 26 Bom. 522: 4 Bom.L.R. 223; see also Nandu Bai v. Gou, 27 Bom. 150: 4 Bom.L.R. 591.

Article 8 of Schedule I of the Court Fees Act is intended to authorize the levy of a fee of 8 annas only in cases where the original which is withdrawn, is liable to stamp duty. Where a document which is not required by law to be placed on the record is presented for verification and then returned to the holder, it cannot be said to be "withdrawn" within the meaning of Article 8, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act. Where, therefore, the plaintiff instituted a suit through his agent who held a general power of attorney duly stamped, which power of attorney having been produced for verification, an unstamped copy was filed and left on the record. Held, that the copy was not chargeable with any fee inasmuch as the original power of attorney was never placed on the record and there is no law which required that it should be so placed. Article 8 of Schedule I of the Court Fees Act is intended to authorize the levy of a fee of 8 annas in the case contemplated by Order 13, Rule 9, C. P. C. If in such case the original is liable to stamp duty, the copy substituted is chargeable with a fee of 8 annas, Rustomji v. Kala Singh, 136 P.W.R. 1917: 9 P.R. 1918: 43 Ind. Cas. 383.

Method of counting folios.—Where portions of a khata book are to be translated, the method is to calculate each portion as a separate document, even if any of the portions is less than a folio. The separate portions are not to be taken together and charged according to the aggregate number of folios, Brajanath Dhar v. Bhaboo Mohan Dhar, 6 B.L.R. App. 137.

Stamp Act.—Provisions of the Indian Stamp Act (Act II of 1899) relating to copies is embodied in Art. 24 of the said Act.

As to documents liable to duty under the Indian Stamp Act (Act II of 1899), see s. 3 and the Schedule to that Act.

9. Copy of any revenue or judicial proceeding or order not otherwise provided for by this Act, or copy of any account, statement, report, or of the like taken out of any Civil or Criminal or Revenue Court or Office, or from the office of any chief officer charged with the executive administration of a Division—	For every three hundred and sixty words or fraction of three hundred and sixty words.	Eight annas. (Twelve annas in Bihar and Orissa.)
--	---	--

NOTES.

Local Amendments.—This Article has been amended in Bihar and Orissa.

Several documents.—See Brajanath Dhar v. Bhaba Mohan Dhar, 6 B.L.R. App. 137, supra.

Copies.—Certified copies of maps or plans or extracts of Baptismal, Marriage and Burial certificates and certified copies under Birth, Death and Registration Acts are to be stamped with 8 annas adhesive court-fees stamp, under Notification No. 786 S. R., dated 17th February, 1899, Rule 15 (e).

These documents are to be stamped under the Indian Stamp Act (Act II of 1899) and rules under that Act.

Under Art. 24 of Schedule I of the Stamp Act (Act II of 1899), copy of or extract from any register relating to births, baptisms, namings, dedications, marriages, [divorces, deaths or burials] is exempted from duty. [These documents were not exempted from duty under Act I of 1879.]

Under the Indian Stamp Act Rules, 1925, dated 5th May, 1925, Rule 17 (e), copies of maps or plans and printed copies certified to be true copies shall be stamped with court-fee stamps. This was also the kind of stamp leviable under the rules framed in 1914.

Copies from Revenue Courts.—Copies of surveyor's village plans.—N. 9628 Mis. C., dated 1st October, 1923.—In supersession of all previous orders on the subject the Governor in Council is pleased to direct that the ordinary rate of supply of copies of surveyor's village plans from the Revenue Court in Bengal is to be one rupee and six annas per plan, with effect from the 26th October, 1923, but should the internal delineation be intricate and the labour be enhanced in proportion, the rate may be increased at the discretion of the collector, within a limit of two rupees and 12 annas per plan. (Vide the Calcutta Gazette, Part I, p. 1461.)

Searching fees.—A sub-collector required searching fees to be paid in connection with an application for copies by parties, held on the application for revision by the High Court, there is no provision of law, and there is nothing in the civil rules of practice or in any rule which governs the procedure in a Civil Court, authorizing the levy of searching fees for supplying copies to litigants. When an application is made all that is required of a party is that such a party is to supply stamps for copies and if the required number of copy stamps are supplied, it is the duty of the Court to furnish the copies asked for, Raja Sahib of Vizianagram v. Sub-Collector of Berhampore, 1928 A.I.R. 370 (Madras): 54 M.L.J. 229: 51 Mad. 599: 27 L.W. 310: 1928 M.W.N. 102: 108 I.C. 656.

N.B.—Such fees may be levied when there are rules to that effect.

10. [Repealed by the Guardians and Wards Act (VIII of 1890). Sec. 2.]

11. Probate of a will or letters of administration with or without will annexed.	When such amount or value of the property in respect of which the grant of probate, or letters is made, exceeds one thousand rupees (two thousand	Two per centum on such amount or value. In all places where the rates have not been changed. (In Punjab the rate is two per centum only.)

(When such amount or value exceeds five thousand rupees but does not exceed ten thousand rupees—in C. P.)	(One hundred rupees plus two and a half per centum on the excess of five thousand rupees—in C. P.)
When such amount or value exceeds ten thousand rupees, but does not exceed fifty thousand rupees, (on the part of the amount or value in excess of ten thousand rupees upto fifty thousand rupees—in Bombay.)	Two and a half per centum on such amount or value.
(When such amount or value exceeds ten thousand rupees—in C. P.)	(Three per centum in Bengal, Bihar and Orissa and Bombay.)
When such amount or value exceeds fifty thousand rupees.	(Two hundred and fifty rupees plus three per centum on the amount or value in excess of ten thousand rupees—in C. P.)
(When such amount or value exceeds fifty thousand rupees, for the portion of such amount or value which is in excess of fifty thousand rupees upto one lakh of rupees.)	Three per centum on such amount or value.
When such amount or value exceeds a lakh of rupees, on the portion of such amount or value which is in excess of one lakh of rupees.	(Three per centum in U. P. but four per centum in Bengal, Bihar and Orissa, and Bombay.)
(When such amount or value exceeds a lakh of rupees, on the portion of such amount or value which is in excess of one lakh of rupees upto two lakhs and fifty thousand—in Bengal.)	Four per centum in U. P., Five per centum in B. & O.
	Five per centum in Bengal.

(When the amount or value of the property in respect of which the grant of probate or letters is made exceeds one lakh of rupees, on the part of the amount or value in excess of one lakh of rupees, upto two lakhs of rupees—in Bombay.)

Four and a half per centum—in Bombay.

(When the amount or value of the property in respect of which the grant of probate or letters is made exceeds two lakhs of rupees, on the part of the amount or value in excess of two lakhs of rupees, upto two lakhs and fifty thousand—in Bombay.)

Five per centum—in Bombay.

When such amount or value exceeds two lakhs and fifty thousand rupees, on the portion of such amount or value which is in excess of two lakhs and fifty thousand rupees upto three lakhs and rupees.

Five and a half per centum—in Bengal and Bombay.

(and) when such amount or value exceeds three lakhs of rupees, on the portion of such amount or value which is in excess of three lakhs of rupees upto four lakhs of rupees.

Six per centum (Bengal and Bombay).

(and) when such amount or value exceeds four lakhs of rupees, on the portion of such amount or value which is in excess of four lakhs of rupees upto five lakhs of rupees.

Six and a half per centum (Bengal and Bombay).

(and) when such amount or value exceeds five lakhs of rupees, on the portion of such amount or value which is in excess of five lakhs of rupees.

Seven per centum (Bengal and Bombay).

Provided that when, after the grant of a certificate under the Succession Certificate Act, 1889 (Part X of the Indian Succession Act, 1925,—in Bombay, Bengal and C. P.) or under Bombay Regulation VIII of 1827, in respect of any property included in an estate, a grant of probate or letters of administration is made in respect of the same estate, the fee payable in respect of the latter grant shall be reduced by the amount of the fee paid in respect of the former grant.

NOTES.

Local Amendment.—This Article has been amended in Bengal, Bombay, Bihar and Orissa, Madras, C. P. and U.P.

For the amendment of rates see the Amending Acts for each Province, infra. (I have attempted to indicate the changes in one place but the particular statute for each province must be consulted.)

Application.—Art. 11 applies only to those cases when the duty is payable on the amount or value of the property in respect of which Probate or Letters of Administration shall be granted, if the amount or value of such property exceeds Rs. 1,000 (by the present Amendment Act, Rs. 2,000 in Bengal). In the goods of Abdul Aziz, 33 Cal. 577.

Valuation.—In cases not governed by the Indian Succession Act, Probate and Letters of Administration granted by the High Court of Bombay in respect of Hindus, Mahomedans and others not usually designated as British subjects take effect only for the purpose of recovering debts and securing debtors paying the same and probate duty is payable on the amount of such debts. Cutchi Memons are Mahomedans. In the matter of the last will and testament of Haji Ismail Haji Abdulla, deceased, 6 Bombay. 452.

The words "amount or value of the property" in Article 11, Schedule 1 of the Court Fees Act refer only to the nett value. Therefore, when the nett value of a property in respect of which Probate or Letters of Administration are granted does not exceed Rs. 1,000, the Probate or Letters of Administration are not chargeable with any fees. When the meaning of the legislative enactment is not clear, the benefit of the doubt must be in favour of the subject. In re Chin Ah Yaing, 7 Bur.L.R. 359: 7 Bur.L.T. 275: 24 Ind. Cas. 823.

In Satpal Ram v. Collector of Multan, (1931) 12 Lahore 584: 32 P.L.R. 393: 1931 A.I.R. 310 (Lah.): 135 I.C. 60, the executor in his application for probate stated the value of the entire estate likely to come into his hands at Rs. 8,000 but on opposition being offered compromised the case with the opponents and valued the estate at Rs. 3,270 being the sum he will be entitled to recover. The executor then offered to pay court-fees on Rs. 3,270 only. The Lahore High Court held that the intention of the Legislature was to lay down a general rule that grant of probate should be made for the whole estate of a deceased person, although in certain circumstances the Court would be justified in limiting the grant to a specific portion of the estate. Although the other executors named in the will have realized a portion of the assets of the testator, the executor who applies for probate would on being granted the probate of the will would be entitled to deal with the whole of the estate and the mere fact that he has allowed other persons to retain and administer money recovered by them before the grant would not entitle him to evade the duty. (Court-fees on the entire value as at first submitted was ordered to be paid.) The High Court proceeded to draw a distinction between issue of letters of administration in the case of an intestacy and the case of a probate of a will or grant of letters of administration with a copy of the will annexed. In the former case the deceased having died intestate, his estate has to be distributed by an administrator in accordance with such rules as may apply to the particular individual. In other cases the estate has to be distributed in accordance with the wishes of the deceased contained in the will.

Letters of Administration.—In In re Ramchand Seal, 5 Cal. 2: 4 C.L.R. 290, it was held that letters of administration to the estate of a Hindu should issue for the whole estate. See also In re Grish Chunder Mitter, 6 Cal. 483: 7 C.L.R. 593; Suttya Krishna Ghosal, 10 Cal. 554; Moosa v. Isa, 8 Bom. 241; Framji v. Adarji, 18 Bom. 337, but in Gurbachan v. Satwant, 1925 A.I.R. 493 (Lah.): 26 P.L.R. 608: 90 I.C. 620: 7 L.L.J. 228, it was held that letters of administration for a portion of the estate can be granted and court-fees for that only need be paid. See also other cases collected under s. 19C, supra.

In cases governed by the Indian Succession Act.—"Value" means the nett value and court-fees are to be paid on the nett value, In re Catherine Thaddeus, 7 Bur.L.T. 272: 7 L.B.R. 256: 24 Ind. Cas. 793; In the goods of Mrs. F. E. W. Meik, 40 All.

279: 46 Ind. Cas. 865; In the goods of Harriet Teviot Kerr, 18 C.W.N. 121: 18 C.L.J. 308: 21 Ind. Cas. 502.

In case of a chose in action.—Art. 11 applies only to those cases where the duty is payable on the amount or value of the property in respect of which Probate or Letters of Administration, shall be granted, if the amount or value of such property exceeds Rs. 1,000 but if the right to any such property is subject to any litigation, it is permissible to declare the valuation of that property as not exceeding Rs. 1,000 as the case is not provided for in the Act, In the goods of Abdul Aziz, 23 Cal. 577. See also Saldanha v. The Secretary of State for India in Council, 24 Mad. 241 where it was further held that in such a case the revenue is protected under s. 19E of the Court Fees Act.

Judgment debt.—The executor may put a fair valuation upon a judgment-debt which forms a part of the estate of the testator having regard to the chance for recovery of the same. If the Revenue Authority is not satisfied with the estimated valuation, then he can deal with the matter under s. 19H of the Court Fees Act, In re Rudibai Rupji Sunderji, 55 Bom. 844: 33 Bom.L.R. 864: 134 I.C. 729: 1931 A.I.R. 419 (Bom.): 1931 I.R. 537 (Bom.).

Letters of Administration granted to widow.—Where Letters of Administration to the estate of a deceased Burman are granted to his widow, the latter has only to pay court-fees on what she takes as administratrix, viz., what was her husband's share, In the estate of U. Po. Thin, 11 Bur.L.T. 258: 50 Ind. Cas. 545.

Exercise of power of appointment.—By his will A directed that Rs. 7,000 out of his property should be lent out at interest, that the interest derived from time to time should be added to the principal amount and that the amount so accruing should be paid to whoever B, his wife, by her will, should appoint. A died, and his will was proved, probate duty being paid on the principal amount of Rs. 7,000. B executed a will in which she exercised the power of appointment and then died, her executor now applied for probate of her will, and the question was raised whether he was liable to pay probate duty on the fund or any part thereof, held, that the power of appointment created by the will was 'property' within the meaning of Article 11 of Schedule I to the Court Fees Act, and that the estate of the testatrix was liable to probate duty in respect thereof, In re Lakshminarayan Ammal, 25 Mad. 515; In the goods of George, 6 B.L.R. Appendix 138: 15 W.R. 457 notes.

There is no provision in the Court Fees Act for the levy of ad valorem court-fees on personal property appointed by will under general powers of appointment, In the goods of Julia Oram, 21 W.R. 245: 12 B.L.R. App. 21. The word "property" has been explained to include even beneficial interest, In the goods of Beresford and In the goods of Maddock, 7 B.L.R.O.C. 57: 15 W.R. 456.

Property over which a person has a general power of appointment is not his property which makes the estate liable to duty, In re Maurice Saleh Manasset, 60 Cal. 1016: 147 I.C. 489: 1933 A.I.R. 924 (Cal.).

Note.—In calculating court-fees payable on the value of the property, where such value exceeds Rs. 1,000 the entire value is to be considered and not merely the excess over Rs. 1,000.

Property.—The term “property” in clauses 11 and 12 of Schedule I of the Court Fees Act includes property to which the deceased was beneficially entitled, In the goods of H. B. Beresford, 15 W.R. 456: 7 B.L.R. 57.

Duty in respect of trust property has been excluded by Notification, The Collector of Kaira v. Chunilal Harilal and others, 29 Bom. 161 (167): 6 Bom.L.R. 652. For other cases see under section 19C of this Act.

Shares standing in the name of both husband and wife, would on the death of the husband be the absolute property of the wife, hence not chargeable with court-fee in case of an application for property by the wife, Deputy Commissioner of Lucknow v. Mrs. M. D. Aikman, 11 O.W.N. 78: 148 I.C. 247: 1934 A.I.R. 72 (Oudh).

In cases of properties situate in different provinces.—Court fees at enhanced rates when the fees have been raised, were rightly levied on the value of all the assets, whether in the province or elsewhere, In the goods of George Thomas Williams, 50 Cal. 957: 27 C.W.N. 812: 75 I.C. 466: (1924) A.I.R. 115 (Cal.).

In case of properties situate in different districts.—If the property be situate in two districts (in this case also in two provinces and under different High Courts), then the value of the entire property situate in those districts is to be considered and in this case the duty paid in one of the districts was allowed to be deducted from the amount payable on the valuation of the property situate in both districts, The Commissioner of Singhbom v. Jagadish Chandra Deo, 6 Pat.L.J. 411: 62 Ind. Cas. 513.

Property situate in England.—Where the deceased a partner of a firm trading in Liverpool, Rangoon and Calcutta died leaving properties in England of which an unlimited probate was taken out by an executor in England, another executor applied for probate in Calcutta and claimed exemption on the ground that under an arrangement made after testator's death for sale of his properties, money was paid in England, held that exemption could not be allowed and that duty should be paid, In the goods of Gladstone, 1 Cal. 168.

No exemption.—Doubtful claim.—There is no provision in the Court Fees Act authorizing exemption in respect of a claim supposed to be doubtful, nor is there any such provision in the Act by which the payment of probate duty in England is regulated. In case of an exaggerated valuation, the excess duty may be refunded by the Revenue Authorities, In the goods of E. L. Beake deceased, 13 B.L.R. App. 24, In the goods of Ram Chunder Ghose, 24 Cal. 567.

Exemption.—Under section 8 of the Government Savings Bank Act (Act V of 1893) a deposit of Rs. 1,000 is to be exempted from payment of court-fee duty.

Where certain property is denied by the applicants to belong to the estate of the deceased, that property is to be excluded in calculating the value of the estate until the contrary is proved, Nittyo Kali Debya v. Kedar Chatterjee, 5 C.L.R. 368.

Where the High Court declared the right of the petitioner in the decree and subsequently the petitioner applied for Letters of Administration and claimed exemption from duty, held, that no exemption can be made, the duty must be paid, In the goods of Sreenath Das, 20 W.R. 440.

If the gross value of such property exceeds Rs. 1,000 but the nett value after deductions of the debts due by the deceased falls below Rs. 1,000, then no court-fee is payable, In the goods of George Henry Quiningborough, 20 C.W.N. 501: 22 C.L.J. 160: 30 Ind. Cas. 958.

Schedule I, Annexures A and B, of the Court Fees Act make it clear that the duty payable on an application for Probate or Letters of Administration under Sch. I, Art. 11 of the Act is to be calculated upon the nett value of the estate obtained by deduction of the amount of debts from the gross value of the estate, In the goods of Harriett Teviot Kerr, deceased, 21 Ind. Cas. 502: 18 C.W.N. 121: 18 C.L.J. 308. But see contra, The Collector of Maldah v. Nirod Kamini Dass, 17 C.W.N. 21: 15 Ind. Cas. 621, where it was held that court-fees are payable on the gross value.

Procedure.—The ordinary Court clerk or officer, whose duty it is to see that court-fees are paid, is not authorised in the Calcutta High Court in its original jurisdiction, to allow claims to exemption from probate duty, on his own responsibility and that all such claims are required to be quarried and referred to the taxing officer, In re Bhubaneshwar Trigunait, 52 Cal. 871: 27 C.W.N. 879: 95 I.C. 529: 1925 A.I.R. 1201 (Cal.).

In an application for Probate or Letters of Administration the ad valorem court-fees prescribed by statute should be paid to the satisfaction of the Court; such payment should be made to the Registrar and certified by him to Court. This certificate or a certificate of the taxing officer, where exemption is claimed and allowed, should be produced to the Court with the application and affidavit of valuation, In the goods of Omda Bibee, 26 Cal. 407: 3 C.W.N. 392.

Provident Fund.—Provident Fund money is exempted from probate and administration duty as on death it passes to a nominee, and even in the absence of an Administration it does not form an asset of the deceased, Mrs. Agnes v. James William, 82 I.C. 128: 1925 A.I.R. 108 (Nag.); In re Digambar, 92 I.C. 525: 1926 A.I.R. 306 (Nag.).

Under sec. 3, cl. (2) of the Provident Funds Act (Act XIX of 1925) the money vests in the dependant of the subscriber or depositor and where the dependant is the widow or child of the subscriber or depositor, without being subject to any rights of an assignee under an assignment made before the commencement of the Act, such money or deposit is not liable to duty, The Secretary of State for India in Council v. Mrs. Mary Murray, 33 C.W.N. 1148: 1930 A.I.R. 252 (Cal.): 123 I.C. 646.

Private funds (Railway fund).—"Sec. 3, sub-sec. (2) of the Provident Funds Act (Act XIX of 1925) enacts that the sum shall vest in the dependant and shall be free from attachment for any debt or other liability etc. From this it is clear that so far as the Government or Railway Provident Funds are concerned, the money vests in the dependant which term is defined in sec. 2 and is also free from debts contracted before the death of the depositor. The question may arise whether such sum vests also in the nominee in respect of deposits in Government or Railway Provident Funds, because clause (3), sub-sec. (2) carefully confines the operation of that section to the case of dependants. It is true that sec. 4 enacts that the officer whose duty it is to make the payment shall pay the sum or the balance if the subscriber is dead to the dependant, or to a nominee, etc. But sub-sec. (2) of that section shows that the object of that section is merely to enable such officer to make the payment and to keep the Government or the Railway free from all liability in respect of the sum paid." A sum of money in a private provident fund cannot be deemed to vest in the nominee or the widow or the children of the depositor. Therefore a nominee or dependant can only take by succession the estate of the deceased and such deposit is, therefore, not exempt from paying the court-fee when application is made for Letters of Administration to the estate of the deceased subscriber or depositor, In the matter of Mrs. Hamilton King, (1928) 6 Ran. 558: 116 I.C. 467: 1928 A.I.R. 312 (Ran.).

A married sister is not dependant within s. 2 (c) of the Provident Funds Act, 1925 but an unmarried sister is. Money in deposit in a Railway Provident Fund is an asset of the deceased, therefore if such a deposit comes into the hands of a person not a dependant on the deceased and if such money exceeds Rs. 2,000, it is liable to be assessed under Sch. I, Art. 11 of the Court Fees Act. A party cannot be exempted from payment of duty leviable under the Court Fees Act, In re Mrs. Norah Margaret Robinson, 5 Luck. 712: 7 O.W.N. 324: 122 I.C. 322: 1930 A.I.R. 145 (Oudh): 1930 I.R. 98 (Oudh) F.B. See also In re Coses Fernandez and another, 142 I.C. 359: 1933 A.I.R. 101 (Sind).

12. Certificate under the Succession Certificate Act, 1889.

(Certificate under Part X of the Indian Succession Act, 1925—in Bengal, Bombay and C. P.)

In any case:—

Two per centum on the amount or value of any debt or security specified in the certificate under section 8 of the Act, and three per centum on the amount or value of any debt or security to which the certificate is extended under section 10 of the Act.

NOTE.—(1) The amount of a debt is its amount, including interest on the day on which the inclusion of the debt in the certificate is applied for so far as such amount can be ascertained.

(2) Whether or not any power with respect to a security specified in a certificate has been conferred under the Act, and, where such a power has been so conferred, whether the power is for the receiving of interest or dividends on, or for the negotiation or transfer of, the security, or for both purposes, the value of the security is its market-value on the day on which the inclusion of the security in the certificate is applied for, so far as such value can be ascertained.

NOTES.

Amendment.—This Article has been amended in Bengal by Bengal Act IV of 1922, and Act XI of 1935; in B. & O. by B. & O. Act I of 1922; in Bombay by Bombay Act II of 1932; in Madras by Madras Act V of 1922; in C. P. by C. P. Act XVI of 1935. See the respective Amendment Acts, infra.

Heirship certificate.—Where the value of the property in respect of which certificate of heirship is sought, the stamp duty should be calculated on the whole amount, not on the excess of over Rs. 1,000—the condition of liability—being excess above Rs. 1,000, Anonymous, 5 M.H.C. App. 45.

Double fee is to be paid.—Whenever a fresh succession certificate is taken, even though it is to collect debts for which a succession certificate has already been taken out and duty paid, the duty prescribed by the Court Fees Act must be paid. In re Sorojebashini Debi, 20 C.W.N. 1125: 36 Ind. Cas. 125.

The effect of the provisions in the note to Art. 12 of Schedule 1 to the Court Fees Act on the operation of a certificate duly granted, which has become liable to cancellation under that provision, but has not been cancelled, is, that the validity of such subsisting certificate is proof of the representative right of person to whom it was granted to enforce by suit or process of execution, payment of a debt and not to prevent realisation of monies. Its apparent object is not to prevent realization of money due by means of an existing certificate, but to secure the payment of the stamp revenue on all sums so realized by a suit or other proceedings in excess of the amount or value of the property in respect of which the certificate was granted, Govindappah v. Kondappah Sastruher, 6 M.H.C. 131. See also Bava Sant Ram v. Jasmal, 94 P.R. 1887.

Construction.—The Article refers to 'the amount or value of any debt or security' and these words refer only to individual debts and individual securities. Therefore the amount payable should be on individual items and not according to the total amount of those items, Pirthurinath Bhargava v. Estate of late Trilok Nath Bhargava, 151 I.C. 262: 11 O.W.N. 1079: 1934 A.I.R. 414 (Oudh).

Calculation of duty.—See under Art. 11 of Sch. I, supra. The court-fee stamp on a certificate of administration is to be calculated on the valuation of the estate excluding the properties denied by the applicants to belong to the estate, Nittyo Kali Debbya v. Kedar Nath Chatterjee and others, 5 C.L.R. 368.

The applicant for a certificate need not apply to collect all the debts due to the deceased. In calculating the amount of the debt, the satisfied portion of the debt must be excluded and the duty is payable on the balance, Muhammad Ali Khan v. Pultan Bibi and others, 19 All. 129.

No duty is payable on a certificate on property valued at below Rs. 1000, but the duty is payable on the total sum if the total amount exceeds Rs. 1000 which is to be assessed on the total sum, In Re Nalini Kanta Pal 60 Cal. 1262: 37 C.W.N. 930: 1934 A.I.R. 38 (Cal.): 147 I.C. 1016.

12A. Certificate under the Regulation of the Bombay Code, No. VIII of 1827.

(1) As regards debts and securities.	The same fee as would be payable in respect of a certificate under the Succession Certificate Act, 1889, or in respect of an extension of such a certificate, as the case may be.
(2) As regards other property in respect of which the certificate is granted—
When the amount or value of such property exceeds one thousand rupees, but does not exceed ten thousand rupees.	Two per centum on such amount of value.
When such amount or value exceeds ten thousand rupees, but does not exceed fifty thousand rupees.	Two and one-half per centum on such amount or value.
When such amount or value exceeds fifty thousand rupees.	Three per centum on such amount or value.

NOTES.

Amendment.—This Article was amended by the Court Fees Amendment Act, 1910 (Act VII of 1910) section 2.

Local Amendments:—This Article has been amended by Bombay Act II of 1932.

13. Application to the High Court of Judicature at Lahore for the exercise of its jurisdiction under section 44 of the Punjab Courts Act, 1918, or to the Court of the Financial Commissioner of the Punjab for the exercise of its revisional jurisdiction under section 84 of the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.

When the amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute does not exceed twenty-five rupees.	Two rupees.
When such amount or value exceeds twenty-five rupees.	The fee leviable on a memorandum of appeal.

NOTES.

Amendment.—This Article was inserted by the Punjab Courts Act, 1884 (18 of 1884), section 71, as amended by the Punjab Courts Act, 1899 (25 of 1899), section 6.

The words “or to the Court of the Financial...the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887, were added by section 1 of the Court Fees Amendment Act, 1900 (9 of 1900) but Act IX of 1900 has been repealed by Act XVIII of 1928.

The words “High Court of Judicature at Lahore” were substituted for the words ‘Chief Court in the Punjab’ by Repealing and Amending Act, 1919 (Act XVIII of 1919), section 2 and Schedule to that Act.

This Article has been amended by Punjab Act VII of 1922, section 6 as amended by the Punjab Acts I and VI of 1926 and the Article set out above is inserted as amended in the place of the original Article.

This section was repealed by the Punjab Courts (Amendment) Act, 1912, but is again re-enacted by the Punjab Act VII of 1922 as amended.

N. W. Frontier Provinces.—Similar fees are payable on the like applications to the Court of the Judicial Commissioner of the N. W. Frontier Province, see section 85 (1) of the N. W. Frontier Province Law and Justice Regulation, 1901 (7 of 1901).

Application for revision.—An application for revision of an order rejecting an objection to an award in a case transferred to arbitration through Court and in which a decree was passed in accordance with the award, is chargeable with ad valorem court-fee under Article 13, Schedule 1 of the Court Fees Act. When the subject-matter of the dispute exceeds Rs. 25, the fact that no decree was framed at the date of making the application would not affect the question of court-fee, Narpat Rai v. Devi Das, 13 P.W.R. 1911: 4 P.L.R. 1911: 9 Ind. Cas. 388.

The court-fee payable on a petition for revision of an order rejecting objections to an award is ad valorem on the amount of the decree based on that award where it exceeds Rs. 25 under Art. 13, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act, Mr. J. A. Mathews v. Messrs. Singleton Benda & Co., Ltd., London, 108 I.C. 382. See also Kanhaya Lal Sitaram v. Daulat Ram Naubat Rai, 1929 A.I.R. 367 (Lah.): 110 I.C. 302; Harbhajan Singh Jairam Singh v. Kalu Mal Basheshar Nath, 1929 A.I.R. 369 (Lah.): 111 I.C. 145.

Refund of fees.—As to refund of fees, see section 72 of the Punjab Courts Act (Act XVIII of 1884 as amended by Act XXV of 1899, section 7), but now Act of 1918.

14. Application to the High Court of Judicature at Rangoon for the exercise of its revisional jurisdiction under section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 or section 25 of the Provincial Small Causes Courts Act, 1887 (or section 25 of the Rangoon Small Cause Court Act, 1920.)	When the amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute does not exceed twenty-five rupees.	Two rupees.
	When the amount or value exceeds twenty-five rupees.	The fee leviable on a memorandum of appeal.

NOTES.

See section 85 of the Lower Burma Act, 1899 (II of 1899) and the Lower Burma Courts Act, 1900 (VI of 1900), section 47, Schedule I. The Chief Court no longer exists. There is now a High Court in Burma.

The words 'High Court of Judicature at Rangoon' were substituted for the words "Chief Court of Lower Burma" by Act XI of 1923, sec. 2, Schedule I.

The words "Sec. 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure" are substituted for the words "Sec. 622 of the Code of Civil Procedure" under sec. 158 of the present Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908).

The words "or section... .Court Fees Act, 1920" have been inserted by the Burma Courts Amendment Act, 1926 (Bur. Act. III of 1926).

15. Application to the Court of the Judicial Commissioner, Upper Burma, for the exercise of its revisional jurisdiction under section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 or section 25 of the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887.	When the amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute does not exceed twenty-five rupees.	Two rupees.
	When such amount or value exceeds twenty-five rupees.	The fee leviable on a memorandum of appeal.

NOTES.

This Article was inserted in the First Schedule to this Act in its application to Upper Burma, see the Upper Burma Civil Courts Regulation, 1896 (1 of 1896), sec. 36, Bur. Code.

The words "or section 14 of the Upper Burma Civil Courts Regulation, 1896" were repealed by the Upper Burma Courts (Amendment) Regulation, 1903 (V of 1903), section 4. The entire Article was repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1923 (Act 11 of 1923) sec. 3 and Schedule II.

NOTES.

Amendments.—The words “or to any Cantonment Magistrate sitting as a Court of Civil Judicature under Act No. III of 1859” were repealed by the Cantonments Act, 1889 (13 of 1889).

Repeals.—For Act XI of 1856, see now the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887 (9 of 1887) by which Act 11 of 1865 was repealed.

For Act XVI of 1868 see now section 25 of the Bengal, North-Western Provinces and Assam Civil Courts Act, 1887 (12 of 1887).

The expression ‘a principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction’ occurred in Civil Courts Act of 1868 (Act XVI of 1868) and meant the court of the District Judge. The expression does not occur in later Civil Courts Acts.

Local Amendments.—This Schedule has been admended in Bengal by B.C. Act IV of 1922, in Madras by Madras Act V of 1922, in Bombay by Bombay Act II of 1932 and in Bihar and Orissa by B. and O. Act I of 1922; in Punjab by Punjab Act VII of 1922 as amended; in U. P. by U. P. Amendment Act III of 1932 and in C. P. by C. P. Amendment Act XVI of 1935.

Assistance of Collector in Ejecting a Raiyat.—An application for the assistance of a Collector in ejecting a raiyat need only be stamped with a court-fee of 8 annas, Pyari Mohan v. Kinu Bewa, 2 B.L.R. 226.

Award.—The proper court-fee upon an application to file an award under section 525, C.P.C. (Sch. II, Rule 20, C.P.C.) is that prescribed for applications. Bijadur v. Manohur, 10 Cal. 11: 13 C.L.R. 171; Lala Dharam Das v. Ajudhia Pershad, 70 P.R. 1881.

Objections to an award.—Written objection to an award is indubitably a document filed in Court. Such a document is nothing more or nothing less than an application to the Court to set aside an award on certain specified grounds. It, therefore, falls within the proviso of Art. 1 (b) of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act and prima facie, it cannot be filed or exhibited or made use of in any manner unless the prescribed fee of eight annas is paid on it. When a written application is filed it must be stamped. It clearly does not fall within the exceptions provided by s. 19 of the Court Fees Act which inter alia exempt a written statement in a pending suit but makes no mention whatsoever of written objections to an award, Adamali v. Abdul Ali and another, 23 S.L.R. 91: 107 I.C. 223: 1928 A.I.R. 87 (Sind).

Civil Procedure Code.—Section 115 is for Bengal Amendment only. For section 115 see Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908).

Sanction to prosecute.—Applications against orders under section 476 of the Code of Criminal Procedure by a Civil Court, come under section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Har Prasad Das v. The Emperor, 40 Cal. 477: 17 C.W.N. 647: 19 I.C. 197: 17 C.L.J. 647 F.B. (the order of reference excluded consideration of section 195 of the Criminal Procedure Code; but applications against orders under section 195 of the Code of Criminal Procedure by a Civil Court do not come under section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure as under that section a superior court has power to set aside an order by the inferior court passed under that section), Budhu Lal v. Chattu Gope, 43 Cal. 597: 36 I.C. 472: 17 Cr.L.J. 504 (The same case in appeal in 44 Cal. 804); Salig Ram v. Ramji Lal, 28 All. 554: 3 A.L.J. 394; See contra, Deputy Legal Remembrancer of B. & O. v. Ram Udar Singh, 19 C.W.N. 447: 21 C.L.J. 198: 28 I.C. 334. Beni Prasad v. Sarju Prasad 33 All. 512: 9 I.C. 982.

Copy—application for.—An application to the High Court for certified copies of the decree and judgment may be made on a stamp of one anna, Turif Biswas Petitioner, 7 W.R. 455. See also rules of the High Court (Calcutta), Appellate Side. The fee has been now raised to two annas. The amount of court-fee stamps on application for copy is determined by the rules of each High Court.

An application to an Assistant Commissioner of Income Tax for a copy of an order passed by him, is to be stamped (under the Patna Amendment Act) with a court-fee of two annas under paragraph 5 of Art. 1 (a) of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, Basant Lal Ramgidas v. Commissioner of Income Tax, Bihar and Orissa, 11 Patna 40: 136 I.C. 302: 1932 A.I.R. 103 (Pat.): 1932 I.R. 78 (Patna).

Divorce.—A prayer for divorce by a mehomedan wife cannot be granted on an application bearing a court-fee of 12 annas and presented to the District Judge as Kazi. The procedure is to file a suit, Kabil Gazi v. Madari Bibi 57 C.L.J. 106: 1933 A.I.R. 630 (Cal.).

Information to Court.—A document which is merely a petition to the court informing it of an agreement into which the parties had orally entered out of court to compromise a suit and praying for a decree in the terms of the compromise, does not require to be engrossed upon a general stamp paper but only requires the ordinary court-fee of eight annas under Schedule II,

Art. 1, Ram Saran Lal v. Emperor, 40 All. 19: 15 A.L.J. 846. See also Reference under Stamp Act, 8 Mad. 15 F.B.

Minors.—A petition under Act IX of 1861 (Act relating to minors) requires a stamp as on a petition. Anonymous, 6 P. R. 1873.

Probate.—The stamp requisite for an application for a probate of a will or Letters of Administration is not required to be proportionate to the value of the property involved as such applications come under the provision made in Art. 1, Schedule II of Act VII of 1870, for common applications and petitions, In the matter of Judoonath Sadhoo Khan and others, 15 W.R. 40.

Where an application for probate was filed and the opposite party contested the same and on the trial Court deciding the case in favour of petitioners, the opposite party filed an appeal. Held, that Art. I, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act applied and not Art. 2 of Sch. I; on principle ad valorem court-fee should not be levied in such cases, J. M. Rodrigues v. A. M. Mathias, 9 M.L.T. 314: 11 M.W.N. 237: 21 M.L.J. 481: 9 Ind. Cas. 538. See also Lee v. Hardy, 9 All. W.N. 27 which was a case under the Succession Act and it was held that a memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 2 only. But see Miss Eva Mountstephens v. Mr. Hunter Garnett Orme, 35 All. 448: 22 Ind. Cas. 98, where it was held, that Rs. 10 is payable as court-fees on the memorandum of appeal under Art. 17, clause vi, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act as it is impossible to estimate at a money value the subject-matter of dispute.

Trusts Act.—Petitions (relating to Radd-i-Mazalim) under sections 34 and 74 of the Trusts Act are to be stamped under Sch. II Art. 1 (d) of the Court Fees Act, Md. Sadiq Ali v. Karim Ali, 11 O.W.N. 323: 150 I.C. 193: 1934 A.I.R. 118 (Oudh).

1A. Application to any Civil Court that Twelve annas in addition to any fee levied on the application under Clause (a), Clause (b) or Clause (d) of Art. 1 of this Schedule.

When the Court grants the application and is of opinion that the transmission of such records involves the use of the post.

NOTES.

Change in Law.—This Article has been added by Act XIV of 1913, section 2 and amended by B. and O. Act I of 1922 and in U. P. by U. P. Act III of 1932.

2. Application for leave to sue as a pauper.

Eight annas.

3. Application for leave to appeal as a pauper.

(a) When presented to a District Court.

One rupee.

(b) When presented to a Commissioner or a High Court.

Two rupees.

4. A plaint or memorandum of appeal in a suit to obtain possession under Act No. XVI of 1838, or [the Mamlatdars' Courts Act, 1876.]

Eight annas.

[One rupee in the Punjab.]

NOTES.

Amendments.—This Article has been amended in Punjab by Punjab Act VII of 1922 as amended.

The words "the Mamlatdar's Courts Act, 1876" were substituted for the words "Bombay Act No. V of 1864" (to give Mamlatdars' Courts jurisdiction in certain cases to maintain existing possession, or to restore possession to any party dispossessed otherwise than by course of law), by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1891 (12 of 1891).

The Mamlatdar's Courts Act, 1876 is now the Bombay Mamlatdars' Courts Act, 1906 (Bom. Act II of 1906).

Act XVI of 1838 relates to suits in the Bombay Presidency and has been declared to be in force in the Bombay Presidency except the Scheduled Districts by Act XV of 1874 s. 5.

5. Plaint or memorandum of appeal [or of cross objection in Bihar and Orissa] in a suit to establish or disprove a right of occupancy.

Eight annas.

[Twelve annas in U. P.]

[One rupee in Punjab.]

NOTES.

Amendments.—This Article has been amended in Punjab by Punjab Act VII of 1922 as amended and in Bihar and Orissa and by U. P. Act III of 1932.

In a suit under section 95 of the Agra Tenancy Act, 1901, to declare the plaintiff's status as an occupancy tenant, the plaint or memorandum of appeal should bear a court-fee of eight annas as provided in Art. 5 of Sch. II to the Court Fees Act, and section 7 paragraph xi does not apply to such a suit, Ratan Singh v. Khem Singh, 40 All. 358: 16 A.L.J. 167: 44 Ind. Cas. 608.

Where a suit is brought to eject the defendant as a tenant-at-will, the real object being to defeat the defendant's claim to the land as an occupancy rayat, the suit thus being really brought to contest the right of occupancy, the plaint or memorandum of appeal need only be stamped with a court-fee of annas 8, Bibi Nurjahan v. Marfan Mundul, 11 C.L.R. 91. See also Brahmayya v. Lakshminarasimham, 16 Mad. 310.

A suit not coming under this Article in its inception, would not in appeal come under this Article. Haladhar v. Mangal Reja, 34 C.W.N. 217: 126 I.C. 777: 1930 A.I.R. 793 (Cal.).

6. [Bail-bond or other instrument of obligation given in pursuance of an order made by a Court or Magistrate under any section of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, or the Code of Civil Procedure 1908 and not otherwise provided for by this Act.]

Eight annas.

[One rupee in Bombay.]

[Twelve annas in U. P.]

NOTES.

Change in Law.—This Article is substituted for the old Art. 6 by Act XVII of 1914 which contained the words "Bail-bond or other instrument of obligation not otherwise provided for by this Art, when given by the direction of any Court or executive authority" by the Probate and Administration Act, 1889 (6 of 1889), section 8 (2).

The words "1908 and not otherwise provided for by this Act" were added by Act VII of 1914, first Schedule.

N. B.—The reference to the old Code of Criminal Procedure is altered in accordance with section 3 (1) of Act V of 1898.

Note.—By Act VI of 1889 section 18 (4) the words "or by the Court Fees Act, 1870" were added to Art. 15, Schedule I of the Stamp Act; hence double duty may not be payable under the Court Fees Act and the Stamp Act in cases where the instrument of obligation is in pursuance of an order under the Code of Civil Procedure.

Amendment.—This Article has been amended in Bombay by Bombay Act II of 1932; in U. P. by U. P. Act III of 1932.

Application.—Art. 6, Sch. II to the Court Fees Act as amended applies only to bail-bonds or other instruments of obligation under the Code of Criminal Procedure or under the Code of Civil Procedure, Cheedella Chenchayya v. Amureddi Pichireddi, 100 I.C. 545: 52 M.L.J. 153: 1927 M.W.N. 281: 25 L.W. 246: 1927 A.I.R. 377 (Madras).

For the Court Fees Act to apply, two conditions must be satisfied: (1) the order must be an order passed under the Code of Civil Procedure, and (2) the bond must be given in pursuance of an order by a Court, Peda Pitchamma v. Pedamuneyya, 68 M.L.J. 466: 41 L.W. 482: 1935 M.W.N. 57: 1935 A.I.R. 380 (Mad.): 155 I.C. 559 F.B.

Security for costs of P. C. appeal.—Security bonds for costs of appeal to the Privy Council come under Art. 12, Schedule A, Act X of 1882 (Stamp Act), Soonjharee Koonwar v. Ramessur Pandey, 5 W.R. Mis. 47, but this was the old law.

Stay of execution.

Where the appellant was ordered to find security for the costs of the respondent in the event of her appeal being dismissed and she in compliance with the above order of the Court filed a security bond stamped with a court-fee of 8 annas, h'ld, as the bond is given under orders of the Court as security by one party for costs of another, it is subject to two duties (a) an ad valorem stamp under the Stamp Act, Art. 13, Schedule I, (b) a court-fee of 8 annas under the Court Fees Act, Art. 6 Schedule II, Kulwanta v. Mahabir Prasad, 11 All. 16 F.B.: (1888) 8 All. W.N. 281. But security bond given by the appellant for stay of execution under a conditional order of Court staying execution upon the appellant giving security must be stamped under the Stamp Act. These are not strictly under orders of a Court as the party may furnish them or not as he pleases, Dwarkanath Dey v. Sailaja Mullick, 21 C.W.N. 1150: 43 I.C. 376, but this case was not approved in 53 Cal. 101 F.B.

A security bond for the production of attached livestock given in accordance with the requirements of the Rules under section 269 of the C. P. Code of 1882, is a bond given in pursuance of an order made by a Court under a section of the Code of Civil Procedure, within the meaning of Art. 6, Schedule II of the Court Fees Act; the High Court said, "where a bond is given in pursuance of a Rule made under powers conferred by a section of the Code, I think the bond may be said to be given in pursuance of an order made by a Court under a section of the Code of Civil Procedure, that consequently the bond is "otherwise provided for by the Court Fees Act" and that the stamp payable is an eight annas stamp under Court Fees Act," Reference under the Court Fees Act, re The District Munsiff of Tiruvallur, 37 Mad. 17 (21): 24 M.L.J. 637: 20 Ind. Cas. 775.

A security bond taken on an order for stay of execution must be stamped in accordance with the Stamp Act and cannot be written on plain paper bearing a court-fee of eight annas, Guran Ditta Mal v. Firm Gurudasmal Ramchand and others, 1926 A.I.R. 552 (Lahore): 91 I.C. 772: 7 L.L.J. 343.

A bond given in pursuance of an order of the Court for stay of execution under the Code of Civil Procedure and imposing only a personal obligation on the surety is chargeable only under the Court Fees Act and not under the Indian Stamp Act, Jawala Mal v. Gian Chand, 14 Lah. 708; 34 P.L.R. 480: 143 I.C. 12: 1934 A.I.R. 228 (Lah.).

A security bond executed by the surety for the stay of execution and due performance of the obligation under the decree, need only be stamped as required by Art. 6, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act. The High Court said, "If such a security bond is a personal bond, Art. 6, Sch. II. Court Fees Act alone applies and a court-fee of annas eight is sufficient. If it hypothecates immoveable property, then it must also be stamped under Art. 40, Stamp Act," Muhammad Erwaz v. Nanah Mian and other, 1929 A.I.R. 205 (Lah.): 117 I.C. 226.

Bonds under other provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure.—Where in a certain claim case, the claimant filed a security bond executed by one Yad Ali who agreed to be liable up to Rs. 10 in case he failed to produce certain goats which were attached in execution, held, Art. 6 of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act applies to the instrument of obligation as it was given in pursuance of an order made by a Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, Sarbo Mussulmani v. Safar Mandal, 49 Cal. 997: 68 Ind. Cas. 730: (1923) A.I.R. 269 (Cal.).

The security bond executed in pursuance of an order of the Court under Order 32, Rule 6 (2) or any other Rule or Section of the Code of Civil Procedure must bear a Court Fee Stamp as required by Article 6 of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, 1870, and they will also be chargeable under the Stamp Act if they are of the kind described in Article 40 or Article 57, but they will not be chargeable under the Stamp Act if they fall under the residuary Article 15, Reference from the Munsiff, Habiganj, 53 Cal. 101 F.B.: 29 C.W.N. 851: 42 C.L.J. 5: 1925 A.I.R. 906 (Cal.): 89 I.C. 289. See also J. Secretary of the Board of Revenue v. Lalta Bakhsh Singh, 6 Luck. 601: 132 I.C. 225: 8 O.W.N. 116: 1931 A.I.R. 99 (Oudh): 1931 I.R. 241 (Oudh) S.B.

A bond in pursuance of an order under s. 55 (4), Code of Civil Procedure requiring the judgment-debtor to furnish security to the satisfaction of the Court, that he will within one month apply to be declared an insolvent and that he will appear, when called upon in any proceeding upon the decree in execution of which he had been arrested, comes within Sch. II, Art. 6 of the Court Fees Act and not within Art. 57 or Art. 15 of the Indian Stamp Act, Ghulam Muhammad v. Emperor, 34 P.L.R. 132: 141 I.C. 301: 1933 A.I.R. 89 (Lah.): 1933 I.R. 127 (Lahore).

A security bond executed for setting aside an ex parte Small Cause Court decree, need only be stamped under this Article and not under Art. 15 of the Stamp Act, Peda Pitchamma v. Peda Muneyya, 68 M.L.J. 466: 41 L.W. 482: 1935 A.I.R. 380 (Mad.): 1935 M.W.N. 57: 155 I.C. 559 F.B.

Bond by a receiver.—Where a bond is executed in favour of the Court by the Receiver whereby he bound himself, and immoveable properties belonging to him were charged for proper discharge of his duties, held, that the bond must be stamped both under the Court Fees Act and under Art. 40, Schedule I of the Stamp Act as it comes under the definition of a mortgage in section 2 (5) of the Stamp Act and consequently Art. 15 is inapplicable, Amirthammal v. Madalakaram, F.B. (1920) M.W.N. 246: 43 Mad. 363: 38 M.L.J. 503: 12 L.W. 537: 57 Ind. Cas. 184.

Where the Code of Civil Procedure does not apply.—A security bond taken by a village Court under s. 53 of the Madras Village Courts Act, for property received which the executant undertook to restore or pay Rs. 40, the question as to stamp having arisen, it was held that under Art. 40 of Sch. IA of the Indian Stamp Act as amended in Madras the instrument should bear stamp duty as on a Bottomry bond for the amount secured as the Code of Civil Procedure does not apply to village Courts at all and therefore the bond does not fall under Art. 6, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, Cheedella Chenchayya v. Amureddi Pichireddy, 1927 M.W.N. 281: 52 M.L.J. 153: 100 I.C. 545: 25 L.W. 246: 1927 A.I.R. 377 (Madras).

Procedure and form.—A security bond must be in favour of a person or assistant officer of a Court. "A Court is not a judicial person. It cannot be sued. It cannot take property, and as it cannot take property it cannot assign it."

"The only mode of enforcing it must be by the Court making an order in the suit upon an application to which the sureties are parties, that the property charged be sold, unless before a day named the sureties find the money."

"The new Code of Civil Procedure, that of 1908, provides a special form of security bond to be given during the pendency of an appeal. (Appendix G No. 3). The form shows that it is intended to be given to some one and not a mere undertaking to the Court, whether that some one should be the other party or the officer of the Court is made clear, but with the form in use it is not likely that the difficulty which surrounds the present case will arise in future," Raj Raghubir Singh v. Jai Indra Bahadur Singh, L.R. 46 I.A. 228: 42 All. 158: 18 A.L.J. 263: 22 Bom.L.R. 521: 38 M.L.J. 302: 55 I.C. 550.

NOTES.

Amendment.—This Article has been amended in the Punjab by the Punjab Act VII of 1922 as amended; in Bengal by Bengal Act IV of 1922; in Madras by Madras Act V of 1922 and in Bihar and Orissa by B. & O. Act I of 1922; in U. P. by U. P. Act III of 1932 and in C. P. by C. P. Act XVI of 1935.

Scope.—Schedule II, Art. 10 merely requires that when an authority is filed such authority must bear a stamp. It does not require that vakalatnama should be filed in criminal cases, Subda Sontal and another v. Emperor, 1926 A.I.R. 296 (Patna): 7 P.L.T. 524: 94 Ind. Cas. 714: 1926 Pat. C.W.N. 125: 27 Cr.L.J. 666.

Case.—The word “case” is not defined anywhere, but it must be confined to judicial and quasi-judicial cases as opposed to transactions. A power of attorney empowering a person who is neither a vakil nor a certified mukhtear of a Court, to represent another in a Civil Court is governed by Art. 10 of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act. The documents specified in Art. 10, Sch. II of the Court Fees Act are documents which are intended to be excluded from the definition of a power of attorney in section 2 (21) of the Stamp Act and are not restricted to documents given to and presented by duly certificated Mukhtears and Pleaders under the Legal Practitioners’ Act, Ganpat v. Prem Singh, 15 Ind. Cas. 122: 108 P.W.R. 1912: 202 P.L.R. 1921.

Conduct of any one case.—A document authorizing a pleader to take copies of documents in the records of a collectorate, is properly stamped with a court-fee of 8 annas under Schedule II, Article 10 (a) of the Court Fees Act, Reference under Stamp Act, 9 Mad. 146 F.B. See also Gunamoyee Devi v. Nabin Chandra Bandopadhyaya, 1 C.W.N. 11.

A vakalatnama authorizing a pleader to receive, during the course of a suit which he has been authorized to conduct, money or document receivable by his client in the ordinary course of such suit, or in consequence of the order or decree of the Court in such suit, does not require a stamp under the Stamp Act, Anonymous Case, 3 Cal. 767. See also In the matter of Act XXIII of 1869, 3 C.L.R. 13. See also Shambhu Nath v. Badri Das, 43 All. 393: 19 A.L.J. 183: 61 I.C. 410, where the names of the pleaders did not appear in the body of the vakalatnama.

The effect of the Notification No. 57, dated the 16th September, 1925 published in the Bihar and Orissa Gazette of the 7th October, 1925 is to dispense with clause (3) of Rule 4, Order 3, C. P. C. and an advocate has now to file an appointment in writing as any other legal practitioner in the High Court. A power of appointment in writing filed by an advocate requires court-fees as upon a vakalatnama under Art. 10, Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, Sheikh Abdul Gaffar v. Mrs. F. B. Downing, I.L.R. 5 Patna 255: 94 I.C. 841: 1926 A.I.R. 240 (Patna): 7 P.L.T. 213: 1926 Pat. C.W.N. 4. See also In Re Subda Santhal, 1926 Pat. C.W.N. 125, etc. cited above.

Where a power of attorney is executed in favour of a person, who is not a certificated mukhtear or pleader under the Legal Practitioners’ Act, the documents should be stamped with the stamp as provided for by Article 48 of Schedule I of the Stamp Act and not with a court-fee stamp as provided for by Article 10 of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, Permanand v. Sat Persad, 9 Ind. Cas. 617 F.B.: 8 All.L.J. 378: 33 All. 487.

A document executed by 36 persons in favour of one of them who was a raiyat, to appear before a certain officer and receive payment of money on behalf of all, is a power of attorney governed by Art. 50 (b) of the Stamp Act, Reference under Stamp Act, 9 Mad. 358 F.B.

Memorandum of appearance.—A memorandum of appearance is an authority to plead although it is not signed by the party and is filed by the pleader himself as an advocate of the High Court who is not entitled to practice on the Original Side cannot plead in the High Court by merely putting in a memorandum of appearance unless there has been an appearance by the party in person or by a pleader appointed to act with him. Therefore such an advocate is to put in the printing costs of the paper-book. The rules framed by the High Court under the Letters Patent prevail over the Code of Civil Procedure. (The High Court did not decide whether memorandum of appearance should bear a court-fee of Rs. 2), Rajkumar Pal v. Janab Ali Mia, 35 C.W.N. 1100: 59 Cal. 370: 1932 A.I.R. 1 (Cal.): 135 I.C. 789.

Consolidation of suits.—Under Art. 10, Sch. II, Court Fees Act, a party who engages a pleader has to give a vakalatnama in each case. He cannot give one vakalatnam for two cases because he is the appellant in both, nor can he give one vakalatnama for several cases because he engages only one legal practitioner in all the cases. But when the Court allows consolidation, it allows the parties to the appeals to treat the consolidated appeals as one, and that being so, the parties may be allowed to join in one vakalatnama, when they apply to have their appeals consolidated. Art. 10, Schedule II, Court Fees Act does not stand in the way, Perumal Nadar and others, 1928 M.W.N. 271: 54 M.L.J. 595: 1928 A.I.R. 463 (Madras): 27 L.W. 366: 109 I.C. 651 but this case was over-ruled in In re Maharaja of Venkatagiri, 53 Mad. 248: 58 M.L.J. 510: 31 L.W. 282: 123 I.C. 203: 1930 I.R. 475 (Mad.), F.B. 1930 A.I.R. 376 (Mad.), where it was held that the Court has no inherent power to consolidate appeals in cases disposed of by a single judgment so as to enable the party to pay court-fees on the value of consolidated appeals and file only one vakalatnama, see also Moosa Soleman Saleji v. The Secretary of State, 32 C.W.N. 776: 117 I.C. 692: 1929 A.I.R. 135 (Cal.); In re Vaithilinga Pandara Sannadhi Avergal, 1930 A.I.R. 381 (Madras): 53 Mad. 262: 58 M.L.J. 521: 31 L.W. 294: 123 I.C. 606: 1930 I.R. 542 (Mad.) NOTES.

Amendment.—The word “from an order rejecting a plaint or” were omitted by section 155, (Sch. 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908) (Act V of 1908).

The effect of this amendment is that orders rejecting plaints, etc., are now decrees and the appeals are appeals from decrees and not from orders.

Local Amendments.—The Article has been amended in Bengal by B. C. Act IV of 1922 for Bengal; in Bihar and Orissa by B. & O. Act I of 1922 and in Madras by Madras Act V of 1922; in Punjab Act VII of 1922 as amended; in U. P. by U. P. Act III of 1932 and in C. P. by C. P. Act XVI of 1935.

Application.—This Article does not apply to an appeal filed against an order refusing execution against an alleged partner of a firm against which the decree was passed as such an order has the force of a decree under Or. 21, Rule 50 (3) and the court-fees payable should be ad valorem under Art. 1, Schedule I of the Court Fees Act, Valliappa Chetty v. Rungaswamy Naicker, 8 L.B.R. 300: 35 Ind. Cas. 420.

This Article applies to petition of second appeal on the appellate side of Bombay Court, Ex parte Desai Kalyanarai Hukumatrai, 4 Bom. H.C.A.C. 154.

N.B.—In deciding whether an appeal lies as from an order or as from a decree, the language of the statute is to be considered. Thus appeals under the Guardians and Wards Act; the Calcutta Municipal Act; the Workman's Compensation Act; the Lunacy Act are all appeals from orders coming within this Article.

Scope.—See the case of In re Ananda Lal Chakrabutty, 59 Cal. 128: 35 C.W.N. 1103 under s. 8 supra.

An appeal from an order rejecting a plaint does not come under this Article as the order is a decree, Ganpat v. Venkatesh, 1935 A.I.R. 83 (Nag.) F.B.

Award.—An application to the High Court to set aside an order of the District Court, reversing an order of a Court of first instance directing an award, made without intervention of Court, to be filed, should be treated as an application for a miscellaneous special appeal. Such application may be made on a stamp of the value of two rupees under Art. 11, Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, Lakshman Shivaji v. Rama Esw, 8 Bom. H.C.A.C. 117.

Under the code of 1908, under s. 104, C. P. C. an appeal lies from an award, although a decree may have been drawn up in an arbitration without the intervention of the Court. See also Article 21 (2) of the second Schedule, C. P. C.

Award without intervention of Court.—"It cannot be disputed that under cl. (f) of sub-section (1) of section 104 of the code, an appeal lies from an order filing or refusing to file an award in an arbitration without the intervention of the Court. Such appeal may be preferred at any time within the period prescribed therefor by the Limitation Act."

"The fact that a decree is drawn up on the basis of the judgment which follows the order cannot take away the right of appeal of the party aggrieved by the order. No doubt, the decree cannot be assailed by way of appeal, except on the ground that it is in excess of or not in accordance with the award. But this does not justify the inference that as soon as the decree is drawn up, the order which is its foundation becomes merged therein and loses its character as an appealable order," Soudamini Ghosh v. Gopal Chandra Ghosh, 19 C.W.N. 948: 21 C.L.J. 273: 28 I.C. 557. See also Khetra Nath v. Ushabala, 18 C.W.N. 381: Sabitri v. Promoda, 19 I.C. 941.

Where the appeal is in substance an appeal from an award directing the award to be filed, the right of appeal is not taken away by the fact that a decree has subsequently been passed in accordance with the award.

Under the Code of 1908 an appeal is allowed against an order filing or refusing to file an award but no further appeal is allowed from an order passed on such an application; on the other hand, when an award has been filed and a decree made in accordance with it no appeal lies from such a decree except in so far as it is at variance with the award, Jagat Pande v. Sarwan Pande, 50 All. 128: 25 All.L.J. 741: 103 I.C. 314: 1927 A.I.R. 771 (Allahabad).

For the purposes of court-fees an appeal from an order under s. 104 (f) of the Code of Civil Procedure would be governed by Art. 11 of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act, Agya Singh v. Sunder Singh, 9 Lah. 380: 107 I.C. 756: 1928 A.I.R. 137 (Lahore). See also Ram Jawaya v. Devi Ditta Mal, 117 P.R. 1916: 70 P.L.R. 1917: 107 P.W.R. 1916: 34 I.C. 192.

The memorandum of appeal against an order directing that an award by an arbitrator appointed without the intervention of the Court be filed, need only be stamped with a court-fee Rs. 2, Ram Autar v. Ram Samujh, 6 Luck. 703: 9 O.W.N. 800: 1932 A.I.R. 282 (Oudh): 139 I.C. 622.

Appeals from orders are specified in s. 104 to s. 107 and Order 43 of the present Code of Civil Procedure.

Civil Procedure Code.—A memorandum of appeal arising out of an application under section 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure is to be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 2 (Rs. 5 under the amended Act for Bengal).

N.B.—See Notification No. 1872 J. for Bengal published in Calcutta Gazette, Part I, page 874, dated June 1, 1921, which says that court-fees are to be realized under this article.

See also Notification No. 4650 of the Government of India published in the India Gazette, dated 14th September, 1889, Part I, pages 807-10.

Similar notifications have been issued by the Governments of other provinces. See reductions and remissions, infra.

Lunacy Act.—It is doubtful if an order imposing a fine on a guardian for contumacious conduct has the force of a decree, for the purpose of the Court Fees Act, although the order is executable as a decree, Mohammad Din v. Miran Bakhsh, 36 P.L.R. 179: 1934 A.I.R. 853 (Lal.): 150 I.C. 664

Mesne profits.—Appeal as to the amount of liability regarding mesne profits determined in execution comes under section 244 (c), C. P. C. and therefore the memorandum of appeal only requires a court-fee of 2 rupees, Itraj Kunwar v. Bacha Madho Kuar, 6 O.C. 86. But see Order 20, Rule 12, C. P. C.

Order 34, Rule 3.—An order refusing to extend time for payment of the decretal amount in a suit for foreclosure and passing a final decree comes within cl. (o), Rule 1, Or. 43 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Musst. Manjari v. Surajmal, 111 I.C. 294: 1928 A.I.R. 383 (Nag.).

Orders against sureties.—See section 145 of the Code of Civil Procedure (V of 1908). The liability of surety may be enforced in execution against him and he shall, for the purposes of an appeal, be deemed to be party within the meaning of section 47, C. P. C.

Orders passed under section 253, C. P. C. and section 336, C. P. C. refusing applications for execution for amounts decreed against sureties not being decrees nor orders having the force of a decree, fall under this Article and ad valorem court-fee is not payable, Lillo Mal v. Harji Mal, 72 P.R. 1902.

Order refusing to re-admit appeal dismissed for default.

—The stamp for an appeal from an order of an appellate Court refusing to re-admit an appeal, dismissed for default, is one of Rs. 2 under clause (b) of this Article, Musst. Kanho v. Soheli Singh, 10 P.R. 1883.

Order rejecting an application to set aside an ex parte decree.—The memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with a two rupees stamp (if to the High Court) as a summons appeal, Parbutty v. Girdharee Lall, 4 W.R. Misc. 15.

Order that party had no locus standi in execution case.—

An appeal from an order of the lower appellate Court, declaring that a party who claimed to be in possession of the property taken in execution of a decree to which he was no party and with which he had no concern, had no locus standi in the execution case, is in the nature of a miscellaneous appeal and should bear court-fees as on an ordinary petition, Mohesh Chandra Bannerjee v. Chunder Monee Dabee, 9 W.R. 139.

Remand orders.—An order remanding a case under section 562, C. P. C. (Order 41, Rule 23 of Act V of 1908) is not a decree nor an order having the force of a decree within the meaning of this Article; therefore a memorandum of appeal from such order falls under this Article and not under Art. 1, Schedule I of this Act and does not require an ad valorem court-fee, Sadiq Mahammad v. Gurusahai Ram, 6 P.R. 1880.

But where a suit for possession and mesne profits is decided on the merits but remanded so that some further acts may be carried out, i.e., enquiry into the amount of mesne profits completed, the appeal is an appeal from a decree and not an appeal from the order of remand.

Thus where the lower appellate Court, in a suit for possession and mesne profits, decreed the appeal on the merits but remanded the case for determination of mesne profits, held, that the appeal from the decision of the lower appellate Court is an appeal from a decree and the memorandum is to be stamped with an ad valorem court-fee, Raghunath Das v. Jhari Singh, 3 Pat.L.J. 99: 45 Ind. Cas. 100. See also Umrao Ali Khan v. Abdul Subhan Khan, 5 All.L.J. 645: 28 All.W.N. 40 (case of a suit for partition).

Although the appellate Court which ordered the remand had no jurisdiction to pass the order as made under Order 41, Rule 23, nevertheless if the learned judge purported to act under Order 41, Rule 23, he must be taken to have remanded the case under Order 41, Rule 23, Basumati Debi v. Tarit Basini Das, 31 C.L.J. 354; Mahendra Chakrabarti v. Ram Saran Bando-padhyaya, 31 C.L.J. 357; Kayem Biswas v. Bahadur Khan, 42 C.L.J. 22; Radha Krishna v. Kamal Basini, 35 C.L.J. 345; Mahammad Ali v. Karam Ali, 38 C.W.N. 1202; Gakur Prasad Har Prasad v. Ram Kumar, 44 All. 176; Kulsun-un-Nissa v. Ram Prasad, 44 All. 492; Chowdhury Chandrika Singh v. Mithu Rai, I.L.R. 6 Pat. 380.

Where the trial court disposed the case finally on the merits but the lower appellate Court remanded the case for rehearing of the whole case, held on appeal by the High Court that as the order of remand as made did not finally determine all or any of the matters in controversy between the parties, it was not a decree within the meaning of s. 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, therefore no appeal lay from the order of remand, Banka Behary Deb v. Birendra Nath Datt, 55 Cal. 219.

Contra.—The order setting aside the decree of the trial court and directing a retrial of the suit with reference to a certain document “is a decree which reverses the decree of the court of first instance and deprives the plaintiffs of the valuable rights they have acquired thereunder. The appeal is consequently, competent, not as an appeal from an order under Order 43, Rule 1, sub-rule (u) but as an appeal from a decree under s. 96 of the Code read with sec. 100”, Bhairab Chandra Datt and others v. Kali Kumar Datt and others, 37 C.L.J. 491 (492).

Restitution of property.—An application for mesne profits made not by the plaintiff but by the defendants against whom the suit had been dismissed by way of restitution under section 583, C. P. C. (section 144 of Act V of 1908) is one under section 244 (c) of the Code. Such application would be chargeable with court-fees under Art. 11, Schedule II of the Court Fees Act and not ad valorem court-fees, Gangadhar Marwari v. Lachman Singh, 11 C.L.J. 541: 6 I.C. 125.

An order under section 144, C. P. C. comes under section 47 (1) of the Code. Clause (6) of the Notification of the Government of India No. 4650, dated the 10th September 1889, applies to appeals from such orders, and a court-fee of rupees two is chargeable, Madan Mohan Dey v. Nogendra Nath Dey, 21 C.W.N. 544, 39 I.C. 640.

An application by the judgment-debtor for compensation under section 144, C. P. C. need only be stamped with a court-fee of eight annas, Gobba v. Kanchhedilal, 18 N.L.R. 15: 67 Ind. Cas. 225 (Nagpur). See also Sayad Hamidalli v. Anmadalli, 45 Bom. 1137: 23 Bom.L.R. 480: 62 I.C. 233.

Application for restitution under section 144, C. P. C. are applications in execution, Sudali Mathu Pillai v. Sudali Mathu, Pillai and others, 71 Ind. Cas. 173: 1923 A.I.R. 1270 (Mad.): 17 L.W. 623; Kurgodigouda v. Ninagangouda, 41 Bom. 625. An application for restitution is an application in execution under the new Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908) as under the old Code (Act XIV of 1882), Somasundaram Pillai v. Chokalingam Pillai, 40 Mad. 780.

Where mortgaged properties were sold at the instance of a mortgagee-decree-holder and a prior mortgagee B was adjudged to be entitled to a share in the sale proceeds in an appeal filed under section 47, C. P. C., the mortgagee-decree-holder then withdrew the amount of the sale proceeds on furnishing security. The prior mortgagee then applied for interest and damages against the heir of the mortgagee-decree-holder B which was allowed, held on appeal that the case falls under section 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Therefore the B. and O. Government Notification No. 2576-L.A. 25 of 1921 directing under section 35 of the Court Fees Act that the fee chargeable on appeals from order under section 47, C. P. C. shall be limited to the amount chargeable under Schedule II, Art. 11 of the Court Fees Act applies. Therefore the memorandum need only bear a court-fee of Rs. 4, Sital Prosad Singh v. Jagdeo Singh, I.L.R. 4 Patna 294: 1925 A.I.R. 577 (Patna): 92 I.C. 474: 7 P.L.T. 415. See also Balmukund v. Basanta Kumar, 3 Pat. 371: 1924 Pat. C.W.N. 33: 5 P.L.T. 145: 78 I.C. 200. See also Moti Singh v. Court of Wards, 103 I.C. 657: 1927 A.I.R. 635 (Lah.); Rahmat Ali Shah v. Rikhi Kesh, 107 I.C. 491: 1928 A.I.R. 143 (Lahore); Sant Sahai v. Chutai Kurmi, 1 Luck. 40: 92 I.C. 23: 1926 A.I.R. 199 (Oudh). See also the case of Prag Narain v. Kamakhia Singh, P.C.L.R. 36 I.A. 197: 31 All. 551: 11 Bom.L.R. 1200: 14 C.W.N. 55: 10 C.L.J. 257: 6 M.L.T. 303: 19 M.L.J. 599: 13 O.C. 180: 3 I.C. 798, which was a decision under sec. 583 of the Code of 1882 (Act XIV of 1882).

Note.—In Madras the question whether an order for restitution is a decree or not does not arise in view of the amendment of this Article by the Madras Amending Act.

See Contra.—An order under section 144, C. P. C. is not on an application in execution proceedings but is a decree, hence the memorandum is to be stamped with ad valorem court-fees, Baijnath v. Balmukund, 47 All. 78: 22 A.L.J. 881: 82 I.C. 321: 1925 A.I.R. 137 (All.).

An appeal from an order of restitution under sec. 144, C. P. C. if such an order is not contained in the decree of the appellate Court, is an order which has the force of a decree and, therefore, court-fee payable on the memorandum of appeal is to be calculated under Sch. I, Art. 1 of the Court Fees Act, Gul Muhammad and another v. Sabz Ali Khan, 113 I.C. 270: 1930 A.I.R. 24 (Lah.).

An application for restitution consequent on a decree of an appellate Court reversing or modifying the decree appealed against is not an application to execute the decree, hence does not come under s. 47, C. P. C. Therefore ad valorem court-fees are payable as an appeal from a decree, Maung Hla Maung v. Ma Hnin Dauk, 8 Rangoon 271: 126 I.C. 211: 1930 A.I.R. 241 (Ran.): 1930 I.R. 291 (Ran.).

An order for restitution of the benefit received under a loan embodied in a decree does not come under this Article and the memorandum of appeal is to bear ad valorem court-fees on the amount directed to be restored, Moyna Bibi v. Banku Bihary, 6 C.W.N. 667.

Appeals under Indian Companies Act.—A memorandum of appeal from an order under section 57 of Act VI of 1882. (Indian Companies Act) presented to the High Court must be stamped with court-fee under this Article, Nawab of Bella Spinning and Weaving Co., Ltd. v. Atmaram, (1865) P.J. 214.

A memorandum of appeal from an order under section 214 of Act VI of 1882 (Indian Companies Act) is to be stamped under this Article, as such an order is not a decree nor an order having the force of a decree, Reference under section 28 of Act VII of 1870, 17 All. 238: (1895) 15 All. W.N. 56.

Measurement cases.—Petitions of appeals in cases to obtain the order for measurement of lands of tenants may be made on the same stamp as for miscellaneous petitions, Smith v. Nundun Lall, 6 W.R. (Act X) 13; but see Article 13 which provides for a fee of Rs. Ten in Bengal.

But if the petitioner values his relief at a certain amount, then the memorandum of appeal must be stamped ad valorem on that amount and not as a miscellaneous appeal, Oma Churn Biswas v. Shib Nath Bagchee, 8 W.R. 14.

12. Caveat.

Five rupees.

[Ten rupees in Bengal, Bihar and Orissa and Madras.]

[In Bombay Five rupees upto Two thousand rupees and Ten rupees exceeding that amount.]

[In U. P. Five rupees when the value of the property does not exceed Five thousand rupees], and Ten rupees above that amount.

NOTES.

Change in law.—The fee is raised to Ten Rupees in Bengal, Madras and Behar and Orissa, and has been amended in Bombay by Bombay Act II of 1932; in U. P. by U. P. Act III of 1932.

A caveat is in the nature of a precautionary measure intended to assure that there shall be no proceedings in the matter of the estate of the deceased without notice to the person who files the caveat. It is not necessary where person interested in the estate of the deceased appears upon citation, and a petition by such a party upon whom citation has been issued and who appeared to oppose the grant, is not a caveat and need not be stamped as such, Bhabatarini Debi v. Hari Charan Bannerjee, 20 C.W.N. 787: 26 Ind. Cas. 38. See also Chota Lal v. Bai Kabubai, 22 Bom. 261 (265).

13. Application under Act No. X of 1859, section 26, or Bengal Act No. VI of 1862, section 9, or Bengal Act No. VIII of 1869, section 37.

Five rupees.

[Ten rupees in Bengal.]

NOTES.

Change in law.—Act X of 1859 was repealed by the Bengal Tenancy Act, (VIII of 1885), see the reprint of the Act as modified up to 31st May, 1907, published by the Government of Bengal, for those portions of the Lower Provinces to which that Act extends and in the Chota Nagpur Division (except Manbhum and the Tributary Mahals) by the Chota Nagpur Landlord and Tenant Procedure Act, 1879 (Ben. Act. I of 1879), (see now Ben. Act 6 of 1908), Ben. Code Vol. II; in the province of Agra by Act 18 of 1873; and in the Central Provinces, by the Central Provinces Act, 1883 (9 of 1883), Central Provinces Code.

Bengal Act 6 of 1862 was repealed by the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885 (VIII of 1885), so far as it affected those portions of the Lower Provinces to which that Act extended, and in the Chota Nagpur Division (except Manbhum and the Tributary Mahals) by the Chota Nagpur Landlord and Tenant Procedure Act, 1879 (1 of 1879) (see now Ben. Act VI of 1908), Ben. Code Vol. II.

Bengal Act VIII of 1869 was repealed by the Bengal Tenancy Act 1885 (VIII of 1885).

These sections of the old Acts correspond to section 91 of the Bengal Tenancy Act (Act VIII of 1885 B. C.) and relate to suits by landlords for measurement of lands held by tenants.

Local Amendment.—The fee of five rupees has been raised to ten rupees by Bengal Act IV of 1922 for Bengal.

NOTES.

Local Amendments.—This Article has been amended in Bengal by Bengal Act IV of 1922; in Bombay by Bombay Act II of 1932; in Madras by Madras Act V of 1922; in Bihar and Orissa by B. & O. Act I of 1922; in U. P. by U. P. Act III of 1932; in C. P. by C. P. Act XVI of 1935.

General.—The fixed fees prescribed under this Article are provisional and are liable to be supplanted, in case of selected classes of suits, by a court-fee calculated on what the High Court and the Local Government considered to be a reasonable basis of valuation, Ganpatrao v. Laxmi Bai, 43 Ind. Cas. 64 (66-67): 15 N.L.R. 24.

Art. 17 of the second Schedule was never intended to be applied to a case, where a person, with a definite decree for a particular sum of money against him, seeks to set it aside. The question whether or not a decree is capable of being executed, without payment of a further sum of money by the plaintiff as court-fee, is not a question which affects the method in which the relief in a memorandum of appeal of this character can be valued. (The suit was a suit for accounts and the appeal was an appeal from a preliminary decree), Kanti Chandra Tarafdar v. Radharaman Sarkar, (1929) 57 Cal. 463: 33 C.W.N. 743: 124 I.C. 77: 1929 A.I.R. 815 (Cal.).

Clause I.—Summary decision.—What is a summary decision? The words "summary decision or order" mean a decision "not made in a regular suit or appeal," Dayachand v. Hemchand, 4 Bom. 515 (521, 522) F.B.

"It is the decision of a Court which hears and determines the matter, but does not finally conclude the parties," Mahtab

Chand v. Bacharam Hazra, 5 B.L.R. 162 (166): 13 W.R. 74 F.B.

The words "summary decision" mean a decision of the Civil Courts not being a decree made in a regular suit or appeal, Ramdhan Mandal v. Rameswar Bhattacharjee, 2 B.L.R.A.C. 235: 11 W.R. 117.

Claim cases.—One Chhatrapat Singh was owner of two pergunnahs. He sold those properties for consideration to Bibi Phul Kumari subject to two mortgages. Bibi Phul Kumari cleared those mortgages and remained in possession. Later on Ghanshyam Misra having obtained a money decree against Chhatrapat attached those properties and advertised them for sale in execution of his decree. Bibi Phul Kumari (the appellant) objected to the attachment and applied to the Subordinate Judge of Purnea for removal of the attachment, claiming those properties as her own. Her claim was rejected. She therefore, filed a suit and prayed (a) that the plaintiff's right and possession of the properties be declared (b) that it be declared that the said properties are not liable to be sold in execution of the decree of the defendant (Ghanshyam), and not to execute his said decree against the said properties of the plaintiff. The plaint was stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10 for declaration on prayer (a) and Rs. 10 for declaration on prayer (b). The Subordinate Judge dismissed the suit as the plaint was insufficiently stamped and the High Court affirmed the decision (31 Cal. 511).

On appeal the Privy Council reversing the decision of the Court below, held: "Their Lordships, however, are satisfied that there is in the statute no general or over-riding reference to value. The terms of sub-section 1 of Article 17 (which they held to apply) contain no reference to value. In like manner the class of suits dealing with arbitration awards is coupled with suits such as that immediately in question; awards may be of the value of Rs. 10 or Rs. 10,00,000; and yet no distinction is made. In short, the statute, for good reason or bad has dealt with certain actions irrespective of value; and the present is one of them" and their Lordships held that Rs. 10 is sufficient. Phul Kumari v. Ghanshyam Misra, 35 Cal. 202: 12 C.W.N. 169: 7 C.L.J. 36: 35 I.A. 22: 10 Bom. L.R. 1: 5 All. L.J. 10: 17 M.L.J. 618: 2 M.L.T. 506: 14 Bom. L.R. 41 See also *Dildar Fatima v. prayer for possession, still the Bombay High Court held that Rs. 10 is sufficient); Nga Seik v. Ngra Pu, U.B.R. (1913) 3rd quarter 181: 22 Ind. Cas. 676; *Maung Tun Thein v. Where an objection is dismissed under Order 21, Rule 58, C. P. C. and the unsuccessful claimant institutes a suit under Order 21, Rule 63, C. P. C. to establish his title to the property, the suit comes under Sch. II, Art. 17, Cl. 1 of the Court Fees Act. The fact that the property has been sold makes no difference so long as the plaintiff claims to be in possession and does not ask to be restored to possession or that possession be delivered to him, Musst. Manick and other v. Ramjas Agarwala and others, 3 P.L.T. 832: 70 Ind. Cas. 332: 1923 A.I.R. 152 (Patna): 1 P.L.R. 51.

A prayer to restore an attachment is really to set aside a summary order and hence court-fee of Rs. 10 is to be paid, Dayachand Nemchand v. Hemchand Dharamchand, 4 Bom. 515; Didar Fatima v. Narain Das, 11 All. 365.

See contra. The test for the purpose of court-fees is the value of the quantum of interest which the plaintiff wishes to establish, Narayan Singh v. Ayyasami Peddi, 1914 M.W.N. 910.

If there be two suits in respect of separate orders then separate fees must be paid. (Order under Ord. 21 Rule 103), Mudhoram v. Messrs. G. V. Ratan Chand, 1935 A.I.R. 129 (Sind).

Attachment.—Valuation.—A suit to set aside an order in a claim case after removing an attachment on declaration of title and for an injunction comes under Sch. II, Art. 17, Cl. I of the Court Fees Act. The valuation of a suit for possession arising out of a claim preferred, is to be valued not on the market value of the land but under s. 7, paragraph 5 of the Court Fees Act in accordance with the provisions of s. 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, Arunuga Mudaliar v. Venkatachela Pillai, 64 M.L.J. 568: 144 I.C. 243: 1933 A.I.R. 439 (Mad.); Janaki Ammal v. Kuheema Umma, 1935 M.W.N. 528: 68 M.L.J. 231: 41 L.W. 626: 1935 A.I.R. 219 (Mad.).

In Dwarka Das v. Kameshar Prasad, (1894) 17 All. 69 it was held that the valuation is to be at the market value of the land or the decretal amount whichever is less.

Claim case dismissed for default.—Art. 17, Clause 1 of the second Schedule includes the case where the claim preferred is dismissed for default and a suit is brought to set aside the decision, Satindra Nath v. Shiba Prasad, 26 C.W.N. 126: (1922) A.I.R. 166 (Cal.).

Clause II.—See cases, under Section 7, paragraph iv (c) of this Act, under heading “Land Registration Act.”

Clause III.—Section 42 of the Specific Relief Act runs as follows:—“Any person entitled to any legal character, or to any right as to a property, may institute a suit against any person denying, or interested to deny, his title to such character or right, and the Court may, in its discretion make therein a declaration that he is so entitled, and the plaintiff need not in such suit sue for any further relief.

Provided that no Court shall make any declaration where the plaintiff being able to seek further relief than a mere declaration of title, omits to do so.

Explanation.—A trustee of property is a person interested to deny a title adverse to the title of some one who is not in existence, and for whom, if in existence, he would be a trustee.

Illustrations (e) and (f) to section 42 of the Specific Relief Act are not exhaustive of the classes of cases in which a reversioner can sue for a declaration under the section, Y. Surayya v. Y. Subbamma, 43 Mad. 4.

Section 42 of the Specific Relief Act is not exhaustive of the cases in which declaratory decrees can be made, Veeramacheneni Ramasami v. Soma Pitchayya, 43 Mad. 410: (1920) M.W.N. 393: 58 Ind. Cas. 585. See also Robert Fischer v. The Secy. of State for India in Council, 22 Mad. 270 P.C.

The proviso to section 42 of the Specific Relief Act, forbids a suit for a pure declaration without further relief; but it does not compel a plaintiff to sue for all the reliefs which could possibly be granted or debar him from obtaining a relief which he wants unless at the same time he asks for relief which he does not want. The expression “further relief” in the proviso to section 42 of the Specific Relief Act, means “relief in relation to the legal character or rights as to property which the plaintiff is entitled to and whose title to such character or right the defendant denies or is interested to deny; it must also be relief appropriate to and necessarily consequent to the title asserted,” Jaynarain Sen Ukil v. Suchitra Debya, 33 C.L.J. 592: 26 C.W.N. 206.

The extreme limit of application of proviso to section 42 is indicated in Sardar Singhji v. Ganpat Singhji, 14 Bom. 395 and Srinivasa v. Srinivasa, 16 Mad. 31.

The proviso to s. 42 of the Specific Relief Act refers to the position of the plaintiff when he commenced the suit and cannot be treated as taking away a right of suit which had already accrued, Govinda v. Perumdevi, 12 Mad. 136.

The proviso to s. 42 of the Specific Relief Act is applicable only to such relief as is appropriate to and consequent on the right asserted, Karman v. Krishnan, 13 Mad. 324.

Nature of declaratory suits.—The nature and history of declaratory suits are discussed in Deokali Koer v. Kedar Nath, 36 Cal. 704: 15 Ind. Cas. 472: 16 C.W.N. 838.

Application.—Art. 17, cl. iii of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act applies only to a memorandum of appeal in a suit to obtain a declaratory decree where no consequential relief is prayed, Kundun Lal v. Dulichand (1931) 54 All. 347: (1932) A.L.J. 45: 140 I.C. 98; 1932 A.I.R. 221 (All.).

Evasion of Stamp duty.—Where the main object of the suit fails, the plaintiff is not entitled to turn round and ask for a declaration, Rutton Monee v. Brojo Mohun, 22 W.R. 333.

In Idol Sri Sri Gokul Nath Jiu v. The New Birbhum Coal Co., Ltd., 80 I.C. 589: 27 C.W.N. 972, the lower Court dismissed the suit because the further relief has not been asked for as required by section 42 of the Specific Relief Act, and the Calcutta High Court held on a reference under section 5 of the Court Fees Act: "It is not in the province of the Court to see whether the suit is properly framed, whether the plaintiff is entitled to the declaration asked for, or what would be the effect if the plaintiff succeeds in obtaining a declaration as prayed for..... The Court has only to see whether it is a memorandum of appeal in a suit to obtain a declaratory decree where no consequential relief has been prayed." The High Court thought it was such a suit.

Attachment.—Where the prayer is simply that the property mentioned at the foot of the plaint, is the joint ancestral property of the plaintiff and not liable for attachment and sale in execution of the decree of defendant No. 4 against defendant No. 1 and for any other relief that the Court might see fit to grant, held, that the suit was one for declaration only and a court-fee of Rs. 10 is sufficient, Gobinda Nath Tewari v. Gajraj Mati, 13 All. 389. See The Maharaja of Pittapuram v. Srichelikani Venkatarayanim Garu, 57 M.L.J. 260: 1929 M.W.N. 608: 30 L.W. 357: 1930 A.I.R. 22 (Mad.): 122 I.C. 526, where it was held that an order declaring a distraint is capable of valuation as no question as to the validity of the distraint was raised, but only question as to the exact amount of rent was raised.

Benami.—A suit for a declaration that the plaintiff is the real owner of a decree obtained by the defendants against a third party and praying for the decree to be transferred to plaintiff, is a suit for mere declaration in which no consequential relief is prayed for, and the latter part of the prayer is a mere surplusage. The plaint in such a suit should bear only a ten rupees stamp, Ganeshi Lal v. Beni Pershad, 47 P.L.R. 1911: 1 P. R. 1911: 22 P.W.R. 1911: 9 Ind. Cas. 673.

Bengal Alluvial Lands Act.—The memorandum of appeal from a decree of a Civil Court on a reference by the Collector is to bear a fixed fee of Rs. 20 as an appeal from a declaratory decree, Basanta Kumar Biswas v. Prosonna Kumar Guha, 58 Cal. 710: 35 C.W.N. 181: 133 I.C. 222: 1932 A.I.R. 47 (Cal.): 1931 I.R. 670 (Cal.).

Claim for money coupled with a declaration.—Where the plaintiff sued for recovery of money and for a declaration of his right to be first paid out of the sale proceeds of the defendant's property as equitable mortgagee but the trial Court while giving a decree for money refused the declaration sought for, held, that the memorandum of appeal by the plaintiff regarding the declaration sought for but refused need only be stamped with a court-fee of rupees ten only, Simla Bank v. Naripat Rai, 43 P.R. 1888.

Where the plaintiff sued for a declaration that the defendants were liable to pay certain amounts and for the further declaration that the plaintiffs shall be entitled to recover those amounts when he is compelled to pay the same, it is a suit of a declaratory nature without a consequential relief and a court-fee of Rs. 10 is sufficient, although the case may not come under section 42 of the Specific Relief Act, Sheikh Rafiquddin v. Haji Sheikh Asgar Ali, I.L.R. 1 Pat. 1: 63 Ind. Cas. 38.

Declarations as regards decrees.—Decree and deeds, null and void.—A suit in which the only prayer is to have a decree set aside as null and void is a suit for mere declaration without consequential relief and is governed by Art. 17, clause (iii) of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act, Srimant Sagorjirao v. S. Smith, 20 Bom. 736. A suit in which the only prayer is to have it declared that a certain decree is ineffectual and inoperative against the plaintiffs, is a suit for a declaratory decree without consequential relief and falls under Art. 17, clause iii of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act, Zinnatunnessa Khatun v. Girindra Nath Mukherjee, 30 Cal. 788. This case was followed in Bagala Sundari Debi v. Prosanna Nath Mukherjee, 21 C.W.N. 375: 35 Ind. Cas. 797, where Mr. Justice Fletcher said: "The Court has got to look at and see in each particular case what is the nature of the relief claimed and for that purpose, it must look at the allegations that are contained in the plaint." [In this case the decree sought to be declared as not valid and binding was a purely declaratory decree.] Where the suit is by a person not a party to the bond or the decree, it may properly be regarded as one for declaration only, Arunachallam

Chetty v. Rangaswamy Pillai, 38 Mad. 922 (924): (1925) M.W.N. 118: 28 M.L.J. 117: 17 M.L.T. 154: 28 Ind. Cas. 79 F.B.

Decree based on fraud.—The plaintiff sued for a declaration that a certain decree being based on fraud shall not affect his rights and for any other relief which the Court might deem fit to grant. The Subordinate Judge holding that this was a suit for a declaratory decree with consequential relief, called upon the plaintiff to pay ad valorem court-fees and on his failure to pay, rejected the plaint. On this the plaintiff appealed. Held, (i) that the suit as brought was one for declaration only; (ii) this suit is not maintainable without a prayer for consequential relief by way of injunction or otherwise, and (iii) that the Court below ought to have allowed the plaintiff an opportunity to amend the plaint and to include necessary prayers, Bua Ditta v. Ladha Mal, 2 U.P.L.R. 37: 54 Ind. Cas. 833.

See other cases under s. 7, (iv) (c), supra.

Contract during minority of plaintiff.—A suit by a person for declaration that a certain instrument is invalid, will not necessarily be a suit for declaration with a consequential relief under section 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act. It will be otherwise where the party cannot impeach the arrangement effected by the deed without having it cancelled. In this case the Karar was entered into by the adult members during the minority of the plaintiff. A transaction by the Karnavan of a Tarwad is void as against members not consenting thereto, if it is in excess of the powers of the Karnarvan, Sankaran Nair v. Gopal Menon, 30 Mad. 18: 1 M.L.T. 412. See other cases under s. 7 (iv) (c) supra.

Where the plaintiff is in possession.—Where in a suit to avoid a conveyance the plaintiff alleges that she is still in possession of the property, all that she is required to do is to file a suit for declaration that the deed in favour of the defendant is not her deed, and the court-fee is payable under this clause, Umarannessa Bibi v. Janurannessa Bibi, 37 C.L.J. 499. See also Saburi Pande v. Ramkhelawan Pande, 72 I.C. 495 (Patna) where the property was in the hands of a manager of a lunatic who since died.

Appeal for declaration only.—Where a suit was instituted for a declaration with a consequential relief but the suit was decreed for declaration only and the appeal preferred by the defendants for a declaration only as to their rights, held that the appeal falls under Sch. II, Art. 17 and was correctly stamped as one for declaration only, Neko Tewari v. Kishen Prasad, 3 Pat. 640: 80 I.C. 563: 2 P.L.R. 1923: 1924 A.I.R. 582 (Patna).

The plaintiff sued for declaration that he is entitled to receive the charao of Baidyanathji from the successors of the defendant in future and claimed certain amount as having accrued due to him but the trial Court gave him the amount but refused the declaration prayed for, held on appeal by the plaintiff for the declaration that the memorandum of appeal need only be stamped as for declaration, Girijanund v. Sailajand, 23 Cal. 645.

Two declarations.—Where the plaintiff asked for a declaration and also added a prayer for another declaration which was redundant, then the latter prayer would not convert the suit for declaration into a suit for declaration with a consequential relief, Mahabir Prasad v. Shyam Behari Singh, 3 Pat. 795: 80 I.C. 655: 1925 A.I.R. 44 (P.).

A plaint for a declaration that the plaintiff was in possession as owner was amended by addition of the word 'on account of the fact that the decree in the suit . . . is according to law null and void, illegal, ineffectual, it may be declared, etc.' is a plaint for two declarations and court-fees for two declarations are to be paid, Lakshmi Narain Rai v. Dip Narain Rai, 55 All. 274: 1933 A.L.J. 311: 148 I.C. 152: 1933 A.I.R. 350 (All.).

Government grant.—The court-fees payable in respect of a claim to be declared holder of or entitled to an Ayo, i.e., a hereditary right to apply to Government for grants of oil-well sites in certain areas known as "Reserves" and to receive such sites from Government, is a suit for a declaration as nowhere in the plaint is anything from which it could be inferred that the plaintiff is to seek a further relief and has omitted to do so. The plaintiff claimed in the plaint that he has succeeded to Ma E Kyi's Ayo and that Ma E Kyi could not alienate the enjoyment of her Ayo beyond her life time. It was pointed out by the High Court that if the plaintiff claims the oil works he would be liable to pay ad valorem court-fees but such a claim was not in the plaint, Ma Su Twin v. Fatima Bibi and another, 1926 A.I.R. 184 (Rangoon): 98 I.C. 196: 5 Bur.L.J. 107 (F.B.).

Landlord and tenant.—A suit by the tenant plaintiff for a declaration that he is not liable to pay more than the amount of royalty admitted by him to the defendant landlord, is a suit for declaration without any consequential relief. Such a suit does not fall within cl. 1 or cl. (c) or cl. iv (f) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act. The value of the subject-matter in dispute will be the capitalised value of the difference between the plaintiff's and the defendant's claims, K. Kayrappankutti v. Kalliyab Thazathveetil Qutti, (1924) A.I.R. 621 (Mad.).

An appeal by a landlord from the decree in a suit for commutation of grain rent into money rent on the ground that the rate fixed by the lower Courts was too low falls either under Sch. II, Art. 17, cl. iii or under Sch. II, Art. 17, cl. vi of the Court Fees Act and must be stamped accordingly. Neither section 7, cl. (1) nor cl. iv (c) of the Act applies to such a case, S. P. Chinna v. Veerappa Naidu, 46 M.L.J. 540: (1924) A.I.R. 623 (Mad.).

A suit by a plaintiff for declaration of his title to a shop in the possession of a tenant inducted by the original proprietor against a defendant who is not in possession but who only threw obstacles in the way of the plaintiff, is a pure suit for declaration in which no consequential relief such as possession or injunction need be prayed, Gian Chand v. Bhagwan Singh, 32 P.L.R. 745: 135 I.C. 502: 1932 A.I.R. 97 (Lah.): 1932 I.R. 102 (Lah.).

Joint family property.—In a case where the prayer was: —“That the property detailed below be declared to belong to the joint family and that it be declared and established that the plaintiffs held possession of the said property in partnership with the defendant,” the plaint need only be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10, Shiva Ram v. Narain Das, (1884) 4 All.W.N. 11.

The plaint, in a suit by the son, against his father and his alienees, that the alienations are not binding on him and for his future right to succeed to the zemindary after his father's death, requires a court-fee stamp of Rs. 10 only, Narayan v. Muttayan, 7 Mad. 134.

A suit by a co-parcener of a joint Hindu family for a declaration that a mortgage of joint Hindu family property effected by another coparcener, is not binding on the property mortgaged, is a suit for mere declaration falling under Art. 17, cl. iii Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, Sham Das v. Mahant Churn Das, 1925 A.I.R. 90 (L.): 78 I.C. 722.

A suit for a declaration that certain alienations by the father of the minor plaintiffs as manager of the joint family as their guardian, are not binding on them, is a suit really one for cancellation; hence falls under section 7 (iv) (a) of the (Madras) Amended Act, and ad valorem court-fees are payable, Alagon Aiyangar v. Sreenivasa Aiyangar, 50 M.L.J. 406: 1926 M.W.N. 777: 1925 A.I.R. 1248 (M.): 91 I.C. 709.

Alienation by father.—Where the suit was for a declaration that a certain alienation made by the plaintiff's father should not be binding upon the reversionary interest, the plaint is rightly stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10. If in appeal the same prayer is repeated, the mere fact that the suit is decreed on condition of payment of a sum of money, does not alter its nature and the memorandum is to be stamped with the same amount, Harbhagwan v. Amar Singh, 83 I.C. 332: 1924 A.I.R. 530 (L.). See also Hazari Singh v. Piran, 92 P.R. 1900.

A prayer in effect for a declaration that the mortgage executed by the father is not binding on the share of the plaintiff (son), is one for declaration without a consequential relief, Secretary of State v. A.R. Lakhama, 64 M.L.J. 24: 1933 M.W.N. 144: 141 I.C. 80: 37 L.W.: 806: 1933 A.I.R. 430 (Mad.).

A suit by a son for a declaration that the mortgage executed by the father in favour of the defendant, is not enforceable and the family property is not saleable in execution of the ex parte decree obtained by the defendant mortgagee, is one for declaration and the plaint is to be stamped accordingly, Isvar Dayal v. Amha Kumar, 1935 A.L.J. 498.

A suit for a declaration that the entire family property in the hands of the defendant as the head of the family belongs equally to the plaintiff and the defendant No. 1 and they are unaffected by the several deeds executed by certain deceased member of the family, is a suit for declaration, Brij Gopal v. Suraj Karan, 1932 A.L.J. 466: 141 I.C. 112: 1932 A.I.R. 560 (All.).

Money in Bank.—Where the defendant-appellant does not dispute the amount decreed but filed the appeal in order to set aside the decision that the plaintiff alone is entitled to receive the money, which is lying in a Bank, which the Bank is ready to pay to the rightful owner, a court-fee under Art. 17 (iii) of Sch. II is sufficient as a mere declaration is sufficient, Mt. Uttama Devi v. Dina Nath and another, 1923 A.I.R. 359 (Lahore): 75 Ind. Cas. 774.

A suit for a declaration to establish the right of the plaintiff to obtain payment under a cheque negotiated for a valuable consideration, or at any rate for a declaration that the cheque was endorsed to him for valuable consideration, is a suit merely for a declaration as it does not seek to recover money from any of the parties in the suit and cannot end in a decree directing any of the defendants to pay money to the plaintiff, specially when the Bank showed eagerness to pay money to any one establishing his title to get the same, Giridharilal Ratanlal v. Palaniappa Mudali, 1929 A.I.R. 572 (Mad.).

Mortgage.—A subsequent mortgagee suing on his mortgage is to pay in respect of a prior mortgage court-fees on the declaration he seeks in respect of the prior mortgage and not on the amount in claim in the prior mortgage, Isvar Dayal v. Anna Saheb, 1935 A.L.J. 168: 1935 A.I.R. 100 (All.).

Property in the custody of Collector.—Under Court of Wards.—In the plaint the plaintiff distinctly stated that he lays claim to two subjects, i.e., to two kinds of property. First, a house in his possession and second, other properties in possession of the Collector, and their value exceeded Rs. 50,000. Those properties being in the possession of the Collector it was not necessary for or allowable to the plaintiff to ask for an injunction. He was entitled to ask only for a declaration of title, Shidappa Venkatarao v. Rachappa Subbarao, 36 Bom. 628 (638): 14 Bom.L.R. 757: 16 Ind. Cas. 1005; Affirmed on appeal by P.C. in 43 Bom. 507: 24 C.W.N. 33: 29 C.L.J. 452.

Effect of orders under sec. 145 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.—An order under section 145 of the Code of Criminal Procedure has not the effect of actual dispossession of the unsuccessful party, Jhumak Kampti v. Debu Lal Singh, 22 C.L.J. 415.

Under s. 146 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.—Suit for declaration of title to the co-trusteeship of a Chatram without asking for possession after an order of attachment under s. 146 of the Code of Criminal Procedure which was set aside by the High Court, is maintainable and not barred by s. 42 of the Specific Relief Act, Malaiyya Pillai v. Thirumalai Perumal Pillai, 21 M.L.J. 1022. See also Raja of Venkatagiri v. Isakapillai, 26 Mad. 410, where the Madras High Court held that such suit was one for declaration only. See also The Administration-General of Bengal v. Bhagwan Chandra Ray, 15 C.W.N. 758.

In Panna Lal Biswas v. Panchu Guidas, 26 C.W.N. 432, the Calcutta High Court held: "The suit though framed as a suit for possession of property cannot be treated as such, because possession was not with the defendant but with the Magistrate who is not and cannot be a party to the suit.* * The possession of the Magistrate, no doubt, was that of a stake-holder and during the continuance of the attachment the property was in legal custody which must be held to be for the benefit of the true owners."* * * "The defendant's possession determined upon the Magistrate's taking possession under attachment."

When an order under s. 146 of the Code of Criminal Procedure has been passed there is no cause of action against the Magistrate as he has acted in the exercise of his statutory powers. The suit must be brought against the rival claimant and as he is not in possession, the suit cannot be one for possession but must be for declaration only, Brojendra Kisore Ray Chaudhury v. Sarojini Ray and others, 20 C.W.N. 481; Jurawan Singh v. Ramsarekh Singh, 12 Patna 261: 14 P.L.T. 113: 1933 A.I.R. 224 (Pat.).

But see Goswami Ranchod Lalji v. Sri Giridhariaji, 20 All. 120, where the Allahabad High Court thought that the suit is a suit for possession.

Where a Magistrate passes an order under s. 146 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, a person claiming the property need only sue for declaration as the claimants must be considered to be in possession when the suit was instituted. But when the Magistrate had interfered with the possession of the defendants because an emergency had arisen and before the suit can be filed had ordered that the retention of the sale proceeds was unnecessary, he was holding the same on behalf of the defendants and the defendant-appellant must pay ad valorem fees calculated on the value of the subject-matter in dispute, Sakharam and others v. Tukaram and another, 103 I.C. 351: 1927 A.I.R. 316 (Nagpur).

Stranger put in possession.—When the Magistrate has placed a stranger in possession contrary to the provisions of s. 146 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the suit is one for recovery of possession, Nissar Ali v. Adebuddishana, 16 C.W.N. 1073: 16 I.C. 621.

Debutter properties.—Where the plaintiff in a suit instituted under s. 92 C.P.C., asks for a temporary injunction to compel the other side to deposit money in hand in court, it is really a prayer for accounts, but the character of the suit is not thereby altered and court-fees should be paid under Sch. II Art. 17 (iii) of the Court Fees Act, Ramanuja Naidu v. Alagappa Chettiar, 47 M.L.J. 656: 85 I.C. 80: 1924 A.I.R. 882 (M.): 20 L.W. 716.

Where the plaintiff sued for his share of the offerings in the temple of Baidyanathji and a further declaration to receive if from the successor in office of the defendant, in future and the trial Court allowed the amount but refused the declaration, held, on appeal by plaintiff, that memorandum of appeal need only be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10 for the declaration, Girijanand v. Sailajanand, 23 Cal. 645.

Trust property.—A person who is not a party to the decree against trust property may sue to have it declared void, inoperative and not capable of execution without asking for any consequential relief and the suit is not governed by section 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act, Mt. Nihal Devi and others v. Rai Chuni Lal and others, 73 Ind. Cas. 767: 1923 A.I.R. 373 (Lahore): 5 L.L.J. 357. See also, Amin Chand v. Sant Murli Dhar, 18 P.R. 1913: 151 P.W.R. 1913: 19 Ind. Cas. 219; Chattu Kutty v. Chhattu Kutty, 78 Ind. Cas. 118: 1924 A.I.R. 611 (Mad.): 1924 M. W.N. 210: 19 L.W. 249.

A suit for a declaration to the effect that the properties sought to be sold in execution of the mortgage decree by the mortgagee-decree-holder are properties of the Thakurs instituted on behalf of Thakurs who were not parties to the mortgage suit, is a suit for declaration without any consequential relief and the plaint is to be stamped under Art. 17, Cl. (iii), Sch. II of the Court Fees Act (the case of Sripal Singh v. Jagdish, 20 O.C. 361: 65 I.C. 980 dist. on the ground that there the suit was by a person who was a party to the decree on the mortgage), Sriram v. Mathura Prasad, 85 I.C. 349: 1925 A.I.R. 500 (Oudh).

A suit for a mere declaration as to the validity of a Wakfnama is not maintainable against a defendant who claims to hold the properties adversely to the Wakf as his own properties. In such a case consequential relief as to joint possession, injunction or the like must be claimed, therefore such a suit does not come under Art. 17, Cl. (iii), Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, Shihan v. Abdul Alim Abed, 34 C.W.N. 1129: 53 C.L.J. 91: 130 I.C. 369: 1930 A.I.R. 787 (Cal.). See also Maulavi Muhammad Fahimul Huq v. Jagat Ballav Ghose, 2 Patna 391 (399, 400).

Reversioners.—The plaint in a suit by reversioner during the life time of the widow for declaration that the alienation by her is void and is not binding beyond the life time of the widow, need only be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10, Bakshish Singh v. Narain Singh, 70 P.R. 1877.

The plaint in a suit for declaration during the life time of the widow that the will should not affect the reversionary right of the plaintiff need be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10 only, Hakim v. Mussammatt Mahtab Kour, 109 P.R. 1893. See also Daivachilaya Pillai v. Ponnathal, 18 Mad. 459.

Where the plaintiffs sued as reversioners, after death of the widow, to the estate of B.P. to recover possession of the estate and for declaration that possession by the alienee of the estate from the widow of B, is illegal and wrongful on declaration that the plaintiffs are reversioners of B; held by Full Bench that the suit is one for possession only the other prayers being surplusage, and the plaint need only be stamped with court-fees calculated under s. 7 paragraph (v) of the Court Fees Act, Ram Sumran Parsad v. Gobind Das, 1922, Pat. C.W.N. 291: I.L.R. 2 Pat. 125: 3 P.L.T. 704: 68 Ind. Cas. 700.

The memorandum of an appeal by the defendants arising out of a suit for a declaration that the deed of release by the Hindu widow (5th defendant) is not binding on the plaintiffs-reversioners and for the appointment of a receiver and also wherein it was prayed in the alternative that if the appeal fails then a certain sum of money be given to the appellants, comes under Art. 17-A, Schedule II of the Court Fees Act (Madras Amendment) and for the prayer for the appointment of a receiver a separate fee of Rs. 15 is payable, Palaniappa Chettiar and others v. Settichi and others, 63 M.L.J. 822: (1932). M.W.N. 1324: 36 L.W. 828: 141 I.C. 324: 1933 A.I.R. 108

Art. 17-A.—(Madras Amendment).

In Perraju v. Subbarao, 41 L.W. 405: 1935 M.W.N. 346: 68 M.L.J. 376: 1935 A.I.R. 419 (M.) in a suit for partition the plaintiff impleaded different creditors and prayed that his share on partition be given to him free from liability for the debts due to those creditors. The High Court held that fixed fee for each of the debt should be put in separately.

A suit for setting aside a decree on a razinama for maintenance comes under Art. 17-A as amended in Madras and court-fee is payable accordingly, Kulandaivelu Nachiar v. Ramaswami Pandia, 51 Mad. 664: 55 M.L.J. 345: 27 L.W. 286: 108 I.C. 539: 1928 A.I.R. 416 (Mad.).

If the plaintiff claims these reliefs which are distinct and independent, the requisite court-fees with regard to each of them must be paid, even if the court-fees have to be paid for the same property twice over, Aremagiri Mudaliar v. Rajambal Ammal, 68 M.L.J. 280: 41 L.W. 452: 1935 M.W.N. 223: 1935 A.I.R. 313 (Mad.).

Under Art. 17-A (iii) Court Fees Act, a fee of Rs. 500 is payable in all cases where the value of the suit for the purpose of jurisdiction is over Rs. 10,000, Nagamma v. Narasimham, 41 L.W. 469: 68 M.L.J. 329: 1935 M.W.N. 144: 1935 A.I.R. 279 (Mad.). See Narpina Veeruma v. Vanleatarasamma, 68 M.L.J. 280 where the suit was for setting aside an adoption and for declaration as to three wills.

Valuation.—In Rachappa Subrao v. Shidappa Venkatarao, 43 Bom. 507: 24 C.W.N. 33: 17 A.L.J. 418: 25 M.L.J. 298: 21 Bom.L.R. 489: 50 I.C. 280 P.C., the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council said: "if regard be had to the real as distinct from the imputed value of the property the suit was properly instituted in the Court of the First Class Subordinate Judge and if any part of the fee was payable and paid was a fixed fee under Schedule II of the Act, then the notional value of the property or any part of it could not displace its real value for the purpose of jurisdiction."

A suit for a declaration of the validity of an adoption without any other consequential relief is to be valued under s. 12 of the Madras Civil Courts Act on the basis of the market value of the property affected by the sale and not merely of the plaintiff's share or according to the valuation under the Court Fees Act as if it was a suit for possession on declaration of title, sec. 3 of the Suits Valuation Act applies only to particular categories of suits. Section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act will be wholly repealed if rules are framed under sec. 3 of the Suits Valuation Act. The High Court proceeded to say: "The general principles deducible for valuation for purposes of jurisdiction where no special method of valuation has been provided by the statute would seem to be (1) that where the subject-matter of a suit is wholly unrelated to anything which can be readily stated in definite money terms, then the plaintiff having to put some money value for the purpose of jurisdiction, must put a more or less arbitrary value, and there being no factors in the case from which the Court can say his valuation is wrong or dishonest, the Court will accept the valuation and (2) where the subject-matter is so related to things which have a real money value that the relief asked for will affect these, then the value of the suit for the purpose of jurisdiction is to be taken at the market value of the property," Vasireddi Veeramma v. Butchayya, (1926) 50 Mad. 646: 52 M.L.J. 381: 25 L.W. 440: 101 I.C. 379: 1927 A.I.R. 563 (Mad.); In re Ramaswami Asari, 52 Mad. 340: 28 L.W. 660: 113 I.C. 363: 1928 A.I.R. 1294 (Mad.). The value is to be fixed with reference to the market value of the properties, Nagamma v. Narasimham, 41 L.W. 469: 68 M.L.J. 329: 1935 M.W.N. 144: 1935 A.I.R. 279 (Mad.).

The valuation of a suit for declaration in respect of alienations by the widow of the last male holder, is the market value of the property in suit and not a notional value, Dhanabeggiammal v. Mari Ammal, 36 L.W. 483: 1932 M.W.N. 780: 139 I.C. 471: 1932 A.I.R. 671 (Mad.).

Clause IV—Awards.—In suits to set aside summary decisions, as also those dealing with arbitration awards, the amount of court-fees payable on the plaint does not depend on the value of the property, Bibi Phul Kumari v. Ghanshyam Misser, 35 Cal. 202: 7 C.L.J. 36: 17 M.L.J. 618: 5 All. L.J. 10: 10 Bom. L.R. 1: 14 Bur. L.R. 41.

A suit to set aside an award by arbitrators is governed by Art. 17, (iv), Schedule II of the Court Fees Act. The valuation should not be arbitrary but actual value of the property in dispute is to be given, Venkatachellam Pillai v. P. V. Srinivasa Aiyar, 75 Ind. Cas. 115: (1924) A.I.R. 84 (Madras).

Section 8 of the Court Fees Act being a special provision, relating to awards of compensation under the Land Acquisition Act overrides the general provisions of Art. 17, (iv), Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, Kesturi Chetty v. Deputy Collector, Bellary, 21 Mad. 269.

A suit for a declaration that an award is invalid and for an injunction, is a suit within section 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act, Tayabally Abdul Hussain v. Messrs. James Finlay and Co., 80 I.C. 969 (Sind.).

N. B.—Appeals against filing of awards made without the intervention of Court fall under s. 104 (f) of the Code of Civil Procedure and are to be stamped as appeals against orders under Sch. II, Art. 11 of the Court Fees Act.

Art. 17, Cl. (iv) of Sch. II does not apply to Land Acquisition proceedings as the decision of the District Judge is a decree and as such ad valorem court-fees are payable, The Secretary of State for India v. Baij Nath, 9 O.W.N. 396: 1932 A. I. R. 224 (Oudh).

Clause V—Adoption.—See cases under section 7, paragraph (iv) Clause (c). Where upon a challenge having been made to the title of the adopted son, he comes to Court with a claim for declaration of his title and recovery of possession of his adoptive father's property, the case comes under s. 7, (iv) (c), Ugra Mohan v. Lachmi Prosad Chaudhuri, 5 Pat. L.J. 341: 56 Ind. Cas. 422.

The plaintiff sued for a declaration that he was the adopted son of one B, and therefore entitled to his property of which he was already in possession. His suit was dismissed by the first Court and then he filed an appeal paying Rs. 10 as court-fee on the memorandum of appeal. Held, that the court-fee payable on the memorandum of appeal was ad valorem fee on the value of the property held by the appellant as adopted son and heir of B, Ganpatrao v. Laxmi Bai, 15 N.L.R. 24: 43 Ind. Cas. 64; Amdu and others v. Pissi, 120 I.C. 408.

A suit for declaration by reversioner that the alleged adoption is invalid affects the title of the adopted boy as title of the adopted person will go if such a declaration is granted, therefore, the plaint must be stamped with ad valorem court-fees, Noksing v. Bholu Singh, 1930 A.I.R. 73 (Nag.): 123 I.C. 417.

NOTE.—In Nagpore the valuation of the subject-matter of suits is calculated according to Notification under section 9 of the Suits Valuation Act. Notification No. 1641, dated 28th September, 1911 (Nagpore).

The plaintiff sued for a declaration that no adoption took place and even if an adoption had taken place, it was an invalid adoption and stamped the plaint with a court-fee of Rs. 100 under Article 17 Cl. (iii) Sch. II of the Court Fees Act. The amount paid was disputed by the office and on reference the High Court held: "when a plaintiff comes into Court urging that an alleged adoption did not take place and even if it did take place it is invalid, he asks for a relief not merely with regard to adoption to the property which the adopted boy would acquire by means of adoption. In other words, the value of the relief is the value of the property which the adopted boy would get if the adoption was true and valid."

"Whether the plaintiff gets anything at present or not, we must consider the value of the relief as being the loss to which the defendant would be put, in case the relief is granted," and the High Court further held that after the amendment of the Court Fees Act in Madras, the plaintiff is not at liberty to put his own valuation and that ad valorem court-fees are to be paid at the market value of the property and not as in a suit for possession, In re Ramaswami Asari, 52 Mad. 340: 56 M.L.J. 107: 1928 M.W.N. 660: 28 L.W. 660: 113 I.C. 363: 1928 A.I.R. 1294 (Mad.).

A suit to establish an adoption independently of any claim to any property, may be filed on a court-fee of Rs. 10 only under this Article, Baji v. Raghunath, 1876 P.J. 142.

The right of a plaintiff to bring a substantive proceeding to set aside an adoption has been recognized by Legislature in Schedule II, Art. 17, Clause V of the Court Fees Act and in Art. 129, Sch. II of the Limitation Act, Kalova Kom v. Padapavalad, 1 Bom. 248.

But a suit to set aside a solennama and thereby to recover property cannot be brought on plaint affixed with a court-fee of Rs. 10 under this Article by framing it as a suit to set aside an adoption, Bama Soondaree v. Soorjo Coomar, 22 W.R. 338.

Declaration.—A suit for a declaration that the deed of adoption executed by the widow (who was alive at the date of suit) does not bind the interest of the plaintiffs as reversioners after the death of the widow or her remarriage, is a suit for declaration and not a suit for annulling adoption, Ganga Singh v. Sher Singh, 1925 A.I.R. 229 (Lahore): 5 Lah. 440: 84 I.C. 486.

Valuation.—For the purpose of determining the jurisdiction the measure of the valuation is the loss which would accrue to the adopted son if the adoption is declared invalid, Keshava Sanabhaga v. Lakshmi Narayan, 6 Mad. 192. But in the following cases the Courts have held that the valuation for jurisdiction is the valuation put on the claim by the plaintiff, Prohlad Chandra Das v. Dwarka Nath Ghosh, 37 Cal. 860: 14 C.W.N. 929: 6 Ind. Cas. 636: Bai Machbai v. Bai Hirabai, 35 Bom. 264: 13 Bom. L.R. 251: 10 Ind. Cas. 816; Sheo Deni Ram v. Tulshi Ram, 15 All. 378: 13 All. W.N. 147.

See other cases under s. 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, infra.

The valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction of a suit for a declaration of an alleged adoption, without any further consequential relief, is to be on the basis of the market value of the lands, or houses likely to be affected by such declaration and not either according to plaintiff's pleasure or according to the valuation under the Court Fees Act as if it was a suit for possession of such lands or houses, Vasireddi Veeramma v. Marupudi

Butchayya & 4 others, 50 Mad. 646: 52 M.L.J. 381: 25 L.W. 440: 101 I.C. 379: 1927 A.I.R. 563 (Mad.).

Clause VI.—Where it is not possible to estimate at a money value the subject-matter in dispute.—To bring a case within the expression “where it is not possible to estimate at a money value the subject-matter in dispute” in Art. 17, Cl. (vi) of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, it must be established that it is not possible even to state approximately a money value for the subject-matter in dispute, Bunwari Lal v. Daya Sunker Misser, 13 C. W. N. 815 (819): 1 Ind. Cas. 670: See also Trinayani Dass v. Krishna Lal De, 39 Cal. 906: 17 C.W.N. 923: 14 Ind. Cas. 724; Kesvarapu Ramakrishna Reddi v. Kotta Kota Reddi, 30 Mad. 96: 16 M.L.J. 458: 1 M.L.T. 311.

Essentials.—A suit in order to fall within this clause must fulfil two essentials: (1) that the subject-matter must be incapable of being estimated at a money-value and (2) it must not be provided for by any other provision of the Act, Mir Hassan Khan v. Ahmad Khan, 29 Punj. L.R. 322; Kanji Mal v. Panna Lal, 15 P.L.R. 1916: 7 P.R. 1915: 28 I.C. 262.

See also Bunwari Lal v. Dayashankar Misser, 13 C.W.N. 815: 1 I.C. 670; Kailash Chandra Das v. Narayan Chandra Das, 59 C.L.J. 447: 152 I.C. 97: 1934 A.I.R. 786 (Cal.); Gajendra Nath v. Sulochana, 39 C.W.N. 131: 60 C.L.J. 201: 1935 A.I.R. 338 (Cal.); Hasan Khan v. Ahmad Khan, 1935 A.I.R. 30 (Pesh.).

Art. 17 Cl. (vi) of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act cannot apply to a case where the subject-matter of claim has a money value, though that value cannot be stated at a correct figure at that stage, Sabir Husain v. Farzand, 54 All. 608: 138 I.C. 622: 1932 A.L.J. 387: 1932 A.I.R. 406 (All.).

N.B.—The appeal in order that the provisions of this clause may be applicable to it, must arise out of a suit to which the provisions of this clause are applicable. It cannot be made applicable at the appellate stage simply because it is difficult to estimate the money value at that stage.

Charitable and religious trusts.—Public Trust.—Under Section 539 (section 92) C. P. C. In a suit brought under section 539 C. P. C. (Act XIV of 1882) by three Hindus alleging that a trust had been created for certain charitable and religious purposes by Rani Mahtab Kunwar, that the trustee appointed by her had committed a breach of the trust by alienating a portion of the endowed property and that the heirs of the trustee had made a gift of the trust property in favour of the person through whom the defendants now claim, the plaintiffs prayed that it might be declared that the property was endowed property. They further prayed that they should be appointed

Superintendents of the property and that an injunction should be issued to the defendants forbidding them to interfere with the discharge of the plaintiff's duties as Superintendents. They also asked the Court to grant such other reliefs as to the Court might seem proper having regard to the provisions of section 539 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act XIV of 1882). The Allahabad High Court (Banerjee & Aikman, J.J.) remarked: "A suit under that section is brought for the protection and preservation of endowed property, and it is safeguarded by the rule which requires that it must be brought by the Advocate-General himself, or with the consent of the Advocate-General or such other officer as the Local Government may appoint in this behalf. Instances may often arise in which the trust property is of considerable value. If court-fees had to be paid with reference to that value whenever it was found necessary to bring a suit to remove a trustee who had committed a breach of his trust, such court-fees might be prohibitive and might prevent institution of the suit. In this case the learned Judge below treats the suit as 'obviously a suit for possession.' We are unable to agree with this view of the nature of the prayer in the plaint. The plaintiffs seek possession of the property. Although they ask that they may be appointed Superintendents they might never be appointed to that office. The Judge might see fit to appoint some other persons as trustees or Superintendents, and no occasion might arise for the plaintiffs taking possession of the property. It might also not be necessary to eject the defendants. If the declaration sought for be made, the defendants might themselves cease to interfere with the property. In our opinion, therefore, the learned Judge below was not right in holding that this was necessarily a suit for possession. The learned Counsel for the respondent cited to us the case of Delroos Banoo Begum v. Ashgar Alley Khan (15 B.L.R. 167: 23 W.R. 453 P.C.). That was no doubt a suit similar to the one before us in so far that the plaintiff in that suit asked to be appointed mutawallis, that in that case there were emoluments attached to the office of the mutawalli, and by reason of these emoluments being capable of valuation it was held that the suit was not one in which the subject-matter could not be valued * * * In our judgment the suit framed embraced a claim for a declaratory decree to the effect that the property in suit was endowed property. For that portion of the claim the amount of court-fees was Rs. 10. It also embraced a prayer for appointment of the plaintiffs as trustees. In our opinion it was impossible to estimate at a money value that prayer in the plaint. Consequently the amount of court-fees payable for that portion of the claim was Rs. 10 under Clause VI, Art. 17 of the Second Schedule of the Court Fees Act." There was a further prayer for an injunction which was separately assessee and separate court-fees paid on that assessment, Thakuri and others v. Brahma Narain and others, 19 All. 69.

The above case was followed in the case of Giridhar Lal v. Raman Lal, 21 All. 200, where the same learned Judge held that the mere fact that the plaintiffs in the suit under section 539 Civil Procedure Code, may ask for an account to be taken from the trustee and that the trustees may be compelled to refund monies alleged to have been misappropriated by them, does not take the case out of the purview of Art. 17, Clause VI Schedule II of the Court Fees Act and render the plaintiff liable to pay ad valorem court-fees on that part of the plaint as the prayer for accounts is ancillary to the substantive prayer in the plaint, i.e., that the trustee may be removed and new trustees appointed in their place and that the properties be vested in them.

The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in Abdur Rahim v. Mahomed Barkat Ali, L.R. 32 C.W.N. 482: 55 Cal. 519 at page 530 said: "Their Lordships see no reason to consider that s. 92 was intended to enlarge the scope of s. 539 by the addition of any relief or remedy against third parties i.e., strangers to the trust. They are aware that the Courts in India have differed considerably on the question whether third parties could or should be made parties to a suit under s. 539, but the general current of decisions was to the effect that even if such third parties could properly be made parties to a suit under s. 539 no relief can be granted as against them. In that state of the previous law their Lordships cannot agree that the Legislature intended to include relief against third parties in clause (h) under the general words "further or other relief."

See also the case of Beli Ram v. Ishar Das, I.L.R. 8 Lahore 730: 110 I.C. 264: 1928 A.I.R. 113 (Lah.) where it was held that the plaint in a suit under s. 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure to remove the mohant and to appoint a new mohant in his place and the property to be made over to the new mohant and also that a committee may be formed to fulfil the objects of the trust, need only to be stamped under Art. 17, Cl. (vi) of the Court Fees Act.

Where the prayers were (1) that the present Mohant may be removed and a new Mohant appointed in his place and (2) that along with the Mohant so appointed a Committee may be formed to fulfil the object of the trust (3) the property of the trust may be made over to the new Mohant and the newly appointed committee and a list of the said property be prepared and (4) a scheme prepared, held that the suit is one under s. 92 C. P. C. and that s. 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act does not apply. "A suit under section 539 generally involves a question upon which no pecuniary value can be placed; and it is obvious that this is so, if we look at the effect of such a suit. The judicial person who is in possession of the only property which can have any value is the idol, and if the shebait who is alleged to have neglected his duty and to have embezzled the idol's property is sought to be removed and another manager put in his place, it cannot be said that this is a suit involving the value of any portion of the idol's property. It may be a very good thing for the idol if he succeeds, it cannot therefore be said that the plaintiff is bound to value his relief at any fixed sum," Ram Rup Das and others v. Mohunt Siyaram Das and others, 14 C.W.N. 932: 12 C.L.J. 211: 7 Ind. Cas. 92.

The Allahabad High Court held that "all the plaintiffs in such a suit can obtain, is a decree appointing a trustee or trustees, declaring what properties are affected by the trust and direct the trustee to bring those properties into possession. If the trustee appointed by the Court is resisted in his attempts to get possession of the trust property he must then bring a suit for possession in the proper Court on payment of the full court-fees for a suit," Ghazaffer Hussein Khan v. Yawar Hussain, 28 All. 112: 25 All. W.N. 28: 2 All. L.J. 591; but if emoluments be attached to the office of a trustee in the endowment then the plaint in the suit to remove the trustee must be stamped with ad valorem court-fees, Delroos Banoo Begum v. Ashgar Ali Khan, 23 W.R. 453: 15 B.L.R. 167 P.C.

A suit for dismissal of a trustee and for recovery of trust property from the hands of a third party to whom the same property has been improperly alienated is within section 539 C. P. C. (section 92 of Act V of 1908), Sajedur Raja Chowdhury v. Gour Mohun Das Baishnav, 24 Cal. 418 (426); Sajedur Raja v. Baidyanath Deb, 20 Cal. 397; Mohiuddin v. Sayiduddin, 20 Cal. 816; Chintamon Balaji Dev v. Dhondo Ganesh Dev, 15 Bom. 612; Ghazaffer Hussain Khan v. Yawar Hussain, 28 All. 112: 25 All. W.N. 28: 2 All. L.J. 591; Subbayya v. Krishna, 14 Mad. 186.

In suit for recovery of the office of a trustee and injunction which is substantially valued and the actual possession being with the tenants who are willing to pay rent to the proper trustee, a prayer by the plaintiff for possession is unnecessary. Ramadoss v. Hanumantha Rao, 36 Mad. 364: 21 M.L.J. 592: 12 I.C. 449.

In a suit with the leave of the Collector to remove a Mohunt from the office and delivery of property to the new Mohunt, the plaint need not be stamped with court-fees ad valorem on the value of those properties, Gopi Das v. Lal Das, 97 P.R. 1918: 47 Ind. Cas. 983: 173 P.W.R. 1918.

A plaintiff who claims possession of Muth properties on the allegation that the defendant No. 1 has lost tittle to it owing to his marriage, illegal transactions, etc., is to pay Court Fees under s. 7, paragraph v of the Court Fees Act as no distinction could be drawn between a suit by a beneficial owner and a suit for possession as a trustee or as the manager of a religious endowment (in this case the suit was not under sec. 92, C. P. C.), Parshottamanand Giri v. Mayanand Giri, 1932 A.L.J. 777: 142 I.C. 251: 1932 A.I.R. 593 (All.).

If the dispute be for the right to matwalliship and not the property which is in trust, then the suit is incapable of valuation and comes under Art. 17 Cl. 6 of Sch. II to the Court Fees Act. If the office of the matwalli be a salaried office or if material benefits were derived from the enjoyment of the office, then the suit will be capable of monetary valuation, Sayeed and others v. Tafazul Husain, 1934 A.I.R. 647 (Pat.).

A decree for partition of property amounts to a declaration that the property is partible and is not a decree for possession, therefore, if a property included in the preliminary decree for partition is sought to be exempted on the ground that it is Wakf property, the memorandum of appeal need not be stamped with ad valorem court-fees, Rikhi Kesh v. Mela Ram, 32 P.L.R. 304: 131 I.C. 283: 1931 A.I.R. 170 (Lah.): 1931 I.R. 411 (Lah.).

A suit in order to obtain an injunction restraining the defendants from interfering with the service by the plaintiffs of an idol and asking the Court to frame a scheme, so that they and the defendant might be entitled to carry on the service of the idol and to enjoy the emoluments of the office separately and without interference from each other, is in the nature of a partition suit and court-fee ad valorem on the value of injunction plus the fixed fee under this Article are to be paid, Narain Mohan Dev v. Mt. Krishna Ballabhi, 1935 A.L.J. 295: 1935 A.I.R. 292 (All.).

Effect of rules.—Where the suit is substantially under s. 92, C. P. C. the court-fee payable is Rs. 50 (according to Madras Amendment Act); the plaintiff cannot be ordered to pay ad valorem duty merely because he asks that the defendant has not accounted for a certain sum of money and asks for a temporary injunction directing the defendant to pay the money into Court, Ramanuj Naidu v. Alagappa Chettiar, 47 M.L.J. 656: 85 I.C. 601: 1924 A.I.R. 882 (Mad.): 20 L.W. 716.

Plaints in suits under s. 92, C. P. C. are in most cases incapable of valuation. The Madras High Court court-fee rules do not except payment of fees in respect of suits under s. 92, C. P. C., Swaminatha Aiyar v. Guruswami Mudaliar, 105 I.C. 119: 1927 A.I.R. 940 (Mad.): 53 M.L.J. 457: 26 L.W. 378.

Religious Endowment Act.—In suits under section 14 of the Religious Endowment Act, the plaint is to be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10, Veerasami Pillay v. Chokappa Mudaliar and others, 11 Mad. 149 Note; but if it be coupled with a claim for damage then ad valorem court-fee on that claim is payable, Srinivasa v. Venkata, 11 Mad. 148 (151). Suits under section 14 of the Religious Endowment Act are incapable of valuation, Muhammad Sirab-ul-Huf v. Imamuddin, 10 All. 104: (1896) 6 All.W.N. 189.

The plaint in a suit to remove the manager of a dharamsala claiming that the institution is a private one and was founded and maintained by the ancestors of the plaintiff and that the plaintiff alone has the power of appointing and dismissing the manager who refuses to leave, requires ad valorem court-fees and the suit is not maintainable on a court-fee of Rs. 10.

The provisions of s. 14 of Act XX of 1863 applies to such a case, Basawa Singh v. Sirdarni Bhagwan Kaur, 216 P.L.R. 1912: 181 P.W.R. 1912: 17 I.C. 270.

Madras Religious Endowments Act.—An application under s. 84 (2) of the Madras Religious Endowments Act, (Act II of 1927) to set aside the decision of the Endowments Board under sub-section (1) of s. 84 of the same Act, is to bear court-fees under Art. 17 as amended and not Articles 17-A or 17-B of Sch. II of the amended Court Fees Act and under Article 17; it is Art. 17 (1) alone that is applicable.

The Board of Commissioners for Hindu Religious Endowments is not a Civil Court under Art. 17 (1) of the Court Fees Act as amended in Madras, P. A. Sundara Aiyar v. The Board of Commissioners for Hindu Religious Endowments, Madras, 52 Mad. 389: 56 M.L.J. 113: 1929 M.W.N. 308: 115 I.C. 157. See also Damodaran v. Board of Commissioners for Hindu Religious Endowments, Madras, (1930) 53 Mad. 266: 58 M.L.J. 494: 31 L.W. 428: 1930 M.W.N. 404: 130 I.C. 741: 1930 A.I.R. 392 (Madras): 1931 I.R. 437 (Mad.) F.B.

Private Debutter.—Plaints praying for framing of a scheme in respect of a private debutter property and not claiming any other relief is to be stamped under this Article, the parties being already in possession, Narain Mohan v. Krishna Ballavi, 1935 A.L.J. 295: 1935 A.I.R. 292 (All.).

Other Cases.—In a suit for a declaration that the present Jheer of the Math is not a duly appointed Jheer and that an appointment to the vacant office of Jheer be made by Court, held, "the suit is not maintainable as the plaintiffs do not ask for a consequential relief they are entitled to ask, viz., that some duly qualified person be appointed as the head of the math and approved by the Court and that the math and its properties be handed over to the person so appointed, the defendant being ejected therefrom." In this case the defendant was in possession of the property, Srinivasa Ayyanger v. Srinivasa Swami, 16 Mad. 31.

The plaint in a suit to remove a Karnarvan from the management of the tarwad property is to be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10 as the claim is incapable of valuation, Govinda Nambia v. Krishna Nambia, 4 Mad. 146; Narangoli Chirakal Kuntal Rausan v. Narangoli Chirabai Puttala tha Kumharj Nambiar, 4 Mad. 314; Krishna v. Raman, 11 Mad. 266.

The plaintiffs in a representative suit claimed to have an exclusive right to manage certain Debsthams mentioned in the plaint and to appoint and remove a Dharamakarta for those temples whenever occasion arises. They prayed for a declaration accordingly and asked for delivery of possession by defendants Nos. 1 and 2 of all the properties of the suit temples and for payment of certain amounts that may be found due on examination of accounts of the income and expenditure. A Full Bench of the Madras High Court held that there is no market value of the properties which are very ancient institutions; hence, the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped with a court-fee under Sch. II, Art. 17 (6) of the Court Fees Act, Raja Gopala Naidu v. Ramsubramania Aiyar, 1923 M.W.N. 550 (553): 46 Mad. 782: 74 Ind. Cas. 198: (1924) A.I.R. 19 (Madras) F.B.

Where the plaint was under section 92, C. P. C. and in it the plaintiff prayed that the defendants should be made to refund to the trust the sum of Rs. 11,000 at which figure the plaintiff estimated the amount of money misappropriated by the defendants, held that as the plaintiff does not claim any beneficial interest in the sum but only says that the trustees should be asked to make good to the trust itself that amount of money and hand over possession of the immovable property, the suit falls under Art. 17, vi of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, Sudalimutha Pillai v. Peria Sundaram Pillai, 48 M.L.J. 514: 1925 M.W.N. 104: 87 I.C. 25: 1925 A.I.R. 722 (Mad.).

Where a suit was brought against the matwalli and Imam of a mosque on the ground that the said matwalli has turned a follower of the Mirza of the Quadiri sect, therefore cannot continue to be matwalli and Imam of the mosque which belongs to the Hanafi sect; and prayed that the defendant be declared unfit for the office of the Imam of the Masjid; that he be ejected from the property appertaining to the Masjid, that he be dismissed from the office of the matwalli. Held, that since the plaintiffs simply seek the removal of the defendant from the office of the matwalli, which would involve his ejection from the immoveable properties of which he is in possession as matwalli, full stamp need not be given upon the value of the said property, Mir Yad Ali v. Mouli Mubarak Ali, 17 P.W.R. 1908: 53 P.R. 1909: 2 Ind. Cas. 107. See Bawa Mangal Das v. Mahant Niranjana Das, 56 P.R. 1895.

Adverse claim.—Where the plaintiff sued for a declaration that he is the Sajjadanashin of the two dargas in dispute and for possession of the dargas and the darga properties, held that Art. 17 (b) of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act does not apply as the defendants claim adversely to the plaintiff though not adversely to the trust and that ad valorem court-fees are payable under section 7 paragraph 5 of the Court Fees Act. Syed Mahamed Gouse v. Government, 1925 M.W.N. 252: 48 M.L.J. 572: 88 I.C. 209: 22 L.W. 163: 1925 A.I.R. 804 (Mad.).

Suit for possession of a Kyang.—In a suit for possession of a Phongyi Kyang and its site, court-fees are payable under Article 17 (vi) of the Court Fees Act, 1870, U. Pyinnya and another v. U. Dipa, 7 Ran. 245: 1929 A.I.R. 134 (Rang.): 118 I.C. 609 F.B.

The Kyang cannot be transferred by sale, mortgage or gift and it can, therefore, have no market value in the ordinary acceptance of the term. A suit, therefore, by a Hfungyi to recover possession of a Kyang falls under Art. 17, clause vi of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act and the plaint is to bear a court-fee stamp of Rs. 10, V. Konna v. Einda, 13 Bur.L.T. 40: 57 Ind. Cas. 953.

Condition in a decree—Removal of.—Where the appellate Court rejected the memorandum of appeal as insufficiently stamped, held that an appeal lay as in appeal from a decree and the second appeal relates to a condition in the order of the lower Court that it would not adjudicate on his rights as regards the merits unless he pays full court-fees, the matter is really for removal of a condition and a court-fee of Rs. 10, under cl. vi of Art. 17 of the second Schedule need only be paid, Govinda v. Bansilal, 98 I.C. 663: 1927 A.I.R. 100 (Nagpore).

Mode of enforcing a decree.—A memorandum of appeal filed against the mode of enforcing decree of the lower Court for dissolution of partnership and attaching the decree as a whole, is to be stamped under Article 17 (vi) of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, Radha Krishna v. Mehtab Mian and others, 1925 A.I.R. 496 (Lah.): 90 I.C. 629: 26 P.L.R. 645: 7 L.L.J. 364.

Appeal for expunging remarks from a judgment.—If a Court holds that it had no jurisdiction to try the suit but nevertheless goes on to record certain findings on the merit of the case then these findings are merely obiter dicta and an appeal for expunging those findings only are incapable of valuation and are not provided for in the Court Fees Act, therefore the memorandum of appeal need only be stamped under Sch. II, Art. 17 (vi) of the Court Fees Act, Zafar Ali Shah and others v. (Sayed) Amir Shah and others, 144 I.C. 620: 1933 A.I.R. 678 (Lah.).

Interest.—The plaintiffs in whose favour a decree for sale in a suit on a mortgage has been passed allowing interest up to the date fixed for payment of the mortgage money, appealed on the ground that the interest should have been allowed up to the date of realization. Held, that the proper court-fee payable on the memorandum of appeal was Rs 10 as provided by this clause, Bhawani Prasad v. Kutubunnessa Bibee, 27 All. 559: 2 All.L.J. 263: 25 All.W.N. 84. See also Musst. Bhagwant v. Atma Singh, 1934 A.I.R. 32 (Lah.); Bhag Shah v. Labha Mal and others, 148 I.C. 213: 1933 A.I.R. 941 (Lah.). See also other cases at pages 348, 349, supra.

Devolution of interest pending suit.—Where the Court decided that the plaint is properly stamped as a plaint in a suit for partition, the fact that during the course of the suit the defendant died and his sons were substituted in his place and that the plaintiff himself sold a portion of the property to others who were made co-plaintiffs, does not convert the suit for partition into a suit for possession requiring ad valorem court-fees, Harihar Prasad Narain Das v. Moheswari Prasad Narain Das, 1925 A.I.R. 47 (P.): 3 Pat. 654: 82 I.C. 813.

Receiver—Property in the possession of.—The plaintiff sued for a declaration of his right to the property without asking for recovery of possession. Prior to the institution of this suit, the plaintiff was appointed receiver of the properties in dispute in proceedings for the appointment of a guardian for the last owner who was subsequently murdered. The High Court held that the plaintiff could not be appointed receiver in guardianship proceedings and ordered that the property be handed back to the defendant. Nothing appears to have been done under the High Court's order. The plaintiff then had brought his suit. The High Court when the matter again came up to it, held, that the possession of the property was, at the time, neither with the defendant nor with the plaintiff, the property having been in custodia legis and in the hands of an officer of Court, it being of course a mere accident that that officer was the plaintiff himself. The defendant not being in possession the plaintiff could not, as against her, have claimed as consequential relief an order for delivery and nothing more is required than the revocation of an order of the Court, Vedanayaga Mudaliar v. Vedammal, 27 Mad. 591.

Landlord and tenant.—Madras Land Estate Act.—A memorandum of second appeal by a ryat filed under s. 112 of the Madras Estates Land Act need only be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 15 under Art. 17-B of the second Schedule of the Act as the subject-matter of appeal is incapable of valuation, Vaithilinga Aiyaswami Aiyar v. The District Board of Tanjore by its President, 57 M.L.J. 570: 30 L.W. 289: 1930 A.I.R. 43 (Mad.).

Letters of Administration and Probate.—The court-fee payable on an appeal from an order by the District Judge refusing grant of Letters of Administration with a copy of the will annexed, is Rs. 10 under Art. 17, cl. vi of the Court Fees Act as it is impossible to estimate at a money value the subject-matter of appeal, Miss Eva Mountstephen v. Mr. Hunter Garnet Orme, 35 All. 448: 25 Ind. Cas. 98.

Moortgage.—A memorandum of appeal against a decree absolute for redemption on the ground that the mortgage money has been deposited by the mortgagor after the period fixed for its payment and should not have been received, requires a stamp of Rs. 10 under Article 17 (vi) of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, as the relief sought in appeal cannot be exactly valued. Such an appeal does not require a stamp on the amount of the principal money, Dadnoo v. Somenath, 7 N.L.R. 41: 10 Ind. Cas. 736.

The principle in Devidas v. Ramlal, 7 N.L.R. 190: 13 Ind. Cas. 864 would apply to a suit for cancellation of a mortgage decree, but where the decree to be cancelled leaves the defendant the right and opportunity to obtain another similar decree on the same mortgage in a properly framed suit, a suit for cancellation of such a decree comes under Art. 17, cl. vi of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, Mahadeo Ganesh Sohni v. Sadashiv and Mahadeo, 78 I.C. 437: 1925 A.I.R. 66 (Nagpore).

A held a prior and two subsequent mortgages on the same properties on which S held a second mortgage. S sued on her mortgage and obtained a decree in which the dues on the prior and subsequent mortgages were determined and the decree was drawn in Form No. 9. A who was made a party to S's suit then filed an appeal for changing the nature of the decree to Form No. 10, Appendix D and paid court-fees of Rs. 15 as the relief was incapable of valuation. The office objected on the ground that if a decree be passed under Form No. 10, A would get all the money due which he would not otherwise obtain if the form of the decree be according to Form No. 9. The Calcutta High Court held that under the Court Fees Act every advantage the appellants obtain is not taxed and before the Amending Act, 1929, the rights of the mortgagees were not required to be adjudicated in a suit by the puisne mortgagee and as there is no provision in the Court Fees Act, the appeal comes under Art. 17, cl. vi of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act, hence court-fee paid is sufficient, Akhil Bandhu Guha v. Suradhuni Debya Chowdhurani, 61 Cal. 320: 38 C.W.N. 248: 58 C.L.J. 542: 1934 A.I.R. 377 (Cal.): 148 I.C. 1084.

Where the liability under the mortgage is admitted but the sale question is whether the property should be sold or whether the mortgagee should be foreclosed, the case comes under this clause, Durga Prasad and another v. Sri Niwas Surekha and others, 151 I.C. 937: 1934 A.I.R. 473 (Patna).

If the dispute in appeal be that the defendants appellants are not personally liable but are only liable to the extent of the property of the deceased in their hands as heirs and legal representatives of the deceased, then such a case not being provided for elsewhere, it comes under Sch. II, Art. 17, clause vi of the Court Fees Act, Jagannath Ravji v. Laxmibai Anant, 36 Bom. L.R. 1220: 1935 A.I.R. 111 (Bom.); Bulaqui Das v. Lal Chand, 36 P.L.R. 104: 1934 A.I.R. 865

Absence of necessary parties.—Where the appellant (defendant) does not appeal against the amount decreed but only against omission of a necessary party, the court-fee payable is Rs. 10, Dadnoo v. Somenath, 7 N.L.R. 31: 10 Ind. Cas. 736: but see Barakatunnissa Begum v. Qamarun-nissa, 50 Ind. Cas. 279, where it was held that if the appellant wants to set aside a final decree in a mortgage suit on the ground that necessary persons are not parties to the preliminary decree the memorandum of appeal must be stamped with court-fee calculated ad valorem on the decretal amount.

Receiver.—In a suit for an injunction and for the appointment of a receiver, no money value can be put upon such a claim or the appointment of a Receiver, as there is no standard for fixing the same, Manmatha Nath Biswas v. Rohilli Moni, Dassi, 27 All. 406: 2 All.L.J. 84: 25 All.W.N. 6. But if the appointment be asked as a consequential relief to a declaration, then ad valorem fee is payable, Dodda Sonackappa v. Sakrappa, 36 Ind. Cas. 831.

Registration Act.—In Chunnamul Johore v. Brojonath Ray, appeal from Original Decree, 144 of 1881, the question was whether the defendant was or was not a minor at the time when he executed the deed, and whether the deed as against him was a valid document and the Court held ad valorem court-fee is payable on the valuation of the property comprised in the deed. This case was considered in Jantoo v. Radhanath Das, 8 Cal. 515, and Garth C. J. said, "I have had great doubt about this question. But having regard to what appears to be the general opinion of the Judges, and also the inconvenience that would arise, if the stamp fee upon such appeals were to vary according to the nature of the issue raised in each, I think it will be advisable to order that a uniform court-fee of Rs. 10 should be charged in all such cases." See also Dwijendra v. Joges Chandra, 39 C.L.J. 40 (48). "The proper fee payable on a plaint and memorandum of appeal against a decree in a suit to enforce registration of a document is a fixed fee of Rs. 10, and not an ad valorem fee upon the value of the property comprised in the document as the suit is one which it was not possible to estimate at a money value, Sovarimuthu Pillai v. Alagiam Pillai, 25 Mad. 103: 12 M.L.J. 88; followed in Ramu Aiyar v. Sankara Aiyar, F.B. 17 M.L.J. 573: 31 Mad. 89: 3 M.L.T. 73. See contra, Pydal Nambiar v. Kannan Nambiar, 12 M.L.J. 87, where it was held that the suit comes under section 7 (iv) (c) and ad valorem court-fee is payable.

A suit under section 77 of the Registration Act requires a court-fee stamp of Rs. 10, Mahomed Zakaria v. Mussammat Fatima, 21 P.R. 1895.

Suit to direct registration of will.—Court-fee is payable under this clause as it is impossible to estimate at a money value the subject-matter of suit, Ramu Aiyar v. Sankara Aiyar, 31 Mad. 89: 3 M.L.T. 73: 17 M.L.J. 573 F.B.

Rejection of a claim under Madras Forest Act.—An appeal to the District Court from rejection of a claim by a Forest Settlement Officer under clause 2 of section 10 of the Madras Forest Act, 1822, falls under Art. 17, clause 6 of Schedule II and not under Art. 2 (a), second Schedule of the Court Fees Act, Kamaraja v. Secretary of State for India, 8 Mad. 22.

Restitution of conjugal rights.—For the purposes of the Court Fees Act a suit for restitution of conjugal rights without any declaration, falls within clause VI of Article 17 of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act as Art. 15 has been repealed and as such suits are incapable of proper valuation, and the proper amount of court-fees chargeable is Rs. 10, Aisha v. Fayaz, 8 All. L.J. 889: 11 Ind. Cas. 186. For other cases see page 132, supra.

Tank-bed.—The bed of a tank is incapable of valuation, hence a suit to eject the defendant from the bed of a tank does not come under s. 7 (v) of the Court Fees Act but comes under Art. 17-B (Madras Amendment) of the same Act, Malikkam Pillai v. N. M. Nagasami Ayyar, (1934) 67 M.L.J. 688: 40

L.W. 718: 1934 M.W.N. 1248: 152 I.C. 679: 1934 A.I.R. 714 (Mad.).

Temple.—An ancient temple has no market value as it is inalienable, Raja Gopal Naidu v. Ramasubramania, 46 Mad. 782: 74 I.C. 198: 1924 A.I.R. 19 (Mad.).

[For Bengal only—(inserted by B. C. Act VII of 1935).

In Schedule II to the said Act—

In Article 17 after entry v, the following entry shall be inserted, namely:—

(va) for partition and separate possession of Fifteen rupees.]
 a share of joint family property or of joint property, or to enforce a right to a share in any property on the ground that it is joint family property or joint property if the plaintiff is in possession of the property of which he claims to be a coparcener or co-owner.

[This Bengal Amendment is nothing more than Legislative approval of the decisions of High Courts under the former law.]

Partition.—See notes under section 7 (iv) (b) and 7 (iv) (c) supra.

Where a suit for partition fails because all the properties are not included in the suit, the plaintiff is not entitled to turn round and ask for a declaration, Ruttun Monee v. Brojo Mohun, 22 W.R. 333.

Where the plaintiff in a suit for partition, is found to be out of possession, he can amend the plaint if the facts permit such a thing being done and pay ad valorem court-fees, Rebati Raman v. Harish Chandra, 24 C.W.N. 749.

In appeals from partition suits the memorandum is to be stamped in the same way as plaint in original suits, Kirtee Chunder Mitter v. Anath Deb, 8 Cal. 757: 11 C.L.R. 95, where Garth C. J. said at page 758—"If the plaintiff's suit had been to recover possession of or establish his title to, the share which he claims in the property, he must have paid an ad valorem stamp fee upon the value of that share. But as I understand, he is already in possession of his share, and all that he wants, is, to obtain a partition which is merely as explained by the learned Judge in the case of Rajendra Lall Gossami v. Shama Churn Lahoory, (4 C.L.R. 418) to change the form of enjoyment of the property, or in other words, to obtain a divided, instead of an undivided share, it seems to be impossible to say what will be the value to the plaintiff of the change in the nature, of two properties for the purposes of jurisdiction, to be guided by the value of the property, in suit, but the amount of stamp fee is governed by a different principle."

If it be alleged in the plaint that the plaintiff is in possession as a tenant-in-common then the case comes under Art. 17-B of Sch. II of the Court Fees Act (Madras Amendment), Secretary of State v. Lakhanna, 64 M.L.J. 24: 1933 M.W.N. 144: 141 I.C. 80: 1933 A.I.R. 430 (Mad.).

Where sums of money are claimed in appeal.—The memorandum of an appeal out of a suit for partition on the ground that the appellant should have been given certain sums of money and should have been given certain others sums of money, should bear ad valorem court-fees on the amounts in claim in appeal, Jai Dayal v. Narain Das, 32 P.L.R. 854: 1932 A.I.R. 127 (Lah.).

If the appellant in an appeal from a decree in a suit for partition claims a larger amount of owelty money than that awarded in the decree, then he is to pay ad valorem court-fees on the amount (claimed in excess), Peshauri Lal v. Jai Kishen Das, 33 P.L.R. 12: 142 I.C. 829: 1933 I.R. 277 (Lah.). See Sukha Nand v. Mt. Shiv Debi, 1935 A.I.R. 14 (Lah.).

Contra in Jyoti Prasad Singh Deo v. Jogendra Ram Roy, (1928) 56 Cal. 188: 32 C.W.N. 1105: 116 I.C. 383: 1928 A.I.R. 878 (Cal.) the Calcutta High Court held that the memorandum of appeal is to be stamped under Art. 17, cl. 6 of Sch. II when the amount in question is owelty money.

Suit by plaintiff in joint possession to have his share partitioned.—See Tarachand v. Afzal Beg, 34 All. 184: 8 A.L.J. 1329: 13 Ind. Cas. 185; Reoti v. Lachhman, 20 A.W.N. 90; Kirtee Chunder Mitter v. Anath Nath Deb, 13 C.L.R. 253; Ahamuddin Tamijuddin v. Amiruddin, 44 Ind. Cas. 216 (Cal.); Sripati v. Shridhar, 15 C.P.L.R. 120; Har Charan Das v. Sukhraj Das, 62 Ind. Cas. 979 (Punjab). See also Sashi Bhusan Beed v. Rai Jatindra Nath Chowdhury and others, 15 C.L.J. 443: 10 Ind. Cas. 463 where the lower appellate Court regarded a suit for partition as one for declaration of title and recovery of possession and the plaintiff amended the plaint and paid ad valorem court-fee on the value of the property in suit but the High Court set aside the order and ordered retrial on the pleadings as they stood before the amendment. This view was taken by Nagpur Court in Manaji v. Sitaram, (1924) A.I.R. 105 (Nagpure): 81 I.C. 643; Bhaddoo v. Sadoo, 20 N.L.R. 43: 81 I.C. 766: 1924 A.I.R. 86 (Nagpure).

Where the subordinate Judge returned the plaint in suit as being insufficiently stamped, on the ground that, inasmuch as the whole of the property sought to be partitioned does not appear to have been the property which descended from an ancestor of the parties the suit is something more than a partition suit, inasmuch as the plaintiff's right to share in his property at all will have to be enquired into in it, held, as the only relief which is sought is the partition of the property which the plaintiff says he is in possession, the court-fee is payable under this clause of this Article, Mohendra Chandra Ganguli v. Ashutosh Ganguli, 20 Cal. 762 (764, 765). See also Rajani Kanta Bag v. Rajabala Dassi, 52 Cal. 128: 29 C.W.N. 76: 1925 A.I.R. 320 (C.): 85 I.C. 898, where it was held that merely because a question as to title is necessary to be determined makes no difference to its being a partition suit.

The correct method of computation of court-fees in suits where partition is claimed by a co-parcener, who is in joint, enjoyment of part of the property at the date of suit, is to determine whether merely a change in the mode of enjoyment is asked for, or whether in reality, the relief of ejectment is claimed. Therefore one has to look beneath the mere form and verbiage in the plaint and to arrive at what is its real substance. (In this case the plaintiff claimed a right to a share in a former suit and his right having been denied lost the suit), Bhagwanappa Wani v. Shiva Wani, 23 N.L.R. 5: 101 I.C. 770: 1927 A.I.R. 248 (Nagpore).

A suit for partition of the family properties, or in the alternative a delivery of possession of the properties according to the share of the plaintiff, is a suit for partition and court-fee is to be paid under this Article, Ishwari Prasad v. Rai Hari Prasad Lal, I.L.R. 6 Pat. 506: 8 Pat.L.T. 34: 106 I.C. 620: 1927 A.I.R. 145 (Pat.).

The plaint in a suit for partition and separate possession, by a person claiming to be in joint possession of the property requires a stamp of Rs. 10. The decision as to the amount of court-fees should be based solely on the consideration of the cause of action on which the plaintiff is suing; denial by the defendant that the plaintiff was in joint possession does not alter the character of the suit, Mongammal v. Tolaram, 6 S.L.R. 72: 16 Ind. Cas. 773. See also Haji Yusuf v. Ghulam Hussain Kassim, 6 S.L.R. 74: 16 I.C. 771; Kripal Singh v. Sant Singh, 71 P.R. 1911: 13 Ind. Cas. 305; Hassan Khan v. Ahmad Khan, 1935 A.I.R. 30 (Pesh.).

Where the plaintiff in a partition suit wants only his share to be separated then the value of the suit is the value of the share, but when the share of all the sharers are partitioned, then the value of the suit is the value of the property sought to be partitioned, Har Charan Das v. Sukhraj Das, 62 Ind. Cas. 979 (Punjab).

The plaint in a suit for partition where the plaintiff alleges that he is in joint possession of the property, is to be stamped under Art. 17, Cl. vi of the second Schedule of the Court Fees Act, Nikka v. Fazal Dad Khan, 31 P.L.R. 315: 123 I.C. 525:

1930 A.I.R. 839 (Lah.): 1930 I.R. 445 (Lah.). See also Musst. Durga Devi v. Musst. Parbati and others, 141 I.C. 175: 1933 A.I.R. 208 (Lah.); Abdul Rahman v. A. B. Crisp, 126 I.C. 643: 1930 A.I.R. 164 (Rang.): 1930 I.R. 325 (Rang.) where it was also held that the defendant-appellant (in this case an auction-purchaser) can file his appeal on a fixed fee if the plaint was presented with a fixed fee. See also Musst. Hajran v. Muhammad Shafi Khan, 144 I.C. 614: 1933 A.I.R. 780 (Lah.) where the plaintiff was in possession of a portion of the property in dispute.

Partition among co-tenants.—A suit for partition among co-tenants by a person alleging himself to be already in joint possession as a co-tenant is a suit whose subject-matter is incapable of valuation within the meaning of Art. 17, Clause 6 of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, 1870, Gill v. Varadara-ghavayya, 43 Mad. 396 F.B.: 38 M.L.J. 92: 11 L.W. 174: (1920) M.W.N. 124: 27 M.L.T. 146: 55 Ind. Cas. 517: 1920 A.I.R. 585 (Mad.).

Declaration asked for as regards some of the properties.—Where the plaintiff in a suit for partition asks for a declaration of title and possession as regards some of the properties which are claimed by the defendant as his own properties, he must pay ad valorem court-fees, Kanhaiya Lal v. Baldeo Lal, 85 I.C. 538: 1925 A.I.R. 703 (Patna). See also Balgis Beevi Ammal v. Hathija Beevi Ammal, 147 I.C. 300: 1933 A.I.R. 353 (Mad.).

Adverse claim.—If a relief is claimed in a partition suit against a member of a family on the ground that he is in adverse possession of a particular item, a separate court-fee in regard to it, as on a claim for possession should be paid, Kandunni Nair v. Raman Nair, 53 Mad. 540: 127 I.C. 128: 1930 A.I.R. 597 (Mad.).

But in Annamalai Mudaliar v. Kristappa Mudaliar, 67 M.L.J. 858: 40 L.W. 837: 1934 M.W.N. 1373 the Madras High Court held that a prayer by a Hindu son in such a suit that the alienations by the Official Receiver are not binding on him is one for a declaration coming within Art. 17A of the Madras Amendment.

A denial by the defendant of the title of the plaintiff, does not convert a clear case of partition into one for recovery of possession if the claim for partition be on the footing that the plaintiff is in possession, In re Nandalal Mookherjee, 59 Cal. 315: 35 C.W.N. 942: 54 C.L.J. 317. In Rakhi v. Khairan, 33 P.L.R. 261: 139 I.C. 676: 1932 A.I.R. 421 (Lah.): 1932 I.R. 604 (Lah.).

Where property stands in the name of strangers.—The court-fees payable should be determined by the allegations in the plaint and not on the footing of what is afterwards decided by the Court. Where the separate items stand in the name of different members of the joint family no ad valorem court-fee is necessary but where properties stand in the name of the strangers it is necessary for the plaintiffs to displace the title of strangers, and therefore it is obligatory on them to pay ad valorem court-fees, Banku Behary v. Chatur Pandey, 5 P.L.T. 665: 79 I.C. 913: 1924 A.I.R. 640 (P.): 1924 Pat. C.W.N. 210.

Property incapable of partition.—After the passing of the preliminary decree in a suit for partition the Court passed an order that a property incapable of partition should be sold. One of the co-sharers appealed, held that the memorandum of appeal need only to be stamped under this clause, Lachman Das v. Bachu Ram, 100 I.C. 17: 1927 A.I.R. 189 (Lah.).

Partition of Moveable property and accounts.—The plaint in a suit for partition of joint family business and of immoveable and moveable property and accounts is to be stamped with court-fees under this clause, but separate court-fees are payable on claim for accounts, Beni Madhab Sarker v. Govinda Chandra Sarker, 22 C.W.N. 669: 46 Ind. Cas. 105.

If in a suit for partition the defendants claim that the plaintiffs as managers received rents of the family property and should account to them for the amounts received by them, then the defendants should value the relief and pay necessary court-fee, Shaganlal and others v. Hariram Tiloomal and others, 1933 A.I.R. 304 (Sind): 147 I.C. 528. See also T. R. Manikkam Pillai v. T. S. Murugesam Pillai, 64 M.L.J. 576: 1933 M.W.N. 631: 37 L.W. 748: 143 I.C. 755: 1933 A.I.R. 431 (Mad.).

Partition and accounts.—The plaintiff in a suit for partition on declaration that a previous partition is vitiated by fraud and for accounts, is to put an estimate of the amount at which he values the relief for account and pay ad valorem on that valuation, Sita Ram v. Hanuman Prasad, 8 P.L.T. 145: 100 I.C. 632.

Partition in Burma.—The plaint must be stamped with a court-fee according to the plaintiff's valuation of his share. Maung Shwe Bon v. Maung Pu, 9 Bur.L.T. 97: 35 Ind. Cas. 731.

Partition among Mussulmans.—In a suit for partition of inheritance of the joint property of the parties, the lower Courts refused to give one of the defendants, though he asked for it, his share, which was found and admitted to be a third. The reason given by the trial Court was that the court-fee paid by the plaintiff was only in respect of his third share and the reason given by the lower appellate Court was that it was not a suit for partition of joint family property among Hindus. The High Court on appeal held that a suit for partition by Hindus is hardly distinguishable from a suit for partition by Mussalmans and awarded the defendant his share to be ascertained and given to him in execution on payment of the necessary court-fees and expressed an opinion that it is undesirable to drive the parties to a further litigation, Abdul Kader v. Bapubhai Valad Sheikh Imam, 23 Bom. 188: 1898 P.J. 135; Haji Yussuf v. Ghulam Hussain Kasim, 6 S.L.R. 74 (note): 16 I.C. 771; Ahammuddin Tamijuddin v. Amiruddin, 44 Ind. Cas. 216.

Where the plaintiff in a suit for partition of immoveable property is a Mehomedan and is not a member of a joint family but is in joint possession the Article applicable is Art. 17, Cl. 6 as in law her possession of some of the properties is indicative of her joint possession of other properties in which she claims a share; such a suit does not come under section 7, cl. (v) of the Court Fees Act, Kurshit Kathum by Agent, etc. v. Hyder Sahib and others, 1924 A.I.R. 207 (Mad.): 75 Ind. Cas. 93: 1923 M.W.N. 565.

The plaint in a suit for partition where the parties are in joint possession of the property, need only to be stamped under Article 17 (vi) of the Court Fees Act, Mir Hassan Khan v. Ahmad Khan, 29 Punj.L.R. 322.

A suit for partition among Mehomedans which is really a suit for a share of inheritance, is to be valued both for the purpose of court-fees and for jurisdiction at the amount at which the plaintiff valued his or her share and not at the value of the entire estate. Such a suit falls under sec. 8 of the Suits Valuation Act and is a suit other than those referred to in the Court Fees Act, 1870, sec. 7, paragraphs (v), (vi) and (ix) and paragraph (x), cl. (d) and the court-fees are payable ad valorem on the valuation of the share, Ma Fatima and others v. Momin Bibi and others, 7 Ran. 164: 1929 A.I.R. 211 (Ran.): 118 I.C. 122.

Appeal.—If the plaintiff in his plaint asserts that he is in joint possession and joint enjoyment of the property then the court-fees payable would be assessed under this clause even if the finding of the trial Court be that the plaintiff was not in possession of the share claimed. An appellant appealing from the final decree need not take grounds as to court-fees and the absence of any such ground in the memorandum of appeal would not make him liable to pay higher court-fees. (In this case the trial Court had ordered the plaintiff to pay higher court-fees.) Jai Pratap Narain v. Rabi Pratap Narain, (1930) 52 All. 756: 1930 A.L.J. 984: 124 I.C. 708: 1930 A.I.R. 443 (All.): 1930 I.R. 564 (All.).

A memorandum of appeal from a decree directing partition of a wakf property which is not liable to be partitioned need not be ad valorem on the valuation of the property as such an adjudication amounts to a declaration that the property is partible and also as there is no decree for possession, Rikhikesh v. Mela Ram, 32 P.L.R. 304: 131 I.C. 283: 1931 A.I.R. 170 (Lah.): 1931 I.R. 411 (Lah.).

Objection to an order to put in a properly stamped petition.—In an appeal by the appellants where they objected to the order of the lower Court directing the defendants to put in a properly stamped application if they wanted to have their shares separated, the memorandum is to be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10 only, Mussammat Mashkurunnissa v. Hashamatullah, 20 Ind. Cas. 177.

Award by arbitrators without hearing objections.—The memorandum of an appeal objecting to the decree of the lower Court on the ground that the award made in the partition suit was made without hearing their objection by the objectors, is to be stamped with a court-fee of Rs. 10, Lila Ram v. Mukand Rai, 1 P.L.R. 1913: 229 P.W.R. 1912: 15 Ind. Cas. 57.

Liability to partition.—The plaintiff sued for a declaration that certain property is his absolute property and was not liable to partition. Held, under Art. 17 of the Second Schedule of the Court Fees Act (Act VII of 1870) the court-fee payable is one of Rs. 10 only, Sohan Singh v. Devi Singh, 115 P.W.R. 1918: 119 P.L.R. 1918: 81 P.R. 1918.

Decree in a partition suit.—Decrees in partition suits are to be stamped under the Stamp Act, Sheikh Rafiuddin v. Latif Ahmed, 14 C.W.N. 1101: 12 C.L.J. 324: 7 Ind. Cas. 94.

An award or decree directing a partition, is an instrument of partition within the meaning of section 2 (15) of the Stamp Act, 1899, Tadepatti Reda Nagabhusanam v. Tadepatti Pit-chayya, 6 L.W. 448.

If in a suit for partition one of the sharers claim his share to be partitioned off, he need not pay court-fees to make his claim effective. The claim is satisfied by the provision in the Indian Stamp Act that the decree as finally drawn up should be stamped as an instrument of partition, Venkatasubamma v. Ramanadhayya, 63 M.L.J. 845: 1932 M.W.N. 949: 139 I.C. 457: 1932 A.I.R. 722 (Mad.).

AMENDMENT ACTS

ASSAM ACT III OF 1932.

[Received the assent of the Governor on the 29th March, 1932 and of the Governor-General on the 17th April, 1932.]

The Assam Court Fees (Amendment) Act III, 1932.

An Act to amend the Court Fees Act, 1870.

Whereas it is necessary to amend the Court Fees Act, 1870, in its application to Assam in the manner hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title, extent and commencement. 1. (1) This Act may be called the Assam Court Fees (Amendment) Act, 1932.

(2) It extends to the whole of Assam.

(3) It shall come into force on the 1st May, 1932.

2. In section 7 of the Court Fees Act, 1870 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

in sub-clause (a) of clause v for the word 'ten' the word 'twenty' shall be substituted.

3. For clause ii of section 10 of the principal Act, the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

ii. In such case—

(a) The suit shall be stayed until the additional fee is paid and if the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed; and whether the additional fee is or is not paid.

(b) The Court may, if it is of opinion that the estimation has been grossly insufficient, further order that the expenses of the commission, or such portion thereof as the Court may think reasonable, be paid by party in fault to the Government, and the order so made shall have the force and effect of a decree passed by the Court.

B

THE BENGAL COURT FEES AMENDMENT ACTS IV & II OF 1922.

And XI of 1935.

(which came into force from 1st June, 1935.)

An Act to amend the Court Fees Act, 1870, and the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act, 1882, with reference to the scale of court-fees in Bengal.

Whereas it is necessary to revise the scale of court-fees for Bengal, by amendment of the Court Fees Act, 1870, and the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act, 1882, in their application to Bengal, in the manner hereinafter appearing;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title, extent and commencement. 1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Court Fees (Amendment) Act, 1922.

(2) It extends to the whole of Bengal.

(3) It shall come into force on the first day of April, 1922. (Act XI of 1935 came into force on 1st June 1935); (B. C. Act XI of 1935 shall remain in force for three years only).

2. The Court Fees Act, 1870, as amended by subsequent legislation, and the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act, 1882, as amended by subsequent legislation, shall be amended, in their application to Bengal, in the manner hereinafter provided.

3. In section 18 of the Court Fees Act, 1870, for the words "a fee of eight annas" the words "a fee of one rupee" shall be substituted.

4. In item viii, in section 19 of the same Act for the words "one thousand rupees" the words "two thousand rupees" shall be substituted.

5. For Article 1 in the first Schedule to the same Act the following shall be substituted, namely:—

Amendment of Schedule I, Article 1.

Number.		Proper fee.
"1. Plaint, written statement pleading a set-off, or counter-claim or memorandum of appeal (not otherwise provided for in this Act) or of cross-objection presented to Civil or Revenue court except those mentioned in section 3.	When the amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute does not exceed seventy-five rupees, for every five rupees, or part thereof of such amount in value, and	Six annas.
	when such amount or value exceeds seventy-five rupees for every five rupees or part thereof, in excess of seventy-five rupees, up to one hundred rupees, and	Eight annas.
	when such amount or value exceeds one hundred rupees, for every ten rupees, or part thereof, in excess of one hundred rupees, up to one hundred and fifty rupees, and	One rupee ten annas.
	when such amount or value exceeds one hundred and fifty rupees, for every ten rupees, or part thereof, to one thousand rupees, and	One rupee two annas.
	when such amount or value exceeds one thousand rupees, for every one hundred rupees, or part thereof, in excess of one thousand rupees, up to seven thousand five hundred rupees, and	Seven rupees eight annas.

BENGAL ACT VII OF 1935.

THE COURT-FEES (BENGAL AMENDMENT) ACT, 1935.

[Published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 16th May, 1935.]

An Act further to amend the Court Fees Act, 1870.

Whereas it is expedient to revise the law relating to court-fees in Bengal by amendment of the Court Fees Act, 1870, in its application to Bengal, in the manner hereinafter appearing;

And whereas the previous sanction of the Governor-General has been obtained under sub-section (3) of section 80A of the Government of India Act to the passing of this Act;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title, extent and commencement.	1. (1) This Act may be called the Court-fees (Bengal Amendment) Act, 1935.
---------------------------------------	--

(2) It extends to the whole of Bengal.

(3) It shall come into force in whole or in part on such date as the Local Government may by notification in the Calcutta Gazette appoint and for this purpose different dates may be appointed for different provisions of this Act.

2. The Court-fees Act, 1870, hereinafter referred to as the Application of Act.	said Act, shall, in its application to Bengal, be amended in the manner hereinafter provided.
---	---

Substitution of new section for section 2 of Act VII of 1870.	3. For section 2 of the said Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—
---	--

Definitions.	“2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—
--------------	---

(1) ‘appeal’ includes a cross-objection;

(2) ‘Chief Controlling Revenue-authority’ means the Board of Revenue;

(3) ‘Collector’ includes any officer not below the rank of sub-deputy collector appointed by the Collector to perform the functions of a Collector under this Act;

(4) 'suit' includes an appeal from a decree except in section 8A."

4. In Chapter II of the said Act, for the heading "Fees in the High Courts and in the Courts of Small Causes at the Presidency towns" the heading "Fees payable in Courts and in Public Offices" shall be substituted.

Amendment of heading of Chapter II.

5. In Chapter III of the said Act, for the heading "Fees in other Courts and in Public Offices" the heading "Computation of fees" shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 6.

6. (1) Section 6 of the said Act shall be transferred from Chapter III and inserted after section 5 in Chapter II and section 6 as thus transferred shall be re-numbered as sub-section (1) of section 6 and in that section as so re-numbered for the words "be paid" the words "has been paid" shall be substituted.

(2) To the said section as so re-numbered and amended the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—

"(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) or in any other Act, a Court may receive a plaint or memorandum of appeal in respect of which an insufficient fee has been paid, subject to the following conditions, namely:—

(a) no such plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be registered unless the plaintiff or appellant has, before such date as the Court may have fixed in this behalf paid to the Court such reasonable sum on account of court-fee as the Court may direct;

(b) the Court shall reject the plaint or memorandum of appeal if the sum referred to in clause (a) is not paid before the date fixed by the Court."

Amendment of section 7.

7. In section 7 of the said Act,—

(1) clause (b) of paragraph iv shall be omitted;

(2) in paragraph iv after the words "memorandum of appeal" the following words, figure and letter shall be inserted, namely:—

"subject to the provisions of section 8C,"

(3) for paragraph v the following paragraph shall be substituted, namely:—

"v. In suits for the possession of land, buildings or gardens—

(a) according to the value of the subject-matter, and such value shall be deemed to be fifteen times the nett profits which have arisen from the land, building or garden during the year next before the date of presenting the plaint, or if the Court sees reason to think that such profits have been wrongly estimated, fifteen times such amount as the Court may assess as such profits or according to the market-value of the land, building or garden, whichever is lower;

- (b) if, in the opinion of the Court, such profits are not readily ascertainable or assessable, or where there are no such profits, according to the market-value of the land, building or garden.

Explanation.—In this paragraph “building” includes a house, out-house, stable, privy, urinal, shed, hut, wall and any other such structure, whether of masonry, bricks, wood, mud, metal or any other material whatsoever,”

(4) for paragraph vi the following paragraph shall be substituted, namely:—

“vi. In suits to enforce a right of pre-emption—according to the market-value of the land, building or garden in respect of which the right is claimed.

Explanation.—In this paragraph ‘building’ has the same meaning as in paragraph v”;

(5) after paragraph vi the following paragraph shall be inserted, namely:—

“viA. In suits for partition and separate possession of a share of joint family property or of joint property, or to enforce a right to a share in any property on the ground that it is joint family property or joint property—

if the plaintiff has been excluded from possession of the property of which he claims to be a co-parcener or co-owner, according to the market-value of the share in respect of which the suit is instituted.”

Insertion of new sections 8A to 8F.

8. After section 8 of the said Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“8A. In every suit in which an ad valorem court-fee is payable under this Act on the plaint, the plaintiff shall file with the plaint a statement of particulars of the subject-matter of the suit and his own valuation thereof such particulars and the valuation are contained in the plaint. The statement shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed by the Local Government by notification in the Calcutta Gazette. In every such suit the plaintiff shall also, if the Court so directs, file a duplicate copy of the plaint and of the said statement.

Statement of particulars of subject-matter of suits and plaintiff's valuation thereof.

8B. (1) In every suit in which a court-fee is payable under this Act on the plaint or memorandum of appeal the Court shall as soon as may be after the registration of the plaint or memorandum of appeal, and in every case before proceeding to deliver judgment, record a finding whether a sufficient court-fee has been paid.

(2) If the Court records a finding that an insufficient court-fee has been paid on the plaint or memorandum of appeal the Court shall—

- (a) stay all further proceedings in the suit until it has determined the proper amount of such court-fee payable and the plaintiff or the appellant, as the case may be, has paid such amount or until the date referred to in clause (b), as the case may be:

Provided that if the plaintiff or appellant gives, within such time as the Court may allow, security, to the satisfaction of the Court, for the payment of any additional amount for which he may be found liable the Court may proceed with the suit.

- (b) fix a date before which the plaintiff or appellant shall pay the amount of court-fee due from him, as determined by the Court under clause (a).

(3) If the plaintiff or appellant fails to give the security referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (2) or to pay the amount referred to in clause (b) of that sub-section, within the time allowed, or before the date fixed, by the Court, as the case may be, the suit shall be dismissed,

8C. If the Court is of opinion that the subject-matter of any suit has been wrongly valued it may revise the valuation and determine the correct valuation and may hold such inquiry as it thinks fit for such purpose.

8D. (1) For the purpose of an inquiry under section 8C the Court may depute, or issue a commission to, any suitable person to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary and to report thereon to the Court. Such report and any evidence recorded by such person shall be evidence in the inquiry.

(2) The Court may, from time to time, direct such party to the suits as it thinks fit to deposit such sum as the Court thinks reasonable as the costs of the inquiry, and if the costs are not deposited within such time as the Court shall fix, may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act, dismiss the suit if such party is the plaintiff or the appellant and, in any other case, may recover the costs as a public demand.

8E. (1) The Court, when making an inquiry under section 8C and any person making an investigation under section 8D shall have, respectively, for the purposes of such inquiry or investigation, the powers vested in a Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in respect of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath or affirmation;
- (b) compelling the production of documents or material objects; and
- (c) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses.

(2) An inquiry or investigation referred to in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code.

8F. If in the result of an inquiry under section 8C the Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit has been undervalued the Court may order the party responsible for the undervaluation to pay all or any part of the costs of the inquiry.

If in the result of such inquiry the Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit has not been undervalued the Court may, in its discretion, order that all or any part of such costs shall be paid by Government or by any party to the suit at whose instance the inquiry has been undertaken, and if any amount exceeding the proper amount of fee has been paid shall refund the excess amount so paid.

Repeal of sections 9 and 10.

9. Sections 9 and 10 of the Act are hereby repealed.

Substitution of new section for section 11.

10. For section 11 of the said Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

“11. Where, in any suit for mesne profits or for land and mesne profits or for an account, the fee which would have been payable if the suit had comprised the whole of the relief to which the Court finds the Procedure in suits for mesne profits or accounts when amount found exceeds amount claimed.

plaintiff to be entitled exceeds the fee actually paid, the Court shall require the plaintiff to pay an additional fee equal to the amount of the excess, and if such additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court may fix, the suit, or if a decree has previously been passed therein, so much of the claim as has not been so decreed, shall be dismissed:

Provided that, where the additional fee is payable in respect of a portion of the claim which can be relinquished, that portion only shall be dismissed."

11. In paragraph ii of section 12 of the said Act, for the words and figures "and the provisions of section 10, paragraph ii, shall apply" the following shall be substituted, namely:—

Amendment of section 12.

"and thereafter:—

(a) if the party required to pay is the appellant or petitioner, the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 8B shall, so far as may be, apply;

(b) if the party required to pay is the respondent or the opposite party, the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 8B shall, so far as may be, apply, and, if such party fails to pay the fee required before the date fixed by the Court, the Court shall recover the amount of such fee from him as a public demand.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section a question relating to the classification of any suit for the purpose of section 7 shall not be deemed to be a question relating to valuation."

12. For section 17 of the said Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:

Substitution of new section for section 17.

"17. (1) In any suit in which two or more separate and distinct causes of action are joined and separate and distinct reliefs are sought in respect of each, the plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees with which the plaints or memoranda of appeal would be chargeable under this Act in separate suits instituted in respect of each such cause of action:

Multifarious suits.

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to affect any power conferred by or under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, to order separate trials.

(2) Where more reliefs than one based on the same cause of action are sought either jointly or in the alternative, the fee shall be paid according to the value of the relief in respect of which the largest fee is payable."

Amendment of section 19. 13. In section 19 of the said Act,—

(a) in paragraph i after the words "Power-of-attorney" the words "or other written authority" shall be inserted; and

(b) after paragraph xxiv the following paragraph shall be added, namely:—

"xxv. Petitions of appeal by Government servants or servants of a Court of Wards against orders of dismissal, reduction or suspension; copies of such orders filed with such appeals, and applications for obtaining such copies."

Insertion of new section 34A. 14. After section 34 of the said Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"34A. Where any period is fixed or granted by the Court for the doing of any act prescribed or allowed by this Act, the Court may, in its discretion, from time to time, enlarge such period, even though the period originally fixed or granted may have expired."

Substitution of new section for section 35. 15. For section 35 of the said Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"35: (1) The Local Government may from time to time subject to such conditions or restrictions as it may think fit to impose, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, suspend the payment of or reduce or remit, in the whole of Bengal or in any part thereof, all or any of the fees mentioned in the first and second Schedules to this Act annexed and may in like manner cancel or vary such order.

(2) The Local Government may from time to time by rules prescribe the manner in which any fee the payment of which is suspended under sub-section (1) may be realised and for this purpose direct that such fee may be recovered as a public demand."

Amendment of Schedule II. 16. In Schedule II to the said Act—

(1) in Article 17 after entry v, the following entry shall be inserted, namely:—

"(va) for partition and separate possession of a share of joint family property or of joint property, or to enforce a right to a Fifteen rupees."

share in any property on the ground that it is joint family property or joint property if the plaintiff is in possession of the property of which he claims to be a co-parcener or co-owner.

(2) after Article 18 the following Article shall be inserted, namely:—

"18A. Application under para- graph 20 of the Second Schedule to the Civil Procedure Code, 1908, to file an arbitration award, and memorandum of appeal from a decree passed under paragraph 21 of the said Schedule. Fifteen rupees."

(3) After Article 21 the following Article shall be inserted, namely:—

"22. Petition—

(a) questioning the election of any person as a Municipal Commissioner, when presented to a District Judge under section 36 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932;

(b) questioning the election of any person as a member of a District Board or Local Board, when presented to any authority appointed under clause (a) of section 138 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885 to decide disputes relating to such elections.

Fifteen rupees."

tion 7. Religious Endowments Act, 1863, or under section 91 or section 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908," shall be added between the words
'mentioned' and 'shall'.

5. In section 7 (ii) of the principal Act, after the words 'shall be deemed to be' the words 'in Amendment of section 7 (ii). suits for maintenance, the amount claimed to be payable for one year and in other suits' shall be added.

6. The following shall be added after the words 'Memorandum of appeal' in section 7, paragraph iv, of the principal Act:—
Addition of a proviso to section 7 (iv).

'Provided that in suits coming under sub-clause (c), in cases where the relief sought is with reference to any immoveable property, such valuation shall not be less than half the value of the immoveable property calculated in the manner provided for by paragraph (v) of this section.'

7. In section 7 of the principal Act between paragraph iv and v the following paragraph shall be added as (a) :—

"In a suit for cancellation of a decree for money or other property having a money value, or other document securing money or other property having such value, according to the value of the subject-matter of the suit, and such value shall be deemed to be—

if the whole decree or other document is sought to be cancelled, the amount or the value of the property for which the decree was passed or the other document executed,

if a part of the decree or other document is sought to be cancelled, such part of the amount or value of the property."

Amendment of section 7 (v). 8. In section 7 (v) of the principal Act—in (a) for the word 'ten' the word 'twenty' shall be substituted; in (b) for the word 'five' the word 'ten' shall be substituted; and after clause (d) the following proviso shall be substituted for the existing proviso.

'Provided that if rules are framed under section 3 of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887 for determining the value of land for the purposes of jurisdiction, the value so determined shall be deemed to be the value of the land for the purposes of this paragraph.'

9. For the second paragraph of section 11 of the principal Act, the following paragraphs shall be substituted :—

Amendment of section 11. 'Where a decree directs an inquiry as to mesne profits which have accrued on the property during a period prior to the institution of the suit, if the profits ascertained on such inquiry exceeds the profits claimed, no final decree shall be passed till the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the claim for the excess shall be dismissed, unless the Court, for sufficient cause, extends the time for payment.'

'Where a decree directs an inquiry as to mesne profits from the institution of the suit, and a final decree is passed in accordance with the result of such inquiry, the decree shall not be executed until such fee is paid as would have been payable on the amount claimed in execution if a separate suit had been instituted therefor.'

10. In section 18 of the principal Act, for the words 'eight annas' the words 'one rupee' shall be substituted.

THE SUITS VALUATION ACT, 1887.

[11th February, 1887.]

[ACT NO. VII OF 1887].

As modified up to June 1935.

An Act to prescribe the mode of valuing certain suits for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of courts with respect thereto.

Where it is expedient to prescribe the mode of valuing certain suits for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts with respect thereto; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Title. 1. This Act may be called the Suits Valuation Act, 1887.

NOTES.

Extent.—For Statement of Objects and Reasons, See Gazette of India, 1886, Pt. V, p. 791; for Report of the Select Committee see ibid, 1887, Pt. IV, p. 18; and for Proceedings in Council see ibid, 1886, Supplement, pp. 1131 and 1155, and ibid, 1887, Pt. VI, pp. 16 and 21.

This Act has been declared in force in Upper Burma (except the Shan States) by the Burma Laws Act, 1898 (XIII of 1898), see section 4 and the First Schedule.

It had previously been extended there, by notification under section 5 of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), printed in General Acts, Vol. II, Ed. 1898, p. 477, see Burma Gazette, 1888, Pt. I, p. 362, and Gazette of India 1888, Pt. I, p. 371.

It has been declared in force in British Baluchistan by the British Baluchistan Laws Regulation, 1890 (I of 1890).

Scope.—Part I of the Suits Valuation Act empowers the Local Government to make rules for determining the value of land for purposes of jurisdiction in certain classes of suits, Part II declares that in suits not coming within paragraphs v, vi, ix and paragraph x cl. (d) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act, the value as determinable for the computation of court-fees and the value for the purposes of jurisdiction shall both be the same, Musst Ladli Begum v. Ram Das and others, 1925 A.I.R. 488 (Patna): 1925 Pat. C.W.N. 167: 6 Pat.L.T. 448: 90 Ind. Cas. 321.

Sonthal Perganas.—It is doubtful whether the Suits Valuation Act applies to the Sonthal Perganas, still the spirit of that Act can be held to be applicable and jurisdiction should follow the valuation on which the court-fees were paid; and in order to find out whether the valuation is in excess of Rs. 1,000 the plaint and not the issues are to be examined. An objection to the valuation would not be entertained unless it is taken before the settlement of issues, Narayan Jha Narone v. Jagni Prasad Jha, (1933) 13 Patna 329: 15 P.L.T. 131: 148 I.C. 579: 1934 A.I.R. 204 (Pat.) S.B.

PART I.

SUITS RELATING TO LAND.

2. This Part shall extend to such local areas, and come into force therein on such dates as the Governor General in Council, by notification in the Gazette of India, directs.

Extent and commencement of Part I.

NOTES.

Extent.—Part I of the Act has, under section 2 been declared to extend to the Punjab, which then included the North-West Frontier Province, and to come into force therein on the 1st day of March, 1889, see Gazette of India, 1889, Pt. I, p. 107.

General.—A suit ought to be valued for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of a Court, not according to the special rules of the Court Fees Act but according to the market value of the subject of a suit, Kalu Bin Bhiwaji v. Visram Mawaji, 1 Bom. 543; Nanhoon Singh v. Toofanee Singh, 20 W.R.C.R. 33: 12 B.L.R. 113.

The plaintiff's estimate of the value of the land, if contrary to the market value according to the rules, cannot be allowed to operate to the prejudice of the defendant at any stage of the suit, Bhagwan Puri and others v. Secretary of State for India in Council, 49 All. 398: 25 A.L.J. 258: 100 I.C. 35: 1927 A.I.R. 308 (All.).

The value of the subject-matter of dispute.—The actual value of the estate, to which the plaintiff claims to be entitled, and not the value which it may eventually represent to the plaintiff, is the value of the subject matter, Bai Mahkor v. Bulabi Chaku, 1 Bom. 538.

But the case is different when the suit falls under section 8. of the Suits Valuation Act. Then the valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction and for the purposes of court-fees shall be the same as a method of valuation for the purposes of court-fees is prescribed by the Court Fees Act itself, Sailendra Nath Mitra v. Ram Charan Pal, 34 C.L.J. 95: 25 C.W.N. 168: 66 Ind. Cas. 26.

Prima facie the valuation by the plaintiff determines the jurisdiction. If the defendant did not raise any objection then it cannot be said that the trial was without jurisdiction, Khundaiyat-ul-Kubra v. Amina Khatun, 46 All. 250: 22 A.L.J. 122: 80 I.C. 413: 1924 A.I.R. 388 (All.).

Prima facie it is the valuation by the plaintiff which determines the jurisdiction and such jurisdiction continues, whatever the event, unless a different principle, comes into operation to prevent such a result, Sarada Sundari v. Akramunnessa, 51 Cal. 137: 78 I.C. 747: 28 C.W.N. 710.

Statement made in a petition.—The plaintiff is not concluded by statements made in petition at one particular stage of the proceedings as the question of the amount of court-fees payable as the valuation to be made for that purpose is one of law and not of fact, Girish Chandra Sanyal v. The Secretary of State for India in Council, 105 I.C. 80.

Jurisdiction—How determined.—Jurisdiction of suits is governed by statements made in the plaint and has no reference to the plea set up by the defendant. The valuation given in the plaint determines the forum of appeal, Jag Lal v. Har Narayan Singh, 10 All. 524. What prima facie determines the jurisdiction of a Court is the claim, or the subject-matter of the claim, as estimated by the plaintiff and that determination having given the jurisdiction, the jurisdiction itself continues whatever the event of the suit. This includes bona fide mistakes by the plaintiff but the plaintiff cannot oust jurisdiction by making unwarrantable additions to the claim which cannot be sustained, Lakshman Bhatkar v. Babaji Bhatkar, 8 Bom. 31.

Where the plaint is intentionally presented to a wrong Court, the plaint is to be returned by Court to the plaintiff to be presented to proper Court and the suit should not be dismissed, Jharia v. Gopala, 3 All.L.J. 511: 26 (1906) All.W.N. 195.

One must look to the nature of the suit as brought and not to the nature of the defence to determine whether a Court had jurisdiction, Bapuji Raghunath v. Kauvaji Edulji Umrigar, 15 Bom. 400.

In the absence of rules under ss. 3 & 4 of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, the valuation of a suit is the money value of the loss which the plaintiff apprehends would result to him, Ram Sekhar Prosad Singh v. Sheonandan Dubey, I.L.R. 2 Pat. 198: 1922 Pat.C.W.N. 337: 4 P.L.T. 71: 1 P.L.R. 25: 73 I.C. 43: 1923 A.I.R. 137 (Patna).

Jurisdiction does not depend on the result of the suit or on the defence set up, but on the nature of the claim as brought, Seth Harbax and another v. Lachman and others, 1925 A.I.R. 183 (Nagpore): 82 I.C. 201.

The jurisdiction of a suit or appeal is generally determined by the valuation made in the plaint unless the suit is intentionally overvalued or undervalued, Pitam Singh v. Bishun Narain, 7 O.W.N. 1188: 130 I.C. 339: 1931 A.I.R. 58 (Oudh).

If the valuation is contested then it should be determined by the Court, but where the valuation can be ascertained correctly, then the plaintiff cannot be allowed to put a valuation he chooses, Inayat Husain v. Bashir Ahmad, 1932 A.L.J. 416: 1932 A.I.R. 413 (All.).

An erroneous payment of court-fees does not affect jurisdiction, Gopala Menon v. Ramana Menon, 1932 M.W.N. 53: 35 L.W. 64: 138 I.C. 136: 1932 A.I.R. 217 (Mad.).

Different valuations.—The plaintiff is not entitled to put a higher valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and a lower valuation for the purpose of court-fees (where these should be the same), Jogeshra v. Durga Prasad, 36 All. 500: 12 A.L.J. 844: 24 I.C. 679, see also Balkrishna Narayan v. Jankibai, 44 Bom. 331: 22 Bom.L.R. 289: 51 I.C. 340; Manni Lal v. Radhey Gopalji, 23 A.L.J. 344: 47 All. 501: 1925 A.I.R. 602 (All.): 87 I.C. 650.

It is provided in s. 8 of the Suits Valuation Act that the valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction and for the purposes of court-fees shall be the same in suits specified in s. 8; the plaintiff, therefore, cannot put one valuation for the purpose of court-fees and another valuation which is to be a purely arbitrary valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction.

A party is not entitled, when the valuation of the suit can be correctly ascertained to put a purely fancy value on the suit for the purpose of jurisdiction, Dhaturi Singh v. Kedar Nath Goenka, I.L.R. 6 Pat. 597: 8 Pat.L.T. 475: 101 Ind. Cas. 506: 1927 A.I.R. 224 (Patna).

Acquiescence in valuation.—A suit relating to land was valued by the plaintiff at Rs. 872 and instituted in the Munsiff Court. The defendant objected to the valuation which on inquiry was found to be at Rs. 2,737, whereupon the plaint was returned to be presented to the proper Court. The defendant still objected but did not press his case. The suit was decreed and the defendant appealed to the District Court adopting the valuation found by the Munsiff. The appeal was allowed. The plaintiff preferred a second appeal to the High Court which decreed the appeal. Then there was an application for leave to His Majesty in Council, held that the defendant having acquiesced in the valuation, and having obtained the advantage of an appeal to the District Court, cannot now say that the valuation then was wrong, Rameshwar Khemka v. Siddeshwar Ghose, 101 I.C. 901.

A plaintiff who has valued his suit for the purpose of court-fees is not precluded from putting a higher valuation on his appeal, but if he values his appeal in one way he is not entitled to set up subsequently that his valuation was not the real value, Hafaz Mahomed Hossein Khan v. Mansur Ali, 38 C.W.N. 751: 59 C.L.J. 448: 1934 A.I.R. 809.

Appeal.—The value or subject-matter of the suit determines the forum of appeal. The value assigned to the subject-matter of the suit by the plaintiff at the time of the institution of the suit and not the value as found by the Court, would determine the forum, unless it appears that true value has been misstated in the plaint either purposely or through gross negligence, Mahabir Singh v. Behari Lal, 13 All. 320.

Where the plaintiff bona fide valued the suit at Rs. 7,500 but the lower Court found that the valuation is less than Rs. 5,000 and the plaintiff contested that finding and preferred an appeal to the High Court. Held, that the value of the original suit in Act VII of 1887 did not mean the value as found by the Court and the appeal was rightly preferred to the High Court, Nilmoney Singh v. Jagabandhu Ray, 23 Cal. 536.

The jurisdiction of the appeal Court is not ousted because large amount is awarded under the decree than the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court allows it to do, Madho Das v. Ramji Patak, 16 All. 286, followed in Jharia v. Gopala, 3 All.L.J. 511: 26 All.W.N. 195.

3. (1) The Local Government may subject to the control of the Governor General in Council, make rules for determining the value of land for purposes of jurisdiction in the suits mentioned in the Court Fees Act, 1870, Power for Local Government to make rules determining value of land for jurisdictional purposes.

section 7, paragraphs (v) and (vi), and paragraph (x), clause (d).

(2) The rules may determine the value of any class of land, or of any interest in land in the whole or any part of a local area, and may prescribe different values for different places within the same local area.

NOTES.

Amendment.—The words “subject to the control” were substituted for the words “with the previous sanction” by the Devolution Act (XXXVIII of 1920).

“Under section 3 (1), Suits Valuation Act (Act VII of 1887), Local Governments are empowered to make rules for determining the value of land for purposes of jurisdiction in suits mentioned in the Court Fees Act, section 7 (vi) and suits such as that before us are mentioned,” Narayan Nair v. Cheria Kathiri Kutty, 41 Mad. 721: 34 M.L.J. 397: 45 I.C. 89.

The Punjab Government have made Rules under this section, See Punjab Government Notification No. 255 dated the 4th March, 1889.

PUNJAB RULES

Manner of determining the value of land for purposes of Jurisdiction in certain classes of suits.

The following rules made by the Local Government, under the power conferred by section 3 of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, and published as Punjab Government Notification No. 255, dated the 4th March 1889, for determining the value of land for purposes of jurisdiction in the suits mentioned in the Court Fees Act, section 7, paragraphs (v) and (vi), and paragraph (x), clause (d), are republished for information and guidance:—

1. In suits for the possession of land the value of the land, for purposes of jurisdiction, shall be held to be as follows:—

(a) Where the land forms an entire estate, or a definite share of an estate paying annual revenue to Government or forms part of such an estate, and the annual revenue payable for such part is recorded in the Collector's register, and such revenue is permanently settled,—sixty times the revenue assessed on the land.

(b) Where the land forms an entire estate, or a definite share of an estate paying annual revenue to Government, or forms part of such estate and is recorded as aforesaid, and such revenue is settled but not permanently,—thirty times the revenue so payable.

Explanation to clause (b).—Where the land is a fractional share or a portion of part of an estate, and the land revenue payable for such part is recorded in the Collector's register, and such revenue is not permanently settled, the value for purposes of jurisdiction, shall be held to be thirty times such portion of the revenue recorded in respect of that part as may be rateably payable in respect of the share or portion.

Illustration (1).—In a suit for possession of a one-third share of the entire holding of 10 ghumaos forming part of an estate and recorded as paying Rs. 20 annual revenue, the value of the land for the purposes of jurisdiction is one-third of thirty times Rs. 20, or Rs. 600.

(2) In a suit for possession of 1 ghumao out of the same holding, the value of the land is one-tenth of thirty times Rs. 20, or Rs. 60.

(c) Where the land pays no such revenue, or has been partially exempted from such payment, or is charged with any fixed payment in lieu of such revenue, and net profits have arisen from the land during the year next before the date of presenting the plaint,—fifteen times such net profits. But where no such net profits have arisen therefrom,—the market-value.

(d) Where the land forms part of an estate paying revenue to Government, but is not a definite share of such estate and does not come under clauses (a), (b) or (c) of this rules,—the market-value of the land.

(e) Where the subject-matter is a garden,—the market-value of the garden.

2. In suits to enforce right of pre-emption in land the value of the land, for the purposes of jurisdiction, shall be calculated by the preceding rules.

3. When the land or interest in suit falls partly under one and partly under another of the classes enumerated in rule 1 the value of the land in each class shall be separately calculated.

4. In the application of the above rules the word "land" includes all such right, e.g., shares in village common and in wells are as accessory to the land in suit and the word 'revenue' as used in the preceding rules when applied to land irrigated from canals, shall be held to include owner's rate for the year next before the date of presentation of plaint, or half the occupier's rate for the same period in cases in which no owner's rate is chargeable.

5. In suits for specific performance of an award so far as the award relates to land, the market-value of the land.

6. Suits relating to a life-interest in land and suits relating to an occupancy right shall, for purposes of jurisdiction, be deemed to be of half the value provided for suits for possession under Rule 1.

Punjab Instructions.—Instructions on the subject of the Suits Valuation Act, VII of 1887, and the rules made thereunder, for determining the value of certain classes of suits for the purposes of court-fees and jurisdiction.

The attention of all Civil Courts is drawn to the following instruction on the subject of the provisions of the Suits Valuation Act, VII of 1887.

2. Part 1 of the Act was extended to this Province by Government of India, Home Department, Notification No. 210, dated the 20th February 1889, and the Local Government has made rules under section 3 of the Act determining the value of land and certain interests therein, for the purposes of jurisdiction in suits mentioned in the Court Fees Act, 1870, sec. 7, paragraphs (v) and (vi) and paragraph (x), clause (d), which are republished as above.

3. No restriction under sec. 3, sub-section (2), of the Act have been imposed as to the classes of land to which the rules apply, or as to the local extent of their operation, and they apply therefore to all land generally throughout the province, whether assessed with land revenue or not.

4. Section 4 of the Suits Valuation Act provides that, where a suit mentioned in the Court Fees Act, section 7, paragraph (iv), or Schedule II, Article 17, relates to land or an interest in land, of which the value has been determined by the rules made under section 3, the amount at which the relief sought in the suit is valued for the purposes of jurisdiction shall not exceed the value of the land or interest as determined by those rules. The suits falling under section 7, paragraph (iv) of the Court Fees Act, are certain suits in regard to which the plaintiff is required to state the amount at which he values the relief sought in the plaint. Where the value so stated exceeds the value of the land or interest therein as fixed by the rules, the latter and not the former must be regarded as the value for the purposes of jurisdiction. The suits specified in Schedule II, Art. 17, of the Court Fees Act, are those for which it is difficult to fix a correct valuation, and a fixed fee of Rs. 10 is accordingly levied in these cases. Where any such case relates to land or any interest in land the value for the purposes of jurisdiction, will be the value of the land or interest as fixed by the rules.

5. The suits falling under the Court Fees Act, section 7, paragraphs (i), (ii), (iii), (vii), (viii), (ix), (x) (a), (b), (c), and (xi) (a) to (f) inclusive, are, with one or two exceptions, either such as are subject to an ad valorem court-fee, in regard to which the value for the purposes of computing the court-fee and the value for the purposes of determining jurisdiction are, under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, the same; or suits dealt with by directions made by the High Court under section 9 of the Act.

6. In order to guard against mistakes as to the value of a suit for purposes of jurisdiction and of court-fees, respectively, every plaint ought upon its face to show the value for purposes of jurisdiction as well as the value for the purpose of computing court-fees. The former information is requisite in order that the Court may determine whether the plaint should be returned under Order VII, Rule 10, of the Code of Civil Procedure. When a plaint omits to disclose the value of the suits for the purposes of jurisdiction, the person presenting it should be questioned, and his answer recorded on the plaint, unless he consents to amend it then and there.

7. As special care is necessary with respect to cases falling under the provisions of section 7, paragraph (iv), and Schedule II, Article 17, of the Court Fees Act, in valuing suits for the purposes of jurisdiction and of court-fees, a schedule showing the value in each class of these cases has been prepared to guide the Courts in fixing the value in particular cases, and the opportunity has been taken to prepare an exhaustive schedule following the classifications of suits in the Court Fees Act. It must be clearly understood, however, that this schedule in itself has no legal force and that it is merely intended for ready reference by the Courts in dealing with questions of value. An examination of the schedule will show that it is in only a few cases in which it is not possible to value the suit for purposes of jurisdiction, either by the actual value of the subject-matter or by reference to the provisions of sections 4 and 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, and the rules under section 3, and directions under section 9 of the Act.

8. There is no express provision in the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, in regard to the classes of suits mentioned below and they do not admit of being disposed of by rules under Part I, nor are they dealt with by directions under Part II of the Act. The valuation of such suits, therefore, must be left to judicial decision, as occasion arises. The suits are,— suits for houses;
suits for pre-emption in respect of houses;
suits for removal of attachment of houses;

suits by or against mortgagors or mortgagees as such;
suits falling under Schedule II, Article 17, clause (iv), which are not provided for the rules under section 3 or directions under section 9 or by section 4 of the Suits Valuation Act;

Suits falling under section 7, sub-section x, clause (d), of the Court Fees Act, and relating to property other than land.

9. In the cases of some other classes of suits, such as those falling under Articles 14 and 20 of Schedule II of the Court Fees Act, or suits relating to marriage and minority, the law allows no choice of the Court in which proceedings must be taken. There is, therefore, no necessity, to fix any valuation for the purposes of determining jurisdiction, while for purposes of court-fees they are sufficiently dealt with by the Court Fees Act, 1870.

4. Where a suit mentioned in the Court Fees Act, 1870, section 7, paragraph (iv), or Valuation of relief in certain suits relating to land not to exceed the value of the land.

Schedule II, Article 17, relates to land or an interest in land of which the value has been determined by rules under the last foregoing section, the amount at which for purposes of jurisdiction the relief sought in the suit is valued shall not exceed the value of the land or interest as determined by those rules.

NOTES.

Under section 4 of the Suits Valuation Act, the plaintiff is not entitled to put a higher value on the suit than what is covered by his interest in the litigation, Narayan Singh v. Aiyasami Reddi, 39 Mad. 602 (603).

In valuing a suit for share of land, the rental of the share is to be the criterion of the stamp, Ram Bilash v. Ajoodyalal, 2 W.R. Misc. 45.

Section 4 of the Suits Valuation Act indicates that the principle adopted by the legislature for valuing a suit mentioned in Schedule II, Art. 17 of the Court Fees Act which relates to land or an interest in land, is that the value of such a suit for the purpose of jurisdiction shall be governed by the value of land or interest in land. When such values are not determined by rules framed under section 3 of the Suits Valuation Act, the values then must be determined by judicial decision, Dayaram Jagjivandas v. Gobordhandas Dayaram, 31 Bom. 73: 8 Bom.L.R. 885.

Declaration.—In Punjab the proper valuation in a suit for declaration that certain property is the absolute property of the plaintiff and is not liable to partition, is thirty times the annual jama, Sohan Singh v. Devi Sing, 46 Ind. Cas. 490: 81 P.R. 1918: 199 P.L.R. 1918: 115 P.W.R. 1918.

The valuation of a suit for declaration that mortgage in favour of the plaintiff is unaffected by attachment of mortgaged property in execution of decree against mortgagor, when there is no dispute as to the mortgage, is the amount for which execution is sought and not the value of the mortgaged property, Madakuri Ankamma v. Mayyala Subbayya, 54 Ind. Cas. 543.

The valuation of a suit for declaration by an unsuccessful claimant, is the value of the property or the decree whichever is less, Moolchand Motilal v. Ramkishen, 55 All. 315: 1933 A.L.J. 222: 143 I.C. 275: 1933 A.I.R. 249 (All.) F.B.

Maximum Limit.—Section 4 of the Suits Valuation Act do doubt prescribes only a maximum valuation which can be put on the relief for purposes of jurisdiction in certain classes of suits, e.g., a suit for declaration of title to land, but that does not mean that the plaintiff was at liberty to put any valuation he likes subject to that maximum on that relief. Ordinarily, when a question of title to landed property is in dispute, the value of the property would be the determining factor as regards the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court. Subject to the maximum value calculated with regard to ss. 3 and 4 of the Suits Valuation Act, the market value should determine the jurisdiction in a suit for determination of title.when the plaintiff, in a suit for declaration of title to certain zemindary property valued the relief for purposes of jurisdiction at Rs. 400 and filed the plaint in the Court of the munsiff, and the value of the land determined according to rules made by the Local Government under s. 3 of the Suits Valuation Act was about Rs. 8,000, it was held that the proper value of the subject-matter of the suit exceeded the pecuniary jurisdiction of the munsiff's Court and the order of the munsiff returning the plaint was on revision upheld by the High Court, Jagdish Saran v. Jai Dei, (1933) 56 All. 198: 145 I.C. 942: 1933 A.I.R. 903 (All.).

Foreclosure.—The valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction is the value of the mortgagor's interest in the property which will be lost to him in case the mortgagee is successful, Girdhari Lal v. Sheo Nanden, 11 O.C. 154. But if the value of the mortgaged property be greater than or equal to the amount of the charge, then the value of the suit is the total sum due under the deed, i.e., both principal and interest due under the mortgage, Kothiram v. Ganpati, 8 N.L.R. 179: 17 Ind Cas. 886; Nana v. Mulchand, 9 N.L.R. 161.

The valuation for jurisdiction of a suit for possession after a decree for foreclosure of a condition sale is not to be calculated according to the scale laid down in section 7, paragraph 9 of the Court Fees Act, Ahalya Bai Debya v. Shama Churan Bose, 1 C.L.R. 473; Jeebraj Singh v. Inderjeet Mahton, 18 W.R. 109; Nouhoon Singh v. Toofanee Singh, 20 W.R. 33; 12 B.L.R. 113; Chunder Nath Bhattacharjee v. Brindabun Shaha, 25 W.R. 39.

Where the purchaser of mortgaged property being defendant in the mortgagee's suit for foreclosure, preferred an appeal against the decree for foreclosure made in the suit, the amount found due on the mortgage being over a lakh of rupees, held (for the purposes of ascertaining the court-fee payable on the memorandum of appeal) the value of the property affected by the decree must be taken to be Rs. 2,500 being the amount for which the appellant has purchased the property, Jagatdhar Narain Persad v. Brown, 33 Cal. 1133; 10 C.W.N. 1010; 4 C.L.J. 121.

Landlord and tenant.—Suit by tenant.—The value of a suit brought by an occupancy raiyat of certain lands for a declaration that the landlords are not entitled to recover from them by way of rent more than 1/16th share of the produce, is, for the purposes of jurisdiction 15 times the land revenues under rules framed under section 3 of the Suits Valuation Act. Jamal v. Quadir Baksh, 54 P.R. 1914; 238 P.L.R. 1914; 153 P.W.R. 1914; 25 Ind. Cas. 437.

Suits to establish validity of charge upon property is to be valued upon the value of the property or amount of the charge whichever is less. Krishnama Chariar v. Srinivasa Ayyangar, 4 Mad. 339.

Occupancy raiyat.—The value of the suit is the value of the subject-matter in controversy, i.e., the interests claimed by the plaintiff, Upendra Chandra Mitra v. Satcourie Dhar, 13 Ind. Cas. 964.

Of a tenant at fixed rates.—The valuation of a suit, for the purposes of jurisdiction to eject a tenant at fixed rates, is the value of the right of the tenant in the land which it is sought to destroy but not the value of the land itself nor of merely one year's rent, Ram Raj Tewary v. Girnandan Bhagat, 15 All. 63; 12 All.W.N. 240. But see section 7, paragraph (xi), clause (cc) of the Court Fees Act and the cases cited there.

Mortgage.—The valuation of a suit for the purposes of jurisdiction, to declare that the mortgage is subsisting, after disallowance if his claim to mortgaged property which was attached in execution of another decree, need not be on the amount of attachment, Fisher v. Arunachella Cheetiar, 19 M.L.J. 236; 20 Ind. Cas. 522.

Where the suit is to declare that a mortgage by co-parceners is null and void on the ground that the same was executed without consideration and ultra vires as the mortgagor had no right to mortgage the plaintiff's share, the valuation for purpose of jurisdiction will be on the basis of mortgagee's rights and not on the value of the property itself, Paire Lal v. Ram Chand and Jagannath, 112 P.W.R. 1911: 11 Ind. Cas. 443.

Redemption.—In a redemption suit the value of the subject-matter is not the market value of the property but the amount of mortgage-money, which amount, therefore, determines the jurisdiction of the trial Court and determines the forum of appeal. Section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act does not affect the law laid in 5 All. 332 and 8 All. 438; Kedar Singh v. Mahatabadal Singh, 31 All. 44: 5 All.L.J. 713: (1903) 23 All.W.N. 296: 1 Ind. Cas. 703; Mohan Lal v. Mohan Lal and others, 1926 A.I.R. 346 (Oudh): 94 I.C. 784: 3 O.W.N. 467. See also the case of Sarada Sundari v. Akramunnissa, 51 Cal. 737: 28 C.W.N. 710: 78 I.C. 747: 1924 A.I.R. 783 (Cal.).

In a suit for redemption of a mortgage instituted in the Subordinate Judge's Court, the amount of the principal of the debt was Rs. 3,899 and odd. The plaintiff paid the court-fees on that amount but the Subordinate Judge erroneously ordered the plaintiff to pay court-fees on the total amount payable on redemption, viz., Rs. 7,218 odd, and the plaintiff paid the deficit court-fee. The Subordinate Judge passed a decree in the suit in favour of the plaintiff. The defendants preferred an appeal to the High Court. The respondent objected that the appeal did not lie to the High Court but to the District Court. Held, that the amount of the principal debt must be taken as determining the jurisdiction under Civil Courts Act, and consequently that the suit lay in the Subordinate Judge's Court and that the appeal lay to the District Court and not to the High Court. The authority of the Full Bench Decision in Zamorin of Calicut v. Narayan, 5 Mad. 284, is unaffected by the Suits Valuation Act. The order of the Subordinate Judge erroneously levying court-fees on the total amount payable on redemption cannot deprive the District Court of jurisdiction to hear the appeal and confer it on the High Court, Jallaldeen Marakayan v. Vijayaswami, 39 Mad. 447: 29 M.L.J. 142: 1915 M.W.N. 239: 28 Ind. Cas. 624; Basudeva v. Madhava, 16 Mad. 326 followed. See also Gopal Menon v. Raman Menon, 1932 M.W.N. 53: 35 L.W. 64: 138 I.C. 136: 1932 A.I.R. 217 (Mad.) (redemption of kanom plus damages); Pathana v. Satyanandacharyulu, 60 M.L.J. 698: 33 L.W. 785: 132 I.C. 317: 1931 A.I.R. 479 (Mad.) (redemption with profits).

The valuation of a suit for redemption of a usufructuary mortgage plus the profits is the principal amount expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage, Long Singh v. Bishun Lal, 149 I.C. 560: 1933 A.I.R. 625 (Patna).

Redemption and claim of rent.—When there are two distinct causes of action, namely, the claim for redemption and that for the arrears of rent, the value of the subject-matter of suit is the aggregate value of the two heads of relief, Konna Panikur v. Karunakara, 16 Mad. 328.

Redemption and possession.—In a suit for redemption and possession, the amount of mortgage-money is not the basis of valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction. The value of the land in question should be the value, Ma Hla Saing and another v. Ma Su We and others, 105 I.C. 412: 1927 A.I.R. 304 (Rangoon): 5 Rangoon 499.

Improvements.—The value of improvements is not to be considered in calculating the value of the “subject of suit” in a suit to redeem a Kanam and a purankandam (further advance) when the instrument of mortgage does not expressly secure the amount to be allowed for improvements in redemption, Zamorin of Calicut v. Suryonarayan Bhatta, 5 Mad. 284.

Partition.—Allahabad High Court.—In suit for partition of the share of one only out of several co-sharers in immovable property, the proper valuation of the suit for the purpose of jurisdiction is the value of the share sought to be separated from the rest of the property, and not the value of the entire property out of which the share is to be taken, Wajib-ud-din v. Waliullah, 24 All. 381.

Bombay High Court.—A suit for partition and separate possession of joint family property consisting of land, houses and moveable property, falls within section 7, paragraph v of the Court Fees Act and therefore section 3 of the Suits Valuation Act is not applicable. The market valuation determines the jurisdiction of the trial Court, Dagdu Sakharam v. Totaram Narayan, 33 Bom. 658: 11 Bom.L.R. 1074. See also John Joseph De Silva v. J. J. De Silva, 6 Bom.L.R. 403.

Calcutta High Court.—The valuation of suit for partition by a joint owner, is the value of the entire property sought to be partitioned and not on the value of the share of the plaintiff. Therefore, if the value of plaintiff's share is below Rs. 5,000 and the value of the entire property above Rs. 5,000, an appeal lies to the High Court direct from the decree of the Subordinate Judge, Biraj Mohini Dasi v. Chintamani Dasi, 3 C.L.J. 197: 10 C.W.N. 565.

But if the suit had been erroneously valued in the court of first instance on the valuation of the share of the plaintiff, then section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act is applicable and the appellate Court would not interfere unless such valuation has materially prejudiced the disposal of the suit, Edward Dalglish v. Ramdhari Sahu, 4 C.L.J. 509.

In a suit for partition it is the value of the entire property which determines jurisdiction and not of the share which the plaintiff claims in the property, Rajani Kanta Bag v. Rajabala Dasi, 29 C.W.N. 76: 52 Cal. 128: 85 I.C. 898: 1925 A.I.R. 320 (Cal.). See also Lala Bhugwat Sahay v. Pashupati Nath Bose and others, 10 C.W.N. 564, and Baidya Nath Adya v. Makhan Lal Adya, 17 Cal. 680; Onooroop Chandra Mukherjee v. Pertab Chander Pal, 6 W.R. Misc. R. 40; Musst. Ameena Khatoon v. Radhabenod Misser, 7 M.I.A. 162.

Madras High Court.—The Madras High Court took the view that the value for the purpose of jurisdiction is the amount at which the plaintiff valued his share. See Velu Gounden v. Kumaravelu, 20 Mad. 289; Baganandan Rangia v. Baganandan Subramania Chetty, 9 M.L.T. 3: 21 M.L.J. 21: 8 Ind. Cas. 512: (1910) M.W.N. 755 F.B.; Gill v. Varadaragharayya, 43 Mad. 396: 38 M.L.J. 92: 1920 M.W.N. 124: 27 M.L.T. 146: 55 I.C. 517.

The value of the property in which plaintiff claims share and not the value of the plaintiff's share determines jurisdiction, Vyadinatha v. Subramanya, 8 Mad. 235; but section 3 of the Suits Valuation Act has altered that law, Velu Gounden v. Kumara Velu, 29 Mad. 289. See also Krishna Sami v. Kanakasabai, 14 Mad. 183: 1 M.L.J. 234; Chakrapani Asari v. Narasinga, Rau, 10 Mad. 56.

Oudh.—The valuation for jurisdiction is to be determined according to the plaintiff's share, Harbhandah v. Ladli Saran, 10 O.W.N. 1196: 146 I.C. 582: 1933 A.I.R. 547 (Oudh).

Patna High Court.—The Patna High Court held that the value of the suit was that of the share claimed by the plaintiff where the suit is one for declarations with consequential relief, Dukhi Singh v. Harihar Shah, 1921 Pat. C.W.N. 89 (92): 1 Pat.L.T. 595: 5 Pat.L.J. 540: 58 Ind. Cas. 236, but the value is to be the value of the entire property where the plaintiff is in possession and there is no dispute as to title, Ranjit v. Md. Quassim, 72 I.C. 916: 1923 A.I.R. 342 (P.): I.L.R. 2 Pat. 432: 4 Pat.L.T. 257.

As to valuation in other provinces see pages 83 and 84, supra, under s. 7 (iv) (b).

Re-partition.—The correct method of regarding the relief claimed in suits for partition of a joint family which has already been divided, is, that it is merely a prayer to change the form of enjoyment and can only be valued by deducting from the value of plaintiff's share as ascertained in the partition the value of the beneficial enjoyment as a co-parcener before partition. In such a case, therefore, it is impossible to estimate the money-value of the suit to which Art. 17B alone should be held to be applicable, Prathipati Suryanarayana v. Prathipati Seshayya and others, 1926 A.I.R. 122 (Mad.).

Pre-emption.—In the Punjab the value of the pre-emption suit for the purpose of jurisdiction is 30 times the proportionate amount of revenue recorded as payable for the holding in which the land in suit is comprised even though it be a specified plot by metes and bounds and not a definite share of the holding, Sheikh Arshad Ali v. Zorawar Singh, 92 I.C. 986: 8 L.L.J. 60: 27 Punj.L.R. 172: 1926 A.I.R. 346 (Lahore).

Possession.—The valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction of a suit for recovery of possession of land, not separately assessed with revenue and not a definite part or share of a revenue paying estate, must be made according to the market-value of the land, Gadavarty Sundoramman v. Godavarty Mangamma, 34 M.L.J. 558.

Possession of a house.—The value of a suit for possession of a house is the market value of the house as ascertained by the Court and not the value as stated by the plaintiff in the plaint, Sundar Das v. Musst. Umda Jan, 82 I.C. 614: I.L.R. 5 Lah. 481: 6 L.L.J. 355 F.R.

The valuation of a suit for possession of a house by ejecting the defendant is to be determined not upon the allegations as made in the written statement but upon allegations made in plaint, Musst. Barkatunnissa v. Musst. Kaniz Fatima, I.L.R. 5 Pat. 631: 98 I.C. 817: 1927 A.I.R. 140 (Patna).

Possession and mesne profits.—For valuation of suit for possession and mesne profits claimed depends on the value of the property sought to be recovered plus the amount of profits recoverable, Mohini Mohan Das v. Satis Chandra Ray, 17 Cal. 704.

Reversionary right.—The valuation of such contingent interest, not being one for possession or for present interests, is the valuation made in the plaint, Haidarkhan v. Ali Akbar, 18 P.R. 1897. If the widow is sued to set aside her alienations then the valuation is to be the market-value, Dhanabagiammal v. Mari Ammal, 1932 M.W.N. 780: 36 L.W. 483: 139 I.C. 471: 1932 A.I.R. 671 (Mad.).

If the reversioners sue to set aside a decree to which they are parties with the widow, the valuation is to be made at ten times the revenue payable. The High Court said: "when there is in the Act itself a special rule as to valuing the property in dispute as to court-fees, it is proper to take that method of valuation in preference to any other method to get the value when there is no indication that any other method should be adopted," D. Venkata Narasimha Raju v. D. Chandrayya and others, 53 M.L.J. 267: 26 L.W. 159: 30 M.L.T. 193: 105 Ind. Cas. 171: 1927 A.I.R. 825 (Madras).

5. (1) The Local Government shall before making rules under section 3, consult the High Court with respect thereto.

(2) A rule under that section shall not take effect till the expiration of one month after the rule has been published in the local official Gazette.

6. On and from the date on which rules under section 3 take effect in any part of the territories under the administration of the Governor of Fort Saint George in Council to which the Madras Civil Courts Act, 1873, extends, section 14 of that Act shall be repealed as regards that part of those territories.

NOTES.

Section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act (Act III of 1873) is as follows:—

"When the subject matter of any suit or proceeding is land, a house or garden, its value shall, for the purposes of the jurisdiction conferred by this Act, be fixed in manner provided by the Court Fees Act, 1870, section 7, clause 5."

In suits falling under section 7, paragraph (xi) of the Court Fees Act, the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and court-fees is the same. There is nothing to indicate that section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act should be read subject to the provisions of section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act. Vannavalli Seshaniri Row v. Narayanswami Naidu, 26 M.L.J. 573: 24 Ind. Cas. 374.

For valuation of suits to enforce registration of documents, see Ramakrishnauamma v. Bhagamma, 13 Mad. 56, where the Madras High Court held at page 59: "The object of the suit is to secure legal efficacy to the transaction evidenced by documents and simply a mode of proving them, and the value of the transaction must therefore be taken to be the value of the suit."

Pre-emption.—A suit to enforce a right of pre-emption is a suit whose subject-matter includes such rights relating to land as a right to pre-empt within the meaning of section 6 of the Suits Valuation Act and its proper valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction is, in accordance with section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, that fixed in the manner provided by the Court Fees Act, section 7, paragraph (iv), Narayanan Nair v. Cheria Kathiri Kutty, 41 Mad. 721: 34 M.L.J. 397: 45 I.C. 89.

PART II.

OTHER SUITS.

7. This Part extends to the whole of British India, and shall come into force on the first day of July, 1887.

Extent and commencement of Part II.

8. Where in suits other than those referred to in the Court Fees Act, 1870, section 7, paragraphs (v), (vi) and (ix), and paragraph (x), clause (d), court-fees are payable ad valorem under the Court Fees Act, 1870, the value as determinable for the computation of court-fees and the value for purposes of jurisdiction shall be the same.

Court-fee value and jurisdictional value to be the same in certain suits.

NOTES.

Application.—The provisions of sections 8 of the Court Fees Act (Act VII of 1870) shall apply to appellate Courts as well as to the Courts of lower denominations, and the value of the subject-matter of suits for the purposes of jurisdiction must be determined by the provisions of that section. Thus where the plaintiff valued the suit for the purposes of court-fees at a figure below Rs. 1,000, but valued it for the purposes of jurisdiction at Rs. 14,000, held that the appeal lay to the District Court and not to the High Court, Bai Barunda Lakshmi v. Bai Mane-gavri, 18 Bom. 207.

Suits for redemption are not covered by section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act. The valuation in such suits depends not on the amount secured but on the amount ultimately found to be due, Sarada Sundari v. Akramunnessa, 51 Cal. 737: 28 C.W.N. 710: 78 I.C. 747: 1924 A.I.R. 783 (Cal.).

When section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act comes into conflict with section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act (III of 1873), the former section shall prevail, The Official Assignee of Ramnad v. Arunachellam Chettiar, (1933) 57 Mad. 186.

Construction.—The right construction of section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act is that the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction should, in the cases mentioned here, follow and be the same as the valuation for the purpose of court-fees, Sailendra Nath Mitra v. Ram Chandra Pal, 34 C.L.J. 94: 25 C.W.N. 768: 66 Ind. Cas. 268.

Jurisdiction is determined by the valuation made by the plaintiff in a suit for declaration with consequential relief, The Official Trustee of Bengal v. Gobardhan Guchait, 33 C.W.N. 231: 118 I.C. 357.

The words "as determinable" in this section means as: determinable by the Court which has to try the case, Dayaram Jagjivan v. Gobordhandas Dayaram, 31 Bom. 73: 8 Bom.L.R. 885.

The valuation for court-fees determines the valuation for jurisdiction, Maung Myi Maung v. The Mandalay Municipal Committee, 12 Rangoon 335: 1934 A.I.R. 268.

Separate valuations.—The plaintiff is not entitled to put an arbitrary value for the purpose of jurisdiction and another value for the purpose of court-fees, Raj Krishna Dey v. Bepin Behary Dey, 40 Cal. 245; see also other cases under sec. 7 at pages 63 and 88, supra. Basanta Kumari v. Nalini Nath, 57 C.L.J. 465; Maung Po Nyun v. Daw Ngwe Bwint, 1933 A.I.R. 410 (Ran.), a case of separate valuation in appeal.

Valuation of suits.—Account suits.—Such suits fall under section 7 (iv) (f) of the Court Fees Act and the valuation for jurisdiction and court-fees are to be identical. Under Order 7, Rule 2, C. P. C. an approximate value of the amount claimed is to be given and court-fees to be paid on that value. This valuation determines the forum of appeal, Ijjatulla Bhuiya v. Chandramohan, 34 Cal. 954 F.B.: 11 C.W.N. 1133: 6 C.L.J. 225; Ishwarappa Manri v. Dhanji, 56 Bom. 23: 34 Bom.L.R. 55: 137 I.C. 702: 1932 A.I.R. 111 (Bom.), and the amount then finally investigated and additional court-fees to be given under section 11 of the Court Fees Act. See cases noted under that section, Bai Varunda Lakshmi v. Bai Manegavri, 16 Bom. 207; Bai Amba v. Pranjivandas, 19 Bom. 198; Bhagvantrao v. Mehra Bajurao, 18 Bom. 40; Raja Babu v. Gauri Lal, 9 P.L.T. 726: 109 I.C. 895: 1928 A.I.R. 535 (Pat.).

Administration suits are suits for accounts and consequently the plaintiff need only make an approximate valuation, Sashibhusan Bose v. Manindra Chandra Nandy, 44 Cal. 390: 21 C.W.N. 310: 24 C.L.J. 448; Khatija v. Sheikh Adam, 39 Bom. 545: 17 Bom.L.R. 574: 29 I.C. 949; Ma Thin On v. Ma Ngwe.

Hmon, 12 Rangoon 512, other cases supra under sec. 7 (iv) (f) of the Court Fees Act.

Adoption.—In a suit to set aside an adoption, the valuation by the plaintiff of the relief claimed determines the forum of the Court, Prohlad Chandra Das v. Dwarka Nath Ghose, 37 Cal. 860: 14 C.W.N. 929: 6 Ind. Cas. 636. The valuation for jurisdiction is (a) according to Madras High Court, the value of the property at stake, Keshava v. Lakshmi Narayan, 6 Mad. 192, (b) according to Allahabad High Court, according to the valuation put by the plaintiff, Sheodheni v. Tulshi Ram, 15 All. 378: (1893) All.W.N. 147. The Bombay High Court has followed the Allahabad High Court, Bai Machhbai v. Bai Hirabai, 35 Bom. 264: 13 Bom.L.R. 251: 10 Ind. Cas. 816.

A suit for declaration as to the factum and validity of an adoption which may directly or indirectly affect title to land, is not a suit for land within the meaning of sec. 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, of 1873 as amended by the Act of 1916 and is governed by sec. 12 thereof, by which the value of the subject-matter of the suit determines the forum for purposes of jurisdiction. The subject-matter of the suit being the factum and validity of the adoption, its value is the real market value of the land affected and not the notional value calculated under the Court Fees Act.

The general principle deducible for valuation for purposes of jurisdiction where no special method of valuation has been provided by statute are (1) that where the subject-matter of a suit is wholly unrelated to anything which can be readily stated in definite money terms, the plaintiff having to put some money value for the purpose of jurisdiction, must put more or less arbitrary value, and if there are no factors in the case from which the Court can say that the valuation by the plaintiff is wrong or dishonest, the Court will accept the valuation, and (2) that where the subject-matter is so related to things which have a real money value that the relief asked for will affect these, the value of the suit for the purposes of jurisdiction is to be taken as the market value of the property affected, Vasireddy Veeramma v. Merupudi Butchiah, 52 M.L.J. 381: 101 I.C. 379: 1927 A.I.R. 563 (Mad.): 50 Mad. 646: 25 L.W. 440.

Attachment.—A suit for declaration that the property is not liable to attachment and sale in execution of a decree, is to be valued at the amount for which the decree is to be executed when the value of the property exceeds the value of the decree, Anandi Kunwar v. Ram Nirayan Das, 40 All. 505: 16 A.L.J. 374: 45 I.C. 494, but see Amir Nawab v. Musst. Wajda Begum, 103 I.C. 819: 1927 A.I.R. 289 (Patna); Mool Chand Moti Lal v. Ram Kishen, 55 All. 315: 1933 A.L.J. 222: 143 I.C. 275: 1933

A.I.R. 249 (All.) ; Daw Dat v. Dwa Kwi, 137 I.C. 54: 1932 A.I.R. 20 (Ran.).

Award.—A suit to set aside an award is to be valued at the actual value of the subject-matter of the suit, i.e., according to the value of the liability which the plaintiff wishes to get rid of and an arbitrary value should not be given, Venkata Challam Pillai v. P. U. Srinivasa Aiyar, 75 Ind. Cas. 115: (1924) A.I.R. 84 (Madras): 1923 M.W.N. 747: 18 L.W. 399.

Under the Code of 1908, the value depends on the thing awarded rather than on the matter originally in dispute, (in case of an award without the intervention of Court). The Act of 1908 has changed the language used in the Code of 1882, Mohesh Chandra Koondoo v. Amar Chandra Koondoo, 18 C.W.N. 867.

Bond.—Suits based on a bond whether registered or un-registered are suits for money and the valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction and court-fees are the same, as these suits fall under section 7, paragraph 1, i.e., on the amount in claim.

Cancellation of a bond.—The valuation of suits for cancellation of a bond which is admitted by the plaintiff to be for a portion of the consideration under a mistaken belief that the bond was for the amount admitted in plaint, is to be valued at the difference in the amount admitted and the amount stated in the bond, Kali Charan Rai v. Ajudia Rai, 2 All. 148; Narain Putter v. Aya Putter, 7 Mad. H. C. 372; and the valuation must be with reference to principal amount and not the principal amount plus interests, Gulab Rai v. Mangli Lal, 6 All. 71.

All cancellation of documents falls under section 7 (iv) (c) of the Court Fees Act, hence the valuation for the purposes of court-fees and for the purpose of jurisdiction are the same. The plaintiff in a suit for cancellation of a deed of sale and setting aside a sale and for possession, can put his own valuation, Param and others v. Achal, 4 All. 289; Maung Noe v. Maung Kha Pu, 142 I.C. 705: 1933 A.I.R. 40 (Rang.).

Conjugal rights.—In suits for restitution of conjugal rights the valuation is the valuation of the plaintiff, Jan Mohammed Mandal v. Masher Bibee, 34 Cal. 352: 5 C.L.J. 400: 11 C.W.N. 458; Zaer Hussain Khan v. Khurshed Jan, 28 All. 545: 3 All. L.J. 266: (1906) 26 All.W.N. 99.

The valuation in the plaint is to be accepted unless made with an improper motive, or deliberately for the purpose of giving the Court jurisdiction which it otherwise would not have, Jasoda Chhotu v. Chhotu Mannu, 11 Bom.L.R. 1352: 4 Ind. Cas. 836. See other cases under sec. 7 (iv) (c), supra, page 132.

Customary right.—A suit for division and re-distribution of village lands according to custom, need only be valued according to the share of the plaintiff, Venkataswami v. Subba Rau, 2 Mad. H.C.R. 1.

Damages.—The valuation of suits for damages claimed, for the purposes of jurisdiction must be according to amount claimed and not the amount which might eventually be found due, Joy Doorga Dossee v. Manick Chand Baboo, 16 W.R. 248.

Declaration.—To set aside decrees.—The valuation of a suit for the purposes of jurisdiction to set aside a decree, obtained against the interest of the plaintiff, should ordinarily be valued at the amount of the decree, Umatul Batul v. Nauji Koer, 11 C.W.N. 105: 6 C.L.J. 427; Thakur Prosad v. Pankhal Singh, 8 C.L.J. 485. But where the amount decreed and the value of the property in dispute are not identical, then the lower of the two values is the value of the suit. The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council said: "The value of the action means the value to the plaintiff. But the value of the property might well be Rs. 1,000 while the execution debt Rs. 10,000. It is only when the execution debt is less than the value of the property that its amount affects the value of the suit," Bibi Phul Kumari v. Ghanshyam Misser, 35 Cal. 202: 12 C.W.N. 169: 7 C.L.J. 36 P.C.

The fee payable on the plaint as well as on the memorandum of appeal is a fixed sum, therefore the value of the subject-matter must be the market value thereof, Amir Nawab v. Musst. Wajda Begum, 103 I.C. 819: 1927 A.I.R. 289 (Patna).

Suits for simple declaration.—The value of a suit for declaration is the value of the property in respect of which the declaration is asked for, Mohini Mohan Misser v. Gour Chandra Rai, 5 Pat.L.J. 397: 1 P.L.T. 390: 56 Ind. Cas. 762: 1921 Pat. C.W.N. 105, but see Ganapati v. Chattu, 12 Mad. 223 where it was held that the value would be as if the suit was one for possession, Badam Suryanarayana v. Yalla Bullayya, 101 I.C. 85: 1927 A.I.R. 568 (Mad.): 52 M.L.J. 323: 25 L.W. 367.

Declaration of title to land.—The valuation for suits for the purposes of jurisdiction to declare title to four paid offices in a temple, should be the value of all the four offices, Sundara v. Subha, 10 Mad. 371.

With Consequential relief.—The value put by the plaintiff is to be taken as the proper value unless it appears that value so put was arbitrary and is inconsistent with the value of the relief sought and circumstances which subsequently influence the judgment of the Court are not to be looked at, Rajabala Dassi v. Radhika Charan Ray, 40 C.L.J. 150; and other cases under sec. 7 (iv) (c), Court Fees Act, supra, pages 63 to 66.

Doorway.—The valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction of a suit to close a doorway is to be calculated upon the selling price of the house before and after the door was opened, Mula Mal v. Gurdial, 5 P.R. 1887.

Injunction.—Declaration and injunction.—The Court must accept the value of the relief as stated in the plaint for the purpose both of court-fees and jurisdiction, Vacchani Keshalhai Balibhai v. Vacchani Naubha Bawaji, 33 Bom. 307: 11 Bom.L.R. 90: 4 Ind. Cas. 108; Hari Sunker Dutt v. Kali Kumar Patra, 32 Cal. 734: 9 C.W.N. 690; except where under section 3 of the Suits Valuation Act the valuation is determined by the rules framed under the section, Barru v. Lachhman, 103 P.R. 1913: 23 P.L.R. 1913: 228 P.W.R. 1913: 22 Ind. Cas. 503. But the value must be reasonable value, Umatul Batul v. Nauji Koer, 11 C.W.N. 705: 6 C.L.J. 427.

The plaintiff valued his suit for injunction at Rs. 110 for the purpose of court-fees and at Rs. 4,000 for the purpose of jurisdiction and paid court-fees on Rs. 110 only. The suit was dismissed and pleader's fees were assessed on Rs. 4,000; held, by the Punjab High Court that the valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction and for court-fees being the same the Court below should have asked the plaintiff to re-state the value and awarded pleader's fees accordingly, Amir Chand v. Hakim Ali, 69 Ind. Cas. 577: 1924 A.I.R. (Lahore) 364; Jhanda Singh v. Bhagwan Dass, 33 P.L.R. 488: 137 I.C. 240; Ghulam Haidar v. Bishamber Das, 33 P.L.R. 458: 140 I.C. 73; Gurudwara Mahant Jwala Singh v. Kala Singh, 32 P.L.R. 193: 133 I.C. 120: 1931 A.I.R. 307 (Lah.).

In a suit for injunction it is unnecessary for the plaintiff to fix any value for purposes of jurisdiction, as under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act the valuation for the purpose of court-fees and valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction are identical, Govinda Krishna Sathe v. Hanmaya Lingaya Fulmali, 45 Bom. 567: 22 Bom.L.R. 1450: 63 Ind. Cas. 777; Janki Sahay v. Lal Behari Lal, 1926 Pat. C.W.N. 102: 1926 A.I.R. 334 (Patna): 94 I.C. 103; Bachhan v. The Municipal Board of Mirzapore, 94 I.C. 951: 24 A.L.J. 478: 48 All. 412: 1926 A.I.R. 423 (Allahabad); Official Receiver of Ramnad v. Arunachalam Chettiar, 1933 M.W.N. 998: 38 L.W. 447: 65 M.L.J. 420: 1933 A.I.R. 721 (Mad.). See also Maung Myi Maung v. Mandalay Municipal Committee, 12 Ran. 335: 1934 A.I.R. 268 (Ran.) where the valuation for injunction was not made.

Kobalas.—Declaration of title to land on setting aside kobalas.—The valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction of suits to declare title of the plaintiff to lands on setting aside certain kobalas illegally executed by the father of the plaintiff need not be valued at the total value of the kobalas, Sheogolam Singh v. Bejoyram Protap Singh, W.R. S. N. 317.

The valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction of a suit to set aside a kobala by which the estate was illegally alienated, need not be according to value stated in the kobala, Angopura Chowdhury v. Meah Bibee, 10 W.R. 207.

Landlord and tenant.—In a suit to obtain lease on declaration of mourasi and mokarari title to the land at an annual rental of Rs. 71, it was held that the suit falls under section 7 paragraph (x) (c) of the Court Fees Act and under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act and the suit should be valued at Rs. 71 for the purposes of jurisdiction and court-fees and the suit ought to be filed in Munsiff's Court, Port Canning and Land Improvement Co. Ltd. v. Rosonali, 17 C.W.N. 160: 13 Ind. Cas. 46.

Under section 7, paragraph (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act a suit by the landlord against a tenant including holding over is to be valued according to the amount of rent payable for the year next before the year of suit. The valuation for court-fees will be the value for jurisdiction under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, Ram Chand v. Ram Sukh Das, 27 P.R. 1910: 30 P.W.R. 1910: 5 Ind. Cas. 910.

A suit by a landlord for a declaration that a tenant is not entitled to permanent rights of occupancy, should be valued as one for possession under sec. 7 (xi) (cc) of the Court Fees Act at one year's rent and not at the market-value of the land, Badam Suryanarayana v. Yalla Bullayya, 101 I.C. 85: 1927 A.I.R. 568 (Madras): 52 M.L.J. 323: 25 L.W. 367.

In a suit under either sec. 44 or sec. 84 of the Agra Tenancy Act, the valuation for court-fees should be the amount of rent payable in the next preceding year and valuation for jurisdiction should follow that valuation, Raghunath Ram v. Sitaj Lal, 1934 A.L.J. 708: 152 I.C. 115: 1934 A.I.R. 825 (All.).

Mortgage.—A suit to recover money advanced on a mortgage with interest is to be valued both for court-fees and for jurisdiction at the amount in claim, Sailendra Kumar v. Hari Charan, 58 Cal. 829: 52 C.L.J. 589: 130 I.C. 876: 1931 A.I.R. 159 (Cal.).

Partition.—The plaintiff, in a suit for partition alleging that he is in joint possession with the defendant of the properties which are subject-matter of partition, sues under sec. 7 (iv) (b) of the Court Fees Act applicable to such suit. Section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act applies to such suits for partition as are not also suits for possession, Chelaswamy Romiah v. Chalaswamy Ramasamy, 1912 Mad.W.N. 199: 13 Ind. Cas. 903. But see Beni Madhab v. Gobind Chandra, 22 C.W.N. 669. See cases under section 4, Suits Valuation Act, supra, and also under sec. 7 (iv) (b) of the Court Fees Act.

Partnership.—In a suit by different partners for specific sums of money on adjustment of accounts or in the alternative for such other amounts as may be found due on adjustment of accounts after dissolution of partnership, the court-fee is payable ad valorem under section 7, para (iv) (f) of the Court Fees Act and the value for the purposes of jurisdiction under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act is the same as that for the computation of court-fees, i.e., the amount at which the relief sought is valued, Dhani Ram Saha v. Bhagirath Saha, 22 Cal. 692 (708); Ladubhai v. Revichand, 6 Bom. 143; Mohan Lal v. Nihal Chand, 152 I.C. 608: 1935 A.I.R. 40 (Lah.). See other cases under sec. 7 (iv) (f) of the Court Fees Act, supra.

Registration of documents—suits to enforce.—In such suits the valuation would be according to the valuation made by the plaintiff. The court-fee payable is Rs. 10 only, but if there be a further question whether the plaintiff was a minor when he executed the deed, the court-fees payable are ad valorem and the valuation would be the same for court-fees and for jurisdiction.

The above was the opinion of the author expressed in previous editions of this book. The Calcutta High Court in Golam Rahaman Mondal v. Sm. Sabekjan Bibi, 30 C.W.N. 951 held that the plaintiff in a suit under section 77 of the Indian Registration Act for the registration of a conveyance, is entitled to put his own valuation on the suit as the suit is not with regard to any land or interest in land to be conveyed by the document.

The Madras High Court held that the valuation is to be made at the value of the land expressed in the instrument, Ramakrishnamma v. Bhagamma, 15 Mad. 56; Ramu Aiyar v. Sankara Aiyar, 31 Mad. 89.

Religious worship.—In a suit to obtain an injunction that the defendants should not restrain the plaintiffs from saying prayers in a certain mosque and setting up their own Imam to lead the prayers of their congregation and from performing other rituals connected with the divine service, held that the value for the purposes of court-fees is the value for the purposes of jurisdiction, Umar Din v. Abdulla, 43 P.L.R. 1903.

Rent—Enhancement of.—The plaintiff cannot put one valuation for the purpose of court-fees and another for jurisdiction, Dhatuiri Singh v. Kedar Nath Goenka, 8 P.L.T. 475.

Rent and injunction.—Where the plaintiff brought a suit for recovery of arrears of rent and injunction on certain other persons from disputing his title as landlord, the suit is based upon two causes of action and falls under para. (i) and para. (iv) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act. Therefore the valuation for the purpose of court-fees and valuation for jurisdiction is the same under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, Parumal v. Motumal, 6 Sind.L.R. 115: 17 Ind. Cas. 44.

Sale of joint family property.—A suit to prevent sale of joint family property in execution of a decree against a member of the family, is to be valued at the value of the property of which the sale is sought to be stopped or the value of the decree sought to be executed, whichever is smaller, Munshi Mahton and others v. Lachman Lal, 10 P.L.T. 545: 120 I.C. 765: 1929 A.I.R. 615 (Patna).

Specific performance.—In suits for specific performance the method of valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction is first to value the suit for the purpose of court-fees under section 7, para. (x) (c) of the Court Fees Act and then to adopt that valuation as valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction, Sailendra Nath Mitra v. Ram Chand Pal, 34 C.L.J. 94: 25 C.W.N. 768: 66 Ind. Cas. 268.

Set-off.—There is an important difference between the method of valuation for the purpose of jurisdiction permissible in the case of a claim for a money-decree made in a plaint and the method of valuation for purposes of jurisdiction permissible in the case of a set-off pleaded by a defendant in his written statement.

Section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, is ordinarily the provision regulating the valuation of a plaint in a suit for the purpose of jurisdiction; and when that provision is read with the provisions of the Court Fees Act, 1870, the valuation of a plaint in which a money decree is claimed is based on the actual sum claimed after allowing for deductions, such as expressed: Set-off in the plaint..... The provisions of the Court Fees Act applies to the case of a set-off, D. S. Abraham & Co. v. Ebrahim Gorabhai, 1925 A.I.R. 65 (Rangoon): 2 Ran. 462: 84 I.C. 971.

Tarwad, membership of.—The value of a suit for a declaration that certain persons are or are not members of a tarwad is the value of the share of the tarwad property which would be allotted to them if a partition were made by common consent, Panga v. Unnikutti, 24 Mad. 275.

9. When the subject-matter of suits of any class other than suits mentioned in the Courts Fees Act, 1870, section 7, paragraphs (v) and (vi), and paragraph (x), clause (d), is such that in the opinion of the High Court it does not admit of being satisfactorily valued, the High Court may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, direct that suits of that class shall, for the purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870, and of this Act and any other enactment for the time being in force, be treated as if their subject-matter were of such value as the High Court thinks fit to specify in this behalf.

NOTES.

Rules have been framed in accordance with this section by the High Court of Madras, the Chief Court (at present a High Court) of Punjab and the Judicial Commissioners of Central Provinces and the Chief Court of Oudh.

The Madras High Court Rules are dated 26th February 1903 and are published in the "Fort St. George Gazette", dated 3rd March, 1903, Part II, p. 368.

For the Punjab Chief Court Rules, see Rules and Orders under the Special Act, Vol. III, p. 90, No. 14. According to these Rules suits for restitution of conjugal rights are to be valued at Rs. 1,000, Nathu v. Chuhri, 20 P.L.R. 1919: 52 I.C. 101.

For the Oudh Rules, see Notification No. 779, dated the 18th June 1889, by the Judicial Commissioner of Oudh and Notification No. 2464, dated the 21st December 1896, N. W. P. and Oudh Gazette, dated the 4th January 1899, Part II, p. 2, etc.

For the Central Provinces Rules, see Notification No. 3240, dated 28th June, 1888, C. P. Gazette, Pt. II, p. 140.

Scope.—The value prescribed in the rules have been prescribed not only for the purpose of jurisdiction but also for court-fees, Amdu and others v. Pessi, 1929 A.I.R. 20 (Nag.).

LAHORE HIGH COURT RULES

Manner of determining the value of suits for purposes of Jurisdiction.

Rules made by the High Court, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, under the powers conferred by section 9 of the Suits Valuation Act, VII of 1887, and all other powers in that behalf, for determining the value of the subject-matter of certain classes of suits, for the purposes of jurisdiction, which do not admit of being satisfactorily valued, and for the treatment of such classes of suits, as if their subject-matter were of the value as hereinafter stated.

RULES.

1. (i) Suits in which the plaintiff in the plaint asks for a decree against the other party to the alleged marriage, either alone, or with other defendants, for restitution of conjugal rights;

(ii) Similar suits for a decree establishing, or annulling or dissolving a marriage;

(iii) Suits in which the plaintiff in the plaint asks for a decree establishing a right to the custody or guardianship of a minor, including guardianship for the purposes of marriage;

(iv) Suits in which the plaintiff in the plaint asks for a decree establishing or annulling an adoption, including under the expression "adoption" the customary appointment of an heir;

(a) For the purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870, suits of classes (i) with the exception noted below (ii), (iii) and (iv), Rs. 200.

(b) For the purposes of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, and the Punjab Courts Act, 1918, as amended, suits of classes (i), and (ii)—Rs. 1,000; suits of classes (iii) and (iv)—such sum exceeding Rs. 500 and not exceeding Rs. 1,000 as the plaintiff shall state in the plaint.

Explanation 1.—Classes (i) and (ii) do not include petitions under any special Act relating to the dissolution of marriage.

Explanation 2.—Class (iii) does not include proceedings under Act IX of 1861 (repealed by Act VIII of 1890) or Act XIII of 1874.

2. Suits by a plaintiff, during the life-time of a person alleged to have a restricted power of alienation in respect of immovable property, in which the plaintiff in the plaint seeks to have an alienation of immovable property made by such person declared to be void except for the life of such person or for some other determinate period.

Value.—(a) For the purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870, as determined by that Act.

(b) For the purposes of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, and the Punjab Courts Act, 1918 (as amended).

(i) when the alienation is by a written instrument which declares the value of the interest purporting to be created, or the amount of the consideration for which the alienation is made—such value or amount.

(ii) in other cases—the market-value, at the date of institution of the suit, of the property alienated; subject in either case to the provisions of Part I of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, and of the rules in force under the said part, so far as those provisions are applicable.

3. Suits in which the plaintiff in the plaint asks for accounts only, not being suits to recover the amount which may be found due to the plaintiff on taking unsettled accounts between him and the defendant, or suits of either of the kinds described in Order XX, Rule 13 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Value.—(a) For the purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870,—as determined by that Act.

(b) For the purposes of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, and the Punjab Courts Act, 1918 (as amended),—such amount exceeding Rs. 100 and not exceeding Rs. 500, as the plaintiff may state in the plaint.

4. Suits in which the plaintiff in the plaint seeks to establish or to negative any right hereinafter mentioned, with or without an injunction, and with or without damages, namely;—a right of way; a right to open or maintain or close a door or a window, or a drain or a water-shoot (parnala); a right to or in a water course or to the use of water; a right to build, or raise or alter or demolish a wall, or to use an alleged party-wall or joint staircase,—

Value.—(a) For the purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870, as determined by that Act.

(b) For the purposes of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, and the Punjab Courts Act, 1918 (as amended),—

(i) if damages are not claimed, such amount exceeding Rs. 100, and not exceeding Rs. 500, as the plaintiff may state in the plaint:—

See Munshi Ram v. Ram Saran, 1934 A.I.R. 796 (Lah.) for valuation of a suit to demolish a wall.

(ii) if damages are claimed,—the amount of such damage increased by Rs. 100.

5. Suits in which the plaintiff in the plaint seeks to set aside an award, and applications registered as suits under the provisions of Schedule II, paragraphs 17 and 18, of the Code of Civil Procedure (to file an agreement to refer to arbitration), or of Schedule II, paragraph 19, of the said Code (to file an award), when or so far as the award or the agreement relates to property;—

Value.—(a) For the purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870 as determined by that Act.

(b) For the purposes of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887 and the Punjab Courts Act, 1918 (as amended),— the market value of the property in dispute, subject to the provisions of Part I of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, and of the rules in force under the said Part, so far as those provisions are applicable.

6. The foregoing rules are subject to the following explanations;—

(i) the term “plaint” includes an amended as well as original plaint;

(ii) a suit falling within any of the above descriptions is not excluded therefrom merely by reason of the plaintiff seeking other relief in addition to that described in any of the foregoing rules.

MADRAS HIGH COURT RULES.

RULES UNDER THE COURT FEES ACT, VII OF 1870 AND THE SUITS VALUATION ACT, 1887.

1. Computation of fees payable.

(1) In a suit to recover lands in which there are wells, the valuation for the purposes of the suit should be based on the value of the lands only and the wells should not be separately valued.

(2) If an appeal is preferred by a plaintiff, the stamp fee will ordinarily be calculated on the claim or portion of the claim disallowed by the lower Court. If an appeal is preferred by a defendant, the stamp fee will ordinarily be calculated on the amount adjudged by the lower Court, provided that the parties are at liberty to relinquish a portion of their claim on expressing their intention of so doing in the memorandum of appeal.

(3) The fee chargeable on appeals from orders under clause (c) of s. 244 of the Code of Civil Procedure of 1882 (i.e., s. 47 of the Code of 1908) shall be limited to the amount chargeable under Art. 11 of the Second Schedule to the Court Fees Act, 1870.

(4) Valuation of certain classes of suits under the Malabar Law.—Whereas the High Court is of opinion that the subject-matter of certain suits comprised in the classes of suits mentioned in clauses (b) and (c) of paragraph (iv) of section 7 of the Court Fees Act, 1870, viz., suits for the removal of a karnavan or ejaman or for the enforcement of a right as karnavan, ejaman or member of a tarwad governed by Marumakkattayam or Alyasantana system of law or of a Nambudri illom, does not admit of being satisfactorily valued, and whereas by an order in Council, dated the 24th day of January, 1903, and numbered 86, Judicial, His Excellency the Governor of Fort St. George in Council has sanctioned the following rules for determining the value of the subject-matter of such suits, the High Court under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon it by s. 9 of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, and all other powers thereunto enabling hereby directs and orders that for purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870, and the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, the value of the subject-matter of all such suits and appeals in such suits, instituted or presented on or after the 1st day of March, 1903, shall be determined according to the following rules:—

- (i) The subject-matter of a suit for the removal of a karnavan or ejaman or for the enforcement of a person's right as karnavan or ejaman of a tarwad governed by the Marumakkattayam or Alyasantana system of land or of a Nambudri illom, shall, for the purpose of the Court Fees Act, 1870 and the Suits Valuation Act, 1867, be valued at one-third of the amount at which the same would be valued under the provisions of the Court Fees Act, 1870, if the suit were one brought by a stranger for the recovery of the whole property—movable and immovable—possessed by the tarwad or illom to which the suit relates.

- (ii) The subject-matter of a suit for the enforcement of a person's right as member of a tarwad governed by Marumakkattayam or Alyasantana system of law or of a Nambudri illom, shall, for the purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870, and the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, be valued at the amount at which, if the whole of the tarwad or illom property were by the consent of all equally divided among all the members (including the plaintiff) of the tarwad or illom, the plaintiff's share would be valued, with reference to the valuation of the suit under the Court Fees Act, 1870, if the suit were one brought by a stranger for the recovery of the whole property—movable and immovable—possessed by the tarwad or illom.
- (iii) In all such suits, the plaintiff or appellant shall state in the plaint or memorandum of appeal, as the case may be, the amount at which he values the entire property of the tarwad or illom and such valuation, unless the Court has reason to believe the valuation is not made bona fide, shall be accepted by the Court.

NAGPORE COURT.

JUDICIAL COMMISSIONER'S CIVIL CIRCULAR

PART II—8, PAGE 15.

VALUATION OF SUITS.

1. Under section 9 of the Suits Valuation Act 1887 and under the same section of the said Act as applied to Berar, the Judicial Commissioner with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner directs that suits of the following classes shall for the purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870, the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, the Central Provinces Courts Act, 1904 and the Berar Courts Law, 1905, be treated as if the subject-matter of such suits were of the value of Rs. 400:—

- (1) Suits for the restitution of conjugal rights, for declaration of the validity of marriage, or for a divorce.
- (2) Suits for the custody or guardianship of a minor.
- (3) Suits for a declaration that an adoption is valid or invalid.

Provided that if a suit for declaration that an adoption is valid or invalid affects a title to property, then the value of that property, if it exceeds Rs. 400, shall be deemed to be the value of the subject-matter of the suit.

2. In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Suits Valuation Act, VII of 1887, as applied to the Hyderabad Assigned Districts and with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, the Resident is pleased to make the following rules for determining the value of land for the purpose of jurisdiction.

I. In suits for the possession of land (mentioned in section 7, paragraph v, of the Court Fees Act VII of 1870) the value of the land for the purpose of jurisdiction shall be deemed to be as follows:

- (1) When the land is held on Settlement for a period not exceeding 30 years and pays the full assessment to the Government a sum equal to ten (twelve half by amendment No. 19, dated 19-7-1924) times the survey assessment.
- (2) When the land is held on permanent Settlement for any period exceeding 30 years and pays the full assessment to the Government, a sum equal to twenty times the survey assessment.

- (3) When the whole or any part of the annual survey assessment is remitted, a sum computed under paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of this rule, as the case may be, in addition to 20 times the assessment or the portion of assessment so remitted.

- (4) In other cases, the market value of the land.

II. Where the land falls partly under one and partly under another of the classes mentioned or referred to in Rule I the value of the land in each class shall be separately calculated.

III. In suits to enforce a right of pre-emption in regard to land (mentioned in section 7, paragraph vi of the Court Fees Act VII of 1870) the value of the land shall be computed in accordance with Rule 1.

IV. In suits for specific performance of an award in regard to land (mentioned in section 7, paragraph X, clause (d) of the Court Fees Act VII of 1870) the value of the land shall be computed in accordance with Rule 1.

3. Numerous cases have come under notice in which suits for an injunction, for an easement, or for an account have been treated as suits of which it was not possible to estimate the money value.

Under section 7, clause (iv) (d) to (f) of the Court Fees Act the plaintiff must in all such cases state the amount at which he values the relief sought and the plaint must be stamped in accordance with that valuation.

4. The effect of section 7, clause VIII of the Court Fees Act, is apt to be misunderstood. It seems to apply only to cases when the plaintiff has not petitioned the Court which ordered the attachment, but has proceeded at once to file a regular suit. When an attachment has been petitioned against the executing Court, and the petition has either been allowed or disallowed and a suit has been filed by the unsuccessful party under Rule 63, Order 21 of the Code of Civil Procedure, such suit is one for a declaratory decree and the plaint should therefore bear a stamp of ten rupees in respect of the declaration or each of the declarations sought for.

5. It must be borne in mind that when two or more reliefs are asked for in the same suit, a separate court-fee should be charged in respect of each relief. •

6. It is expected that careful attention will be paid to the question of court-fees. The stamp on all plaints should be examined, and Courts should satisfy themselves that the right fee has been levied in each case.

7. The following rule for determining the value of land in Central Provinces for purpose of jurisdiction in the suits mentioned in the Court Fees Act, 1870, section 7, paragraph (v) (b) has been made by Local Government in exercise of the power conferred by section 3 of the Suits Valuation Act VII of 1887:

In suits for possession of land mentioned in section 7, paragraph (v) (b) of the Court Fees Act, 1870, the value of land for the purpose of jurisdiction shall be deemed to be as follows:

Where the land forms an entire estate or a definite share of an estate, paying annual revenue to Government or where the land forms part of such estate and is recorded as aforesaid and such revenue is settled, but not permanently $12\frac{1}{2}$ times the revenue so payable.

8. In all cases in which pleaders' fee are to be calculated upon a value other than the value as determined for the computation of Court Fees a note to this effect should be made at the end of the judgment. In the absence of such note all Muharris attached to Civil Courts who are entrusted with the drawing up of decrees are strictly prohibited from calculating pleaders' fee otherwise than on the value as determined for the computation of court-fees.

In suits by a mortgagee, to foreclose the mortgage, no note need be recorded. The pleaders' fee should be calculated on the sum claimed in the plaint as due under the mortgage.

ODDH CHIEF COURT RULES

In supersession of notification No. 779, dated June 18, 1889, the Chief Court with the previous sanction of the Government, hereby under s. 9 of the Suits Valuation Act, directs that the following classes of suits shall be treated for the purpose of the Court Fees Act, 1870, and of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, as if their subject-matter were of the value hereinafter stated:—

- I. (i) Suits in which the plaintiff sues the other party to an alleged marriage, either alone or with other defendants, for restitution of conjugal right Value Rs. 100.
- (ii) Similar suits to establish, annul or dissolve a marriage Value Rs. 200.
- (iii) Suits to establish a right to the custody or guardianship (including guardianship for the purpose of marriage) of a minor Value Rs. 200.

(iv) Suits to establish or annul an adoption or appointment by customary right of an heir . . . Value Rs. 400.

Value

- (a) For the purposes of the Court Fees Act, suits of class (i), Rs. 100.
suits of classes (ii) and (iii), Rs. 200.
suits of class (iv), Rs. 400.

(b) For the purpose of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, such sum exceeding Rs. 500 and not exceeding Rs. 2,000 as the plaintiff shall specify in the plaint.

Explanation.

(1) Classes (i) and (ii) do not include petitions under any special Act relating to the dissolution of marriage.

(2) Class (iii) does not include proceedings under the Guardians and Wards Act (VIII of 1890).

II. Suits for declaration that an alienation of immovable property made by a person alleged to have only a restricted power of alienation becomes void on such person's death or after some other determinate period.

Value

(a) For the purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870, as determined by that Act;

(b) For the purposes of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887.

(1) When the alienation is by a written instrument which declares the value of the interest purporting to be created, or the amount of the consideration for which the alienation is made, such value or amount;

(2) In other cases, the market-value at the date of institution of the suit of the property alienated, subject in either case to the provisions of Part I of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, and of the rules in force under the said part, so far as those provisions are applicable.

Explanation.—When the property alienated is a right of occupancy in land, the value shall be deemed to be half the value of the land discharged from such right of occupancy.

III. Suits for account only, not being suits for such amount as may be found due on liquidation of accounts, and suits for account and administration as described in Ord. XX, R. 13 of the Code of Civil Procedure:

Value

(a) For the purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870, as determined by that Act;

(b) For the purposes of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, such amount exceeding Rs. 100 and not exceeding Rs. 500, as the plaintiff may state in the plaint.

IV. Suits for declaration (whether or not an injunction or damages be also claimed) that any of the following rights exists or does not exist, namely—

- a right of way,
- a right to open or maintain or close a door or window or a drain or a watershoot (parnala);
- a right to or in a water course or to use of water;
- a right to build, to raise or alter or demolish a wall or to use an alleged party-wall or joint-staircase.

Value

(a) For the purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870, as determined by that Act;

(b) For the purposes of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887.

(1) if damages are not claimed, such amount exceeding Rs. 100 and not exceeding Rs. 500, as the plaintiff may state in the plaint,

(2) if damages are claimed, the amount of such damages increased by Rs. 100.

V. Suits in which the plaintiff in the plaint seeks to set aside an award, and applications to file in Court an agreement to refer to arbitration or in award in a matter referred to arbitration without the intervention of a Court under paragraphs 17 and 20 of the second Schedule of the Code of Civil Procedure, when or in so far as the award or the agreement relates to property:—

Value

(a) For the purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870, as determined by that Act;

(b) For the purposes of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, the market value of the property in dispute, subject to the provisions of Part I of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, and of the rules in force under the said Part, so far as those provisions are applicable.

VI. The foregoing rules are subject to the following explanation:—

Subject to Rule III, a suit falling within any of the above descriptions shall not be deemed to be excluded therefrom merely by reason of the plaint seeking other relief in addition to that described in any of the foregoing rules.

Valuation of suits.—In cases where the rules made by the Chief Court under sec. 9, Act VII of 1887 (see the preceding rule), modify the provisions of the Court Fees Act VII of 1870, the former must be followed. These cases are given below:—

Oudh Rules.

- (i) For establishing, annulling, or dissolving a marriage,
Rs. 200=Rs. 15.
- (ii) For custody or guardianship of a minor,
Rs. 200=Rs. 15.
- (iii) For annulling an adoption,
Rs. 400=Rs. 30.

Court Fees Act.

- Schedule II, Art. 17, v.
where it is not possible to estimate at a money-value the subject-matter in dispute, Rs. 10.
As above Rs. 10.
- Schedule II, Art. 17, v.
To set aside an adoption,
Rs. 10.

Effect of the Rules.—It is not within the jurisdiction of the Law Courts to consider as to whether in case of particular class of suits the High Court and the Local Government exercised their discretion wisely in raising the fixed court-fees by framing the rules under section 9 of the Suits Valuation Act and whether or not in a suit of the present class a court-fee ad valorem on the property is a reasonable fee. The rules as they stand have the force of law. The C. P. Gazette Notification, dated 8th September, 1911 as reproduced in Judicial Commissioner's Civil Circular II, was published with the intention of effecting this result.

This was a suit for declaration that the plaintiff was the adopted son of one B. The Judicial Commissioner said at p. 60: "It appears to me that the court-fee of Rs. 10 fixed for suits falling under Article 17 was an arbitrary fee fixed for convenience and that section 9 of the Suits Valuation Act enacted that this fee, fixed on an arbitrary valuation, should be regarded as provisional, and liable to be supplanted, in the case of selected class of suits by a court-fee based on what the High Court and the Local Government considered to be reasonable basis of valuation," Ganpatrao v. Laxmi Bai, 43 Ind. Cas. 64: 15 N.L.R. 24.

"Section 9 provides inter alia that it is competent to the High Court with the previous sanction of the Local Government to frame rules for the valuation of suits referred to in paragraph iv of section 7 of the Court Fees Act and for determining the jurisdiction of Courts, but no such rules have been framed applicable to cancellation and delivery up of an instrument in writing. Until such a rule is framed the valuation given in the plaint by the plaintiff cannot be revised," Chinammal v. Madarsa Rowther, 27 Mad. 480.

A suit for a declaration that an adoption is valid or invalid should be valued at Rs. 400 under the rules framed unless it affects a title to property exceeding Rs. 400 in value. The proviso to the circular is anomalous, Harihar Rao v. Salu Bai and another, 103 I.C. 268: 1927 A.I.R. 256 (Nag.).

Application.—Declaratory suits.—Rule 2 of the Rules of the Madras High Court dated 26th February, 1908, does not apply to the case of a declaratory suit where no consequential relief is prayed as the value for the purpose of jurisdiction is the value of the property likely to be affected by the declaration, C. V. Sankaran Nair v. C. V. Gopala Menon, 30 Mad. 18.

Where rules have not been framed the Court Fees Act would apply and the fees payable are those prescribed in the first and second Schedules to the Act, W. M. Varadaraja Mudaliar v. M. Aruningam Pillai, 1925 A.I.R. 1216 (Mad.); 91 I.C. 751: 22 L.W. 15.

Restitution of conjugal rights.—Under section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act (Act VII of 1887), it appears to be open to the High Court in a case of this description to direct, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, that the subject-matter is to be valued in a specified manner, Aklemunnessa Bibee v. Mahomed Hatim, 31 Cal. 849: 8 C.W.N. 705 (709).

But the Punjab Chief Court framed Rules under this section and the valuation must be made under the Rules, and any prayer which is ancillary to the main prayers need not be valued, Nathu v. Musst. Chuhri, 20 P.L.R. 1919: 52 I.C. 1010.

10. [Repeal of sec. 32, Punjab Courts Act, 1884 (XVIII of 1884)]. Repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1891 (XII of 1891).

PART III.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS.

- 11. (1) Notwithstanding anything in section 578 of the Code of Civil Procedure, an objection that by reason of the over-valuation or under-valuation of a suit or appeal a Court of first instance or lower appellate Court which had not jurisdiction with respect to the suit or appeal exercised jurisdiction with Procedure where objection is taken on appeal or revision that a suit or appeal was not properly valued for jurisdictional purposes.

respect thereto shall not be entertained by an appellate Court unless—

- (a) the objection was taken in the Court of first instance at or before the hearing at which issues were first framed and recorded or in the lower appellate Court in the memorandum of appeal to that Court, or
- (b) the appellate Court is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, that the suit or appeal was over-valued or under-valued, and that the over-valuation or under-valuation thereof has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit or appeal on its merits.

(2) If the objection was taken in the manner mentioned in clause (a) of sub-section (1), but the appellate Court is not satisfied as to both the matters mentioned in clause (b) of that sub-section and has before it the materials necessary for the determination of the other grounds of appeal to itself, it shall dispose of the appeal as if there had been no defect of jurisdiction in the Court of first instance or lower appellate Court.

(3) If the objection was taken in that manner and the appellate Court is satisfied as to both those matters and has not those materials before it, it shall proceed to deal with the appeal under the rules applicable to the Court with respect to the hearing of appeals; but if it remands the suit or appeal, or frames and refers issues for trial, or requires additional evidence to be taken, it shall direct its order to a Court competent to entertain the suit or appeal.

(4) The provisions of this section with respect to an appellate Court shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to a Court exercising revisional jurisdiction under section 622 of the Code of Civil Procedure or other enactment for the time being in force.

(5) This section extends to the whole of British India, and shall come into force on the first day of July, 1887.

NOTES.

Alteration in law.—For sec. 622 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act XIV of 1882) see now sec. 115 of the Code of 1908 (Act V of 1908); sec 578 of the Code (Act XIV of 1882) is now sec. 99 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act V of 1908).

(b) Reasons to be recorded in writing.—The appellate Court is only required to record reasons if it holds that the suit was over-valued or under-valued, and that the over-valuation or under-valuation has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit, but it is not required to record reasons in writing for holding that the under-valuation has not prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit, Syed Musa Imran v. Bhagwan Das, 100 I.C. 546: 1927 A.I.R. 359 (Allahabad).

Scope.—The plaintiff must under Or. 7, R. 1, C. P. C., state the value of the suit so far as the suit admits of being valued. It was not intended by legislature that the valuation of a suit should be arbitrary or reckless, or that the plaintiff should be at liberty to choose the Court in which to file the suit. Where a defendant objects to the valuation, such objection can be heard even at the hearing of the appeal if such an objection was taken in the Court of first instance at or before the first hearing, Kamta Siroman. Prosad Singh v. Gayadin, 25 O.C. 184: 69 Ind. Cas. 201.

Section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act governs all cases of erroneous valuation including valuations made under the rules passed under power, Sadar Khan v. Musst. Aisha Bibi, 6 Lah. 105: 72 P.L.R. 1924: 88 I.C. 72: 1925 A.I.R. 290 (Lah.). See Musst. Jagtaram Kuer v. Musst. Munder Kuer, (1934) 13 Pat. 290: 150 I.C. 378: 1934 A.I.R. 240 (Patna).

Collateral proceedings.—The principle of s. 11 of the Suits Valuation Act must be extended to collateral proceedings to attach the decree passed, Nane Narasimham v. Doncpudi Subramaniam, 98 I.C. 446: 1927 A.I.R. 201 (Madras), see also the same case at a later stage reported in 1929 A.I.R. 323 (Madras).

Application.—This section does not apply where the valuation is fixed by Rules having the force of law and is not discretionary, Khuda Yar v. Wahab Din, 47 P.L.R. 1901: 35 P.R. 1901; Sanga v. Mali, 214 P.R. 1910.

This section is applicable whether the under-valuation or over-valuation is due to a mistake in estimating the value of the subject-matter or due to a mistake in principle, Krishnasami v. Kanakasabai, 14 Mad. 183: 1 M.L.J. 234.

Section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act applies only to those cases where the valuation of suit is in the discretion of the parties at Court and not to those cases where the valuation is fixed by the rules, and in the latter class of cases section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act does not cure the defect of over-valuation and under-valuation and the disposal of suit by a wrong Court is without jurisdiction, Mahomed Shah v. Abdulla Shah, 56 Ind. Cas. 918.

Effect of the section.—The effect of this section is simply to treat the over-valuation or under-valuation as a mere irregularity contemplated under section 578 (section 99 of the present Code) of the Code of Civil Procedure. The objection should be taken at the earliest opportunity, Raghavacharior v. Raghavacharior, 20 M.L.J. 726.

Section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act has the effect of curing a want of jurisdiction caused by improper valuation not only in cases when there has been a final disposal by the lower appellate Court, but also when there has been a remand to the original Court for a finding, Raman v. Secretary of State for India in Council, 24 Mad. 427: 11 M.L.J. 215.

Where the suit was instituted in a wrong Court due to erroneous valuation, section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act gives the plaintiff adequate protection, Sailendra Nath Mitra v. Ram Chandra, 34 C.L.J. 94: 25 C.W.N. 768: 66 Ind. Cas. 268. See also, Balkrishna Narayan v. Janki Bai, 33 Bom. 331: 22 Bom. L.R. 280.

Section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act governs all cases of erroneous valuation irrespective of the question whether the valuation is determined by rules having the force of law or in any other manner. (132 P.R. 1894 and 35 P.R. 1901: 4 P.L.R. 1901 overruled), Sardar Khan v. Mt. Aisha Bibi, 1925 A.I.R. 290 (L.): I.L.R. 6 Lah. 105: 88 I.C. 72 F.B.

Where no objection was taken at earlier stages of a suit and it did not appear that the party was prejudicially affected by the decision, the case is covered by sec. 11 of the Suits Valuation Act, Budha Mal v. Rallia Ram, 107 I.C. 620: I.L.R. 9 Lahore 418: 1928 A.I.R. 825 (Cal.).

Clause (2).—Section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act prohibits an appellate Court from entertaining an objection that by reason of the under-valuation of a suit a Court not having jurisdiction to try the same exercised jurisdiction with respect thereto, unless the objection was taken in the Court of the first instance at or before the date on which the issues were framed or the appellate Court is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, that the suit was under-valued and that the under-valuation thereof has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit, and it has before it the materials necessary for the decision of the appeal; it is authorised by cl. 2 of section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act to dispose of the appeal as if there had been no defect of jurisdiction in the Court of first instance, Syed Musa Imran v. Bhagwan Das, 100 I.C. 546: 1927 A.I.R. 359 (Allahabad).

Under cl. (2) of sec. 11 of the Suits Valuation Act even if objection to jurisdiction be taken at an early stage in the trial Court, the appellate Court is required to dispose of the appeal as if there had been no defect of jurisdiction, unless it is satisfied that the over-valuation or under-valuation has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit or appeal on its merits, V. S. Aiyen v. Maung Nyum and another, 1929 A.I.R. 228 (Rang.).

Clause (3).—Section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act provides inter alia that if a Court has decided a suit which it was not competent to decide, owing to an under-valuation thereof, then, if the appellate Court is satisfied that an objection as to valuation of the suit was raised in the trial Court and that the determination of the suit by a Court which was not competent to try it, has prejudiced the defendant, then such Court shall hear the appeal, if there is sufficient material on the record to enable it to dispose of the appeal. If, however, the Court finds it necessary to have further evidence recorded or to remand the case, then the further evidence shall be recorded by and the remand shall be made to the Court which was competent to hear the suit. The law nowhere authorises an appellate Court to return the plaint for presentation to the proper Court at the stage at which the learned District Judge returned it, Rajwant Sing and others v. Mutalli and others, 116 I.C. 209.

Prejudicially affected.—The appeal Court cannot interfere unless it is shown that the under-valuation has prejudicially affected the disposal of the case, Dinesh Chandra v. Sarnamoyi Debi, 1 C.W.N. 136; Bishnu v. Dal Singh, 71 P.L.R. 1906: 55 P.R. 1906.

Decision by inferior Court.—Where a Court of inferior jurisdiction disposes of an appeal which should have been heard by a superior tribunal, there is ground for thinking that the parties are prejudicially affected, Cheloo v. Kalidas, 21 P.R. 1918: 44 Ind. Cas. 816.

A party to a suit cannot be said to have been prejudicially affected within the meaning of sec. 11 of the Suits Valuation Act, merely because of a change in the forum of appeal consequent upon the under-valuation.

Section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act when referring to an under-valuation or over-valuation "prejudicially affecting the disposal of suit or appeal on its merits" is not considering at all the different rules of procedure that there may be an appeal from one Court to another.

A trial of a suit by a District Munsiff instead of a Sub-Judge owing to an under-valuation, cannot be deemed to be "prejudice" within the meaning of section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act to the unsuccessful party on account of the party having a right of 2nd appeal to the High Court on a question of law only, instead of a regular appeal on questions of facts also, Naduvil Edom Karnavan and others v. Cheriya Parvathi Nethia and others, 73 Ind. Cas. 87: (1924) A.I.R. 6 (Mad.): 46 Mad. 631: 45 M.L.J. 135: 1923 M.W.N. 489: 18 L.W. 1.

The question whether a disposal of a suit has naturally prejudiced a party is to be decided on the facts of each case.

The word used is "disposal" and not "decision".

The disposal of a suit on the merits is prejudicially affected when that disposal is made by a District Judge instead of being made by a bench of two judges of the Court of the highest jurisdiction in a province and that such lack of jurisdiction cannot be cured by section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act, Sheoraj Singh v. Musst. Phulbasa Kuar and another, 1925 A.I.R. 561 (Oudh): 28 O.C. 203: 85 I.C. 445. See also Syed Musa Imran v. Bhagwan Das, 100 I.C. 546: 1927 A.I.R. 359 (Allahabad).

A suit was valued at less than Rs. 5,000 which was found on evidence by the trial Court as correct. The suit was decreed and an appeal was preferred before the District Judge who decreed the appeal and dismissed the suit. On a further appeal to District Judge the High Court held that the suit is above Rs. 5,000, hence the appeal as to the District Judge is incompetent and the decree passed by him is without jurisdiction; held further, that the hearing of the appeal by the District Judge had prejudicially affected the decision of the case on the merits within the meaning of section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act, inasmuch as if the appeal had been filed in the High Court, it would have gone into evidence in the case and dealt with the questions of fact, whereas it was precluded from doing so in a second appeal if the case be heard by the District Judge in the first instance, Mahanta Rukmin Das v. Deva Singh alias Mahanta Deva Das, I.L.R. 5 Patna 505: 7 P.L.T. 407: 96 I.C. 242: 1927 A.I.R. 351 (Patna).

The mere fact that a party was deprived of the right of appeal on facts before the High Court cannot be held to prejudicially affect the disposal of the appeal on the merits within the terms of section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act, Nane Narasimham v. Donepudi Subramaniam, 98 I.C. 446: 1927 A.I.R. 201 (Madras).

There is no ground for holding that a party has been prejudiced merely because the appeal has been heard by an inferior instead of a superior Court, Banni v. Mangu, 114 I.C. 440

Valuation.—(over-valuation and under-valuation).—If the valuation of the suit put on the plaint is contested it is the duty of the Court to adjudicate and find what the correct valuation is, Mohini Mohan Missir v. Gour Chandra, 5 Pat.L.J. 397: 1921 Pat. C.W.N. 195: 1 Pat.L.T. 390: 56 Ind. Cas. 762.

The question whether or not a suit has been under-valued should be decided on evidence, and documents which contain description are not a safe criterion, Ram Das v. Ajudhia, 63 Ind. Cas. 685.

Arbitrary valuation.—In Aklemunnessa Bibee v. Mahomed Hatim, 31 Cal. 849: 8 C.W.N. 705 (759) the Calcutta High Court said:—

“It seems to us to be clear, by the phrases ‘over-valuation’ and ‘under-valuation’ the legislature intended to include all cases of erroneous valuation and that the language of section 11 is comprehensive enough to cover a case like the present, in which the Court exercised jurisdiction by reason of an arbitrary valuation where no valuation ought to have been made, because the suit is incapable of valuation.

Bona fide over-valuation.—In case of bona fide over-valuation the mere fact that the suit has been over-valued does not deprive the Court in which it is brought, of jurisdiction and alter the jurisdiction of the appellate Court, Rajendra Lal Gossami v. Shama Charan Lahiri, 5 Cal. 188: 4 C.L.R. 417.

But the whole suit should not be dismissed because in the opinion of the lower appellate Court, it would have been instituted in some other Court, Mohee Lal v. Khetaram Marwari, 25 W.R. 76.

Mistake.—An erroneous assumption, of jurisdiction, through over-valuation does not by itself vitiate the proceedings, Krishnasami v. Savoy Vijia Raghunatha, 1 M.L.J. 234.

Exaggerated valuation.—Where the Subordinate Judge on appeal, was of opinion that claim had been designedly exaggerated and therefore ordered the plaint to be returned to be presented to the Small Cause Court, held, as the suit was tried by the first Court and as the lower appellate Court did not find that over-valuation has prejudicially affected the disposal of suit on its merits, the objection as to jurisdiction should not have been given effect to and the lower appellate Court was wrong in directing the return of plaint, Hamidunnissa Bibi v. Gopalchandra Malakar, 24 Cal. 661; Muhammad Sharafulla v. Hira Lal, 16 O.C. 257: 21 Ind. Cas. 52.

Deliberate exaggeration.—Where the trial Court tried the suit on the merits and gave a partial decree to the plaintiff, the appeal Court, on appeal preferred by the defendants cannot, without finding that the disposal of the suit has been prejudicially affected by such trial, entertain the objection as to jurisdiction and should not have given effect to it, Hamidunnissa Bibee v. Gopal Chandra Malakar, 24 Cal. 661: 1 C.W.N. 556. See also Kali Pujari v. Manjaya, 21 Mad. 271.

Under-valuation.—See Mewah Lal v. Behary Lal, 14 W.R. 195; Ango Pura Chowdhury v. Meah Bibee, 10 W.R. 207; Sheikh Muzlur Ali v. Mussammatt Basoo, 8 W.R. 46; Brojo Coomar Sen v. Ishan Chander Das, 3 C.L.R. 1.

Where a suit for pre-emption was under-valued but the suit was tried by the Munsiff, the District Judge on appeal declined to hear the appeal and refused to allow the appellant to make up the deficiency in payment of court-fees as the period of limitation has expired. The Chief Court held, that the District Judge has overlooked the provisions of section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act and the proceedings before the Munsiff were not void for want of jurisdiction and “the deficiency in court-fees could be levied after the period has expired” and remanded the case for trial by the Divisional Judge, Ram v. Taja 173 P.L.R. 1903: 74 P.R. 1903.

Where the suit was valued at less than Rs. 5,000 while its real value was above Rs. 5,000 and was heard by the District Judge without objection held, that the High Court in second appeal cannot entertain the objection, Kishen Lal v. Rup Chand, 9 All.W.N. 169.

In cases of reckless under-valuation the plaintiff is not entitled to have protection of section 14 of the Limitation Act, Rukiya Bibi v. Mubarak Ali, 14 Ind. Cas. 86.

The over-valuation or under-valuation of a suit does not affect a decree unless the disposal of the suit on the merits has been prejudicially affected, Mool Chand Moti Lal v. Ram Kishen, 55 All. 315: 1933 A.L.J. 222: 143 I.C. 275: 1933 A.I.R. 249 (All.) F.B.

Omission to value.—Mere omission to value if such omission has not prejudicially affected the decision of the case on the merits, will be cured by s. 11 of the Suits Valuation Act, Maung Nyi Maung v. Mandalay Municipal Committee, 12 Ran. 335: 1934 A.I.R. 268 (Ran.).

Error not affecting jurisdiction.—An error in valuation of a suit is not an error, defect or irregularity which affects the merits of the case and an appellate Court is restrained by section 350, C. P. C. (section 99 of Act V of 1908) from ordering reversal of a decree on such account, Guddadhur Bannerjee v. Premomoyee Debi, 10 W.R. 286; Ram Gutty v. Goona Monee Debia, 11 W.R. 177.

But in cases of under-valuation, the lower appellate Court can modify or reverse the case. Section 350, C. P. C. (99 of Act V of 1908) does not prohibit such a modification or reversal, Hurry Pandey v. Bassoo, 11 W.R. 257.

Objection as to jurisdiction.—(a) Not taken in the trial Court.

Where the plaintiff instituted a suit in the Munsiff's Court and made an arbitrary valuation of the suit and the Munsiff exercised jurisdiction without any objection on the part of the defendant, held, that the suit should not be dismissed by an appellate Court, having regard to the provision of section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act, on the ground of want of jurisdiction, Aklemunnessa Bibi v. Mahd. Hatim, 31 Cal. 849: 8 C.W.N. 705, but the above case was dissented from in Jan Mahommad v. Masher Bibi, 34 Cal. 352: 11 C.W.N. 458 and Zair Hussain Khan v. Khurshed Jan, 28 All. 545.

An objection as to pecuniary jurisdiction raised for the 1st time before the High Court in revision cannot be maintained unless it appeared that the under-valuation has not prejudicially affected the merits of the case, Naran Chandra Ghose v. Rangalal Ghose, 37 C.W.N. 764.

An objection as to jurisdiction of a Court must be raised in the trial Court and if not so taken, it cannot be raised afterwards, Bankaj Sahu v. Mosahib Ali, 46 Ind. Cas. 892.

An objection as to jurisdiction not taken in the written statements nor raised at the time of settlement of issues, cannot be taken at the time of argument, Narayan Jha Narone v. Jagni Prasad, 13 Pat. 329: 15 P.L.T. 139: 147 I.C. 1222: 1934 A.I.R. 184 (Pat.) S.B.; Musst. Urehan Kuer v. Musst. Kabutri, 13 Patna 344: 15 P.L.T. 131: 148 I.C. 579: 1934 A.I.R. 204 (Pat.) S.B.

Where no objection as to jurisdiction was taken by the defendant in the trial Court nor any objection was taken in the lower appellate Court, but on second appeal the stamp reporter of the Patna High Court took objection as to jurisdiction and valuation, and it did not appear that the disposal of the suit has been in any way prejudicially affected; held that the objection cannot be entertained, Kesho Prasad Sing v. Lakhu Rai and others, 75 Ind. Cas. 305: 1923 A.I.R. 581 (Patna): 4 Pat.L.T. 525: 1923 Pat. C.W.N. 258.

A objection to jurisdiction can only be raised on appeal if there be found that the wrong valuation has prejudicially affected the merits of the case or the disposal of the suit, Dongarsi Das v. The Municipal Committee, Fazilka, 1929 A.I.R. 566 (Lah.).

Rules under the Suits Valuation Act.—(a) An objection as to jurisdiction not taken in the trial Court but on second appeal before the High Court cannot be entertained even if a higher valuation was required by the rules framed under the Suits Valuation Act, Kalu and others v. Sadhu Singh, 100 I.C. 166.

(b) Other Cases.—An objection as to disposal of appeal by the District Judge cannot be questioned as being without jurisdiction on the ground that the valuation is beyond the pecuniary jurisdiction of the District Judge unless the disposal of the suit has prejudicially affected the decision of the appeal, Satya Kinkar Sahana v. Shiba Prosad Singh, 4 Pat.L.J. 447.

Objections to jurisdiction will not be entertained by the appeal Court unless the erroneous valuation has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit on the merits, Amunal v. Krishna Nair, 62 Ind. Cas. 715; A. Vedaji Baskara Tirumal Rao v. Subramania Gurukhal, 52 Ind. Cas. 992. But see Ghulam Akbar Khan v. Musst. Bakht Bibi, 116 P.L.R. 1915: 229 P.W.R. 1915: 29 Ind. Cas. 796. When a suit was improperly valued by the plaintiff, he can in second appeal raise the question as to his own valuation, Cheloo v. Kali Das, 21 P.R. 1918: 44 Ind. Cas. 816. See also Syed Musa Imran v. Bhagwan Das, 100 I.C. 546: 1927 A.I.R. 359 (Allahabad).

NOTE.—It is doubtful if the provisions of the Suits Valuation Act can override the pecuniary limits of jurisdiction of various Courts as fixed in the Civil Courts Acts in the various Provinces.

(c) Objection in execution proceedings.—An objection as to under-valuation, if not taken in the suit, cannot be taken in execution proceedings, Musst. Jagtaran Kuer v. Musst. Munder Kuer, 13 Patna 290: 150 I.C. 378: 1934 A.I.R. 240 (Patna); Gian Chand v. Charanji Lal, 36 P.L.R. 238: 1934 A.I.R. 804 (Lah.).

Effect of action by the plaintiff.—The plaintiff who in a suit for pre-emption notwithstanding the objection of the defendant as to the valuation of the suit, actively prosecuted it and neglected to go into the question as to jurisdiction, cannot be heard to say in appeal that the trial Court had no jurisdiction to try the suit. The High Court said that even if the objection was raised at the proper time, the appellate Court must be satisfied that the under-valuation has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit, before the objection can be given effect to, Sankar Nath v. Trilok Singh and another, 11 Lah. 15: 123 I.C. 122: 1929 A.I.R. 509 (Lah.).

Where it is open to the plaintiff to put his own valuation on his suit, and he elects to value it at an amount which is within the jurisdiction of the particular class of Court, it is not open to him afterwards to say that it is of a higher value so that it may fulfil the requirements of sec. 110 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Lallubhai Prag v. Bhimbhai Dajibhai, 1929 A.I.R. 341 (Bom.).

Appellate Court returning plaint.—Where an appellate Court makes an order returning a plaint for presentation to the proper Court, the Court of first instance having heard and decided the suit, it is the duty of the appellate Court under section 11 of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, first to find and to record its reasons for so doing, where the error in valuation complained of has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit on the merits, Wahidullah v. Kanhaya Lal, 25 All. 174; Hamidunnissa Bibi v. Gopal Chandra Malakar, 24 Cal. 661; Raghunath Charan Singh v. Shamo Koeri, 31 Cal. 344; Dalip Singh v. Kundan Singh, 36 All. 58; 12 All.L.J. 21; 22 Ind. Cas. 614; Krishna Sami v. Parameswaram, 6 Mad. 140.

When a Court finds that a suit has been under-valued and that the plaintiff has done so intentionally, it may require the plaintiff to make a fresh valuation and pay proper court-fees, but it has not power to amend the valuation itself, Ashiq Ali v. Imtiaz Begum, 39 All. 723; 15 A.L.J. 794.

Consent of parties does not confer jurisdiction.—If the Court had not jurisdiction at the initial stage then no consent by parties can confer jurisdiction, Rajlakshmi Dasse v. Katyayani Dasse, 38 Cal. 639; Ledgard v. Bull, 13 I.A. 134; 9 All. 191.

Joinder of causes of action.—Where several causes of action are joined together in one suit, which brought the valuation over Rs. 1,000 that valuation would confer upon a Subordinate Judge jurisdiction to try the suit, notwithstanding the fact that if these suits were instituted separately a Munsiff will have jurisdiction to try the suit, Mashoollah Khan v. Ram Lal Agarwallah, 6 Cal. 6.

12. Nothing in Part I or Part II shall be construed Proceedings pending at commencement of Part I or Part II. to affect the jurisdiction of any Court—

- (a) with respect to any suit instituted before rules under Part I applicable to the valuation of the suit take effect, or Part II has come into force, as the case may be, or
- (b) with respect to any appeal arising out of any such suit.

APPENDIX I.

A

Notifications reducing and remitting court-fees by Governor General in Council.

No. 4650, dated the 10th September, 1889 [Gazette of India, 1889, Part I, p. 506] and subsequent notifications.

Under section 35 of the Court Fees Act, VII of 1870, and in supersession of all previous notifications under that section it is hereby notified that, in exercise of the power to reduce or remit, in the whole or in any part of British India, all or any of the fees mentioned in the first and second Schedules to the said Act, the Governor-General in Council has been pleased to make the reductions and remissions hereinafter set forth, namely:.

A.—General for the whole of British India.

(1) to remit the fees chargeable on applications presented to a Collector for refund of the amount paid to the Government for stamped paper which has become spoiled or unfit for use, or is no longer required for use, and on applications for renewal of stamp paper which has become spoiled or unfit for use;

(2) to remit the fees chargeable on applications in writing, relating exclusively to the purchase of salt which is the property of the Government;

(3) to direct that, when a plaint disclosing a reasonable case on the merits is presented to any Civil or Revenue Court in such a form that the presiding Judge or officer, without summoning the defendant, rejects it not for any substantial defect but on account of an entirely technical error in form only, and so as to leave the plaintiff free to prosecute precisely the same case in another form against the same defendant or defendants, the value of the stamp on the plaint shall be refunded on presentation of an application to the Collector of the district in which the Court is situated, together with a certificate from the Judge or officer who rejected the plaint that it was rejected under the circumstances above described, and that the value of the stamp should, in his opinion, be refunded;

(4) to remit the fees chargeable on—

(a) copies of village settlement-records furnished to landholders and cultivators during the currency or at the termination of settlement-operations;

- (b) lists of fields extracted from village settlement-records for the purpose of being filed with petitions of plaint in Settlement Courts:

Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to copies of judicial proceedings, or to copies of village settlement-records (other than lists of fields) extracted as aforesaid, which may be filed in any Court or office;

(5) to declare that the fee chargeable on a plaint filed in a suit for possession of immoveable property under section 9 of the Specific Relief Act, I of 1877, shall be one-half of the amount prescribed in the scale of fees for plaints mentioned in article I of the First Schedule.

(6) to direct that the fee chargeable on appeals from orders under clause (c) of section 244 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Act XIV of 1882) shall be limited to the amounts chargeable under article 11 of the Second Schedule;

(7) to remit the fees chargeable on security-bonds for the keeping of the peace, by, or good behaviour of, persons other than the executants;

(8) to remit the fee payable under article 1, clause (c), of the Second Schedule on an application or petition presented to a Chief Commissioner, when the application or petition is accompanied by a petition to the Government of India and contains merely a request that that petition may be forwarded to the Government of India;

(9) to remit the fees chargeable under articles 6, 7 and 9 of the First Schedule on copies furnished by Civil or Criminal Courts or Revenue Courts or Offices for the private use of persons applying for them:

Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to copies when filed, exhibited or recorded in any Court of Justice or received by any public officer;

(10) to remit the fees chargeable, under paragraph 4 of clause (a) and paragraph 2 of clause (b) of Article I of the Second Schedule, on application for orders for the payment of deposits in cases in which the deposit does not exceed Rs. 25 in amount:

Clause (5) is superseded by the amendment made in Article 2 of Schedule I of the Court Fees Act, 1870, by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1891 (12 of 1891), Sch. II.

Clause (6) as it now stands is the subject of a separate notification, and is inserted here in this form for convenience of reference. See Notification, No. 4344-S. R., dated the 6th October, 1893, Gazette of India, 1893, Pt. I, p. 575.

Provided that the application is made within three months of the date on which the deposit first became payable to the party making the application;

(11) to remit, with reference to clause (xi) of section 19 of the Act, the fees chargeable on applications for leave to occupy under direct engagement with the Government land of which the revenue is settled, but not permanently, when made by persons who do not at the time of application hold the land;

(12) to remit the fees chargeable on applications for loans under the Land Improvement Loans Act, XIX of 1883, or the Agriculturists' Loans Act, XII of 1884;

(13) to remit the fee chargeable on an application made by a person to the Collector under the second paragraph of section 39 of the Indian Stamp Act, I of 1879, for the return to that person, or to the Registration officer who impounded it, of a document impounded, and sent to the Collector by a Registration officer;

(14) to remit the fee chargeable on an application made for transfer of a stock-note from one circle to another under paragraph 6 of Resolution No. 2566, dated the 20th August, 1885;

(15) to remit the fees chargeable on the following documents, namely:—

- (a) a copy of a charge framed under section 210 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882, or of a translation thereof, when the copy is given to an accused person;
- (b) copy of the evidence of supplementary witnesses after commitment when the copy is given under section 219 of the said Code to an accused person;
- (c) copy or translation of a judgment in a case other than a summons-case, and a copy of the heads of Judge's charge to the jury, when the copy or translation is given under section 371 of the said Code to an accused person;
- (d) copy or translation of the judgment in a summons-case, when the accused person to whom the copy or translation is given under section 371 of the said Code is in jail;
- (e) copy of an order of maintenance, when the copy is given under section 490 of the said Code to the person in whose favour the order is made, or to his guardian, if any, or to the person to whom the allowance is to be paid;
- (f) copy furnished to any person affected by a judgment or order passed by a Criminal Court, of the Judge's charge to the jury or of any order, deposition or other part of the record, when the copy is not a copy which may be granted under any of the preceding sub-clauses without the payment of a fee, but is copy which, on its being applied for under section 548 of the said Code, the Judge or Magistrate, for some special reason to be recorded by him on the copy, thinks fit to furnish without such payment ;

(g) copies of all documents furnished under the orders of any Court or Magistrate to any Government Advocate or pleader or other person especially empowered in that behalf for the purpose of conducting any trial or investigation on the part of the Government before any Criminal Court ;

(h) copies of all documents which any such Advocate, Pleader or other person is required to take in connection with any such trial or investigation, for the use of any Court or Magistrate, or may consider necessary for the purpose of advising the Government in connection with any criminal proceedings ;

(i) copies of judgments or depositions required by officers of the Police Department in the course of their duties.

(16) to direct that the fee chargeable---

(a) on the application to the Collector, or to any officer or person discharging all or any of the functions of a Collector, with respect either to liability to assessment or to the amount of an assessment under Act II of 1886 (an Act for imposing a tax on income derived from sources other than agriculture), and

(b) on a copy of an order under section 26 of the same Act, shall be limited to one anna ;

(17) to remit the fee chargeable on an application presented by any person for the return of a document filed by him in any Court or public office ;

(18) to direct that, when a part of an estate paying annual revenue to the Government under a settlement which is not permanent is recorded in the Collector's register as separately assessed with such revenue, the value of the subject-matter of a suit for the possession of, or to enforce a right of pre-emption in respect of, a fractional share of that part shall, for the purposes of the computation of the amount of the fee chargeable in the suit, be deemed not to exceed five times such portion of the revenue separately assessed on that part as may be rateably payable in respect of the share;

(19) to direct that; if the amount of the fee chargeable in any case involves a fraction of an anna, the fraction shall be remitted, except where otherwise expressly provided by this notification;

(19a) to remit the fee chargeable on an application for the grant of a license for the vend of stamps;

(19b) to direct that no court-fee shall be charged on an application for the repayment of a fine or of any portion of a fine the refund of which has been ordered by competent authority;

(19c) to remit the fees chargeable on applications for copies of documents detailed in clauses 4 and 15, supra.

(19d) to remit the duty chargeable in respect of Indian Probates, Letters of Administration or Succession Certificates on the share or other interest of a deceased member of a company formed under the Indian Companies Act, 1882 (VI of 1882), provided that the said share or interest was registered in a branch register in the United Kingdom under the Indian Companies (Branch Registers) Act, 1900 (IV of 1900), and that such member was at the date of his decease domiciled elsewhere than in India;

(19e) to remit the fees chargeable on applications presented to officers of land revenue for the suspension or remission of revenue on the ground that a crop has not been sown or has failed;

(19f) to remit the fee chargeable on applications and petitions presented to a Collector or any Revenue Officer having jurisdiction equal or subordinate to a Collector for advice or assistance from the Agricultural Department of the Province;

(19g) (a) to remit all fees payable under Schedule II upon Clause (19a) was inserted by Notification No. 4276-S. R., dated 23rd September 1897, see Gazette of India, 1897, Pt. I, p. 864.

Clause (19b) forms the subject of a separate Notification (No. 3389-S. R., dated 6th August, 1896, see Gazette of India, 1896, Pt. I, p. 604), and is inserted here in this form for convenience of reference.

Clause (19c) forms the subject of a separate Notification (No. 1180-Exc., dated 24th February, 1905, see Gazette of India, 1905, Pt. I, p. 117).

Clauses (19d to 19f) also form the subject of separate notifications, see Notifications Nos. 881-S. R., dated the 17th February, 1900, 4385-S. R., dated the 19th August, 1901, 6069-Exc., dated the 26th October, 1906, Gazette of India, 1900, 1901, 1906. Pt. I, pp. 100, 608 and 760, respectively.

applications relating to licenses or duplicates granted or renewed under the Indian Arms Rules, 1909, other than licenses or duplicates of the nature hereinafter referred to in sub-head (b); and

- (b) to reduce to one anna all fees exceeding one anna payable under the schedule upon applications relating to licenses or duplicates granted or renewed under the said rules in respect of which—
 - (i) no fee is payable under the said rules, or
 - (ii) the fee payable under the said rules has been collected in full.

(19h) to remit the fees chargeable on applications for the grant of licenses of the nature mentioned in items 8 and 9 of the Schedule II appended to the Indian Explosives Rules, 1914, to possess gun-powder, other explosive or detonators required bona fide for blasting purpose. No. 1938-F., dated 17-12-1914, Gazette of India, 19-12-1914, Part I.

(19i) to make in the whole of British India the remissions hereinafter set forth in the fees leviable under articles 11, 12, 12A of the first Schedule of the said Act, on the property of any person subject to Military law either under the Army Act (44 and 45 Vict. C. 58) or under the Indian Army Act (VIII of 1911), who is killed or dies of wounds inflicted, accident occurring or disease contracted within twelve months before the death, while on active service in the present war, namely:—

- (a) where the amount or the value of the property in respect of which the grant or probate or letters of administration is made or which is specified in the certificate under the Succession Certificate Act, 1889 or in the certificate under Bombay Regulation No. 8 of 1827, does not exceed Rs. 5,000, to remit the whole of the fees leviable in respect of the property,
- (b) where the said amount or value exceeds Rs. 5,000 to remit the whole of the said fees in respect of the first Rs. 5,000 and
- (c) where any property passes more than once in consequence of such deaths, to remit in the case of second and subsequent succession, the whole of the said fees irrespective of the value or amount of such property. No. 120-F., dated 14-1-1915, Gazette of India, 6-1-1915, Part I, pp. 160-161.

(19j) to remit in the whole of British India the fees chargeable under Article 1 (a) and (b) of Schedule II of the Act on applications for mutation of names in respect of the property of any person subject to Military law either under the Army Act (44 and 45 Vict. C. 58) or under the Indian Army Act, 1911 (VIII of 1911) who is killed or dies of wounds inflicted, accident occurring or disease contracted within 12 months, before death, while on active service in the present war. No. 371-F., dated 25-2-1915, Gazette of India, dated 27-9-1915, Part I, p. 350.

(19*k*) to remit the fees chargeable on applications for the grant of licenses issued in accordance with the provisions of any rule made under section 9 of the Petroleum Act, 1899 (VIII of 1899) for the possession of dangerous petroleum for use on motor vehicles and for its transport thereon for the purpose of use therein. No. 134-F., dated 27-9-1916, Gazette of India, dated 30-9-1916, Part I, p. 1461.

B.—Special for the Presidency of Fort St. George only.

For Revised Notifications by the Governor in Council under the Devolution Act, 1920, see infra.

(20) to direct the fees chargeable on the following documents filed in claims preferred under the Madras Hereditary Village Offices Act, 1895 (Madras Act III of 1895), shall be limited to the sum specified below against each, namely:—

plaint, petition for execution or memorandum of appeal to a Collector—eight annas; memorandum of appeal to the Board of Revenue—two rupees:

(21) to remit the fees chargeable (a) on copies of judgments, decrees or orders passed on claims preferred under the Madras Hereditary Village Offices Act, 1895, (Madras Act III of 1895), and (b) on applications filed by either party in the course of the trial of suits or appeals or in the course of execution of decrees under the said Act;

(22) to remit the fees chargeable under the First Schedule on plaints in summary suits brought before Collectors under Madras Act VIII of 1865 (An Act to consolidate and improve the laws which define the process to be taken for the recovery of rent);

(23) to reduce the fees chargeable in suits by Government raiyats, for the recovery of land sold for arrears of revenue, to the amount which would be chargeable if the value of the subject-matter were only the rent of the land payable for the year next before the date of presentation of the plaint;

Clauses (20) and (21) were substituted for the original clauses by Notification No. 3449-S. R., dated the 6th August, 1897, Gazette of India, 1897, Part I, p. 696.

(23a) to remit the fees chargeable under the said Act on applications made by toddy-drawers and shop-keepers for the grant of licenses permitting them or their servants to draw toddy from cocoanut and other palms;

(23b) to remit the fees chargeable on all communications made under Chapter II of the Madras Proprietary Estates Village Service Act, 1894 (Madras Act II of 1894) by a proprietor to any Revenue Officer relating to the appointment and control of village officers;

(23c) to remit the fees chargeable on certain applications made by cultivators of the hemp plant (Cannabis Sativa or Indica) in the Madras Presidency:

* (23d) to remit the fees chargeable on application made by distillers and warehouse-keepers in the Madras Presidency to the Excise Officer in Charge of the distillery or warehouse for the issue of permit for the transport of country spirit;

(23e) to remit the fees chargeable under item 1 (a) of Schedule II of the Act on applications for transfer of registry in the revenue accounts in respect of ryotwari holdings in the Madras Presidency, No. 874F, dated 29-8-1913, Gazette of India, dated 29-3-1913, Part I, p. 826.

C.—Special for Bombay only (vide Reductions and Remissions for Bombay only, infra.)

D.—Special for Bengal only.

Vide infra Revised Notification under the Devolution Act, superseding clauses (36) to (37i).

G.—Special for the Punjab only.

(42) to remit the fees chargeable on copies of orders or proceedings under section 37 of the Punjab Land-revenue Act, XVII of 1887, made or recorded by Collectors or other Revenue-officers engaged in revising a record-of-rights under a notification published in accordance with section 32 of the said Act:

Provided that the copy is furnished for the purpose of being filed with an application or petition to a Collector or other Revenue-officer engaged as aforesaid in revising a record-of-rights, or to the Commissioner of the Division, or to the Financial Commissioner; Punjab, relating to matters connected with the assessment of land or the ascertainment of rights thereto, or interests therein, if presented previous to the final confirmation of such revision;

(43) to remit the fees chargeable on applications under section 97 of the Punjab Land-revenue Act, XVII of 1887, made by village officers in accordance with the provisions of Rule 83 of the rules under that Act published with the Notification of the Punjab Government, No. 76, dated the 1st March, 1888;

(43a) to remit in the territories administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab the fees chargeable on complaints and suits brought against British subjects by Bhutanis ordinarily residing outside British India:—

- (i) for the recovery of debts;
- (ii) appertaining to the custody of a woman; or
- (iii) appertaining to inheritance;

† (43b) to remit in the territories administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab, the fees chargeable on copies of all records maintained under the provisions of Chapter IV of the Punjab Land-Revenue Act, 1887 (XVII of 1887), when such copies are exhibited or recorded in any Court of Justice or are received or furnished by any public officer;

(43c) to remit the fees chargeable under the Act on applications for the grant of fishing licenses prescribed by the rules made by the Government of the Punjab under section 3 of the Punjab Fisheries Act 1914 (II of 1914).

H.—Special for Burma only.

* (44) to remit the fees chargeable on the following documents furnished to cultivators, namely:—

certified copies of extracts from settlement or supplementary survey registers containing particulars of the holding of cultivators:

* (45) to remit the fees chargeable in Upper Burma on complaints, applications, petitions and copies which are filed, exhibited or recorded in the Court of a Circle Officer, or in any Court presided over by a Thugyi or Myothugyi; or which are received or furnished by a Thugyi or Myothugyi.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this clause the expression “Thugyi or Myothugyi” includes any person, however desig-

Revised Notifications under S. 35.

FOR BENGAL ONLY.

No. 1872J.—The 23rd May 1921.—Under section 35 of the Court Fees Act, 1870 (VII of 1870), as amended by the Devolution Act, 1920 (XXXVIII of 1920), and in supersession of all previous notifications under that section, it is hereby notified that in exercise of the power to reduce or remit in the whole or in any part of the territories under his administration, all or any of the fees mentioned in the First and Second Schedules of the Court Fees Act, 1870 (VII of 1870), the Governor in Council is pleased to make the reductions and remissions hereinafter set forth, namely:—

(1) to remit the fees chargeable on applications presented to a Collector for refund of the amount paid to the Government for stamped paper which has become spoiled or unfit for use, or is no longer required for use and on applications for renewal of stamped paper which has become spoiled or unfit for use;

(2) to remit the fees chargeable on applications in writing, relating exclusively to the purchase of salt which is the property of the Government;

(3) to direct that, when a plaint disclosing a reasonable case on the merits is presented to any Civil or Revenue Court in such a form that the presiding Judge or officer, without summoning the defendant, rejects it not for any substantial defect but on account of an entirely technical error in form only, and so as to leave the plaintiff free to prosecute precisely the same case in another form against the same defendant or defendants, the value of the stamp on the plaint shall be refunded on presentation of an application to the Collector of the district in which the Court is situated, together with a certificate from the Judge or officer who rejected the plaint that it was rejected under the circumstances above described, and that the value of the stamp should, in his opinion, be refunded;

(4) to remit the fees chargeable on—

(a) copies of village settlement-records furnished to landholders and cultivators during the currency or at the termination of settlement operations.

- (b) lists of fields extracted from village settlement records for the purpose of being filed with petitions of plaint in Settlement Courts:

Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to copies of judicial proceedings or to copies of village settlement-records (other than lists of fields) extracted as aforesaid, which may be filed in any Court or office;

(5) to direct that the fee chargeable on appeals from orders under section 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908) shall be limited to the amounts chargeable under Article 11 of the Second Schedule;

(6) to remit the fees chargeable on security-bonds for the keeping of the peace by, or good behaviour of, persons other than the executants;

(7) to remit the fee payable under Article 1, clause (c), of the second Schedule on an application or petition presented to a Chief Commissioner, when the application or petition is accompanied by a petition to the Government of India and contains merely a request that that petition may be forwarded to the Government of India.

(8) to remit the fees chargeable under Articles 6, 7 and 9 of the first Schedule on copies furnished by Civil or Criminal Courts or Revenue Courts or offices for the private use of persons applying for them;

Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to copies when filed, exhibited or recorded in any Court of Justice or received by any public officer;

(9) to remit the fees chargeable, under paragraph 4 of clause (a) and paragraph 2 of clause (b) of Article 1 of the second Schedule, on applications for orders for the payment of deposits in cases in which the deposit does not exceed Rs. 25 in amount:

Provided that the application is made within three months of the date on which the deposit first became payable to the party making the applications;

(10) to remit, with reference to clause (xi) of section 19 of the Act, the fees chargeable on applications for leave to occupy under direct engagement with the Government land of which the revenue is settled, but not permanently, when made by persons who do not at the time of application hold the land;

(11) to remit the fees chargeable on applications for loans under the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883 (XIX of 1883), or the Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884 (XII of 1884);

(12) to remit the fee chargeable on an application made by a person to the Collector under sub-section (2) of section 42 of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (II of 1899), for the return to that person; or the Registration Officer who impounded it, of a document impounded and sent to the Collector by a Registration Officer:

(13) to remit the fees chargeable on the following documents, namely:—

APPENDIX I.

Reductions and Remissions of court-fees in the Bombay Presidency.

The Government of Bombay Notification No. 590, dated 16th September 1921. Published in the Bombay Government Gazette, dated 22nd September 1921.

Secretariat, Fort, Bombay, 16th September 1921.

No. 590.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 35 of the Court Fees Act, 1870 (VII of 1870); as amended by Act XXXVIII of 1920, and in supersession of so much of all previous notifications under that section issued by the Governor-General-in-Council as relates to the reduction or remission of all or any of the fees mentioned in the First and Second Schedules to the said Act, in the territories under the administration of the Government of Bombay, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following reductions and remissions of the fees mentioned in the First and Second Schedules to the said Act, namely:—

(1) To remit the fees chargeable on applications presented to a Collector for refund of the amount paid to the Government for stamped paper which has become spoiled or unfit for use, or is no longer required for use and on applications for renewal of stamped paper which has become spoiled or unfit for use;

(2) to remit the fees chargeable on applications in writing, relating exclusively to the purchase of salt which is the property of the Government;

(3) to direct that, when a plaint disclosing a reasonable case on the merits is presented to any Civil or Revenue Court in such a form that the presiding Judge or officer, without summoning the defendant, rejects it not for any substantial defect but on account of an entirely technical error in form only, and so as to leave the plaintiff free to prosecute precisely the same case in another form against the same defendant or defendants, the value of the stamp on the plaint shall be refunded on presentation of an application to the Collector of the district in which the Court is situated together with a certificate from the Judge or officer who rejected the plaint that it was rejected under the circumstances above described, and that the value of the stamp should, in his opinion, be refunded;

(4) to remit the fees chargeable on—

(a) copies of village settlement-records furnished to landholders and cultivators during the currency or at the termination of settlement operations,

(b) lists of fields extracted from village settlement-records for the purpose of being filed with petitions of plaint in Settlement Courts:

Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to copies of judicial proceedings, or to copies of village settlement-records (other than lists of fields) extracted as aforesaid, which may be filed in any Court or Office;

(5) to direct that the fee chargeable on appeals from orders under section 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), shall be limited to the amounts chargeable under Article 11 of the Second Schedule;

(6) to remit the fees chargeable on security-bonds for the keeping of the peace by, or good behaviour of, persons other than the executants;

(7) to remit the fees chargeable under Articles 6, 7 and 9 of the First Schedule on copies furnished by Civil or Criminal

Courts or Revenue Courts or Officers for the private use of persons applying for them:

Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to copies when filed, exhibited or recorded in any Court of Justice or received by any public officer;

(8) to remit the fees chargeable, under paragraph 4 of clause (a) and paragraph 2 of clause (b) of Article 1 of the Second Schedule, on applications for orders for the payment of deposits in cases in which the deposit does not exceed Rs. 25 in amount:

Provided that the application is made within three months of the date on which the deposit first became payable to the party making the application;

(9) to remit, with reference to clause (xi) of section 19 of the Act, the fees chargeable on applications for leave to occupy under direct engagement with the Government land of which the revenue is settled, but not permanently, when made by persons who do not at the time of application hold the land;

(10) to remit the fees chargeable on application for loans under the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883 (XIX of 1883), or the Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884 (XII of 1884);

(11) to remit the fee chargeable on an application made by a person to the Collector under sub-section 2 of section 42 of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (II of 1899), for the return to that person, or to the Registration Officer who impounded it, of a document impounded and sent to the Collector by a Registration Officer;

(12) to remit the fees chargeable on the following documents, namely:—

(a) copy of a charge framed under section 210 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), or of a translation thereof, when the copy is given to an accused person,

(b) copy of the evidence of supplementary witnesses after commitment when the copy is given under section 219 of the said Code to an accused person,

(c) copy of a translation of a judgment in a case other than a summons case, and copy of the heads of the Judge's charge to the jury, when the copy of translation is given under section 371 of the said Code to an accused person,

(d) copy or translation of the judgment in a summons case, when the accused person to whom the copy or translation is given under section 371 of the said Code is in jail,

- (e) copy of an order of maintenance, when the copy is given under section 490 of the said Code to the person in whose favour the order is made, or to his guardian, if any, or to the person to whom the allowance is to be paid,
 - (f) copy furnished to any person affected by a judgment or order passed by a Criminal Court, of the Judge's charge to the jury or of any order, deposition or other part of the record, when the copy is not a copy which may be granted under any of the preceding sub-clauses without the payment of a fee, but is a copy which, on its being applied for under section 548 of the said Code, the Judge or Magistrate, for some special reason to be recorded by him on the copy, thinks fit to furnish without such payment;
 - (g) copies of all documents furnished under the orders of any Court or Magistrate to any Government Advocate or Pleader or other person specially empowered in that behalf for the purpose of conducting any trial or investigation on the part of the Government before any Criminal Court;
 - (h) copies of all documents which any such Advocate, Pleader or other person is required to take in connection with any such trial or investigation, for the use of any Court or Magistrate, or may consider necessary for the purpose of advising the Government in connection with any criminal proceedings;
 - (i) copies of judgments or deposition required by officers of the Police Department in the course of their duties;
- (13) to remit the fee chargeable on an application to a Collector, with respect either to liability to assessment or to the amount or rate of an assessment or for a refund of income-tax under the Indian Income-tax Act, 1918 (VII of 1918);
- (14) to remit the fee chargeable on an application presented by any person for the return of a document filed by him in any Court or public office;
- (15) to direct that, when a part of an estate paying annual revenue to the Government under a settlement which is not permanent is recorded in the Collector's register as separately assessed with such revenue, the value of the subject-matter of a suit for the possession of, or to enforce a right of pre-emption in respect of, a fractional share of that part shall, for the purposes of the computation of the amount of the fee chargeable in the suit, be deemed not to exceed five times such portion of the revenue separately assessed on that part as may be rateably payable in respect of the share;

(16) to direct that, if the amount of the fee chargeable in any case involves a fraction of an anna, the fraction shall be remitted, except where otherwise expressly provided by this notification;

(17) to remit the fee chargeable on an application for the grant of a license for the vend of stamp;

(18) to direct that no court-fee shall be charged on an application for the repayment of a fine or of any portion of a fine the refund of which has been ordered by competent authority;

APPENDIX I.

I

Reductions and remissions of court-fees in the United Provinces.

U. P. Govt. Notification No. 1231|VII—353, dated the 11th October, 1923 (Judl. Civil Department) as amended by subsequent orders.

118. Under section 35 of the Cour Fees Act 1870 (VII of 1870), as amended by the Devolution Act, No. XXXVIII of 1920, and in supersession of all previous notifications under that section, it is hereby notified that, in exercise of the power to reduce or remit, in the whole or in any part of the territories under his administration, all or any of the fees mentioned in the first and second Schedule to the said Act, the Governor in Council has been pleased in respect of the whole of the territories under his administration to make with effect from 1st November 1923, the reductions and remissions hereinafter set forth, namely—

(1) to direct that the fees chargeable on applications presented to a Collector for refund of the amount paid to the Government for stamped paper of value not exceeding Rs. 25, which has become spoiled or unfit for use, or is no longer required for use, and on applications for renewal of stamped paper of value not exceeding Rs. 25 which has become spoiled or unfit for use, shall be limited to two annas;

(2) to remit the fees chargeable on applications in writing relating exclusively to the purchase of salt which is the property of the Government;

(3) to direct that, when a plaint disclosing a reasonable case on the merits is presented to any civil or revenue Court in such a form that the presiding Judge or officer, without summoning the defendant, rejects it not for any substantial defect, but on account of an entirely technical error in form only, and so as to leave the plaintiff free to prosecute precisely the same case in another form against the same defendant or defendants, the value of the stamp on the plaint shall be refunded on presentation of an application to the Collector of the district in which the Court is situated, together with a certificate from the Judge or officer who rejected the plaint that it was rejected under the circumstances above described, and that the value of stamp should, in his opinion be refunded;

(4) to direct that the fees chargeable on appeals from orders determining any question under s. 47 or section 144 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908) and therefore having the force of decrees, shall be subject to maximum of—

(a) two rupees when the appeal is presented to the District Judge in a civil or revenue case or to the Commissioner of the Division in a revenue case; and

(b) five rupees when the appeal is presented to the High Court of Judicature at Allahabad or the Chief Court of Oudh in a civil or revenue case or to the Board of Revenue in a revenue case.

(5) to direct that the fees chargeable under paragraph 2 of clause (b) or under clause (d) of Article 1 of the second Schedule on applications for orders for the payment of a deposit shall be limited to two annas if the deposit does not exceed Rs. 10; to four annas if the deposit exceeds Rs. 10 but does not exceed Rs. 25; and to eight annas if the deposit exceeds Rs. 25, but does not exceed Rs. 50:

Provided that the application is made within three months of the date on which the deposit first became payable to the party making the application;

(6) to remit the fees chargeable on applications for loans under the Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884 (XII of 1884);

(7) to remit the fee chargeable on application made by a person to the Collector under sub-section 2 of section 42 of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (II of 1899), for the return to that person or to the Registration officer who impounded it, of a document impounded and sent to the Collector by a Registration officer;

(8) to remit the fees chargeable on the following documents, namely,—

(a) copy of a charge framed under section 210 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), or of a translation thereof, when the copy is given to an accused person;

(b) copy of the evidence of supplementary witnesses after commitment, when the copy is given under section 219 of the said Code to an accused person,

- (c) copy or translation of a judgment in a case other than a summons-case, and copy of the heads of the Judge's charge to the jury, when the copy or translation is given under section 371 of the said Code to an accused person;
 - (d) copy of translation of the judgment in a summons-case, when the accused person whom the copy or translation is given under section 371 of the said Code is in jail;
 - (e) copy of an order of maintenance, when the copy is given under section 490 of the said Code to the person in whose favour the order is made, or to his guardian, if any, or to the person to whom the allowance is to be paid;
 - (f) copy furnished to any person affected by a judgment or order passed by a Criminal Court of the Judge's charge to the jury, or of any order, deposition or other part of the record, when the copy is not a copy which may be granted under any of the preceding sub-clauses without the payment of a fee, but is a copy which, on its being applied for under section 548 of the said Code, the Judge or Magistrate for some special reason to be recorded by him on the copy, thinks fit to furnish without such payment;
 - (g) copies of all documents furnished under the orders of any Court or Magistrate to any Government Advocate or Pleader or other person specially empowered in that behalf for the purpose of conducting any trial or investigation on the part of the Government before any Criminal Court;
 - (h) copies of all documents which any such Advocate, Pleader or other person is required to take in connection with any such trial or investigation, for the use of any Court or Magistrate, or may consider necessary for the purpose of advising the Government in connection with any criminal proceedings;
 - (i) copies of judgments or depositions required by officers of the Police Department in the course of their duties.
- (9) to remit the fee chargeable on an application presented by any person for the return of a document filed by him in any court or public office;
- (10) to direct that, if the amount of the fee chargeable in any case involves a fraction of an anna, the fraction shall be remitted except where otherwise expressly provided by this notification;

(11) to direct that no court-fee shall be charged on an application for the re-payment of a fine or of any portion of a fine, the refund of which has been ordered by competent authority;

(12) to remit the fees chargeable on applications for copies of documents detailed in clause 8 supra.

(13) to remit the fees chargeable on applications presented to officers of land revenue for the suspension or remission of revenue on the ground that a crop has not been sown or has failed;

(14) to remit the fee chargeable on applications and petitions presented to a Collector, or any Revenue officer having jurisdiction equal or subordinate to that of a Collector, for advice or assistance from the Agricultural department of the province;

(15) to remit as follows the fees leviable under Articles 11 and 12 of the first Schedule on the property of,—

(i) any person subject to the Naval Discipline Act (29 and 30 Vict., C. 109), the Army Act (44 and 45 Vict., C. 58), the Air Force Act (Constitution) Act (7 and 8 Geo. 5, C. 51) or the Indian Army Act, 1911 (VIII of 1911), who is killed or dies from wounds inflicted, accidents occurring or diseases contracted while on active service or on service which is of a war-like nature or involves the same risk as active service, and (ii) any person being a Government servant, Civil or Military, who dies from wounds inflicted (a) while in actual performance of his official duties, or (b) in consequence of duties;

(a) where the amount or value of property in respect of which the grant of probate or letters of administration is made or which is specified in the certificate under Part X of the Indian Succession Act, 1925, does not exceed Rs. 50,000, the whole of the fees leviable in respect of that property;

(21) to remit the fees payable on copies of decrees and applications for execution forwarded by Civil Courts to Collectors under Rules 2 and 6, Board's Circular 25-II.

(22) to remit the fees chargeable under Articles 6, 7 and 9 for the first Schedule on copies furnished by Civil or Criminal Courts or revenue Courts or offices for the private use of persons applying for them;

Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to copies when filed, exhibited or recorded in any Court of Justice or received by any public officer.

(23) Applications made to a District Magistrate for revision of an order passed by a returning officer, under Rule 26 of the rules made under section 172 of the United Provinces District Boards Act, 1922;

(24) to remit all fees payable upon applications relating to matters connected with the ascertainment of rights to land or of interests therein presented to a record officer or an assistant record officer in any district under survey and record operations in the United Provinces;

(25) to remit all fees payable upon

(i) all petitions of appeal filed by Government servants against departmental orders of punishment; and

(ii) copies of orders against which Government servants appeal, and which they file with their petitions of appeal;

(26) to remit fee payable under the Court Fees Act, on appeals preferred under s. 128 of the United Provinces District

Boards Act, 1922 (Act No X of 1922), against an assessment or an alteration of an assessment of a tax on circumstances and property;

(27) to remit fees payable under Schedule II of the Court Fees Act upon applications presented under s. 58 (1) of the Agra Tenancy Act, 1926 (United Provinces Act No III of 1926);

PROCESS FEES

APPENDIX II.

Rules under the Court Fees Act relating to fees payable under that Act.

As framed by the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

A—Process Fees.

1. The fees in the following tables shall be charged for serving and executing the several processes against which they are respectively ranged:—
- C. O. No. 6 of 30th April 1891.

PART I.

Table of fees in the High Court, Appellate Jurisdiction.

Article 1.—In every case in which personal or substituted service of any process on parties to the cause is required—

when not more than four persons are to be served with the same document one fee .	3	0	0
when such persons are more than four in number, then the fee above mentioned and an additional fee of 8 annas for every such person in excess of four	0	8	0

Provided that, in the last-mentioned case, where such persons reside in the same or immediately adjacent villages, the additional fee may be such sum, not exceeding the amount of fee prescribed, as the High Court may, in the particular case, determine:

Rule No. 6 of 9th August 1901.

Provided, also, that, in analogous cases, where the appellant is the same, but the respondents are different, but reside in the same or immediately adjacent villages, the same rule shall apply.

Article 2.—In every case in which personal or substituted service of any process on any persons who are not parties is required—

C. O. No. 6 of 30th April 1891.

	Rs.	A.	P.
when the number of such persons is not more than four, one fee	3	0	0
when there are more than four such persons, then the fee above mentioned for the first four, and an additional fee of eight annas for every one in excess of that number	0	8	0
Article 3. —For the execution of a warrant for arrest of the person	3	0	0
Article 4. —For service or execution of any process issued by the Court, not specified in any preceding Article of this part	3	0	0

PART II.

Table of fees in the Courts of Judges and Subordinate Judges, and in the Revenue Courts when the suit in the Revenue Courts in which the process is issued is valued at a sum exceeding Rs. 1,000.

(See Rule 2 of the Rules under s. 22 infra.)

Article 1.—In every case in which personal or substituted service of any process on parties to the cause is required—

	Rs.	A.	P.
where not more than four persons are to be served with the same document, one fee	2	0	0
when such persons are more than four in number, then the fee above mentioned and an additional fee of eight annas for every such person in excess of four	0	8	0

Article 2.—In every case in which personal or substituted service of any process on any persons who are not parties is required—

	Rs.	A.	P.
when the number of such persons is not more than four, one fee	2	0	0
when there are more than four such persons, then the fee above mentioned for the first four, and an additional fee of eight annas for every one in excess of that number	0	8	0

Article 3.—Where process of attachment of property by actual seizure is issued—

	Rs.	A.	P.
(a) for the seizure under the order of attachment	2	0	0
(b) for each man necessary to ensure safe custody of property so attached, when such man is actually in possession, per diem	0	8	0

Note 1.—When process of attachment is issued in a number of cases relating to the same or neighbouring villages, the fee (a) must be paid in each case, the daily fee (b) only for the men actually employed.

Note 2.—The daily fee (b) is to be paid at the time of obtaining the process for so many days as the Court shall order, not being ordinarily less than fifteen days, and the number of days required for the coming and going of the officer; but where the officer is not to be left in possession then the daily fee is to be paid only the time to be occupied by the officer going, effecting the attachment, and returning. When the inventory filed by the judgment-creditor shows the property to be of such small value that the expense of keeping it in custody may probably exceed the value, the Court shall fix the daily fee with reference to the provisions of Order XXI, Rule 43, of the Code of Civil Procedure:

Provided that, if it appears that for any reason the number of days fixed by the Court under this note, and in respect of which fees have been paid, is likely to be exceeded, and the decree-holder desires to maintain the attachment, the decree-holder shall apply to the Court to fix such further number of days as may be necessary, and the additional fees in respect thereof shall be paid in the manner provided in Rule 3. If such additional fees be not paid within the period originally fixed and in respect of which fees have been paid, the attachment shall cease on the expire of that period.

	Rs.	A.	P.

Provided that when a sale of immovable property is set aside on applications made under O. XXI, RR. 89, 90, or 91, of the Code of Civil Procedure, or under section 174 of the Bengal Tenancy Act (VIII of 1885), any poundage or other fee charged for selling the property shall, on application, be refunded.

Provided further that no refund shall be made on the application of the decree-holder when a sale is set aside on the ground of material irregularity or fraud in publishing or conducting the sale and it appears that the decree-holder was privy thereto.

NOTE 1.—The fee under clause (a) must be paid when the process is obtained.

The percentage or poundage under clause (b) must be paid—

- (1) in a case where the purchaser is a person other than the decree-holder—at the time of making the application for payment of the proceeds of sale out of Court, as provided in Rule 4, and
- (2) in case where the decree-holder has been permitted to purchase—at the time of the presentation of his application for permission to set-off the purchase-money against the amount of his decree as provided in Rule 5.

NOTE 2.—The percentage leviable under this Article shall be calculated on multiples of Rs. 25, i.e., a poundage fee of As. 8 should be levied for every Rs. 25 or part of Rs. 25 realized by the sale up to Rs. 1,000, and in the case of the proceeds of the sale exceeding Rs. 1,000, an additional fee of As. 4 for every Rs. 25 or part thereof should be levied.

NOTE 3.—In the cases in which several properties are sold in satisfaction of one decree, only one poundage fee calculated on the gross sale-proceeds, should be levied, 2 per cent. being charged on the gross sale-proceeds up to Rs. 1,000, and 1 per cent. on such proceeds exceeding Rs. 1,000.

Article 7.—Where an order for the sale of property other than an order for the sale of distrained property under Act VIII of 1885 is issued—

(a) for proclaiming the order of sale under O. XXI, R. 66, of the Code of Civil Procedure, a fee of

(b) for selling the property, a percentage or poundage on the gross amount realized by the sale, up to Rs. 1,000, at the rate of 2 per cent. together with a further fee, on all excess of gross proceeds beyond Rs. 1,000, at the rate of 1 per cent.

Provided that, when a sale of immoveable property is set aside on applications made under O. XXI, RR. 89, 90, or 91, of the Code of Civil Procedure, or under section 174 of the Bengal Tenancy Act (VIII of 1885), any poundage or other fee charged for selling the property shall, on application, be refunded.

Provided further that no refund shall be made on the application of the decree-holder when a sale is set aside on the ground of material irregularity or fraud in publishing or conducting the sale and it appears that the decree-holder was privy thereto.

NOTE 1.—The fee under clause (a) must be paid when the process is obtained.

The percentage or poundage under clause (b) must be paid—

(1) in a case where the purchaser is a person other than the decree-holder—at the time of making the application for payment of the proceeds of sale out of Court, as provided in Rule 4, and,

- (2) in a case where the decree-holder has been permitted to purchase—at the time of the presentation of his application for permission to set-off the purchase-money against the amount of his decree, as provided in Rule 5.

NOTE 2.—The percentage leviable under this Article shall be calculated on multiples of Rs. 25, i.e., a poundage-fee of eight annas should be levied for every Rs. 25 or part of Rs. 25, realized by the sale up to Rs. 1,000, and, in the case of the proceeds of the sale exceeding Rs. 1,000, an additional fee of four annas for every Rs. 25 or part thereof should be levied.

NOTE 3.—In cases in which several properties are sold in satisfaction of one decree, only one poundage-fee, calculated on the gross sale-proceeds, should be levied, 2 per cent. being charged on the gross proceeds up to Rs. 1,000, and 1 per cent. on such proceeds exceeding Rs. 1,000.

Article 8.—For service of any process not specified in any preceding Article of this part 1 0 0

2. Notwithstanding Rule 1, no fee shall be chargeable for serving and executing any process, such as a notice, rule, summons, or warrant of arrest, which may be issued by any Court of its own motion, solely for the purpose of taking cognisance of, and punishing, any act done or words spoken in contempt of its authority.

4. The proceeds of a sale effected in execution of any decree will only be paid out of Court on any application made for that purpose in writing, and the poundage fee for selling the property provided in clause (b) of Article 7 of Parts II, III and IV must be paid by stamps affixed to, or impressed upon, the first of such applications, whether it be or be not made by the person who obtained the order for sale, or whether it does not extend to the whole of the proceeds. No fee will be chargeable upon any such application subsequent to the first.

5. In cases in which the decree-holder applies for leave to purchase under O. XXI, R. 72, of the Code of Civil Procedure, no order to set-off the purchase-money against the amount of the decree shall be made upon the application for leave to purchase. Such order shall be made upon a petition presented after the property has been knocked down to the decree-holder at the auction-sale, and such petition shall be stamped with stamps of the value of the poundage fee due for selling the property under clause (b) of Article 7 of Parts II, III and IV.

6. Upon the hearing of such petition, the costs of execution, including the amount of the stamps attached to the petition, shall be ascertained, and shall be added to the decree; and, in cases in which the amount of the purchase-money exceeds the amount of the decree, and such costs, the decree-holder, who has so purchased the property, shall pay into Court the sum of 25 per cent. upon the balance of the purchase-money after deducting the amount of the decree and of such costs, and shall pay the balance at the expiration of fifteen days in accordance with O. XXI, R. 85, of the Code of Civil Procedure.

7. Throughout, or in any part of, the localities mentioned in the Schedule annexed to this rule, and for the periods of the year during which travelling except by boat is, in the opinion of the District Judge, impracticable, the fees chargeable for the service of processes shall be increased by 25 per cent. in order to provide for payment of the boat-hire or ferry-toll rendered necessary by the state of the country. The additional fees may, however, be reduced to 12½ per cent. over the fees ordinarily leviable at the discretion of the District Judge in any part of the district where, or at any season of the year when, the levy of the larger amount is found to be unnecessary.

Note 1.—The process-server's boat-hire passed under this rule should alone be included under the head of "Process-serving Charges" under "Special Contingencies."—Vide Resolution of the Financial Department of the Government of Bengal dated the 4th August, 1890.

Note 2.—The fees levied from parties on account of boat hire should be realised in court-fee stamps. If the District Judge finds that the total annual realization of boat hire exceeds the amount necessary to be paid out as boat hire in the course of the year, he should exercise the discretion given him by Rule 7 above in such a way as to reduce the total annual realisation on account of boat-hire to the amount necessary to be expended for that purpose. Such fees shall be entered in column 7 of Form No. M (60), volume 2 for the purpose of ascertaining whether the total annual realisation of boat-hire in court-fees covers the total annual expenditure on account of boat-hire.

8. (a) In such districts or parts of districts as are not for the time being subject to Rule 7, when, in order to the service of any process, the peon has to cross a ferry then the amount, if any, legally eligible as toll shall be paid by the Court executing such process from its permanent advance.

(b) The permanent advance mentioned in this Rule is the special permanent advance sanctioned by the Local Government for the purpose of the Rules.

9. In cases in which the process is to be served in the jurisdiction of another Court, the proper fee chargeable under Rule 1 read with Rule 7 shall be levied, in the manner above directed, on the application for the transmission of the process to that Court, and a note shall be made on the process stating that this has been done. A Court, which receives from another Court, whether in the same Province or not, a process bearing a certificate that the proper fee has been levied, shall cause it to be served without further charge.

NOTE 1.—The fees paid in pursuance of these rules must, in all proceedings, be deemed and treated as part of the necessary and proper cost of the party who pays them.

NOTE 2.—By arrangement between the Government of India, and His Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad, civil processes for service or execution within His Highness's territories will be issued and served in accordance with the above rule.

Processes issued by Civil Courts in His Highness the Nizam's territories, will be served or executed in the province of Bengal Presidency, free of charge.

NOTE 3.—As regards the service of processes and execution of decrees in the Chittagong Hill Tracts see Chapter I, Rules 41 and 87.

NOTE 4.—Process issued by Courts in India for service in Mauritius must be accompanied by a remittance sufficient to meet the cost of service. A sum of Rs. 32 is considered likely to cover such cost.

In the case of summons intended for service on a person in Mauritius, the procedure indicated in Rule 25, Order V of the Code of Civil Procedure should be adopted whenever possible in preference to effecting service through the Mauritius Government.

III.—PROCESS-SERVERS.

Rules framed by the High Court under Clause (iii) of Section 20 of Act VII of 1870.

1. The following monthly salaries shall be allowed to peons employed in the service or execution of processes of the Civil Courts in Bengal.

Districts.	Salary.
Process-servers in A. districts viz. , Calcutta, Howrah (Sadar), Darjeeling and 24-Perganas (Sadar) .	Rs. 18-1 5-22.
Process-servers in B. districts, that is, all districts except those included in Group A.	16-1 5-20.

Rules framed by the High Court under section 22 of Act VII of 1870.

2. The Judge of every district shall ascertain the average number of original processes issued from his own Courts and Courts subordinate thereto, during the immediately preceding three years.

For the purpose of this rule all copies of a process (whether it be a summons, warrant, notice or whatever its description) served in one village in one case by a process-server at one and the same visit, shall be reckoned as one original process; while copies served in the same village on separate visits or in different villages, shall be reckoned as so many original processes as the number of different villages or separate visits to the same village. Thus where 5 copies of a process are served on 5 different persons in the same village in one visit by a process-server, this will be reckoned as a service of one original process; while where they are served in the same village on 5 separate visits, or in 5 different villages, this will be reckoned as a service of 5 original processes.

3. (a) Omitted.

3. (b) As regards the Courts of Small Causes at Munshiganj, Sealdah, the District Judges of Dacca, and the 24-Parganas, respectively, shall fix the number of original processes which each of the process-serving peons employed in these Courts shall be considered capable of executing during the year.

4. Where there are, in any district, several Courts of one class, the District Judge may authorize the appointment of such aggregate number of peons for all such Courts as may suffice for the execution of all the processes issued by such Courts, and may from time to time apportion such peons among such Courts as may appear necessary.

IV—COPIES.

A fee of 4 annas shall be charged for searching for all documents of which copies whether certified or uncertified are required. This fee shall be levied by means of a court-fee stamp to be affixed to all applications for information or copies, except such copies as the law requires to be given free of cost. The stamp shall, in case of applications for copies in Form No. (M.) 181 in volume II of the Rules and Circular Orders, be in addition to the two annas stamp required under Article 1 (a), Schedule II of the Court Fees Act (VII of 1870) as amended by the Bengal Court Fees (Amendment) Act, 1922, on such applications. In the case of applications for information the searching-fee shall be the only fee required to be affixed to Form No. (M) 180 in volume No. 2 (of the Rules and Circular Orders). One searching-fee shall only be charged for any number of copies taken from the same record and included in the same application. No searching-fee shall be charged in respect of copies of papers which have not been deposited on the racks of the record-room.

NOTE 1.—The searching-fee is intended to meet all cases of search; no distinction is made between searches which entail a small amount, and those which require a large amount of labour.

NOTE 2.—As regards applications for copies under the Court Fees Act, 1870, Schedule II, Article 1 (a), paragraph 5, as amended by the Bengal Court Fees Amendment Act, 1922, only one application with a single court-fee stamp of two annas is necessary when a copy is applied for any number of documents on the same record; but when copies are required of documents in more than one record, there must be separate applications with a separate stamp on each.

NOTE 3.—In connection with applications for search of documents and the like, in a Collector's office, the searching-fee should be remitted by the Civil Court to the Collector in court-fee stamps and not in cash.

2. In all Civil Courts, a uniform charge shall be made for Rule No. 12 of 1892 the preparation of manuscript copies amended by Rule No. 3 whether certified or uncertified, at the of 1905, framed under the rate of 4 annas per folio. These terms, Charter Act.

it is to be carefully explained to all subordinate officers, merely denominate a certain quantity of manuscript: the folio to consist of 150 words English or 300 words Vernacular, four figures counting as one word.

3. (a) This charge shall be levied by means of an impressed stamp of 4 annas on each sheet of paper corresponding with the folio to be provided by the applicant for a copy. Each of these sheets shall contain a folio, that is, 150 words English or 300 words Vernacular. As there are 25 lines in each sheet, each line shall contain, as nearly as possible, 6 words English or 12 words Vernacular.

(b) In the case of type-written copies, certified or uncertified, the following uniform charges shall be made, viz. :—

(1) The impressed stamped paper of four annas, referred to in the preceding paragraph, for copies of documents containing 150 type-written words or less.

(2) The same impressed stamped paper of 4 annas, with an adhesive stamp of 4 annas, affixed thereto, for copies of documents containing from 151 to 300 type-written words; and

- (3) The same impressed stamped paper of 4 annas, with an adhesive stamp of 8 annas affixed thereto, for copies of documents containing from 301 to 450 type-written words. These sheets should be used for copies of lengthy documents. For the concluding portion of such documents, the stamped paper (1), (2), or (3) should be used, according to the number of words remaining to be typed.

(c) These charges, it will be seen, correspond exactly with the charges for manuscript copies, viz., 4 annas for a folio of 150 English words. The sheets will be divided into three equal parts by blue lines, each part being intended for 150 type-written words. In the case of the charges (2) and (3) above, the adhesive stamp will be affixed across the perforated line on the top of the sheet of the impressed stamped paper.

4. In the case of certified copies, the court-fee chargeable under the Court Fees Act, 1870, as amended by the Bengal Court Fees (Amendment) Act, 1922, should be levied by affixing the necessary stamps to the first folio of the copy.

5. Uncertified copies may be converted into certified copies, after comparison with the originals, upon the application of the person to whom they have been granted, and upon his filing with such application the necessary court-fee stamps required by law.

6. When an applicant requires his copies to be furnished on the day of application, an extra fee of one rupee (or, if the copies exceed four folios, of 4 annas for each folio) shall be charged on all copies so furnished, to be levied from him by a court-fee stamp, which should be affixed to the application for the copy, and be entered in the Register of Court-fee Stamps. Care, however, is to be taken that other applicants for copies do not materially suffer by the arrangement. If the granting of other copies be much delayed for this rule, an extra hand ought to be told off to furnish their copies.

7. In the case of maps and plans, no general rule can be laid down. In each case, a charge will have to be fixed with reference to the difficulty or intricacy of the work to be done. Half will be paid to the copyist and half credited to Government on account of examination fees and cost of materials.

8. All copies, whether certified or uncertified must, before issue, be examined by a salaried officer; the copies themselves will, in all cases, be made by licensed copyists, who will be remunerated at the rate of 2 annas per folio.

Note.—The duty of examining copies should, as a rule, be entrusted to the Comparing or Examining Clerks, and if there is none in the office, to the Head Clerk, or Sherishtadar. The copyists and typists must not be allowed to examine for each other.

9. A certified copy must be "certified to be a true copy," must bear the seal of the Court, and must be signed in full, if not by the presiding officer, then by officer hereinafter named, viz. :—

At the headquarters of a District—in the case of copies of judicial documents not being wills

—by the Serishtadar;

in the case of copies of other documents including copies of wills—by the Head Clerk:

In Courts of Small Causes constituted under Act IX of 1887—

all certified copies—by the Head Clerk;

In other Courts at out-station—

all certified copies—by the Serishtadar.

In every case, the certifying officer will append to his signature the words "authorized under section 76, Act I of 1872."

The words "Certified to be a true copy" and "Authorized under section 76, Act I of 1872," may be impressed by means of a stamp.

Note.—Uncertified copies should only be marked as "examined," and initialled by the Examiner.

10. Half of the charge of 4 annas per folio, levied by means of impressed stamp, represents the payment of Government, on account of the salary of Examiners, cost of paper, etc., the remaining one-half will represent the earnings of the section-writers, whose account will be made up monthly, and the amount due to each paid out of contingencies. Those payments must be checked at the time with upper part of each stamp, which, when the copy is ready must be torn off from each sheet along the perforated lines and then endorsed with the copyist's name, and kept till the end of the month. Care must be taken to see that nothing in excess of two-thirds of the amount realized in stamps is paid away.

11. To prevent the risk of stamped slips being used more than once, the officer passing a copyist's account will, after checking it as directed, tear up the slips to pieces, and cause them to be burnt in his presence. A certificate that this has been done must be attached to the contingent bill on which the copyist's fees are drawn.

12. To protect the interests of the Government, care must be taken to see that all copies issued from Courts are prepared on the prescribed stamped paper; they must be written on one side of the sheet only, and must not contain more than authorized number of words. On the other hand, care must be taken to see that applicants are not imposed upon by the copyist's spreading their writing over a larger number of sheets than is necessary. By insisting on the number of lines in each sheet being uniform, control may easily be exercised in this matter, the number of words in few of the lines of each folio being checked.

13. Under ordinary circumstances, the time for furnishing the copies required shall not be later than 1 P.M. of the fifth open day after the presentation of the application.

14. When a copy of a decree, judgment or order is granted, the following particulars must invariably be recorded on the back of the copy itself, and in the form given below, for the information of the Appellate Court (section 12, Act IX of 1908, the Indian Limitation Act) :—

Date of application for the copy.

Date of notifying the requisite number of folios and stamps.

Date of delivery of the requisite folios and stamps.

Date on which the copy was ready for delivery.

Date of making over the copy to applicant.

Cost of Copy.

CRIMINAL.

Rules framed by the Calcutta High Court.

1. Charge for Copies.—(a) In all Criminal Courts, a uniform charge shall be made for the preparation of copies, whether certified or uncertified, at the rate of 4 annas per folio. This term, it is to be carefully explained to all subordinate officers, merely denominates a certain quantity of manuscript: the folio to consist of 150 words English, or of 300 words Vernacular, 4 figures counting as one word.

(b) This charge shall be levied by means of an impressed stamp of 4 annas on each of paper corresponding with the folio to be provided by the applicant for a copy. Each of these sheets shall contain a folio, that is, 150 words English or 300 words Vernacular. As there are 25 lines in each sheet, each line shall contain as nearly as possible 6 words English or 12 words Vernacular.

(c) All copies, whether certified or uncertified, must, before issued, be examined by a salaried officer. The copies themselves will in all cases, be made by section writers, who will be remunerated at the rate of 2 annas per folio.

(d) Uncertified copies may be converted into certified copies upon the application of the person to whom they have been granted, and upon his filing with such application the necessary 12-anna court-fee stamps required by law.

(e) Certified copy must be "certified to be a true copy," must bear the seal of the Court, and must be signed in full, if not by the Presiding Officer, then by the officer hereinafter named, viz.:—

At the head-quarters of a District—

all certified copies—by the Head Clerk of the Court of the District Magistrate:

In Court at Sub-divisions—

all certified copies—by the Head Clerk of the Court of the Sub-divisional Magistrate.

In every case the certifying officer will append to his signature the words "Authorized under section 76, Act I of 1872."

The words "Certified to be a true copy" and "Authorized under section 76, Act I of 1872," may be impressed by means of a stamp.

(f) One-half of the charge of 4 annas per folio, levied by means of impressed stamp, represents the payment to Government on account of the salary of Examiners, cost of paper, etc., the remaining one-half will represent the earnings of the section-writers, whose accounts will be made up monthly, and the amount due to each paid out of contingencies. These payments must be checked at the time with the upper part of each sheet, which, when the copy is ready, must be torn off from each sheet along the perforated lines, and then endorsed with the copyist's name, and kept till the end of the month. Care must be taken to see that nothing in excess of two-thirds of the amount realized in stamps is paid away.

(g) To prevent the risk of stamped slips being used more than once, the officer passing the copyist's account will, after checking it as directed, tear up the slips to pieces, and cause them to be burnt in his presence. A certificate that this has been done must be attached to the contingent bill on which the copyists' fees are drawn.

(h) to protect the interests of the Government, care must be taken to see that copies issued from the Courts are prepared in the prescribed stamp paper: they must be written on one side of the sheet only, and must not contain more than the authorized number of words. On the other hand, care must be taken to see that applicants are not imposed upon by the copyists spreading the writing over a larger number of sheets than is necessary. By insisting on the number of lines in each sheet being uniform, control may easily be exercised in this matter, the number of words in a few of the lines in each folio being checked. The business of a copyist is (like most other occupations) one calling for skill, and greatly dependent for its successful practice on experience. Copyists, therefore, must possess or acquire skill in their business, or they ought not to be retained. Copyists who fail to do their work satisfactorily must be removed.

(i) When an applicant requires his copies to be furnished on the day of application, an extra fee of one rupee (or, if the copies exceed four folios, of 4 annas per each folio) shall be charged on all copies so furnished, to be had from him by a court-fee stamp, which should be affixed to the application for the copy, and be entered in the Register for Court-fee Stamps. Care, however, is to be taken that other applicants for copies do not materially suffer by the arrangement. If the granting of other copies be much delayed by this rule, an extra hand ought to be told off to furnish their copies.

(j) Under ordinary circumstances, the time for furnishing the copies required shall not be later than 1 P.M. of the fifth open day after the presentation of the application.

(k) When a copy of a judgment, sentence, or order is granted, the following particulars must invariably be recorded in the back of the copy itself, and in the form* given below for the information of the appellate Court (section 12, Act IX of 1908) :—

Date of application for the copy.

Date of delivery of requisite stamped sheets.

Date on which the copy was ready for delivery.†

Date of making over the copy to the applicant.

COST OF COPY.

(l) In the case of certified copies, the court-fee chargeable under the Court Fees Act should be levied by affixing the necessary stamp to the first folio of the copy.

(m) In the case of maps and plans, no general rule can be laid down. In each case a charge will have to be fixed with reference to the difficulty or intricacy of the work to be done. Half will be paid to the copyist and half credited to Government on account of examination fees and cost of materials.

In criminal cases, parties are entitled to obtain copies, certified or uncertified, or any portion of the record of trial. This ruling covers such Police-papers as may be made use of as evidence at the trial. As regards other Police-papers, the High Court can pass no order.—H. C. 1972 (1880).

Complainants must pay copying fees whenever they want copies. But an accused is, under section 371 of Act V of 1898, entitled, in cases other than summons-cases, to a copy of the judgment absolutely free of charge, and in plain paper.—H. C. Proceedings, May, 1881.

As a general rule, copies of exhibits in a criminal case should certainly not be granted to persons who are strangers to the case. A Magistrate should use his discretion in each case, acting on the general principle that no copies should be given to a stranger without a good cause being shown.—H. C. Proceeding, 1882.

* This form is printed in the reverse of the stamped sheets and in use for copies.

NOTE.—(1) When process of attachment mentioned in Article 3 is issued in a number of cases relating to the same or neighbouring villages, the fee (a) must be paid in each case, the daily fee (b) only for the men actually employed.

(2) The daily fee (b) is to be deposited with the Cashier as peremptory receipt at the time of obtaining the process for so many days as the Court shall order, not being ordinarily less than fifteen days, and the number of days required for the coming and going of the officer; but where the officer is not to be left in possession, the daily fee is to be deposited only for the time to be occupied by the officer going, effecting the attachment and returning. When the inventory filed by the judgment-creditor shows the property to be of such small value that the expense of keeping it in custody may probably exceed the value, the Court shall fix the daily fee with reference to the provisions of Order XXI, Rule 43 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Provided that, if it appears that for any reason the number of days fixed by the Court under this note, and in respect of which fees have been paid, is likely to be exceeded and the decree-holder desires to maintain the attachment, the decree-holder shall apply to the Court to fix such further number of days as may be necessary and the additional fees in respect thereof shall be deposited in advance. If such additional fees be not paid within the period originally fixed and in respect of which fees have been paid, the attachment shall cease on the expiry of the period.

The Nazir will purchase a court-fee stamp of the amount actually incurred in deputing a peon and affix it on the process under the signature of the Presiding Officer in payment of the fees. The balance of the deposit, if any, will be available for refund to the party.

NOTE 2.—(1) When a sale of immovable property mentioned in Article 7 is set aside under section 47 or under Order XXI, Rule 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure or under section 174 of the Bengal Tenancy Act (VIII of 1885) any poundage or other fee charged for selling the property shall, on application, be refunded.

(2) The fee under (a) must be paid when the process is obtained.

The percentage or poundage under clause (b) must be paid

(1) in a case where the purchaser is a person other than the decree-holder, at the time of making the application for payment of the proceeds of sale out of Court, as provided in Rule 4 and

(2) in a case where the decree-holder has been permitted to purchase, at the time of the presentation of his application for permission to set off the purchase-money against the amount of his decree as provided in Rule 5.

(3) The percentage leviable under this article shall be calculated on multiples of Rs. 25 (i.e., a poundage fee of 8 annas should be levied for every Rs. 25 or part of Rs. 25 realised by the sale up to Rs. 1,000 and in the case of the proceeds of the sale exceeding Rs. 1,000 an additional fee of 4 annas for every Rs. 25 or part thereof should be levied).

(4) In cases in which several properties are sold in satisfaction of one decree, only one poundage fee, calculated on the gross sale proceeds should be levied, 2 per cent. being charged on the gross sale proceeds up to Rs. 1,000 and one per cent. on such proceeds exceeding Rs. 1,000.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 1 no fee shall be chargeable for serving and executing any process, such as a notice, rule, summons, a warrant of arrest, which may be issued by any Court of its own motion, solely for the purpose of taking cognizance of and punishing any act done, or words spoken, in contempt of its authority.

3. The fees hereinbefore provided, except those mentioned in the next rule, shall be payable in advance at the time when the petition for service or execution is presented, and shall except where otherwise provided be paid by means of stamps affixed to the petition in addition to the stamps necessary for its own validity.

4. The proceeds of a sale effected in execution of any decree will only be paid out of Court on an application made for that in writing, and the poundage fee for selling the property provided in clause (b) of Article 7 must be paid by stamps affixed to, or impressed upon, the first of such applications, whether it be or be not made by the person who obtained the order for sale, or whether it does or does not extend to the whole of the proceeds. No fee will be chargeable upon any such application subsequent to the first.

5. When a decree-holder happens to be the auction-purchaser his application for an order to set off the purchase money shall in addition to the stamp necessary for its own validity, be stamped with stamps of the value of the poundage-fee due for selling the property under clause (b), Article 7.

6. Upon the hearing of such petition, the costs of execution, including the amount of the stamp attached to the petition, shall be ascertained and shall be added to the decree; and in cases in which the amount of the purchase-money exceeds the amount of the decree and of such costs, the decree-holder who has so purchased the property shall pay into Court 25 per cent. of the balance of the purchase-money after deducting the amount of the decree and of such costs, and shall pay the balance at the expiration of fifteen days in accordance with Order 21, Rule 85 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

7. When in order to the service of any process, a person has to cross a ferry, the amount, if any, legally eligible as toll shall be paid by the Court executing such process from its special permanent advance sanctioned by the local Government for the purpose.

Note.—This rule will not apply to the district of Purnea and the Madhepura Munsiffi in the district of Bhagalpore or the periods of the year during which additional fees under the next succeeding rule are leviable.

8. Throughout, or in any part of the district of Purnea and the Madhepura Munsiffi in the district of Bhagalpore and for the periods of the year during which travelling except by boat is, in the opinion of the District Judge, impracticable, the fees chargeable for the service of processes shall be increased by 25 per cent. in order to provide for payment of the boat-hire or ferry-toll rendered necessary by the state of the country. The additional fees may, however, be reduced to 12½ per cent. over the fees ordinarily leviable, at the discretion of the District Judge, in any part of the district where, or at any season of the year when, the levy of the larger amount is found to be unnecessary.

Note (1).—Fractions of an anna will not be levied, less than six pies being ignored and six pies and over being treated as one anna.

Note (2).—The process-servers' boat-hire passed under this rule should alone be included under the head of "Process-serving charges" under "Special Contingencies" (vide Resolution of the Financial Department of the Government of Bengal, dated the 4th August, 1890).

9. In cases in which the process is to be served in the jurisdiction of another Court, the proper-fee chargeable under Rule 1 read with Rule 7 shall be levied, in the manner above directed, on the application for the transmission of the process to that Court, and a note shall be made on the process stating that this has been done. A Court which receives from another Court, whether in the same Province or not, a process bearing a certificate that the proper-fee has been levied, shall cause it to be served without further charge.

Note (1).—The fees paid in pursuance of these rules must in all proceedings be deemed and treated as part of the necessary and proper costs of the party who pays them.

Note (2).—By arrangement between the Government of India and His Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad, Civil process for service or execution within His Highness' territories will be issued and served in accordance with the above rule.

Processes issued by Civil Courts in His Highness the Nizam's territories will be served or executed in Bihar and Orissa free of charge.

Note (3).—Processes issued by Courts in India for service by Colonial Courts must be accompanied by a remittance sufficient to meet the cost of service.

In Mauritius, the cost of service is Rs. 3 per person in town, and to this must be added 75 per cent. mile travelling allowance for service in the country. For processes not accompanied by an English translation and requiring translation in Mauritius, an additional fee of Rs. 10 should be remitted.

Note (4).—By arrangement between the Government of India and the Chiefs of the Feudatory States named in the Schedule below, civil processes for service or execution within the territories of those states will be issued and served in accordance with the above rule.

Process issued by the Civil Courts within those territories of these states will be served or executed in Bihar and Orissa free of charge in accordance with the rule above.

Rules under S. 20 (ii). (Bombay).

Fees chargeable for serving processes in case of certain offences.

The fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the Court of any Magistrate in the case of offences, other than offences for which Police Officers may arrest without a warrant, shall be those shown in the Appended Table below.

1. In cases falling within chapters 19, 20 and 21 of the Indian Penal Code:—

- | | | |
|------|--|----------|
| i. | For every summons or notice | 4 annas. |
| ii. | For every warrant of arrest | 1 rupee. |
| iii. | For every proclamation for absconding party or witness (Criminal Procedure Code, sections 87 and 88) | 1 rupee. |
| iv. | For every warrant of attachment | 1 rupee. |

2. In all other cases the fee chargeable for every process shall be one-fourth of the fee shown in the above table.

Proviso.—No fee shall be levied on any process issued upon the complaint of any Public Officer asking as such Public Officer.

The Court may remit the process-fees, in whole or in parts, in cases other than those falling under Chapters 19, 20 and 21 of the Indian Penal Code, whenever the Court is satisfied that the complainant or the accused has not the means of paying them.

Rules under sections 20 and 22 of the Court Fees Act.

The following rules framed by the Honourable the Chief Justice and Judges of the High Court under sections 20 and 22 of the Court Fees Act VI of 1870, confirmed by the Government of Bombay and sanctioned by the Governor-General of India in Council are published for general information:—

I.—The fees at present levied for serving and executing processes issued by the High Court in its Appellate Jurisdiction shall continue to be levied.

II.—The fees chargeable by all other Civil Courts shall be those Civil Court's fees shown in the appended table.

III.—The remuneration of bailiffs, peons and other persons employed by any Civil Courts, other than the High Court, in the service and execution of processes shall be as follows:—

Scale of remuneration to bailiffs, peons, etc.

1st Class	Rs. 25	} Per mensem.
2nd "	" 20
3rd "	" 15
4th "	" 12
5th "	" 9

Remuneration to European bailiffs.

When it is necessary to entertain a European bailiff the pay of such bailiff shall be Rs. 50.

IV.—The whole number of the process-serving establishment employed by the Civil Courts in each district shall be divided into five classes receiving the respective remuneration shown in the list.

V.—Provided that no bailiff or peon shall be placed in the third class unless he is able to read and write well, nor in the fourth class unless he is able to read and write fairly.

Qualification for several classes.

VI.—In fixing the number of bailiffs and peons required to serve processes, District Judges shall consider that the average number of processes, which can be served during the year by each bailiff or peon, is as follows:—

Surat	} 1,000
Ahmednagar
Ahmednagar
Satara
Thana
Nasik

VII.—In fixing the number of subordinates require to serve processes in any Court of Small Causes, District Judges shall consider that the average number of processes, which can be served by each bailiff or peon, is as follows:—

Number of Subordinates to be employed by Courts of Small Causes.

In the Small Cause Court—

Surat	1,000
Broach	1,500
Poona	1,200
Ahmedabad
Nadiad

VIII.—When the salary of any bailiff or peon is paid by the party requiring their services (see note XII* below) additional temporary bailiffs or peons may be employed to a number not exceeding that of the men whose salary is thus paid. If no additional men are employed, the amount should be credited to Government.

IX.—The following table contains the prescribed fees As for processes and chargeable in Civil Courts in respect of proclamations.

TABLE.

Fees chargeable in Civil Courts in respect of processes and proclamations.

III. For proclamation, injunction or order and every process not otherwise provided for.	0 8 0	2 0 0

Note I.—With the sanction of the Court any party may pay the cost of proceeding by railway or any public conveyance where such is available, and in such case the process-server shall be bound to proceed by such railway or public conveyance.

Note II.—For process applied for and order to be executed as emergent the fee will be ordinary and half as much again.

Note III.—Fees how to be charged.—Where one individual is to be served in more than one capacity, e.g., personally and also as guardian of a minor or minors, only one fee is to be levied.

Note IV.—Re-issue of processes unserved.—When a process issued by a Civil Court other than a Mamlatdar's Court is returned unserved for service, a half fee only shall be charged on the occasion of each re-issue.

This rule applies whatever may be the reason which prevented service (e.g., whether the failure to serve was due to the fault of the party on whose behalf it was issued or not), and whether the identical paper is re-issued or fresh paper.

Note V.—Issue of second process on service being set aside, etc.—When the service is set aside in an inquiry under section 82, Civil Procedure Code,* or when witnesses, etc., have to be summoned a second time in consequence of the Court not sitting or not taking up, or not completing the hearing of the case on the day on which they were first summoned, no further fee is to be levied upon re-issue.

Note VI.—If a warrant has already been issued to arrest a judgment-debtor who has failed to pay the decretal amount and who has been ordered to be imprisoned in a civil jail and such warrant of arrest is in force, no further fee is leviable on the order of committal to jail.

Note VII.—Process issued by Court without fee.—No fee is to be charged for any process issued by a Court of its own motion.

Note VIII.—Exemption of proclamations.—No process-fee shall be charged on proclamations under section 10 of Regulation VIII of 1872.

Note IX.—Fees for processes, etc., in suits under Act XVII of 1879.—The fees levied for all processes in suits to which Chapter II of the Dekkhan Agriculturists' Relief Act (XVII of 1879) applies, except suits of description mentioned in section 3, clauses (w) and (x) to which an agriculturist is not a party, shall be one-half the fees which would be leviable in similar suits, to which the said Act does not apply.

Note X.—No fees shall be levied for the service of any notice or other process issued in proceedings taken under Chapter IV of the Dekkhan Agriculturists' Relief Act, XVII of 1879.

Note XI.—Nothing contained in these rules (or in any rules heretofore made by the High Court under section 20 of the Court Fees Act VII of 1870) shall apply to process issued by a Village Munsiff under Chapter V of the said Act (XVII of 1879).

Note XII.—Salary of bailiffs, etc., required from party.—

(a) When the services of one or more bailiffs or peons are required for a longer period than three days, the party on whose application the process was issued shall, in addition to the fee leviable under the above rules, be required to pay the whole salary of such bailiffs or peons for the whole period in excess of three days.

(b) The time occupied in going to and returning from the place at which service of process is to be made shall not be reckoned as a portion of the above period.

(c) If the amount payable on account of salary under the above rule shall involve a fractional part of an anna, such part shall be remitted.

X.—For the purposes of these rules the Courts of the Agents or Sardars shall be treated as District Courts and all other Civil Courts not specially mentioned, as Subordinate Judge's Courts.

No court-fee leviable on certificates of decree holders under section 258, C. P. Code.—No court-fee is leviable upon a certificate of a decree-holder under section 258 of the Civil Procedure Code, although such certificate declares that the judgment-creditor has received a small sum or a thing of less value in discharge of a larger sum due under the decree, or in complete discharge of the decree.

Any copy which on its first presentation has been duly stamped, and of which the stamp has been cancelled, may, if otherwise admissible, be used in the same or any other proceeding without a fresh stamp.

XI.—Court-fees when to be paid and how.—Before any process is issued in any court, the proper officer of the court should calculate the amount to be paid as court-fees, and should give information of such amount to the person by whom the fees are payable. Such fees should be paid before the end of the fourth day after the day on which such information is given. The court may, for sufficient reason, extend the time for payment.

The stamps received for court-fees should be affixed to the application upon which the process is to be issued.

Process to be prepared after receipt of the fees.—After the fees have been received but not before, the necessary summons, notice, warrant or other process should be prepared.

Levy of fees to be endorsed on process issued beyond jurisdiction.—When the process is to be issued beyond the jurisdiction of the court, a note should be made on the process to the effect that the proper fee has been levied.

XII.—Process issued by Courts in British territory to be served free of charge in Bombay Presidency.—A process issued by any court in British territory should be served free of charge by any court (including the Court of Small Causes at Bombay) in the Bombay Presidency, if it be certified in the process that the proper fee has been levied under the rules in force in the territory in which the court issuing the process is situated.—B. G. G., 1898, Pt. 1, p. 354.

XIII(a).—Processes to Straits Settlements how to be addressed. Fee and postage to be remitted.—Processes for service in the Straits Settlements should be forwarded to the Registrar of the Supreme Court at Singapore, Penang or Malacca, as the case may be, and should be accompanied by a sum sufficient to cover the fees for service and postage, the remittance being by a Post Office Money Order.

Sufficient time, not less than three months from the date of posting, should be allowed by courts for the service of summons and other documents on persons resident in the Straits Settlements and for the attendance of such persons before them.—B. G. G., 1900, Pt. I, p. 2365.

(b) Particulars to be given in summonses to His Highness the Nizam's territories.—In summonses sent to the Resident at Hyderabad for service on persons residing in the territories of His Highness the Nizam the name of each person's place of residence, that is, the district, village and moholla (locality), should be given in full in the summons.—B. G. G., 189, Pt. 1, p. 1161.

• In the case of summonses to be served in the City of Hyderabad a period of five weeks should be fixed for return, and in the case of summonses to be served in the districts, a period of two months—B. G. G., 1890, Pt. 1, p. 125.

124. Processes to Burma.—Processes sent for service at any place where the language is different from that of the court issuing them, should be accompanied by translations in the language of such place or English. The language of the Presidency Small Cause Court, Bombay, is English.—B. G. Notification No. 5149 of 1888 (B. G. G., 1888, Pt. I, p. 763).

125. Foreign processes issued by British Courts under the provisions of Government of India Notification No. 1890—1, dated the 20th June, 1889, are not compulsory in British India.—B. G. G., 1901, Pt. I, p. 186.

126. Processes issued by the District Civil Courts in His Highness the Nizam's Dominions direct to Civil Courts in British India for service in the Districts within the Presidency Proper, or to the Court of Small Causes at Bombay, for service within the limits of the town of Bombay, shall be duly served by the Civil Courts concerned or the Court of Small Causes at Bombay, as the case may be, as if such processes had been originally issued by those courts and returned direct to the courts issuing them.

127. Processes issued by any Civil Courts in British territory for service on persons residing in His Highness the Nizam's dominions shall be sent direct to the Districts Civil Courts* in those dominions having jurisdiction at the places where such persons reside, provided that processes for service in the City of Hyderabad and the suburbs shall be sent to the City Civil Court there.

Processes for service on persons residing in Paigah and Jagir ilakas should be forwarded to District Courts of His

* For the designation of District Courts and the names of the Districts in His Highness' dominions see B. G. G., 1889, Pt. I, p. 1161.

Highness' Government in the jurisdiction of which the Paigah and Jagir is situated and not direct to the Paigah or Jagir authorities. In such cases it should be ascertained from the parties concerned whether the person to be summoned resides in a Jagir or Paigah village, and, if so, the name of the district Court within the jurisdiction of which that village is situated.—H. C., Sup. Civ. Cir., No. 15; B. G. G., 1904, Pt. I, p. 1742.

Where the processes for service in His Highness' dominions are issued for the appearance as a witness of any person residing there, the amount of batta and travelling allowances to which the witness is entitled shall be remitted, with the process by Money Order.—B. G. G., 1899, Pt. I, p. 1161.

Processes sent by Courts for service from British India to His Highness the Nizam's dominions and vice versa will, after service, be conveyed back to the Courts of issue, whether British or Hyderabad, at single rates of postages.—B. G. G., 1901, Pt. I, p. 1432.

It is notified that general orders have been circulated by the Director-General of the Post Office of India that duly franked official correspondence on the service of His Highness the Nizam will be delivered free.—B. G. G., 1901, Pt. I, p. 1141.

Courts in British territory should send direct to the Courts of Districts concerned all summonses or commissions intended for service or execution within the limits of the territories of Mysore, and should fix such dates for their return, as will admit of their service or execution within the appointed time.—B. G. G., 1900 Pt. I, p. 2488.

Judicial notices, summonses and like judicial papers and notices in Revenue Appeals before the Mysore Darbar will be transmitted to the British authorities in India direct and not through the Resident—H. C. Sup. Civ. Cir., No. 33; B. G. G., 1906, Pt. I, p. 403.

Process of certain Courts in Native States to be served free of charge by Courts in Bombay Presidency.*—Processes issued by the Courts in Berar, Mysore, or in the territories of His Highness the Nizam, or in Gwalior, Dewas State (Senior Branch), Dewas State (Junior Branch) Rewa, Jaora, Rutlam, Dhar, Jhabua, Brawani, Ali Rajpur, Bhopal, Orchha, Datia, Panna, Ajaigarh, Charkhari, Bijawar Baoni Chhatarpur, Bharauli, "Kurwai and Narisingarh"† or by any of the Courts mentioned in the Government of India's Notification No.

4053-1-A, dated the 11th September, 1902, republished at pages 1639 to 1642 of the Bombay Government Gazette for 1902, Part 1, or in subsequent notifications to which the provisions of section 650A of the Code of Civil Procedure* have been applied, shall be served free of charge by the Courts in the Bombay Presidency.

Note.—For the Table of the Courts to which the Governor-General in Council has declared the provisions of section 650A* to apply see the list in the Stamp Manual.

132.† Processes of certain Courts in Native States to be served free.

When the name of the district where the summonsee resides is not known to the Court of issue, the summons may be forwarded to the "Indore Residency Vakil, Indore," for transmission to its destination. Criminal summonses and miscellaneous processes for the recovery of money should be forwarded as heretofore to the Resident. Processes issued by the Courts in Indore will be sent by the Courts direct and not through the Resident. The execution of a decree of Civil Court in British India can only be obtained in the Indore Courts.—B. G. Letter (J. D.), No. 32.

Processes intended for the subjects of the following States and Thakurates should be forwarded to the address of the Political Officers in whose respective charges they are shown below :—

States and Thakurates.	Address of the Officer holding the political charges.
1. Karandia, Arina and Kheri Rajpur.	The Resident at Gwalior Post Office, Gwalior Residency.
2. Kaitha.	The Resident at Indore, Indore.
3. Dewas (Senior and Junior) Begli Pathihari and Uni.	The Political Agent in Malwa, Nimuch.

G. R. (J. D.), No. 427, 21st Jan. 1909: B. G. G., Pt. I, p. 225; H. C. Sup. Civ. Cir., No. 75; cancelling G. R. (J. D.), No. 8011, 18th Dec. 1902; B. G. G., 1906, Pt. I, p. 403; H. C. Sup. Civ. Cir., No. 32, last para.

133. The Baroda Courts will serve all summonses issued by Civil Courts in British territory on the understanding that the Darbar will not be asked to enforce attendance. British Courts should serve civil summonses issued by Baroda Courts, on similar terms.—B. G. G., 1901, Pt. I., p. 186.

* See now s. 29 of Act V of 1908.

† The names of Districts and Head Quarters have been substituted by H. C. Sup. Civ. Cir. No. 66 (B. G. G., 1908, Pt. I, p. 1693) for those originally mentioned in Cir. No. 32.

133A. Summonses issued by all British Indian Courts and all Courts established or continued by the authority of the Governor General in Council in the territories of any Foreign Prince or State, if sent to the Court of the Administrator, Sachin State, or that of the Diwan while the State is under British Administration, will be served by that Court as if the summons had been issued by itself, and after being so served will be returned with an endorsement of such service under the hand of the Judge of the Court.—Bom. G. R. (P. D.) No. 6334, 22nd September 1903; H. C. Sup. Civil Circular No. 1.

134. The provisions of section 91 of the Civil Procedure Code (now Sch. I, Or. V, r. 30) allowing the substitution of a letter for a summons are to be applied in the case of all Covenanted and Commissioned Officers, Justices of Peace, First Class Subordinate Judges, First Class Magistrates of rank not below that of Deputy Collector, and First Class Sardars and other gentlemen of equal or superior rank.

135. Care should be taken to address Ruling Chiefs and gentlemen of rank in the appropriate style, which in any particular case, when necessity arises, may be ascertained from the Political Agent or the Political Department of the Secretariat. On proper occasions titles may be used.

136. When a village officer is summoned to give evidence, the summons should be served direct on such officer and a duplicate of it sent to the Mamlatdar, under whom he may be serving, for information; time being allowed, if possible, for making official arrangement for performing the duties at the village of the officer summoned.

137. A Civil Court to which summons or other process has been sent for service should make a return within the time fixed for the hearing of the cause, stating whether service has been effected or not, and if not, the reason for the non-service.

138. If a Court to which a summons has been sent for service be satisfied that the defendant is intentionally avoiding service, such Court shall itself direct substituted service to be effected in such manner as it thinks fit under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure without further reference to the Court issuing the summons.

139. In cases under first schedule I, O. V, rr. 16 and 17, Civil Procedure Code (Act V of 1908), the officer who serves the summons or notice on a defendant or respondent should immediately on his return make an affidavit before the proper officer as to the service of the summons or notice for use in case it becomes necessary under O. IX, r. 6 to prove that the summons or notice was duly served and in case the Court considers under O. XIX, r. 1 of the Code, that there is sufficient reason for ordering the fact of service to be proved by affidavit.

140. No bailiff charged with the service of a process is entitled to call upon the party interested in the service to point out the person served.

It is the duty of the bailiff to use his best efforts to effect the service and it is only when he fails, inspite of such efforts, that the Court may order the party to render help to him.

In cases where the serving officer does not know the individual on whom the process is to be served but such individual is pointed out to him, there should be a verification of the endorsement on the process by the bailiff and also by the person who points out the individual served.—H. C. Sup. Civ. Cir. No. 56; Bom. G. G., 1908, Pt. I, p. 619.

PROCESS FEES IN THE CENTRAL PROVINCES.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 20 of the Court Fees Act, 1870 (VII of 1870), as applied to the Cantonments of Mhow, Neemuch, Nowgong and Sehore, and Indore Residency Bazzars and the Civil Lines of Nowgong, and with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor-General in India is pleased to issue the following rules to regulate the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes in the said areas.

I. The Courts in the said areas shall for the purpose of levying fees for the service of processes, be divided into three grades:—

Grades.	Courts.
First	The Courts of the Agent to the Governor-General in Central India.
Second	First Appellate Courts.
Third	District Courts, Court of Small Causes and other Civil Judges and Courts of Magistrates.

II. Fees for the service of processes shall be levied in each grade of Court according to the following scale, namely:—

Nature of process.	Courts of 1st grade.	Courts of 2nd grade.	Courts of 3rd grade.
	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.
Summons, notice or other processes not being a warrant of arrest or attachment	2 0 0	1 0 0	0 4 0
Warrant of arrest	4 0 0	2 0 0	0 8 0
Warrant of attachment	4 0 0	2 0 0	2 0 0

III. A separate process shall be issued for each person summoned or arrested, or upon whom a notice is served; and subject to the Rules IV and V a separate fee shall be charged for each process.

Separate process and separate fee for each person summoned.

IV. When a service is set aside in any enquiry under the provisions of Order V, Rule 19 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, or when witnesses, etc., have to be summoned a second time in consequence of the Court not sitting, or not taking up or not completing the hearing of the case on the day, on which they were first summoned, no further fee shall be levied on re-issue. In all other cases one half of the fees shall be levied upon re-issue.

V. When any process other than a warrant of arrest or of attachment is to be served upon four or more persons being parties, one fee only shall, according to the scale in Rule II, be charged in respect of the first four processes and an additional fee, according to the subjoined scale, shall be charged for each process to be served in excess of four, provided that the aggregate amount of the fee leviable under this rule shall not exceed the maximum prescribed for each grade of Court.

Nature of process.	Courts of 1st grade.	Courts of 2nd grade.	Courts of 3rd grade.
	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.
Rates of additional fee	0 8 0	0 4 0	0 2 0
Maximum	15 0 0	10 0 0	0 2 0

VI. The stamps received for court-fees shall be applied to the application upon which the process is to be issued.

VII. A process issued by any Court in British territory whether of Civil, Revenue, or Criminal jurisdiction, or by any Court established or continued by the Governor-General in Council or by any civil or revenue Court in Native States in Central India shall be served free of charge by any Court in the said areas, if it be certified on the process that the profer fee has been levied under the rules in force in the territory in which the Court issuing the process is situated. When any Court in the said areas transmit a process for service or execution to any Court beyond its jurisdiction a certificate shall be endorsed on the process that the fee chargeable under Rule II or Rule V, as the case may be, has been levied.

VIII. Ordinarily process-servers should travel on foot when proceeding to serve or execute processes, but in special cases, the Judge of the Court issuing the process, may permit the journey to be made by Railway. In such cases the permission should be in writing and the railway fare should be paid from judicial contingencies, and not charged to the person at whose instance the process is issued.

IX. A Court may remit the process fee, in whole or in part whenever it is satisfied that the complainant or the accused has not the means of paying them.

X. No fee shall be chargeable for any process of a Criminal Court issued through the Police in cognisable cases, or for any process issued by a Court of its own motion in any case whatsoever or for any process issued upon the complaint of a public officer, acting as such officer. See Gazette of India, dated 27-9-1913, Part II, pp. 1797-99.

Rules under Sections 20 and 22 of the Court Fees Act.

MADRAS.

Rules under Sec. 20 (i).

The following Schedule of fees chargeable for serving and execution in processes issued by the High Court of Madras in its Appellate Jurisdiction, and by all Civil and Revenue Courts established within the High Court's Appellate Jurisdiction, having been framed by the High Court under section 20 of the Court Fees Act, 1870, and confirmed by the Government of Madras and sanctioned by the Governor-General of India in Council, will come into force from the 1st day of July, 1884.—Notification No. 208, dated the 16th June, 1884, Pt. I, p. 382.

	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.
With an additional fee for the services of every officer entrusted with the warrant, for each day after the third day beginning with the day on which the warrant was issued.
(e) if such officer is an Amin	0 6 0	0 8 0
(f) if such officer is a Peon	0 4 0	0 6 0
(g) if such officer is a Revenue Inspector.	0 8 0
III. For every process in execution of a Village Munsif's decree.	0 8 0
(NOTE.—If the process is not executed no further fee for re-issue shall be levied.)
IV. For proclamation, injunction or order and every process not otherwise provided for.	1 0 0	2 0 0
An additional fee being leviable after the third day as above.
V.* In respect of sales, a fee by way of poundage on the purchase money, calculated at one anna in the rupee on the first 350 rupees, half anna in the rupee on any additional sum up to Rs. 1,000, and quarter anna in the rupee on any additional sum above Rs. 1,000.

NOTE 1.—Any party may deposit the cost of proceeding by railway or any public conveyance, where such is available, and in such case the process-server shall be bound to proceed by such railway or public conveyance and the cost so deposited shall be part of the costs of the cause.

* When a sale is set aside under section 310-A, Civil Procedure Code, the amount deducted as poundage from the deposit paid by the purchaser must be refunded to him; and the judgment-debtor is expressly exempted from the liability to pay the poundage by the wording of the section itself. M. H. C. Progs., 14th February 1895, No. 133.

NOTE 2.—For process applied for and ordered to be executed as 'emergent' the fee will be the ordinary fee and half as much again.

N.B.—Each process should be paid for according to the time which it really occupies. The party must not be charged for time occupied in serving processes other than his own, but he must pay for all the days which his own process or processes would have occupied, if it or they had alone been entrusted to the server. When one applicant puts in several processes to be executed at the same time in the same locality, the charge for any additional day occupied on account of such processes may be distributed over them. (H. C. Cir., 8th September, 1894, No. 2607.)

When more than the amount required for the service of process is deposited, or when issue of process becomes unnecessary after deposit, the Courts are authorised to refund to the depositor the amount of the surplus fees in money and to charge the same to the contingent fund. (H. C. Circ. 15th July, 1873, No. 1229, Madras.)

Refunds when authorised under the above Proceedings should be granted by orders, payable on the Treasuries of the District in which the Court receiving the processes is situated. (H. C. Prods., 20th October, 1874, No. 1599.)

* A party who desires the attendance of any witness before the Court, or a Commissioner appointed to take evidence, shall bring into Court a list, in form No. 20, of the persons whose attendance he requires, stating the full name, and residence, description, of each person, and whether he is required to give evidence as an expert or otherwise or to produce any document, and in the latter case, specifying the date, if any, and description of the document, so as to identify it; and shall with such lists deposit in Court the prescribed fees for service of summons, and the total amount of the allowances to which the said persons are entitled for travelling and other expenses and in the case of an expert or scientific witness qualifying to give evidence.

•

The said allowances shall be calculated according to the scale set out below:—

An additional fee being leviable after the third day as above.	0 4 0	0 6 0
IV. For every process not otherwise provided for herein.	0 8 0	1 0 0

V. In respect of sales, a fee by way of poundage on the purchase money calculated at $\frac{1}{2}$ anna in the rupee on the first 500 rupees and $\frac{1}{4}$ anna in the rupee on any additional sum above 500 rupees.

NOTE 1.—Any party may deposit the cost of proceeding by railway or any public conveyance, where such is available and in such case the process-server shall be bound to proceed by such railway or public conveyance and the cost so deposited shall be part of costs of the cause.

NOTE 2.—For processes applied for and ordered to be executed as emergent, the fee will be the ordinary fee and half as much again.

NOTE 3.—All fees chargeable under this schedule shall be collected and dealt with in the same manner as fees chargeable under the Court Fees Act (VII of 1870).

The Punjab Process fees.

1. The Civil and Revenue Courts of the Punjab shall, for the purpose of levying process fees, be divided into three grades as shown in the annexed table:—

Grade.	Civil Courts.	Revenue Courts.
First . . .	The High Court .	The Court of the Financial Commissioners.
Second . . .	District Courts .	Courts of Commissioners.
Third . . .	Courts subordinate to the District Court.	Courts of Collectors and Assistant Collectors.

A Tribunal under the Sikh Gurdwaras Act of 1925 shall be deemed a Civil Court of the second grade.

2. Fees for the service of processes shall be levied in each grade of Court according to the following scale, namely:—

Nature of process.	Courts of 1st grade.	Courts of 2nd grade.	Courts of 3rd grade.
Summons, notice or other process, not being a warrant of arrest or of abatement.	2 0 0	1 0 0	1 0 0
Warrant of attachment . . .	4 0 0	2 0 0	1 0 0
Warrant of arrest . . .	4 0 0	2 0 0	2 0 0

NOTE.—The classification of Revenue Courts in rules and the scale of fees to be levied in them under Rule 2 have been sanctioned by the Financial Commissioners.

3. A separate process shall be issued for each person summoned or arrested, or upon whom a notice is served; and, subject to the rule next following, a separate fee shall be charged for each process.

4. When any process, other than a warrant of arrest or of attachment, is to be served upon four or more persons being parties, one fee only shall, according to the scale in Rule 2, be charged in respect of the first four processes and an additional fee, according to the subjoined scale, shall be charged for each process to be served in excess of four, provided that the aggregate amount of the fee leviable under this rule shall not exceed the maximum prescribed for each grade of Court,—

	Courts of 1st grade.	Courts of 2nd grade.	Courts of 3rd grade.
	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.
Rate of additional fee	0 8 0	0 4 0	0 2 0
Maximum	15 0 0	10 0 0	5 0 0

NOTE.—This rule is not applicable to processes issued to witnesses.

5. No fee shall be chargeable for any process of a Criminal Court issued through the Police in cognizable cases. In non-cognizable cases a fee of four annas shall be levied for every such process, whether such process be issued through the process-serving establishment or the Police.

6. A process issued by any Court in British territory, whether of Civil, Revenue or Criminal jurisdiction, shall be served free of charge by any Court in the Punjab if it be certified on the process that the proper fee has been levied under the rules in force in the territory in which the Court issuing the process is situated. When any Court in the Punjab, whether of Civil, Revenue or Criminal jurisdiction, transmits a process for service or execution to any Court beyond its jurisdiction, a certificate shall be endorsed on the process that the fee chargeable under Rule 2 or Rule 4, as the case may be, has been levied.

7. Ordinarily process-servers should travel on foot when proceeding to serve or execute processes; but in special cases, the Judge of the Court issuing the process, may permit the journey to be made by railway. In such cases the permission should be in writing and the railway fare should be charged to the budget heads. Travelling allowance of process-servers under the process serving establishment are not charged to the person at whose instance the process is issued.

PART III.

Rules under section 22.

1. The High Court shall fix, and shall from time to time, as may be necessary, alter the maximum number of process-servers to be retained for the Court of each Commissioner, District and Sessions Judge, and for each district in the province.

2. The number of process-servers to be retained in each district shall be allotted by the senior Subordinate Judge, subject to the control of the District Judge and High Court, to the various Courts of the District in such manner as shall be most convenient for the service of processes.

3. In submitting proposals with regard to the maximum number of process-servers to be retained in any district, and in distributing the process-servers retained amongst the various Courts, the senior Subordinate Judge should ascertain, and report when necessary, the number of processes issued from his own Court and from every other Civil, Revenue and Criminal Court in the district during each month of the previous year; and the maximum number of process-servers fixed for each Court shall be so many as are sufficient for the service of the largest number of processes ascertained to have been issued in any one month. In calculating the number of process-servers capable of serving such ascertained number of process, regard shall be paid to,—

- (a) the average distance travelled by the peon;
- (b) the nature of the country to be traversed and the local circumstances;
- (c) the number of process-servers by whom the processes were actually served.

4. Should it appear to the Court, on the motion of a party to a suit or proceeding, or otherwise, that, for the convenience of the parties or for some other reason, it is expedient that any process should be executed by special messenger, such process shall be so executed. Except in the case of a warrant for arrest, a special fee will be payable for such emergent service; and the Court will at the time of making its order, declare by whom the fee shall be paid and whether it shall be included in the costs of the suit or be charged to a particular party.

PART IV.

4. Except in cases of necessity, when the special leave of the Court must be obtained, no person other than a registered process-server shall be employed in the service or execution of any Civil or Criminal process; the reason for granting such leave should be recorded.

6. The total amount of the contingencies expended on process-serving establishment should not exceed ten per cent. of the cost of such establishment for the year.

8. No process shall be prepared or issued until the proper fee for the service thereof has been paid. When such fee is paid the court-fee label denoting the fee shall be affixed to the diary of process fees and immediately purchased, the process shall then be prepared, it being left to the party who applied for the process to issue it or not as he thinks fit. This will obviate the necessity for making any refund of the value of the court-fees filed in account of processes which are not eventually issued.

ALLAHABAD HIGH COURT.

COURT-FEES AND PROCESS-FEES.

1. At any District or subordinate Court, where the District Judge considers it necessary, the central Nazir or Nazir may be charged with the duty of selling impressed paper to applicants for copies. The paper will be supplied from the treasury or sub-treasury in quantities of value not less than fifty rupees, in the first instance without payment in ready money, and afterwards upon payment for last supply received. The central Nazir or Nazir may similarly be charged with the duty of selling court-fee stamps of the value of one, four, and eight annas and one rupee, which will be supplied from treasuries or sub-treasuries in quantities of value not less than fifty rupees. No commission shall be allowed on the sale by a central Nazir or a Nazir of impressed paper or court-fee stamps.

No record of sale of impressed paper need be kept; but a day book kept in the form prescribed by Rule 43.

APPENDIX IV

Rules issued by Government of Bengal under sections 27 and 34 of the Court Fees Act.

See Government of Bengal Notification No. 275-S.R., dated the 9th March, 1907 (as amended by No. 1092 Com., dated the 23rd June, 1919) as amended.

1. Adhesive and impressed stamps bearing the words "Court-fee Stamps" are called court-fee stamps; and the fees are chargeable under Act VII of 1870, shall be collected only by means of such stamps, subject to the exceptions mentioned in section 3 of the Act.

2. The treasurer at the head-quarters of a district, and, at sub-divisions, the subordinate officer Ex-officio vendors, entrusted with the custody and sale of stamps on behalf of Government, shall be ex-officio vendors, and, shall sell on behalf of Government "court-fee" stamps to licensed vendors, and to the public on application.

3. Such persons as may be licensed by the District Officers shall be licensed vendors, and shall sell to the public such stamps as are indicated in their licenses.

4. Every license shall specify the name of the licensee, the description of stamps which may be sold under the license, the place of vend, and such other matters as may be necessary, and shall be signed by the authority granting it. The license shall be revocable at any time by the authority who grants it.

Fraction of an anna to be omitted in calculating fee.

5. If, in any case, the amount of the fee chargeable involves a fraction of an anna, such fraction shall be remitted.

6. When, in the case of fees amounting to less than Rs. 25, the amount can be denoted by a single adhesive stamp, such fee shall be denoted by a single adhesive stamp of the required value. But, if the amount cannot be denoted by a single adhesive stamp, or if a single adhesive stamp of the required value is not available, the next lower value available shall be used, and the deficiency shall be made up by the use of one or more additional adhesive stamps.

of the next lower values which may be required to make up the exact amount of the fee.

7. When, in the case of fees amounting to or exceeding Rs. 25, the amount can be denoted by a single impressed stamp, the fee shall be noted by a single impressed stamp of the required value. But, if the amount cannot be denoted by a single impressed stamp, or if a single impressed stamp of the required value is not available, an impressed stamp of the next lower value available shall be used, and the deficiency shall be made up by the use of one or more additional impressed stamps of the next lower values available, which may be required to make up the exact amount of the fee, in combination with adhesive stamps to make up fractions of less than Rs. 25.

8. When the application for the required stamp is made to a licensed vendor of court-fee stamps, and such vendor is unable to furnish a single stamp of the required value, he shall give a certificate to that effect in the form below. The certificate referred to must be affixed to the document and filed with it:—

[Form of Certificate:]

“Certified that a single stamp of the value of Rs. required for this document is not available, but, in lieu thereof, I have furnished a stamp of the next lower value available, and made up the deficiency by the use of one or more ^{adhesive} ^{impressed} stamps of the next lower values available required to make up the exact amount of the fee.”]

9. No such certificate shall be required under similar circumstances from an official vendor, but the latter shall carefully observe the same principle of issuing, whenever practicable, a single stamp of the required value, or when, from any reason, this is not possible, of furnishing a stamp of the next lower value available, and of making up the deficiency by the use of one or more additional stamps of the next lower value available which may be required to make up the exact amount of the fee as directed in rules 6 and 7.

10. Any adhesive stamp which may be used under Rule 7 shall be affixed to the impressed stamp of the highest value employed in denoting the fee, or to the first sheet of the document, to be inscribed in such manner as not to conceal the value of the stamp thereon.

11. A document stamped otherwise than in accordance with the preceding rules is not properly stamped within the meaning of section 28 of the Court Fees Act, 1870.

12. When one or more impressed stamps used to denote a fee are found insufficient to admit of the entire document being written on the side of the paper which bears the stamp, so much plain paper may be joined thereto as may be necessary for the complete writing of the document, and the writing on the impressed stamps and on the plain paper shall be attested by the signature of the person or persons executing the document.

13. Every licensed vendor shall at all times have stuck up, in a conspicuous place outside the place of vend a sign-board bearing the name of the vendor with the words "Licensed Vendor of Stamps" in the vernacular language of the district. He shall also have in the place of vend his license and the Acts of the Legislature and their schedules referring to the stamps sold by him, together with these rules in English, placed so that they can be readily seen and read by purchasers.

14. Every ex-officio or licensed vendor shall insert at the time of sale to the public the name of the purchaser, the date of the sale and the signature of the vendor on the blank space left for this purpose on each adhesive court-fee stamp.

[Note.—In Calcutta and other places, where the sale of stamps of low value is so great as to render it difficult to carry out the above Rule 14 in its entirety, the Board have power to relax it to such extent, and in such a manner, as may appear necessary, provided that no such relaxation shall apply to stamps of the value over one rupee; and that, in each case, the extent and manner of the relaxation shall be distinctly stated in the order, and be published for general information (vide Notification, entries Nos. 6, 10 and 11, pages 73 and 75, Appendix A.—II, of the stamp Manual.)]

15. Every ex-officio or licensed vendor shall write at the time of sale, on the back of every impressed court-fee stamp which he sells, the date of the sale, the name of the purchaser, and the value of the stamp in full words, and shall affix his signature to the endorsement.

The licensed vendors of stamps in Calcutta at the High Court, the Customs House, the Calcutta Collectorate, the Police Court and the Small Cause Court and in the 24-Perganas at Alipore shall not be required to write at the time of sale the name of the purchaser and the date of sale on adhesive court-fee stamps sold by them upto and inclusive of the value of one rupee. They must, however, affix their signatures to such label or labels before delivery thereof to the purchaser: Provided that this relaxation of the rule shall not apply to those adhesive court-fee stamps which are affixed to impressed sheets to make up fractions of less than Rs. 25 under Rule 7 of the above rule (vide Notification, dated 22nd September, 1932).

16. Licensed vendors at all places purchasing court-fee stamps of the total value of Rs. 25 and upwards at one time by payment of ready money shall receive the same at a discount at the following rates:—

Rate of discount on court-fees. For stamps of the value of one rupee or less Re. 1-0-8 per cent.; for stamps of higher value, Re. 0-12-0 per cent.

17. No discount shall be allowed on purchase of any stamps of which the value is more than Rs. 50. Stamps above that value are procurable from the District and the Sub-Divisional Officers.

No discount on stamps of more than Rs. 50. 18. No licensed vendor shall be supplied with stamps on credit without the special sanction of Government.

19. A licensed vendor shall obtain all supplies of stamps which he is authorised to sell only from the treasury or sub-treasury of the district of which his license was granted, and shall sell stamps only at the place mentioned in his license.

20. When persons cannot be found willing to underatke the sale of judicial stamps in any locality in which the establishment of a vendor seems desirable, some person in the public service may be appointed stamp-vendor on a small salary in addition to the usual rate of discount allowed to licensed vendors. This system shall not, however, be introduced without the sanction of Government.

21. In order that the public may be provided with every facility for readily obtaining stamps in outlying localities where otherwise stamps might not always be easily available, licenses for the sale of stamps of every description may be granted to any respectable and reasonably substantial person who wishes to sell them, either as a special business, or as an addition to some other business which he carries on. At district and sub-divisional head-quarters, and in large towns where vendors are readily found, the number of them shall be such as to offer reasonable facilities to the public, but it shall be limited so as to allow of a moderate income from the sale of stamps being derived by each. Licenses may be granted to Rural Registrars or their muharrirs, and to Postmasters with the consent of the Postmaster-General.

22. Every licensed vendor shall keep such stock of the stamps which he is authorised to sell as is sufficient to meet the public demand. If he fails to do so, his license may be cancelled.

Every licensed vendor to keep a proper supply of stamps.

22A.* Every vendor licensed to sell stamps shall allow the District Officer, or any gazetted officer duly authorised by him, and, within the compounds belonging to the Civil Courts, the District Judge, or any gazetted officer duly authorised by him, at any time to inspect his work, and to examine the store of stamps in possession.

Store of stamps to be open to examination.

23. No treasurer or other subordinate officer in charge of stamps shall purchase stamps at a discount for sale on his own account to the public.

Ministerial officers not to be allowed any discount.

24. Extra precaution shall be taken to preserve the adhesive stamps from damp, and to prevent their becoming firmly fixed together by the gum on the back. The stocks shall be carefully examined and dried when necessary, and the place where they are stored shall be always kept properly dry. The sheets also, as far as possible, shall be kept face to face and never back to back.

Special care to be taken with adhesive stamps.

25. As extra precaution seems to be necessary, in the district of Darjeeling and the districts of Presidency, Orissa and Burdwan Divisions to preserve adhesive stamps from damp, the Treasury Officers of these Districts shall keep all adhesive stamps remaining in their hands in a small air-tight and locked tin box within the stamp almirah or chest.

Adhesive stamps to be kept in tin-box within the almirah or chest in some districts.

* See Bengal Government Notification No. 394-S.R., dated the 22nd April 1907.

26. Any deficiency that may be discovered in the store of stamps shall be immediately reported, Deficiency in store to both to the Controller of Printing, be at once reported. Stationery, and Stamps for information, and to the Commissioner of the Division, who shall report it to the Board.

27. The Treasury Officer shall cause the store under double locks to be opened, and the required quantity of stamps to be counted and delivered in his presence to the treasurer at the head-quarters of a district, and, at subdivisions, to the subordinate officer entrusted with the custody and sale of stamps on behalf of Government. The number and value of stamps delivered to the treasurer at head quarters, and to the subordinate officer at subdivisions, shall be entered in the store-book, and the balance struck at the time of delivery. This balance shall be attested by the initials of the Treasury Officer and treasurer at head-quarters, and of the Treasury Officer and subordinate officer at sub-divisions, both of whom shall invariably be present during the whole time that the store under double locks or any part of it remains open. The deliveries shown in the store-book shall agree with the indent as approved, and shall also agree with the entries in the account of daily sale (i.e., single-lock account) of the treasurer at head-quarters, and of the subordinate officers at sub-divisions.

28. If the treasurer at head-quarters or the subordinate officer at a sub-division requires stamps at any intermediate time, the same process shall be observed as is prescribed in the preceding rule.

29. In checking the account of daily sales of stamps as laid down in Rule 18 of the rules prescribed by the Government of India in the Resolution of the Finance Department, No. 3715-Exc., dated 30th June, 1905, the officer in charge of the depot shall see that the daily totals agree with the Accountant's Register of Stamp Sales, and initial both.

30. District Officers shall exercise a strict supervision over their treasuries in this department, and Commissioners shall, in their inspectional visits, pay particular attention to the state of the stamp account.

31. In making the half-year verification of stock on the last open days of September and March each year, a statement shall be prepared showing the number and value of each denomination of stamps as they are examined, and the verifying officer shall see, by personally testing the same, that the values shown in this statement under each denomination corresponds with the true value as ascertained by actual calculation, and that the total value of each description corresponds with the sum of the totals of each denomination. The total value of each description shall then be carried into the half-yearly certificate prescribed in Rule 36 of the Rules of the Government of India referred to in Rule 29 above.

32. Every Treasury Officer shall be held personally liable for any loss that may occur to Government during his incumbency owing to his neglect to observe the rules.

Personal liability of Treasury Officer.

33. Inspecting officers invariably, and the officer in charge of the depot from time to time, shall cross-total the entries in the register of stamps under double and single locks.

Cross-totalling of entries.

34. In sub-divisions, when the Sub-Treasury Officer is present at his station, and no account is made over to the sub-treasurer for custody under single lock, the daily account of sales mentioned in Rule 18 of the Rules of the Government of India referred to in Rule 29 shall be kept up by passing the daily sales through the account both as receipts and issues. While the Sub-Treasury Officer is away, the daily account shall be maintained like any other single-lock account.

Account of daily sales in sub-treasury.

35. When any person is possessed of impressed court-fee stamps for which he has no immediate use, or which have been spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, or when any person is possessed of two or more (or in the case of denominations below Rs. 5, four or more) court-fee adhesive labels which have never been detached from each other, and for which has no immediate use, the Collector shall, on application, repay to him the value of such stamps or labels in money, deducting one anna in the rupee, upon such person delivering up the same to be cancelled, and proving to the Collector's satisfaction that they were purchased by him with a bona fide intention to use them, that he has paid the full price thereof, and that they were so purchased, or, in the case of impressed court-fee stamps so purchased, spoiled, or rendered useless, within the period of six months preceding the date on which they were so delivered.

Refund of impressed court-fee stamps and of court-fee adhesive labels.

Provided that the Collector may, in special cases, allow refunds when application is made within one year from the date of purchase of the stamps or labels, or also, in the case of impressed court-fee stamps, within one year from the date on which the stamps were spoiled or rendered useless.

[Note 1.—Government of India Letter No. 3170-S.R., dated the 28th June 1900, to the Government of Burma; circulated with the Board's Circular Order No. 3 of August 1900:—

The Government of India has ruled that, under the rules in paragraph 1 of the Resolution in the Department of Finance and Commerce No. 132, dated the 11th January 1888, refunds of the value of impressed court-fee stamps can be granted in cases in which the plaint for filing a suit has been written on the stamps, but has not been presented to the Court, the necessity for doing so having ceased to exist.

Note 2.—See Resolution of the Government of Bengal, Financial Department, No. 687-S.R., dated the 16th November 1909, delegating power to subordinate authorities below the rank of Collector to sanction refunds of stamps—Entry No. 3, Appendix C.—IV, page 213 of the Stamp Manual.

Note 3.—Government of Bengal, Financial Department, Letter No. 210-T. S. R., dated the 21st June 1910.

In Government Order No. 19T, dated the 14th August 1874, it was decided that it is within the power of Government to waive its own rights, and to refund the value of judicial stamps, if it thinks proper to do so. It was also laid down that refunds should not, as a rule, be allowed; but that they should be permitted only under circumstances of special hardship each case being separately reported for the order of Government. In accordance with this decision, the Government of Bengal has hitherto dealt with such applications for refunds except in the case of probates and letters of administration, regarding which there are specific provisions in section 19A to 19C of the Court Fees Act, 1870.

The Government of Bengal has ruled that the power of granting refunds of judicial stamps (in cases not expressly provided for in the rules of Government) should in future be exercised by the Board, who will continue to be guided by the principles prescribed in 1874.]

36. (1) In the following cases, the full value of the stamps returned into store, less one anna in the rupee, shall be paid to the stamp-vendors:—

Refund of value of stamps to vendors less one anna in the rupee.

- (a) When the vendor resigns his license;
- (b) when the license is revoked for any fault of the licensee;
- (c) when the stamps are returned on the death of the vendor;

- (d) when the stamps are returned on the application of the vendor for leave to restore any stamps.

Refund of value of stamps to vendors less discount.

(2) In the following cases, the full value of stamps returned into store, less only the discount allowed on their sale, shall be paid to the licensed vendors:—

- (a) When stamps are returned on expiry of the license;
- (b) when they are recalled by Government;
- (c) when the license is revoked for any cause other than the fault of the licensee:

Provided that a licensed vendor may exchange unsold stamps, which are fit for use, for other stamps of the same kind. Stamps may be exchanged. Provided also that no adhesive stamp shall be received back into store unless, in case where the value of each label is not less than Rs. 5, there are at least four of such labels which have never been detached from each other.

37. When adhesive labels are attached to impressed sheets of court-fee stamps in accordance with the directions contained in Notification by the Government of India No. 3 T. S. R. dated the 14th May, 1932, such labels shall be regarded as impressed stamps for the purposes of refund under the rules.

38. When a plaint disclosing a reasonable case on the merits is presented to any Civil or Revenue Court, in such a form that the presiding Judge or officer, without finding the defendant, rejects it, not for any substantial defect, but on account of an entirely technical error in form only, and so as to leave the plaintiff free to prosecute precisely the same case in another form against the same defendant or defendants, the value of the stamp on the plaint should be refunded on presentation of an application to the Collector of the District in which the Court is situated, together with a certificate, from the Judge or officer who rejected the plaint, that it was rejected upon the circumstances above described, and that the value of the stamp should, in his opinion, be refunded.

39. The presiding officer of any Court, when adhesive court-fee stamps are used, shall, in the exercise of his discretion, be competent to issue a certificate for the renewal, free of charge, of the stamp or stamps on any document, in any case in which the re-writing of such document has, Renewal, on the certificate of the presiding officer of any Court, of adhesive court-fee stamps which have been rendered useless.

through inadvertence or accident, been, in his opinion rendered necessary, or when, after it has been duly stamped, and the stamps have been cancelled, it is found that the reason for presenting it to, or filing it in, the court has ceased to exist. Such certificate shall be sufficient authority to the Collector or officer in charge of a subdivision, as the case may be, to issue to the holder of a certificate other stamps of the value specified in the certificate, on delivery of the stamps which have been rendered useless.

40. As regards stamps used under Section 3 of the Court Fees Act in the High Court of Calcutta, the taxing-officer mentioned in Section 5 of the Court Fees Act, VII of 1870, is in the exercise of his discretion, competent to issue a certificate for the renewal, free of charge, of the stamps on any document in cases when the re-writing of such document, has, through inadvertence or accident, been, in his opinion, rendered necessary; or when, after a document has been duly stamped, and the stamps cancelled it is found that the reason for presenting it to, or filing it in, the court has ceased to exist. Such certificate shall be sufficient authority to the Collector to issue to the holder of the certificate other stamps of the value specified in the certificate on delivery of the stamps which have been rendered useless.

41. Application for refund or renewal shall be made in Contents of application. the printed form given below (which shall be obtained from the officer in charge of the Forms Department by indent in the usual way), containing the particulars required by law, with counterfoil including the receipt to be given by the Collector, and the receipt for money or fresh stamps, as the case may be to be given by the party. These forms are to be obtained from the Nazir or stamp-vendors at one pice per sheet. Stamp-vendors may obtain the forms from the Collector's office at the rate of eighty copies per rupee for retail to the public at one pice per sheet and, where such printed forms are available, they shall be used by applicants:—

Register of application. 42. The Collector shall keep a register of applications for refund or renewal in the form given below:—

REGISTER OF APPLICATION FOR REFUND OF THE VALUE OR RENEWAL OF STAMPS.

The following particulars shall be entered in this register:—

- (1) Serial number of application.
- (2) Date of application.
- (3) Name of applicant.

- (4) Number and description of stamps delivered for refund or renewal—
 - (a) Number.
 - (b) Description.
- (5) Value of each stamp.
- (6) Total value.
- (7) Abstract and date of Collector's order.
- (8) Amount of refund granted in cash.
- (9) Value of stamps allowed to be renewed.
- (10) Value of stamps returned in respect of which refund or renewal is refused.
- (11) Date of refund, renewal, or return of stamps to applicant.
- (12) Receipt of applicant or his duly-authorized agent.
- (13) Signature of Collector.
- (14) Date of despatch of stamps to the Collector of Printing, Stationary, and Stamps for destruction.
- (15) Date of receipt of Controller's certificate of destruction.
- (16) Remarks.

43. On receipt of an application, the stamped papers shall be counted, and the counterfoil attached to the form shall be filled up and returned to the applicant, who shall be told when the Collector's order will be passed.

44. The Collector shall satisfy himself that the stamps are genuine and that no marks of cancellation have been erased. He shall also carefully examine the ground of the application before granting the refund or renewal.

The Collector to examine the stamps and the ground of application.

45. If the Collector is satisfied that the applicant is entitled to the refund or renewal, he shall grant such refund or renewal, as the case may be, inserting the necessary particulars in the counterfoil attached to the application, and taking the applicant's receipt thereon.

Particulars to be noted by the Collector at the time of granting refund or renewal.

46. If the Collector thinks it necessary to require an affidavit he shall return the application for that purpose. If a deputation be thought necessary, the Collector shall take it, or have it taken at once.

Procedure to be followed when affidavit or deposition is necessary.

N. B.—The Collector shall bear in mind that it is not obligatory on him to require a deposition or affidavit in every case. It will probably be found sufficient ordinarily to have the application verified as provided in the form of application.

47. If the stamp has been brought in a district other than that in which it is presented for refund or renewal, the Collector shall refer the applicant to the Collector of the district where the stamp was purchased.

Procedure when stamp is purchased in different districts.

48. Applications for refund or renewal may be received by either the Collector or the Stamp Deputy Collector: in the latter case, they shall be sent immediately to the Collector for orders.

Who to receive application.

49. The Collector may only, where the circumstances of the case are very exceptional, call for a report from the treasurer.

Treasurer's report necessary in exceptional cases.

50. Refunds shall, if possible, be made on the day of application.

Refunds when to be made.

51. An application for refund of the value or renewal of stamps purchased at a sub-division may be received by the Sub-divisional Officer, who shall forward it, with the stamps, and with the deposition of the applicant if a deposition is considered necessary, to the Collector for disposal.

Procedure when application is made to Sub-divisional Officer.

52. Columns 1 to 6 of the register referred to in rule 45 above shall be filled up on the day any application is filed, and the remaining columns when it has been disposed of.

Entries in the register of application where to be filled in.

53. Where an application for refund of the value or renewal of spoilt or useless stamps is sanctioned, or a deposition, affidavit, or further evidence demanded in support of it, if the amount of the refund or fresh stamps are not taken, or the deposition, affidavit, or further evidence called for is not given, as the case may be, within one year of the date of the order, in either case, the application shall be struck off, and the stamps sent to the Controller of Printing, Stationery, and Stamps for destruction.

Circumstances under which applications may be struck off and the stamps destroyed.

54. Where a refund or renewal is granted, the District Officer shall then and there punch or mark the stamp in such a way that it can never be presented again.

Cancellation of stamp after grant of refund.

55. At convenient intervals, not less frequent than once a fortnight, stamped papers, in respect of which refund or renewal has been granted, shall be forwarded by the Collector to the Controller of Printing, Stationery and Stamps in a sealed packet for destruction, together with an extract from the refund register relating to each stamp.

Cancelled stamps to be forwarded to Controller of Printing, Stationery and Stamps.

On receipt of the stamps, the Controller will cause them to be carefully examined to ascertain that they are genuine, and in order; and any irregularity which the Controller may notice shall be communicated to the Collector, who will report to the Board of Revenue.

N. B.—The despatch of stamps in respect of which refund or renewal has been granted shall be so arranged that the first fortnightly batch may reach the Controller of Printing, Stationary and Stamps not later than the tenth of a month, and the second not later than the twentieth (Board's Proceedings of 10th May 1900, Nos. 183-84, and of 25th August 1900, No. 81, Collection 10, Files 37 and 646 of 1900).

56. If the Controller finds that the number and value of the stamps received correspond with the extract from the Refund Register, and that the stamps are genuine, he will destroy them, and certify to the Collector that he has done so.

Destruction of stamps by Controller of Printing, Stationery and Stamps.

APPENDIX V

Rules for Refund of the Value of Court Fee Stamps.

I. G. Resolution, No. 132, dated the 11th January, 1888.

(Amended in Madras by Notification dated the 27th March, 1929.)

In supersession of all existing orders on the subject, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to authorise the refund of the value of impressed court-fee stamps and of court-fee adhesive labels in accordance with the following rules:—

1. (a) When any person is possessed of impressed court-fee stamps for which he has no immediate use, or which have been spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, or
- (b) When any person is possessed of two or more (or in the case of denominations below Rs. 5, four or more) court-fee adhesive labels which have never been detached from each other and for which he has no immediate use, the Collector shall, on application, repay to him the value of such stamps or labels in money, deducting one anna in the rupee, upon such person delivering up the same to be cancelled and proving to the Collector's satisfaction that they were purchased by him with a bona fide intention to use them, that he has paid the full price thereof and that they were so purchased or, in the case of impressed Court-fee stamps, so purchased, spoiled or rendered useless, within the period of six months preceding the date on which they are so delivered. Provided that Local Governments may, in special cases, allow refunds when application is made within one year from the date of purchase of the stamps or labels, or, also in the case of impressed Court-fee stamps, within one year from the date on which the stamps were spoiled or rendered useless. The Local Governments may at their discretion delegate this power to any subordinate authority.
2. When a licensed vendor surrenders his license or ~~dies~~, the Collector may at his discretion, if he considers that the circumstances justify the application, repay to him or his representatives, as the case may be, the values of stamps and labels, not spoiled or rendered unfit for use, returned into the Collector's store, deducting one anna in the rupee; or he may issue stamps and labels of other values in exchange, provided that, in the case of adhesive Court-fee labels their value may not be refunded nor stamps and labels of other values issued in exchange, unless, in cases where the value of each label is not less than Rs. 5, there are at least two such labels which have never been detached from each other; and in cases where the value of each label is less than Rs. 5, unless there are at least four such labels which have never been detached from each other.

3. When adhesive labels are attached to impressed sheets of Court-fee stamps in accordance with the direction contained in Notification by the Government of India in this Department, No. 361, dated the 18th April, 1883, such labels should be regarded as impressed stamps for the purposes of refund under these rules.

Refund in cases of hardship.

In Government Order No. 19-T dated the 14th August, 1874, it was decided that it is within the power of Government to waive its own rights, and to refund the value of judicial stamps if it thinks proper to do so. It was also laid down that refunds should not, as a rule be allowed, but that they should be permitted only under circumstances of special hardship, each case being separately reported for the orders of Government. In accordance with this decision, the Government of Bengal has hitherto dealt with such applications for refunds except in the case of probates and letters of administration regarding which there are specific provisions in sections 19A to 19B of the Court-fees Act, 1870. The Government of Bengal has ruled that the power of granting refunds of judicial stamps (in case not expressly provided for in the rules of Government) should in future be expressed by the Board, who will continue to be guided by the principles prescribed in 1874.—*Vide Letter No. 210—T.
